SERVING IT UP

Megan Munce has tallied 11 service aces in the last four matches to move into fourth on the all-time list with 135.

On the season, Munce has a team-high 37 aces and ranks second in the league with 0.34 per set.

She is just one ace behind Tori Barlow, who sits in third with 136. Anna Vaughn is second with 141 total aces in her four-year career.

ROAD WARRIORS

TCU has played 18 matches away from home this season and is an impressive 15-3 (8-2 away, 7-1 at neutral sites). The school record for wins away from home is 16 (nine away and seven at neutral sites) set back in the 2009 season.

The 15-3 road mark includes a 5-2 record in conference play. TCU has tallied road wins over New Mexico, Boise State, Air Force, Wyoming and UNLV.

PARTY AT THE REC

Frog fans have packed the Rec over the course of 10 matches of the season as TCU posted seven of the top 10 attendance marks in school history.

Against the Longhorns, a school-record crowd packed the gym, breaking the old mark of 2,166 set earlier this season against Connecticut.

The Horned Frogs rank 19th nationally with their average of 1,734 fans.

DIGGING FOOLS

The Horned Frogs have made living off of their defense this season as they are averaging 17.86 digs per set. That mark is almost two digs higher than the league's second-place team, New Mexico and ranks 18th nationally.

Leading the charge is libero Sarah Joeckel, who paces the conference with 5.45 digs per set.

That mark ranks 19th nationally.

If both the team and Joeckel maintain their pace, the school records will be shattered. The single-season record for digs per set is 16.7 set back in 1997, while the individual mark is 5.09 set by Talaya Whitfield in 2004.

HIGH PRAISE

Freshman Stephanie Holland earned the honor of MW Freshman of the Year after a stellar opening season to her collegiate career. She joins Marci King as the only Horned Frog to earn Freshman of the Year accolades. King was tabbed the WAC Mountain Division Freshman of the Year in 1998.

Holland ranks fifth on the squad with an average of 1.83 kills per set. Her .303 attack percentage is third-highest on the team. Additionally, Holland has pitched in with 38 digs and 45 blocks.

WE BID YOU ADIEU

Saturday's loss to UNLV marked the Frogs' final contest against league foes as a member of the Mountain West.

In seven seasons in the Mountain West, the Horned Frogs posted an all-time record of 53-57 (.491). TCU notched 13 wins against Air Force, eight wins against Wyoming and New Mexico, seven wins over San Diego State, five victories over Colorado State, four over UNLV, three each over Utah and BYU and two against Boise State.

Additionally, the Horned Frogs played in four conference tournaments, compiling a 2-4 record in those contests. The two wins came over Air Force and Boise State. The four losses came to Colorado State, BYU, Utah and UNLV.

TCU is slated to join the Big 12 on July 1, 2012.
