2007 TEMPLE WOMEN'S GYMNASTICS

Outlook

After a standout gymnastics career at Temple, which included an appearance in the 2001 U.S. Championships, Aaron Murphy was named the women's gymnastics head coach on October 24, 2006. Murphy, honored as the USA Collegiate Assistant Gymnastics Coach of the Year in 2004, replaces Ken Anderson after a program-best 236 victories and 21 years at the helm of the women's gymnastics program.

"It's been great having been given the opportunity, and an honor in itself, to take over the head coaching responsibilities from Coach Anderson," said Murphy.

Following the squad's 6-19 performance from a year ago, Murphy has began the training season with a philosophy different from years past. With an accelerated emphasis on advanced skills and fresh routines, he notes this year's depth as reasoning behind his adjusted approach.

"We've started training bigger skills in the preseason and practicing new routines earlier, so the team is more comfortable come competition time," commented Murphy. "The team depth this season is something I'm especially excited about. Being one of the top six competitors is going to be a battle week-in and week-out."

Following suit with a Temple women's gymnastics tradition, seniors Jillian Kornett and Sarah Liebowitz were selected the season's team captains by their peers. Kornett, having competed in 12 of 13 meets in 2006, thrice posted season and team-highs on vault (9.625) vs. Penn, Maryland and at the Towson Invitational. Liebowitz, having competed in 34 meets in three seasons as an Owl, was awarded USAG All-American recognition following her fourth place all-around performance (37.875) at the USAG Nationals.

"I feel that the team selected Jillian and Sarah because of their leadership, not only inside the gym, but as well as outside the gym," boasted Murphy.

Kornett and Liebowitz's veteran leadership will be complimented by fellow seniors Donna Crowell, Noelle Moore and Allison Williams. While Murphy cites Crowell's increased training regimen and Williams' upside after suffering through injuries, he is especially enthused about Moore's consistent performance in two specific events.

"Noelle is a dominant force in the floor exercise and on balance beam,"

Murphy complimented on the 2006 USAG All-American. "She really has the ability to be the anchor in both events."

Junior Desiree Meredith brings, what Murphy refers to as, a "power-house style of gymnastics" while he's looking for Alycia Petitto to be a stand-out in the all-around.

Nikki Berrian, Natasha Crawford, Nicole Catrambone and Winter Sneed highlight a competitive and potentially contributing sophomore class. Murphy notes Crawford's fearless approach as perfect compliments to Berrian and Sneed's exciting style. With consistent day-to-day improvement, fellow classmates Caitlin Egan, Emily Farley and Debra DiPrima figure to compete for one of six event positions. After a red-shirted 2006 campaign due to injury, Christine McNeill and Kristin McReil return to the squad and will provide additional depth to the all-around.

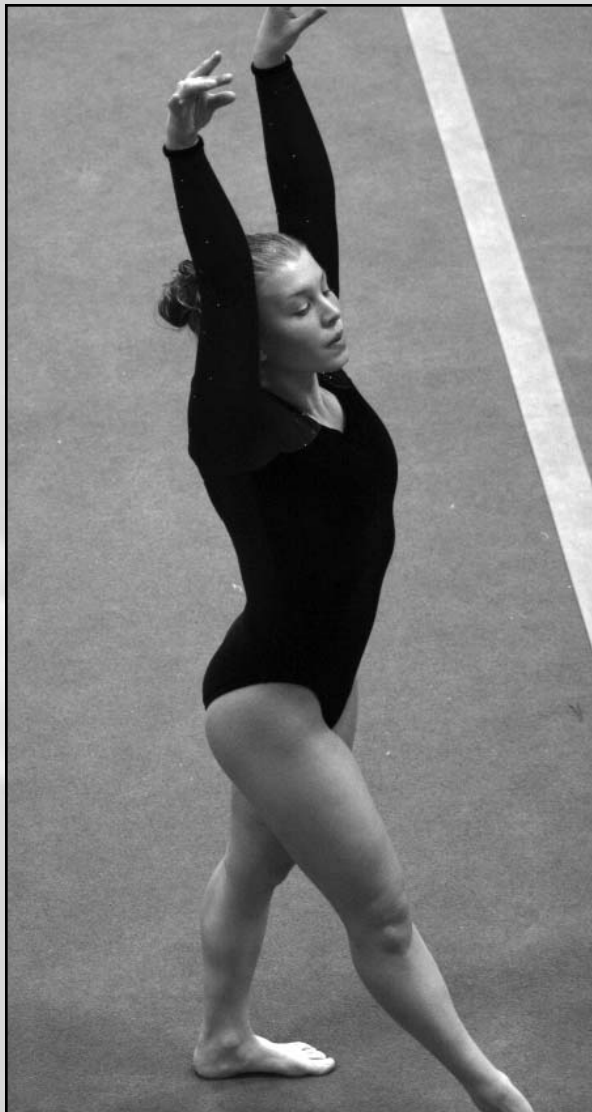

"Natasha and Nicole are just real hard-nosed gymnasts," said Murphy. "On the other hand, Nikki's uneven bar routine has the ability to put the crowd in a sense of awe while Winter displays a tremendous amount of showmanship in the floor exercise."

Freshmen Evelyn Lespinasse, Ashley Nehiley, Nina Oteri, Tiffany Shepherd, Danielle Viens and Monica Zuber have proven to provide Murphy with a competitive nature that has increased the level of team motivation.

"They're what's pushing the competitive envelope for this team, right now," noted Murphy. "This group is very talented."

Heading into competition, Murphy looks forward to the challenging schedule being a catalyst for his squad's continual development throughout the season. Specifically, he's targeting the season's first meet at Ursinus to the set the tone and the annual alumni meet as an opportunity to display the team's hard work.

"We are really looking forward to the first meet to see how the team can present itself," commented Murphy. "Also, the annual alumni meet (2/3) will be a great chance for our former athletes to come back and see what our girls can do."

Senior co-captain Jillian Kornett.

AARON MURPHY

HEAD COACH • 1ST SEASON • TEMPLE '01

Aaron Murphy, who spent the last four years as the assistant women's gymnastics coach at Temple, was named the program's new head coach on October 24, 2006. The 2001 Temple graduate, named the USA Collegiate Assistant Gymnastics Coach of the Year in 2004, replaces Ken Anderson after 21 years at the helm of the women's gymnastics program.

In his four years as an assistant at Temple, Murphy was responsible for spotting all four events while constructing the strength and conditioning program. Under his guidance, the program celebrated eight USAG All-American honorees and set several new school records.

Prior to his experience with the women's gymnastics program, Murphy spent the 2001-02 season as an assistant with the Temple men's program under head coach Fred Turoff. While responsible for spotting all skill events for safety purposes, he was integral in assisting the men's team to an ECAC Conference Championship and national recognition.

In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Murphy was the Public Gymnastics Clinic Director at Temple from 2001-03. In coaching all ages and skill levels, he utilized his several years of experience in supervising, coordinating and working hands-on with inner-city children participating in gymnastics.

A four-year letterwinner at Temple, Murphy served as a team captain his senior season (2000-01). His career as a performer, and 2001 U.S. Championship participant, is headlined with several honors including the 2001 Bill Braverman Award Recipient for Excellence and the 2001 Most Consistent Gymnast Award.

Murphy, born in Barberton, Ohio, currently resides in Philadelphia.

2007 Temple Women's Gymnastics Team

Year In Review

Despite a 6-19 overall mark, the 2006 Temple women's gymnastic team showed several instances of a bright future at meets such as the George Washington Invitational, a quad-meet at home, a tri-meet at Ursinus, and a dual-meet at West Chester. In addition, juniors Sarah Liebowitz and Noelle Moore received first team USAG All-American honors while sophomore Desiree Meredith was awarded second team recognition, for their performances at the USAG Nationals.

In the season-opening six-team George Washington Invitational, the Cherry and White placed sixth overall, but featured several strong individual performances. Freshman Natasha Crawford's (37.65) third place finish in the all-around highlighted the Owls' afternoon while Moore (9.7) and freshman Winter Sneed (9.65) finished fourth and sixth on the balance beam, respectively.

The Cherry and White responded two weeks later with a second place (183.425) finish in the season's home-opening quad-meet against Bridgeport, Towson and Ursinus. Meredith's 9.425 score on the vault awarded her first place while fellow classmate Alycia Petitto turned in a quality 9.350 in the event. Additionally, Sneed and Moore each placed second in the balance beam and floor exercise with 9.550 and 9.7 scores, respectively.

In response less than one month later, the Owls (184.400) took home first place in a tri-meet against Ursinus and West Chester after top-ranked performances on the balance beam, uneven bars and vault. Meredith and junior Jillian Kornett shared the top honor on the vault each posting a 9.525 score. Moore turned in a second place finish on the balance beam (9.550) to complement her fourth place spot in the floor exercise (9.325). Liebowitz continued her solid all-around season with a first place finish (36.800).

Temple's 186.725 score at West Chester was good for the second-highest team score on the season and enough to take down the Golden Rams. Meredith (9.45) turned in another spectacular vault performance placing first while Moore (9.5) and Liebowitz (37.325) each placed second on the balance beam and in the all-around, respectively. Petitto's score of 9.3 finished third in the vault while Crawford ranked third in the floor exercise (9.4) and all-around (37.025).

Despite a seventh place finish at the ECAC Championships, the Cherry and White, in turning in the meet's top vault score (47.450) behind Petitto's 9.550 tally, qualified for the USAG Nationals competition. Liebowitz's 9.575 on the uneven bars was the top score for the Owls while Kornett's 9.575 floor exercise routine was the Cherry and White's best performance.

Moore's 9.750 score placed her fourth and seventh in the floor exercise and on the balance beam, respectively, at the USAG Nationals. Liebowitz headlined the Owls' all-around performers with a fourth place finish (37.875) while Meredith turned in a 9.650 on the vault.
