LAST TIME OUT

The Hawks opened Big 5 play with a convincing 63-46 win at Penn last Tuesday. Saint Joseph's got scoring from nine of 10 players as SJU improved to 3-1 on the season. For a complete boxscore and recap, please see page 14.

SAINT JOSEPH'S VERSUS THE POLLS

The Hawks enter Wednesday's meeting with No. 5/6 Rutgers 30-102 all-time versus nationally ranked opponents. Saint Joseph's, which is 4-19 against ranked Scarlet Knight teams, downed No. 8/9 George Washington, 57-55, in last year's Atlantic 10 semifinals on March 4, 2007 for the Hawks most recent win. For a complete list of the Hawks' results versus ranked opponents, please see page 138 of the Saint Joseph's media guide.

ACK ATTACK

Having played just four collegiate games, Saint Joseph's freshman Sarah Acker has already made an impact for the Hawks. Currently tied for second in the Atlantic 10 in rebounding at 10.3 per game, the 6-foot-3 center enters Wednesday's game second on the team in scoring at 12.0 ppg and first in field goal percentage (48.7 percent) and blocks (5).

MCING IT HAPPEN

Serving as backup point guard her first two seasons on Hawk Hill, junior Mary Kate McDade has thrived this year as a starter. Ranking seventh in the Atlantic 10, and first on SJU, the Philadelphia native has dished out 16 assists over the first four games, well above her career average (1.67 apg).

NOVEMBER HOME COOKING

Despite playing two roads games during the month of November, Saint Joseph's won't be doing much traveling as the Hawks will not be leaving the 610 area code. After opening the season at Lehigh, Saint Joseph's only other "road" game in November was last Tuesday at Penn.

2007-08 Atlantic 10 Predictions

The Saint Joseph's women's basketball team was picked to finish sixth in the Atlantic 10 race, according to a poll of the Atlantic 10's head coaches and media released today by conference officials. The Hawks, who advanced to the A-10 Championships game and earned a WNIT berth last year, return eight letterwinners from a squad that finished 19-14 a season ago. George Washington (28-4), the 2006-07 regular season A-10 champs, was selected as the clear-cut favorite to win the Atlantic 10, receiving all 17 first-place votes. The Colonials, who return four starters, including three Atlantic 10 Preseason All-Conference members, finished last year ranked No. 11 in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 Poll. The following is the predicted finish for all 14 members of the Atlantic 10.

SAINT JOSEPH'S IRON WOMAN

Since the first game of the 2004-05 season, guard Timisha Gomez has been an "Iron Woman" for Saint Joseph's, playing in all 98 games over her career. The senior, Gomez has averaged 22.5 minutes per contest, while averaging 6.2 points. This season, Gomez has turned in four solid performances, averaging 12.3 points and 6.0 boards per game. Of the eight returning letterwinners, she is the only Hawk to play in every game of her career.

FOR OPENERS

Saint Joseph's improved to 26-9 in season openers as the Hawks began its 35th year with a 60-59 win at Lehigh. The Hawks are now 24-11 in their road openers, with four of those wins coming against the Mountain Hawks of Lehigh. The last time the Hawks lost a season-opening game was November 22, 2002, dropping a 59-44 decision to Big 5 rival Villanova, with SJU's last season-opening loss on the road coming at No.1 Tennessee, 108-63, on November 16, 1998.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

The Hawks added several five faces for the 2007-08 season with the addition of freshmen Sarah Acker, Dominique Bryant, Kallie Hovatter, Alexis Johnson and Laren Robinson. As a group, these rookies averaged 91 points and 52.5 rebounds per game as seniors in high school. Just four games into their collegiate careers, these newcomers have made major impacts on Hawk Hill as the group has averaged 20.8 points, 15.3 rebounds and 2.3 steals per game. For a complete game-by-game recap of each player, please see pages 7, 9, 10 and 12.

NEW FACES ON HAWK HILL

Saint Joseph's Head Coach Cindy Griffin announced this summer that Stephanie McCaffrey was promoted to assistant coach, while Saint Joseph's Hall of Famer Ellen Fitzpatrick returned to Hawk Hill as director of women's basketball operations. After spending the previous two seasons as the director of basketball operations, McCaffrey (nee Graff) was promoted to assistant coach, replacing the departed Lynn Milligan, who left in April to accept the head-coaching job at Rider. Fitzpatrick, who brings over 15 years of basketball experience to Griffin's staff, is in charge of opponent film exchange, and assisting in team travel plans. She also assists with the Hawk Hill Roundball Club, Saint Joseph's women's basketball booster organization, as well as the Ball-Handling Kids Club and team promotions.

LIGHTS, CAMERAS, HAWKS

Former Saint Joseph's women's basketball standouts Jane Meade '02, Elizabeth Mohan '04, Ayahna Cornish '07 and current SJU assistant coach Susan Moran '02, will appear in the upcoming film "Our Lady of Victory", centered around the 1972 national-championship squad from Immaculata College. The movie, starring Ellen Burstyn (Requiem For A Dream), Carla Gugino (HBO's Entourage) and David Boreanaz (Fox's Bones), focuses on the Mighty Macs of Immaculata and their new coach Cathy Rush (played by Gugino). Realizing her dream as a head coach, Rush leads Immaculata from a team with no gym and no uniforms to the first national championship in women's basketball. The movie is due out in late March.

A HOT START

With several Hawks having a larger role this season compared to last, there is no arguing the transformation of SJU's sophomore forward Ashley Logue. Having earned limited playing time in just seven games a year ago, Logue has excelled as a starter this year. Scoring only two points and adding six rebounds as a rookie, Logue eclipsed nearly all her career-highs in the opener at Lehigh, scoring 16 points and adding six rebounds. Over the first four games, Logue ranks third on Saint Joseph's in scoring (8.0 ppg), second in rebounding (5.5 rpg) and is tied for the team lead in steals (5).

YOUTH MOVEMENT

The Hawks will be using a young lineup during the 2007-08 season as 8 of Saint Joseph's 13 players are freshmen and sophomores. With Saint Joseph's loss of 65.2 percent of its scoring (1,413 of 2,166 points) this past off-season, the Hawks will look for all four classes contribute evenly in 07-08. The following is a comparison of each class' points and percentage of the team's scoring based.

2006-07

Class	Points	%
Juniors (current seniors)	219	10.1
Sophomores (current juniors)	314	14.5
Freshmen (current sophomores)	220	10.2

2007-08

Class	Points	%
Seniors	51	23.3
Juniors	39	17.8
Sophomores	46	21.0
Freshmen	83	37.9

CAPTAINS ON THE DECK

Saint Joseph's Head Coach Cindy Griffin announced that seniors Timisha Gomez, Krista Hutchison and junior Mary Kate McDade will serve as the team's captains for the 2007-08 season. All three Hawks are first-time captains as they replace '07 graduates Ayahna Cornish and Whitney Ffrench.

FORD TOUGH

After missing the 2005-06 season with a torn ACL, forward Brittany Ford was a bright spot for the Hawks' bench last year. Averaging 4.3 points in just 12.5 minutes a game during the regular season, Ford came on strong over the final five games of the season, averaging 12.6 points per contest. Ford also proved to be a solid defender for Saint Joseph's, ranking second on the team at 0.96 rejections per game. During the Atlantic 10 Championship, Ford's offensive ability blossomed. Averaging 13 points and 6.8 rebounds per game, the Wilmington, DE native earned All-Tournament Team honors after helping lead the Hawks to the A-10 title game. In the championship game, Ford scored a team and career-high 20 points off the bench in front of a national television audience. She followed that up with 11 points and a career-high three blocks in SJU's WNIT matchup with Coppin State. Looking to carry the momentum over to 2007-08, Ford will have to wait as she missed the opening four games with a knee injury and is out for today's contest as well.

S-A-I-N-T JOSEPH'S UNIVERSITY

The corporate title of "Saint" Joseph's University, which has been in place since Saint Joseph's was granted university status by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1979, is now the "public" title of the institution for all aspects of its operations. Previously, the abbreviation of "St." Joseph's University was permitted in a number of alumni and athletic contexts. According to the most recent edition of the Higher Education Directory, there are at least nine recognized "St. Joseph's" among the nation's colleges and universities. Only one of them-Saint Joseph's University, Philadelphia-is a university-level, Master's I, NCAA Division I institution. A complete spelling of S-A-I-N-T Joseph's University in all contexts will help eliminate any confusion among higher education and other public constituencies.

HEART OF A HAWK

In addition to athletics and academics, community service has long been one of the traditions of the Saint Joseph's University women's basketball program. The "Heart of a Hawk" program is the team's way of "giving back" to the community. Each student athlete is required to complete a minimum of 10 hours of community service each semester.

ON THE AIR

For over 17 years, the Saint Joseph's Sports Network (SJSN) has produced and broadcast Hawk athletics to the Philadelphia region and beyond. Begun as an outgrowth of a four-game package of Saint Joseph's women's basketball broadcasts during the 1989-90 season, SJSN was founded in the fall of 1990. Since that time, SJSN's coverage of Hawk athletics has grown and currently includes live coverage of all Hawk men's and women's basketball games, Phil Martelli's "HawkTalk" radio program, the nationally-renowned "HawkTalk" television show and "Courtside", the Saint Joseph's women's basketball show.

All of SJU's women's games can also be heard via audio streaming on the internet at the Hawks' official athletics site, www.sjuhawks.com. Video streaming of selected games will also be available on www.sjuhawks.com as part of the Hawks All-Access package.

Saint Joseph's pioneered commercial radio of women's college basketball in the area with a NCAA tournament game in March 1989 and followed that up with a package of regular season games ever since. The Cindy Griffin pregame show kicks-off game broadcasts.

CRADLE OF COACHES

The Saint Joseph's coaching connection is an impressive one. A total of 16 Saint Joseph's graduates are currently in the coaching ranks, with another six head coaches who have ties to Hawk Hill. Current SJU Head Coach Cindy Griffin and Notre Dame Head Coach Muffet (O'Brien) McGraw both earned Saint Joseph's Women's Basketball Hall of Fame honors after terrific playing careers at Hawk Hill. This past summer, Saint Joseph's added another to the coaching ranks as Lynn Milligan resigned to become head coach at her alma mater, Rider. Milligan joins current Loyola (MD) Head Coach Joe Logan as member's of Griffin's staff who have become head coaches at the Division I level. The following is a list of current college and pro head coaches and their ties to SJU. For the complete list of Hawks in the coaching ranks, please see page 99 of the Saint Joseph's media guide.

LOOKING AHEAD

Saint Joseph's heads to Providence, R.I. for the Brown Basketball Classic this Saturday and Sunday, December 1 & 2. The Hawks face Manhattan in the first day of action, with the tip scheduled for 3 p.m. Saint Joseph's will face either host Brown or Howard Sunday with the consolation game scheduled for 1 p.m. and the title game set for 3 p.m.

FIELDHOUSE EXPANSION PROJECT

A major expansion of Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse and a dedicated center for men's and women's basketball highlight a comprehensive plan for enhancing varsity and recreational athletics at Saint Joseph's. Construction on the project began in the fall of 2007.

As the home of the Hawks, the Fieldhouse is the well-loved shrine and the very heart of Saint Joseph's athletics. The expansion and renovation is an integral part of With Faith and Strength to Dare: The Campaign for Saint Joseph's University, and will preserve the storied facility while bringing the athletic complex to a level befitting such a venerable tradition. The Fieldhouse, home to Saint Joseph's University basketball since 1949, will be named for Michael J. Hagan '85 at the conclusion of the multi-year project set to begin this fall.

Because of the Maguire Campus (former Episcopal Academy) acquisition, the vast needs of the University's intramural program and several varsity sports will finally be addressed, creating an opportunity to dramatically improve the infrastructure for men's and women's basketball.

The three-phased project will begin with the construction of a two-story, 20,000-square-foot new wing adjacent to the existing Fieldhouse. It will add locker rooms, offices, and study rooms for men's and women's basketball, and a new Athletic Hall of Fame room.

Phase II will upgrade and renovate the current sports complex by adding a dedicated practice facility with permanent wood flooring as well as locker rooms and offices for soccer, lacrosse, track, and cross country. Phase III will include a complete overhaul of the interior of the fieldhouse, followed by the construction of an upper-level concourse, expanded seating (a minimum of 1,000 seats will be added), and more. Home court advantage will be secured, and the Saint Joseph's athletic tradition will live on for years to come.

Events in the new facility could begin as early as 2010.

THE HAWK

The Saint Joseph's "Hawk" has been flapping its wings for over half a century, celebrating its golden anniversary in 2004-05.

The Hawk is one of the most famous mascots in college sports best known for staying in constant motion by flapping its "wings" from tip-off to the final buzzer of every game, as well as for "flying" in figure eights around the court during timeouts. The constant flapping, coupled with the scrappy play of the University's athletic teams, helped to spawn the school's familiar slogan "The Hawk Will Never Die!" ESPN used a "flap-o-meter" on a national telecast of a Saint Joseph's game to estimate that the Hawk flaps its wings 3,500 times during a regulation game.

The most decorated mascot in the country, the Hawk has garnered numerous accolades in its 50-year history. It has been selected as the nation's top mascot by The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, Sports Illustrated for Kids, Street & Smith's Basketball Yearbook and ESPN College Basketball magazine. Eastern Basketball tabbed The Hawk as the Atlantic 10 Conference's best mascot, while The Hawk won a "Best of Philly" award in 2003-04.

Saint Joseph's University athletic teams have been recognized with the nickname "Hawks" since 1929. At that time, the school's yearbook editor, Charlie Dunn, initiated a contest among the student body for a symbol. More than 100 submissions were narrowed to two, with "Hawks" winning out over "Grenadiers" (World War I soldiers who specialized in tossing grenades) by a slim margin in the final vote. The winning suggestion was submitted by John Gallagher, Class of '31, who was a catcher on the Saint Joseph's baseball team. He won a sweater with a special Saint Joseph's monogram for selecting the winning name.

According to the student annual, the name was appropriate because it typified "the fighting spirit of our crimson and gray athletes and it is suggestive of the aerial attack which has made our football team famous." Football, ironically, was discontinued at Saint Joseph's following the 1939 season.

The idea for the Hawk as a mascot was originated by Jim Brennan during the 1954-55 season. Brennan, an ex-Marine and SJU cheerleader, at first wanted to secure an actual hawk, but later switched to the costume idea. The student government raised the 120 dollars needed to buy the initial costume, which Brennan donned for three years. He made his debut as the Hawk on January 4, 1956, a 69-56 win over La Salle at the Palestra. The Hawk, who was present at most women's basketball games, became a main-stay in 1989. Since then, nine SJU students have donned the costume. Saint Joseph's junior Kevin Hensler is in his third season as the Hawk.

Five postseason berths in her first six seasons at the helm of Saint Joseph's is one of the numerous accomplishments for the Hawks' Head Coach Cindy Griffin.

Griffin helped to reinvigorate the SJU program in her first season, leading the squad to a 24-8 record and the second round of the WNIT.

Following a memorable first year at the helm of her alma mater, Griffin upped the ante in her second season by capturing 2003 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Hawks to a 19-11 record.

Led by six seniors, the 2004 team went 22-11 and advanced to the WNIT Elite Eight. Saint Joseph's finished second in the A-10 East and dropped a heartbreaker in the Atlantic 10 Championship to Temple.

With the loss of four 1,000-point scorers, the 2004-05 Hawks showed their true colors down the stretch, earning a hard-fought victory over La Salle in the opening round of the Atlantic 10 Championship and coming within 10 points of 16th-ranked, and eventual A-10 Champion, Temple.

Fueled by a collection of newcomers and a developed core of upperclassmen, Griffin led the Hawks back to national prominence in 2005-06. The Crimson and Gray engineered the nation's best turnaround of 13 games, made an appearance in the national polls for the first time since 2003-04, advanced to the semi-finals of the A-10 Championship and earned a berth in the WNIT.

Despite losing a good deal of experienced players prior to the 2006-07 season, Griffin had her team peaking at the right time. Playing Griffin's style of hard-nosed defense and persistent offense, the Hawks advanced to the Atlantic 10 Championship, including the program's first win over a Top 10 opponent (#8/9 George Washington) along the way.

Following her playing career, Griffin spent the 1992-93 season as a graduate assistant at her alma mater. She then accepted an assistant's spot at Vanderbilt University from 1993-95 under former Saint Joseph's head coach Jim Foster.

In her two years as an assistant at Vanderbilt, the Commodores finished 53-15 overall, won the 1995 SEC championship and reached the NCAA Sweet 16 both seasons. In addition to coaching responsibilities, she was the co-director of the Vanderbilt Basketball Camp and the director of the Black & Gold Club.

Griffin left Vanderbilt after the 1995 season to return to the East Coast as an assistant coach at Loyola College (MD). She spent three seasons as an assistant under Patty Coyle at Loyola before being elevated to the role of associate head coach in 1998. Griffin was promoted to the position of head women's basketball coach at Loyola midway through the 1998-99 season.

One of the top playmakers in Saint Joseph's history, Griffin starred for the Hawks from 1987-88 through 1991-92 (missing the 1988-89 season due to injury). A three-year team captain, Griffin finished her career with 662 points, 278 rebounds, 510 assists and 197 steals.

As a junior in 1990-91, she played in 1,178 out of a possible 1,200 minutes to set the school record for minutes played in a single season. The Hawks made three NCAA Tournament appearances and posted three straight 20-win seasons during her playing career. A two-time Second Team All-Big 5 choice, as well as a Third Team All-Atlantic 10 pick as a senior, she was inducted into the Saint Joseph's Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 1998.

A native of Maple Glen, Pa., Griffin played her high school basketball for Bishop McDevitt, winning two Philadelphia Catholic League titles. A 1987 graduate of McDevitt, she was inducted into its Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997, and in 2002, received the Philadelphia Catholic League's alumni achievement award. She earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Saint Joseph's in 1991 and completed work on a M.B.A. degree from SJU in 1993.

2007-08 SAINT JOSEPH'S BASKETBALL - PG. 14

Game 1: November 10, 8:00 • Stabler Arena Saint Joseph's - 60, Lehigh - 59

Saint Joseph's senior Timisha Gomez's pair of free throws with 4.4 seconds left and a key strip on the ensuing play helped the Saint Joseph's earn an improbable 60-59 win in its season opener at Lehigh. The Hawks trailed by 13, 54-41, with 6:18 remaining, but mounted a 17-0 run over the next four to take their first lead since the early going, 56-54, at 2:33. Lehigh regained the lead, 59-58, with 17 seconds remaining, but the Hawks' Gomez was fouled on a shot attempt. Gomez, who calmly swished the pair with 4.4 seconds left, stole the ball on Lehigh's possession to insure victory for Saint Joseph's.

Game 3: November 18, 2:00 • Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse Virginia Commonwealth - 54, Saint Joseph's - 47

Saint Joseph's dropped its first game of the season as Virginia Commonwealth topped the Hawks 54-47. Shooting just 28.3 percent from the field (17-of-60), Saint Joseph's saw the game slip away as the Rams closed out the contest with a 10-2 run. The Hawks held a slim 45-44 edge with 3:56 remaining in the contest, but a 10-2 run by the Rams changed the momentum. The Hawks cut the deficit to 51-47 on a pair of free throws by Timisha Gomez with 23 seconds remaining, but Saint Joseph's couldn't come up with a VCU turnover and the Rams made three free throws over the remaining time to hold on for the win.
