QUICK HITS

WHAT'S BACK:

- TCU returns 10 letterwinners in 2017-18, including three starters. Kianna Ray (28 starts), Jordan Moore (19 starts) and Toree Thompson (14 starts) all return, as does Amy Okonkwo (14 starts) who came off the bench at the end of 2016-17.
- Okonkwo (10.2 ppg) is the Frogs leading returning scorer after scoring in double figures in 16 games last season. She was TCU's second-leading rebounder last season (5.5 rpg), behind only Moore (6.8 rpg) who posted six double-doubles, the most in TCU's Big 12 era.
- After welcoming a five-member signing class in 2016-17, all five are now part of a group of seven sophomores in 2017-18. Leading that group are Ray and Amber Ramirez. Ray led all Big 12 freshmen in assists (2.3 apg) and steals (1.2 spg) in 2016-17. Ramirez led all Big 12 freshmen in made 3-pointers (39) despite missing seven games.

WHAT'S GONE:

- Even though they only lose three players from the 2016-17 roster, the Frogs lose their top two scorers in AJ Alix (13.1 ppg) and Jada Butts (12.2 ppg). Alix (4.6 apg) and Butts (2.6 apg) also led the Frogs in assists last season.

WHAT'S NEW:

- The Frogs welcome just two newcomers in 2017-18 in freshman Lauren Heard and junior transfer Dakota Vann. Heard comes to the Frogs from Guyer High School in Denton, Texas. Vann played last season at Butler Community College after playing her freshman season at Loyola-Chicago.
- The Frogs will also get the services of Jayde Woods who transferred to TCU from Oregon last December.

THE STORYLINES:

- In their fourth year under head coach Raegan Pebley, the Frogs will look to return to the postseason. TCU played in the WNIT in each of Pebley's first two seasons, but missed out on the postseason with a very young roster last year.
- That 2016-17 roster featured six true freshmen who are now part of a still relatively young roster. After having just two seniors in 2016-17, the Frogs have just two again (Thompson and Sydney Coleman). The roster features just one freshman, but seven sophomores.
- The Frogs ranked second in the Big 12 in made 3-pointers (7.3/g) last season, but had a better percentage (35.3) than the lone team ahead of them.
- TCU's great 3-point shooting in 2016-17 was a product of some excellent ball movement. The Frogs assisted on 61.4 percent of their baskets, ranking second in the Big 12.
- The Frogs also excelled off the court in 2016-17 with a program-record three Academic All-Big 12 first team selections. TCU also tied a program record with six total Academic All-Big 12 selections. In its five seasons in the Big 12, TCU has had 20 Academic All-Big 12 selections with 16 coming in Pebley's three seasons as head coach.
- TCU enjoyed a trip to Australia in August, posting a 4-0 record on the court while exploring Sydney and Melbourne.
