St. John's On The PGA Tour

Keegan Bradley Class of 2008

Keegan Bradley has been on the professional map since graduating from St. John's in 2008. Since starting on the PGA Tour in 2011, Bradley has won three PGA Tour events: 2011 PGA Championship, 2011 HP Byron Nelson Championship and the 2012 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational.

During his four years at St. John's, Bradley earned nine individual titles and recorded the second-lowest individual round in program history with a 63 in the first round at the Treasure Coast Men's Classic.

In his time on the PGA Tour, Bradley has had the unique honor of serving on the 2013 President's Cup team and a two-time selection to the Ryder Cup team (2012, 2014)

Andrew Svoboda Class of 2003

Andrew Svoboda has been a member of the PGA Tour since 2006, but has really stepped things up over the last three years. During the 2013 and 2014 seasons on tour, Svoboda competed in 42 events that includes a tie for second place at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans on April 27, 2014.

As a member of the Red Storm, Svoboda set the program record with 14 individual championships including the 2001 BIG EAST Championship. Svoboda is also tied for the third lowest round in St. John's history with a 64 (-6) in the first round of The McLaughlin on Sept. 27, 2002.
