WOMEN'S TENNIS

2006, '07, '08 MWC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS | 2006, '09 MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

Match #4

No. 23 TCU (1-2) vs.
No. 30 SMU (9-1)

*Bayard H. Friedman Tennis Center
Bernard "Tut" Bartzén Varsity Courts*

FORT WORTH, Texas – The No. 23 TCU women's tennis team will take on crosstown rival No. 30 SMU Wednesday at the Bayard H. Friedman Tennis Center. First serve set for 6 p.m.

The Horned Frogs (1-2) moved up one spot in the latest Campbell's/ITA Team Rankings despite an 11-day layoff since their last match against Stanford on Feb. 6.

Juniors Idunn Hertzberg and Katariina Tuohimaa have earned Mountain West Conference Player of the Week considerations thought the early part of the season. Hertzberg, a native of Oslo Norway, led the charge for TCU during the ITA National Indoor Championships with a perfect 4-0 record for the weekend, while Tuohimaa picked up the highest-ranked win of her career over No. 16 Mallory Burdette of Stanford on Feb. 6.

SMU (9-1) has been busy to start the 2010 season, rattling off 10 matches in the first three weeks of play. The Mustangs ride into Wednesday's meeting on a five-match winning streak, rattling off wins over Tulane and Oklahoma State last weekend. Led by sophomores Marta Lesniak and Aleksandra Malyarchikova, the Mustangs are 41-10 in singles matches to begin the year.

TCU currently holds a 26-17 advantage over SMU in the all-time series, including a 13-6 record at home. SMU defeated the Frogs in Dallas in 2009, sweeping TCU to claim the doubles point on the way to pulling out a tough 4-3 decision.

TCU will return to the Benard "Tut" Bartzén Varsity Courts Sunday to host No. 17 Arkansas at Noon before ending the month on the road at Michigan, Alabama and Auburn.

Frogs in the Rankings

The TCU women's tennis team is currently ranked 23rd in the latest ITA poll. Sophomore Kayla Duncan leads the team in singles rankings at No. 67, while the 2009 all-MWC team of Duncan and junior Katariina Tuohimaa round out the Frogs' national listings, beginning the year ranked No. 59. After claiming a No. 14 preseason singles ranking before the fall schedule, senior Nina Munch-Soegaard is not currently ranked in singles play because she did not compete in the fall.

Tuohimaa Snares MWC Honor

Junior Katariina Tuohimaa was named the Mountain West Conference Women's Tennis Player of the Week on Feb. 10 after she picked up the highest-ranked win of her career over No. 16 Mallory Burdette (5-7, 7-6 [4], 10-5) of 14th-ranked Stanford.

Tough Schedule in 2010

The Frogs have one of the toughest schedules in the country, taking on 14 schools that began the season ranked in the top-50 by the ITA and 16 NCAA qualifiers from a year ago. While traveling to face stout competition on the road in Vanderbilt, Michigan, Alabama, Auburn, Miami, Wichita State, Baylor and Notre Dame, TCU will also host a tough slate at the Bayard H. Friedman Tennis Center, including Stanford, SMU, Arkansas, Texas A&M, Illinois and VCU.

Hertzberg Honored by MWC

TCU junior Idunn Hertzberg earned her first career Mountain West Conference Women's Tennis Player of the Week award on Feb. 3. The Oslo, Norway product posted a perfect 4-0 record on the road last weekend as the Horned Frogs registered a 1-1 mark in season-opening matches versus No. 21 Vanderbilt and No. 30 Texas.

Nothing New

All six players starting in today's match are returning from last season's Mountain West Conference tournament title team. Despite boasting only one senior, the Horned Frogs' squad is a veteran team with no freshmen listed.

Doubles or Nothing

Dating back to last season and including last weekend's matches in Knoxville against Vanderbilt and Texas, TCU has yet to lose the doubles point in dual match competition in its last 11 matches. In 2009, the Frogs earned the early 1-0 lead in 21 of its 28 matches.

Protecting Our Home Turf

The Frogs have been unfriendly to their out-of-town guests at the Bayard H. Friedman Tennis Center, delivering a 25-7 regular season record at home since head coach Jefferson Hammond took over at the helm in 2007. Four of those losses have come at the hands of teams ranked in the top-15.

MWC Dominance

Since joining the Mountain West Conference in 2005-06, TCU has compiled a 39-4 record against league opponents while garnering three regular season titles (2006, '07, '08) and a pair of tournament trophies (2006, '09). Head coach Jefferson Hammond has earned the league's Coach of the Year honor in each of the last two seasons.

Head Coach Jefferson Hammond

Fourth Year as Head Coach | Sixth Year Overall at TCU
2008 & 2009 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year
55-30 (.647) Head Coaching Record

In 2009, Hammond drove TCU to an overall record of 17-11 and a final team ranking of No. 29. The Horned Frogs returned to NCAA postseason play for the sixth-straight season, reaching the second round of the Fayetteville Regional. They defeated No. 36 Tulsa in the opening round, 4-1, before losing to No. 14 Arkansas, 4-3. Hammond earned his second-consecutive Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year award, leading the Horned Frogs to a 10-1 record against league opponents and claiming the program's second conference tournament title in four seasons.

Hammond enters his second season as the committee chairperson for the ITA Texas Region. In his first year of responsibilities, TCU hosted the 2008 Wilson/ITA Southwest Regional Championships in Fort Worth.

Hammond is very proud of his team off of the court as well, where the team has made the ITA All-Academic squad two out of the last three years with a 3.3 GPA. The program has also had a perfect APR percentage of 1000 in his three years.
