At A Glance

For the second time in six days, St. Bonaventure faces a Big East opponent on the road. The Bonnies, who have struggled to an 0-5 start, will meet an old Atlantic 10 Conference rival for the first time since 1995. West Virginia, with former Bonnies player Mike Gansey as one of its starters, is off to a 4-0 start.

Last Game Recap

Saturday night at the Reilly Center, St. Bonaventure did not score over the final 4:53, allowing Cornell to escape with a 58-54 win. With the Big Red ahead by two, Patrick Lottin drew a foul with five seconds left, but he missed both free throws. A slow start to the night - St. Bonaventure scored only three points over the game's first eight minutes - also cost the Bonnies. St. Bonaventure converted only eight of 17 free throws. Lottin led all scorers with 18 points and he also led the Bonnies with six rebounds. Freshman guard Willie Morse came off the bench to play 32 minutes and record 10 points and four assists, both season highs.

Former A-10 Rivals Meet

All of the previous 38 meetings between St. Bonaventure and West Virginia came between 1981 and 1995 when West Virginia was a member of the Atlantic 10 Conference. The teams will play again next season at another neutral site, Blue Cross Arena in Rochester, N.Y.

What They're Saying:

"I have a great deal of respect for Coach Solomon ... what he's brought to the program, how they play. Early (last) summer, you could have said, they're not going to win a game."

- Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim

"I think he's doing a fantastic job. I just always knew that he would be an outstanding coach because he has all the qualities of a successful person ... he has a great attitude, great work ethic, and he just handles himself in a first-class manner. I was very confident as a head coach to hire him for his first coaching job, and he has been able to assist other very fine head coaches in helping build programs. I'm certain he's going to do a great job with the Bonnies because he's the kind of person that will endear himself to the community. He'll do a great job with the players; the players will all love him and his style of coaching. And he's very, very competitive. He'll be out there beating the bushes finding the right student-athlete to fit the St. Bonaventure program."

- George Mason coach Jim Larranaga

"Ask anyone in the college basketball world and they'll tell you what a great fit Anthony Solomon is for St. Bonaventure. He is a great fit given all the training he's had over his career. Hopefully, the last three years at Notre Dame have really trained him. He's been a huge part of our success. He's hungry, well-connected and, most importantly, well-respected. I can't emphasize enough how the Solomon family will be such a positive for the Bonaventure community. That's really important there, and Anthony, his wife Tracy and their kids will make such a positive impact."

- Notre Dame coach Mike Brey

"What a great match! Anthony will be a perfect match for St. Bonaventure University. A great University needs a special person running its basketball program, and St. Bonaventure has that in Anthony Solomon. With his experience working at some of the best schools in the country, he'll do a great job there. Anthony is a terrific person and coach."

- Duke coach Mike Krzyzewski

Scouting West Virginia

The Mountaineers are off to a 4-0 start under third-year coach John Beilein. last Saturday at WVU Coliseum, West Virginia dominated Radford, 78-44, as five players scored in double figures led by Mike Gansey with 15 points. Gansey, a small forward who is averaging 12.0 points, 4.0 rebounds and 5.1 assists per game, played at St. Bonaventure from 2001-03 before transferring to WVU. Senior forward Tyrone Sally leads West Virginia in scoring at 16.5 points per game followed by Kevin Pittsnogle at 13.0 ppg, Gansey and Patrick Beilein, the coach's son, at 11.8 ppg. Beilein has coached against St. Bonaventure in years past when he was the head coach at both Canisius and Richmond.

Lottin Makes Quick Return From Knee Surgery

Junior swingman Patrick Lottin underwent reconstructive surgery in April to repair a torn ACL in his right knee, so when he stepped on the floor a few minutes into the Marist game Nov. 23, it was a both a pleasant surprise and a much-needed boost to this team. His six months of rehabilitation were at least one month less than were originally forecast and a testament to Lottin's will. One of the most improved players in the Atlantic 10 a year ago, the A-10 coaches recognized Lottin this fall with a spot on the preseason All-Conference third team. Lottin has demonstrated why, averaging 15.5 points and 7.5 rebounds over his four games. Lottin has scored at least 11 points in every game so far. In 2003-04, Lottin finished second on the team in scoring (13.3 ppg), rebounding (4.5), assists (2.0) and three-point field goals (58). He scored in double figures 21 times. A fourth-year junior, he has two seasons of eligibility remaining.

Newcomers Playing Key Roles

The Bonnies' five new players – freshmen Michael Lee, Isiah Carson and Willie Morse, sophomore Brian Gibbs and junior Wade Dunston – are all seeing meaningful playing time. Dunston is the Bonnies' second-leading scorer at 14.0 points per game. Lee is fourth on the team in scoring at 6.6 ppg and posted an impressive 16-point performance at Syracuse. Morse scored a combined 20 points over the last three games, including 10 against Cornell. Carson has started four games at point guard.

Dunston's Immediate Impact

Junior guard Wade Dunston, a junior college transfer, has wasted little time in making a positive impression. He has led St. Bonaventure in scoring three times and is averaging 14.0 points per game. Playing his first game in a Bonaventure uniform at Iona, Dunston scored a game-high 22 points and grabbed four rebounds in 33 minutes coming off the bench. Dunston followed that with 17 points against Marist, 10 at Canisius and 17 at Syracuse. The Washington, D.C., native was a highly-regarded player coming out of Bullis Prep High.

No Exhibitions

The Bonnies were not allowed to play any exhibition games, a penalty imposed upon the program by the NCAA last spring.

Morse Code

His shooting and savvy have allowed freshman guard Willie Morse to continue to earn greater playing time. Last Saturday against Cornell, Morse saw a season-high 32 minutes of action and he responded with season highs of 10 points and four assists. For the season, Morse is averaging 4.0 points and is 4-12 from three-point range.

Returning & Lost

The Bonnies returned 50 percent of their scoring (954 of 1,904 points) and 71 percent of their rebounding from last season. The two main losses were guard Marques Green (19.4 ppg, 3.3 rpg) and forward Maurice Young (11.7 ppg, 4.2 rpg). St. Bonaventure returned two double-figure scorers in Patrick Lottin (13.3 ppg) and Ahmad Smith (10.3).

Missing Marques Green

It would be hard for St. Bonaventure not to miss dynamic point guard Marques Green, who completed a superb career last year. The 5-foot-7 Green is St. Bonaventure's seventh all-time leading scorer with 1,734 points, and he holds school records for career assists, steals and three-pointers. He was a three-time All-Conference selection. Green is now playing professionally in France. A look at some of Green's honors and achievements in the 2003-04 season:

- NABC and USBWA All-District.
- 2nd Team All-Conference.
- Atlantic 10 All-Defensive Team.

- Finalist for Cousy Award (top point guard).
- Led nation in steals (3.8 per game).
- Set school season records for steals (107) and three-pointers (98).

85th Season

This is the 85th season of St. Bonaventure basketball. The University's storied tradition in the sport includes an all-time record of 1,110 wins and 806 losses (.579), 57 winning seasons and 22 postseason berths.

Walk-On Makes Impact

Rarely do walk-on players make the kind of impact on teams that Greg Lewis had for St. Bonaventure last season. Lewis played in 21 games and scored 26 points. This year, Lewis has played in all five games.

Stevens, Pawlikowski Earn

Walk-On Spots

A pair of guards, junior Craig Stevens and freshman Jason Pawlikowski, have earned roster spots as walk-ons. Stevens, who is in his second year on the team, played in the closing seconds of the Bonnies' Dec. 1 game at Syracuse, which is just a short distance from his hometown of Oneida, N.Y. Pawlikowski was an All-Western New York point guard last year at St. Mary's High School in suburban Buffalo.

Bonnies Sign 6-10 Center in Early Period

Nov. 10, St. Bonaventure signed 6-10 forward David Fox to a National Letter of Intent. A native of Lakewood, Ohio, and a graduate of Lakewood High School, Fox is in his sophomore year at Mercyhurst North East Junior College in North East, Pa. Last year, Fox averaged eight points and 5.5 rebounds per game for a 23-6 team that finished 10th in the NJCAA Div. II poll.

Relph, Williams Wait In Wings

A pair of transfer student-athletes, 6-0 guard Tyler Relph and 6-10 forward Paul Williams, are practicing with the Bonnies this year and will be eligible at the start of the 2005-06 season. A sophomore, Relph will have three years of eligibility. Last season, he attended West Virginia, where he played in all 31 of the Mountaineers' games and averaged 5.0 points, 0.9 rebounds, 1.9 assists and 0.7 steals per game. A graduate of McQuaid Jesuit High School in Rochester, N.Y., Relph was named "Mr. Basketball" for the state of New York following his senior season of 2002-03, when McQuaid won the state championship. The Rochester Democrat & Chronicle twice named Relph its Greater Rochester Player of the Year. Williams played at Siena the past two seasons. As a sophomore, he averaged 2.6 points and 2.6 rebounds over 22 games. His freshman season, Williams averaged 3.2 points and 2.7 rebounds over 32 games and helped the Saints reach the second round of the NIT. Williams attended St. Patrick's High School in northern New Jersey, and his senior year, he was named "Best Big Man" in the state of New Jersey by the high school coaches association and was a first team All-State selection. Williams will have two seasons of eligibility at St. Bonaventure.

Mungar Among St. Bonaventure Hall of Fame Class of 2005

Former basketball standout Barry Mungar '86 is one of three former student-athletes who will be inducted into the St. Bonaventure Athletics Hall of Fame on Jan. 8. Mungar, a 6-foot-8 forward, was known as a tenacious interior player. Mungar ranks among the top 20 players in school history in both scoring and rebounding. Owner of 1,361 points and 651 rebounds over his career, the 6-foot-8 native of Toronto, Canada, helped St. Bonaventure to 67 victories over his four seasons, including an NIT berth in 1983. Mungar was an honorable mention All-East selection in his sophomore season. As a senior in 1985-86, he made the First Team All-Atlantic 10 when he averaged 17.0 points and 8.0 rebounds per game. Following his graduation, Mungar was selected by the Washington Bullets in the fourth round of the 1986 NBA Draft. He later earned a spot on the 1988 Canadian Olympic Team. Today, Mungar is an officer in the Hamilton (Ont.) Wentworth Regional Police. Christine Agresta '87 (basketball) and Garvin Ferguson '90 (swimming) will join Mungar in the Class of 2005.

Marist 74, St. Bonaventure 58

Marist jumped out to a 21-point lead with eight minutes left in the first half, then held off the Bonnies the rest of the way. St. Bonaventure pulled to within six points at 60-54, but Will Whittington answered with a three-pointer to effectively end the rally. Patrick Lottin returned to the lineup after sitting out the first game and totaled 12 points and nine rebounds in 33 minutes.

GAME 5: Dec. 4, 2004 at the Reilly Center

Cornell 58, St. Bonaventure 54

St. Bonaventure did not score over the final 4:53, allowing Cornell to escape with the win. With the Big Red ahead by two, Patrick Lottin drew a foul with five seconds left, but he missed both free throws. A slow start to the night - St. Bonaventure scored only three points over the game's first eight minutes - also cost the Bonnies.
