St. Bonaventure is a member of the Atlantic 10 Conference for all of its 14 varsity sports. In women's basketball, the Bonnies are joined by The University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University,

The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of North Carolina-Charlotte, University of Rhode Island, University of Richmond, Saint Joseph's University, Saint Louis University, Temple University and Xavier University.

Since its existence in 1983, the A-10 women's basketball conference has been well represented in each year of the postseason. This past season, the Atlantic 10 boasted five teams among the top 100 in the country.

WHY THIS CAMP IS FOR YOU:

The goal of the Jim Crowley St. Bonaventure University Girls' Basketball Team Camp is to help develop well-rounded, complete, hard working basketball players. Coach Crowley and his staff believe in teaching players the fundamentals of the game along with the proper attitude and work ethic needed to be a part of a successful team. Our philosophy stresses effort, teamwork and sportsmanship. Coach Crowley believes these ingredients help young people achieve success not only on the court, but also with family, school and life.

The basketball camp is directed and planned by Coach Crowley and his assistants at St. Bonaventure. The camp's staff consists of top coaches and Bonaventure players who work with each camper individually to improve and expand on her abilities.

Four teams from the 2006 camp advanced to the New York State Final Four two seasons ago, while 2007 participant (Avon) accomplished the same feat this past year.

THERE IS A PLACE FOR EVERYONE WHO WANTS TO LEARN AT THE JIM CROWLEY ST. BONAVENTURE UNIVERSITY GIRLS' BASKETBALL CAMP.
