At A Glance

Already two weeks into the season, St. Bonaventure will finally get a chance to grace the Reilly Center floor for the first time this year as it takes on Cleveland State. It is the first meeting between the two schools. A win over the Vikings would allow the Bonnies to equal the best start in school history. The 1992-93 team opened its season 4-0. St. Bonaventure's 3-0 record matches the starts of the 1990-91, 1998-99 and 2002-03 clubs.

Last Time Out: Bonnies capture road win at Saint Francis

After going 1-11 on the road last season, St. Bonaventure had something to prove in its first road game of the season at St. Francis: mission accomplished. The Bonnies drained 50 percent (21-42) of their shots en route to a 59-45 win over the Red Flash at DeGol Arena last Sunday. Despite scoring just 23 points in the first half, St. Bonaventure took a three-point advantage into the break thanks to solid defense. The Bona offense shook off its road jitters in the second half as the Bonnies shot 60 percent from the field, including 5-7 from beyond the arc, to out score St. Francis 36-25. Senior Stefanie Collins led the way with 16 points, while sophomore Priscilla Edwards and redshirt freshman Ashley Edwards totaled 13 and 12 points, respectively.

Climbing the Charts

Senior guard Stefanie Collins continues her climb up the St. Bonaventure career scoring list. With her 16 points last weekend at the Saint Francis (Pa.), Collins moved into sole possession of eighth place with 1,160 career points. She now trails '03 graduate and current Bonnies assistant coach Courtney Mattingly by 96 points for seventh position.

CLEVELAND ST. GAME NOTES

From Downtown

Senior Stefanie Collins continues to prove that she is one of the best shooters in the Atlantic 10. She has knocked down 11 of her 19 (.579) shots from beyond the arc this season and leads the A-10 with 3.67 threes per contest. Collins drained 77 long range shots last season, 75 three-pointers as a sophomore and 63 in her freshman campaign. Her 11 three-pointers through three games brings her career total to 226, which stands second in school history to Suzie Dailer's 294. Collins tied the school record for three-pointers in a game (8) twice last season.

Inside Out

Junior post player Audrey Latendresse has opposing defenses scratching their heads as she has shown there is more to her game than battling inside. Latendresse has developed a deadly shooting touch from the outside and has drained 17 of her last 27 shots from beyond the arc dating back to last season. On the season, Latendresse is 5-9 from three-point range.

I.D., Please

Despite being the youngest two players on the Bonnies' roster, freshmen Erica Schiefen and Katelyn Murray have shown their ready to play big minutes. Through three games this season, the 18 year-old duo has combined to average 11 points and four rebounds per game. Murray turned in her best game in the St. Bona Shootout Championship, when she scored 11 points in 29 minutes of action. Schiefen leads the Bonnies with a .636 field goal percentage and six offensive rebounds.

Welcome Back

After missing the entire 2004-05 season with a shoulder injury, redshirt freshman Ashley Edwards is finally getting to showcase her abilities on the court. The Philadelphia, Pa. native turned in her best performance of the young season at St. Francis (Pa.), tallying 12 points, seven rebounds and three steals. So far this season, Edwards is averaging eight points per game and ranks second on the team in rebounding (5.3). Her 4.7 defensive rebounds per game currently ranks seventh in the A-10.

Picking Up Where She Left Off

After averaging 8.6 points over the final 11 games of last season, sophomore

Priscilla Edwards has picked up right where she left of last season. A native of Harlem, N.Y., Edwards ranks second on the team with 10.3 points per game and has dished out a team-high nine assists over the first three games.

Sensational Southpaws

Having one or two left-handers on the court at the same time is somewhat odd ... but three! The Bonnies lineup features three southpaws who all play over 24 minutes each game: Stefanie Collins, Priscilla Edwards and Erica Schiefen. The left-handed trio has combined to score 53 percent (32 points) of the teams points each game with Collins leading the way at 16.3 per contest.

DE-FENSE!

Despite being undersized, the Bonnies have used hustle and quickness on the defensive end to stymie their opponents offensive schemes. For the first time in 17 years (1987-88), St. Bonaventure held back-to-back opponents (Albany-49/St. Francis-45) to under 50 points. A key attribute to their success on the defensive end has been their ability to create turnovers. The brown and white defense has been able to force opponents into an average of 19 turnovers a game, while collecting an A-10 leading 10 steals per contest.

Early Season Hardware

For the second consecutive season, senior Stefanie Collins and junior Audrey Latendresse were named to the St. Bona Shootout All-Tournament team. Collins earned MVP honors after tallying 33 points in the two Bona wins, while Latendresse hit for 14 points on 3-5 shooting from long range against Cornell.

Bonnies claim St. Bona Shootout Title!

In a game it never trailed, St. Bonaventure posted a 59-49 win over Albany in the championship game of the second annual St. Bonaventure Shootout on Nov. 20 at First Arena in Elmira, N.Y. The Bonnies jumped out to a 31-22 lead at the half, holding Albany to 31 percent shooting. Three players reached double-digits on the afternoon. Senior Stefanie Collins led the way with 12 points, while freshman Katelyn Murray and redshirt freshman Ashley Edwards chipped in with 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Oh Canada

The Bonnies have three players from Canada on their roster: senior Olecia Miller, junior Audrey Latendresse and sophomore Maripier Malo. Only five in NCAA Division I women's basketball teams have more Canadian players.

Collins named to Preseason All-Conference first team

Senior Stefanie Collins was named to the Preseason Atlantic 10 All-Conference first team, in a voting done by the league coaches and media. Last season, Collins was named to the third team All-Conference after averaging 13.8 points and 3.0 rebounds per game. Collins led the A-10 in three-pointers made per game (2.8) and ranked 10th in steals (1.7).

Record Breaking Day

In their opening game at the St. Bona Shootout, a record breaking 1,820 fans turned out to see the Bonnies triumph over Cornell in the first round. It broke the previous attendance record of 1,741 set last season against Massachusetts.

Bonnies Ink Three NLI's in Early Signing Period

Head coach Jim Crowley and the Bonnies inked three student-athletes to NLI's during the early signing period. Andrea Doneth (East Lansing, Mich./Lansing Catholic), Dana Mitchell (Fairless, Pa./Pennsbury West) and Julie Molloy (Grove City, Pa./Grove City) will join the Bonnies beginning in the 2006-07 season.

A McDonald's All-American nominee, Doneth is currently averaging 18 points, seven rebounds and six assists per game thus far in her senior campaign. This season, she has guided Lansing Catholic to a 17-3 record and a spot in the Capital Area Athletic Conference playoffs. A two-time Associated Press Class B All-State first team selection, the 5-foot-11 Doneth has led the Cougars to a 64-10 record in her three seasons. As a junior, she averaged 14.6 points, 5.9 rebounds and 3.6 assists per game. Coached by her father Dan Doneth, she was named to the Lansing State Mid-Michigan Dream Team and Detroit Free Press Class B All-State team in both her junior and sophomore seasons.

The 6-foot-1 Mitchell averaged 20.8 points, 9.7 rebounds, 4.2 steals and three assists per game in her junior campaign at Pennsbury West. Under the tutelage of head coach Donna Nicholson, she helped guide the Falcons to 17-9 record last season, their best record since 2000. Her 20.8 points per game led the conference and earned her a spot on the Suburban League first team. A four-year starter, Mitchell has 1,011 career points and was the first player in school history to surpass the 1,000-point plateau as a junior.

A three-year starter at point guard for Grove City High School, Molloy averaged 14.2 points per game in her junior year. Coached by Roger Flynn, last season she led the Lady Eagles to a 15-9 record and a berth in the Mercer County Athletic Conference playoffs. As a junior she drained 47 three-pointers and dished out 80 assists en route to her second consecutive MCAC All-Conference first team selection. The 5-foot-9 guard was also named to the Butler County All-Star team and MVP of the Kiser Classic as a junior.

In his five years at the helm, head coach Jim Crowley has installed a coaching style of hard work and determination that has raised the level of expectations for women's basketball at St. Bonaventure.

Crowley's ambition, drive and vision has allowed him to assembled competitive teams while carrying on the values established by his predecessor, Marti Whitmore.

Crowley's 2001-02 club won six more games than his first team did, going 13-15 overall and 7-9 in the competitive Atlantic 10 Conference. Three of his 13 wins came over NCAA bound teams. Crowley demonstrated his flexibility as a coach that season, adopting a defense-first philosophy after using a run-and-gun style his first season.

A rash of injuries, including a season-ending knee injury to 2001-02 Atlantic 10 Conference Rookie of the Year Stefanie Collins and a back injury that cut short the year for second-leading scorer Lyndsey Maurer, led to a disappointing 6-22 mark in 2002-03.

In 2003-04, the return of Collins helped the Bonnies improve by three wins overall and finish fourth in the Atlantic 10's East division. Crowley guided St. Bonaventure to an impressive 69-65 win over Marquette, who later advanced to the NCAA tournament.

Last season, Crowley and the Bonnies welcomed eight new faces to the roster. On Jan. 16, Crowley guided the new-look Bonnies to their first win in 10 years at Saint Joseph's Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. The brown and white finished last season with a 9-19 record.

This past off-season, Crowley guided the Western New York open division women's basketball team to a bronze medal at the Empire State Games. Sophomore Amanda Pierce joined Crowley on the Western New York team that returned just three players from the previous year.

Renowned for his work ethic, Crowley's players follow their coach's example on and off the court.

Under Crowley's guidance, players like Courtney Mattingly and Collins made dramatic improvements and blossomed into All-Conference players. Mattingly was a second team All-Atlantic 10 choice as a junior and twice was named to the Atlantic 10's Academic All-Conference team. Collins has followed suit, being named to the All-Conference and All-Academic teams in each of the past two seasons.

The academic success of Crowley's teams is also noteworthy. Each of Crowley's teams have posted better than a 3.0 team grade point average, and he has had three players named to the Academic All-Conference team.

Crowley has now been a part of St. Bonaventure women's basketball since 1996. Prior to being named head coach in March of 2000, he served as an assistant coach for four seasons.
