On Tap

Saint Louis entertains Illinois-Chicago Friday in the first round of the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament. Kick-off at Robert R. Hermann Stadium is set for 7 p.m. SLU received an at-large bid after completing its regular season with a 12-2-4 record, while UIC (11-5-5) received an automatic bid to the tournament after winning the Horizon League. The winner of Friday's match advances to face ninth-seeded Northwestern on Wednesday, Nov. 28, in Evanston, Ill.

Quick Hits: Saint Louis

The Billikens lead all NCAA Division I programs with 44 NCAA Tournament appearances. They picked up their second straight NCAA bid after posting a 12-2-4 record during the 2007 slate. It is head coach Dan Donigan's fifth appearance in the tourney in his seven-year tenure. In the latest NCAA statistical report, the Billikens rank eighth in the nation in scoring offense. Leading the way is junior midfielder and A-10 Offensive Player of the Year Kyle Patterson with 24 points (10G, 4A). Sophomore forward Scott Wisniewski, an A-10 second-team pick, follows with 18 points (7G, 4A). Junior forward and first-team All-Conference selection Dado Hamzagic has five goals and four assists for 14 points. The Billiken defense, which has allowed just five goals in its last 10 games, is anchored by keeper Pat Disbennett (0.75 GAA, 2-0-2 record). Contributing to the defensive effort is junior Eric Sweetin (first-team All-Conference), junior Calum Angus (A-10 Defensive Player of the Year), sophomore Rob Viviano (honorable-mention All-Conference), sophomore Tim Ream (second-team All-Conference) and sophomore Josh Aranda.

Quick Hits: Illinois-Chicago

The Flames are making their second straight NCAA Tournament appearance and fourth overall. A winner of its last five, Illinois-Chicago topped Wisconsin-Milwaukee and Wisconsin-Green Bay last weekend to capture its third Horizon League tournament title and first since 2000. The Flames are led in scoring by Cesar Zambrano's 19 points (6G, 7A). Matt Spiess and Pavle Dudjer follow with 13 points, while Charlie Trout has tallied 10 points. Jovan Bubonja is one of the top keepers in the country with a 0.57 GAA and nine shutouts. Head coach John Trask is in his fourth season at the helm of the Flames with a 31-13-12 record.

The Illinois-Chicago Series

The Billikens own a 7-1-1 advantage over the Flames in a series that dates back to the 1960s. Last season, UIC topped the Bills 1-0 in the season opener for both teams. The Flames and Billikens met in the NCAA Tournament once before, with the Billikens claiming a 3-2 victory at Hermann Stadium on Nov. 21, 1999.

NCAA Tournament History

The Billikens have qualified for the NCAA Tournament a record 44 times in the 49-year history of the event and have won a record 10 national championships. Saint Louis has a 65-32-4 (.663) record in NCAA Tournament action.

Streaking

Saint Louis is unbeaten in its last seven matches. The Billikens have suffered only one loss in their last 15 matches, a 1-0 defeat against eventual A-10 tournament champion Massachusetts.

That's Offensive

During its current seven-game unbeaten streak, Saint Louis has out-scored its opponents 26-4. In their final three regular-season games, the Billikens have tallied 18 goals, their most productive three-game stretch since the 1972 national championship team scored 23 goals in three games.

Getting Defensive

The Billikens have combined an explosive offensive performance during their recent streak with an equally formidable defensive effort. Opponents have averaged just 11 shots per game in the last six matches. The Billikens have yielded just one goal or less in their last 10, shutting out their opponents on five different occasions during the stretch.

Quick Strikes

Kyle Patterson's natural hat trick on Nov. 2 against Saint Joseph's came in 2 minutes, 31 seconds, which is the second-fastest in NCAA history. John Stone of SIU Edwardsville scored three straight in 2 minutes, 15 seconds in 1985. IPFW's Chas Perry is the next closest, netting the hat trick in 5 minutes, 23 seconds.

Scoring Binge

Sophomore forward Jimmy Holmes scored a goal in the Bills' final six regular-season games, while Scott Wisniewski had scored in four straight before the scoreless draw with Charlotte last Friday.

Spreading the Wealth

Ten different Billikens have scored so far this season, which is the most since 11 different players found the back of the net in 2005. Beau Bellomy, Charles Bryce, Brian Grazier and Jimmy Holmes have scored their first career goals this year.

National Acclaim

Seven different Billikens have appeared on National Teams of the Week this season. Brandon Barklage is the latest to earn the nod, having landed on CollegeSoccerNews.com's National Team of the Week after scoring a goal and adding two assists against Charlotte. Kyle Patterson was named to all three Teams of the Week (TopDrawerSoccer.com, CollegeSoccerNews.com and Soccer America) last week after earning CSN National Team of the Week honors earlier this year. Tim Ream was named to both Soccer America's and CollegeSoccerNews.com's list for the period ending Oct. 28. In addition, Calum Angus landed on TopDrawerSoccer.com's College Team of the Week. Rob Viviano was selected to TopDrawerSoccer.com's National Team of the Week (Oct. 15) after helping the Bills to shutouts in their first two league games. Dado Hamzagic appeared on CollegeSoccerNews.com's Team of the Week for the period ending Sept. 30 for his dominating play against Central Florida. Josh Aranda, who was named co-MVP of the Saint Louis/Nike Soccer Classic, earned a spot on TopDrawerSoccer.com's National Team of the Week (Sept. 16) after his strong play in the middle helped SLU to two victories in the tourney.

Double Deuce

The Billikens have twice matched up with the second-ranked team in the country this season. The Bills fell 2-0 at No. 2 Duke on Sept. 9, but topped the second-ranked Indiana Hoosiers on Sept. 15.

Dan's Day

Dan Donigan, who has claimed A-10 Coach of the Year honors in back-to-back years, is in his seventh year as head coach with a career record of 91-30-17 (.721). He was the 2003 NSCAA Midwest Region Coach of the Year. Donigan finished 18-2-0 in his debut, which is the best record posted by a Billikens' first-year head coach, and was Conference USA's 2001 Coach of the Year. Donigan has led the Billikens to the NCAA Tournament in five of his seven seasons and has a 5-4 record in tournament play. The former University of Connecticut All-American and Big East Player of the Decade for the 1980s took charge in 2001 after serving as an assistant coach for the previous four seasons.

On the Sidelines

Matt Tutton is in his first year as an assistant coach for the Billikens, while Dave Beck returns for his second season. Martin Hutton was added as a graduate assistant coach in charge of goalkeepers. In addition, U.S. National Team assistant coach Mike Sorber is serving as a volunteer assistant coach.

Youth is Served

The Billikens' nine-member recruiting class was ranked 22nd in the country by CollegeSoccerNews.com. Freshman back Casey Herd was named a CSN top 100 freshman to watch. In addition, freshmen Beau Bellomy and Josh Boemecke joined Herd on the A-10 preseason All-Rookie Team.

Robert R. Hermann Stadium

The Billikens are usually tough to beat on Robert R. Hermann Stadium's state-of-the-art natural grass surface. SLU is 71-15-10 (.792) in eight seasons at Hermann Stadium, including a 6-1-1 mark this season. In those eight seasons, the Billikens are 6-2-1 on their home pitch in NCAA Tournament action.

Great Fans

Saint Louis drew 5,758 fans for Homecoming against Central Florida, the second-largest crowd in Robert R. Hermann Stadium history. At the time, the draw was the sixth-highest attended collegiate soccer match in the country this season according to a list compiled by Soccer America. In addition, SLU's match at Hermann Stadium against Indiana that 3,864 fans witnessed ranked 15th in the country. SLU ranked seventh nationally in average attendance in 2006 by attracting 2,470 fans for 10 regular-season dates. The Billikens led the nation in average attendance in 2003, 2001 and 1999. Since 1999, the Billikens have not ranked lower than seventh in attendance.
