HAWKS' NEXT GAME

December 1 vs. Penn State, at The Palestra, 4 p.m.

GAME STORIES

- This is the second of four games in eight days for the Hawks, which are all in Philadelphia.
- Pat Calathes still tops the Hawks in scoring with 17.0 ppg, followed by Darrin Govens at 15.0 ppg. Other Hawks in double figures are Ahmad Nivins with 13.8 ppg and Tasheed Carr with an 11.5 scoring average.
- SJU will be looking for its first win over a ranked team since the win over #17 Wake Forest in the 2004 NCAA East Regional Semifinals (March 25, 2004).
- This will be the fifth time in seven years that Saint Joseph's and Gonzaga have played. The series is deadlocked at 2-2.
- Saint Joseph's enters the game converting 50 percent from the field (100-of-200).
- The Hawks have another quick turnaround, hosting Penn State on Saturday at the Palestra.

Last Meeting: 12/31/05, GU 102-94
Last SJU Win: 11/14/03, 73-66
Coach Martelli vs. Gonzaga: 2-2

This is the fifth meeting in what has become a strong rivalry between the two Jesuit schools... The teams last met two years ago on New Year's Eve in Spokane when #8 Gonzaga scored a 102-94 win. The Hawks hit a McCarthy-record 15 3-pointers in the game, but the Zags made 11-of-12 free throws in the final minute to hold on. Chet Stachitas hit a 3-pointer at :48 to pull the Hawks within 93-90, but couldn't overcome Gonzaga. (more on the series on pg. 4)

HEAD COACH PHIL MARTELLI

Now in his 13th year at Saint Joseph's, Phil Martelli has built a program that is consistently one of the top in the conference, a perennial post-season participant and a key player on the national scene, while earning his place among the top coaches in the school's storied history.

Martelli reached a significant milestone in 2006-07, when he surpassed Hall of Famer Jack Ramsay for second place on the school's all-time list for wins. His 12-year career mark now stands at 243-140, while he ranks fourth in career winning percentage (.634) among SJU coaches. Setting the school record for wins in a season (30) in 2004, Martelli has guided SJU to 20 or more victories five times in 12 seasons. More impressively, his teams have gone 159-68 in the past seven seasons, an average of 23 wins per year. He is 123-69 in Atlantic 10 play, which is the most conference wins for any active coach in the A-10. Martelli has also been at his best when it counts the most as his 17 postseason wins (6 NCAA, 11 NIT) are the most in school history, ahead of Ramsay's 12. Martelli ranks first among Hawk coaches with a .680 postseason winning percentage (17-8) and has taken SJU to the postseason in six of the last seven years, and eight times in his 12 seasons.

Guiding a young squad in 2006-07, the Hawks went 18-14, marking the eighth time that he has led them to 18 or more wins. Martelli turned in a top-notch coaching performance in 2005-06, as the Hawks went from a 10-12 record in February to win the final five games of the regular season, and three straight in the conference tournament, to reach the Atlantic 10 championship for the second year in a row, falling just one point short of the title. That effort was similar to 2004-05 where he turned in perhaps a more remarkable coaching job than in 2003-04, when he was the consensus National Coach of the Year. Faced with the loss of two NBA first-round draft picks from the '03-04 squad that went 30-2, the 2004-05 Hawks struggled early on, but Martelli reworked the team's style of play to guide SJU to 21 wins in the calendar year of 2005 to finish 24-12. Saint Joseph's posted the conference's best record (14-2) and won its fifth straight regular-season title to tie the league record. The Hawks garnered the top seed in the conference tournament for the second year in a row and reached the championship game. He was named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the second straight season and the fourth time in his career. The Hawks made an exciting six-game run in the NIT, falling on a last-second shot in the championship game. It marked the second time in his career that he guided SJU to the NIT title game.

Martelli's efforts and the success of the SJU program have been recognized on a consistent basis. In fact, he has earned a Coach of the Year award, whether it be a city, conference or regional honor, in six of his 12 seasons.

In the summer of 2005, Martelli served as the head coach of the USA Men's U21 World Championship Team, which competed at the FIBA U21 World Championship in Argentina, and earned a fifth-place finish.

In 2003-04, Martelli guided a focused and unselfish squad that became the most compelling story in college basketball with its undefeated regular season, a number-one national ranking and number-one seed in the NCAA Tournament. Led by consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson, the Hawks advanced to the Elite Eight, falling two points shy of the Final Four.

After 10 years as an assistant at SJU, Martelli was named the school's 14th head coach in 1995 and is just the third non-alumnus to hold the position. Martelli burst onto the scene in his first season (1995-96) and took the squad to the NIT championship game.

Prior to his arrival at SJU, Martelli spent seven years as head basketball coach at Bishop Kenrick High School. At Kenrick, he led his team to six straight Catholic League playoff appearances, a school record, and still owns the school's all-time mark for wins with 108. Martelli began his career as the junior varsity coach at Cardinal O'Hara High in Springfield, Pa., in 1976-77. He moved on the following year to become an assistant at his alma mater, and helped guide Widener to the NCAA Division III Final Four. After that season, he accepted the head job at Kenrick.

As a player, he was part of Widener's NCAA Tournament teams in both 1974-75 and 1975-76, serving as team co-captain as a senior.

Martelli has added a new title to his resumé, that of "author." The coach has co-written a book, "Don't Call Me Coach: A Lesson Plan for Life" with Harold Gullan, Ph.D, which was published in the fall of 2007.

Martelli and his wife Judy, a former basketball player with the legendary Immaculata College teams, have three children. Phil, Jr., a 2003 SJU graduate, is an assistant basketball coach at Niagara University, Jimmy is an assistant coach at Robert Morris University, and Elizabeth is a junior attending Saint Joseph's.

LAST TIME OUT: Pat Calathes scored 19 points and Darrin Govens had 15, including four 3-pointers in the second half, as Saint Joseph's defeated Ball State, 74-63, in the home opener at Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. Ahmad Nivins had 15 points for the Hawks, which were playing their first game since Nov. 17. The Hawks jumped out to a quick 13-2 lead but Ball State eventually took the lead, 23-22, late in the first half. SJU closed out the half with a 9-2 run to own a 36-29 edge at intermission. The Hawks led 46-33 six minutes into the second half, but Ball State used a 10-2 run to pull within 48-45. Long-range shooting by Govens sparked the Hawks to a 61-49 advantage, but the Cardinals rallied once again, cutting the lead to 64-57 at the 5:03 mark. But Rob Ferguson made a layup and Govens hit another three to end the threat. Tasheed Carr finished with 13 points and five assists.

QUITE A RIVALRY: The Saint Joseph's-Gonzaga series has provided exciting games in its short history (four games). The teams are deadlocked 2-2 in the all-time series, with the Zags winning the last game, 102-94, on New Year's Eve 2005. Here's a snapshot of the games in this rivalry between the two Jesuit schools:

- 12/31/05 (Spokane) - #8 Gonzaga 102- SJU 94: Hawks hit a McCarthy-record 15 3-point field goals, but Bulldogs went 11-for-12 from the foul line in the final minute to avoid the upset.
- 11/14/03 (New York) - #17 SJU 73- #10 GU 66: In the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic at Madison Square Garden, the Hawks started their run of 27 consecutive victories. Jameer Nelson had 20 points and 10 assists in the win.
- 12/31/02 (Spokane) - SJU 79- GU 78 (ot): Jameer Nelson's jumper at :08 gave the Hawks the overtime road victory.
- 12/31/01 (Philadelphia) GU 83- SJU 80: Dan Dickau hit a 3-pointer from the corner at the buzzer to lift Gonzaga.

NON-STOP SCHEDULE: Even though the Hawks had a 10-day hiatus in between games (from Nov. 17 to 27), they're in the midst of a non-stop schedule. The home opener with Ball State on Tuesday was the first of four games in eight days for Saint Joseph's. The games are all in Philadelphia, and following tonight's contest, SJU will host Penn State at the Palestra on Saturday and Holy Cross next Tuesday, Dec. 4 at the Fieldhouse. Things slow down again after the Holy Cross game with only four games the rest of December.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME: The Hawks didn't even get to practice on their own court in preparation for tonight's game, due to the SJU women's team hosting fifth-ranked Rutgers on Wednesday evening in the Fieldhouse. Instead, the Hawks practiced at nearby PCOM (Phila. College of Osteopathic Medicine), which is the Philadelphia 76ers' practice facility.

HAWKS VS. THE TOP 25: Gonzaga is the second ranked team faced by the Hawks this season, as Syracuse was 25th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll on Nov. 13. The last ranked team beaten by SJU was #17 Wake Forest in the NCAA East Regional Semifinals during the Hawks' run to the 2004 Elite Eight. Temple is the highest ranked team defeated by SJU under Phil Martelli, when the Hawks scored a 62-59 win over the #5 Owls on Feb. 29, 2000. Gonzaga is the highest ranked team to visit the Fieldhouse since #8 George Washington played here on Feb. 11, 2006. The Hawks lost that game to the Colonials, 64-62.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME: Saint Joseph's owns an all-time record of 314-79 thru 58 seasons in the friendly confines of Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse, a winning percentage of 80 percent. In this decade, the Hawks have won 85 percent of their games here, posting a 61-11 mark on their home court. Last season, SJU was 8-3 in the Fieldhouse.

BALANCING ACT: Phil Martelli likes the way that the Hawks are sharing the ball, with 68 assists on 100 field goals already this year. Against Ball State, SJU had 17 assists on 23 baskets. The Hawks have also seen four players score double figures in three of the four games thus far.

SHAKING OFF THE RUST: After not playing in 10 days, and even getting a day off for Thanksgiving, the Hawks didn't show any effects of the layoff against Ball State. The Hawks jumped out to a 13-2 lead in the first four minutes and made 11-of-24 shots in the first half. SJU had 36 points in the first half against a BSU squad that had limited its opponents to 30 or below in its previous games.

BACK ON TRACK: After a subpar effort at Syracuse, where he only took four shots, Ahmad Nivins has put together two double-figure games. In the past two wins, Nivins has averaged 16.5 points and 9.5 rebounds, while making 9-of-13 shots from the field.

GIVEAWAYS: The Hawks are on the plus side in their assist-to-turnover ratio (+1.3), but partly due to Tasheed Carr's team-high 31 assists. Phil Martelli hasn't been happy with the giveaways though, as SJU committed 15 against Syracuse and 16 in the win at Boston University. The Hawks had 11 vs. Ball State and are now averaging 12.8 per game.

FOR STARTERS: The Hawks are getting good production from their starters, with four averaging double figures and three of them averaging over 32 minutes per game. On the flip side, SJU has not gotten much offense from its bench with the Hawk reserves combining to score just 28 points.

PAT'S POINTS: Pat Calathes started off the year with two 20-plus point efforts to lead the Hawks in scoring in both games. He's now scored 20 or more points in eight career games.

LEAGUE LEADERS: In the league stats at the beginning of the week, Tasheed Carr tops the Atlantic 10 in assists with 8.67 per game, in steals with 3.67, and in assist-to-turnover ratio with 3.25. Ahmad Nivins leads the league in rebounding with his average of 9.0.

LONG-RANGE THREAT: Darrin Govens has established himself as the early long-range threat for the Hawks, hitting 15 3-pointers in the first four games, including a 5-for-10 effort in the win over Ball State. Govens made six against Syracuse and scored a career-high 22 points. He is now shooting 42.9 percent from behind the arc, having converted 38.3 percent last season. Phil Martelli sees Govens as more of shooter than a point guard, saying "D rrin can really, really stroke the ball and he reminds me of Terrell Myers, and that's the highest compliment I can pay a shooter at Saint Joseph's. He has a fearlessness for shooting the ball. He is a shooter - he's not a point guard."

TEAM EFFORT: The Hawks have done a good job of distributing the ball with a balanced scoring effort (four players averaging double figures) and averaging 17.0 assists per game.

DAZZLING DEBUT: Philadelphia native Tasheed Carr had a sparkling debut with the Hawks after sitting out 2006-07 upon his transfer from Iowa State. Against FDU, he had 11 points and 12 assists, just two shy of the SJU record. He followed that up with another solid performance against Syracuse with 13 points, nine assists and six rebounds. The 6-4 guard averaged 5.8 points and 2.2 rebounds as Iowa State's sixth man in 2005-06, and was named to the Big 12 All-Bench Team. Carr attended University City H.S., but then graduated from Mt. Zion Academy in North Carolina. Carr has two years of eligibility at SJU.

NOT NIVINS-TYPE NUMBERS: Ahmad Nivins only had four shots against Syracuse as the Hawks couldn't get him the ball against the SU zone. He registered just three points and five rebounds. His action was also limited to just 12 minutes in the first half after picking up two fouls. That was the lowest total for the junior since he had six points against St. Bonaventure on February 17, 2007.

OFF TARGET: The Hawks' free-throw shooting isn't quite up to par yet as they're hitting 69.0 percent from the line. SJU was only 10-for-15 from the line against Syracuse, with the usually "automatic" Pat Calathes missing three in the game. They followed that hitting only 63.6 percent in Boston, but bounced backed with a season-best 80 percent at home against Ball State. Last year Saint Joseph's converted 72.3 percent on the season, led by Calathes' 84.6 percent.

SENIOR MOMENT: Against FDU, Arvydas Lidzius showed a shooting touch that's been mainly seen only in practices. The fifth-year senior came off the bench to make all four shots and record a career-high 11 points in the win over FDU, in 12 minutes of action.

FRONT AND CENTER: Saint Joseph's has one of the top frontcourts in the Atlantic 10, comprised of Pat Calathes, Rob Ferguson and Ahmad Nivins, the team's top three scorers from last season. All three averaged double figures last season with Nivins scoring 16.6 points per game, Calathes averaging 13.9 and Ferguson scoring 11.3 points. Nivins and Calathes, who each received 2007 All-Conference honors, are also among the league's top 20 returning scorers. Last season, the trio accounted for 61 percent of the Hawks' scoring.

DIFFERENT LOOK: The Hawks are putting a more experienced starting five on the floor than last season. In 2006-07, SJU started two freshmen (Jawan Carter and Garrett Williamson). This season, the frontcourt of Pat Calathes, Ahmad Nivins and Rob Ferguson have made a total of 142 starts. Tasheed Carr starts his SJU career after two seasons at Iowa State, and Darrin Govens has made only six prior starts, but played in 27 games last year.

ON TARGET: Ahmad Nivins set the school record for field goal percentage last season, converting an impressive 63.1 percent (176-279). That number also ranked as the top in the Atlantic 10. For his career, he is shooting 62.8 percent from the field.

MR. VERSATILITY: Pat Calathes put together solid all-around numbers last season and ranked among the Atlantic 10's leaders in seven different categories- scoring, rebounding, assists, blocks, defensive rebounds, assist/turnover ratio, and free throw percentage. Calathes ranked second on the Hawks with career-best averages of 13.9 points and 7.1 rebounds, but led the squad in assists, with 3.6 per game.

CAPTAINS OF THE SHIP: Rob Ferguson and Tasheed Carr were named co-captains as voted by their teammates. In 2006-07, the Hawks did not elect captains and designated them only on a game-by-game basis.

TO THE POINT: Phil Martelli prefers not to label his players as point guards or two-guard and says that they "are just guards." The Hawks showed a combination of players who can run the point using Darrin Govens, Tasheed Carr and Garrett Williamson. Pat Calathes is also capable of running the offense and gives SJU a unique look with his height.

SITTING IT OUT: Sophomore D.J. Rivera will not participate in competition this semester in order to concentrate on academics. Rivera will practice with the Hawks on a schedule determined by Coach Martelli and the academic tutors. Rivera was the Hawks' "sixth man" last season, leading the team in steals (41) and averaging 5.9 points. His status for the rest of the season will be determined when the first semester is completed.

DEPTH CHARGES: The Hawks have a smaller squad than usual this year, with only 12 players for at least the first semester as D.J. Rivera sits out. There are 11 scholarship players, with C.J. Brown being the lone walk-on.

* career-best statistics

NEW FACES: Charoy Bentley and Idris Hilliard comprise the Hawks' freshman class. Bentley, a 5-11 guard from Harding High School in Connecticut, played there under his father, Charles. An All-State selection, he averaged 25 points per game his senior season and scored over 1,600 points in his career. Hilliard, a 6-7 forward, earned All-State honors three times while at The Hun School in New Jersey. He averaged 15.0 points and 6.2 rebounds as a senior and helped his team to the Prep A state title.

DEAN OF COACHES: Phil Martelli has the most Atlantic 10 wins among active coaches with 123 and owns the longest tenure at one school (12 years) of any of the league's coaches. Only Jim Baron of Rhode Island has been in the A-10 longer (15 years), but it's been at two schools, St. Bonaventure and Rhode Island.

PRESEASON PICKS: The Hawks were picked to finish third in the Atlantic 10 in the preseason voting of media and coaches. Ahmad Nivins was chosen to the 2007-08 A-10 Preseason All-Conference First Team, with Pat Calathes earning a spot on the third team. Nivins was also one of 33 players named to the Naismith Trophy Preseason Watch List.

LONE HOLDOVERS: Rob Ferguson and Arvydas Lidzius are each in their fifth year with the program and are the final players remaining from SJU's 2003-04 Elite Eight Team. Both were freshmen that season while Ferguson redshirted the year. Lidzius was a reserve on that team but sat out the 2005-06 season.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE: This year the Hawks will face seven teams which reached the NCAA Tournament last season, as well as three which appeared in the NIT. In the non-conference slate they will meet three teams, Boston University (Nov. 17), Holy Cross (Dec. 4) and Siena (Dec. 28), which are picked to win their leagues in 2007-08.

THREE FOR ALL: SJU owns a streak of 440 straight games with at least one 3-pointer made, a string which began at the start of the 1993-94 season. The last game in which a Hawks' team did not hit a "three" was at Southwest Missouri State on Mar. 18, 1993.

HALLMARK OF SUCCESS: Entering this season, SJU had compiled 159-68 record (70.0 winning percentage) in the past seven seasons, with postseason berths in six of them.

WALKING ON: Sophomore C.J. Brown is another new face on the team as he earned a spot on the squad this year as the Hawks' only walk-on. Brown was an All-State Third Team selection at Caravel Academy in Delaware and was a part of two state championship teams there. A biology major, Brown played for the Hawks' junior varsity team last year.

ALL IN THE FAMILY: Coaching certainly runs in the Martelli blood as the head coach's two sons are currently working the sidelines. Oldest son Phil, Jr., a 2003 SJU graduate, is an assistant coach at Niagara University. Jimmy, a 2005 graduate of Dickinson College, is in his first year as an assistant at Robert Morris University.

IN GOOD COMPANY: Ahmad Nivins was one of the 30 players selected to participate in the USA Basketball Pan Am Games Trials this past summer.

HAWKS IN THE PROS: Saint Joseph's is currently represented in the NBA by 2004 first-round picks Jameer Nelson (Orlando Magic) and Delonte West (Seattle Superonics), as well as 2005 A-10 Defensive Player of the Year Dwayne Jones (Cleveland Cavaliers).

CRADLE OF COACHES: The Saint Joseph's coaching connection is an impressive one. A total of seven Saint Joseph's graduates have gone on to become head coaches in the NBA, and SJU is now tied with Illinois for second on the list of universities with alums that have served as NBA head coaches. Indiana tops the list with 11 graduates that have coached in the league. Jim O'Brien is the only current NBA head coach, now in his first season with the Indiana Pacers. Below is the list of former Hawks who have held positions as NBA head coaches:

Player (Class)	NBA Teams	W-L (yrs.)
Jack Ramsay ('49)	Phila., Buf., Port., Ind.	864-783 (21)
Jim Lynam ('63)	L.A. Clippers, Phila., Wash.	328-392 (10)
Matt Guokas ('67)	Phila., Orlando	230-305 (7)
Paul Westhead ('61)	L.A. Lakers, Chicago, Denver	183-224 (6)
Jack McKinney ('57)	L.A. Lakers, Indiana 1	35-205 (5)
George Senesky ('43)	Philadelphia	119-97 (3)
Jim O'Brien ('74)	Indiana, Philadelphia, Boston	182-158 (5)

CHAMPION FOR A CAUSE: Phil Martelli's passion extends to his work in the community and his efforts with Coaches vs. Cancer are tireless. Martelli and the five other Division I coaches in the city (Drexel, La Salle, Penn, Temple, Villanova) comprise the Philadelphia Coaches vs. Cancer group, which has become one of the most successful group in the nation. The six coaches raised over $800,000 last year to fight the disease, while setting a goal of $1 million for this year. The group was honored with the Coaches vs. Cancer Champion Award by the NABC at the 2004 NCAA Final Four. Martelli and his wife, Judy, were honored in early November 2007 for their work and presented with the Inspiration Award from the American Cancer Society.

SPELL IT OUT: The corporate title of "Saint" Joseph's University, which has been in place since Saint Joseph's was granted university status by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1979, is now the public title of the institution for all aspects of its operations. Previously, the abbreviation of "St." was permitted in a number of alumni and athletic contexts. The University should be referred to as "Saint Joseph's". The abbreviations "SJU" or "St. Joe's" are acceptable in headlines or certain informal references.

LOOKING AHEAD: The Hawks are in the midst of four games in eight days, with all of the games in Philadelphia. Up next is the first game of the year in the Palestra on Saturday, Dec. 1, when the Hawks host Penn State. Saint Joseph's will then take on Holy Cross on Dec. 4 at the Fieldhouse to round out the home-stand.

MARTELLI THE AUTHOR

In 2007, Phil Martelli added a new title to his resumé - that of "author". Martelli came out with his first book in September, entitled "Don't Call Me Coach: A Lesson Plan for Life." The book is co-written by the Hawks' coach and Harold Gullan, Ph.D.

In the book, Martelli passes on what he has learned from his own rich experience, which includes over 30 years of coaching at the high school and college levels. One of America's most colorful, outspoken, and successful coaches, Martelli compresses his three decades of experience into a 10-point "lesson plan for life" that will benefit anyone, no matter what the challenges may be.

He speaks equally to teachers, parents, educators, and business executives — in short, to anyone who plays the role of coach in daily life.

Gullan, a noted historian and sports fan, is also the author of "The Upset That Wasn't", "Faith of Our Mothers", "First Fathers", and "Jumping Through Hoops".

The book, which includes a forward from Pennsylvania Governor Ed Rendell, was published by Camino Books of Philadelphia (www.camino-books.com).

FIELDHOUSE EXPANSION PROJECT

A major expansion of Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse and a dedicated center for men's and women's basketball highlight a comprehensive plan for enhancing varsity and recreational athletics at Saint Joseph's. Construction on the project began in the fall of 2007.

As the home of the Hawks, the Fieldhouse is the well-loved shrine and the very heart of Saint Joseph's athletics. The expansion and renovation is an integral part of With Faith and Strength to Dare: The Campaign for Saint Joseph's University, and will preserve the storied facility while bringing the athletic complex to a level befitting such a venerable tradition. The Fieldhouse, home to Saint Joseph's University basketball since 1949, will be named for Michael J. Hagan '85 at the conclusion of the multi-year project set to begin this fall.

Because of the Maguire Campus (former Episcopal Academy) acquisition, the vast needs of the University's intramural program and several varsity sports will finally be addressed, creating an opportunity to dramatically improve the infrastructure for men's and women's basketball.

The three-phased project will begin with the construction of a two-story, 20,000-square-foot new wing adjacent to the existing Fieldhouse. It will add locker rooms, offices, and study rooms for men's and women's basketball, and a new Athletic Hall of Fame room.

Phase II will upgrade and renovate the current sports complex by adding a dedicated practice facility with permanent wood flooring as well as locker rooms and offices for soccer, lacrosse, track, and cross country. Phase III will include a complete overhaul of the interior of the fieldhouse, followed by the construction of an upper-level concourse, expanded seating (a minimum of 1,000 seats will be added), and more. Home court advantage will be secured, and the Saint Joseph's athletic tradition will live on for years to come.

Events in the new facility could begin as early as 2010.

THE HAWK

The Saint Joseph's Hawk mascot has been flapping its wings for more than a half a century, and celebrated its golden anniversary in 2005-06.

One of the most famous mascots in college sports, the Hawk is best known for staying in constant motion by flapping its wings throughout every basketball game and representing the Saint Joseph's motto, "The Hawk Will Never Die".

The idea for the Hawk as a mascot was originated by Jim Brennan during the 1954-55 season. Brennan, an ex-Marine and SJU cheerleader, at first wanted to secure an actual hawk, but later switched to the costume idea. The student government raised the 120 dollars needed to buy the initial costume, which Brennan donned for three years. He made his debut as the Hawk on January 4, 1956, a 69-56 win over La Salle at the Palestra. The Hawk has not missed a men's basketball game since that first season.

In addition to the constant flapping, the Hawk is also recognized by its "flying" in figure eights around the court during timeouts. The constant motion, coupled with the scrappy play of the University's athletic teams, helped to spawn the school's familiar slogan "The Hawk Will Never Die!" A few years ago, ESPN used a "flap-o-meter" on the national telecast of a Saint Joseph's game to estimate that the Hawk flaps its wings 3,500 times during a regulation game.

The Hawk is unique because it is one of the few mascots in the nation that travels to every game, and the student who holds the position gains a full scholarship. The student, who is selected through an interview process during the previous spring semester, also serves as a team manager for the men's basketball team and travels with the squad.

Jim Miller is the Hawk mascot for the second straight year, and the 30th student to wear the wings. He is a senior public administration major from Broomall, PA.

ON THE AIR

TV: Five of Saint Joseph's regular-season games will be seen nationally this season, beginning with the continuation of the rivalry with Gonzaga on November 29 on ESPNU from the Fieldhouse. ESPNU will also show the Hawks' game at local rival Temple (Jan. 26) while conference matchups with Saint Louis and Xavier will be seen on either ESPN or ESPN2. The annual rivalry with Villanova will be televised nationally by CSTV on February 4. Saint Joseph's will have a minimum of six conference games produced and broadcast regionally by CSTV, with the outlets to be announced. The complete broadcast schedule is on page 2.

RADIO: All Hawk games will be broadcast this year on WNTP 990 AM and can be heard via audio streaming on www.sjuhawks.com. The Saint Joseph's Sports Network team of Tom McCarthy and Joe Lunardi will provide the play-by-play and color commentary, respectively, for the fifth consecutive year. McCarthy, who spent two years as the play-by-play announcer for the New York Mets radio broadcasts, was recently named the television play-by-play announcer for the Philadelphia Phillies. He's making a return to the Philadelphia Phillies, as he worked their radio broadcasts for three years prior to the Mets job. He also announces numerous college basketball games for CSTV. Lunardi, in his 18th year on the Hawks' radio broadcasts, is the assistant vice president for Marketing at Saint Joseph's, and is a college basketball analyst for ESPN.com with his popular "Bracketology" column.

"HAWKTALK": Phil Martelli's "HawkTalk" will return for its 12th season in 2007-08. The most unique coach's television show in college basketball, it was named the "Best Coach's Show in the Nation" by The Sporting News. Martelli's show combines a "Tonight Show" format with unique guests and just a few basketball highlights. The show will air locally on Comcast SportsNet beginning in January.

INTERNET: Information for Saint Joseph's basketball is found at SJU's athletics website, www.sjuhawks.com with statistics, updated game notes, and live in-game statistics for all Hawk home games, and selected road games. Through Hawks All-Access, fans can watch and listen to every game from Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse through audio and video streaming. Video features on the team will also be available on the site.

GAME RECAPS

SJU 86- Fairleigh Dickinson 66: Saint Joseph's used its size to dominate the smaller Fairleigh Dickinson team and win its season opener, 86-66. Pat Calathes had 20 points and Ahmad Nivins had 19 points and nine rebounds as the Hawks shot a sizzling 62.3 percent from the field. Senior Arvydas Lidzius helped break open the game early as he hit a career-high 11 points on 4-for-4 shooting in a 12-3 run. SJU led by as many as 18 points in the second half before FDU went on an 11-2 run to close to within 64-57. But the Hawks scored nine straight points, with five from Calathes, to build the lead back to double digits. In his first game as a Hawk, Tasheed Carr had 11 points and 12 assists.

Syracuse 72 - SJU 69: The Hawks fell, 72-69, at Syracuse in a back-and-forth contest in the 2007 NIT Season Tip-Off. Pat Calathes' 3-point play tied it at 24.5 seconds, but Syracuse's Jonny Flynn hit a game-winning 3-pointer with 5.3 seconds to go. The Hawks got off to a flying start, running up a 12-0 lead before Syracuse scored its first basket six minutes into the game. Syracuse came back and held a 33-30 lead at halftime, but started the second half with a 12-3 run. The Orange opened a 45-33 lead but SJU went on a 10-point run to cut the deficit to 45-43 with 15:18 left. A putback by Rob Ferguson gave the Hawks a 50-48 lead but Syracuse answered with eight straight points. Trailing by 63-56 with 4:50, the Hawks fought back and tied it at 68-68 at :25 on Calathes' follow and free throw. That set the stage for Flynn's gamewinner. Tasheed Carr was fouled at :02 and after making the first free throw, intentionally missed the second but SJU couldn't grab the rebound. Calathes finished with 22, Darrin Govens had a career-high 22 points and Carr scored 13 points, while Ahmad Nivins was limited to three points on four shots.

SJU 57- Boston University 48: Ahmad Nivins scored 18 points and matched his career high with 13 rebounds to lead SJU to a 57-48 victory over Boston University, the Hawks' third win over the Terriers in less than a year. Saint Joseph's won despite not scoring a field goal over the final 9:03 and shooting 3-for-20 from 3-point range. The Hawks, who trailed by as many as seven in the first half, took a 49-33 lead with 9:03 left and scored just eight free throws the rest of the way, but BU could get no closer than seven points. Darrin Govens scored 19 points for the Hawks, while Tasheed Carr added nine points, five assists and six of his team's 12 steals.

SJU 74- Ball State 63: Pat Calathes scored 19 points and Darrin Govens had 15, including four 3-pointers in the second half, as Saint Joseph's defeated Ball State, 74-63, in the home opener at Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. Ahmad Nivins had 15 points for the Hawks, which were playing their first game since Nov. 17. The Hawks jumped out to a quick 13-2 lead but Ball State eventually took the lead, 23-22, late in the first half. SJU closed out the half with a 9-2 run to own a 36-29 edge at intermission. The Hawks led 46-33 six minutes into the second half, but Ball State used a 10-2 run to pull within 48-45. Long-range shooting by Govens sparked the Hawks to a 61-49 advantage, but the Cardinals rallied once again, cutting the lead to 64-57 at the 5:03 mark. But Rob Ferguson made a layup and Govens hit another three to end the threat. Tasheed Carr finished with 13 points and five assists.
