TONIGHT'S GAME

Two of the most successful coaches in women's collegiate basketball square-off in Thompson-Boling Arena on the UT campus on Fri., Nov. 24, 2006, as Pat Head Summitt takes her #4-ranked Tennessee Lady Vols (3-0) into battle against #11 Stanford (2-1). Tip-off is set for 7:00 p.m. This contest marks the final game of three consecutive contests for the Lady Vols versus ranked Pac-10 foes.

LADY VOLS AT A GLANCE

This is the Lady Vols' 33rd season under Head Coach Pat Summitt...She has compiled a staggering 916-177 overall record... Collected her 900th coaching win with a 80-68 decision over #19-ranked Vanderbilt on Jan. 19, 2006... She passed Dean Smith (879 wins) for most NCAA collegiate basketball wins of all-time with a 75-54 victory over Purdue on Mar. 22, 2005 ...Her 2005-06 squad advanced to the NCAA Elite...Finished with a 31-5 overall record and were the SEC Tournament Champions...

This season, UT returned six letterwinners, welcomed a senior manager turned player, two junior college transfers and a pair of rookies...The 2006-07 season marks the Lady Vol debut for former senior manager #10 Elizabeth Curry, JC transfers #00 Shannon Bobbitt and #33 Alberta Auguste...True freshman, #2 Cait McMahan, a 5-4 guard from Maryville, Tenn., and #34 Nicci Moats, a 6-2 forward from Daleville, Va., also see their first action in the Orange and White this season.

THE 4-1-1 ON THE CARDINAL

The 11th-ranked Stanford Cardinal are currently 2-1 on the season. SU coach Tara VanDerveer, in her 28th season as a head coach, led her team to a season-opening 88-61 victory over Loyola Marymount in the first round of the preseason Women's National Invitation Tournament. Senior post Brooke Smith scored 26 points and pulled down nine rebounds in the contest. Two-time Pac-10 Player of the Year, Candice Wiggins, had 16 tallies, seven assists and six rebounds. In round two of the tournament, the Cardinal fell to the upset bug as #24-ranked BYU took a 55-52 decision. Smith had 13 points and eight rebounds in the contest, while Wiggins registered a career-low seven points. In its last match-up before traveling to play at Tennessee, Stanford defeated the Missouri Tigers, 75-60, at Maples Pavilion on Nov. 21. In the contest, Kristen Newlin, a 6-5 senior center, carded a double-double with 14 points and 10 rebounds and Wiggins added 21 points. Following the game at Tennessee, Stanford concludes its southern swing in Athens, Ga., facing the #8-ranked Georgia Lady Bulldogs on Nov. 26.

UPCOMING OPPONENT – MIDDLE TENNESSEE

Middle Tennessee (2-2) is in action tonight taking on Chattanooga (3-1) in Murfreesboro. Last weekend, at the Subway Classic at the University of Minnesota, MTSU's Chrissy Givens scored 18 first-half points and helped the Blue Raiders build a 25-point lead early in the second half en route to a 79- 61 victory over host Minnesota in the championship game. Givens, voted the tournament's most valuable player was also named the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week. Givens and MTSU teammate, Starr Orr, were both selected to the Subway Classic All-Tournament team. MTSU defeated Maine, 87-60, in the first game of the Classic. Heading into last weekend, the Blue Raiders were 0-2 after dropping the season opener to defending NCAA Champ and #1 Maryland, 80-76, and to South Dakota State, 72-61, both at home. SUNDAY'S TIP-OFF HAS MOVED TO 4 P.M.

CANDACE PARKER EARNS SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR

Tennessee Lady Vol sophomore basketball standout Candace Parker was named the SEC Player of the Week for her recent performances in wins over #20/21 UCLA (83-60) and #11 Arizona State (83-74). Last season, Parker received the league's Freshman of the Week honor on four occasions, and the Player of the Week award once during her rookie campaign. In two games last week, Parker averaged 23.5 points and eight rebounds along with four steals and a pair of blocks. In the game against Arizona State, the Naperville, Ill., native picked up her 11th career double-double and first of the season with 25 points and 10 rebounds. She shot 10-of-15 from the field against UCLA and stayed perfect from the line (2-of-2) for 22 points, six rebounds, two assists, two steals and a block to earn Philips Player of the Game accolades. The scoring occurrences marked the 35th and 36th double figure games in her 39-game career. The match-ups were also the 10th and 11th game with 20 or more points.

STANFORD SERIES

This marks the 23rd meeting between the two schools dating back to the 1988 season. UT and Stanford have developed a strong high-ranking intersectional rivalry in a series contested at least once annually for the last 18 years. UT has controlled the recent matchups, amazingly having taken the last 10. Stanford has won consecutive meetings over the Lady Vols only once.

AVERAGE SCORE

The average score of a UT-Stanford game is a narrow margin -- 78.1 for UT and 71.2 for Stanford. Tennessee has scored 1720 points in the series while Stanford has totaled exactly 1567 points in 22 games.

LOTS OF WINS

Lady Vol coach Pat Summitt and Stanford coach Tara VanDerveer are a combined 1578-357 for a staggering .816 winning percentage. While Summitt is chasing 1,000 career wins, VanDerveer is 38 wins away from the 700 Club. Since the inception of the NCAA Women's Final Four in 1982, UT and Stanford have made a combined 22 trips and collected 8 NCAA titles. The Lady Vols have made 16 visits and grabbed six titles, while the Cardinal has two titles in six trips.

ANOTHER SUMMITT MARK

With the Lady Vols' win over Stanford in the 2004 NCAA Midwest Regional Championship game, Tennessee's Pat Summitt coached in her 100th NCAA Tournament game in her career. Currently, over the 24-year NCAA Tournament span, Summitt is an outstanding 89-18 (.837) in NCAA battles.

STANFORD NOTEBOOK

The #11-ranked Stanford Cardinal enters Thompson-Boling Arena looking to break a 10-game losing streak to Tennessee. Stanford's last win was on Dec. 15, 1996, when the top-ranked Cardinal took an 82-65 decision from the fifth-ranked Lady Vols in Knoxville. The Pac-10 powerhouse will face three Southeastern Conference opponents this year in Tennessee, No. 8 Georgia (Nov. 26) and South Carolina (Jan. 8). Stanford's schedule includes six opponents ranked in this week's Associated Press top-25. This season, the Pac-10 Coaches picked Stanford, with nine first-place votes, to finish first in the league in the annual pre-season poll. The media poll also picked Stanford followed by Arizona State.

OUR LAST MEETING

Candace Parker earned her second double-double of the week with 21 points and 12 rebounds to lead the #2-ranked Tennessee Lady Vols to a 74-67 victory over #12-ranked Stanford on Dec. 4, 2005, in Palo Alto, Calif. The loss was the first in 24 home games for the Cardinal. Shanna Zolman haunted Stanford once again with 21 points, including seven in the last three and a half minutes. The Lady Vols took a seven point lead into the locker room but Stanford erased the margin in the opening minutes of the second half. The Cardinal never led by more than two points. Tennessee finally pulled away when Alexis Hornbuckle stole the ball with 3:52 remaining in the game and raced down the court for an uncontested lay-up to put the Lady Vols ahead 59-53. Parker stole the ball in the ensuing Cardinal possession and was fouled by Candice Wiggins on her way to the basket. Zolman sank a fourteen foot jumper to give Tennessee an eight point edge with three minutes remaining. A sellout crowd came out to witness the first collegiate showdown between Candace and Candice - Tennessee's Parker and Stanford sophomore sensation Wiggins, the reigning Pac-10 Player of the Year. Wiggins had 16 points, five rebounds, four assists, two steals and two blocks but also committed eight turnovers. The Lady Vols shot just 41 percent from the field, but a 19 of 24 effort from the line kept Tennessee undefeated on the season.

UT HAS "ACE" AND SU HAS "ICE"

Two sweet Cand-ace's/ice's will grace The Summitt -- Tennessee's Candace (Parker) and Stanford's Candice (Wiggins). The two incredibly talented players joined forces prior to their rookie seasons in the summer of 2004 to help lead the USA Junior National Team to a qualifying berth for the U19 World Championships. It was there that their teammates dubbed them "ACE" (Parker) and "ICE" (Wiggins). While Parker had to sit out her original rookie season with a knee injury, Wiggins was named as a Kodak All-American, an Associated Press Second Team All-American, the USBWA Co-Freshman of the Year, the Pac-10 Player of the Year and Pac-10 Freshman of the Year. Parker duplicated those honors in her rookie year.

AP POLL NOTES

This is the 31st year of the Associated Press women's basketball rankings. The first Associated Press poll released of the 2005-06 season marked the 500th all-time poll. Since the poll was started in 1976, UT has failed to appear in just 14 polls through the years. Currently, UT has been ranked in 378 consecutive polls. Since the 1986-87 season, the Lady Vols have been in the top 10 for all but one poll. UT is the only team to have been ranked every year for the last 30 years of the poll. UT has appeared at least once per season over the poll's history.

LAST TIME VS. SU AT HOME

With the game's final seconds ticking away, junior guard Shanna Zolman dribbled down the floor and sank a 28-foot three-pointer as the buzzer sounded, lifting the Tennessee Lady Vols to a 70-67 victory over second-ranked Stanford before a crowd of 13,209 at Thompson-Boling Arena on Dec. 21, 2004. Zolman's game-winning basket came just seconds after Stanford guard Kelley Suminski connected on a three-pointer of her own, evening the score at 67. The win was UT's ninth straight in the all-time series with the Cardinal. Despite having trouble at the offensive end of the floor early in the contest (hit just two of its first 10 shots), Tennessee kept it close before going on a 9-0 run to take a 12-5 lead following an Alexis Hornbuckle jumper with 13:26 remaining the half. The Lady Vols would push the margin to as many as nine points, 18-9, and still led by seven with less than two minutes showing, before Stanford closed out the opening session with a 9-0 spurt to take a 31-29 advantage into the locker room. Following the intermission, SU gradually extended the margin to eight points, forcing UT Head Coach Pat Summitt to call a timeout with 15:15 left. After regrouping, the Orange and White rattled off an 8-0 run to even the score at 42 after a pair of Shyra Ely free throws. With no signs of letting up, the Lady Vols continued to pour it on and pushed the lead to 11 points, 59-48, with less than seven minutes showing. The Cardinal answered the challenge, however, and steadily chipped away at the lead down the stretch. Senior Brittany Jackson had a chance to help seal the win and to put UT ahead by five points when she stepped to the charity stripe with 15 seconds left, but the 82 percent free throw shooter missed both attempts, which set up the last-second heroics. The Lady Vols were led by four players with double-figure point totals: Ely (16), Tye'sha Fluker (13), Hornbuckle and Jackson (11).

HALL OF FAMERS

Tara VanDerveer joined Pat Summitt in the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame as she was inducted in April 2002 in Knoxville, Tenn.

OLYMPIC GOLD

Tara VanDerveer served as head coach of the 1996 United States Olympic Women's Basketball Team that won the gold medal in Atlanta, Ga. She guided the Olympic Team to an unblemished 60-0 record from 1995-96 and owns an all-time international head coaching record of 88-8 (.917), while coaching a pair of Lady Vols (Nikki McCray and Carla McGhee) on the squad. Meanwhile, Pat Summitt boasts an all-time international record of 63-4 (.940) during her time at the helm of the national squad. She served as head coach of the 1984 United States Olympic Women's Basketball Team that won the gold medal in Los Angeles, Calif.

FIFTY IS NIFTY

With the victory over Arizona State, Tennessee has now claimed 51 victories all-time against teams from the Pac-10. Outside of the Southeastern Conference (365 wins), the Lady Vols have recorded 77 wins over teams from the ACC and 66 victories over BIG EAST Conference schools. The Pac-10 ranks as the fourth most defeated conference by Tennessee.

VERSUS THE PAC-10

Tennessee has taken on nine teams from the Pacific 10 all-time and sports a 51-12 record. Only three teams have claimed victories over UT - Southern California (seven times), Stanford (four) and UCLA (once). The Lady Vols have not lost to a team that competes in the Pac-10 since Dec. 15, 1996, when Stanford came away from Knoxville with an 82-65 win over UT. Prior to this season's game with UCLA and Arizona State, Tennessee's last meeting with a Pac-10 opponent came on Dec. 4, 2005, against Stanford in Palo Alto. The Lady Vols pulled out a 74-67 win. In NCAA postseason play, the last meeting with a Pac 10 opponent was also the Cardinal on Mar. 30, 2004, in Norman, OK. The #2/3-ranked Tennessee Lady Vols advanced to their then-record-setting 15th NCAA Final Four with a 62-60 victory over sixth-seeded Stanford in the NCAA Midwest Region final. Tennessee has played nine of the 10 basketball playing schools in the Pac-10. UT has yet to face California.

MTSU TIP-OFF CHANGED

The tip-off time has changed for Tennessee's game versus Middle Tennessee on Nov. 26 in Knoxville. To accommodate television, the tip-off has moved to 4:00 p.m.

FIRST MONTH OF THE SEASON: STATE LOVE & PAC-10 EAST

In the first month of the 2006-07 season, the Lady Vols will face eight foes. Three teams hail from the state of Tennessee as the Lady Vols will face Chattanooga (a 102-72 win), Middle Tennessee (Nov. 26) and Coach Pat Summitt's alma mater, UT-Martin (Dec. 5). UT will seem like a member of the Pac-10, eastern division, as the Lady Vols face three ranked Pac-10 schools in consecutive games: #20/21 UCLA (an 83-60 win), at #11 Arizona State (an 83-74 win) and #11 Stanford (Nov. 24). Trips to long-standing rival Louisiana Tech (Nov. 28) and #2-ranked North Carolina (Dec. 3) round out the first month of the season.

LADY VOL SPOILERS

The Lady Vols have enjoyed the role of spoiler snapping long-standing winning streaks on a number of opponent's home floors over the years. Last Sunday, Tennessee halted Arizona State's 26-game winning streak at Wells Fargo Arena with an 83-74 win. Last season, Stanford had amassed a 23-game winning streak at Maples Pavilion before the Lady Vols grabbed a 74-67 win on Dec. 4, 2005.

FREE THROW WOES

Good thing that the Lady Vols exploded to as much as a 24-point lead against Arizona State. Had Tennessee been forced to rely on relief from the charity stripe down the stretch, it would have been a bad outcome. UT made only 12-21 free throws against the Sun Devils for just 57.1 percent. Candace Parker missed four (7-11), Shannon Bobbitt missed the front end of two 1+1 situations (0-2) and Alex Fuller, uncharacteristically, missed both of her bonus tosses (0-2).

CAN THIS TEAM DEFEND THE 3?

Coach Pat Summitt has not been pleased with the Lady Vols' commitment to defending the three-pointer. On the season, UT's opponents have connected on 6.3 treys per game and connecting on 40.4 percent of their attempts. Chattanooga recorded a school record 31 attempts from three-point land versus the Lady Vols.

UCLA WAS 370TH WIN VS. RANKED

Tennessee's victory over UCLA improved its record 2-0 on the season and gave the Lady Vols their 370th all-time win over a ranked foe. The Big Orange is 370-145 in games against Top-25 ranked opposition. At halftime, Lady Vol coach Pat Summitt challenged her team to get off to a quick start in the second half and hunker down on defense. Challenge answered. Tennessee opened the second half with a 10-0 run and UCLA did not score a field goal until 3:55 into the second stanza. Individually: Alexis Hornbuckle...Extended her streak of games with at least one steal to 38 straight contests; Sidney Spencer...The first of three Lady Vols to reach double-figures -- it was the 29th double-digit game of her career; Candace Parker...Scored in double-figures for the 35th time in her 38-game career -- it was her 11th career contest of 20 or more points. No dunks against the Bruins. However, her repertoire of shots was simply amazing; Nicky Anosike...Surpassed the 500-point plateau for her career -- she now has 503 career points and Alex Fuller...Scored a career-high 10 points.

NEW UNIFORM PATCH

This year, University of Tennessee student-athletes who achieve a 3.0 GPA or better in the classroom have a "VS" patch on their uniform. The "VS" stands for Vol Scholar. Every Lady Vol basketball player (except for the newcomers -- rookies Cait McMahan and Nicci Moats and junior college transfers Alberta Auguste and Shannon Bobbitt) are proudly displaying the patch on their uniform jerseys this season.

THREE 100 POINT GAMES

In the two preseason exhibition tilts and in the first game of the season, the Tennessee Lady Vols registered at least 100 points in all three contests. It marks the first time in program history that a Lady Vol team had tallied triple digits in back-to-back-to-back contests. UT dropped in 102 points against Chattanooga in the season opener and recorded games of 104 points versus Carson-Newman and 101 points against the Houston Jaguars in a pair of exhibition match-ups.

THEY CALL HER "SOMETHING SPECIAL"

In her first handful of games in a Lady Vol uniform, 5'2" junior point guard Shannon Bobbitt has quickly become a crowd favorite. The diminutive Bobbitt is so quick with the ball, she has left defenders shaking their heads more than once. Hailing from Manhattan, N.Y., Bobbitt earned her hoops rep on some of the toughest courts in the city. The guys at the famed hoops mecca, Rucker Park, nicknamed her "something special." After watching some of her moves in the first two games, a more accurate nickname might be "the ankle breaker."

CANDACE JAMS

Lady Vol sophomore All-American Candace Parker gave Lady Vols fans the dunk they had been waiting to see at Thompson-Boling Arena. On Nov. 12, 2006, with UT leading Chattanooga, 75-43, Parker stole the ball from the Lady Mocs' Brooke Hand near the sideline. The 6-4 forward took off for the other end of the court and slammed the rock in with her right hand with 16:02 left in the game as cheers shook the Arena. Parker elected to finger roll a couple of shots last year but never dunked at home. She finally dunked twice as a rookie in the NCAA First Round game versus Army last season. Prior to Parker's dunking exploits, Michelle Snow dunked three times as a Lady Vol. Unfortunately, the dunks occurred on the road at Maui, South Carolina and Vanderbilt. In Snow's final game at Thompson-Boling Arena, she went in to dunk against Notre Dame in the waning seconds of UT's NCAA Second Round victory over the Irish, but she was fouled instead and the dunk never went down. Parker's dunk against Chattanooga ties Snow for the Lady Vol records for "dunks in a career" with three.

FIRST GAME IMPRESSIONS

The 102-72 win over Chattanooga improves Tennessee to 68-3 in 100-point games...Tennessee made its first six shots of the game from the field and its first 11 free throws...In the first half, Lady Vols shot a sizzling 60 percent from beyond the arc, connecting on six of 10 attempts...Every Lady Vols saw playing time in the first half... Chattanooga broke the opponent record for three-pointers in a game with 13...The previous opponent record was 12, by Stanford in Knoxville on Dec. 21, 1992...The Lady Vols reached the century scoring mark when rookie Cait McMahan drove the length of the floor for a lay up with just over five minutes remaining in the game...This was the first 100+ point season-opening game for the Lady Vols since a 112-39 victory over Stetson on Nov. 26, 1989...Shannon Bobbitt was the first of six Lady Vols to reach double-figure scoring...Alex Fuller tied a career high in blocks (2) in the first half and scored a career-high nine points...Cait McMahan's first bucket in a Lady Vol uniform came when she snuck around the defense for her first career lay-up...Alexis Hornbuckle extended her streak of games to 37 with at least one steal and she shattered her own career-best mark with seven steals against UTC...Candace Parker scored in double-figures for the 15th consecutive game dating back to last season and dunked for the first time at home in her 37-game career -- It was the first recorded dunk by a woman in a game in Thompson-Boling Arena history.

EXHIBITIONISTS I TELL YOU

In two 2006-07 preseason exhibition tilts against Carson-Newman and the Houston Jaguars, the Lady Vols averaged 102.5 ppg while giving up 50.0 ppg. UT connected on 49.7 percent from the field and cashed in on 70.2 percent from the line. Tennessee's defense forced 35.5 turnovers per game and came away with 22.0 steals per outing.

SIX IN DOUBLE-FIGS

Another interesting stat from the exhibition contests found six Lady Vols registering double-digits. Leader of the pack was sophomore forward Alex Fuller who tossed in 15.5 ppg while also grabbing a team leading 11.5 rpg. Fuller was followed in the scoring parade by senior Dominique Redding (15.0 ppg), sophomore Candace Parker (15.0 ppg), junior Alexis Hornbuckle (15.0 ppg), junior Nicky Anosike (12.5 ppg) and senior Sidney Spencer (11.5 ppg). Junior College transfers Shannon Bobbitt and Alberta "Bird" Auguste were impressive in their Lady Vol debut. Bobbitt started at point guard and averaged 9.5 ppg, 6.0 apg and 3.5 spg. Auguste averaged 7.5 ppg, grabbed 5.5 rpg and handed out 4.0 apg.

62 INCHES OF DYNAMITE

Lady Vol junior college transfer Shannon Bobbitt is listed at 5'2" and is the shortest player on the roster since Diane Brady donned uniform number 20 for Tennessee during the 1973-75 seasons.

PARKER NAMED TO AP A-A

Lady Vols' Candace Parker was named to yet another preseason All-America team earning the nod from the Associated Press on Nov. 9, 2006. Joining Parker (45 votes) on the team was leading vote getter Courtney Paris of Oklahoma (47 votes out of 50). Also named to the team was North Carolina's Ivory Latta (43), Stanford's Candice Wiggins (35) and Maryland's Crystal Langhorne (28). Parker, the 2006 SEC rookie of the year, is returning for her second season at Tennessee after winning a bronze medal with the U.S. national team at the world championships in Brazil.

WOODEN AWARD NOMINEES

Tennessee Lady Vols Candace Parker and Alexis Hornbuckle were named to the list of 30 preseason candidates for the 2006-07 John R. Wooden Women's Award. Defending national champion and No. 1-ranked Maryland and No. 2-ranked North Carolina placed three athletes each on the list, while Duke, Rutgers and Tennessee each added two players. The 30 candidates are comprised of the top returning players. The award, which is voted on by sports writers and broadcasters, is entering its fourth year.

PARKER UP FOR THE WADE

Lady Vol basketball star Candace Parker has been named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) preseason "Wade Watch" list for The State Farm Wade Trophy Division I Player of the Year for the 2006-2007 season. The list is comprised of 25 student-athletes who are members of an NCAA Division I institution and are selected based on the following criteria: game and season statistics, leadership, character, effect on their team and overall playing ability. The national awards committee who selects these candidates is comprised of leading basketball coaches, journalists and basketball administrators.

In 2006, Parker guided the Lady Vols to a 31-5 record, the SEC Tournament title and an appearance in the NCAA Elite Eight during her rookie season. The Naperville, Ill., native led the team in scoring (17.3 ppg), rebounding (8.3 rpg) and blocks (2.4 bpg) and was named a Kodak/WBCA All-American. Parker became the first female to dunk in an NCAA Tournament game and the only woman to dunk twice in the same contest, when she slammed two home against Army in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament on March 19, 2006. She was a first team All-SEC selection, the SEC Freshman of the Year and the conference tournament MVP after hitting the game-winning shot to lift Tennessee past LSU, 63-62.

THOMPSON-BOLING ARENA

WELCOME TO "THE SUMMITT"

The playing court in the Thompson-Boling Arena on the University of Tennessee campus donned a new look for the 2005-06 season. After Lady Vol coach Pat Summitt passed Dean Smith for most NCAA collegiate basketball wins of all-time with a 75-54 win over Purdue on Mar. 22, 2005, UT named the TBA court, "The Summitt." The floor had a complete overhaul with permanent logos of both the Lady Vols and Vols painted directly in front of the scorer's table; the free throw lanes were painted orange with "SEC" reversed out; the giant jump circle/mid-court TENNESSEE was given a new brighter color scheme, and "The Summitt," Coach Summitt's actual signature adorns the sidelines opposite the team benches.

ON OUR WAY TO 300 WINS

Tennessee recorded its 200th win in Thompson-Boling Arena when the Lady Vols defeated the University of Southern California on Nov. 18, 2001, 106-66. UT has now amassed a 267-16 (.943) record since the Orange and White moved into the Thompson-Boling Arena to start the 1987-88 season 19-years ago. Along the way, the Lady Vols have produced nine flawless home records in 1988-89 (15-0), 1991-92 (14-0), 1992-93 (13-0), 1993-94 (15-0), 1994-95 (15-0), 1997-98 (16-0), 1998-99 (14-0), 2000-01 (15-0) and 2002-03 (16-0). UT also registered an NCAA record 69-game home court-winning streak from Feb. 1, 1991 thru Jan. 2, 1996.

JUST 16 LOSSES

The Tennessee Lady Vols rarely lose at home. In fact, since moving to the Thompson-Boling Arena for the 1987-88 campaign, UT has lost two games in one season just six times. UT lost two games in TBA during the inaugural 1987-88 campaign, 1996-97, 1999-00, 2001-02, 2003-04 and the 2005-06 seasons. The 16 all-time losses at Thompson-Boling Arena have come at the hands of just nine teams: Florida (2006), LSU (2006), Duke (2004), Connecticut (2004, 2002, 2000, 1996), Louisiana Tech (1999, 1989), Georgia (1996, 1991), Texas (2003, 2002, 1987), Stanford (1996) and Auburn (1988).

HOME SWEET HOME -- 400th HOME WIN

The victory over Georgia on Jan. 31, 2005, was the Lady Vols 400th home win since Pat Summitt took over as head coach in 1974. Summitt has won 91.4 percent of all home games in 33 years producing a 420-40 overall record. Home losses (in the Summitt era) include: six in Alumni Gym from 1974-76; 18 in Stokely Athletics Center from 1976-87; and 16 in Thompson-Boling Arena since 1987.

218 OF 231 AT HOME

UT has won 218 of their last 231 games in Thompson-Boling Arena dating back to 2-1-91. UT's 13 losses during this time have been to Florida, LSU, Duke, Louisiana Tech, UConn (four times), Stanford, Texas (three times) and Georgia (OT).

500 GAMES VERSUS RANKED

Tennessee's game versus #13 Georgia on Feb. 16, 2006 was the Lady Vols' 500th all-time versus a ranked team since the inception of the polls in 1976. UT is an amazing 371-145 (.703) versus ranked teams. Last year, Tennessee was 13-3 versus ranked teams.

LADY VOL STREAKS

The last time the Lady Vols lost at home was against Florida, 95-93 OT on Feb. 26, 2006 -- since then, UT has won two games at home. The last time UT lost on the road was on Jan. 26, 2006 at Kentucky, since then, UT has won four road games. The last time the Lady Vols lost on a neutral court was against North Carolina, 75-63, in the NCAA Elite 8 game on Mar. 28, 2006. Since then, UT has not played on a neutral court.

LAST LOSS TO AN UNRANKED TEAM?

Florida became the second unranked team in the 2005-06 season to knock off the Lady Vols, when they won 95-93 OT on Feb. 26, 2006. Exactly one month earlier, unranked Kentucky turned the trick with a 66-63 win over #1/3-ranked Tennessee on Jan. 26, 2006 at Rupp Arena. Previously, it had been four years since an unranked team upset the Lady Vols. So before Florida and Kentucky had their way with UT, when was the last time Tennessee lost to an unranked team? That would have been to LSU on Mar. 2, 2002 at the SEC Tournament in Nashville, Tenn. LSU had been in and out of the Top 25 polls in late January and February. Prior to that, UT's last loss to an unranked team was five years previous (to the day) losing to Auburn on Mar. 2, 1997 at the SEC Tournament.

100 POINT GAMES

Since 1974, the Lady Vols have gone over the century mark 72 times. Last season, UT eclipsed 100 points in two games – Princeton, 107 and #16/18 Texas, 102. The 1987-88 team hit triple digits in seven games to lead the NCAA.

IN OVERTIME

The Lady Vols are 24-13 all-time in overtime games. The most OT games in a year was tied in 2003-04 with four as the Lady Vols went 3-1 in overtime losing to Georgia, 68-66, and defeating Auburn, 68-61, DePaul, 96-89, and Stanford, 70-66. It tied the mark set in 1996-97, when the Lady Vols were 3-1 in overtime contests losing to Georgia, 94-93, and defeating Texas, 68-65, Vanderbilt, 92-79 and LSU, 100-99. UT's 22 points in the OT against Florida (2-3-05), was the most ever scored by the Lady Vols in a single overtime. UT's most recent OT affair was a 95-93 loss to Florida on 2-26-06.

TWO LADY VOLS TO BE INDUCTED

The Women's Basketball Hall of Fame announced its ninth group of inductees, the Class of 2007, on Nov. 12, 2006, and former Lady Vol Olympians and All-Americans Bridgette Gordon and Daedra Charles-Furlow were named as two of the six members to be inducted. Joining Gordon and Charles-Furlow are players Andrea Lloyd Curry (University of Texas) and Pam Kelly Flowers (Louisiana Tech); coach Andy Landers (University of Georgia) and sportswriter Mel Greenberg (Philadelphia Inquirer).

DAEDRA CHARLES-FURLOW – The Tennessee great was a two-time National Champion (1989, 1991), two-time Kodak All-American and became the first player from the Southeastern Conference to win the Wade Trophy in 1991; Olympic bronze medalist in 1992.

BRIDGETTE GORDON – A Tennessee standout helped to lead the Lady Vols to four NCAA Final Four appearances, winning two national championships (1987 and 1989) and earning the Women's Final Four Most Outstanding Player honor in 1989; one of two collegiate members on the gold-medal winning USA Olympic Team in 1988.

Charles-Furlow and Gordon join Coach Pat Summitt (1999), Cindy Noble and Patricia Roberts (2000), Holly Warlick (2001) and Cindy Brogdon (2002) as Tennessee Lady Vol members of the WBHOF. The six individuals in the Class of 2007 will be formally inducted as members of the Hall of Fame during a weekend of induction festivities to be held Friday and Saturday, June 8-9, 2007, in Knoxville, Tenn.

OPENING DAY RECORD

Over the last 33 years on opening day, the Lady Vols have won 30 times and lost just three contests. Coach Pat Summitt lost her very first game as a college head coach -- a heartbreaking one-point decision at home to Mercer, 84-83, on Dec. 7, 1974. The next time UT lost an opening game was in Knoxville on Nov. 21, 1981, to Stephen F. Austin, 80-74. Most recently, UT fell in their first contest of the 1999-2000 campaign dropping a 69-64 decision to Louisiana Tech in Thompson-Boling Arena on Nov. 14, 1999. Until the loss to the Lady Techsters, the Lady Vols had won 18 consecutive season openers.

FIRST ACTION FOR "CAITY-MAC"

Lady Vol rookie point guard Cait McMahan saw her first career action in an Orange and White uniform against Chattanooga. "Caity-Mac" entered the game midway through the first half to thunderous cheers from the Tennessee crowd. In her debut, she tossed in four points, grabbed three rebounds and dished two assists. A 5-4 point guard, McMahan missed the first two exhibition games of the season. The feisty freshman had arthroscopic surgery on her right knee on Oct. 20, 2006 by Dr. Greg Mathien, UT team orthopaedist. She was cleared to return to the practice floor on Nov. 6.

FIVE LADY VOL GAMES TO BE VIDEO STREAMED

The 2006-07 University of Tennessee Lady Vol basketball team already has a record 21 regular season games scheduled for television and five home games have been added for video streaming on utladyvols.com. Tennessee fans will have the opportunity to watch Lady Vol games versus Chattanooga (Sun., Nov. 12), Stanford (Fri., Nov. 24), UT-Martin (Tues., Dec. 5), George Washington (Thurs., Dec. 7) and West Virginia (Wed., Dec. 20) via the internet. Listeners will be able to hear Mickey Dearstone's radio play-by-play while watching the live action from Thompson-Boling Arena. The Yahoo! Sports University of Tennessee School Pass costs $4.95 per month and features: UT football, men's and women's basketball, baseball and "Vol Calls" radio broadcasts as well as the Pat Summitt TV Show, the Phillip Fulmer TV Show and the Bruce Pearl TV Show during the season. An additional option is the College Pass subscription, which includes broadcasts for more than 100+ schools, and costs $9.95 per month.

SEC COACHES MADE PICKS

The Southeastern Conference unveiled its third annual women's basketball preseason All-SEC first and second teams on Oct. 24, 2006. Tennessee led all schools with three selections as sophomore All-American Candace Parker was named to the first team, while Lady Vol juniors Alexis Hornbuckle and Nicky Anosike earned spots on the second team. The preseason All-SEC are voted on by the SEC Head Women's Basketball Coaches.

FOUR TOP PLAYERS INK WITH LADY VOL BASKETBALL

University of Tennessee Lady Volunteer Basketball Coach Pat Summitt confirmed that she had received all final paperwork from signees Vicki Baugh, Angie Bjorklund, Kelley Cain and Sydney Smallbone. .

The NCAA early signing period began on Wed., Nov. 8 and all four players signed that day and faxed their signed letters-of-intent to Tennessee.

"We are very excited to have signed this outstanding class of student-athletes to come to the University of Tennessee," said Summitt. "Individually and collectively, they are regarded as some of the top prospects in the nation. All four players will be an excellent fit and complement the players on our roster. Our coaching staff and team are thrilled that these talented young women will be wearing Tennessee Orange and White next season," said Summitt.

A number of pollsters who rate signing classes have given Tennessee the nod for the nation's best recruiting class. Ironically, all four players took their official visits to Tennessee on the same weekend. Talented shooters Bjorklund, a 6-0 guard from Spokane Valley, Wash. (University H.S.), and Smallbone, a 5-9 guard from Granger, Ind. (St. Joseph's H.S.) had committed as juniors. Baugh, a 6-4 forward from Sacramento, Calif. (Sacramento H.S.), and Cain, a 6-6 center from Atlanta, Ga. (St. Pius X H.S.) were sought-after as key frontline players to bolster the Lady Vol attack.

"As a coaching staff, we talked about the fact that this would be the best recruiting class in the country. Certainly one of the reasons that we felt like we wanted to sign (four) in this class was the quality of the players that were in it," said Summitt. "There were times when I was a little concerned because we only brought six people to campus and obviously we signed four. It just worked out."

The Lady Vols lose three seniors after the 2006-07 season, starting forward Sidney Spencer and reserves Dominique Redding and Elizabeth Curry. The incoming class of four signees will shore up most all of the needs on the coaches' wish list.

"We identified our needs in the class," Summitt said. "We felt like if we could get two guards and two frontline players that we could obviously put together a very successful recruiting endeavor, and we did. Each of these players are great, skilled athletes who are capable of playing multiple positions. I love the versatility in each of their games and their hunger to become the very best," Summitt concluded.

MARRERO, LA. • JOHN EHRET

- Knocked heads with a Sun Devil and received three stitches near her left eye. Connected on all four attempts from the field for nine points. Added five rebounds, two blocks and two steals in 19 minutes against Arizona State.
- Unselfish play against the Bruins gave her five assists in just 20 minutes of action. She added two steals on the defensive end.
- Scored 11 points against Chattanooga in her first regular season game in a Lady Vol uniform. Added two steals and an assist and went a perfect 9-of-9 from the charity stripe, tying the 10th best single-game mark by a Lady Vol.
- In the exhibition game against the Houston Jaguars, Auguste scored nine points, grabbed five rebounds and added two assists in 25 minutes of action.
- Saw a solid 24 minutes of playing time off the bench in the Lady Vols' exhibition game against Carson-Newman on Nov. 1. Scored six points, grabbed six rebounds and offered six assists against the Lady Eagles. Provided solid defense with one block and three steals.
- One of two junior college transfers on this year's roster.
- The only Lady Vol in the history of the program to hail from Louisiana.

2006-07...

- Poured in six points on 3-of-4 shooting from the field against Arizona State. Added two assists and a steal in 22 minutes of action against the Sun Devils.
- Scored a career-high 10 points against 20th-ranked UCLA. Also grabbed six rebounds and connected on both free throw attempts in the contest.
- In the season opener against Chattanooga, she posted then-career-highs in points (9), free throws (6), blocks (2) and minutes played (25).
- For the two exhibition games, Fuller was the only Lady Vol to average a double-double (15.5 ppg, 11.5 rpg). She added a block and seven steals in the two outings, shot 50 percent from the field and 90 percent from the line.
- One of two players to earn a double-double against the Houston Jaguars after producing team-highs in points (20) and rebounds (15). Also added an assist and three steals in just 24 minutes of action.
- One of six players in double figures (11 points) against Carson-Newman. Also led the team in rebounding (8) and was a perfect 4-of-4 from the charity stripe.
- Made great strides in the off-season and will be a strong contender for a starting position.

EXHIBITION GAME: CARSON-NEWMAN

The University of Tennessee Lady Vol basketball team opened the season with a 104-49 exhibition win over Carson-Newman at Thompson-Boling Arena on Wed., Nov. 1. Junior Alexis Hornbuckle was among six Lady Vols in double-digit scoring as she tossed in a team-leading 21 points and added seven assists and five steals, all in 29 minutes of action. Senior Dominique Redding added 20 points on nine of 11 shooting, while Nicky Anosike dropped in 18 and Candace Parker added a dozen. Junior college transfer Shannon Bobbitt and sophomore Alex Fuller added 11 each. All dressed Lady Vols saw playing time and nine different athletes scored. Former manager Elizabeth Curry scored in her first game in a Lady Vol uniform. The Lady Vols forced 36 Lady Eagle turnovers, six shy of the all-time record of 42. The Big Orange were a smoking 43-of-73 from the field, including 4-of-9 from beyond the arc. "I told our team that we did a lot of good things tonight," said Lady Vol head coach Pat Summitt. "Shannon did a great job at the point, pushing the tempo. We established our inside game and that was a priority for us. It was good to see our team be as aggressive defensively as we thought we would be. I liked what I saw, but we can still get better." Tonight's win marked the 16th consecutive victory over an exhibition opponent. Tennessee is now 30-3 in home exhibition tilts. The Lady Vols have crossed the century mark the last three years in exhibition games against Carson-Newman. Tennessee improves to 17-2 all-time against the visitors from Jefferson City, Tenn. Three of those wins have come in exhibition contests.

EXHIBITION GAME: HOUSTON JAGUARS

The fifth-ranked Tennessee Lady Vol basketball team defeated the Houston Jaguars, 101-51, on Nov. 5 in the final home exhibition contest of the year. Four orange-clad players scored in double figures, led by double-doubles from sophomores Candace Parker and Alex Fuller. Parker went 10-of-12 from the charity stripe and finished with 18 points, 10 rebounds and five steals. Fuller led all scorers with 20 points, 15 boards and three steals in just 24 minutes of action. Seniors Sidney Spencer and Dominique Redding finished with 19 and 10 tallies, respectively. The Lady Vols led 45-27 at the break despite shooting just 37.2 percent (compared to Houston's 47.6%) from the field. Tennessee turned things around in the second half by shooting 46.2 percent to outscore the Jaguars, 56-24, over the final 20 minutes of action. Parker's two free-throws started a 26-4 Lady Vol run that stretched over the first eight minutes of the second frame. For the game, the Big Orange held a considerable rebounding margin, grabbing 56 boards to Houston's 31. Tennessee made only 14 turnovers, and picked up 21 steals. Tennessee improves to 42-10 in exhibition tilts all-time, including a 31-3 mark at home. The Lady Vols have reached the century scoring mark in five of the last six exhibition games. Fuller put the Lady Vols over 100 points on a layup with six seconds remaining in the game. In the two exhibition games this week, Tennessee outscored opponents 205-100 and forced a combined 71 turnovers on 44 steals. The Big Orange shot 49.7 percent from the field and held nearly a 13-rebound margin over Carson-Newman and Houston. Fuller averaged a double-double (15.5 ppg, 11.4 rpg), while Redding, Parker, Alexis Hornbuckle, Nicky Anosike and Spencer averaged double-figures.

GAME 1: CHATTANOOGA

Candace Parker recorded the first female dunk in Thompson-Boling Arena history and the fifth-ranked Lady Vols opened the season with a 102-72 win over Chattanooga on Nov. 12. Parker had the third dunk of her career, in the second half after Tennessee was well ahead. The Lady Mocs (1-1) were in the game early, but a long run by Tennessee in the first half put the game out of reach. The Lady Vols were hot offensively, shooting 33-of-57 from the field. Tennessee fans were focusing on the Lady Vols debuting four new players, including junior college transfer Shannon Bobbitt at point guard, when Parker stunned the crowd with the slam. With Tennessee ahead 75-43, the pre-season All-American stole the ball from Chattanooga's Brooke Hand. Parker dribbled to the other end of the court and slammed it in with her right hand. Alexis Hornbuckle led the Lady Vols with 19 points, and Parker added 15. Another juco transfer, Alberta Auguste, added 13, Bobbitt had 12, Dominique Redding 11 and Sidney Spencer 10. Hand scored 20 for Chattanooga, going 6-of-13 from beyond the 3-point line. As a team, the Lady Mocs sank 13 treys, the most ever allowed by a Pat Summitt-coached squad. UTC cut it to 25-19 with 10:55 remaining before halftime. But Parker rebounded her own miss and started a three-point play, and the Lady Vols were off on a 22-2 run. Chattanooga went scoreless for nearly 4 minutes during the run. Bobbitt had a layup that capped the run and put Tennessee ahead 47-21 with 5:25 remaining before halftime. Chattanooga had four turnovers in the first minute of the second half, and Tennessee increased its lead to 65-31. In addition to a career-high tying 19 points, Hornbuckle pocketed a personal-best seven steals and two three-pointers.

GAME 2: UCLA

Candace Parker scored 22 points, Sidney Spencer added 15 and fifth-ranked Tennessee pulled away from No. 20 UCLA in the second half to win 83-60 on Nov. 16. The Lady Vols (2-0) began the second half with a 10-0 run that increased their lead to 52-32 with 16:17 left. Parker scored twice inside during the spurt and UT's momentum during the three and a half minutes forced two UCLA timeouts. The Bruins (1-1), who dropped to 1-15 all-time against Tennessee, shot the ball well most of the game but could not overcome 26 turnovers. Noelle Quinn, who led the Bruins in scoring last year, had 20 points. She scored 13 in the first half and was held without a field goal after halftime until the 5:49 mark. By that time the Lady Vols were already ahead by 27. Alex Fuller added a career-high 10 points for Tennessee. The Bruins had trouble keeping up with Tennessee's fast-paced style. Lindsey Pluimer, who had a career-high 23 points in the team's opener a week before, had 17 points against the Lady Vols, 13 of which came in the first half. Tennessee grabbed the lead early after UCLA had four turnovers in the first 3 1/2 minutes. The Lady Vols pushed their lead to as many as 17 in the opening stanza, but the Bruins kept chipping away. Tennessee freshman Cait McMahan, already a fan favorite because she is from nearby Maryville, hit back-to-back 3s to push the lead to 24 with 12:08 to go. Tennessee held as much as a 29-point lead with 6:33 left in the game. Tennessee coach Pat Summitt started pulling starters early in the second half as ten Lady Vols saw action, nine of whom scored. The teams were playing for the first time since 1999. UCLA's lone win in the series was in 1981. With the win, UT improved to 370-145 in games involving ranked teams.

GAME 3: ARIZONA STATE

No. 5 Tennessee used its pressure defense to spark a couple of key runs to snap Arizona States 26-game home win streak on Nov. 19. Candace Parker scored 25 points and grabbed 10 rebounds to lead the Lady Volunteers past the 11th-ranked Sun Devils 83-74. Emily Westerberg had 21 points and six rebounds to lead the Sun Devils (4-1) but picked up her fourth foul with 12:58 left in the middle of a UT run. With Westerberg out Tennessee ran off 10 straight points to take a 77-53 lead with 8:29 left. Sidney Spencer added 18 points and surpassed the 700-point and 100-assist plateaus for her career. Junior Alexis Hornbuckle chipped in 13 tallies for Tennessee, and added five assists and four steals to lead her team past its second straight ranked Pac-10 opponent this week. The only thing that troubled Tennessee on Sunday was fouls. Five Lady Vols finished with three or more fouls. Reagan Pariseau was 4-of-5 from the field and scored 15 points for the Sun Devils. Briann January added 14 points and six assists for Arizona State, which had won its first four games by an average of 31.5 points. Tennessee shot 34-of-62 from the field and outrebounded the Sun Devils 36-29. The double-double was Parker's first of the season, the 11th of her career. The sophomore sensation had 18 points and seven rebounds in the first half as the Big Orange headed into the lockerroom with a 42-38 lead. Nicky Anosike donated a career-high eight assists and sank both of her free throws. Alberta Auguste connected on all four shots from the field and offered two blocks and two steals before taking a blow to the head which we required stitches on the sideline. With the win, UT improved to 361-145 all-time in games involving ranked opponents and head coach Pat Summitt picked up career win No. 916.
