THE SERIES

- Stony Brook and American International will meet for the fifth time in school history.
- Of the four previous meetings, Stony Brook was a Division I program for one of them.
- In 2010, Brock Jackolski and Miguel Maysonet each rushed for more than 150 yards in a 31-14 win.

QUICK HITTERS

- Prior to the Bryant loss, the last non-conference team to beat Stony Brook at home was Brown (21-20) in 2011. The Seawolves had won seven straight non-conference home games at Kenneth P. LaValle Stadium.
- In one-score games (0-8 pts.), Stony Brook is 2-6 over the last eight games.
- The last time Stony Brook started 0-2, it lost a third straight game (Brown, 21-20 in 2011) before winning a program-record nine straight games en route to its first Division I Football Championship appearance.
- Since joining Division I in 1999, Stony Brook has failed to score a rushing touchdown over the first two games just twice (2006 & 2014).

MEDIA AVAILABILITY
CAA Football will conduct its weekly coaches teleconference on Monday for members of the media throughout the season. Chuck Priore is scheduled to speak from 10:30-10:40 a.m. For information on how to get on the call, please contact (631) 632-7125.

INTERVIEW POLICIES
All interviews with coaches, staff and student-athletes must go through the Athletic Communications Office. Requests must be made 24 hours in advance. Most interviews will take place at the conclusion of practice unless otherwise indicated. No student-athletes phone numbers will be given out, and no interviews will be conducted on the day before a game.

THE FINER POINTS OF STONY BROOK
- Stony Brook is one of New York’s four University Centers (Buffalo, Binghamton and Albany)
- Stony Brook is a member of the Association of American Universities, one of just 62 research institutions in the United States and Canada.
- Stony Brook research scientists have discovered many ground breaking things, including the bar code, the cause of Lyme Disease and the link between smoking and emphysema.
- Stony Brook is 60 miles east of Manhattan.
- Notable alumni include Patricia Cowings (first American female astronaut), John Hennessey (Stanford President), Joe Nathan (Detroit Tigers pitcher) and Jef Raskin (developer of the Macintosh project for Apple).

GROUND SCORES
Stony Brook has failed to rush for a touchdown over the first two games for just the first time since 2006. In Chuck Priore’s first season as head coach, the Seawolves went nearly nine quarters before scoring their first rushing touchdown. Moreover, they totaled only two rushing touchdowns in the first 17 quarters in 2006.

SPACE EXPLORATION
Over the first two quarters of the 2014 season, Stony Brook’s rushing attack has totaled 189 yards for an average of 2.48 yards per carry. Its longest run of the season was 11 yards, twice run by Stacey Bedell.

WEEK 3 TELECONFERENCE TIDBITS
- Priore on defense line - “Our kids played very physical. Our front four controlled the line of scrimmage. When you look at their rushing stats, their quarterback led the team in carries and yards.
- Priore on outcome - “We’ve had chances to win the game in the fourth quarter in both games. It’s frustrating that we haven’t been able to finish better.”
- Priore on 3rd Down - “We’re still struggling to be more efficient on third down. We’ll make the necessary adjustments because we just can’t go 3 of 18 and expect to win.”

RUSH DEFENSE
Stony Brook’s defense was fast and physical against Connecticut all game long. Huskies quarterback Chandler Whitmer was forced out of the pocket many times yesterday as he led UConn with 13 rushes and 29 yards. UConn totaled 81 rushing yards, including 32 in the second half. Whitmer’s run of 17 yards on second and 20 in the third quarter was the long rush of the second half. It was the second straight week in which the Seawolves opponent averaged less than three yards per carry.

TACKLES FOR LOSS
Stony Brook’s 12.0 tackles for loss against Connecticut were the most since 13.0 against Gardner-Webb on October 20, 2012. The Seawolves accounted for a season-high six sacks that day.

RICARD’S THE LEADER
After two games, senior Christian Ricard leads the Seawolves with 5.5 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks.

PUNT RETURN FOR A TOUCHDOWN
It was six years to the day that Stony Brook allowed a punt return for a touchdown prior to Connecticut’s Deshon Foxx’s 72-yard score. Elson’s Karlos Sullivan returned a punt 81 yards to help the Phoenix to a 30-20 win at LaValle Stadium in 2008.

FUMBLE RECOVERY FOR A TOUCHDOWN
Stony Brook’s last fumble recovery for a touchdown was against Gardner-Webb in 2011. Al-Majid Hutchins picked up the loose ball and ran 54 yards for the score.

DEFENSE OF THE FUTURE
Five of the 11 starters on defense made their first career starts against Bryant. Redshirt freshmen Ousmane Camara and Quinton Littlejohn each made strong impacts on the defensive line and secondary, respectively. Sophomore Connor Davis started at defensive end and juniors Rahim Cassell and Jeremy Leggiero started at linebacker.

PUNT PARTY
Stony Brook (10) and Bryant combined to punt 19 times. The last time Stony Brook and an opponent combined to punt that many times in a game was 18 at VMI on October 22, 2011. Stony Brook and Connecticut countered that by combining to punt 20 times on September 6. Luke Allen has punted 21 times this season. In his first season as the Seawolves’ starting punter, he punted 34 times in 13 games.

SHOWING GLIMPSES
Stony Brook’s 14-play, 88-yard drive that culminated in a 14-yard touchdown was what fans are used to seeing. Conor Bednarski was 6 of 8 for 77 yards on the drive.

CONTROLLING THE RUN GAME
Save for a 36-yard run by Bryant’s Paul Canevari, which was negated by an drive-ending interception by Camara on the next play, Stony Brook’s rush defense was stout. Aside from Canevari’s 36-yard run, the next longest was nine yards, also by Canevari.

SCORING IN SINGLE DIGITS
The seven points scored by Stony Brook against Bryant was just the third time in 60 games the Seawolves have failed to reach double figures. Stony Brook lost to Villanova, 35-6, last season and 35-7 at Buffalo in 2011.

LONG TOUCHDOWN CATCHES
Senior Adrian Coxson’s (Baltimore, Md.) 61-yard touchdown catch was the third straight game, dating back to last year, that a Stony Brook receiver posted a touchdown of 60 or more yards. Coxson had a 75-yard score against James Madison before a 91-yard touchdown from Malcolm Eugene against Albany.
ROUGH FIRST WEEK FOR CAA
The CAA went 3-8 during the first week of the 2014 season. Only Richmond (55-10 over Morehead State), Albany (14-13 over Holy Cross) and Maine (10-6 over Norfolk State) came away victorious. Of the eight losses, six were to FBS programs.

STONY BROOK vs. FBS
2014 - Connecticut 19, Stony Brook 16
2013 - Buffalo 26, Stony Brook 23 (SOT)
2012 - Stony Brook 23, Army 3; Syracuse 28, Stony Brook 17
2011 - Buffalo 35, Stony Brook 7; UTEP 31, Stony Brook 24 (OT)
2010 - USF 59, Stony Brook 14
Note: Stony Brook’s loss to Buffalo in five overtimes last season was the longest game in Division I last season.

WEEK 2 TELECONFERENCE TIDBITS
• Priore on Bryant - “Give Bryant a lot of credit. Their defense outplayed our offense. They deserved to win the game. We were not pleased with our performance. I’m OK with losing, but we didn’t play up to our potential.”
• Priore on defense - “Our ability on our defensive front to control the line of scrimmage played a big part. We forced Bryant to go east & west. I thought we tackled well. We had a number of first-year players who played the game physical. We impressed by our physicality.”
• Priore on QB John Kinder - “I think if you ask John he’d say he was not pleased with his performance. It came down to more situational things than anything. On Sunday, he was real positive and upbeat. He didn’t do as well as he thought he could do, so it’s about getting back on the practice field. Anytime you get a quarterback in his first start, the game is different. I think if he stays focused, he’ll be fine.”
• Priore on Coker’s return from suspension - “I think you’re talking about an elite player for us and an elite player at this level. I think his contributions will be evident. He’s a hard-nosed kid who can get you the short-yardage yards and control the game between the tackles.”
• Priore on UConn - “I see a team that has great potential. Coach played a lot of kids and he’s getting to understand his personnel. They got a lot of physicality on the defensive side. Their linebackers played downhill. Their defensive line is stout. I really like their two quarterbacks. Their learning what they need to do. If BYU doesn’t have that quarterback, it’s a totally different game.”
• Priore on playing at Rentschler Field - “I’m excited about. I’ve watched some games from the stands. I’ve been in the press box for different events. I’m looking forward to coaching the game from the field. We have some local kids who are very excited about it, too.”

RUNNING GAME OF OLD
With the loss of senior Marcus Coker for the season after just two games last season, Stony Brook’s rushing attack totaled 1,587 net yards last season for an average of 144.3 yards per game. Prior to last year, the Seawolves featured two 1,000-yard rushers over the last three seasons. Last year, senior James Kenner performed admirably, rushing for 829 yards despite not accounting for a carry until the fourth game of the season. Coker is back for a fifth year and should regain a starting spot in the backfield. Added to the mix is redshirt sophomore Stacey Bedell, a transfer from Massachusetts. Bedell’s explosiveness and elusiveness should help the Seawolves return to be one of the elite rushing offenses in FCS.

FRESH FACES ON DEFENSE
No fewer than 15 underclassmen on defense are listed on the depth chart to start the season. Included in that group are nine redshirt freshmen expected to be core of the Seawolves defense for years to come.

KINDER NAMED STARTING BACK
Redshirt senior quarterback John Kinder beat out redshirt junior Conor Bednarski and redshirt sophomore Carlos Hernandez for the starting job. Kinder, a Syracuse transfer, spent the majority of his time with the Orange as a scout-team quarterback.

ALL-NY O-LINE
Four-fifths of Stony Brook’s starting offensive line, consisting of redshirt freshmen Timon Parris and Armani Garrick and seniors Mike Lisi and Cody Precht all hail from New York. Moreover, other than Garrick, every starter is from Long Island.

MAINSTAYS ON THE O-LINE
Seniors Mike Lisi and Cody Precht should become in the first players in program history to start more than 40 games. Lisi and Precht, each of whom are three-year starters, have started 37 and 38 games, respectively.

NOT THE FIRST ORANGE
John Kinder is not the first Stony Brook quarterback to have transferred from Syracuse. Michael Coulter ’11 was on the football team at Syracuse in 2007, but did not play.

OREGON TO STONY BROOK
Junior Rahim Cassell, a back-up middle linebacker at Oregon, transferred to Stony Brook in early August. Cassell played two seasons with Ducks and totaled 32 tackles in 2013, including a career-best six against Stanford. Cassell will have two years of eligibility left.

QUARTERBACK INEXPERIENCE
Before John Kinder and Conor Bednarski saw action in the Bryant game, Stony Brook’s three quarterbacks on the depth chart -- Kinder, Bednarski and sophomore Carlos Hernandez --- had never taken a snap in a Division I game before. Kinder saw limited time as a special teams player at Syracuse. Hernandez served as the Seawolves’ holder on extra points and field goals last season.

STARTING QUARTERBACKS UNDER PRIORE
For the sixth time in nine seasons, a new quarterback will open the season under head coach Chuck Priore. In 2006 & 2007, Josh Dudash started at quarterback followed by Dayne Hoffman (2008), Michael Coulter (2009-11), Kyle Essington (2011-12) and Lyle Negron (2013). John Kinder, a fifth-year senior, will start at quarterback for the Seawolves in 2014.

KINDER’S FIRST START WILL BE A WIN?
Prior to last week’s loss to Bryant, three of the last four starting quarterbacks to start their first games for Stony Brook produced victories. Dayne Hoffman was under center for a 42-26 win over Colgate in 2008. Pressed into action after an injury to Michael Coulter, Kyle Essington accounted for 293 yards and five touchdowns in a 42-24 win over Presbyterian in 2011. Finally Lyle Negron, who took over for an injured Essington in a playoff game against Villanova in 2012, quarterbacked the Seawolves to a 20-10 over the Wildcats.
STARTING AGAINST RI ONCE AGAIN
Stony Brook will kick-off the season against a school from the state of Rhode Island for a second straight year. The Seawolves shut out Rhode Island, 24-0, in their CAA and season opener in 2013. In fact, Stony Brook has played at least one of the three Rhode Island schools that compete in football -- Brown, Rhode Island and Bryant -- in every year but 2012 since 2008.

LAST YEAR’S GAME VS. BRYANT A MEMORABLE ONE
A Kenneth P. LaValle Stadium record-crowd of more than 11,000 watched Stony Brook hold off Bryant, 21-13, as the Seawolves earned their eighth straight Homecoming win.

BACK WHERE THEY BELONG
Redshirt senior quarterback John Kinder and redshirt sophomore running back have returned to Long Island, suiting up as FBS transfers. Kinder, who played sparingly at Syracuse, was named Stony Brook’s starting quarterback on Tuesday, August 19. Kinder starred at Lawrence High School in Nassau County. Bedell saw significant time as a redshirt freshman for Massachusetts last season, rushing for 301 yards and a touchdown in eight games. Bedell starred for William Floyd High School, rushing for 412 yards and four touchdowns in the 2011 Long Island Championship game against East Meadow. Kinder and Bedell will start at quarterback and running back, respectively, against Bryant on August 28.

12 & 6
There will be two first-time wrinkles in the 2014 schedule. For the first time in school history, Stony Brook will play 12 games, including six at Kenneth P. LaValle Stadium.

SHUTOUT BALL
Stony Brook’s 24-0 win over Rhode Island was the third shutout under Chuck Priore. The Seawolves beat Coastal Carolina, 42-0, in 2011 and topped Bryant, 30-0, in 2007.

Since becoming Stony Brook’s head football coach in the spring of 2006, Chuck Priore’s tenure can be described as an usher. He’s ushered the Seawolves through two conferences (Northeast and Big South), and last season, CAA Football. During that time, Priore has ushered the program to the upper echelon of the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS), guiding SBU from 20 scholarships to a fully-funded program of 63 scholarship, the maximum allowed at the FCS level.

The 2012 Stony Brook football season may have been the program’s finest. Under Priore’s leadership, Stony Brook posted a number of firsts - a win over a Football Bowl Subdivision (Army), a 10-win season and an at-large berth to the Division I Football Championship.

Come conference play, Priore’s squad has shown an incredible measure of consistency. In five Big South seasons, Stony Brook posted a conference record of 24-5. Moreover, during the same period of time, the Seawolves lost only home game, a 34-33 decision to Gardner-Webb.

A finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award, Priore’s Stony Brook teams have been known for a powerful run game. Over the past three seasons, the Seawolves’ rushing offense has been among the nation’s best. Last season, Stony Brook ranked sixth with an average of 275.54 yards per game.

During that time, Stony Brook’s offense has featured two 1,000-yard backs, including Miguel Maysonet, Stony Brook’s all-time leading rusher. Maysonet signed as a free-agent with the Cleveland Browns, and Michael Bamiro, an All-American right tackle, signed with the Philadelphia Eagles.

With 2013 serving as Stony Brook’s first in CAA Football, Priore has ushered the Seawolves through a lot of eras. Playing in the “SEC” of FCS will be tough, but Priore will have his team ready.

BRYANT 13
STONY BROOK 7

Stony Brook, N.Y. (10,252)
Kenneth P. LaValle Stadium
80 degrees, sunny

Stony Brook, N.Y. - Despite an outstanding defensive effort, the Stony Brook football team fell to Bryant, 13-7, before a season-opening crowd of 10,252 at Kenneth P. LaValle Stadium Thursday.

Junior Jeremy Leggiero (Bohemia, N.Y.) and senior Christian Ricard (Spencer, Mass.) led the way defensively with 12 tackles apiece. Redshirt freshman Ousmane Camara (Bay Shore, N.Y.) recorded his first collegiate interception.

The Bulldogs posted 233 yards of total offense, and punt ed nine times as Stony Brook forced seven three-and-outs. The Seawolves’ offense accounted for only 186 yards of total offense.

Sophomore Stacey Bedell (Mastic Beach, N.Y.) led the way for the Seawolves on the ground with 116 yards on 27 carries.

Senior Adrian Coxson (Baltimore, Md.) had two catches for 77 yards, including a 61-yard touchdown in the second quarter. Senior John Kinder (Inwood, N.Y.) faked a hand off to Bedell and found Coxson, who outjumped Aaron Gilmer for the ball, down the left seam. It was the third straight game in which Stony Brook scored on a pass play of 60 yards dating back to last season.

Late in the second quarter as Bryant was driving, Camara dropped into coverage and intercepted Bryant quarterback Dalton Easton, whose throw across the field was picked off.

Down 7-6, Easton hit Chad Ward for a 37-yard touchdown on fourth and nine midway through the third quarter.

With 5:25 left in the fourth, Stony Brook started the drive on Bryant’s 46. On fourth and four from the 40, Kinder was intercepted by Sebastian Amedee, who returned it 29 yards to the Stony Brook 35.

Quotes...

Chuck Priore - “I give a lot of credit to Bryant. We put a great game plan together and they did a great job of taking away a lot from our passing game. They deserved to win. But I’m also proud of our guys for fighting through. Our offense responded well to some things we changed at halftime. I thought our defense played fast and physical. We’re going to get better by watching film and correcting some mistakes.”

Sr. QB John Kinder - “Obviously there’s a couple of throws I’d like to have back. My teammates have been so supportive and helped me all preseason. I’m looking forward to getting better and being ready for Connecticut.”

So. RB Stacey Bedell - “I’ll do whatever it takes to get a win so if carrying the ball that many times is necessary, then that’s OK. I give Bryant a lot of credit. They defended us really well.”

Rentschler Field

87 degrees, hot & humid

East Hartford, Conn. - Despite holding Connecticut to 223 yards of total offense, the Stony Brook football team fell to the Huskies, 19-16, before 23,543 fans at Rentschler Field Saturday.

Stony Brook (0-2) rallied from a 19-10 deficit to cut it to 19-16 after junior Conor Bednarski (South Pasadena, Calif.) found senior Will Tye (Middletown, Conn.) wide open in the end zone with 1:53 to play.

The Seawolves forced a three-and-out on UConn’s next drive. On the fourth down, Justin Wain’s punt went two yards, but Stony Brook was called for a roughing the kicker penalty. The Huskies next attempt pinned the Seawolves inside the 10, where Connecticut forced a turnover on downs.

Down 3-0 midway through the first quarter, senior Max Martinez (Wichita, Kan.) hit Connecticut (1-1) running back Josh Marriner, whose fumble was recovered in the end zone by junior Naim Cheeseboro (King of Prussia, Pa.).

Once again, Stony Brook’s defense came to play. UConn quarterback Chandler Whitmer’s pass slipped out of his hands and the ball was pounced on by sophomore Aaron Thompson (Deer Park, N.Y.).

Sophomore Przemyslaw Popek (Yonkers, N.Y.) connected for a 33-yard field goal to make it 10-3.

Connecticut took a 12-10 lead after Whitmer hit Geremy Davis in the back of the end zone with 1:51 to play. Thompson blocked the extra point as Stony Brook trailed by less than a field goal.

Senior Luke Allen (Port Jefferson, N.Y.) career-long punt of 61 yards was returned 72 yards for a touchdown by Deshon Foxx for a 19-10 lead.

Senior Nick Vanna (Hamden, Conn.) ripped Connecticut for 142 yards on the ground.

Senior Luke Allen (Port Jefferson, N.Y.) career-long punt of 61 yards was returned 72 yards for a touchdown by Deshon Foxx for a 19-10 lead.

Connecticut accounted for only 79 second-half yards, with 32 coming on the ground.

Quotes

Head Coach Chuck Priore - “Great all-around effort. We certainly had our chances and I’m disappointed we didn’t win the game. I thought it was ours to win a number of times over the course of the game. But we got better this week, but it’s a loss.”

Jr. DB Naim Cheeseboro - “Our defense was flying to the ball like ball hawks. There is always things we can get better at.”

Jr. QB Conor Bednarski - “I was able to get into a rhythm with the guys and executed the plays the coaches called. It was good to get into the end zone but we needed one more when it counted.”

Sr. TE Will Tye - “I was ready to be playmaker. With that, I need to be more consistent. There is plenty of room of improvement and we showed it in the second game.”
