Please, Just TCU

AP, NCAA, ABC, CBS, NBC, AFCA. And, TCU Athletics.

Though the TCU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized simply as TCU (acronym only) Athletics. Dittor regarding referenes to its sports teams: TCU tennis, TCU football, TCU baseball, etc.

In all sports-related media references, we respectfully urge that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation -- TCU. In subsequent references of the same presentation the team may be referred to by nickname - Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2011 TCU women's tennis fact book has been written to provide members of the media with statistics and information needed to adequately cover the Horned Frogs throughout the season. If this publication does not answer your questions or you need further assistance, please contact Chris Perry in the TCU Athletics Media Relations office at (817) 257-5379. TCU looks forward to serving members of the media covering the Frogs during the 2012 season. If you will be attending a match at the Bayard H. Friedman Tennis Center, please take a moment to read the items of media interest appearing below.

STATISTICAL SERVICES AND LIVE SCORING: Match statistics and results will be emailed back to the media relations office of visiting teams at the conclusion of the match. If no media relations representative is traveling with the visiting team, arrangements should be made in advance for additional services to be provided in his/her absence. Results will be faxed to visiting SIDs by request only. Live scoring of all home matches is also available on TCU's official athletics website, www.GoFrogs.com.

POST-MATCH AND OTHER INTERVIEWS: Interviews will be available following the match after a 10-minute cooling off period. Media wishing to interview coaches or any players other than on match days are required to set up interviews through Chris Perry in the TCU Athletics Media Relations office.

WEB SITE: All TCU women's tennis information is available on the Web at the official home of TCU athletics, www.GoFrogs.com. All statistical information, along with an archive of the entire season's game stories, game notes and press releases, can be found there. Live scoring is also available during all home matches on the Web.

^ Tut Bartzen was considered the head coach from 1977-78 to 1983-84, however, his assistants were primarily in charge of the team. His assistants, therefore, during those seasons are listed as the head coaches. Roland Ingram was the first full-time women's coach for TCU beginning with the 1984-85 season.

NCAA conducted its first national championship event for the 1981-82 season.

INDIVIDUAL HONORS AND AWARDS

Over the years, several Horned Frogs have earned numerous honors both on the court and in the classroom. TCU has seen nine Frogs – who are pictured on the next page – earn All-America acclaim with Ana Cetnik, Lucie Dvorakova, Nicole Leimbach, Nina Munch-Soegaard, Tory Plunkett, Rene Simpson, Anna Sydorska, Story Tweedie-Yates and Daria Zoldakova. All six returning Frogs from last season earned honors in 2007-08. Additionally, 23 players have earned all-conference accolades and 35 have achieved academic praise. Tweedie-Yates, Saber Pierce and Sydorska are the most decorated Horned Frogs with 11 honors during their careers.
