At A Glance

St. Bonaventure looks for its first win of the year and it will not be easy in the Carrier Dome against Syracuse. The Orange are ranked #3 in this week's Associated Press poll and #5 in the ESPN/USA Today coaches poll.

Last Game Recap

Saturday night at HSBC Arena in Buffalo, Canisius erased a 34-30 Bonnies lead with a 14-4 run early in the second half and went on to a 67-61 win. St. Bonaventure trailed by as many as 14 points midway through the second half before pulling to within seven on Patrick Lottin's three-pointer with 4:40 left, but the Griffs held on for their seventh win over the Bonnies in the last 12 meetings. Lottin led all scorers with 21 points. Wade Dunston was the only other Bona player to reach double figures with 10 points. St. Bonaventure shot just 37 percent from the field, including 8-25 from three-point range, and committed 19 turnovers.

Solomon No Stranger to SU

Prior to being named St. Bonaventure's coach, Anthony Solomon coached against Syracuse six times over three seasons as an assistant coach under Mike Brey at Notre Dame. The Irish went 1-5 in those games. Last year, Solomon got his first chance to go head-to-head with SU coach Jim Boeheim.

What They're Saying:

"I have a great deal of respect for Coach Solomon ... what he's brought to the program, how they play. Early (last) summer, you could have said, they're not going to win a game."

- Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim

"I think he's doing a fantastic job. I just always knew that he would be an outstanding coach because he has all the qualities of a successful person ... he has a great attitude, great work ethic, and he just handles himself in a first-class manner. I was very confident as a head coach to hire him for his first coaching job, and he has been able to assist other very fine head coaches in helping build programs. I'm certain he's going to do a great job with the Bonnies because he's the kind of person that will endear himself to the community. He'll do a great job with the players; the players will all love him and his style of coaching. And he's very, very competitive. He'll be out there beating the bushes finding the right student-athlete to fit the St. Bonaventure program."

- George Mason coach Jim Larranaga

"Ask anyone in the college basketball world and they'll tell you what a great fit Anthony Solomon is for St. Bonaventure. He is a great fit given all the training he's had over his career. Hopefully, the last three years at Notre Dame have really trained him. He's been a huge part of our success. He's hungry, well-connected and, most importantly, well-respected. I can't emphasize enough how the Solomon family will be such a positive for the Bonaventure community. That's really important there, and Anthony, his wife Tracy and their kids will make such a positive impact."

- Notre Dame coach Mike Brey

"What a great match! Anthony will be a perfect match for St. Bonaventure University. A great University needs a special person running its basketball program, and St. Bonaventure has that in Anthony Solomon. With his experience working at some of the best schools in the country, he'll do a great job there. Anthony is a terrific person and coach."

- Duke coach Mike Krzyzewski

Quick Hits

This is the Bonnies' first visit to the Carrier Dome since the 2001-02 season, when they lost 76-66 to the Orangemen in the first round of the NIT ... last season against Syracuse, Bonnies center Yankuba Camara scored a career high 10 points and grabbed nine rebounds ... St. Bonaventure is 0-3 for the first time since 1994-95 ... no St. Bonaventure team has ever opened 0-4 ... the Bonnies have dropped their last nine games to ranked opponents.

Scouting Syracuse

The Orange returned all five starters from last year's Sweet 16 team and are off to a 5-0 start. SU knocked off Siena 78-56 on Saturday in Albany to remain unblemished. Syracuse is ranked #3 in this week's Associated Press poll and #5 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll and has already beaten two ranked teams, #14 Mississippi State and #23 Memphis. Both of those victories came in the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic at Madison Square Garden. Pre-season All-Americans Hakim Warrick and Gerry McNamara lead the way. Warrick, a 6-8 senior forward, is averaging 19.6 points and 9.0 rebounds per game. He was MVP of the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic. McNamara, a 6-2 junior guard, is averaging 15.4 points per game. The other starters are senior center Craig Forth (6.2 ppg, 5.8 rpg), senior guard Josh Pace (9.4 ppg, 4.2 rpg) and sophomore forward Demetrius Nichols (8.2 ppg, 4.6 rpg).

Lottin Makes Quick Return From Knee Surgery

Junior swingman Patrick Lottin underwent reconstructive surgery in April to repair a torn ACL in his right knee, so when he stepped on the floor a few minutes into the Marist game Nov. 23, it was a both a pleasant surprise and a much-needed boost to this team. His six months of rehabilitation were at least one month less than were originally forecast and a testament to Lottin's will. One of the most improved players in the Atlantic 10 a year ago, the A-10 coaches recognized Lottin this fall with a spot on the preseason All-Conference third team. Lottin has demonstrated why, averaging 16.5 points and 8.0 rebounds over his two games. He scored a game-high 21 points on Nov. 27 against Canisius. In 2003-04, Lottin finished second on the team in scoring (13.3 ppg), rebounding (4.5), assists (2.0) and three-point field goals (58). He scored in double figures 21 times and led the Bonnies in scoring seven times. In the Bonnies' seven wins, Lottin averaged 17.7 points per game. A fourth-year junior, he has two seasons of eligibility remaining.

Newcomers Playing Key Roles

The Bonnies' five new players – freshmen Michael Lee, Isiah Carson and Willie Morse, sophomore Brian Gibbs and junior Wade Dunston – are all seeing meaningful playing time. Carson and Lee started the first two games at point guard and small forward, respectively. Dunston is the Bonnies' second-leading scorer at 16.3 points per game. Gibbs' combination of muscle and hustle earned him the start against Canisius, while Morse came off the bench to score eight points at Canisius.

St. Bona vs. Big East Opponents

All-time, St. Bonaventure is 102-161 against teams from the current Big East Conference. Last season, the Bonnies lost to Syracuse 87-78 and Boston College 77-70.

Dunston Makes Immediate Impact

Junior guard Wade Dunston, a junior college transfer, has wasted little time in making a positive impression. He led St. Bonaventure in scoring both of the first two games and is averaging 16.3 points per game, second best on the club. Playing his first game in a Bonaventure uniform at Iona, Dunston scored a game-high 22 points and grabbed four rebounds in 33 minutes coming off the bench. Dunston made his living at the free throw line, going 15-16 at the stripe. His 16 attempts were the most by a Bonnies player since David Vanterpool took 21 free throws against Saint Joseph's on March 5, 1995. Dunston followed that with 17 points against Marist and 10 at Canisius. The Washington, D.C., native came to St. Bonaventure after one year at Iowa Western Community College. He was a highly-regarded player coming out of Bullis Prep High.

No Exhibitions

The Bonnies were not allowed to play any exhibition games, a penalty imposed upon the program by the NCAA last spring.

Experience - Inexperience

A glance at the number of career games played and started at St. Bonaventure for the Bonnies' 11 core players:

Player	Games/Starts
Saulius Dumbliuskas	68/27
Patrick Lottin	66/14
Ahmad Smith	55/36
Yankuba Camara	31/23
Kern Carter	31/10
Greg Lewis	24/0
Michael Lee	3/2
Isiah Carson	3/2
Wade Dunston	3/1
Brian Gibbs	3/1
Willie Morse	3/0

Returning & Lost

The Bonnies returned 50 percent of their scoring (954 of 1,904 points) and 71 percent of their rebounding from last season. The two main losses were guard Marques Green (19.4 ppg, 3.3 rpg) and forward Maurice Young (11.7 ppg, 4.2 rpg). St. Bonaventure returned two double-figure scorers in Patrick Lottin (13.3 ppg) and Ahmad Smith (10.3).

Two Rookies Crack Starting Lineup

Point guard Isiah Carson and forward Michael Lee started both the Iona and Marist games, marking the first time since the opening game of the 1999-00 season that St. Bonaventure had two freshmen in the starting lineup. Rookies Vidal Massiah and Patricio Prato started in a home win over Northeastern in November 1999.

Missing Marques Green

It would be hard for St. Bonaventure not to miss dynamic point guard Marques Green, who completed a superb career last year. The 5-foot-7 Green is St. Bonaventure's seventh all-time leading scorer with 1,734 points, and he holds school records for career assists, steals and three-pointers. He was a three-time All-Conference selection. Green is now playing professionally in France. A look at some of Green's honors and achievements in the 2003-04 season:

- NABC and USBWA All-District.
- 2nd Team All-Conference.
- Atlantic 10 All-Defensive Team.
- Finalist for Cousy Award (top point guard).
- Led nation in steals (3.8 per game).
- Set school season records for steals (107) and three-pointers (98).

85th Season

This is the 85th season of St. Bonaventure basketball. The University's storied tradition in the sport includes an all-time record of 1,110 wins and 804 losses (.580), 57 winning seasons and 22 postseason berths.

Walk-On Makes Impact

Rarely do walk-on players make the kind of impact on teams that Greg Lewis had for St. Bonaventure last season. Lewis played in 21 games and scored 26 points. Lewis is expected to see minutes again this season.

Bonnies Sign 6-10 Center in Early Period

Nov. 10, St. Bonaventure signed 6-10 forward David Fox to a National Letter of Intent. A native of Lakewood, Ohio, and a graduate of Lakewood High School, Fox is in his sophomore year at Mercyhurst North East Junior College in North East, Pa. Last year, Fox averaged eight points and 5.5 rebounds per game for a 23-6 team that finished 10th in the NJCAA Div. II poll.

Relph, Williams Wait In Wings
A pair of transfer student-athletes, 6-0 guard Tyler Relph and 6-10 forward Paul Williams, are practicing with the Bonnies this year and will be eligible at the start of the 2005-06 season. A sophomore, Relph will have three years of eligibility. Last season, he attended West Virginia, where he played in all 31 of the Mountaineers' games and averaged 5.0 points, 0.9 rebounds, 1.9 assists and 0.7 steals per game. A graduate of McQuaid Jesuit High School in Rochester, N.Y., Relph was named "Mr. Basketball" for the state of New York following his senior season of 2002-03, when McQuaid won the state championship. The Rochester Democrat & Chronicle twice named Relph its Greater Rochester Player of the Year. Williams played at Siena the past two seasons. As a sophomore, he averaged 2.6 points and 2.6 rebounds over 22 games. His freshman season, Williams averaged 3.2 points and 2.7 rebounds over 32 games and helped the Saints reach the second round of the NIT. Williams attended St. Patrick's High School in northern New Jersey, and his senior year, he was named "Best Big Man" in the state of New Jersey by the high school coaches association and was a first team All-State selection. Williams will have two seasons of eligibility at St. Bonaventure.

Mungar Among St. Bonaventure Hall of Fame Class of 2005
Former basketball standout Barry Mungar '86 is one of three former student-athletes who will be inducted into the St. Bonaventure Athletics Hall of Fame on Jan. 8. Mungar, a 6-foot-8 forward, was known as a tenacious interior player. Mungar ranks among the top 20 players in school history in both scoring and rebounding. Owner of 1,361 points and 651 rebounds over his career, the 6-foot-8 native of Toronto, Canada, helped St. Bonaventure to 67 victories over his four seasons, including an NIT berth in 1983. Mungar was an honorable mention All-East selection in his sophomore season. As a senior in 1985-86, he made the First Team All-Atlantic 10 when he averaged 17.0 points and 8.0 rebounds per game. Following his graduation, Mungar was selected by the Washington Bullets in the fourth round of the 1986 NBA Draft. He later earned a spot on the 1988 Canadian Olympic Team. Today, Mungar is an officer in the Hamilton (Ont.) Wentworth Regional Police. Christine Agresta '87 (basketball) and Garvin Ferguson '90 (swimming) will join Mungar in the Class of 2005.

St. Bonaventure vs. Syracuse - THE LAST MEETING

Dec. 3, 2003
at Rochester, NY - Blue Cross Arena
#16 Syracuse 87, St. Bonaventure 78

Despite a valiant effort, the Bonnies fell to the defending national champions. The Orangemen jumped out to a 15-4 lead 4:21 into the game, but the Bonnies rallied to trim their deficit to 44-37 by halftime. Syracuse started the second half quickly and led by as many as 21 points at 73-52 with 7:41 left. St. Bonaventure again mounted a rally, outscoring the Orange 17-5 over the next 5:10 to pull within 78-69 with 2:31 left, but Syracuse held on for the win. The Orange shot 51 percent from the field. The crowd of 11,650 was the largest ever for a sporting event at Blue Cross Arena.

2004-05 Game Boxscores

GAME 1: Nov. 19, 2004 at New Rochelle, N.Y.

Iona 73, St. Bonaventure 49

The Bonnies fell behind 37-27 by halftime and were not able to recover. Iona's lead grew to 19 points with 12:13 remaining. Poor shooting doomed the Bonnies' chances as they went 14-59 (23 percent) from the field. Newcomer Wade Dunston paced St. Bonaventure with 22 points, including a 15-16 at the free throw line.
