

Stony Brook University Men's Soccer ID Clinics

2011 America East Champions

The Stony Brook University Men's Soccer program is hosting two separate id clinics, designed for *elite male club, high school and junior college soccer players to provide an opportunity to be seen by the SBU coaching staff in a competitive atmosphere. These ID Clinics will not only allow you to showcase your skills it will also provide a taste of what it is like playing soccer at the collegiate level and at one of the top DI schools in the country.

When: Sunday, March 25 2012 & Saturday April 14 2012
Who: Male HS Freshmen & Older, including 1st and 2nd year Junior College Players*
Where: Lavalle Stadium at Stony Brook University
Camp Fees: $85 per player per session
 $150 per player both sessions
 (due to limited space no other refunds or discounts available)

For more information contact Assistant Coach Phil Ruskin (631)632-7193 or philip.ruskin@stonybrook.edu

Schedule

9:00am Registration (Lavalle Stadium)
 Bring your own ball

9:30am Technical Training

10:30-11:30am Possession Activity &
 Small Sided games

11:30am Lunch (bring your own lunch)

12:00pm-1:00pm NCAA Rules,
 Eligibility and Admissions Seminar

1:00-1:30pm Speed and Agility
 Training

1:30-2:45pm Large Sided Games

3:00pm Clinic Ends
 ♦ 5:00pm March 25
 SBU vs Seton Hall (Spring Exhibition Game)

Registration Form

Name: _____

Session 1 March 25 _____ Session 2 April 14 _____ Both _____

Age _____ Grade _____ Position_(gk available) _____

Phone: _____

Email Address: _____

Club _____ HS _____

Club/HS Coach Name _____

Club/HS Coach Phone _____

*This Clinic is open to any and all participants per NCAA Rules

Please send completed waiver form and registration form along with a check for $85 made payable to FSA to the following address:

Attn: Ryan Anatol, SBU Men's Soccer
Indoor Sports Complex
Stony Brook, NY 11794

