Stony Brook Faces Lehigh In Second Game Of The Season

- The Seawolves take an 0-1 record in the second game of the season after a 78-35 loss to No. 5 Villanova on Friday night.
- The Seawolves started two freshman (Andrew Goba and Marques Cox) against Villanova. Four freshman played in the game.
- The Seawolves return home on Saturday for their home opener against Columbia. Tip-off is 1 p.m.

On The Tube

The Stony Brook-Lehigh game will be televised on Fox Sports Atlantic. It will be televised locally in Suffolk County on Cablevision. It will air on Channel 60 in both the Brookhaven and Hauppauge systems and Channel 18 on the Riverhead system.

Versus The Mountain Hawks

The Seawolves are 1-2 all-time against the Mountain Hawks. The teams have played in each of the last three seasons, with Stony Brook winning last year's matchup by the score of 56-49. Mitchell Beauford led the way for the Seawolves last year with 16 points while Mike Popoko pitched in with nine points and 11 rebounds. SB is 0-1 at Stabler Arena.

Versus the Patriot League

Stony Brook holds a 8-7 mark against Patriot League opponents

Not So Charitable

The Seawolves struggled in their opening game from the free throw line, connecting on only 1 of 11 attempts against Villanova.

Quick Hits

- Stony Brook begins its fifth season as a member of the America East in 2005-06
- Stony Brook was picked seventh in the America East preseason poll
- Stony Brook is 0-1 all-time at Stabler Arena
- Stony Brook signed five players to NLI's during the early signing period in November - the biggest recruiting class in the program's history

Tough Opponent

Stony Brook opened the season Friday night against No. 5 Villanova, the highest ranked opponent that the Seawolves have faced since the 1999-00 season when SB took on No. 4 Auburn.

On The Marques

Freshman Marques Cox was one of the bright spots in the loss to Villanova. Earning his first collegiate start, he shot 3-for-7 from the field to finish with seven points. He also tied for the team lead in rebounds with four in only 17 minutes of action.

Way To Goba

Freshman Andrew Goba also showed promise in the season opener. The 6-9 center from South Africa notched four points and four rebounds in his first college game.

Ice Cold

The Seawolves couldn't find the mark offensively against Villanova's defense. SB shot only 16 of 50 (32 percent) from the field.

Hello, My Name Is Tre Cunningham

Freshman Tre Cunningham was arguably Stony Brook's best player against Villanova. The rookie shot 3-for-5 from the field, tying for the team lead in points (7) and rebounds (4) in only 14 minutes of action.

Thirty Something

Stony Brook scored 35 points in the loss to Villanova, their lowest game total since the 1995-96 season. The Seawolves dropped a 50-32 decision to Franklin Pierce on January 28, 1996.

Stony Brook Signs Five In The Early Signing Period

The following players signed National Letters of Intent during the early signing period to play basketball at Stony Brook, beginning in the fall of 2006

Riiny Ngot (7-2, 230-lb, C) - Calgary, Canada/Father Lacombe High School

- Ranked as 44th best fifth-year high schooler in the nation by HOOPSCOOP online.

Eddie Castellanos (6-1, 180, G) - Hoboken, N.J./Hoboken High School

- Hudson County Player of the Year last season

Chris Martin (6-1, 210, G) - Springfield Gardens, N.Y./Christ the King HS/Maine Central Institute

- No. 89 in HOOPSCOOP's ranking of top fifth-year players

Rio Pitt (6-7, 210, F) Amityville, N.Y./Our Savior New American HS

- Standout for one of the top high schools in the nation

Marcus Robinson (6-3, 185, G/F) Pittsburgh, Pa./Alderdice

- first-team All-City player from Pittsburgh

Pikiell Takes Over

Steve Pikiell was named the 10th men's basketball coach in the program's history in April of 2005, taking over for Nick Macarchuk who retired at the end of last season. Pikiell comes to SB after four seasons as the Associate head coach at George Washington where he helped breathe life back into the program and see it capture its first Atlantic-10 title last season. Pikiell is no stranger to success. The former two-time captain at UConn advanced to the Elite Eight and Sweet 16 in his final two years and college and brought that air of accomplishment to the bench. Prior to GW, Pikiell served as an assistant at Central Connecticut State and was part of the most successful seasons in Blue Devil history, winning the NEC crown in and advancing to the NCAA tournament.

Road Warriors

Stony Brook will play 17 of its 27 regular season games away from home this season. The 10 home games are the second lowest total in Division I history, surpassing the nine home games that SB had during the 2001-02 season.

Stony Brook Picked Seventh

The Seawolves were picked to finish seventh in the America East preseason poll. The highest that SB has ever been picked has been fifth. Albany was picked as the preseason favorite to capture the league crown.

Rank Has Privilege

The highest ranked team the Stony Brook has ever faced were the No. 4 Auburn Tigers during the 1999-00 season.

Bobby At The Point

Senior Bobby Santiago returns for his final season in a Stony Brook uniform after a junior season that saw him score double figures in 21 games and lead all Seawolves in scoring during conference action.

We Like Mike

Junior Mike Popoko finished the 2004-05 season on a tear, averaging 16.2 ppg. and 6.1 rpg. over the final five games of the season. During that stretch, he scored 22 points on two occasions, the last coming in a 22-point, 10-rebound effort in the season finale against Northeastern.

Doing It The Hardy Way

Sophomore Antwan Hardy returns as the team's leading scorer from one year ago. As a freshman, Hardy averaged a team-best 11.0 points per game and earned himself a spot on the America East All-Rookie team. His 307 points last season were the most by any freshman since the move to the Division I level.

Who Will It Be This Year?

Hardy's selection to the All-Rookie team marked the second consecutive year that a Stony Brook player has been chosen on the squad. In 2003-04, Mike Popoko was an All-Rookie selection.

Other New Faces

Also beginning their first season on the bench are assistants Kelvin Jefferson, Jay Young and Guy Rancourt.

What To Look For

Look for walk-ons Marques Cox and Solomon Bamiro to earn playing time this year. Cox is a hard-nosed guard from Cardozo High school and Bamiro will earn some minutes against the Wildcats.

Ready For The Big Time

Stony Brook's 2005-06 men's basketball schedule is the toughest in school history, featuring four teams ranked in the Top 15 by Street & Smith Magazine. The Seawolves will take on the UConn, Boston College, Villanova and George Washington this season and also have visits to St. John's and Hofstra.

A Long Way From Home

Freshmen Stephane Bakinde and Andrew Goba both call Africa their home. Bakinde hails from Cameroon and Goba from South Africa.

News And Notes

- Freshman Tre Cunningham is the son of former Pittsburgh Steelers tight end Bennie Cunningham
- this is the seventh straight year that Stony Brook will take on St. John's, the fifth time at Carnesecca Hall
- this year marks the first-ever meeting with George Washington.

From Way Downtown

- Bobby Santiago and Hendrik Feist are moving up the charts for career three-pointers made. Santiago ranks ninth all-time with 85 troy to his credit while Feist checks in at 11 with 64.

Did You Know?

- Head coach Steve Pikiell is the only two-time captain at UConn during Jim Calhoun's tenure with the Huskies.
- Former Villanova head coach Rollie Massimino began his coaching career at Stony Brook in 1969. He posted a 33-16 record in two years, leading SB to the NCAA tournament in 1970.
