

Updated Stanford Notes (12/14/07)

- Freshman libero Gabi Ailes shattered the Stanford single-season dig record against USC on Thursday night. The freshman needed four digs to break the record set by Kristin Richards in 2004 (502), and turned in one of her top performances of the season with 25. The Bellevue, Neb. native, now has 523 digs for her career, an all-time best mark.
- Senior setter Bryn Kehoe also bested a single-season record against USC on Thursday. With one of the best performances of her career (70 assists), Kehoe surpassed her own single-season assist record she set as a freshman in 2004, and now has a program-best 1,680 assists on the year.
- Junior middle blocker Foluke Akinradewo hit .523 against USC, 21 points above her nation-leading hitting percentage. She is now hitting .503 on the season, just one point shy of the NCAA single-season hitting percentage record (.504) set by Maria Andonova of Florida A&M in 2004.
- Four Stanford players were named AVCA All-Americans on Wednesday, equaling a program-high set in 1984, 1996 and 2006. Cynthia Barboza, Foluke Akinradewo and Bryn Kehoe were all members of the First Team, while freshman Alix Klineman earned a spot on the Second Team.
- Freshman outside hitter Alix Klineman posted just the fourth 30-dig performance in school history on Thursday against USC. The only other Cardinal players to do so were Gabi Ailes against USC earlier this year (31) and both Kerri Walsh (30) and Lisa Sharpley (30) in the NCAA Championship match against Penn State in 1997. Klineman is leading the team with 4.61 kpg in the NCAA Tournament.
- Penn State and Stanford have met in the NCAA Final twice, with the Cardinal winning in 1997 and Penn State winning in 1999. Stanford is 2-1 against the Nittany Lions in the NCAA Tournament. Stanford and Penn State are the only two schools to participate in all 27 NCAA Tournaments.
- Bryn Kehoe continues to lead the nation in assists with 14.48 apg going into the NCAA Final.
- Stanford outhit USC on Thursday in the NCAA Semifinal match, .265 to .246. Stanford has now outhit 33 of its 34 opponents.
- Foluke Akinradewo's 26 kills against USC matched a career-high. The middle blocker also had 26 kills against Missouri in last year's NCAA Second Round. Akinradewo's nine blocks in the match were a season-high.
