The Game At A Glance

Less than 48 hours after its last game - a hard-fought win over Saint Francis - St. Bonaventure returns to action to host another Northeast Conference member, Central Connecticut State.

This game is the second of a three-game homestand for St. Bonaventure, which is off to a 3-2 start including an unblemished 3-0 mark at the Reilly Center. Seniors Ahmad Smith and Patrick Lottin continue to lead the way for the Bonnies, combining to average 37.6 points per game.

Central Connecticut State is a veteran, road-tested team that has no problem scoring points. The Blue Devils, who average 76 points per game, have won their last two games, both on the road.

Home Cooking Helps

St. Bonaventure is 3-0 at home this season. The program's last 3-0 start at home was in 2001-02 (the Bonnies won their first five home games that season). St. Bonaventure coach Anthony Solomon has repeatedly stated his desire to regain the home court advantage that was lost last season. Part of that is simply playing more games at the Reilly Center. The Central Connecticut State game is the Bonnies' fourth home game of the year and part of a stretch of five games out of seven at home to start the season.

Scouting Central Connecticut

The Blue Devils have won two games in a row, both on the road, to improve to 3-2. Central Connecticut knocked off Binghamton 69-66 on Nov. 28 and Harvard 87-79 on Dec. 3. Tonight's contest is CCSU's fourth straight road game. Coach Howie Dickenman, who is in his 10th season, relies on a small lineup but that has not prevented the Blue Devils from scoring - they average 76.6 points per game and have five players who average in double figures. Senior guard Justin Chiera scored a career high 27 points in the win at Harvard and is averaging 18.6 points per game. Guard Tristan Blackwood is at 16.0 points per game followed by guard Javier Mojica (13.2), power forward Obie Nwadike (13.0) and Lenny Jefferson (10.5). Nwadike, who stands just 6-4, averages 10.2 rebounds. CCSU is shooting 45 percent from three-point range led by Chiera, who is 25-50.

Last Game Recap

Saturday night at Reilly Center, a strong defensive effort enabled the Bonnies to overcome a poor shooting night and grind out a 69-65 win over a feisty Saint Francis club. Ahmad Smith scored 21 points and Patrick Lottin had 20 to lead the Bonnies, who shot just 37 percent from the field including 2-17 from three-point range. St. Bonaventure never led by more than seven points, but the visitors were held to three field goals over the final 5:16. Michael Lee recorded career highs of 10 rebounds and three blocks. The Red Flash shot 34 percent from the field.

Early Improvements Obvious

While it is very early in the season, it is obvious that St. Bonaventure is a dramatically improved team from last season. In addition to the record, some of the other areas:

- Rebounding - a margin of +6.4 (compared to -4.6 last season).
- Assist-to-Turnover ratio - 1.6 (0.8).
- Defensive field goal percentage - .415 (.490).
- Field goal percentage - .460 (.390).

Smith Off To Super Start; Is Named A-10 Player of Week

All-Conference senior guard Ahmad Smith has picked up where he left off last season - and then some. Smith, who was named the Co-Player of the Week in the Atlantic 10 for the period ending Dec. 3, is averaging 20.2 points and 9.2 rebounds per game, both team highs. He already has four double-doubles (21/10 vs. Saint Francis, 16/10 vs. West Virginia, 30/10 vs. Canisius and 11/10 vs. Robert Morris).

Smith was named to the Atlantic 10's preseason All-Conference Second Team in voting of the A-10 coaches and media. Last year, Smith was a third team All-Atlantic 10 selection when he was the only A-10 player who ranked in the top 10 in the conference in 2004-05 in the three major statistical categories: scoring (8th), rebounding (10th) and assists (9th). At a strong 6-foot-5 and 210 pounds and with the skill of a point guard, Smith is capable of playing just about any position on the floor. A look at the progression in Smith's statistics over his career:

	PPG	RPG	APG
Freshman	6.0	2.3	1.8
Sophomore	10.3	5.9	2.1
Junior	14.2	6.2	3.5
Senior	20.2	9.2	3.7

Hawkins Starts Career Well

Freshman guard A.J. Hawkins has enjoyed a solid start to his college career. The 6-5 swingman has started every game. He was named the Atlantic 10 Conference men's basketball Rookie of the Week for the period ending Nov. 19 after he opened his career with 12 points, four rebounds and two assists in a win over Robert Morris. Hawkins is averaging 9.4 points, 4.0 rebounds, 2.8 assists and 1.0 steals per game.

Lottin From Long Range

Senior forward Patrick Lottin shot 35 percent from three-point range last season to rank 10th in the Atlantic 10 in that category, but no one could have predicted the kind of shooting he would display to start this season. Through four games, Lottin is 16-31 (.516) from three-point range. He made seven three-pointers in the season-opener and followed that with three more in each of the next three games.

Lottin has 151 three-point field goals in his career, good for sixth place on St. Bonaventure's career three-pointers list: St. Bona Career Three-Point Field Goals

Pl.	Name	3-Pt. FG
4.	Nii Nelson-Richards	181
5.	Patrick Lottin	151
6.	Patricio Prato	142

Lottin In His Fifth Season

Senior forward Patrick Lottin is in his fifth season at St. Bonaventure. The "veteran" of the roster in terms of both experience and age, Lottin is 24 years old. His career has been marked by two major injuries that cost him most of one season and limited his effectiveness in others. Lottin received a medical hardship waiver from the NCAA for the 2001-02 season after he suffered a ruptured Achilles tendon in a game at Alabama. Lottin suffered a second major injury in April 2004, when he tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee. He underwent reconstructive surgery, returning in time for last season but playing at less than 100 percent.

"I am anxious to play a season at full strength," Lottin said. "I'm confident that we are headed in the right direction here and that I can help us keep building."

"Patrick has been productive the past two seasons even though he has endured two major injuries that forced him to spend two entire summers doing nothing but rehabilitation," Bonnies coach Anthony Solomon said. "I am optimistic that he can play at an even higher level after a full off-season of preparation."

Expectations, Strength On The Increase For Lee

Last season as a freshman, Michael Lee finished fourth on the team in scoring at 6.6 points per game, but the last three games of the year were a glimpse of why expectations for the lanky forward are so high. Lee averaged 16.6 points and 5.0 rebounds over the final three games, leading the Bonnies in scoring twice during that stretch. While many people have voiced concerns about his strength and weight, Lee has worked diligently to gain the strength needed to compete in the Atlantic 10. Bonnies strength and conditioning coach Darryn Fiske said that Lee now is able to bench press 250 lbs. as compared to only 130 lbs. when Lee first arrived on campus. Lee also has improved his leg press maximum over 400 lbs. to 865 lbs., and his vertical leap is 38-1/2 inches, an increase of over four inches since the start of his freshman year. The improvements in strength are paying off on the court: he has performed consistently and is averaging 11.8 points and 8.2 rebounds per game. Lottin scored a season high 20 points against West Virginia and followed that with nine points, a career high 10 rebounds and three blocks against Saint Francis.

Transfers Ready To Go - Almost Two of the new players St. Bonaventure welcomed this season are center Paul Williams and guard Tyler Relph, who sat out the 2004-05 season as transfer student-athletes. Relph will have to wait a bit longer to make his debut, as he is sidelined indefinitely due to a stress fracture in his left foot. The former New York State Player of the Year played at West Virginia in 2003-04 before transferring closer to his home city of Rochester. Williams debuted as the Bonnies' starting center. He played two seasons as a reserve at Siena College.

Happy Birthday, Coach!

Head coach Anthony Solomon turned 41 years old on Dec. 1. Also celebrating a birthday this month: associate head coach Jayson Gee will be 40 on Dec. 13.

Diggs Making Strong Debut At The Point

Junior Terron Diggs, who is a newcomer to St. Bonaventure, has made quite an impression to open the year as the Bonnies' starting point guard. Diggs has 23 assists and just four turnovers, both of which came in the Canisius game. Diggs signed with St. Bonaventure last spring out of Tallahassee (Fla.) Community College, where he played for two seasons. A native of Fairfax, Va., Diggs was familiar with St. Bonaventure through current Bonnies Ahmad Smith and Wade Dunston, who he knew of from their high school and summer league days. Smith and Diggs went head-to-head in high school when each played for Washington Catholic Athletic Conference teams, Smith for Bishop O'Connell and Diggs at St. Paul VI.

Number Changes

Smith, Lottin Move Toward 1,000 Points

Seniors Ahmad Smith and Patrick Lottin are well within reach of 1,000 career points - Smith needs 68 points and Lottin needs 152. There are 35 men in school history who have achieved that feat, most recently Marques Green in 2004.

Due to a delay in production of new Nike uniforms, St. Bonaventure will wear its old adidas uniforms for the first several games this season. Due to that, two players will be wearing different uniform numbers than they will the remainder of the season: A.J. Hawkins (25) is wearing 20 while Jeff Foote (40) is wearing 35.

Plenty of Offense Back

Although only five players returned from last season's roster, they were five of the team's top six scorers last season, accounting for 77 percent (1,325 out of 1,718 points) of the Bonnies' offense. Three double-figure scorers are back: Ahmad Smith (14.2), Wade Dunston (11.6) and Patrick Lottin (10.8).

Southpaw Central

St. Bonaventure could field a solid baseball pitching staff with its roster, which includes four left-handers: Ahmad Smith, Wade Dunston, Michael Lee and Patrick Lottin.

What They're Saying:

"I have a great deal of respect for Coach Solomon ... what he's brought to the program, how they play."
 - Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim (2004)

"I think he's doing a fantastic job. I just always knew that he would be an outstanding coach because he has all the qualities of a successful person ... he has a great attitude, great work ethic, and he just handles himself in a first-class manner. I was very confident as a head coach to hire him for his first coaching job, and he has been able to assist other very fine head coaches in helping build programs. I'm certain he's going to do a great job with the Bonnies because he's the kind of person that will endear himself to the community. He'll do a great job with the players; the players will all love him and his style of coaching. And he's very, very competitive. He'll be out there beating the bushes finding the right student-athlete to fit the St. Bonaventure program."
 - George Mason coach Jim Larranaga

"Ask anyone in the college basketball world and they'll tell you what a great fit Anthony Solomon is for St. Bonaventure. He is a great fit given all the training he's had over his career. Hopefully, the last three years at Notre Dame have really trained him. He's been a huge part of our success. He's hungry, well-connected and, most importantly, well-respected. I can't emphasize enough how the Solomon family will be such a positive for the Bonaventure community. That's really important there, and Anthony, his wife Tracy and their kids will make such a positive impact."
 - Notre Dame coach Mike Brey

"What a great match! Anthony will be a perfect match for St. Bonaventure University. A great University needs a special person running its basketball program, and St. Bonaventure has that in Anthony Solomon. With his experience working at some of the best schools in the country, he'll do a great job there. Anthony is a terrific person and coach."
 - Duke coach Mike Krzyzewski

Lots of New Faces

St. Bonaventure has seven new scholarship players on its roster: forwards Paul Williams, David Fox and Ivan Kovacevic, swingmen A.J. Hawkins and Tyler Benson and guards Tyler Relph and Terron Diggs. Five players returned from last season: guards Ahmad Smith, Wade Dunston and Isiah Carson and forwards Patrick Lottin and Michael Lee. Freshmen Jeff Foote and Perry King made the team as walk-ons.

Bonnies Ink Two in Fall Signing Period

Nov. 9, St. Bonaventure announced that forward Jourdan Morris and guard James Williams both signed National Letters of Intent on the first day of the NCAA early signing period.

"We are ecstatic to have both Jourdan and James join us," Solomon said. "One goal this year was to have several commitments in the fall before the season began and that has been accomplished. That is growth for us as a program."

The 6-foot-6, 215-lb. Morris, who is from Bowie, Md., is in his senior season at Eleanor Roosevelt High School. Last season, he played at Montrose Christian High School and averaged 12 points and six rebounds per game. Over the summer, Morris transferred back to Roosevelt High, where he played his freshman and sophomore seasons. Recently, he was named Most Valuable Player of the Riverdale Baptist Fall League. Morris was recently listed as one of the top 24 senior prospects in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area by the Washington Post.

"Jourdan comes from a rich high school tradition at Eleanor Roosevelt," Bonnies coach Anthony Solomon said. "We value versatility at the forward positions and Jourdan certainly fits that criteria. His size, strength and skills will be an asset for us when Patrick Lottin departs our team."

Williams is a sophomore at Cloud County Community College in Kansas where he plays for head coach Kevin Muff. A 6-foot-5, 200-lb. guard, he averaged 9.0 points, 3.8 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.1 steals per game last season. A native of Topeka, Kan., Williams attended Highland Park High School and led that school to a state championship as a senior.

"James is a much-needed signee for us since we will lose Ahmad Smith and Wade Dunston next season," Solomon said. "James' versatile and heady play attracted us to him. Leading his high school team to a state championship as the lone senior that season says as much about James the person as it does James the basketball player. His winning qualities as a player and as a person will be a welcome addition."

St. Bonaventure will lose three seniors to graduation next spring - Smith, Lottin and Dunston.

GAME 1: Nov. 18, 2005 at the Reilly Center

St. Bonaventure 80, Robert Morris 61

Superior depth and hot three-point shooting keyed the win. A 14-2 run early in the second half allowed the Bonnies to open a 19-point advantage and they remained in control the rest of the way. Senior Patrick Lottin drained a career best seven three-pointers for a game-high 21 points but he had plenty of help as the Bonnies had a balanced attack. Ahmad Smith finished one assist shy of a triple-double with 11 points, 10 rebounds and a career-best nine assists. The Bonnies held the visitors to 32 percent shooting (9-28) in the second half.

West Virginia 66, St. Bonaventure 61

A 21-0 St. Bonaventure run erased a 45-25 deficit, but West Virginia regained the lead for good with an 8-0 run of its own and held on for the win. Patrick Beilein's three-pointer with 1:33 to play made it 62-58 and four straight free throws by Mike Gansey sealed it in the closing minute.
