Scott Libby Head Coach

Scott Libby enters his second season as head coach at Texas A&M International University. After guiding the Dustdevils to an upper division Heartland Conference finish last season, Libby has the pieces in place to help the program take another step forward this season.

Libby guided TAMIU to a 14-14 Heartland Conference record and 25-31 overall record last season. The Dustdevils made their first conference tournament appearance after finishing in fourth place in the league's regular season standings.

Before taking the helm of the Dustdevil program Libby served as softball coach at William H. Taft High School in San Antonio for 11 years. He compiled a 241-90 record during his tenure, leading the Lady Raiders to five district championships, four regional final appearances and two state semifinalist runs. Libby was named Greater San Antonio Area Coach of The Year in 1998 after leading the Lady Raiders to the first of the five District 28-5A titles.

A total of 15 student-athletes went on to play college softball during Libby's tenure at Taft, including one at the NCAA Division I level. Currently six of his former athletes are playing in the collegiate ranks, all at the NCAA Division II level.

Nicole Lozano earned Greater San Antonio Player of the Year honors playing for Libby in 1998. Four of his student-athletes earned Texas Girls Association first-team All-State honors and three earned TGCA first-team Academic All-State honors.

Prior to his strong run at Taft, Libby served as an assistant coach at Oliver Wendell Holmes High School during the 1996-97 season, helping lead the team to the state semifinals. He got his start coaching girls' softball at the Northwest Softball League, where he would coach the Genesis team from 1996-99.

Libby played and coached softball while serving in the United States Air Force from 1976-83. He played for current University of Tennessee coach Ralph Weekly on the Air Force Hawaii team from 1979-82. During that stint, Libby concurrently served as coach of the Security Police Squadron men's team at Wheeler Air Base.

After separating from active duty, Libby would coach various men's travel teams while serving as an Air Force civilian employee at Beale Air Force Base in California. He would later play and co-coach on the Air Force Spain team in the early 1990s.

Libby holds a bachelor's in language arts from the University of Texas at San Antonio. He put that degree to good use as an English teacher at Holmes and Taft High Schools.

Libby has an adult daughter, Eryn, and teenage stepson, Joshua.

Lindsay Barnes Assistant Coach

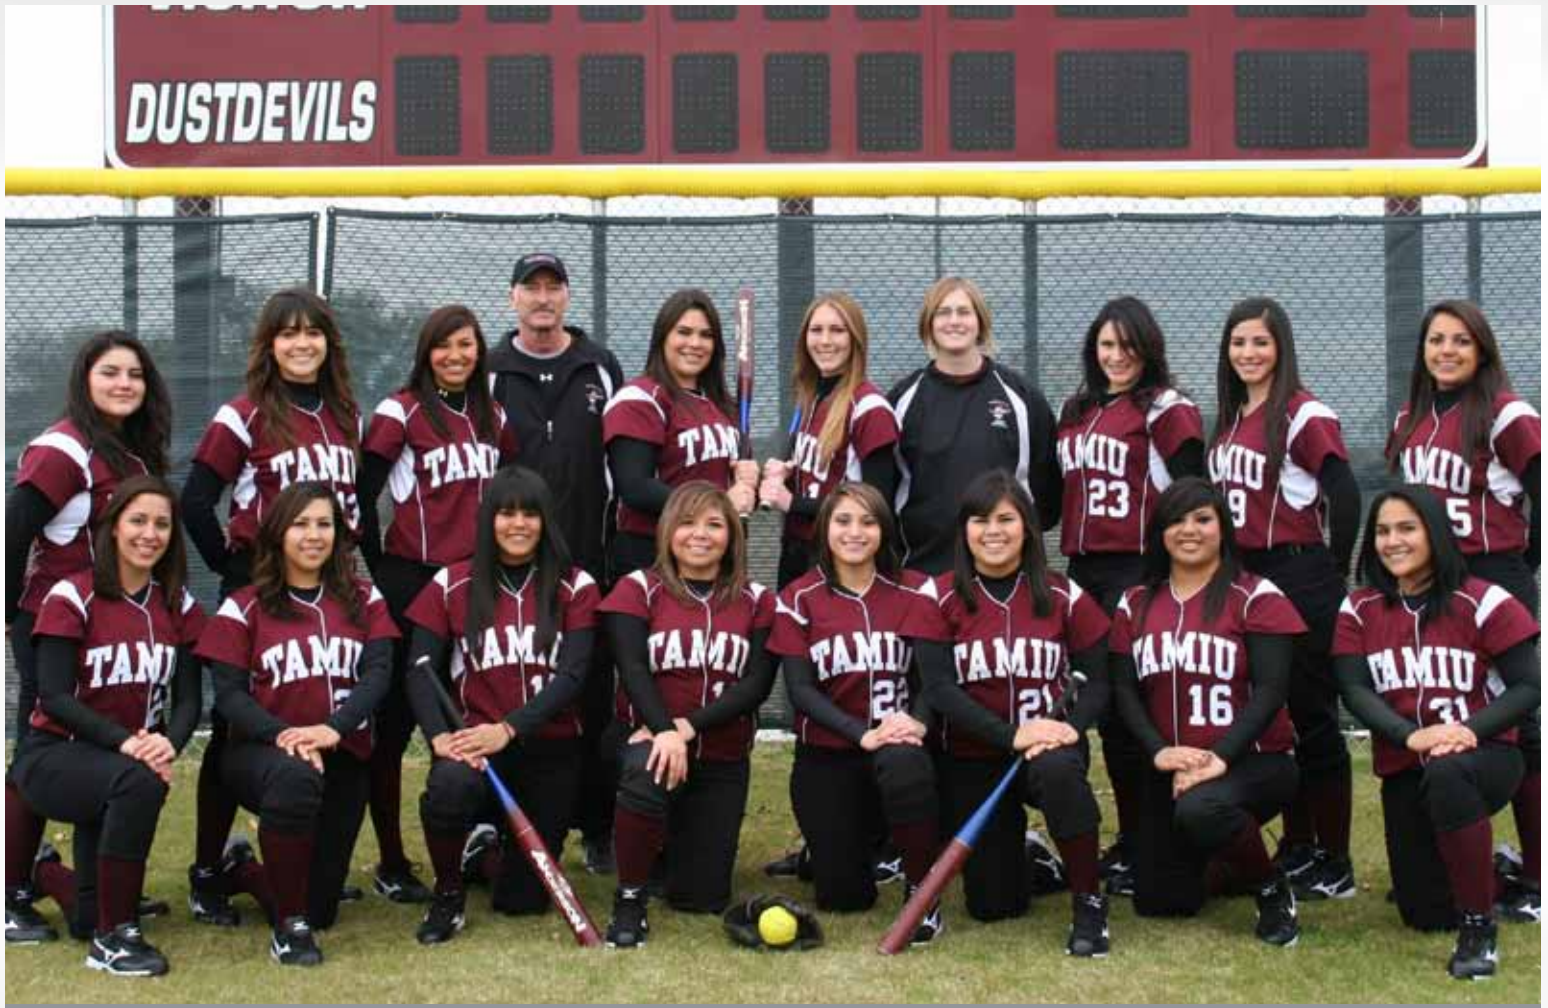

Lindsay Barnes enters her second season as an assistant coach for the Texas A&M International University softball program. She is a former collegiate standout who was a four-time All-Heartland Conference and three-time All-South Central Region honoree at St. Mary's University.

Barnes finished her career ranked first in St. Mary's history in sacrifice flies, second in RBI, fourth in home runs and games played, fifth in walks, sixth in at-bats and eighth in hits. She capped her career with an outstanding senior season, finishing with a .381 batting average, six home runs and 40 RBI. That offensive production helped boost the Lady Rattlers to a regular season Heartland Conference title and NCAA Regional bid.

Barnes achieved an outstanding high school career playing for Coach Libby at Taft High School. She was a double major at St. Mary's, graduating with bachelor's degrees in marketing and human resources.
