Temple Field Hockey 2006 Season Notes

On the National Stage

Sophomore goalkeeper Erin Hanshue ranks seventh and sixteenth nationally with a 1.09 goals against average and .784 save percentage, respectively. In addition, Hanshue's six shutouts ranks first among all Atlantic 10 goalkeepers.

Lokey Answers

Junior midfielder Alli Lokey responded to last year's first team all-conference performance of 22 points on eight goals and six assists with career high numbers in 2006. Lokey's 24 points, on 10 goals and four assists, ranks tied for sixth among Atlantic 10 performers.

Honored Owls

Freshman forward Mandi Ruth has twice been named Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Week (9/5, 9/25) while fellow classmate Charise Young has received the honor once (9/11) this season. Sophomore goalkeeper Erin Hanshue (9/11) and junior midfielder Alli Lokey (Co-, 9/25) have also been honored as the conference's Players of the Week.

Extra Session Experience

Entering the weekend tournament, the Owls ranked first among Atlantic 10 teams in overtime contests played. To date, Temple has played seven extra session games including two double-overtime outings and have posted a 4-3 record.

Streak Hits Seven

A run of seven consecutive victories, from September 16 to October 6, was the first of its kind since the 1991 campaign when the Owls won 10 straight contests.

Three Firsts in the Second

Sophomore midfielder Mary Catherine Kinneman, sophomore forward Liz Watto and freshman forward Kasey Ruth each tallied their first career goals in the second half of a 6-1 win over Monmouth.

15 Out of 18

This weekend's appearance in the Atlantic 10 tournament is the Owls' 15th since 1989. Temple last won the conference championship in 1994 before taking the title in 1991, as well.

A Two-Year Impact

Heading into last year's tournament, first-year head coach Amanda Janney had produced the program's first winning season since 1992. This season, Janney brings her troops to Crenshaw Field following 13 regular season victories, the most since 1991.
