HEAD COACH: JOE LEGERSKI
WYOMING CAREER RECORD: 171-106 (11-16 Season)

THE GAME

TCU will open the 2012 Conoco Women's Basketball Championship Wednesday when it takes on Wyoming. Tip-off is set for 4:30 p.m. CT and will mark the second-consecutive meeting between the two schools after the Frogs defeated the Cowgirls in their final regular season game, 58-48. TCU, now winners of four-straight and the No. 4 seed, will be going for their fifth victory in six tries over Wyoming. Wednesday's opening round game will be shown live on The Mtn., with Tracy Warren (Play-By-Play) and Krista Blunk (Color) calling the action live from the Thomas & Mack Center.

THE OPPONENT

Wyoming, the No. 5 seed, comes into Wednesday's contest with a 11-16 overall record and a 7-7 mark in the Mountain West after falling to the Frogs in its last outing, 58-48. Against the Purple and White, junior Chaundra Sewell led the Cowgirls with a 15-point, seven rebound outing. No other Wyoming players scored in double-figures at the DMC. Sewell has led the way for the Cowgirls this season, averaging 13.9 points per game, while Kayla Woodward is having a solid freshman campaign with 11.9 points per game and 5.5 boards.

THE SERIES

TCU and Wyoming will be meeting for the 19th time in program history Wednesday. TCU currently leads the all-time series at 11-7 and have won four out of the last five. Overall, TCU, who has won six out of the last eight in the series, hasn't played Wyoming in postseason since 2006.

ROUND THREE VERSUS WYOMING

With its recent 58-48 victory over Wyoming to close out regular season play, TCU finished in third-place overall in the Mountain West, but lost the overall tie-breaker to Colorado State, thus receiving the No. 4 seed in this week's tournament. In all, the Horned Frogs and Cowgirls split the season series with both teams winning by 10 at their respective venues. Below are some interesting notes from both regular season games.

Season Series Notes

- Both teams scored 112 points combined between the two game regular season series.
- Both teams averaged 56.0 points per game between the two regular season games.
- Freshmen Natalie Ventress and Kayla Woodward are the top-two freshmen in the conference in scoring.
- TCU has outscored the Cowgirls off the bench a combined, 44-9.
- Wyoming shot a season-high 28 free throws on Feb. 1.
- TCU blocked six shots in both contests, respectively, while holding UW to under 38.5 percent shooting.

SOME TIDBITS AT THE CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT

Out of the 12 active players on the TCU roster, only five (Thompson, Henson, Lovings, Gross and Wynn) have ever played in a Mountain West Tournament game. In 2005-06, the Horned Frogs first year in the Mountain West, TCU was the No. 4 seed and played Wyoming in the first round. The Purple and White will open their final Mountain West Tournament in the same fashion. By playing Wyoming two games in-a-row, it will mark the first time in the MW that the Frogs have played the same team in their final regular season game and in the opening round of the tournament.

BREAKING DOWN THE CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT ALL-TIME

TCU, who is the fourth seed in the conference tournament for a third time since 2005-06, owns a 3-6 record in Mountain West Championship play all-time. The program has reached the semifinals four times and played in the championship game once, which happened last spring.

2005-06 (No. 4 seed): TCU won its first-round match-up with Wyoming (63-55) before falling in the quarterfinals to top-seeded BYU (53-63).

2006-07 (No. 4 seed): TCU was upset in the quarterfinals by No. 5 seed Utah, 68-67, on a running jumper in the lane by the Utes' Kalee Whipple with only 1.7 seconds remaining. The Frogs trailed by as many as 11 points during the second half before staging a late rally.

2007-08 (No. 2 seed): TCU won its opening match-up versus No. 7 seed Air Force in the quarterfinals, 60-47, before dropping a tight semifinal contest to San Diego State, 67-69.

2008-09 (No. 3 seed): TCU received a first-round bye before being upset by UNLV in the quarterfinals, 84-75.

2009-10 (No. 1 seed): TCU fell in the semifinals to No. 4 Utah, falling 69-57.

2010-11 (No. 2 seed): TCU defeated New Mexico in the opening round by 21 before falling in overtime to Utah in the championship game, 52-47.

A CLOSER LOOK AT THE 2012 SERIES

Earlier this year, TCU saw its three-game winning streak come to an end with a 64-54 setback to Wyoming at the Cowgirls Arena Auditorium. Freshman Natalie Ventress led TCU with 18 points, while Whitney Williams was the only other Frog in double-figures with 11 points on 4-of-9 shooting. In a game that saw eight lead changes, TCU, who outscored the Cowgirls off the bench 17-4, battled all night in front of a rowdy crowd of 3,293, pulling with seven late in the game, but the Frogs couldn't quite get over the hump as Wyoming won for only the second time in five tries against the Purple and White.

In game No. 2, TCU controlled the tempo from the beginning of the contest to record a 58-48 victory over Wyoming at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum. On the night, TCU shot 44.9 percent from the field, including 52.4 percent in the first half. The Frogs, who once again used their trademark defense to grind out a victory, stole the rock 10 times on the night, while holding the Cowgirls to only 33.3 percent from the field on 17-of-51 shooting. In all, TCU held Wyoming to only five made three's on 20 attempts.

2012 CONOCO MOUNTAIN WEST BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS

TCU'S LAST TIME OUT

TCU'S LAST GAME SUMMARY (Game No. 29 • Feb. 28, 2012)

TCU 58, WYOMING 48

FORT WORTH, Texas – TCU kept to its winning ways with a 58-48 victory over Wyoming at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum. On the night, TCU shot 44.9 percent from the field, including 52.4 percent in the first half. The Frogs, who once again used their trademark defense to grind out a victory, stole the rock 10 times on the night, while holding the Cowgirls to only 33.3 percent from the field on 17-of-51 shooting. In all, TCU held Wyoming to only five made three's on 20 attempts.

For a majority of the night, the bench did most of the damage for the Frogs as TCU recorded a 27-5 advantage off the bench. In all, eight different Frogs scored as the Purple and White tallied 14 assists on a balance offensive attack.

Natalie Ventress led TCU for the 18th time this season with a team-high 10 points. The freshman also recorded five boards, four assists and two steals to fill out her stat line.

GAME WEEK SCHEDULE

Schedule Notes: No interviews on gamedays (prior to postgame) or off days.

HORNED FROGS OUTSTANDING ON DEFENSE

TCU held Air Force to only 17.3 percent from the floor in their last home outing, which currently sits No. 3 all-time in school history for lowest field goal percentage by a team in a single-game. For the year, the Frogs have posted some stifling defensive numbers, which has helped them rewrite the record books numerous times.

- UTSA - 13.3 % (No. 2 all-time in lowest FG percentage)
- Air Force - 17.3 % (No. 3 all-time in lowest FG percentage)
- Houston - 19.1 % (No. 4 all-time in lowest FG percentage)

VENTRESS MAKING CASE FOR HONORS

Recently, Natalie Ventress not only became the first player under head coach Jeff Mittie to post two-straight halves of 20 or more points, but also joins Wright State's Kim Demmings as the only freshmen nationally to accomplish scoring 20-plus points in a single-half in two games. Overall, Ventress, who has scored 20 or more points in six out of the last 13 games, ranks No. 15 amongst all freshmen nationally in points per game. She is the only freshman in the Mountain West to score at least 20 points in six contests.

Ventress ranks No. 8 overall nationally amongst all freshmen in scoring in conference games.

Freshmen During Conference Play Nationally

Name	School	PPG
1. Kim Demmings	Wright St.	19.4
2. Damika Martinez	Iona	18.4
3. Jazmine Davis	Washington	18.8
4. Sharetta Brown	Detroit	18.6
5. Rachel Banham	Minnesota	18.1
6. Shonese Jones	UNC Asheville	17.2
7. Cartaesha Macklin	Southern Ill.	17.1
8. Natalie Ventress	TCU	17.0
9. Taylor Gault	UALR	15.1
10. Tierra Hawkins	Delaware St.	15.3

PRINCE GETTING AFTER IT DEFENSIVELY

In the last five games, the Frogs have forced 92 turnovers, while stealing the ball 53 times. Freshman Chelsea Prince has been the main ball hawk during that time, stealing the rock 18 times, which included two-straight games of six steals against the likes of UNLV and Boise State, respectively. By doing so, Prince posted the most steals during a two-game stretch since Helena Sverrisdottir recorded 12 steals in back-to-back games against San Diego State (5) and UNLV (7) last season.

VENTRESS JOINS RARE COMPANY

By scoring 20 points in the second half against UNLV and 21 against Boise State, Natalie Ventress became only the third player since 2007-08 to score 20 or more points in a single-half and the first to do so ever in two-straight games. The freshman joins former Horned Frogs TK LaFleur, who netted 21 in the second half against Maryland in 2008 and Adrienne Ross, who tallied 23 in second half action against Florida in 2007. Around the nation, Ventress is one of only now 65 players in the NCAA who have scored 20 or more in a half, which includes 18 who have had 25-plus halves. In all, if Ventress keeps her current pace, she will become the first freshman to lead TCU in scoring for a season since the 1997-98 season when Jill Sutton averaged 13.3 points per game.

TCU MAKING OPPONENTS PAY AT THE LINE

Since the beginning of league play, the Frogs have shot 80 percent or better from the charity stripe during second half action in seven games.

GETTING AFTER IT FOLLOWING INTERMISSION

In six out of the last eight games, TCU has forced New Mexico, UNLV, Colorado State, San Diego State and Wyoming to shoot significantly lower percentage wise in the second half when compared to their first half totals. During that stretch, all eight teams have combined to only make 74 shots on 223 attempts during the second frame of play, while only New Mexico, UNLV and Boise State has made a total of 10 field goals in the second half.

FEBRUARY SUCCESS

The Horned Frogs have only lost seven times during the month of February since 2008-09, including only five times in the last three years. During the last four seasons, TCU is 23-7 in the final month of the regular season. Since joining the Mountain West, the Frogs are 38-13 in the month of February.

SIMPLY STIFLING DEFENSE

TCU held San Diego State to a 0-for-17 shooting night from three-point land, which are the most three-pointers attempted without a make for an opponent against a Jeff Mittie led squad.

Those numbers hold up quite nicely amongst the nation's best.

- Rutgers - Went 0-of-14 against Georgetown.
- Marquette - Went 0-of-13 against Green Bay.
- Duke - Went 0-for-12 against Auburn.
- Baylor - Went 0-of-10 versus Texas.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S ALL RIGHT

The Frogs have gone 8-2 this season on Saturday's and have now recorded a total of 23 victories in 33 games during the last three years. The Horned Frogs all-time best mark on Saturday's since joining the Mountain West is 9-3 all-time in 2009-10.

OUT-REBOUNDING THE OPPONENT IS KEY

The Frogs, who have out-rebounded their opponent in four out of the last six games, are now 8-3 on the year when out-rebounding the opposition. Overall, the Horned Frogs are an impressive 173-36 (.827) during the Jeff Mittie era when out-rebounding an opponent, including 28-7 the last three seasons alone.

SECOND HALF SUCCESS

TCU has outscored its first half total for points 18 different times this season, including eight out of the last 12 games. The Frogs, who have won 11 games this season when doing so, have scored 159 more points in the second half of games this year entering Wednesday's contest.

STEPPING UP INTENSITY

During the last 14 games, the Frogs, who have forced 206 turnovers in the last 11 games combined, have turned up their defensive pressure. During MWC play, opponents have shot 40 percent or lower in eight out of the 14 games, including seven out of the last 11.

Even more impressive is the fact that during the Horned Frogs last 11 outings, TCU has shutdown teams from deep. The Frogs forced the 11 teams to go a combined 47-of-167 (.281) from behind the arc.

DEFENSE IS THE NAME OF THE GAME

Against Air Force earlier this year, the Horned Frogs forced the Falcons into 29 turnovers, which is a season-high for an opponent against the Frogs. By forcing Air Force into 29 turnovers, it marked the most since TCU engaged Colorado State into 31 last January. Most of those turnovers came off of steals as the Purple and White ramped up their defensive pressure to the tune of stealing the rock 19 times. TCU's 19 steals were the most since the Frogs posted 20 against Cornell in 2006.

THE GROSS FACTOR

Delisa Gross had a breakout game against Boise State earlier this season, scoring a season-high 18 points on 6-of-11 shooting. During her three years on campus, the Horned Frogs are an impressive 13-5 when Gross scores in double-figures.

LOVINGS CONTINUES TO MAKE PRESENCE KNOWN

Sophomore Latricia Lovings had probably one of her best defensive games of her career against UNLV in January, setting a new career-high in blocked shots with six. By doing so, she posted the most blocks in a single-game since current professional Sandora Irvin blocked eight against Saint Louis in 2005. Lovings now has 86 blocks in her young career, which is quite impressive considering that she has only played in a total of 49 games. She has overtook Kati Safaritova for No. 3 all-time in career blocked shots in program history. Safaritova tallied 66 between 2000-02.

In all, Lovings' 86 blocks currently rank No. 5 all-time in single-season blocked shots, while the Frogs' 169 blocks currently sit No. 5 all-time in a single-season.

FROGS SOLID AFTER A LOSS IN MOUNTAIN WEST

TCU is 22-4 all-time in Mountain West games following a conference loss. The only losses during that stretch came against UNLV, last season versus Air Force and in 2007 against Wyoming and New Mexico, respectively. Overall, TCU has only lost two-straight MW regular-season games only five times since 2005-06.

GETTING TO INTERMISSION ON TOP A KEY

In 29 games, TCU has shown that if it can get to the halftime break with a lead or tied then ultimately the Horned Frogs will come away with a victory, going 11-2 this season when leading or tied at the break. The only losses came at the hands of Hartford and Wyoming when the Purple and White led by three and one at the break. When TCU hasn't led at intermission, the Frogs are 5-11 overall.

WHEN A QUARTET SCORES

For only the third time this season, the Horned Frogs had four players score in double-figures versus Boise State. TCU has now accomplished that feat eight times during the last two years. During that stretch, the Frogs are 6-2, with their only losses coming at the hands of NC State earlier this season and against Oral Roberts last spring.

VENTRESS CONTINUES TO PRODUCE

Natalie Ventress, who has scored 20+ points six out of the last 13 games, has led TCU in scoring 16 out of the last 20 games, including a 23-point showing against Boise State. So far this season, the freshman has led the Frogs in scoring 18 times becoming the first Horned Frog freshman to lead the Purple and White in scoring in 18 games since former Horned Frog and current professional Helena Sverrisdottir carried TCU in eight games during the 2007-08 season.

DROPPING IT IN FROM DEEP

TCU connected on 12 three's against Colorado State in January, marking the third-straight season in which the Horned Frogs have done so against an opponent. The Frogs' 12 three-pointers against the Rams is tied for No. 5 all-time in program history for three-point field goals made in a single-game. The 12 triples were also the most since TCU connected on 12-made three's last season against Oral Roberts and ties the DMC record for most three-pointers made in a single-game.

VENTRESS SCORING IN BUNCHES

Freshman Natalie Ventress posted her third-straight 20-point game against Boise State, scoring 23 points. By doing so, Ventress, who has now accomplished that feat twice this season, is the first freshman, according to records dating back to the 2000-01 season, to ever accomplish that feat during the Jeff Mittie era. She is also the only freshman to ever do so during conference play.

HORNED FROGS GOLDEN WHEN HITTING 50 PERCENT

TCU shot 50 percent against New Mexico, marking the 14th time since 2008-09 the Frogs have accomplished that feat. In all, the Horned Frogs have been automatic the last three seasons when shooting 50 percent, going a perfect 12-0. When TCU shoots 45 percent or higher in a single-game, the Purple and White have gone 18-1 since 2008-09, with their only loss coming during the 2008-09 season.

HOLDING THEIR OWN

TCU held UNM without a three-pointer in the second half, marking the sixth time in 11 games in which the Frogs have held an opponent without a three in a single-half. Even more impressive is that going into Wednesday's contest, six different opponents in the last 10 home games have left Daniel-Meyer Coliseum without a single three in a half. The Frogs are now 8-1 this season when accomplishing that feat, having done so at Houston earlier this year as well. In the past two seasons, TCU has now held 12 different opponents to no triples during a half of play, with its only losses in that stretch coming to West Virginia and Harvard.

WHEN WYNN SCORES = WIN

During the past two years, the Horned Frogs have been almost automatic in the win column when Briesha Wynn scores double-digit points, going a combined 9-3, with its only losses coming to Texas A&M, UTPA and Colorado State when she scored 14 twice and 12 points in the three contests.

IRON UNKIND FROM THREE-POINT LAND

Heading into Wednesday's game against Wyoming, the Frogs have held eight different opponents to less than 20 percent shooting from behind the arc, including San Diego State who didn't make a single-three in the entire game, going 0-for-17. In nine of TCU's victories this winter, UTSA (10.3), Fordham (19.2), Houston (15.4), Sam Houston State (16.7), Tulsa (16.7), TSU (12.5), Air Force (12.7) and San Diego State (0.0%) have all shot under 20 percent from three. The Frogs are now 20-1 the last three seasons when holding the opposition to under 20 percent. TCU's only loss came last season against future conference opponent West Virginia when the Mountaineers shot 16.6 percent from three and won.

HOLDING OPPONENTS DOWN

So far this season, TCU has held 10 different opponents under 30 percent shooting from the field (UTSA, SMU, Fordham, Houston, Sam Houston State, Tulsa, Texas Southern, Air Force (2) and SDSU). During the last four years, the Frogs have been almost perfect record wise when holding the opposition to less than 34.9 percent from the field, going 46-4 overall since the 2008-09 season.

CAUSING HAVOC ON THE DEFENSIVE END

In 10 games this season, the Frogs have forced 20 + turnovers on the defensive end of the court. Against Air Force, TCU caused the Falcons to cough the ball up 23 times, which follows outings of Boise State (25), CSU (20), Air Force (29), Texas A&M (24), Lamar (22), Houston (22), Sam Houston State (22), Oklahoma (26) and Texas Southern (20). The Frogs have turned those turnovers into points on the offensive end, holding a combined 193-146 advantage in points off turnovers.

DEFENDING THE RIM

Led by sophomore Latricia Lovings six blocks, the Horned Frogs totaled eight blocks against UNLV in January, which marks the seventh time this season the Frogs have blocked at least eight shots in a single-game. Overall, the Purple and White have totaled 175 blocks after 29 games.

HOLDING OPPONENTS IN CHECK

The Frogs held Air Force to only 17.3 percent from the field, marking the third opponent this season that has been held to under 20 percent shooting from the field. Earlier this season, UTSA only recorded a 13.3 percentage on eight made buckets the entire game, while Houston totaled only 19.1 percent from the floor on 9-of-47.

During the second half against Houston and UTSA, TCU held both teams to only four made field goals and under 16 percent shooting from the field for the entire half.

Around the nation, future Big 12 opponent West Virginia has held five different opponents to five or less field goals in a half: Youngstown State (5-of-29), NC Central (3-of-29), Cal State Northridge (5-of-23), North Florida (4-of-20) and Bucknell (5-of-24).

A SERIOUS RUN DURING NON-CONFERENCE PLAY

The Frogs went on a 79-29 run (50 points) against Houston, which trailed Baylor, UConn and Kentucky nationally, heading into the final week of non-conference play. The Bears earlier this season recorded a 91-31 run (60 points) against Chattanooga, while the Huskies posted an 80-25 run (55 points) against Towson. Kentucky went on a 66-15 run (51 points) to open its game against Jacksonville State.

THE BENCH PLAY IS KEY FOR HORNED FROGS

In 14 of TCU's 16 victories this season, the Frogs have outscored their opponent off the bench a combined, 410-182. Overall, TCU has outscored its opponent off the bench in every game except NC State (24-27), Georgia (6-29), Oklahoma (11-26), UTPA (26-10), SDSU (13-13), CSU (7-7) and Boise State (10-2).

GETTING IT DOWN LOW MEANS SUCCESS

In 12 of TCU's 16 victories this season, the Frogs have outscored their opponent in the paint, including against Wyoming, 28-22. When the Purple and White haven't outscored the opposition down low, TCU is 3-10. The two games in which TCU has outscored its opponent, but lost is UTPA and Wyoming. The Frogs outscored the Broncos, 30-18 and totaled an 18-14 advantage against the Cowgirls.

DOWN UNDER

In seven of the Frogs' 16 victories either Latricia Lovings or Ashley Colbert has scored in double-figures. Lovings scored 10 points against both UTSA and Fordham, while Colbert dropped 10 on Houston and 11 against TSU, Air Force and New Mexico, respectively. Both players scored in double-figures against Boise, with Lovings going for 14 and Colbert adding 13. Only one time this season has one scored in double-figures and the Frogs lost (NC State - Colbert: 16 points).

NCAA STATS UPDATE

As the Frogs entered this week's games, TCU ranked in the top 50 in the nation in field-goal percentage defense (No. 18 - .346) and blocked shots per game (No. 8 - 6.0). Individually, sophomore Latricia Lovings currently sits No. 26 in the nation in blocks per game (2.3), while Natalie Ventress ranks No. 42 in free throw percentage (.840).

FOLLOW THE FROGS

PRINCE HONORED BY MOUNTAIN WEST

TCU freshman Chelsea Prince was honored earlier this season as the Mountain West Women's Basketball Player of the Week. In games against Houston and Lamar, she averaged 14.0 points and 5.0 rebounds per game to go along with four assists, one blocked shot and two steals.

He ranks No. 2 in women's college basketball's current leaders in victories for a coach age 45 or younger.

TCU is 74-12 (.860) in its last 86 games overall held at the DMC and 171-37 (.822) since Jeff Mittie's arrival on campus prior to the 1999-2000 campaign.

Has guided TCU to 11-straight postseason bids and six conference championships, while also helping the Frogs reach the second round of NCAA Tournament five times in nine appearances.

TCU ON THE RADIO

All TCU women's basketball games are broadcast in the DFW Metroplex on KTCU 88.7 FM. For the 14th consecutive season, Jeff Williams provides the play-by-play for each contest, while he will be joined by Jeff Lewis for the fourth straight year in 2011-12. Horned Frog games are also broadcast live on the athletics Web site at www.gofrogs.com.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

TCU coach Jeff Mittie and requested student-athletes will be available for interviews in the Varsity Club Room on the west side of the concourse following a brief cooling off period. If requested, opposing coaches and student-athletes can be available to the media in the Varsity Club Room prior to TCU's arrival. To request specific players to attend the post-game press conference, contact Matt Hoover during the second half of the game. The TCU locker room is closed to the media both at home and on the road.

JUST TCU, THANK YOU!

Though the TCU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized simply as TCU (acronym only) Athletics. In all sports-related media references, we respectfully urge that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation - TCU. In subsequent references of the same presentation the team may be referred to by nickname - Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

Prince was also recognized as the Mountain West Player of the Week by College Sports Madness, which identifies the highest impact players nationally in a weekly feature on their website.

SOME IMPRESSIVE FRESHMEN NUMBERS

TCU has played a total of five freshmen this season and all of them have contributed in some form or fashion. Natalie Ventress became only the seventh freshmen in head coach Jeff Mittie's tenure to start a season-opener, joining the likes of teammates Delisa Gross and Starr Crawford in 2009. Former Horned Frogs, Helena Sverrisdottir (2007), Shayla Moore (2006), Natasha Lacy (2003) and Sandora Irvin (2001) also started for Mittie in their first game in a Horned Frog uniform.

By grabbing 12 boards at Georgia, Chelsea Prince became the first freshman to lead TCU in rebounds since teammate Briesha Wynn posted a 15 board outing against UT Arlington (Dec. 8, 2010) last winter. Prince's 12 boards were the most by a true freshman in a season-opener since Sandora Irvin began her career with 18 boards against Sam Houston State in 2001.

A BLOCK PARTY

Latricia Lovings, currently ranked third in the Mountain West in blocks per game, posted four blocks in back-to-back games to open the year against the likes of Georgia, UTSA and SMU. By doing so, Lovings became the first Frog to block at least four shots in three-straight games since Sandora Irvin recorded 5 against Houston (1/30) and eight against Memphis (2/5) and Saint Louis (2/7), respectively, during the 2005 season.

• Lovings has blocked at least four blocks in seven of TCU's 29 games this season.

TURNING UP THE DEFENSE

TCU held UTSA to only 30 points, which is the fourth-fewest points scored by an opponent in school history. The Frogs also limited the Roadrunners to only 13.3 percent from the floor, which is the second lowest field goal percentage in school history by an opponent. In all, UTSA made only eight buckets the entire night, which is the lowest in a game since Texas Southern collected only six in 2002. The Frogs held SMU and Fordham to only 47 points on 15-of-61 and 15-of-64 shooting, respectively, from the field. Houston tallied only 35 points on 9-of-14 from the floor, while TSU scored 38 points on 14-of-55 shooting. During conference play, San Diego State shot 15-of-64 for 39 points, while Air Force scored 31 on 9-for-52.

During the last two years, the Frogs have held 13 different opponents under 16 shots made in a single-game. TCU is now 39-4 the last three seasons when holding an opponent under 60 points and 179-14 during Jeff Mittie's TCU career.

A BRAND NEW SEASON

Six letterwinners who accounted for 82 of 165 starts from a season ago return for TCU in 2011-12.

Thought to be among the returnees was Starr Crawford who earned All-Mountain West Conference honors as an underclassmen in 2010-11, but she has been ruled out for the season. The Frogs' returning starters are senior Antoinette Thompson, who made 23 starts a season ago, and junior Delisa Gross, who is the most experienced starter from a year ago returning after starting 30 games.

A YOUNG TEAM

Going into 2011-12, the Horned Frogs will look to replace graduated all-conference honorees Helena Sverrisdottir and Emily Carter. Look for Briesha Wynn, Latricia Lovings and Meagan Henson to all make solid contributions this season after gaining valuable experience on the court as freshmen. The Frogs will also welcome the addition of five newcomers in Ashley Colbert, Logan Mittie, Jazz Parker, Chelsea Prince and Natalie Ventress.

• In total, nine of the Frogs 13 players are either freshmen or sophomores.

FROGS WILL RELY ON NEWCOMERS

TCU added six players to its roster in the offseason, including five freshmen and the addition of Whitney Williams, who redshirted in 2010-11. All five of the freshmen are Texas natives in Ashley Colbert (Fort Worth), Logan Mittie (Aledo), Jazz Parker (Houston), Chelsea Prince (Fort Worth) and Natalie Ventress (Fort Worth).

Colbert, a Crowley High School product, ranked as the No. 13 post-player in the country according to ESPN/

HoopGurlz and was four-star rated prospect by ESPN/HoopGurlz. Ventress, who was ranked as high as the No. 91 overall prospect in the country by ESPN/HoopGurlz Hot 100, was also four-star rated recruit. Prince will don the Purple and White this season after being rated as one of the top-150 players in the nation according to All-Star Girls Report. Parker was considered the 34th-best guard in the nation and a three-star rated prospect by ESPN/HoopGurlz. Finally, Mittie, the daughter of head coach Jeff Mittie, was a two-time all-state selection at Aledo High School.

CRAWFORD OUT FOR THE YEAR

TCU received news before the season-opener against Georgia that junior forward Starr Crawford was ruled out for the 2011-12 season due to injury. Crawford, who earned preseason all-conference accolades, was a second team all-conference selection in 2010-11. She was the top returning rebounder in the league at 9.7 per game, ranking 36th in the nation and recorded eight double-doubles as a sophomore.

TOUGH SCHEDULE ONCE AGAIN

The Horned Frogs will play one of the top schedules in the country with games against seven opponents who reached a postseason tournament a year ago, including five who made the NCAA Tournament.

The Purple and White should be tested early and often with a schedule featuring three squads, Georgia, Oklahoma and Texas A&M, who made it to the third round of the NCAAs, with the Aggies eventually claiming the National Championship.

Highlighting the Frogs' 2011-12 slate is a group of nine home games, including a pair of showcase contests against NC State (Nov. 20) and Texas A&M (Dec. 11). Even more challenging than TCU's home lineup will be an away schedule featuring four squads that reached the 2011 NCAA Tournament.

One of the contests will be played at the annual UCF Thanksgiving Classic in Orlando, Fla., Nov. 25-26. The Frogs begin the tournament Nov. 25 with a match-up against NCAA qualifier Hartford, the American East Tournament Champion.

In addition to the challenging UCF Thanksgiving field, the Frogs open their season at Georgia on Friday, Nov. 11. The Lady Bulldogs, who are coming off a 21-10 season, made the third round of the NCAA Tournament a year ago before eventually falling to national champion, Texas A&M.

RANKED TEAMS BEWARE

TCU's schedule shapes up to be another tough one this season, which will provide it a chance to extend some impressive streaks.

• TCU has defeated at least one ranked team in each of the last nine seasons. The team has two such wins in three out of the past four years.

• TCU owns 17 victories all-time against ranked opponents, each of which has come in Jeff Mittie's 13-season tenure.

• TCU has notched at least one win over a ranked team away from Fort Worth in five of the last seven seasons.

• Three of the four victories over top-5 teams in program history have come in the last two seasons (vs. No. 10/5 Texas A&M in 2009-10; vs. No. 3/5 Maryland, at No. 3/3 Cal in 2008-09).

FROGS LOOK TO CONTINUE SUCCESS

TCU comes into this year having played in 11-straight postseason tournaments. During that time, the Frogs have posted some impressive numbers.

• Topping The List: TCU is the only school in the Mountain West to play in postseason play every year since 2005-06.

• Texas Success: Since 2000-01, TCU joins Baylor as the only schools in the state of Texas to have played in 11 post-season tournaments.

PLAYING THE BIG 12

The Horned Frogs faced a Big 12 opponent for the 13th time in four years this season. In the 13 contests, the Frogs have gone 5-8 overall. Against ranked Big 12 schools, TCU is 4-7 since the 2007-08 season, which includes wins over Kansas, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and Texas A&M.

HORNED FROGS PICKED TO WIN MWC

TCU was tabbed as the preseason favorite after finishing second in the Mountain West last season and earning an at-large bid to the Women's National Invitational Tournament. The Horned Frogs received 12 first-place votes and 136 total points.

San Diego State collected seven first-place votes and was picked to finish second with 127 points, while third-place Colorado State garnered the remaining first-place vote and 106 points. New Mexico (74 points) placed fourth, followed by UNLV and Wyoming in a tie for fifth (65 points each), Air Force in seventh (42 points) and newcomer Boise State in eighth (39 points).

Colorado State senior Kim Mestdagh was named 2011-12 MW Preseason Player of the Year. Mestdagh, a 5-10 guard/forward, is the only senior in the league returning from the all-Mountain West team. Mestdagh averaged 17.1 points, 5.5 rebounds, and 2.6 assists per game and hit her 1,000th career point last season as a junior. She is joined on the preseason all-MW team by Air Force junior Dymond James, New Mexico junior Sara Halasz, junior Starr Crawford and UNLV senior Jamie Smith.

HOME SWEET HOME AT THE DMC

TCU saw a 27-game home winning streak come to an end last season. The streak ranked as the longest in the MWC and was No. 3 in the nation at the time. The previous school record of 19 straight home wins was set between Jan. 18, 2006 and Feb. 22, 2007.

TCU is 74-12 (.860) in its last 86 games overall held at the DMC and 171-37 (.822) since Jeff Mittie's arrival on campus prior to the 1999-2000 campaign.

TCU IN THE MWC - A BRIEF HISTORY

The Frogs have been a tough adversary for league opponents over the last six seasons.

- The Frogs own a 80-29 all-time league record in the MW and are the only team to record at least 11 wins in each of the past six seasons.

- The Frogs are also the only league team to finish in third place or better in each of the last six seasons.

- The Frogs 80-29 mark is currently the best record in the MW during the last six years.

HEADLINES TO LOOK AT

During the Jeff Mittie era, the Frogs are 228-31 when leading at the half. TCU, who went 18-2 last season when leading at the half, is also 133-3 when leading by 10+ at the half.

Overall, when the Frogs score 80+ points in regulation, TCU is 78-1 under Mittie. The Frogs are also 179-14 when the opponent scores 60 or less.

MITTIE ENTERS 13TH SEASON AT TCU

Jeff Mittie has taken TCU to previously unreachable heights during his first 12 years on campus. The 45-year-old Mittie has guided the program to winning seasons in each of his 12 previous campaigns, while taking TCU to 11 straight postseason tournaments, including nine NCAA berths.

Since his arrival in Fort Worth, Mittie has compiled a 276-139 (.665) record while exceeding the win total the program accomplished in its first 22 seasons. Mittie's victories account for 57% of the school's 484 wins in 33 seasons of basketball. Prior to Mittie's arrival, TCU owned a 208-402 (.340) mark. He recorded his milestone 200th victory at TCU during the 2009-10 home win over Sam Houston State.

Overall, Mittie has been a head coach for 19 seasons, compiling a 427-198 (.683) record. He ranks No. 29 in winning percentage among all active coaches nationally and is 40th on the NCAA's all-time list in terms of winning percentage by coaches with a minimum of 10 years experience. He ranks No. 2 in women's college basketball's current leaders in victories for a coach age 45 or younger.

NCAA TOURNAMENT SUCCESS

TCU is one of only 20 schools with nine NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 11 years. TCU has reached the second round in five of its previous eight NCAA Tournament appearances. When compared to other programs around the state of Texas, the Frogs stand at No. 2 on the list. In terms of NCAA Tournament bids among Texas Division I schools since the start of the 2000-01 season, TCU, Baylor and Texas are the only three schools to have at least nine in 11 seasons to lead all other programs in the state.

The following breaks down the number of NCAA bids by members of the former Southwest Conference since 2000-01, which was Jeff Mittie's second season at TCU:

- 10—Baylor (2011, '10, '09, '08, '07, '06, '05, '04, '02, '01)
- 9—TCU (2010, '09, '07, '06, '05, '04, '03, '02, '01)

FROGS ON THE TUBE

The TCU women's basketball team will play on national television at least 11 times during the upcoming regular season, a figure that ranked in the top-30 among all NCAA Division I programs at the end of October. Five of TCU's games will air on The MountainWest Sports Network (The Mtn.), which is available nationally on DirecTV channel 616, while four other games will air on CBS Sports Network, available on DirecTV channel 613 and Dish Network channel 152. The Frogs opening game against Georgia was shown live on CSS-Comcast/ESPN3. In addition, TCU's game against Oklahoma was shown live on ESPN3.

In addition to regular-season games, the Mountain West Championships will also air live on national television starting with the first round and stretching through the championship game. First and second-round and semifinal contests will air on The Mtn., while VERSUS/NBC Sports Network (DirecTV channel 603; Dish Network channel 151) will carry the championship.

Frog games have been a fixture on television in recent years, making at least 10 appearances in each of the previous three seasons. A program-record 14 TCU women's basketball games were broadcast nationally in 2009-10.

HORNED FROGS SIGN THREE

TCU women's basketball head coach Jeff Mittie announced the signing of three student-athletes to early national letters of intent to play for the 2012-13 season. The trio is comprised of two Texas natives and one from Illinois. Overall, the TCU class is a consensus Top 50 class nationally, while two of the three future Frogs rank in the top 50 amongst all high school players for their respective positions according to ESPN/HoopGurlz.

Inking with the Frogs were shooting guard Kamy Cole (5-9, SG, Brock, Texas (Brock High School)), combo guard Veja Hamilton (5-10, SG/F, Spring, Texas (Klein Collins High School)) and point guard Zahna Medley (5-6, PG, Springfield, Ill. (Springfield High School)).

MITTIE ERA FEATURES HIGH-SCORING TEAMS

TCU has featured one of the highest-scoring teams in women's basketball in Jeff Mittie's previous 12 seasons as head coach, and it appears that trend is set to continue. The Frogs have led the Mountain West Conference in scoring offense four out of the last five seasons dating back to their second campaign in the league in 2006-07. The only time the squad did not pace the MWC in scoring was in 2005-06 and last season, when it finished second.

Looking back over Mittie's decade-long career at TCU, the Frogs have finished among the top-two teams in their conference in scoring nine out of the 12 years.

1 NO. 12/13 GEORGIA 83, TCU 60
Athens, Ga.
Nov. 11, 2011

ATHENS, Ga. - Senior Antoinette Thompson tried everything she could Friday night to help a young TCU squad pull off an upset over No. 12 Georgia, but the Horned Frogs came up short, falling at Stegeman Coliseum, 83-60.

In a game that was closer than the final score indicated, TCU and Georgia combined to make 24 three-pointers Friday in front of 5,247 spectators. The Horned Frogs, who only trailed by nine with 5 minutes left to go in the contest, nailed 11 triples, including seven in the first half.

When it was all said and done, the Frogs hoisted the seventh-most three-point attempts in a single-game in school history, while ripping the nets for the sixth-most triples made in a single-game. Not to be outdone, the Lady Bulldogs countered with 13 triples of their own, which sits No. 4 all-time for treys made in a single-game by an opponent.

TCU's feisty bunch couldn't overcome a late game barrage of three's by Georgia, who came into Friday's game ranked in the top-15 in both national polls.

No. 12/13 Georgia (1-0)

2 TCU 65, UTSA 30
Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Nov. 14, 2011

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU simply shut down UTSA Monday night, routing the Roadrunners at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, 65-30. The Horned Frogs' stifling defense held UTSA to the second lowest field goal percentage in school history by an opponent.

Simply put, TCU suffocated the Roadrunners Monday night on the defensive end of the court, forcing 24 turnovers, while only allowing UTSA to total eight made buckets the entire night, which resulted in the fourth fewest points by an opponent in school history.

The Horned Frogs' defense was cranked up the entire night, rocketing UTSA to the tune of holding the Roadrunners to only 13.3 percent from the floor, which ranks No. 2 all-time in school history for lowest field goal percentage by an opponent.

Freshman Jazz Parker led TCU Monday night, scoring 14 points on 4-of-7 shooting from the field. Sophomore Latricia Lovings was the only other Frog in double-figures, scoring a career-high 10 points on 3-of-4 shooting from the floor, which helped TCU hold a 32-8 advantage in the paint. Lovings also chipped in with seven boards and four blocks on the night.

3 SMU 47, TCU 38
Dallas, Texas
Nov. 17, 2011

DALLAS, Texas - TCU battled back to take a two-point lead midway through the second half, but SMU was able to outlast the Horned Frogs Thursday night, winning 47-38 in a hard fought defensive tussle at Moody Coliseum.

For a second-straight game, TCU, now 1-2 on the year, controlled its opponent on the defensive end of the court, this time limiting SMU, who is now 3-0 on the season, to only 24.6 percent from the floor on 15-of-61 shooting, including 3-of-12 from deep. When it was all said and done though, the Frogs and Mustangs combined for only 44 second half points, which is tied for sixth all-time in school history.

The Frogs, who couldn't overcome a slow start shooting the ball Thursday, finally found their stride late in the contest when junior Delisa Gross tickled the twine to give the Purple and White a 29-27 lead at the 9:40 mark of the second half. Despite constant Frog pressure, the Mustangs were able to run out the clock with some key free throws down the stretch to knock off TCU for the first time since 2008 and for only the second time at Moody Coliseum since 2007.

Freshman Natalie Ventress led the Frogs Thursday, just missing her first career double double with a nine point, eight board outing. Junior Delisa Gross followed with seven points, while Antoinette Thompson and Chelsea Prince both chipped in with six points, respectively.

4 NC STATE 85, TCU 79

Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Nov. 20, 2011

FORT WORTH, Texas - In a game that saw 14 lead changes and nine ties, TCU battled to the very end Sunday, ultimately falling to NC State at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, 85-79.

The feisty Horned Frogs made the Wolfpack work all day Sunday, diving on the floor for loose balls in the second half and clamping down on a NC State squad that was picked to finish in the upper-half of the ACC this season. The Frogs finished the game going 11-of-32 from deep, marking the second time this season they have recorded 11 made triples during a game, which is one short of the DMC record of 12 set last season against Oral Roberts.

Overall, the Frogs' 79 points were the most this season and the most since scoring 88 against Air Force last March. TCU's 32 three-point attempts ranks No. 5 all-time in program history and also fell one short of the coliseum record set last March against ORU.

When it was all said and done, the Purple and White, who shot 41.9 percent from the floor Sunday, couldn't catch a break down the stretch after leading by as many as four over NC State in the second half. The Wolfpack capitalized on some key free throws late to escape Daniel-Meyer Coliseum with a tough six-point victory.

NC State (3-0)

5 HARTFORD 64, TCU 60

Orlando, Fla. (UCF Thanksgiving Classic)
Nov. 25, 2011

ORLANDO, Fla. - TCU led by as many as eight Friday afternoon, but wasn't able to hold off a late Hartford rally, falling 64-60 on the opening day of the Central Florida Thanksgiving Classic at UCF Arena.

The Horned Frogs had several chances down the stretch to take the ballgame from the Hawks, who played in the NCAA Tournament a year ago, but let a 57-54 lead with 3:17 left to go in the game slip away in the final minutes. Freshman Natalie Ventress appeared to have tied the game at 60-60 with 24 seconds remaining, but her three rattled out and Hartford (4-1) was able to escape following some key free throws by Daphne Elliott.

For a majority of the day, it appeared TCU, now 1-4 on the year, was on its way to its second win of the season, but the Frogs, who shot over 43 percent for the game from the field, couldn't shake a pesky Hawk squad who battled back time after time Friday. In all, there were nine lead changes and eight ties Friday in a grueling and physical contest.

The Horned Frogs, who led by three at halftime and by eight at the 7:37 mark of the second half, received several contributions from non-starters in Orlando, which resulted in a 35-12 advantage for the Purple and White in points off the bench.

Hartford (4-1)

6 TCU 48, FORDHAM 47

Orlando, Fla. (UCF Thanksgiving Classic)
Nov. 26, 2011

ORLANDO, Fla. - Senior Antoinette Thompson made back-to-back free throws with 4 seconds left in the game to give TCU a 48-47 last second victory over Fordham on the final day of the UCF Thanksgiving Classic.

In a game that saw the Horned Frogs, who are now 2-4 on the season, secure a 19-point lead midway through the second half, the Rams (3-2) rallied down the stretch off of a 25-3 run to regain the lead at 47-46 on two-straight free throws by Arielle Collins with 17 seconds left.

With 7 seconds remaining in a gut wrenching game, junior Whitney Williams drove to the hole and put up a last second running layup that proceeded to bounce off the rim, all but ending TCU's hopes for a victory Saturday afternoon. As she did all day Saturday, Thompson was in the right place at the right time, darting into the lane for a rebound and foul call, thus sending the senior to the line for two shots and the victory. The Fort Worth native proceeded to knock down both free throws to secure TCU's second win of the season.

Thompson led the Frogs on the day with a team-high 11 points on 4-of-9 shooting, including 3-of-3 from the line. Latricia Lovings was the lone other Frog in double-figures with a career-high 10 points on 5-of-8 from the field. Both Thompson and Lovings' posted seven boards apiece.

7 TCU 80, HOUSTON 35
Houston, Texas (Hofheinz Pavilion)
Dec. 1, 2011

HOUSTON, Texas - TCU used a 79-29 run to crush Houston Thursday night at Hofheinz Pavilion, 80-35.

The Horned Frogs, who led by as many as 47 Thursday, routed the Cougars on every front. After Houston jumped out to an early 6-1 lead, the Purple and White went on a 79-29 run to blow the game wide open en route to their second-straight victory and third of the year. In all, TCU, who shot almost 50 percent from the floor Thursday, held Houston to only four second half field goals as the Cougars didn't even score from the field in the second half until the 7:58 mark.

When it was all said and done, TCU, now 3-4 on the year, hounded the Cougars (0-7) into going 4-of-25 during the second half, while only making a total of 9-of-47 from the floor to shoot 19.1 percent from the field for the entire game, which ranks No. 2 all-time in program history for lowest field goal percentage by an opponent.

By limiting the Cougars, who shot only 15.4 percent from three, to only nine field goals the entire game, the Frogs stifling defense held Houston to second lowest field goals made by the opposition in a single-game. The Cougars 35 points were not only the seventh-fewest in a game by an opponent, but also marked the fourth time this season the Purple and White have held an opponent to less than 50 points in a game.

Houston (0-7)

10 TCU 60, SAM HOUSTON STATE 49
Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Dec. 18, 2011

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU used a 21-3 run midway through the second half Sunday to down Sam Houston State at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, 60-49.

After trailing by eight at the break, the Horned Frogs, now 5-5 on the year, switched to a 2-3 zone 4 minutes into the second half Sunday and simply suffocated the Bearkats to the tune of 22 turnovers, including 13 during the second half alone. In all, the Frogs held SHSU without a bucket from the field for over 10 minutes of play in the final frame.

TCU forced Sam Houston State into only five made field goals in the second half, which marks the fourth time this season the Frogs have held an opponent to five or less field goals in a single-half. In all, the Bearkats went 5-of-30 from the floor for 16.7 percent in the second half and by doing so posted only 18 second half points, which sits inside the top-10 for fewest second half points allowed in a single-game.

Freshman Natalie Ventress came off the bench Sunday to score 14 points, while sophomore Briesha Wynn, who made her second start of the season, scored 10 points. Senior Antoinette Thompson just missed her first career double-double Sunday, finding the bottom of the net for nine points, while grabbing a team and career-high 11 boards, including nine on the defensive end of the court.

11 TCU 60, TULSA 43
Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Dec. 20, 2011

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU closed the first half on a 14-4 run and never trailed the rest of the night, downing Tulsa at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum Tuesday, 60-43.

The Frogs, who led by as many as 19 Tuesday, turned a back-and-fourth game early into a one-sided affair when they opened the second half on an 8-2 run, which included three's by both junior Whitney Williams and sophomore Briesha Wynn. In all, TCU, now 6-5 on the season, went on a combined 22-6 run between the end of the first half and the beginning moments of the second frame to blow the game wide open.

Wynn continued her strong offensive game Tuesday night, scoring a team-high 11 points on 4-of-7 shooting, marking the fourth time in five games the sophomore has scored in double-figures. By leading TCU in scoring, Wynn, who also grabbed seven rebounds Tuesday, has now carried the Frogs on the offensive end of the court two out of the last three games heading into break.

The Purple and White also received a solid contribution from Latricia Lovings, who posted nine points and seven boards. Lovings also recorded three blocks, which moves her into sole possession of No. 10 all-time in program history in blocked shots with 48 for her young career.

12 TCU 54, OKLAHOMA 82
Norman, Okla.
Dec. 28, 2011

NORMAN, Okla. - Natalie Ventress and Antoinette Thompson both scored in double-figures Wednesday, but it wasn't enough as Oklahoma dropped TCU at the Lloyd Noble Center, 82-54.

Ventress, a freshman from Fort Worth, scored 14 points on 5-of-15 shooting, which included a new career-high of four triples from deep. In all, Ventress scored nine of her 14 in the second half, including going 3-of-4 from behind the arc. Fellow freshman Chelsea Prince had another all-around game for the Horned Frogs, scoring eight points, while also grabbing a team-high seven boards.

With the loss, TCU, who forced OU into a game-high 26 turnovers, moved to 6-6 on the year and saw its two-game winning streak come to an end. Oklahoma improved to 8-3 overall and won its fifth-straight contest.

For a majority of the night, OU showed why they were picked to finish in the upper-half of the Big 12 as the Sooners simply shot lights out from all over the court, shooting a blistering 47.5 percent, including 40 percent from three-point land. Aaryn Ellenberg scored a game-high 24 points on 10-of-16 shooting, including 4-of-7 from deep. Sharane Campbell was also in double-figures with 17 points, while Morgan Hook and Whitney Hand both chipped in with 12 points apiece, respectively.

13 TCU 66, TEXAS SOUTHERN 38

Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Dec. 31, 2011

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU used an aggressive and strong defensive performance Saturday to defeat Texas Southern in its final game of 2011 at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, 66-38.

The Horned Frogs, now 7-6 on the season, simply suffocated the Tigers (1-9), limiting them to only 14 made buckets the entire afternoon on 55 shot attempts for a grand total of 25.5 percent. By holding Texas Southern to only 25.5 percent from the field, TCU has now held seven different opponents to under 30 percent shooting and improved to 42-4 overall when doing so since 2008-09. The Purple and White's defense also held TSU to 12.5 percent from behind the arc on 2-of-16 shooting.

When it was all said-and done, TCU, who only had eight turnovers the entire game, simply dominated from start to finish, outscoring Texas Southern in the paint, 32-14, while forcing the Tigers into 20 turnovers, which resulted in a 24-5 advantage in points off turnovers Saturday. The Purple and White's bench did most of the damage as the Horned Frogs, who outrebounded Texas Southern Saturday, outscored TSU off the bench, 30-18.

On a day in which every active Horned Frog player scored, Natalie Ventress led the way for TCU, scoring 15 points on 7-of-16 from the field. The freshman has now scored in double-figures in two-straight contests and three out of the last four games.

14 TCU 54, TEXAS-PAN AMERICAN 56

Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Jan. 5, 2012

FORT WORTH, Texas - Natalie Ventress scored 15 points Thursday night, but TCU dropped a hard-fought 56-54 decision to Texas-Pan American at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum.

Down by one in the closing seconds of the contest, senior Antoinette Thompson stole the rock from a Bronc player and the Frogs appeared to be in business with the ball in hand and only 29 seconds left to go in the game. After a quick timeout, sophomore Briesha Wynn drove to the bucket and put up a running shot with 19 seconds left, but the ball rattled out. Wynn tried to get redemption the next trip down the court after UTPA's Erin Lewis missed the front end of a free throw, but her shot came up short for a second-straight trip and the Broncos were able to escape with their first victory ever in a series that dates back to 1978.

Ventress led TCU (7-7) on the night with 15 points on 5-of-15 shooting from the field, while Wynn chipped in by tying a career-high with 14 points on 6-of-15 shooting. The sophomore also tallied a team-high seven boards. Ventress has now led TCU in scoring four out of the last five games.

UTPA, now 7-11 on the year, was carried by Bianca Toree, who cashed in with 18 points on 6-of-10 from the field, including a sizzling 5-of-6 from behind the arc. LaQuita Garner was the only other Bronc player in double-figures with 11 points.

15 TCU 44, HARVARD 56

Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Jan. 7, 2012

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU rallied to pull within nine Saturday night, but Harvard was able to knock down some timely free throws to escape Daniel-Meyer Coliseum with a 56-44 victory.

The Horned Frogs (7-8) used a 20-6 run midway through the second half Saturday to pull within nine, but couldn't complete the second half flurry. During that stretch, TCU picked up the defensive intensity to the tune of holding Harvard, now 7-6 on the season, without a field goal from the field for over 6 minutes of action. The Horned Frogs stifling defense down the stretch also limited the Crimson to only two made field goals on 12 attempts in the last 11 minutes of Saturday's contest.

For a fourth-straight game, Natalie Ventress led TCU in scoring, netting 16 points, while also securing six boards. Fellow freshman Chelsea Prince also had a solid return to the TCU lineup Saturday with seven points, four rebounds, two blocks and one steal.

Harvard had three players score in double-figures as Brogan Berry scored a game-high 17 points, which included several key three-pointers in the first half. Victoria Lippert and Christine Clark both tallied 13 points apiece, respectively.

16 TCU 46, SAN DIEGO STATE 61
San Diego, Calif. (Viejas Arena)
Jan. 11, 2012

SAN DIEGO - TCU dropped its conference opener Wednesday night, falling to San Diego State at Viejas Arena, 61-46. The loss marked the first time since 2006 that the Horned Frogs have lost a conference opener and snapped a two-game winning streak over the Aztecs.

TCU, now 7-9 on the year and 0-1 in the Mountain West, appeared on its way to getting back in the contest late in the game Wednesday, pulling within 13 on an 8-2 run in the closing minutes, but the Aztecs Kiyana Stamps nailed two three's down the stretch to give SDSU, who is now 11-4 on the season and 1-0 in conference play, only its second win over the Purple and White in five tries.

In a game that saw five ties and 12 lead changes, TCU couldn't get over the hump Wednesday night, despite forcing 17 turnovers and limiting SDSU to only 33 percent from the field, including only seven made field goals for 21.9 percent in the first half.

Antoinette Thompson led the way for the Frogs with 13 points and seven boards. Whitney Williams chipped in with nine points.

17 TCU 79, COLORADO STATE 71
Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Jan. 14, 2012

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU simply couldn't miss during stages of the game Saturday, shooting a blistering 50 percent from the field en route to a 79-71 victory over Colorado State at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum.

The Horned Frogs, now 8-9 on the year and 1-1 in conference play, caught fire early on, cashing in from all over the court, which helped the Frogs jump all over the Rams early, cruising to a 15-0 lead from the opening tip. When it was all said-and-done, TCU never trailed in the game, thanks in large part to some streaky shooting and all-out hustle that helped the Purple and White record a 33-29 advantage in rebounds.

The Frogs simply could not be stopped from behind the arc during the first half, ripping the nets for a season-high 58.3 percent on 7-of-12 shooting in the opening frame. During the first half alone, TCU, who led by as many as 18, shot 56.7 percent from the field.

Antoinette Thompson did most of the damage from deep, going 3-of-4 from three-point land en route to a 20-point outing on 8-of-10 shooting from the floor.

18 TCU 57, UNLV 72
Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Jan. 18, 2012

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU tried everything Wednesday night to catch up to a hot shooting UNLV squad, pulling within eight in the final minutes of the second half, but couldn't complete the late rally, falling to the Rebels at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, 72-57.

The Horned Frogs, who went on a 22-5 run midway through the second half to crawl within single-digits, held UNLV without a bucket from the field for over 7 minutes of action in the middle of the second frame. Playing with a lot more fire and passion, the Frogs ramped up their defensive play during that stretch to the tune of harassing UNLV into four turnovers and forcing the Rebels into several bad shots, which resulted in them going 0-for-7 from the field during that stretch.

Sophomore Meagan Henson led the charge for the Frogs with some timely passes and several key buckets, which included a tough three-point play at the 2:57 mark that seemed to have lit a fire under the Purple and White for the time being.

Freshman Natalie Ventress led the TCU attack Wednesday with a new career and game-high of 23 points, while senior Antoinette Thompson also scored in double-figures with 13 points, marking the third-straight game in which the Fort Worth native has scored in double-digits. Henson had a career-night with a new career-high of six points, while also tallying four assists and three steals.

19 TCU 74, BOISE STATE 68

Boise, Idaho (Taco Bell Arena)
Jan. 11, 2012

BOISE, Idaho - TCU had four players score in double-figures Saturday night as the Horned Frogs used a strong second half showing to drop Boise State at Taco Bell Arena, 74-68.

Delisa Gross and Natalie Ventress both scored 18 points apiece to lead the Horned Frogs, while Antoinette Thompson and Chelsea Prince chipped in with 10 points. Gross had a season-high of 18 on 6-of-11 shooting, which included 10 points in the second half. Ventress went 6-of-13 from the floor and knocked down several key free throws, going 4-for-4 down the stretch to seal the game for the Frogs.

Boise State was carried on the night by Lauren Lenhardt, who tallied a game-high 22 points and 10 boards. Katie Isham posted 18 points and Heather Pilcher rounded out the Broncos top-performers with 19 points on 4-of-8 shooting from the field.

TCU, now 9-10 overall and 2-2 in league play, came out of the gate in the second half, firing on all cylinders as Whitney Williams gave TCU a 32-29 lead, drilling a triple early on in the second frame. On the very next possession, Latricia Lovings found a cutting Thompson to push the Frog lead to five at 34-29. In all, TCU went on a 14-2 run between the two periods.

20 TCU 66, AIR FORCE 44

USAFA, Colo. (Clune Arena)
Jan. 25, 2012

USAFA, Colo. - TCU used a 27-4 run early on in the second half Wednesday to erase a one-point halftime deficit and crush Air Force at Clune Arena, 66-44.

In all, the Horned Frogs' stingy defense forced a season-high 29 turnovers, including 15 in the second half. By forcing Air Force into 29 turnovers, it marked the most since TCU engaged Colorado State into 31 last January. For a majority of the night, the Frogs, who posted a season-high 19 steals Wednesday, used those turnovers to produce on the offensive end, recording a 30-17 advantage in points off turnovers.

In the second frame alone, TCU, who trailed at the half by a score of 25-24, held the Falcons to only 19 second half points on 6-of-23 shooting from the field. In all, Air Force, who only made one three-pointer the entire night, faced heavy pressure the entire second half.

With the win, the Purple and White, now winners of two-straight, moved to 10-10 overall and 3-2 in the Mountain West, while Air Force dropped to 5-15 overall and 0-5 in league play.

21 TCU 63, NEW MEXICO 56

Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Jan. 28, 2012

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU continued its winning ways Saturday afternoon by downing New Mexico at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, 63-56.

With the win, the Horned Frogs, who have now won three-straight, moved to 11-10 overall and 4-2 in the Mountain West, while the Lobos dropped to 6-14 and 0-6 in league play.

For a majority of the day, the Frogs used a balanced scoring attack, which helped them shoot 50 percent from the field for the game, including a season-high 58.3 percent in the first half. In all, freshman Ashley Colbert carried the way for the Frogs Saturday, scoring 11 points on 5-of-8 shooting from the field. Senior Antoinette Thompson was also in double-figures with 10 points, while Natalie Ventress, Briesha Wynn and Chelsea Prince each added nine apiece, respectively.

TCU, who led by as many as 12 Saturday, saw their substantial lead dwindle to two points with 2 minutes to go in the contest, but the Frogs closed the game on a 10-3 run to capture their fourth victory in five tries over New Mexico. Thompson spearheaded the Frog attack down the stretch as she scored six of her 10 points in the final minute of the game, including a running three-point play, which seemingly put the game out of reach.

Laramie, Wyo. (Arena-Auditorium)
Feb. 1, 2012

LARAMIE, Wyo. - TCU saw its three-game winning streak come to an end Wednesday night with a 64-54 setback to Wyoming at the Cowgirls Arena Auditorium.

With the loss, the Horned Frogs dropped to 11-11 overall and 4-3 in league play, while Wyoming moved to 8-12 overall and 4-3 in the Mountain West.

Freshman Natalie Ventress led TCU with 18 points, while Whitney Williams was the only other Frog in double-figures with 11 points on 4-of-9 shooting. Chelsea Prince chipped in with nine points on 4-of-7 from the floor, while also leading the Purple and White with six boards. Ventress has now led TCU in scoring 12 times this season, including 10 out of the last 13 games.

Kayla Woodward scored a game-high 21 points on 7-of-10 shooting, including 2-for-3 from deep to lead the Cowgirls, who also snapped TCU's three-game winning streak in the all-time series. Chaundra Sewell added 20 points and 11 boards to record a double-double. Sewell went 10-of-14 from the charity stripe as Wyoming shot a season-high 28 free throws Wednesday.

23 TCU 58, SAN DIEGO STATE 39

Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Feb. 4, 2012

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU simply suffocated San Diego State on the defensive end of the court Saturday afternoon, which helped them cruise past the Aztecs in dominating fashion at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, 58-39.

For the entire day, the Horned Frogs' relentless and scrappy defense hounded the Aztecs into bad shots, which resulted in SDSU shooting a season low 23.4 percent from the field on 15-of-64 shooting. When it was all said-and-done, the Frogs, who drilled San Diego State off the bench to the tune of a 30-11 advantage in bench points, held the Aztecs to a 0-for-17 shooting night from three-point land, which are the most three-pointers attempted without a make for an opponent against a Jeff Mittie led squad.

With the win, TCU, who shot 90 percent from the charity stripe in the second half and went 20-of-24 overall from the line, improved to 12-11 on the season and 5-3 in the Mountain West. San Diego State fell to 17-5 overall and 7-1 in conference play. In all, the Aztecs, who are receiving votes in the Associated Press Top 25, came into the game on a 13-game winning streak, which ranked as the fifth longest in the nation heading into today's contest. They left the DMC suffering not only their first loss in league play, but also their first since falling to San Diego on Dec. 8.

24 TCU 59, COLORADO STATE 61

Fort Collins, Colo. (Moby Arena)
Feb. 11, 2012

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - In a key Mountain West contest, TCU rallied to pull within one in the second half Saturday, but Colorado State dodged a last second shot by sophomore Briesha Wynn and escaped with a heart-breaking 61-59 victory at Moby Arena.

With seven seconds remaining in the game and the Frogs trailing by two, sophomore Latricia Lovings rebounded a missed free throw by the Rams' Hayley Thompson and found Wynn on the outlet. The fellow sophomore proceeded to drive the length of the court and float the rock towards the hoop on a running layup, but the ball bounced off the back of the rim as time expired to give Colorado State its first win in the all-time series since 1999.

It was a tale of two halves for TCU Saturday as the Frogs, who clawed their way back within one on a 11-4 run halfway through the second frame of play, outscored CSU in the second half, 36-22. The Frogs defense got into the act after trailing by 16 at intermission as they forced the Rams into 11 turnovers and only nine made shots in the second half alone. This came after CSU had only missed nine shots on 16-of-25 shooting in the first half and shot a blistering 64 percent from the floor during the opening frame.

25 TCU 54, UNLV 55

Las Vegas, Nev. (Cox Pavilion)
Feb. 1, 2012

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - Freshman Natalie Ventress scored a career-high 25 points Wednesday night, but TCU couldn't complete the comeback as UNLV dropped the Horned Frogs at Cox Pavilion, 55-54.

Ventress scored a game-high 25 points on 8-of-18 shooting, including 5-of-10 from three. It marked the fifth time this season the freshman from Fort Worth has scored 20+ points and the 14th time she has led the Horned Frogs in scoring this season. In all, Ventress did most of her damage in the second half as she scored 20 points in the period, including four of her career-high five three-pointers to lead a furious comeback. Sophomore Latricia Lovings also had a solid showing with an eight-point, five board night.

In all, TCU moved to 12-13 overall and 5-5 in the Mountain West, while UNLV improved to 18-8 overall and 6-4 in league play.

With 17 seconds left on the scoreboard and the Rebels leading 53-52, Briesha Wynn tried to give TCU a one-point lead after driving the lane, but her shot literally rolled in and out of the rim and UNLV cashed in on both free throws on the other end to go up by three. On a career night, Ventress tried one last time to make a three from the corner, but came up long as the Rebels won for the fourth time in 19 tries against TCU.

26 TCU 73, BOISE STATE 69

Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Feb. 18, 2012

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU had four players score in double-figures Saturday, including three freshmen, as the Frogs exploded in the second half late to down Boise State at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, 73-69.

After trailing at the break 28-24, the Horned Frogs, now 13-13 overall and 6-5 in the Mountain West, simply caught fire in the second half as freshman Natalie Ventress led a TCU attack late firing on all cylinders. When it was all said and done, the Purple and White went on an 18-5 run to pull ahead by 12 with a minute left. The Frogs, who shot 51.9 percent in the second half and 45.3 overall in the game, forced Boise State, who is now 13-13 overall and 4-7 in league play, into 25 turnovers as TCU stole the rock 13 times in the contest. The Purple and White also secured points in the paint Saturday, holding a 36-28 advantage, while totaling 28 points off of turnovers.

For a second-straight game, Ventress, a Fort Worth native, scored 20 points after intermission. This time she netted 21 in the second half, which follows a 20-point outburst against UNLV earlier this week. In all, Ventress, who simply could not miss in the second half from long distance going 4-of-6 from three, scored a total of 23 points, which marks her third-straight game and sixth overall with 20 or more points.

Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Feb. 22, 2012

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU's smothering defense blanketed Air Force Wednesday night as the Horned Frogs held the Falcons to a season-low 17.3 percent from the field en route to a comfortable 61-31 victory at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum.

On a dominating night, the Frogs simply attacked Air Force on the defensive end of the court as the Falcons shot 9-of-52 from the field for 17.3 percent, which is the third lowest field goal percentage by an opponent in school history and the lowest of any Mountain West school this season. It was also the lowest percentage since UTSA shot 13.3 percent from the field earlier this year.

The young and pesky Frogs got out of the gates quickly Wednesday and never looked back as they held Air Force, who went scoreless from the field for almost nine minutes of play in the first half Wednesday, to only 11.5 percent from the floor in the opening frame on 3-of-26 shooting from the field. In all, the Falcons' 13 first half points were tied for the 10th lowest in school history.

With the win, TCU improved to 14-13 overall and 7-5 in the Mountain West, while Air Force dropped to 5-22 and 0-12 in league play.

28 TCU 63, NEW MEXICO 52

Albuquerque, N.M. (The Pit)
Feb. 25, 2012

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - TCU had three players score in double-figures Saturday as the Horned Frogs came alive down the stretch of the second half to capture a 63-52 victory over New Mexico at the historic Pit.

The Frogs, who trailed by as many as 10 in the second half, battled the Lobos all day with all-out hustle and determination before eventually going on a 15-4 run to put the game on ice and quiet the crowd of 7,333 strong in Albuquerque. With the victory, TCU won for only the third time ever at The Pit and has now won four-straight in the all-time series, including back-to-back in Albuquerque.

The young and pesky Frogs, who out-rebounded the Lobos Saturday, simply found a way to win as several players made solid contributions late, which helped the Frogs record a 29-13 advantage in bench points Saturday. In all, TCU shot 43.5 percent from the field in the second half, while limiting UNM, who didn't make a single three in the period on eight attempts, to under 34 percent during the period.

29 TCU 58, WYOMING 48

Fort Worth, Texas (Daniel-Meyer Coliseum)
Feb. 28, 2012

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU kept to its winning ways Tuesday night with a 58-48 victory over Wyoming at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum.

With the victory, the Horned Frogs won their fourth-straight game and closed out regular season play with a 16-13 overall record, including a 9-5 mark in the Mountain West. By defeating the Cowgirls, now 11-16 overall and 7-7 in league games, the Frogs clinched the No. 4 seed in next week's Mountain West Tournament in Las Vegas. TCU and Wyoming will square off next Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. CT from the Thomas & Mack Center.

On the night, TCU shot 44.9 percent from the field, including 52.4 percent in the first half. The Frogs, who once again used their trademark defense to grind out a victory, stole the rock 10 times on the night, while holding the Cowgirls to only 33.3 percent from the field on 17-of-51 shooting. In all, TCU held Wyoming to only five made threes on 20 attempts.

For a majority of the night, the bench did most of the damage for the Frogs as TCU recorded a 27-5 advantage off the bench. In all, eight different Frogs scored Tuesday as the Purple and White tallied 14 assists on a balance offensive attack.

2011-12 PLAYER NOTES

Prince opened the season grabbing a team-high and game-high 12 boards against Georgia ... She became the first freshman to lead TCU in rebounds in a contest since sophomore Briesha Wynn did so in 2010-11 ... The freshman almost posted a double-double against UTSA, finishing with 8 points and six boards ... Had a breakout game against Hartford, scoring 15 points on 6-of-9 shooting ... Named Mountain West Player of the Week by scoring 16 points against Lamar and 12 points against Houston ... Led TCU in scoring against Lamar on 7-of-10 shooting ... Scored 10 points against defending national champion Texas A&M, while also posting seven steals, which ranks No. 6 all-time in a single-game... Tallied a career-high four blocks against Sam Houston State while making her first career start ... Swiped six steals at UNLV, one off her career best ... Scored 14 points and grabbed six steals for the second-straight game against Boise State ... Made a career-best 6-of-8 from the charity stripe ... Started her sixth-career game against Air Force, scoring four points and notching three steals ... Had nine points, three rebounds and three steals against Wyoming.
