At A Glance

The Bonnies complete their four-game homestand with a Saturday night contest against Wright State. St. Bonaventure has dropped all three games of the homestand but hopes to continue its improved play from Wednesday's game against Ohio. The teams contrast one another; the Bonnies will pit their superior size and front line players against the Raiders' guard-heavy lineup.

Last Time Out: Ohio Outlasts A Strong Bonnies Effort

Wednesday at the Reilly Center, Ohio outlasted the Bonnies 77-72. Jerome Tillman's three-pointer with 1:23 left gave Ohio a 73-72 lead and the Bonnies could not score the rest of the way. The loss spoiled an outstanding game by sophomore A.J. Hawkins, who scored a career-high 25 points. Zarryon Fereti added 19 points while Jermaine Calvin had six points, six rebounds, six assists and four steals in his first start of the year. St. Bonaventure's 10 steals were a season high.

Doubleheader

St. Bonaventure's game against Wright State is the second half of a double-header. The Bona women will host 22nd-ranked Bowling Green at 4:45. Please note that a men's ticket is required for admission to either game.

Scouting Wright State

The Raiders come off an 88-49 loss at Bradley on Tuesday night. Last Saturday, Wright State knocked off Detroit at home by a 50-49 final. The Raiders also have a win over Miami (Ohio) and losses to Chicago State and Coastal Carolina. Coach Brad Brownell is in his first season at Wright State after four successful years as head coach at UNC-Wilmington. The Raiders are a guard-dominated club with only one player, Jordan Pleiman, who stands at least 6-8. Wright State is shooting only 29 percent from three-point range is outrebounded by an average of six boards per outing. Guards DaShaun Wood (14.6 ppg) and Vaughn Duggins (10.2) are the Raiders' top scorers.

Double Your Pleasure

Bonnies' senior center Paul Williams already has four double-doubles this season, the most by an Atlantic 10 Conference player. Williams has grabbed 10 or more rebounds in five games, and his 9.6 rebounds per game ranks third in the Atlantic 10. Williams game-by-game:

Opp.	Pts.	Reb.
Chicago State _____	25*	13
Alcorn State _____	10	10
Central Arkansas _____	12	8
Saint Francis _____	11	12
Central Connecticut _____	16	11
Niagara _____	14	9
Boston _____	3	4
Ohio _____	7	10

Fab Frontcourt

It has been since the days of Caswell Cyrus and Peter Van Paassen back in 1999-2000 that St. Bonaventure featured a frontcourt worth bragging about. The Bonnies have something to talk about with junior forward Michael Lee and senior center Paul Williams. Even while commanding a large portion of opponents' defensive attention, both are off to solid starts to the season. Williams stands third in the A-10 in rebounding (9.6) and is averaging 12.3 points per game; Lee is the Bonnies' leading scorer at 12.8 points per game. Last year, the duo combined for 22.8 points, 13.6 rebounds and 2.1 blocks per game. Lee finished among the top 20 players in the A-10 in scoring (12.7), rebounding (6.5) and blocked shots (1.1). Williams finished seventh in the A-10 in rebounding (7.1) and averaged 10.1 points per game. In the Atlantic 10 Conference, only UMass' Rashaun Freeman and Stephane Lasme boast better numbers among the returning frontcourt tandems (24 points/16 rebounds on average).

Calvin Spins Sixes

Before Wednesday, junior point guard Jermaine Calvin had played a moderate role, averaging 17 minutes per game coming off the bench. But against Ohio, he earned the first start of his Bonaventure career and made the most of it. Calvin totaled the unusual stat line of six points, six rebounds, six assists and four steals in 34 minutes of action. All of those figures were season highs. Calvin, who began his college career at Utah, is now starting in the backcourt alongside his former Southern Idaho junior college teammate, Zarryon Fereti.

Aussie Is Instant Offense

Junior guard Zarryon Fereti is giving St. Bonaventure a spark off the bench, particularly on the offensive end. The Australian is the Bonnies' second-leading scorer at 12.5 points per game. Fereti has scored in double figures six times, most recently 19 points against Ohio. Fereti has already shown a flair for the dramatic, too. In the Nov. 25 win at Central Connecticut, he made two free throws with 13 seconds left to give the Bonnies back a one-point lead. Nov. 14, his off-balance three-pointer with two seconds left forced overtime and propelled the Bonnies to a win over Central Arkansas.

Sophomore Improvements ... Not Slumps

Sophomores A.J. Hawkins and Tyler Benson have already shown that they are vastly improved from their freshman seasons. Hawkins and Benson are in their second year as roommates on campus and also play the same position, small forward. Both also share a passion for practicing, so their improvements are no accident. The duo are often found in the Reilly Center after practices and during the day working on shooting drills. Hawkins, who enjoyed a solid freshman season at 6.3 points and 2.5 rebounds per game, is averaging 10.4 points and 4.7 rebounds after his 25-point, five-rebound game against Ohio. Hawkins also leads the Bonnies with 13 steals. Last year, Benson missed 10 games year due to a mid-season ankle injury and averaged 0.9 points in 13 games. This year, Benson is 9-24 (.375) from three-point range and is averaging 4.0 points per game. He played a career high 19 minutes against Saint Francis.

Kaba's Coming Along

Much like his teammate Jermaine Calvin, junior forward Louunceny Kaba had played a limited role over the first seven games this season. That changed in the Dec. 6 game against Ohio, when Kaba came off the bench to play 23 minutes – surpassing his total minutes played over the entire season to date – and scored four points with four blocks and two rebounds.

40 Years of the Reilly Center

This is the 40th anniversary season of the Reilly Center. On Dec. 2, 1966, St. Bonaventure defeated Quincy College 100-64 in what was then known as the University Center. In 1974, the building was dedicated to the memory of former St. Bonaventure coach and administrator Mike Reilly. The Bonnies are 365-153 all-time in the RC.

J. Williams Debuts

Junior guard James Williams made his Bonnies debut in Wednesday's game against Niagara. The Topeka, Kansas, native had been sidelined since early November by a strained Achilles. He played five minutes against Niagara and made his only shot, a three-pointer. Williams then played 18 minutes against Boston and had one point and three rebounds.

Bounce-Back For Health

Three Bonnies players are hoping for health after injury-interrupted seasons last year:

- Junior guard Tyler Relph missed the first nine games of 2005-06 due to a stress fracture in his left foot but came back to help the Bonnies in the second half of the year. Relph started the last eight games of the season and averaged 7.6 points per game in A-10 play. He posted three double-figure scoring efforts (13 vs. George Washington, 12 vs. Duquesne, 13 at Xavier). This year, Relph has started all but one game and is averaging 8.1 points per game.
- Senior center Ivan Kovacevic missed all but six games last season due to a knee injury, which he sustained in a game at Marist Dec. 21. Kovacevic is now the backup to Paul Williams.
- Sophomore forward Tyler Benson missed 10 games last year due to a mid-season ankle injury. He averaged only 0.9 points in 13 games. This year, he is one of the Bonnies' top substitutes and three-point threats.

New Faces On The Bench

Head coach Anthony Solomon welcomes two new assistant coaches, Andy Johnston and Dino Presley. Both joined the staff last spring. Johnston spent the past four seasons at LIU-Brooklyn, while Presley worked at Maryland-Baltimore County last season and East Carolina for two years before that. Overall, Johnston has 18 years of experience in coaching while Presley has 13. In addition, Jake Luhn is in his first season as an assistant after working the last three years as Director of Basketball Operations.

Returning/Lost

St. Bonaventure returned four starters and a total of eight letterwinners from last season's club which finished 8-19. The returning starters are senior center Paul Williams (10.1 ppg, 7.1 rpg), junior forward Michael Lee (12.7 ppg, 6.5 rpg), senior point guard Terron Diggs (2.2 ppg, 2.8 apg) and junior guard Tyler Relph (6.9 ppg). Also back are sophomore guard A.J. Hawkins (6.3 ppg), sophomore swingman Tyler Benson (0.9), senior forward Ivan Kovacevic (0.2) and senior center David Fox (0.8). The Bonnies lost three seniors from last year's team: All-Conference swingman Ahmad Smith, swingman Patrick Lottin and guard Wade Dunston. Smith was the Bonnies' leading scorer at 15.9 points per game. Lottin averaged 7.5 points and Dunston 4.3.

Two More Games Added to CSTV Schedule

Two more Bonnies games have been added to CSTV's regional schedule: Jan. 10 against Richmond and Feb. 10 vs. Dayton. Both games are at the Reilly Center. Please note that the Dayton game will now start at noon as opposed to the previously announced 7:00 tip time. CSTV, which is the new television partner of the Atlantic 10 Conference, will also air the Bonnies' Feb. 3 home game with Duquesne.

Bonnies Sign Guard and Two Forwards in Early Period

The St. Bonaventure men's basketball program announced that three student-athletes have signed National Letters of Intent to attend St. Bonaventure beginning next year: forwards Da'Quan Cook and Matt Morgan and guard Malcolm Eleby.

The 6-foot-8 Cook is in his senior season at The Miller School in Charlottesville, Va. Last season, Cook was a first team All-State selection in the Virginia Association of Independent Schools. Cook helped the Devils to a 20-5 record and a second place finish in the state tournament. He averaged 11 points, 5.8 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 1.5 steals per game. Cook is a native of Elizabeth, N.J., who began his high school career at St. Patrick's, which is the school current Bonnies senior Paul Williams attended.

"Da'Quan has a bright future ahead of him in the college game," Bonnies coach Anthony Solomon said. "His versatility is a plus. His time at The Miller School will assist his transition to college in all aspects."

Morgan, who also stands 6-foot-8, is playing at St. Thomas More, a prep school in Connecticut. A native of Landover, Md., Morgan played at Millersburg Military Academy in Kentucky last year. There, he averaged 13.4 points, 3.8 rebounds over 30 games. His top single game was 35 points and 12 rebounds against traditional power Oak Hill Academy.

"To have Matt join our University and basketball program is exciting," Solomon said. "His time at St. Thomas More will benefit his transition and will lead to a successful college experience. He is just touching the surface of his potential and we look forward to a great four years with him."

Eleby is in his senior year at Franklin Learning Center in Philadelphia. The 6-foot-3 Eleby can play either guard position. Last season as a junior, Eleby averaged 22.2 points per game. He was named second team All-State by the Associated Press and second team All-City by the Philadelphia Daily News.

"Malcolm is an excellent signing for us," Solomon said. "He is a driven young man who will cherish the opportunity to compete for St. Bonaventure in the Atlantic 10. His size, competitive drive and winning ways are admirable and will be welcome in our program."

St. Bonaventure will lose four seniors to graduation next spring - Williams, center David Fox, center Ivan Kovacevic and point guard Terron Diggs.

"First, this class says a lot about a job well done by our coaching staff. Having these three young men join us in the fall is another step in the progression of our program," said Solomon.

"Da'Quan Cook, Matt Morgan and Malcolm Eleby are all key components to our future. Each of them has strengths we value that will be assets and help us reach higher heights."

GAME #1: Nov. 9 at Austin, TX - 2K Sports Classic

Chicago State 98, St. Bonaventure 95

David Holston scored 43 points to lead Chicago State to a hard-fought win in the opening round of the 2K Sports College Hoops Classic. The game remained close throughout the second half. Each time St. Bonaventure seemed ready to run away, Holston kept the Cougars close. The Bonnies' largest lead was five points at 78-73 with 6:36 left following a dunk by Paul Williams. Chicago State fought back and eventually tied the game at 88-88 with 2:51 left, then took the lead for good on a dunk by Cam-Ron Clay with 2:06 to play. Clay then made it 92-89 with 1:22 left. The Cougars went up 94-89 with 26 seconds remaining on a free throw by Aaron Williams, and the closest St. Bonaventure came after that was two points. Zarryon Fereti made a three-pointer with 17 seconds left to cut the Bonnies' deficit to 94-92, but Holston was fouled and made two free throws to put Chicago State back ahead by four. Williams led the Bonnies with a career high 25 points and 13 rebounds. Michael Lee also finished with a double-double, 20 points and 10 rebounds. A.J. Hawkins scored 14 points while Tyler Relph tied his career high with 13 points.
