TONIGHT'S GAME

The #2-ranked Tennessee Lady Vols (25-2, 12-0 SEC) will be looking for their 13th consecutive SEC victory of the season traveling to meet an unpredictable Arkansas squad (18-10, 3-9 SEC) on Senior Night in Fayetteville, Ark. The Lady Razorbacks will salute seniors: Dominique Washington, Danielle Allen, Leslie Howard and Sarah Pfeifer.

LADY VOLS AT A GLANCE

This is the Lady Vols' 33rd season under Head Coach Pat Summitt...She has compiled a staggering 938-179 overall record... Is just 62 wins away from a remarkable 1,000 career victories...Collected her 900th coaching win with a 80-68 decision over #19-ranked Vanderbilt on Jan. 19, 2006... She passed Dean Smith (879 wins) for most NCAA collegiate basketball wins of all-time with a 75-54 victory over Purdue on Mar. 22, 2005 ...Her 2005-06 squad advanced to the NCAA Elite 8...Finished with a 31-5 overall record and were the SEC Tournament Champions...

This season, UT returned six letterwinners, welcomed a senior manager turned player, two junior college transfers and a pair of rookies...The 2006-07 season marked the Lady Vol debut for former senior manager Elizabeth Curry, JC transfers Shannon Bobbitt and Alberta Auguste...True freshman are Cait McMahan and Nicci Moats.

2007 SEC CHAMPS

Tennessee's win over LSU on Feb. 19 clinched the 2007 SEC Championship for the Lady Vols. It marks the 14th time that the Lady Vols have won the SEC regular season title and the first time since 2004.

THE 4-1-1 ON THE LADY RAZORBACKS

In the University of Arkansas' last outing before entertaining Tennessee, the Lady Razorbacks' had a tough time at the University of Kentucky and dropped an 87-60 decision on Feb. 18 in Lexington. It marked the first-ever meeting of the two teams at Rupp Arena. The loss dropped Arkansas to 18-10 overall and 3-9 in Southeastern Conference games. UA will be seeded somewhere in the 8-9-10 slots depending on the outcome of final SEC games versus Tennessee and at Georgia. Against the Cats, freshman Donica Cosby led the Lady'Backs with 13 points. Junior Lauren Ervin was the only other Arkansas player in double digits with 11 points and nine rebounds. Trailing by 12 at halftime, Arkansas used a quick four-point outburst at the start of the second half. The Lady'Backs got within six, 49-43, with 16 minutes left. Shooting less than 30% for the second half, Arkansas' defensive effort forcing turnovers could not make up for a red-hot Kentucky. UK shot over 60% for the game, while the Lady'Backs hit only 27.4%.

OUR SCHEDULE THIS WEEK

This week, the Lady Vols traveled to #7 LSU for an ESPN2 match-up on Feb. 19 (a 56-51 win)...head to Arkansas on Feb. 22...and finish the regular season at home versus #12 Vanderbilt on Feb. 25.

LADY VOLS ON TV

A record 21 Lady Vol regular season games are slated for national/regional television this season. Five non-televvised games will be available as streaming video with voice-over from Mickey Dearstone on utladyvols.com. UT is 18-2 on TV this season.

ON THIS DAY

UT is 11-3 in games played on Feb. 22. The Lady Vols are 7-2 at home, 4-1 on the road and 0-0 on neutral courts. The last time out on Feb. 22, the Lady Vols registered an 85-69 victory at Ole Miss in 2004.

LOOKING BACK

Last year at this time, the Lady Vols were 24-3 and had just defeated Alabama, 82-65.

WOW, JUST TWO TO GO

It's hard to believe that there are just two games to go in the regular season. UT's stretch run to the SEC Tournament includes a dangerous slate. Tennessee travels to Arkansas (Feb. 22) and returns home for "Senior Day" versus #12 Vanderbilt (Feb. 25). Tennessee has a 12-0 record in SEC play and has clinched the SEC title. The Lady Vols will be the number one seed at the 2007 SEC Tournament will be held Mar. 1-4 in Duluth, Ga.

UA SERIES TIDBITS

Tennessee leads the all-time series with Arkansas 17-1, dating back to the 1991-92 season, the LadyBacks' first in the SEC. Arkansas' lone series win came at home on Dec. 29, 1996, a 77-75 victory over the Chamique Holdsclaw-led Lady Vols. Since then, UT has won 12 straight over Arkansas.

AVERAGE SCORE

The average score of a Tennessee vs. Arkansas game is UT 83.9 (1,511) and UA 62.2 (1,120). The Lady Vols average margin of victory is +21.7 points..

CAREER STATS VS. ARKANSAS

In all-time action versus Arkansas, sophomore Candace Parker put up impressive numbers in her first meeting with the 'Backs last season. Parker scored 18 points and grabbed eight rebounds while shooting 70% from the field. Junior Nicky Anosike averages 7.3 ppg and 5.0 rpg while fellow junior Alexis Hornbuckle adds 5.3 ppg and rips 7.0 rpg. This will mark the sixth meeting against Arkansas for Lady Vol seniors Sidney Spencer and Dominique Redding. Returning Lady Vol career statistics versus Arkansas can be found on p. 63 in the 2006-07 Tennessee media guide.

THE ARKANSAS COACH

Fourth year Arkansas head coach Susie Gardner is a native of the Volunteer State as she was born in Mt. Juliet, Tenn. Gardner is no stranger to the SEC or Thompson-Boling Arena. She played for Georgia from 1982-86 before serving as a graduate assistant for UGA from 1986-88. As head coach at Austin Peay in Clarksville, Tenn., Gardner led the Lady Gobs to three-straight Ohio Valley Conference titles as well as a 16-0 regular season resume in 2003. She coached her first game as a Division I head coach on Nov. 15, 1996 against the Lady Vols losing 80-59 in TBA. When her APSU team played in the 2001 NCAA Tournament, they faced the Lady Vols in opening round action in Knoxville and fell, 80-38.

ARKANSAS NOTEBOOK

Arkansas (18-10, 3-9 SEC) opened the season with a hot 15-1 record and tore through the opposition. The Lady'Backs' only blemish entering SEC play was a 94-69 loss to (then) #2-ranked North Carolina. Since the fast start, Arkansas has gone 3-9 since January with wins over Auburn, Alabama and Florida.

OUR LAST MEETING

The #5-ranked Tennessee Lady Vols put it together down the stretch against Arkansas, 77-37, in Thompson-Boling Arena on Feb. 5, 2006. UT senior Shanna Zolman scored 21 points and the Lady Vols scored 33 of the last 36 points in a 77-37 win over the Lady Razorbacks. Tennessee (21-2, 7-1 Southeastern Conference) looked lethargic on offense for most of the game, but that changed in the second half. The Lady Razorbacks cut it to 44-34 on Rochelle Vaughn's jumper with 11:12 left when Tennessee's offense and defense finally took over. Rookie post Candace Parker added 18 for Tennessee and junior Alexis Hornbuckle had 10 points, six assists and eight rebounds. Hornbuckle scored twice and Zolman hit a trey to start the run. Parker scored nine straight points during the spurt. Arkansas (13-9, 5-4), held to a season low in points, lost its third in a row in SEC play and 12th straight to Tennessee. The Lady Razorbacks have never won in Knoxville and the win over UA was UT's 64th consecutive over an SEC foe at home. Arkansas appeared to have trouble overcoming Tennessee's size advantage as the Lady Vols outrebounded Arkansas 45-28. The Lady Razorbacks shot 26 percent (14-of-53) from the floor. Melissa Hobbs scored 12 points for Arkansas. Tennessee had a strong first half. The Lady Razorbacks cut it to 19-15 on Leslie Howard's 3 with 6:02 left, but the Lady Vols had a quick 7-0 run to push the lead to 11. Howard hit another 3 to trim it to 28-21 with 2:50 left, and Tennessee answered by scoring the last five points of the half, taking a 33-21 lead into the locker room. Howard accounted for nearly half of the Lady Razorbacks' offense by hitting three wide open 3-pointers before halftime. But she was scoreless in the second half.

FACING THE RANKED

Tennessee faced their 12th ranked opponent of the 2006-07 season in the win over #7-ranked LSU on Feb. 19. UT is 10-2 in games versus ranked teams out of 27 total contests. Meanwhile Arkansas will be taking on their sixth ranked opponent in 29 games when they face #2 Tennessee. Arkansas is 0-5 vs. ranked teams: Arkansas lost to (then) #2 North Carolina (94-69), #11 Vanderbilt (98-61), #8 LSU (70-53), #15 Vanderbilt (61-34) and #7 LSU (86-65). At number two, Tennessee and UNC will be the highest ranked teams the Lady'Backs have played this season.

FACING THE UNRANKED

When taking on an unranked opponent such as Arkansas, the odds have typically tipped in Tennessee's favor. In her 33 years at the helm of the Lady Vols, UT head coach Pat Summitt has fashioned a 559-32 (.947) record when going up against unranked teams.

SEC TWOSIES

The SEC plays a 14-game regular season schedule with each team playing everyone in the league once, a natural rival twice and designated rotating teams from the SEC East and West once extra time. The Lady Vols face Vanderbilt twice each season as its natural rival and this year once again face Georgia and Alabama twice. Last season, Tennessee went 6-0 in these games during the regular season. This season, UT is 5-0 with a game still to be played versus Vanderbilt.

THE SEC REGULAR SEASON STORY

UT's last SEC win at home: Ole Miss, 81-69, 2-15-07

UT's last SEC win away: LSU, 56-51, 2-19-07

UT's last SEC loss at home: Florida, 95-93 OT, 2-26-06

UT's last SEC loss away: Kentucky, 66-63, 1-26-06

AGAINST THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Tennessee owns a 377-57 record all-time record vs. 12 teams from the Southeastern Conference. The Lady Vols maintain a winning record against every team in the SEC.

UT IS AMAZING AT HOME VERSUS THE SEC

Since Tennessee began contesting games with Southeastern Conference opponents, the Lady Vols have produced a 156-11 record in all games played at home. Only six SEC teams have ever managed a victory over the Lady Vols in Knoxville – Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU and Ole Miss. Georgia has won three games on UT's turf while Auburn, Kentucky and Ole Miss have registered two wins each and LSU and Florida one win. Georgia was the only team to defeat UT at home in the 1990s – the Lady Bulldogs turned the trick in 1991 and 1996. LSU and Florida are the only SEC teams to defeat UT at home in the 21st century.

WOW--14 SEASONS OF AT LEAST 10 SEC VICTORIES

In the win over Kentucky on Feb. 11, 2007, Tennessee claimed its 10th SEC victory of the 2006-07 season. The Lady Vols have now registered double-digit victories in conference play an incredible 14 times. Since the 1991-92 season when SEC play expanded, the Lady Vols have won at least 10 games in the following years: 1992-10 wins, 1993-11 wins, 1994-11 wins, 1995-11 wins, 1998-14 wins, 1999-13 wins, 2000-13 wins, 2001- 14 wins, 2002- 13 wins, 2003- 14 wins, 2004-14 wins, 2005- 13 wins, 2006-11 wins and 2007- 12 wins (2 to go).

SPOILED, I TELL YOU

Prior to last season, it had been nine years since the Lady Vols dropped three SEC league games during a season. In the 1996-97 HBO documentary campaign of "The Cinderella Season: The Lady Vols Fight Back," Tennessee went 8-4 in the SEC. All-time in 25 years of league play, Tennessee has lost two or more SEC games just seven times. Conversely, the Lady Vols have tallied seven perfect league campaigns in SEC play.

SEC LEAGUE PLAY

UT owns a league best record of 251-33 against all SEC teams dating back to the 1982-83 season.

THIS IS AMAZING

From 1980-1997, the Lady Vols claimed a total of six SEC regular season titles in 17 years. From 1998-2004, Tennessee captured seven consecutive SEC regular season crowns producing an amazing 109-4 record. UT's only league losses were to Vandy, Georgia and LSU (twice) during this stretch.

AP POLL NOTES

This is the 31st year of the Associated Press women's basketball rankings. The first Associated Press poll released of the 2005-06 season marked the 500th all-time poll. Since the poll was started in 1976, UT has failed to appear in just 14 of the total of 533 polls through the years. Currently, UT has been ranked in 392 consecutive polls. Since the 1986-87 season, the Lady Vols have been in the top 10 for all but one poll. UT is the only team to have been ranked every year for the last 31 years of the poll. UT has appeared at least once per season over the poll's history.

LAST TIME IN FAYETTEVILLE

Senior Shyra Ely scored a season-high 30 points as the sixth-ranked Tennessee Lady Vols defeated Arkansas, 84-71, at the Bud Walton Arena on Feb. 20, 2005. The victory was UT's second against the Lady Razorbacks in the 2004-05 season, as it prevailed 72-54 in Knoxville on Jan. 13. Early in the contest, the Big Orange's tough defense enabled it to take a 10-3 advantage, as it held Arkansas to just one field goal for nearly the first eight minutes of play. Pat Summitt's squad then rattled off an 11-2 run, capped by a three-pointer by Brittany Jackson, to extend the margin to 16 points with 10:22 to play in the opening frame. While Arkansas cut the difference to 13 points with just less than five minutes showing, the Lady Vols responded with a 9-2 run to take its biggest lead of the game, 39-19. At the break, Tennessee held a comfortable 39-22 lead, thanks in part to its defense that held the opposition to just 21.4 percent shooting. Following the intermission, UA scored the second half's first four points, but UT answered with a 9-2 spurt to push the margin back to 20 points, 48-28. With the Orange and White still ahead by 20 points, 61-41, with 10:32 remaining, the Lady 'Backs rattled off a 14-2 run during a three-minute span to cut the margin to just eight, forcing Tennessee to take a timeout. However, the Lady Vols answered with another 9-2 run to go ahead by 15 points, 72-57, and would let Arkansas get no closer than 11 points the rest of the way. Individually, the Lady Vols were paced by Ely's 30 points, which marked the 75th time in the program's history that a UT player has scored at least 30 points in a single game. As a team, Tennessee shot a season-best 54.5 percent from the field but committed a season-high 28 turnovers. Interestingly, UT committed a season-low nine turnovers in its previous contest, a 74-44 victory against South Carolina.

UPCOMING OPPONENT – VANDERBILT

Vanderbilt wraps up regular season play this week taking on #7-ranked LSU on Feb. 22 and then traveling to Knoxville to play #2-ranked Tennessee on Feb. 25. In their last outing, Commodore guard Caroline Williams hit six three-pointers and scored a career-high 26 points to lead #12-ranked Vanderbilt to an 83-65 victory over South Carolina on Feb. 18 in Nashville. The Commodores (23-4, 9-3 Southeastern Conference) have won six straight. They have not trailed or been tied since a Feb. 1 game at Kentucky. Williams had a career day for Vanderbilt, scoring 26 points on 8-of-10 shooting (80 percent) after hitting 6-of-8 shots from beyond the arc. Melanie Johnson led the Gamecocks with 14 points and nine rebounds. Vanderbilt, No. 2 nationally in field-goal percentage (50.3) and No. 1 in three-point percentage (43.0), shot well against Carolina, hitting 61 percent of their shots from the field and shooting 53 percent from beyond the arc (8-of-15). The Commodores also hit 19-of-20 free throws in the game. South Carolina was 23-of-66 (35 percent) from the field and outrebounded the Commodores 35-30 with most of the rebounds (24) coming from offensive boards. Vanderbilt, riding a six-game winning streak, got off to a hot start with a 13-2 run to begin the game. The lead swelled to as many as 30 points early in the second half before Carolina rallied with 8-2 and 10-2 runs to cut the deficit to 76-55 with 5:29 remaining. However the Gamecocks emergence began with too little time left on the clock as Vanderbilt claimed the 83-65 victory.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP CLINCHED VS. LSU

Tennessee's 56-51 victory over LSU on Feb. 19, clinched the regular season SEC championship for the Lady Vols for the 14th time under head coach Pat Summitt. The win also gives UT 25 wins in a season for the 26th time under Summitt and the 20th season in a row. It marks the eighth time the Lady Vols have recorded at least 12 SEC wins. Tennessee's President's Day victory over the Lady Tigers snaps a two-year regular season losing streak to LSU. In the game, notably, the first five fouls committed by LSU were holds on UT's Candace Parker. Six of the team's seven first-half LSU fouls were on Parker. The first three LSU fouls of the second half were holds on Parker. For the game, 11 of 15 Tiger fouls were on Tennessee's All-American. With five minutes left in the first half, Parker had more points than the entire LSU team (17). Parker had 20 at halftime and the Tigers had 22. While Parker was 11 of 20 from the field for the Lady Vols, the remaining UT starting five was a combined seven of 38. Tennessee's 26 second-half points were the fewest of the season. Tennessee's 31.3 percent shooting was the lowest of the season. Individually, Alexis Hornbuckle...Extended her streak of games with a steal to 63. She now has at least one steal in 84 of 91 career games. Surpassed her personal-best for season steals. In 2005-06 she had 91 thefts, this season she has (93). Candace Parker...Scored in double figures for the 25th time this season and the 58th time in her career. Scored 20+ points for the 13th time this season and the 24th time in her career. Earned a double-double for the 15th time this season and the 25th time in her career. She had 20 points and 10 rebounds by halftime. Parker moved into 24th place on the all-time UT scoring list (1,150 points). She grabbed a season-high 13 rebounds; Shannon Bobbitt...Moved into 17th place in the UT record books for career three-pointers (48). Made two free throws with 11.8 seconds left to give UT a three-point advantage. Dominique Redding...Scored eight key points for the Lady Vols and was named the Lady Vol player of the game.

WARLICK SELECTED AS SEC GREAT FOR 2007

Featuring former outstanding student-athletes and administrators from all 12 Southeastern Conference member institutions, the 2007 class of the SEC Greats program will be honored at the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament March 1-4 at The Arena at Gwinnett Center in Duluth, Ga. The 2007 class includes Tennessee Lady Vol Associate Head Basketball coach Holly Warlick, Shelly Pyles Cunningham (Basketball), Alabama; Kimberly Wilson Jenkins (Basketball), Arkansas; Laurretta Freeman-Horn (Basketball), Auburn; Ann Marie Rogers (Assoc. Athletics Director), Florida; Bernadette Locke Mattox (Basketball), Georgia; Lea Wise Prewitt (Basketball), Kentucky; Marie Ferdinand Harris (Basketball), LSU; Alisa Scott (Basketball), Ole Miss; Laura Springer (Basketball), Mississippi State; Lisa Misipeka (Track & Field), South Carolina and Ryan Tolbert Jackson (Track & Field), Vanderbilt. Each Great will be introduced during half-time of their teams first game of the tournament, all 12 individuals will also be introduced as a group between games of the second session on Friday, March 2. This marks the seventh year of the Greats program. The previous Tennessee honorees were: 2001- Bridgette Gordon, 2002-Daedra Charles, 2003-Michelle Marciniak, 2004-Jill Rankin Schneider, 2005-Tamika Catchings and 2006-Kara Lawson.

FROM THE TRAINING ROOM

UT'S CIRCUS ACT GOING TO HOG HEAVEN

The Tennessee Lady Vols continues to have the "circus coming to town" effect on away attendance. Remarkably, 15 or 16 away games have produced some kind of attendance mark. Tennessee's appearance produced the largest attendance mark of the season (all venues) for Arizona State, Louisiana Tech, Old Dominion, Connecticut; the largest mark at home for North Carolina (tie), Texas, Florida, Vanderbilt, Auburn, and the largest home and away crowds for both Alabama and Georgia. The crowd at the LSU-UT game was the second largest of the season in Baton Rouge...about 800 more people attended the Ohio State game in December.

SCORING FIELD DAY FOR SEC FOES

In UT's first eight SEC games of the season, no Lady Vol opponent had scored more than 58 points on Tennessee. Actually, Florida managed 58 points against Tennessee in the second conference game of the season on Jan. 11. In the initial eight games SEC foes scored 36 points (Alabama1 and South Carolina), 41 points (Georgia1), 44 points (Mississippi St.), 51 points (Alabama2), 57 points (Vanderbilt1 and Georgia2) and 58 by Florida. In games one-eight, UT averaged 71.1 ppg while giving up just 47.5 ppg in SEC games (+23.6 winning margin). In games 9-10-11, SEC opponents averaged 64.3 ppg. Auburn started the floodgate on Feb. 8 scoring 62 points, Kentucky followed in the next game with 62 points and Ole Miss tallied 69 points to become the SEC leader in the clubhouse against UT. The Lady Vols defense stopped the SEC scoring fest at LSU holding the Lady Tigers to just 51 points.

ONLY FOUR IN THE 70'S

Only four teams have managed to score 70 points (or more) against Tennessee this season. Arizona State and Duke both scored a season high 74 points against the Lady Vols. Chattanooga scored 72 points and North Carolina tallied 70 against Tennessee.

FYI ON PARKER

Just to clear things up... Redshirt sophomore All-American Candace Parker is on track to graduate with honors from Tennessee in December 2007 during her junior season. Since Parker sat out her original rookie year, she could choose to play for Tennessee in the 2008-09 season while working on her masters or she has the option of playing in the WNBA since her original class would have graduated.

LEX HAS NATION'S BEST STREAK

Lady Vol junior guard Alexis Hornbuckle has a streak of 63 consecutive games with at least one steal. A leading candidate for Defensive Player of the Year, Hornbuckle averages 3.3 steals per game. She started the 2006-07 season with a career high seven steals against Chattanooga. Hornbuckle has 92 steals on the season to date and has already surpassed her 2005-06 total of 91 thefts.

WENT OVER 200,000 AT HOME

Tennessee broke the 200,000 home attendance mark for the 10th time in the game against Ole Miss on Feb.15. A nation leading 210,594 have clicked thru the turnstiles in 15 home games. The Lady Vols home attendance eclipsed 180K against Georgia with 13,475 in the stands. This already marks the Lady Vols' 11th consecutive season going over 150,000 at home.

VANDY TIX GOING FAST

Tennessee's final home game of the 2006-07 season against Vanderbilt on Feb. 25, may become a sell-out. To date, over 21,000 tickets have been sold for "Senior Day." Gates for the 1:00 p.m. tip-off will open 30 minutes earlier at 11:30 a.m.

SURPRISE! UT IS #1 IN SOS/RPI

I know it is a huge surprise but the Tennessee Lady Vols hold a large percentile advantage in both the Ratings Percentage Index and the Strength of Schedule through 27 games. Also listed are UT's opponents this season.

PARKER'S A FOUL MAGNET

Lady Vol sophomore All-American Candace Parker has been a foul magnet in 2006-07. With all of the double and triple-teaming she has seen this season, almost one-third of the opponent's 492 total fouls have been inflicted on her. In 26 games this season, Parker has drawn 160 fouls. In the game against LSU on Feb. 19, 11 fouls were called on Lady Tigers trying to stop Parker. In the first game versus Vanderbilt, she was fouled a dozen times by the Commodores (out of 22 total team fouls). Previously against Notre Dame, she was fouled 10 times by the Irish, eclipsing nine fouls whistled against players from Arizona State, Stanford and North Carolina. To date, Parker has visited the charity stripe 166 times this season – about six times a game. Against UConn, seven of the Huskies total of 13 fouls came while trying to stop Parker.

KEEP THE SEC MAGIC GOING

In 12 SEC games this season, the Tennessee Lady Vols have forced their conference foes into 25.1 turnovers per outing. It has resulted in a total of 300 points scored off of turnovers for the Lady Vols against SEC teams – or an average of 25.0 ppg. So for every turnover an SEC team has committed against UT, the Lady Vols have scored a point.

UNDEFEATED SEC SEASONS

All-time, Tennessee has turned in seven undefeated league seasons in SEC play. The 2003-04 team was the last to run the SEC table with a 14-0 record.

GOTTA BRING UP THE BOARDS...

...Or, lack thereof. The Lady Vols have been outrebounded in 11 games this season. When Kentucky pulled off the +16 rebounding advantage (40-24) on Feb. 11, 2007, it was a season worst for UT. Granted, Tennessee shot 53.2 percent for the game but it was a huge disparity as the Wildcats grabbed 16 offensive and 24 defensive caroms. Until that game, the Lady Vols had been on a four-game streak of outrebounding the opposition. Only two other teams produced a double-digit differential on the boards this season against UT—North Carolina and UT-Chattanooga (+10). The Lady Vols shot 36% against UNC and 58% against UTC.

TENNESSEE ALLOWING JUST 52.1 PPG IN SEC GAMES

The Tennessee Lady Vols have fashioned some pretty serious stats in SEC play this season. Defensively, the Lady Vols have been stingy...very stingy. Incredibly, when Auburn and Kentucky scored 62 points and Ole Miss 69 points against Tennessee in the Lady Vols' three most recent games, it marked the most points UT has allowed by an SEC opponent this season. Currently, Tennessee is holding SEC opponents to just 52.1 ppg while scoring 73.3 or a +21.2 differential.

1987 NCAA CHAMPS HONORED ON 20TH ANNIVERSARY

The Tennessee Lady Vols welcomed back the basketball alums Feb. 10-11 with a weekend of activities. A total of 57 former players and more than 150 family members were in attendance for Tennessee game versus Kentucky. On Sun., Feb. 11, the Lady Vols celebrated the 20th anniversary of the first NCAA Championship team – the 1987 squad. All 14 members of the team were in attendance and were honored in pre-game ceremonies of the UT-Kentucky game. They were dubbed "The Corn-Fed Chicks" by Long Beach State All-American Cindy Brown after the Lady Vols handled her team in the NCAA Final Four semis, 74-64. The Chicks, er Lady Vols, went on to defeat Louisiana Tech, 67-44, in the NCAA title game in Austin, Texas. Coach Pat Summitt won her first national title in her eighth trip to the Final Four and in her 13th season of coaching. Remarkably, the 1987 team led Summitt to her 300th coaching victory.

LADY VOLS EARN ACADEMIC KUDOS

The College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) announced on Feb. 8, 2007, that Lady Vols Candace Parker, Sidney Spencer and Nicky Anosike had been named to the CoSIDA District IV All-Academic Teams. Parker and Anosike were named to the first team, while Spencer picked up second team honors. Spencer and Anosike earned the award for the second straight year, while this was Parker's first opportunity. Parker earned a 3.65 GPA during the fall semester and boasts a 3.29 cumulative average. The 2006 Kodak All-American and sport management major leads the SEC in scoring and blocks. On Jan. 28 she became the fastest Lady Vol in program history to amass 1,000 career points. Spencer posted a perfect 4.0 in the fall and owns a 3.75 cumulative GPA. She is pursuing a degree in sport management and makes time to volunteer in the Knoxville community on a weekly basis. She ranks fourth in the NCAA in three-point shooting percentage. Anosike is on pace to graduate in four years with a triple major in sociology and criminal justice, political science, and legal studies. She has a 3.76 cumulative GPA at UT, including a 4.0 mark during the 2006 fall term. She ranks second on this year's squad in rebounding and blocks and is a two-time member of the All-SEC Academic Team. The Academic All-America team will be announced on Feb. 27 and is selected from the All-District first teams in each of the eight districts.

PARKER ECLIPSED 500 BOARDS

Less than two weeks after scoring her 1,000th career point, sophomore All-American Candace Parker eclipsed the 500 rebound plateau versus Auburn. Grabbing 11 boards against the Tigers.

DOUBLED-UP ALABAMA AND GEORGIA IN SEC PLAY

The Lady Vols have picked up two wins over Alabama and Georgia this season. Tennessee has already picked up one win over Vanderbilt and will face the Commodores again on Feb. 25.

WHEATIES HONORS LADY VOLS

Wheaties® unveiled its newest Breakfast of Champions® box on Feb. 1, 2007, at halftime of the Tennessee-South Carolina game. The special-edition, 18-ounce Wheaties package, features the UT women's basketball program and coach Pat Summitt. The Tennessee package features an image of Thompson-Boling Arena, "The Summitt," a prominent school logo and Coach Summitt on the front of the package. The back of the package showcases an image of Summitt as well as the school mascot. "It is a great honor to be the first women's collegiate basketball coach to be featured on the front of a Wheaties box," said Summitt. "This makes a tremendous statement, not only for me, the Lady Vols and the University of Tennessee, but for women's basketball in general."

"The Tennessee women's basketball team has left a distinctive mark in the world of college basketball by showcasing unparalleled performance, a competitive drive, a sense of pride, and dedication over the years," said Dan Stangler, Wheaties brand manager. Launched in 1924, Wheaties is the No. 1 whole-grain wheat flaked breakfast cereal in the country.

PARKER -- FASTEST TO 1,000

In Tennessee's game versus Alabama on Jan. 28, 2007, Lady Vol sophomore All-American Candace Parker scored her 1,000th career point during the 56th game of her career, making her the fastest Lady Vol in history to amass 1,000 points. Former Lady Vol All-Americans Chamique Holdsclaw did it in 57 games and Tamika Catchings in 58 games. Parker is the 30th 1,000-point scorer at Tennessee.

STILL...WORST REBOUNDERS

UT Coach Pat Summitt's teams have always been noted for tough defense and board play. Kudos to the 2006-07 team for tough defensive play thus far – holding the opposition to 56.0 ppg. However, the current squad needs to hang their collective heads in shame for being the worst rebounding team in Lady Vol history. Currently at 37.6 rebounds per game, this team has dipped below the 2005-06 squad who earned the "worst" moniker last season managing just 39.4 rpg in 36 games – breaking a 28-year old record (1977-78 squad who managed just 39.7 rpg in 31 contests).

UT IS 'DUNK U'

Tennessee Lady Vol sophomore Candace Parker leads a group of five women who have dunked in a collegiate women's basketball game. Parker, with six career dunks, ranks ahead of former Lady Vol Michelle Snow (1998-2002) who recorded three dunks during her career at Tennessee.

NO MUSICAL CHAIRS THIS SEASON

Tennessee Lady Vol coach Pat Summitt has utilized just three line-ups this season. She probably would have stayed with just one line-up (Candace Parker, Sidney Spencer, Nicky Anosike, Alexis Hornbuckle and Shannon Bobbitt) if junior college transfer Bobbitt hadn't missed the game at Louisiana Tech on Nov. 28 to take a test and Parker hadn't fallen ill prior to the Mississippi State game on Jan. 18. Rookie Cait McMahan started in place of Bobbitt for the La Tech game while Parker was replaced by Alex Fuller for the Miss. State contest. Using essentially one line-up is a far cry from previous seasons. Last year, Summitt employed seven different combinations with Candace Parker as the only common denominator in 36 games. In 2004-05, Summitt utilized 10 different looks with no player starting all 35 games. UT's line-up saw four different looks in 2003-04 with Shyra Ely and Ashley Robinson starting 35 games. In 2002-03, three starting line-ups were used as Gwen Jackson, Kara Lawson and Loree Moore were constants in the 38 game schedule.

LADY VOL STREAKS

The last time the Lady Vols lost at home was against Duke, 74-70, on Jan. 22, 2007, -- since then, UT has won four home games. The last time UT lost on the road was on Dec. 3, 2006 at UNC, since then, UT is 9-0 on the road. The last time the Lady Vols lost on a neutral court was against North Carolina, 75-63, in the NCAA Elite 8 game on Mar. 28, 2006. Since that time, UT has not played on a neutral court.

OVER 500 GAMES VS. RANKED

Tennessee's game versus #13 Georgia on Feb. 16, 2006 was the Lady Vols' 500th all-time versus a ranked team since the inception of the polls in 1976. UT is an amazing 379-147 (.700) versus ranked teams. This season, UT is 10-2 in ranked meetings. Last year, Tennessee was 13-3 versus ranked teams.

DOING BETTER IN THE SEC SLATE THIS SEASON

The Tennessee Lady Vols hope to turn in a better showing in the Southeastern Conference regular season slate in 2006-07. Currently, the Lady Vols lead the league with a 12-0 record. Last season, UT lost an uncharacteristic three games in the SEC – at Kentucky (66-63), at home to LSU (72-69) and Florida (95-93 OT). Eight points separated UT from a perfect 14-0 mark to a nine-season low 11-3 SEC record. In fact, from the 1997-98 season until the 2004-05 campaign, Tennessee lost a total of four SEC games in the regular season.

UT LEADS IN HOME ATTENDANCE

Tennessee, once again, leads the NCAA women's basketball attendance race. UT passed the 200,000 attendance mark against Ole Miss on Feb. 15. UT eclipsed 100,000 mark in home attendance before the new year with 19,092 versus Notre Dame. The current attendance standings: 1. Tennessee 14,040 (210,59415), 2. UConn 11,152 (156,126/14), 3. Texas Tech 10,696 (128,353/12), 4. Oklahoma 10,213 (91,917/9), 5. New Mexico 9,427 (122,545/13).

SUMMITT GETS 938TH WIN

While Texas Tech's Bobby Knight finally reached 880 wins on the men's side, Lady Vol coach Pat Summitt recorded her 938th victory with a 56-51 win over LSU on Feb. 19 2007. Summitt recorded her 880th win, passing North Carolina's Dean Smith on Mar. 22, 2005 with a 75-54 victory over Purdue in the NCAA Tournament. Summitt has registered 58 wins since then. Summitt is a season and a half of wins ahead of Coach Knight.

TENNESSEE TOPS AP ALL-TIME
 The Tennessee Lady Vols are the top-ranked team in the history of the Top 25 rankings in the Associated Press poll. The poll, now in its 31st season, has found Pat Summitt's Tennessee Lady Vols ranked in 519 of a possible 533 polls. Through the poll released on Feb. 19, the top five team poll rankings are:
1. PAT SUMMITT, TENNESSEE – 519
(missed just 14 polls in entire AP history)
 2. Andy Landers, Georgia – 411
 3. Jody Conradt, Texas – 396
 4. C.Vivian Stringer (Cheyney, Iowa, Rutgers) – 351
 5. Rene Portland (St. Joseph, Penn St.) – 336

2002, 1987), Stanford (1996) and Auburn (1988).

HOME SWEET HOME -- 400th HOME WINS

The victory over Georgia on Jan. 31, 2005, was the Lady Vols 400th home win since Pat Summitt took over as head coach in 1974. Summitt has won 91.4 percent of all home games in 33 years producing a 430-41 overall record. Home losses (in the Summitt era) include: six in Alumni Gym from 1974-76; 18 in Stokely Athletics Center from 1976-87; and 17 in Thompson-Boling Arena since 1987.

LAST LOSS TO AN UNRANKED TEAM?

Florida became the second unranked team in the 2005-06 season to knock off the Lady Vols, when they won 95-93 OT on Feb. 26, 2006. Exactly one month earlier, unranked Kentucky turned the trick with a 66-63 win over #1/3-ranked Tennessee on Jan. 26, 2006 at Rupp Arena. Previously, it had been four years since an unranked team upset the Lady Vols. So before Florida and Kentucky had their way with UT, when was the last time Tennessee lost to an unranked team? That would have been to LSU on Mar. 2, 2002 at the SEC Tournament in Nashville, Tenn. LSU had been in and out of the Top 25 polls in late January and February. Prior to that, UT's last loss to an unranked team was five years previous (to the day) losing to Auburn on Mar. 2, 1997 at the SEC Tournament.

100 POINT GAMES

Since 1974, the Lady Vols have gone over the century mark 72 times. Last season, UT eclipsed 100 points in two games – Princeton, 107 and #16/18 Texas, 102. The 1987-88 team hit triple digits in seven games to lead the NCAA.

IN OVERTIME

The Lady Vols are 24-13 all-time in overtime games. The most OT games in a year was tied in 2003-04 with four as the Lady Vols went 3-1 in overtime losing to Georgia, 68-66, and defeating Auburn, 68-61, DePaul, 96-89, and Stanford, 70-66. It tied the mark set in 1996-97, when the Lady Vols were 3-1 in overtime contests losing to Georgia, 94-93, and defeating Texas, 68-65, Vanderbilt, 92-79 and LSU, 100-99. UT's 22 points in the OT against Florida (2-3-05), was the most ever scored by the Lady Vols in a single overtime. UT's most recent OT affair was a 95-93 loss to Florida on 2-26-06.

ever from the state of Louisiana. Marrero is located in southeastern Louisiana near New Orleans and is 73 miles from Baton Rouge (as the crow flies).

CELEBRATING PRESIDENT'S DAY

Tennessee and Louisiana State met in Baton Rouge in a President's Day meeting on ESPN2. In the mid-1800's, president's from the two states served a majority of time in the White House. The state of Tennessee supplied three of the nation's presidents (No. 7 Andrew Jackson, 1829-37; No. 11 James K. Polk, 1845-49 and No. 17 Andrew Johnson, 1865-69) while one served from the state of Louisiana (No. 12 Zachary Taylor, 1849-50). Since the mid-1800's, neither the state of Tennessee nor the state of Louisiana has seen a president elected from their home state. Tennessee's Al Gore came close in the 2000 presidential race.

UT OUTLASTS FIESTY OLE MISS

On Feb. 15, the Tennessee Lady Vols quickly saw why Ole Miss was able to defeat both LSU and Vanderbilt. The Rebs were just plain aggravating on defense playing gnat-like and covering every inch of the floor. Offensively, Mississippi scored 69 points on the Lady Vols – the most of any SEC team to date. UT's five-point halftime lead over Ole Miss was UT's smallest margin over an SEC opponent this season. The victory marked the 24-win plateau for the 27th time in Pat Summitt's career and the 21st time in a row. The win also gave UT at least 11 SEC wins in a season for the 12th time. Individually, Candace Parker...scored her 1,100th career point...scored in double figures for the 24th time this season and the 57th time of her career...scored 20+ points for the 12th time this season and the 23rd time in her career...earned a double-double for the 14th time this season and the 24th time in her career and recorded a career-high-tying seven assists; Shannon Bobbitt...Scored in double figures for the seventh time this season and the second game in a row...set a career high with 14 field-goal attempts; Alexis Hornbuckle... extended her streak of games with a steal to 62 -- she now has at least one steal in 83 of 90 career games...moved past Pat Hatmaker and into 15th place in the UT record books for career assists (332)...reached double figures for the 13th time this season and the 45th time of her career and scored all 12 of her points in the second half.

SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Lady Vol All-American Candace Parker was selected as the Southeastern Conference Player of the Week (Feb. 5-11). She earned the award for the fourth time this season and the fifth time in her career. In three games last week, Parker averaged 26.0 points and 10.3 rebounds per contest. She shot a sizzling 62 percent from the field and went 22 of 25 from the line for an 88 percent clip. The Naperville, Ill., native earned double-doubles against Georgia and Auburn to up her total to 13 on the season. On Feb. 8 versus Auburn, she eclipsed the 500-rebound plateau to join former Lady Vol four-time Kodak All-Americans Chamique Holdslaw and Tamika Catchings as the only three UT players to amass 1,000 points, 500

THOMPSON-BOLING ARENA
 WELCOME TO "THE SUMMITT"

The playing court in the Thompson-Boling Arena on the University of Tennessee campus donned a new look for the 2005-06 season. After Lady Vol coach Pat Summitt passed Dean Smith for most NCAA collegiate basketball wins of all-time with a 75-54 win over Purdue on Mar. 22, 2005, UT named the TBA court, "The Summitt." The floor had a complete overhaul with permanent logos of both the Lady Vols and Vols painted directly in front of the scorer's table; the free throw lanes were painted orange with "SEC" reversed out; the giant jump circle/mid-court TENNESSEE was given a new brighter color scheme, and "The Summitt," Coach Summitt's actual signature adorns the sidelines opposite the team benches.

ON OUR WAY TO 300 WINS

Tennessee recorded its 200th win in Thompson-Boling Arena when the Lady Vols defeated the University of Southern California on Nov. 18, 2001, 106-66. UT has now amassed a 279-17 (.943) record since the Orange and White moved into the Thompson-Boling Arena to start the 1987-88 season 19-years ago. Along the way, the Lady Vols have produced nine flawless home records in 1988-89 (15-0), 1991-92 (14-0), 1992-93 (13-0), 1993-94 (15-0), 1994-95 (15-0), 1997-98 (16-0), 1998-99 (14-0), 2000-01 (15-0) and 2002-03 (16-0). UT also registered an NCAA record 69-game home court-winning streak from Feb. 1, 1991 thru Jan. 2, 1996.

JUST 17 LOSSES

The Tennessee Lady Vols rarely lose at home. In fact, since moving to the Thompson-Boling Arena for the 1987-88 campaign, UT has lost two games in one season just six times. UT lost two games in TBA during the inaugural 1987-88 campaign, 1996-97, 1999-00, 2001-02, 2003-04 and the 2005-06 seasons. The 17 all-time losses at Thompson-Boling Arena have come at the hands of just nine teams: Florida (2006), LSU (2006), Duke (2004 and 2007), Connecticut (2004, 2002, 2000, 1996), Louisiana Tech (1999, 1989), Georgia (1996, 1991), Texas (2003,

BIRD FLIES HOME

Lady Vol junior college transfer forward, Alberta "Bird" Auguste returned to her home state for the game versus LSU. Auguste, a native of Marrero, La. (John Ehret H.S.), is Tennessee's first player rebounds and 100 blocks. She dropped in 31 points against the Kentucky Wildcats – it was her second most of the season and marked the third most prolific scoring game of her career. She owns four 30+ points games. Parker was also named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District IV first team during the week, which makes her eligible for Academic All-America later in the season.

TAMED THE WILDCATS

After enduring the miserable loss at Kentucky last season, Tennessee took care of business on Feb. 11, 2007 with an 84-62 drubbing of UK. Kentucky, however, completely controlled the glass and registered a +16 advantage over Tennessee on the boards (40-24). The win gives the Lady Vols 10 or more SEC wins for the 10th consecutive season and 14th overall. The 1987 Lady Vol National Championship team was honored before tip-off of the Kentucky game. The ceremonies marked the 20th anniversary of UT's first NCAA basketball title in 1987. All 14 of the former players were in attendance. Interesting in game note-- With her second free throw at the 1:40 mark in the first half, Candace Parker scored her 22nd point of the game, one more than Kentucky team had at that point in the game (21 points). UT's first half field goal percentage (.576) was its highest since shooting 63.6 percent against MTSU on Nov. 26, 2006. Kentucky's 62 points tie the most by an SEC opponent this season (with Auburn). Individually, Alexis Hornbuckle... Extended her streak of games with a steal to 61. She now has at least one steal in 82 of 89 career games. Hornbuckle moved past Michelle Marciniak and into ninth place in the UT record books for career thefts (240). UT's best rebounding guard didn't get a rebound against the Wildcats, marking the first no-rebound game of her career. Her previous low was one board, which she has grabbed twice in her career; Sidney Spencer...Moved past Tamika Catchings and into seventh place in the UT record books for career three-pointers (123). Spencer moved into a tie with Tasha Butts for eighth place in the UT record books for career three-point attempts (290); Candace Parker... Scored in double figures for the 23rd time this season and the 56th time in her career. She surpassed 20 points for the 11th time this season and the 22nd time in her career. Produced the second highest scoring game of her career and reached 30 points in a game for the third time this season and the fourth time of her career and Shannon Bobbitt... moved into fifth place in the UT record books for career three-point percentage (.410)

TIGERS TOUGH ON THE TAKE DOWN

With the win over Auburn, it marked the 10th season in a row that UT has claimed nine or more SEC wins. Tennessee now has a 15-game winning streak over Auburn. Auburn, to date, scored the most points on UT in a 2007 SEC game putting 62 points on the scoreboard. No other SEC team had scored in the 60's versus UT. Alabama native and senior Sidney Spencer may have been a little nervous against Auburn -- it marked the first time her 89-year old grandfather had watched her play in person. Sid's parents, Steve and Janice, have attended every game during their daughter's senior season. Fellow senior Dominique Redding saw her first action in an SEC contest since the South Carolina game. Individually, Alexis Hornbuckle... Extended her streak of games with a steal to 60. She now has at least one steal in 81 of 88 career games; Candace Parker...Eclipsed the 500-rebound plateau making her the 34th Lady Vol in program history to do so...Earned her 13th double-double of the season and the 23rd of her career and tied a season high with nine free throw; Nicky Anosike... Scored in double digits for the fifth time this season and the 19th time of her career and Shannon Bobbitt...Dished out a career SEC high four assists

UT STOPS GEORGIA AGAIN

For the second time this season, Tennessee stopped the Georgia Lady Bulldogs. The Lady Vols' defense in the second meeting was extremely intense with junior Alexis Hornbuckle leading the way. In two games against UT this season, Georgia averaged just 49.0 ppg. Individually, Alexis Hornbuckle... Extended her streak of games with a steal to 59. She now has at least one steal in 80 of 87 career games. Against UGA2, she scored in double figures for the 11th time this season and the 43rd time in her career. With seven assists in the game, she moved into a tie for 16th place in the Lady Vol record books for career thefts (320); Candace Parker... Scored in double figures for the 21st time this season and the 54th time of her career. Also, she earned her 12th double-double of the season and the 22nd of her career – moving her into a tie for sixth place in the UT record books for career double-doubles and reserve Alex Fuller... Scored in double figures for the sixth time this season

MOATS ON MEDICAL STATUS

University of Tennessee Lady Vol head coach Pat Summitt has announced that freshman Nicci Moats will remain on medical leave from the team for the remainder of the season. "Nicci is a great young lady, and we're all very supportive of this decision," said Summitt. "We're looking forward to having her back on the court next fall." Moats is a 6-2 rookie forward from Daleville, Va. "After talking with the medical staff, I decided to take a leave from playing with the team for the remainder of the season so my focus can be on getting healthy and concentrating on my academics," said Moats.

NOTCHED 20 VICTORIES

The Tennessee Lady Vols notched yet another 20-win season with the victory over South Carolina on Feb. 1, 2007. It marked the 31st consecutive time a Lady Vol team has reached at least 20 wins in a season under Coach Pat Summitt. When the Lady Vols picked up win #20 against South Carolina on Feb. 1, it marked the third fastest Summitt team to attain at least 20 wins. The 20 win seasons on the date they were achieved:

NON-20-WIN SEASONS?

Tennessee's Pat Summitt has only had two teams fail to reach 20-win seasons during her 33-year tenure...In her first and second seasons (1974-75 and 1975-76) at UT, the Lady Vols were 16-8 and 16-11, respectively. Summitt's record of 20-win seasons is unmatched in collegiate basketball.

FAST START AGAINST USC

In picking up win number 20 on the season, the Tennessee Lady Vols got off to a fast start against South Carolina. The opening minutes were reminiscent of Duke's crushing start against UT on Jan. 22. Fortunately for the Lady Vols, UT was making the run on the Gamecocks opening the game 16-0 in the first 9:22. South Carolina did not score until 10:12 was left in the first half on a layup by Melanie Johnson. The Gamecocks' 11 first-half points were the fewest ever by an SEC opponent and tie for the fifth fewest ever by a UT foe. All 10 Lady Vols scored against USC. Individually, Alexis Hornbuckle... Extended her streak of games with a steal to 58. She now has at least one steal in 79 of 86 career games. Lex also moved into tenth place in the UT record books for career steals (229) and eclipsed the 800-point plateau for her career; Candace Parker...Earned her 11th double-double of the season and the 21st of her career, moving her into a tie for the eighth most by a Lady Vol in her career; Shannon Bobbitt... Scored in double figures for the second straight game; Alberta Auguste... Scored in double figures for the second straight game, her first back-to-back double digit performance as a Lady Vol and Sidney Spencer... Grabbed a career-high-tying nine rebounds

DOUBLED UP BAMA

Tennessee's victory at Alabama on Jan. 28 was the Lady Vols second win this season over the Crimson Tide. At 6-0, the Lady Vols are off to their best SEC start since the 2003-04 season. The win was Tennessee's 32nd consecutive over the Tide. UT's 29-point margin of victory was the largest on the road for the Lady Vols this season. Individually, Shannon Bobbitt... Scored a career-high 20 points and drained six three-pointers, which ties the second most in a game by a Lady Vol; Candace Parker... Scored her 1,000th career point during the 56th game of her career, making her the fastest Lady Vol in history to amass 1,000 tallies. Chamique Holdsworth did so in 57 games. Parker is the 30th 1,000-point scorer at UT. Saw her streak of 33 consecutive games in double-digit scoring come to an end; Alexis Hornbuckle... Extended her streak of games with a steal to 57. She has at least one steal in 78 of 85 career games; Alberta Auguste... Sank a career-high three treys, and Alex Fuller... Tied SEC-career-high 12 points.

AVOIDED THE DUKE SWOON

UT faced a tough #15/14-ranked Vanderbilt squad following the loss three days earlier to top-ranked Duke, 74-70. This season, the Lady Vols avoided the "Duke Swoon" with a 67-57 win. Last season, following the 75-53 loss at #2-ranked Duke, the Tennessee Lady Vols went into a tailspin in their next game and lost at Kentucky, 66-63, three days later. It marked the first back-to-back defeats for the Lady Vols in nine years when the Lady Vols recorded the win in Rupp Arena. Against UK, Candace Parker was UT's only double-digit scorer tallying 25 points. Fellow starters Nicky Anosike and Sidney Spencer chipped in nine points each, while Tye Fluker added seven points and Alexis Hornbuckle just a single digit in the loss. Shanna Zolman, who came in off the bench, tallied nine points.

GOT OFF THE MAT AT VANDERBILT

The Tennessee Lady Vols recorded a tough 67-57 win at #15/14 Vanderbilt on Jan. 25 despite enduring 10 lead changes and five ties. Had the Commodores been successful at converting points off of turnovers, the outcome might have been different. UT had 25 miscues (a season high) but Vanderbilt converted just 12 points. Conversely, UT tallied 29 points from 27 Vandy turnovers. The victory gives UT a six-game road winning streak this season. Individually, Sidney Spencer... Scored a career-high 26 points en route to surpassing the 900-points plateau for her career (922) and scored in double figures for the 15th time this season, the 42nd time in her career. Additionally, she scored 20+ points for the third time this season and the fifth time of her career; Alexis Hornbuckle... Surpassed the 300-assists (304) plateau for her career...Extended her streak of games with a steal to 56. She now has at least one steal in 77 of 84 career games...Moved into a tie for 11th place with Tonya Edwards for career steals (223); Candace Parker... Earned the 20th double-double of her career, moving her into ninth place for most career double-doubles in Lady Vol history. She now has 10 as a sophomore – the third most by a second-year Lady Vol. Drew 12 fouls on Vanderbilt, the most she's drawn by an opponent in a game this season.

BATTLE SCARS

Lady Vol sophomore Alex Fuller received four stitches over her eye when she hit the deck hard and slid on the hardwood at Vanderbilt. Fuller logged 17 minutes in the win at #15/14 Vanderbilt.

BEFORE DUKE DEBACLE, UT TRAILED AT HOME FOR JUST SEVEN MINUTES

Before trailing 39 minutes and 49 seconds versus Duke (UT was tied with the Blue Devils for 11 seconds), the Lady Vols had been tough at home. During the Lady Vols previous 10 home contests, they trailed their opponent on the scoreboard just seven times for a total of 7:02. Before Duke, Tennessee has been tied or ahead 97.8% of the time (3:12:58 of 400 minutes), including every second of play in the second half of each game. The largest deficit for UT was six points (13-7) against Middle Tennessee State on Nov. 26. Tennessee fell behind against UCLA (:10), Stanford (2:10), MTSU (4:18) and West Virginia (:24), but never trailed against Chattanooga, UT-Martin, George Washington, Notre Dame, Alabama or Mississippi State.

JUST TOO MUCH DOOOK

Duke etched their name in the Lady Vol record books holding Tennessee without a bucket for the first 5:58 to start the game. An 11-0 run out against Tennessee is recalled as the best opponent start, however, Duke's 19-0 beginning is now the best ever versus the Lady Vols. Tennessee fell into a 21-point hole (28-7 at 9:23 in the first half) before rallying to narrow the halftime deficit to 11 points (38-27). The 21-point deficit in the first half was the largest of the season for UT...The Duke game marked the first time UT hadn't led in a game this season. Duke's Abby Waner made six three-pointers, tying for the fifth most by an opposing player in Lady Vol history. Duke recorded the highest field goal percentage of any team against the Lady Vols in the 2006-07 season, .491. Conversely, UT dipped to a season low .361 from the field. Free throw defense stymied Tennessee as the Lady Vols connected for just 8-17 (.471) and All-American Candace Parker was affected the most going just 1-7 from the charity stripe. In a positive vein, UT tied a season-high with 10 three-pointers. Individually, Alexis Hornbuckle ... Extended her streak of games with a steal to 55. She now has at least one steal in 76 of 83 career games. She moved past Dena Head and into a tie with Sheila Frost for 12th place in the UT record books for career steals (219). She reached double figures for the ninth time this season and the 41st time in her career while scoring a career-high-tying 19 points; Candace Parker... Reached double figures for the 18th time this season, the 32nd time in a row, and the 51st time of her career. With 22 points in the game, she scored 20+ points for the eighth time of the season and the 19th time of her career. With 10 rebounds, she earned her ninth double-double of the season and the 19th of her career. Parker's six blocks moved into a tie for fifth place with Teresa Geter in the UT record books for career blocks (138); Sidney Spencer... Moved into fourth place in the UT record books for career free throw percentage (.829). Additionally, she scored in double figures for the 14th time this season, the 41st time in her career and Nicky Anosike...

With 10 rebounds, she grabbed double-digit rebounds for the second straight game, the third time of the season and the 12th time of her career.

FACING NUMBER ONE

Tennessee has faced the nation's top-ranked team 42 times in games dating back to the 1976-77 season. The Lady Vols have notched 14 upset victories over the #1-ranked team and fallen in defeat 28 times.

LADY VOLS EXTEND STREAK TO 26

The victory over Mississippi State on Jan. 18th was the Lady Vols 26th consecutive over the Lady Bulldogs. UT produced the win without the services of sophomore All-American Candace Parker who was battling a respiratory illness and was pulled from the line-up prior to tip-off. It marked the first time in Parker's Lady Vol career that she didn't start or play in a game following her redshirt rookie year. In her absence, four UT players registered double digit scoring and Nicky Anosike chipped in with a double-digit rebounding night to lead UT to the win. Individually, Alexis Hornbuckle...-extended her streak of games with a steal to 54. She now has at least one steal in 75 of 82 career games. Scored in double figures for the third straight game, the eighth time this season and the 40th time of her career. She moved past Debbie Groover (295) and Bridgette Gordon (296) and into 18th place in the UT record books for career assists (297); Alex Fuller...Got her first career star and reached double figures for the fourth time this season... her 12 points marked a career-high in SEC contests. Additionally, her three steals and 36 minutes of playing time were both personal bests; Shannon Bobbitt...Scored in double figures for the fourth time this season... her 13 points were a career high for SEC contests. She also grabbed a personal best in rebounds (4); Sidney Spencer...Scored in double figures for the 13th time this season, the 40th time of her career and matched a season high in assists (3); Cait McMahan...Continued her physical play this season, drawing two charges in the first half alone; Alberta Auguste...Tied a personal best with six rebounds; Dominique Redding... Grabbed a season-high four rebounds and Nicky Anosike...Grabbed 10 rebounds for the 11th double-digit boards total of her career.

SMOKEY TOOK A BITE OUT OF THE GEORGIA LADY 'DAWGS

If you had been watching the sports ticker on Sunday, Jan. 14 and saw the Tennessee 52, Georgia 41 score roll by, your first thought might have been, "it's halftime." Not so. Tennessee's 52-point tally for the game tied the fifth fewest points in UT history. The Lady Vols 25 first half points tied the fewest by UT this season (UT scored just 25 points at North Carolina). Defensively, Georgia's 41 points were the fewest scored by a Lady Bulldog team since 1974. Individually, Sidney Spencer... Eclipsed the 400-rebound plateau for her career; Candace Parker... Extended her streak of games in double figures to 31, despite the fact that she did not score until the clock read 1:39 left in the first half, when she connected on both free throw attempts. Her first field goal came at 12:15 left in the second half...She tied a season high in assists (4); Nicky Anosike...Grabbed her 500th career rebound (502 total), becoming the 33rd Lady Vol of all time to eclipse that mark. Scored in double figures for the fourth time this season, the 18th time of her career; Alexis Hornbuckle...Extended her streak of games with a steal to 53. She has made at least one steal in 74 of 81 career games. Scored in double figures for the seventh time this season, the 29th time in her career; Alex Fuller... grabbed a career-high-tying eight rebounds.

LADY VOLS CHOMPED ON THE GATOR'S TAIL THIS TIME

Last season, unranked Florida spoiled Tennessee's senior day with a 95-93 OT win in Knoxville. The loss also probably cost the team a #1 seed in the 2006 NCAA Tournament. On Jan. 11, UT took care of business in "The Swamp" hanging a 80-58 loss on the Gators. Tennessee jumped out to a 25-0 lead before Florida scored with 12:20 left on the clock in the first half. It was the second longest opening drought by a UT opponent this season. Tennessee-Martin did not score until the clock read 11:44 and Tennessee had an 18-0 lead. In the bad news department, the 41.7 percent from the foul line was UT's worst mark this season as UT was a dismal 5-12 from the charity stripe. Individually there were some real bright spots: Sidney Spencer...scored in double figures for the 12th time this season, the 39th time of her career; tallied a career-high-tying 21 points; made four of her first five three-point attempts... finished the game 5-of-7 from beyond the arc; her five treys tied a career high and tied for the ninth-most in a game by a Lady Vol; Alexis Hornbuckle...extended her streak of games with a steal to 52...Earned season and SEC career highs in rebounds (9) and assists (10)...Moved into 20th place in the UT record books for career assists (290)...Moved past Mary Ostrowski and into 14th place in the UT record books for career steals (209)...Earned her first career double-double in assists (10) and points (10); Candace Parker...Scored in double figures for the 30th straight game Cait McMahan...Tied a career-high with seven points and Alex Fuller...Eight rebounds matched her career-best.

HORNBUCKLE HEARTBREAKER

Junior Alexis Hornbuckle missed out on her first career triple-double in the game versus Florida on Jan. 11, 2007. Hornbuckle tallied 10 points, 10 assists and nine rebounds in 29 minutes of action. At the end of the game, her teammates were encouraging her to grab one final board after Hornbuckle dished out her 10th assist with 27 seconds to go. Hornbuckle just missed a triple-double a year ago in the game against Connecticut in Knoxville on Jan. 7, 2006. She grabbed 14 rebounds, scored 10 points and dished nine assists.

PARKER SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Lady Vol sophomore All-American Candace Parker earned SEC Co-Player of the Week honors for her performances against Alabama and #5-ranked Connecticut (week of Jan. 1-7). She shared the accolade with Mississippi's Armintie Price. Against Alabama on Jan. 3, Parker picked off a career-best five steals. She also added 15 points, five rebounds and five blocks; all in a limited 24 minutes of playing time. Tennessee took its 31st consecutive win against the Tide with the 72-36 routing. On Jan. 6, the Lady Vols defeated #5-ranked Connecticut, 70-64. In the victory, Parker was named the CBS and Lady Vol player of the game for her 30 points, 12 rebounds, six blocks and four assists in her first 40-minute game of the season. One of the many 6-4 sophomore's highlights was a dunk early in the second half to put UT up by 16. Parker previously captured player of the week honors on Nov. 20 and Nov. 27 of this season.

THE BOOK ON BOBBITT

The scouting report on Lady Vol junior Shannon Bobbitt has undergone some revisions of late. In a four-game stretch (ODU to UConn), Bobbitt emerged into more of a scoring role. The diminutive New Yorker averaged 11.8 ppg, 44% FG, 60% three-pointers, 100% from the free throw line in contests against Old Dominion, Notre Dame, Alabama and #5-ranked Connecticut. Against the Irish, Bobbitt connected for a career high 17 points. In the win over UConn, Bobbitt drilled three treys in the opening stanza.

375TH WIN OVER A RANKED TEAM IN GAME VS. UCONN

Lady Vol coach Pat Summitt collected her 375th all-time win over a ranked team when #4-ranked Tennessee defeated #5-ranked Connecticut on Jan. 6. Summitt has a ridiculous 72 percent winning percentage in ranked games (378-147).

UT DOGS UCONN

Tennessee's 70-64 victory over #5-ranked Connecticut on Jan. 6, 2007 was the Lady Vols third in a row over the Huskies. The victory also marked Lady Vols coach Pat Summitt's 325th "W" over a ranked team all-time. In the game, Tennessee had a season low 10 miscues on the afternoon -- just four turnovers in the first 25 minutes of the game but had six in the last 15 minutes. Interestingly, UConn had just 13 fouls called on them for the game... seven of which were called on someone who fouled Candace Parker. Individually, Sidney Spencer...reached double figures for the 11th time this season, the 38th time of her career...had a career-high-tying nine rebounds and moved into eighth place in the UT record books for career three-pointers (104); Candace Parker...DUNKED! For the first time on the road against a ranked opponent this season and against the highest ranked opponent in her career. The dunk is the fourth on the season and the sixth in her career. The dunk came after a Sidney Spencer steal found Parker open and alone down the court early in the second stanza. Parker's first basket of the game gave her career-point No. 900...she reached double-figures for the 15th game this season, the 29th time in a row...Collected 30+ points for the second time this season, the third time in her career...had her eighth double-double of the season, the 18th of her career; Alexis Hornbuckle...Extended her streak of games with a steal to 51. She now has at least one steal in 72 of 79 career games...moved into a tie for 21st place in the UT record books for career assists (281); Nicky Anosike...moved into eighth place in the UT record books for career blocks (104) and Shannon Bobbitt...made three consecutive treys in the first half to help the Lady Vols obtain a 12-point halftime lead.

CONFERENCE CALL

In addition to the 14-game Southeastern Conference schedule, Tennessee will take on teams from 10 other conferences this season. The Lady Vols will be doing their best impression as members of the Pac-10 and the BIG EAST facing three opponents from each of those conferences. UT will play two foes from the ACC and one each from the Atlantic 10, Big 12, Colonial, Ohio Valley, Southern, Sun Belt and WAC.

UT A BIG EAST MEMBER... WELL, JUST FOR 3 GAMES

The Tennessee Lady Vols were a southern extension member of the BIG EAST Conference this season and collected a perfect 3-0 record. UT played West Virginia (Dec. 20, a 66-51 win), Notre Dame (Dec. 30, a 78-54 win) and traveled to #5 Connecticut (Jan. 6, a 70-64 victory). Earlier in the season, Tennessee was an ex officio member of the Pac-10 and finished their slate with a 3-0 record against three ranked teams in consecutive games. UT recorded a stretch of wins over #20/21 UCLA (83-60), at #11 Arizona State (83-74) and against #11 Stanford (77-60), Nov. 16-24.

SLOPPY WIN TO START SEC SLATE

Tennessee and Alabama were the first SEC teams in action to start the 2007 slate and UT walked away with a 72-36 victory. The win gave UT a 38-2 lead in the series with UA, and upped the winning streak to 31 consecutive...The Lady Vols held Bama to just 14 first half points which tied for the ninth-fewest by a UT opponent in program history. It ties the Tides' performance on Jan. 6, 2000 and is the lowest point total reached in an opening period against UT by an SEC team. In the game, Tennessee forced a season high 35 turnovers which generated 28 UT points. Individually, Sidney Spencer... Moved into a tied for 10th place in the UT record books for career three-pointers (101); Candace Parker...Scored in double figures for the 47th time in her career and the 28th time in a row and had a career-high five steals; Alexis Hornbuckle...Extended her streak of games with a steal to 50 and now has 204 career thefts, good for 15th place in the UT record books. Tied a season-best in assists with seven tonight Alberta Auguste...Reached double figure scoring for the third time this season

ALL-TIME OPENING DAY RECORD IN SEC PLAY

The Tennessee Lady Vols have produced a 23-5 opening day record in SEC play dating back to the 1979-80 season. UT is 11-2 in home SEC openers and 12-3 on the road. Georgia (1984 and 1996) and Auburn (1988 and 1989) each ambushed the Lady Vols in two SEC opening games, while Vanderbilt turned the trick in 1990. The Lady Vols have not dropped an SEC opener since 1996 when Georgia escaped with a 94-93 overtime victory in Knoxville on Dec. 8, 1996.

ONE LOSS CAMPAIGNS -- HEADING INTO JANUARY

Traditionally, Tennessee teams take most of its losses in the month of December when Coach Pat Summitt loads up on some tough non-conference opposition to prepare the team for the rigors of the postseason. Last year, the Lady Vols carried an undefeated record into January marking the sixth time the Lady Vols went undefeated in the months of November and December. This year, the team carries one loss into the month of January. Previously, nine other Lady Vol teams have carried one loss all-time into the month of January.

2006-07: 12-1 lost to North Carolina

2003-04: 8-1 lost to Texas

2000-01: 11-1 lost to UConn

1999-00: 9-1 lost to La Tech

1998-99: 10-1 lost to Purdue

1995-96: 10-1 lost to Stanford

1992-93: 7-1 lost to Maryland

1991-92: 6-1 lost to Stanford

1987-88: 7-1 lost to Texas

1986-87: 8-1 lost to Texas

BYPASSED 100,000 AT HOME

The Tennessee Lady Vols have eclipsed 100,000 in home attendance for the 13th consecutive season and the earliest in program history. Through 12 home games, UT has recorded a total attendance of 165,326 for a nation-leading average of 13,777.

STILL PERFECT VS. NOTRE DAME

With the victory over the Irish, the Lady Vols are perfect all-time against Notre Dame with an 18-0 record. The win was UT head coach Pat Summitt's 925th all-time. Game wrap-up notes -- UT shot 34.5% in the first half, its lowest field goal percentage since 31.5% in the opening period at Texas. Tennessee's .381 shooting percentage for the game was the second lowest for the season. The Lady Vols shot a dismal .362 from the field in the loss to North Carolina -- the worst shooting mark on the season. Lady Vols 12 blocked shots against ND tied the second most by a UT team in a single game in program history. UT had 12 turnovers in the first half and a season low three miscues in the second stanza. The Big Orange outscored Notre Dame 49-27 in the second half -- the most points scored in the second half by the Lady Vols this season. Individually, Sidney Spencer...Made her first three-pointer since the Texas game on her first shot of the day and moved past Kellie Jolly into 11th place in the UT record books for career three-pointers (100); Candace Parker... Moved past Chamique Holdsclaw into sixth place in the UT record books for career blocks (118)...Scored in double figures for the 46th time of her career and the 27th time in a row...Earned her seventh double-double of the season, her fourth in a row...Drew 10 fouls against the Irish, the most drawn by a UT player this season...Recorded a season-high four assists; Alexis Hornbuckle...Extended her streak of consecutive games with a steal to 49. She has now grabbed a steal in 70 of 77 career games...With four steals against ND, she moved into 16th place in the Lady Vol record books (200)...Reached the 400 career rebound mark...Tied a career high in blocks with three in the game, moving her into 21st place for career stuffs (42); Shannon Bobbitt...Made both foul shots on an intentional foul to move past her previous career high in points (13). Finished with 17 points on a career-best five three-pointers and Nicky Anosike...Reached the 100 career block plateau with one stuff vs. Notre Dame.

ODU WAS A SLOPPY WIN

The Tennessee Lady Vols rolled to its 11th win on the season with a ugly 75-59 win over Old Dominion on Dec. 22. Some of UT's players played as if they were already on Christmas break as the team's intensity was not up to the normal Lady Vol standards. Against ODU, it marked the fifth time this season that UT was out-rebounded by its opponent (34-30)...The attendance was 7,108, the third largest attendance at the Ted Constant Convocation Center for an ODU women's basketball and the largest since the Lady Vols were in town on Jan. 7, 2003 (7,758). Individually, Shannon Bobbitt... Tossed in a career high 3, three-pointers and scored a career high 13 points; Candace Parker...Reached double figures for the 26th consecutive time...Earned her fourth double-double in five games, her third in a row...Surpassed the 850-point plateau for her career...Scored a season-high 32 points; Alexis Hornbuckle... Extended her streak of games with a steal to 48...Reached double figures for the fifth time this season, the 37th time of her career...and surpassed the 700-point plateau for her career; Nicky Anosike...Moved past Daedra Charles (97) and Vonda Ward (98) into ninth place for career blocks (99); Sidney Spencer... Surpassed the 800-point plateau for her career and uncharacteristically, failed to make a three-pointer for the second game in a row and Dominique Redding... Moved into a tie for 17th place in the UT record books for career three-pointers (45)

UT NOT SHARP IN WIN VS. WVU

After a dismal shooting display against Texas in the previous game, Tennessee came out against West Virginia hitting on all cylinders. By the time UT's Candace Parker dunked at the 12:54 mark in the first half, the Lady Vols had jumped out to a 20-4 lead and were shooting the lights out at 70% clip from the field. Parker was whistled for a technical foul (popping her jersey) following the dunk and the crowd responded with minutes of "boos." After that, the Lady Vols weren't the same stumbling to 37% field goal accuracy in the opening stanza and taking a meager 32-23 lead at the half. Individually, Candace Parker...Reached double figures for the 11th game this season, the 25th time in a row; earned her second consecutive double-double, the fifth of the season and dunked for the third time this season, the fifth time of her career. Alexis Hornbuckle... Scored a career-high four three-pointers and extended her streak of games with a steal to 47. She has grabbed a steal in 68 of 75 career games. Sidney Spencer... Failed to make a three-pointer for the first time this season.

MAKES YOU GO, HMMMM

Through the first five games of the season, UT was shooting 54.5% from the field, 48.6% three-pointers and 75.3% from the line. UT averaged 86.6 ppg while giving up 66.0 -- logged 19.2 assists per game and snagged 14.2 steals. In the last nine games, it has been a different story. UT managed shooting 44.9% from the field, 40.0% three-pointers and 67.4% from the line. UT has averaged just 71.8 ppg while giving up 51.3 -- logged 16.2 assists per game and snagged just 12.7 steals per game.

UT & WVU LINKED BY DUNKS

Tennessee's Candace Parker might be the latest woman in collegiate basketball to dunk but West Virginia's Georgeann Wells (1983-86) became the first women's college basketball player to dunk in a collegiate game when she threw one down against Charleston, almost 22 years ago to the day (Dec. 21, 1984). Fittingly, Parker celebrated Wells' dunking anniversary with one of her own against West Virginia on Dec. 20, 2006, in Knoxville. Parker, the All-American sophomore took off after a steal and jammed a one-handed dunk with 12:54 to go in the first half.

MAKING THE GRADE

The Fall semester concluded at Tennessee on Dec. 14 and three Lady Vol basketball players managed perfect 4.0 GPAs for the grading period. Seniors Sidney Spencer and Elizabeth Curry (both sport management majors) and junior Nicky Anosike (majoring in sociology/criminal justice and additional majors in political science and legal studies) all pulled A's in their classes for the perfect mark.

TIDBITS FROM TEXAS

Lady Vol coach Pat Summitt coached in her 1,100th career game when her Tennessee team faced Texas on Dec. 17, 2006. It also marked her team's first win at the Erwin Center since Dec. 22, 2000. UT's 21-point dismantling of Texas tied the largest margin of victory by a Lady Vol team over Texas on the road. Both teams were horribly cold in the first half as the Lady Vols found the range for just 11-35 for 31.4 percent. Texas was worst at 6-27 for 22 percent. It marked just the second time this season, UT was held to under 50% from the field for the game -- the Lady Vols finished at 42.9 percent. Individually, Sidney Spencer... had a season-high six rebounds by halftime and finished with eight boards, one shy of a career high. Sid also reached double-figures for the ninth time this season, the 36th time of her career; Alexis Hornbuckle... Extended her streak of games with at least one steal to 46 and Candace Parker... Reached double figures for the 24th consecutive game, the 43rd game of her career. She also had her fourth double-double of the season, the 14th of her career. She picked up 12 points and 12 rebounds in under 20 minutes of playing time.

FINAL EXAMS AND PUPPIES

Following the 85-62 win over #21/19 George Washington University on Dec. 7, the Lady Vol went on a 10-day hiatus for final exams...The team took-off Dec. 9th and 10th and then fit practice around final exams and study sessions. The last day of exams was Dec. 14 and the team also took off Fri., Dec. 15. The abbreviated schedule was a blessing in disguise for Coach Pat Summitt. On Sunday, Dec. 10, Sally Sue Summitt, the family's yellow Labrador Retriever, gave birth to seven healthy puppies. The litter was comprised of four yellow females and three black males (the daddy was a black Lab). Never know when that 4-H training will come in handy!

UT DUO TABBED AS NAISMITH TROPHY CANDIDATES

University of Tennessee Lady Vols Candace Parker and Alexis Hornbuckle were named as pre-season candidates for the Naismith Trophy presented by Cingular Wireless, the Atlanta Tipoff Club announced on Dec. 11. The Naismith Trophy is the most prestigious national award presented annually to the men's and women's players of the year. Parker, a 6-foot-4 sophomore leads the team in scoring (19.6 ppg), rebounding (8.3 rpg) and blocked shots (2.5 bpg). The Naperville, Ill., native was a pre- and mid-season Naismith candidate during her rookie campaign. Charleston, W.Va.'s Hornbuckle paces the Lady Vols in steals (3.5 spg) and adds 3.3 assists, 9.6 points and 4.3 rebounds per contest. The junior guard is currently riding a streak of 45 consecutive games with at least one theft. Parker and Hornbuckle were both named pre-season candidates for the Wooden Award, as well.

SOLID WIN OVER GW

After an "attention-getting" week following the loss at #2-ranked North Carolina, the Lady Vols had a solid all-around showing versus a tenacious #21/19-ranked George Washington squad. Four starters reached double-figures with good balance across the front line. Improved rebounding accounted for 23 second chance points as the posts were key in the paint. Individually, Alexis Hornbuckle... extended her streak of games with a steal to 45 -- she now has at least one steal in 66 of 73 career games. Handed out a season-high seven assists. Sidney Spencer... The senior had a career-high-tying 21 points including five three-pointers. Nicky Anosike... recorded her first double-double of the season with a season-high 15 points and 11 rebounds and went 7-of-9 from the charity stripe. Candace Parker... Double-doubles elude her as she once again fell one rebound shy of her third consecutive double-double.

UT REBOUNDED VS. MARTIN

After suffering its first defeat of the season, Tennessee rebounded with a big win over Coach Pat Summitt's alma mater, UT-Martin. The Lady Vols opened the game on an 18-0 run. UTM did not score until 11:43 left in the first half. Martin's 13 first half points tie for the seventh fewest by a UT opponent in and their 16 second half points tie for the eighth fewest by a UT opponent in history. Overall, UTM's 29 total points tie for the fourth fewest by a UT opponent. For the first time this season, all 11 Lady Vols scored. Best of all, Tennessee had its lowest turnover total (9) of the season. Individually, Alexis Hornbuckle... Extended her streak of games with a steal to 44. She has made a steal in 65 of 72 career games; Candace Parker... Reached double figures for the 22nd consecutive time, the 41st time in her career. She also recorded a double-double for the second straight game, the third time this season and the 13th time of her career. Remained perfect from the three-point line this season; Alex Fuller... Scored a career-high 14 points; Sidney Spencer ... Reached double figures for the seventh time this season, the 34th time of her career; Nicci Moats... Scored her first career field goal and had a career-high three points, former manager Elizabeth Curry ... Scored her first career points.

THE WHEELS FELL OFF

Tennessee's trip to #2 North Carolina had few things to write home about as the wheels fell off for the first time this season. Against the Tar Heels, Tennessee suffered its first loss of the season dropping the Lady Vols' record to 6-1. UT was in unfamiliar territory as they trailed at the half for the first time this season. After connecting on better than 50 percent from the field in five games, UT's field goal percentage (.362) was the lowest of the season. Individually, Alexis Hornbuckle... Extended her streak of games with at least one steal to 43. She has recorded at least one steal in 64 of 71 career games; Candace Parker... Reached double figures for 21st consecutive game, and for the 40th time in her career, Nicky Anosike... Moved into a tie for 11th place on the career blocks list (88) and rookie Cait McMahan... deserved the "Spunk Award" after getting tangled up with UNC's Ivory Latta - Cait Mac did not back down.

BOBBITT MISSED ONE GAME

UT junior point guard Shannon Bobbitt was back in the starting line-up against #2-ranked North Carolina. Bobbitt missed the contest at Louisiana Tech due to a test in one of her classes. Rookie Cait McMahan started in Bobbitt's place in the 71-50 win over the Lady Techsters. McMahan had seven points, four rebounds, three assists and a steal in 24 minutes.

SUMMITT CAPTURED ROAD WIN NUMBER 300 AT LA TECH

Lady Vol basketball coach Pat Summitt notched her 300th career victory on the road at Louisiana Tech. Summitt has now fashioned a 301-79 all-time record in hostile arenas - which equates to an amazing 80 percent winning mark on the road in 33 seasons at the helm of the Lady Vols.

SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Candace Parker was tabbed the SEC Player of the Week on Nov. 27, after leading her team to victories over #11-ranked Stanford, 77-60 and Middle Tennessee, 88-64. The Naperville, Ill., native averaged 20.5 points, 9.0 rebounds and 4.0 blocks in the two games. Parker connected on both three-point attempts and made 65 percent of her shots from the field. Additionally, she dished four assists and nabbed six steals in the pair of contests. She also slammed home her second dunk of the 2006-07 season and fourth of her career in the win over the Cardinal. Parker earned the honor for the second time this season.

LEFTOVERS FROM RUSTON

With Tennessee's sloppy 71-50 win over Louisiana Tech, it marked the Lady Vols seventh consecutive victory over the Lady Techsters. The 71 points were the fewest scored by the Lady Vols this season and the 50 points scored by Tech were the fewest of an opponent this season. The UT starting lineup of Cait McMahan, Alexis Hornbuckle, Sidney Spencer, Candace Parker and Nicky Anosike was used for the first time this season. Starting point guard Shannon Bobbitt stayed in Knoxville to take a test. Tennessee's smothering defense forced 10 Lady Techster turnovers in the first nine minutes of the game. The 19 first half turnovers by LTU were the most by a UT opponent this season. UT's halftime lead (+27) was the largest halfway margin since the opening game against Chattanooga (+28). In the bad news department, the smaller Tech squad embarrassed the Lady Vols on the boards with a 46-37 rebounding margin. Individually, Cait McMahan... Got her first career start...Made her first career free throw attempt and earned career-highs in points (7) and rebounds (4)...Alexis Hornbuckle... Extended her streak of games with a steal to 42. She has made at least one steal in 63 of 70 career games. Her six steals against Tech moved her past Kellie Jolly (177) into 20th place in the UT record books for career steals (180). She had four steals in the first eight minutes of the game in Ruston...Candace Parker... Became the eighth Lady Vol of all time to reach the 100-blocks plateau and she reached it in just 42 games. On the first two offensive plays of the game for LTU, Parker blocked both attempts. Her seven blocks tied her own personal-best, tie for the most by ever by a UT sophomore and vaulted her into seventh place in the UT record books for career blocks (103), past Daedra Charles (97), Vonda Ward (98) and Abby Conklin (102). Also, she scored in double figures for the 20th game in a row, the 39th time in her career...Alberta Auguste... The only Lady Vol in history to hail from the state of Louisiana, she played in Ruston, about five hours (340 miles) from her hometown of Marrero, La. Against the Techsters, and in front of a bunch of family from Marrero, she had a career-high eight steals, five of which came in the first half...Sidney Spencer... The first of four Lady Vols to reach double figures, her 10 points marked her seventh consecutive 10+ point game... Dominique Redding... Spencer's senior sidekick had a career-high 13 points on a career-high six field goals.

UT-MTSU BITS & PIECES

Tennessee made 10 three-pointers, tying for the 10th most in program history... All 11 Lady Vols saw playing time... Candace Parker... Scored in double-figures for the fifth time this season and the 19th game in a row dating back to last season and moved into fourth place in career field goal percentage (.462) with her 7-of-9 shooting... Alexis Hornbuckle... Extended her streak of games with a steal to 41 and now has at least one steal in 62 of 69 career games. She moved into a tie for 21st place in the Lady Vol record books with 174 career thefts... Sidney Spencer... Scored in double figures for the fifth time this season, the sixth time in a row dating back to the North Carolina game on March 28, 2006. The streak of six consecutive double-digit scoring outings is the longest of her career. She also made four three-pointers, the most by a Lady Vol this season...Alex Fuller-The first of four Lady Vols to reach double-digits in the game. Her 12 points are a career-high and her two three-pointers tied a career-high...Nicky Anosike-Had a season-high 13 points, marking her 15th career game with a double-digit output. She moved into a tie for 13th place for career blocks and Nicci Moats-Scored her first UT points.

NEW SCHOOL RECORD

Sophomore Candace Parker broke Michelle Snow's school record for most dunks in a career in the game with #11 Stanford on Nov. 24. Parker's one-handed slam with 10:55 left in the first half was the fourth of Parker's career and the second of the season. Snow registered three dunks (1998-2002) during her career. Parker since added a jam against West Virginia on Dec. 20 in Knoxville.

A TALE OF TWO HALVES

After opening games shooting at .613 (UTC), .531 (UCLA), .516 (Arizona St.) - UT had its first stinker in the opening 20 minutes making just 13-31 field goals for a season-low .419 shooting percentage in the first half against Stanford ...UT responded with .609 accuracy in the second half (14-23) for the best second half field goal performance of the season...

UT-STANFORD WRAP-UP

All Lady Vols who played scored...UT missed only one free throw, shooting at a 94.7 percent clip... Individually, Candace Parker... Sank her first three-point attempt of the season, recorded her second dunk of the season, her first career dunk against a ranked opponent, Was the first of two Lady Vols to reach double-figures, Eclipsed the 20-point plateau for the third straight game and the 13th time in her career, Surpassed 700 points for her career, Recorded five blocks, tying for the 10th-most in a single game by a Lady Vol (She now has 93 for her career, moving past Tiffani Johnson (89) and Cindy Noble (91) into 10th place in the Lady Vol record books); Alexis Hornbuckle...Extended her streak of games with a steal to 40. She has made at least one steal in 61 of 68 career game; Sidney Spencer... Scored in double figures for the fourth time this season, the 31st time in her career.

UT LEADS PAC-10 AT 3-0

The Tennessee Lady Vols have finished their Pac-10 slate with a 3-0 record against three ranked teams in consecutive games. During the stretch of wins over #20/21 UCLA, at #11 Arizona State and #11 Stanford in the last week, UT averaged 81.0 ppg and gave up 64.7 ppg for a 16.3 scoring margin. The Lady Vols shot .528 from the field, .455 from three point land and .760 from the line. UT forced the opposition in an average of 23.0 turnovers per game while coming up with 14.0 steals per contest. Individually, Candace Parker tossed in 24.0 ppg, 8.3 rpg and registered two dunks.

FIFTY IS NIFTY

With the victory over Stanford, Tennessee has now claimed 52 victories all-time against teams from the Pac-10. Outside of the Southeastern Conference (365 wins), the Lady Vols have recorded 77 wins over teams from the ACC and 66 victories over BIG EAST Conference schools. The Pac-10 ranks as the fourth most defeated conference by UT.

FIRST MONTH OF THE SEASON: STATE LOVE & PAC-10 EAST

In the first month of the 2006-07 season, the Lady Vols had eight foes scheduled. Three teams hailed from the state of Tennessee as the Lady Vols faced Chattanooga (a 102-72 win), Middle Tennessee (an 88-64 win) and Coach Pat Summitt's alma mater, UT-Martin (a 85-29 win). UT will seem like a member of the Pac-10, eastern division, as the Lady Vols faced three ranked Pac-10 schools in consecutive games: #20/21 UCLA (an 83-60 win), at #11 Arizona State (an 83-74 win) and #11 Stanford (a 77-60 win). Trips to long-standing rival Louisiana Tech (a 71-50 victory) and #2-ranked North Carolina (a 57-70 loss) rounded out the first month of the season.

CANDACE PARKER EARNS SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR

Tennessee sophomore basketball standout Candace Parker was named the SEC Player of the Week (Nov. 13-19) for her performances in wins over #20/21 UCLA (83-60) and at #11 Arizona State (83-74). Last season, Parker received the league's Freshman of the Week honor on four occasions, and the Player of the Week award once during her rookie campaign. In two games, Parker averaged 23.5 points and eight rebounds along with four steals and a pair of blocks. In the game against Arizona State, the Naperville, Ill., native picked up her 11th career double-double and first of the season with 25 points and 10 rebounds. She shot 10-of-15 from the field against UCLA and stayed perfect from the line (2-of-2) for 22 points, six rebounds, two assists, two steals and a block to earn Philips Player of the Game accolades. The scoring occurrences marked the 35th and 36th double figure games in her 39-game career. The match-ups were also the 10th and 11th game with 20 or more points.

LADY VOL SPOILERS

The Lady Vols have enjoyed the role of spoiler snapping long-standing winning streaks on a number of opponent's home floors over the years. On Nov. 19, Tennessee halted Arizona State's 26-game winning streak at Wells Fargo Arena with an 83-74 win. Last season, Stanford had amassed a 23-game winning streak at Maples Pavilion before the Lady Vols grabbed a 74-67 win on Dec. 4, 2005.

FREE THROW WOES

Good thing that the Lady Vols exploded to as much as a 24-point lead against Arizona State. Had Tennessee been forced to rely on relief from the charity stripe down the stretch, it would have been a bad outcome. UT made only 12-21 free throws against the Sun Devils for just 57.1 percent. Candace Parker missed four (7-11), Shannon Bobbitt missed the front end of two 1+1 situations (0-2) and Alex Fuller, uncharacteristically, missed both of her bonus tosses (0-2).

UCLA WAS 370TH WIN VS. RANKED

Tennessee's victory over UCLA improved its record 2-0 on the season and gave the Lady Vols their 370th all-time win over a ranked foe. The Big Orange is now 372-145 in games against Top-25 ranked opposition. At halftime, Lady Vol coach Pat Summitt challenged her team to get off to a quick start in the second half and hunker down on defense. Challenge answered. Tennessee opened the second half with a 10-0 run and UCLA did not score a field goal until 3:55 into the second stanza. Individually: Alexis Hornbuckle...Extended her streak of games with at least one steal to 38 straight contests; Sidney Spencer...The first of three Lady Vols to reach double-figures -- it was the 29th double-digit game of her career; Candace Parker...Scored in double-figures for the 35th time in her 38-game career -- it was her 11th career contest of 20 or more points. No dunks against the Bruins. However, her repertoire of shots was simply amazing; Nicky Anosike...Surpassed the 500-point plateau for her career -- she now has 503 career points and Alex Fuller...Scored a career-high 10.

NEW UNIFORM PATCH

This year, University of Tennessee student-athletes who achieve a 3.0 GPA or better in the classroom have a "VS" patch on their uniform. The "VS" stands for Vol Scholar. Every Lady Vol basketball player (except for the newcomers -- rookies Cait McMahan and Nicci Moats and junior college transfers Alberta Auguste and Shannon Bobbitt) are proudly displaying the patch on their uniform jerseys this season.

THREE 100 POINT GAMES

In the two preseason exhibition tilts and in the first game of the season, the Tennessee Lady Vols registered at least 100 points in all three contests. It marks the first time in program history that a Lady Vol team had tallied triple digits in back-to-back-to-back contests. UT dropped in 102 points against Chattanooga in the season opener and recorded games of 104 points versus Carson-Newman and 101 points against the Houston Jaguars in a pair of exhibition match-ups.

"SOMETHING SPECIAL"

In her first handful of games in a Lady Vol uniform, 5'2" junior point guard Shannon Bobbitt has quickly become a crowd favorite. The diminutive Bobbitt is so quick with the ball, she has left defenders shaking their heads more than once. Hailing from Manhattan, N.Y., Bobbitt earned her hoops rep on some of the toughest courts in the city. The guys at the famed hoops mecca, Rucker Park, nicknamed her "something special." After watching some of her moves in the first two games, a more accurate nickname might be "the ankle breaker."

CANDACE JAMS

dunk they had been waiting to see at Thompson-Boling Arena. On Nov. 12, 2006, with UT leading Chattanooga, 75-43, Parker stole the ball from the Lady Mocs' Brooke Hand near the sideline. The 6-4 forward took off for the other end of the court and slammed the rock in with her right hand with 16:02 left in the game as cheers shook the Arena. The rangy soph brought the crowd to their collective feet in Thompson-Boling Arena again recording her first dunk against a ranked opponent throwing one down at the 10:55 mark in the first half against #11 Stanford on Nov. 24. Parker elected to finger roll a couple of shots last year but never dunked at home. She finally dunked twice as a rookie in the NCAA First Round game versus Army last season. Prior to Parker's dunking exploits, Michelle Snow dunked three times as a Lady Vol. Unfortunately, the dunks occurred on the road at Maui, South Carolina and Vanderbilt. In Snow's final game at Thompson-Boling Arena, she went in to dunk against Notre Dame in the waning seconds of UT's NCAA Second Round victory over the Irish, but she was fouled instead and the dunk never went down. Parker's dunk against #11 Stanford passed Snow for the Lady Vol records for "dunks in a career" with four.

FIRST GAME IMPRESSIONS

The 102-72 win over Chattanooga improves Tennessee to 68-3 in 100-point games...Tennessee made its first six shots of the game from the field and its first 11 free throws...In the first half, the Lady Vols shot a sizzling 60 percent from beyond the arc, connecting on six of 10 attempts...Every Lady Vols saw playing time in the first half... EXHIBITIONISTS I TELL YOU

In two 2006-07 preseason exhibition tilts against Carson-Newman and the Houston Jaguars, the Lady Vols averaged 102.5 ppg while giving up 50.0 ppg. UT connected on 49.7 percent from the field and cashed in on 70.2 percent from the line. UT's defense forced 35.5 turnovers per game and came away with 22.0 steals per outing.

62 INCHES OF DYNAMITE

Lady Vol junior college transfer Shannon Bobbitt is listed at 5'2" and is the shortest player on the roster since Diane Brady donned uniform number 20 for Tennessee during the 1973-75 seasons.

PARKER NAMED TO AP A-A

Lady Vols' Candace Parker was named to yet another preseason All-America team earning the nod from the Associated Press on Nov. 9, 2006. Joining Parker (45 votes) on the team was leading vote getter Courtney Paris of Oklahoma (47 votes out of 50). Also named to the team was North Carolina's Ivory Latta (43), Stanford's Candice Wiggins (35) and Maryland's Crystal Langhorne (28). Parker, the 2006 SEC rookie of the year, is returning for her second season at Tennessee after winning a bronze medal with the U.S. national team at the world championships in Brazil.

WOODEN AWARD NOMINEES

Tennessee Lady Vols Candace Parker and Alexis Hornbuckle were named to the list of 30 preseason candidates for the 2006-07 John R. Wooden Women's Award. Defending national champion and No. 1-ranked Maryland and No. 2-ranked North Carolina placed three athletes each on the list, while Duke, Rutgers and Tennessee each added two players. The 30 candidates are comprised of the top returning players. The award, which is voted on by sports writers and broadcasters, is entering its fourth year.

PARKER UP FOR THE WADE

Lady Vol basketball star Candace Parker has been named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) preseason "Wade Watch" list for The State Farm Wade Trophy Division I Player of the Year for the 2006-2007 season. The list is comprised of 25 student-athletes who are members of an NCAA Division I institution and are selected based on the following criteria: game and season statistics, leadership, character, effect on their team and overall playing ability. The national awards committee who selects these candidates is comprised of leading basketball coaches, journalists and basketball administrators.

TWO LADY VOLS TO BE INDUCTED

The Women's Basketball Hall of Fame announced its ninth group of inductees, the Class of 2007, on Nov. 12, 2006, and former Lady Vol Olympians and All-Americans Bridgette Gordon and Daedra Charles-Furlow were named as two of the six members to be inducted. Joining Gordon and Charles-Furlow are players Andrea Lloyd Curry (University of Texas) and Pam Kelly Flowers (Louisiana Tech); coach Andy Landers (University of Georgia) and sportswriter Mel Greenberg (Philadelphia Inquirer). DAEDRA

CHARLES-FURLOW - The Tennessee great was a two-time National Champion (1989, 1991), two-time Kodak All-American and became the first player from the Southeastern Conference to win the Wade Trophy in 1991; Olympic bronze medalist in 1992. BRIDGETTE GORDON - A Tennessee standout helped to lead the Lady Vols to four NCAA Final Four appearances, winning two national championships (1987 and 1989) and earning the Women's Final Four Most Outstanding Player honor in 1989; one of two collegiate members on the gold-medal winning USA Olympic Team in 1988. Charles-Furlow and Gordon join Coach Pat Summitt (1999), Cindy Noble and Patricia Roberts (2000), Holly Warlick (2001) and Cindy Brogdon (2002) as Tennessee Lady Vol members of the WBHOF. The six individuals in the Class of 2007 will be formally inducted as members of the Hall of Fame during a weekend of induction festivities to be held Friday and Saturday, June 8-9, 2007, in Knoxville, Tenn.

FIRST ACTION FOR "CAITY-MAC"

Lady Vol rookie point guard Cait McMahan saw her first career action in an Orange and White uniform against Chattanooga. "Caity-Mac" entered the game midway through the first half to thunderous cheers from the Tennessee crowd. In her debut, she tossed in four points, grabbed three rebounds and dished two assists. A 5-4 point guard, McMahan missed the first two exhibition games of the season. The feisty freshman had arthroscopic surgery on her right knee on Oct. 20, 2006 by Dr. Greg Mathien, UT team orthopaedist. She was cleared to return to the practice floor on Nov. 6.

FIVE LADY VOL GAMES TO BE STREAMED

The 2006-07 University of Tennessee Lady Vol basketball team already has a record 21 regular season games scheduled for television and five home games have been added for video streaming on utladyvols.com. Tennessee fans will have the opportunity to watch Lady Vol games versus Chattanooga (Sun., Nov. 12), Stanford (Fri., Nov. 24), UT-Martin (Tues., Dec. 5), George Washington (Thurs., Dec. 7) and West Virginia (Wed., Dec. 20) via the internet. Listeners will be able to hear Mickey Dearstone's radio play-by-play while watching the live action from Thompson-Boling Arena. The Yahoo! Sports University of Tennessee School Pass costs $4.95 per month and features: UT football, men's and women's basketball, baseball and "Vol Calls" radio broadcasts as well as the Pat Summitt TV Show, the Phillip Fulmer TV Show and the Bruce Pearl TV Show during the season. An additional option is the College Pass subscription, which includes broadcasts for more than 100+ schools, and costs $9.95 per month.

SEC COACHES MADE PICKS

The Southeastern Conference unveiled its third annual women's basketball preseason All-SEC first and second teams on Oct. 24, 2006. Tennessee led all schools with three selections as sophomore All-American Candace Parker was named to the first team, while Lady Vol juniors Alexis Hornbuckle and Nicky Anosike earned spots on the second team. The preseason All-SEC are voted on by the SEC Head Women's Basketball Coaches.

FOUR TOP PLAYERS INK

University of Tennessee Lady Volunteer Basketball Coach Pat Summitt confirmed that she had received all final paperwork from signees Vicki Baugh, Angie Bjorklund, Kelley Cain and Sydney Smallbone. .

"We are very excited to have signed this outstanding class of student-athletes to come to the University of Tennessee," said Summitt. "Individually and collectively, they are regarded as some of the top prospects in the nation. All four players will be an excellent fit and complement the players on our roster. Our coaching staff and team are thrilled that these talented young women will be wearing Tennessee Orange and White next season," said Summitt.

A number of pollsters who rate signing classes have given Tennessee the nod for the nation's best recruiting class. Ironically, all four players took their official visits to Tennessee on the same weekend. Talented shooters Bjorklund, a 6-0 guard from Spokane Valley, Wash. (University

H.S.), and Smallbone, a 5-9 guard from Granger, Ind. (St. Joseph's H.S.) had committed as juniors. Baugh, a 6-4 forward from Sacramento, Calif. (Sacramento H.S.), and Cain, a 6-6 center from Atlanta, Ga. (St. Pius X H.S.) were sought-after as key frontline players to bolster the Lady Vol attack.

"As a coaching staff, we talked about the fact that this would be the best recruiting class in the country. Certainly one of the reasons that we felt like we wanted to sign (four) in this class was the quality of the players that were in it," said Summitt. "There were times when I was a little concerned because we only brought six people to campus and obviously we signed four. It just worked out."

"We identified our needs in the class," Summitt said. "We felt like if we could get two guards and two frontline players that we could obviously put together a very successful recruiting endeavor, and we did. Each of these players are great, skilled athletes who are capable of playing multiple positions. I love the versatility in each of their games and their hunger to become the very best," Summitt concluded.

STATEN ISLAND, N.Y. • ST. PETER'S FOR GIRLS

2006-07...

- On Feb. 8, named to the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-District IV first team by CoSIDA. Anosike is on pace to graduate in four years with a triple major in sociology and criminal justice, political science, and legal studies. She has a 3.76 cumulative GPA at Tennessee, including a 4.0 mark during the fall term. She picked up third team All-District honors from CoSIDA in 2006.
- Joins Chamique Holdsclaw, Tamika Catchings and Candace Parker as the only four Lady Vols to amass 600+ points, 500+ rebounds, 100+ blocks, 100+ steals and 125+ assists.
- Scored nine points and added as many rebounds against Mississippi.
- Had her fifth double-digit performance of the season with 10 points at Auburn. She added six rebounds and a steal against the Tigers.
- Grabbed six rebounds and eight points against South Carolina.
- Against top-ranked Duke, pulled down 10 rebounds for the second straight game - the longest such streak of her career.
- Grabbed 10 rebounds and offered three assists against Mississippi State for the 11th double-digit rebounding performance of her career.
- After early foul trouble at Georgia, came back to grab seven rebounds and tie for a team-high 14 points, all in just 22 minutes. Earned Philips Player of the Game honors for her efforts against the Lady Bulldogs.
- Against Florida, scored eight points and grabbed six rebounds, two blocks and a steal.
- Foul trouble benched Anosike after just three minutes in the first half, but she came back in the second to score six points and add a crucial three blocks against Connecticut.
- Scored seven points, added five rebounds and three steals in the SEC season opener against Alabama.
- Grabbed six rebounds and eight points against Notre Dame. Surpassed the 100 career blocks plateau with her stuff against the Fighting Irish.
- Tied her season high in blocks with three against Old Dominion, bringing her career total to 99 and moving her into ninth place, past Daedra Charles (97) and Vonda Ward (98) in the record books.
- Pulled down nine rebounds and added two assists and a steal against West Virginia.
- Grabbed eight rebounds and as many points in the win at Texas.
- Named the Philips Player of the Game after recording her first double-double of the season with 15 points and 11 rebounds against George Washington. Went 7-of-9 from the line and added two stuffs.
- Scored 10 points against Tennessee-Martin. Also added three rebounds, two assists and a block.
- Offered great defensive pressure against North Carolina. Also score nine points, grabbed six rebounds, added four assists and three blocks, moving her into a tie for 11th place in the UT record books for career stuffs.
- Poured in a season-high 13 points and added six rebounds in 20 minutes against Middle Tennessee.
- Scored eight points, grabbed seven rebounds and added three blocks against 11th-ranked Stanford.
- Donated a career-high eight assists against Arizona State. Also added eight points and two steals against the Sun Devils.
- Did not miss a shot (3-of-3) against UCLA. Added a team-high seven rebounds against the Bruins to go along with four assists, two blocks and a steal. During the game, she eclipsed the 500-point and 100-steal plateaus for her career.
- Perfect from the field (4-of-4) in the season opener against Chattanooga.

MARRERO, LA. • JOHN EHRET

2006-07...

- In front of 25+ family and friends in her homestate of Louisiana, Auguste sank two free throws in the last seconds at LSU to clinch the game and the SEC regular season title for the Lady Vols.
- Scored seven points and added two rebounds, assists and steals at Auburn.
- Scored in double figures for the second straight game, pouring in ten against South Carolina on Feb. 1. She went 6-of-7 from the charity stripe and picked up five steals in 27 minutes.
- Couldn't miss from the field at Alabama, going 3-of-3 from beyond the arc and 4-of-4 overall. Added two assists and three steals in 18 minutes against the Crimson Tide.
- Her three-pointer with 6.2 seconds left against Duke brought the Lady Vols within two points of the Blue Devils. Added an assist and two rebounds against the nation's No.1-ranked team.
- Scored eight points and grabbed six rebounds against Mississippi State. Also added two steals, two assists and a block in 19 minutes of playing time.
- Against Alabama in the SEC season opener, she reached double figures for the third time this season, scoring 11 points. Added three steals against the Tide.
- Offered a career-high eight assists against Tennessee-Martin. Also added a personal-best six rebounds, two blocks and a steal in 21 minutes.
- Added energy and a strong defensive presences off the bench against North Carolina. Scored four points and added two steals against the Tar Heels.
- Pocketed eight steals against Louisiana Tech, marking a career-high, the most by a Lady Vol this season, and the fourth-most by a Lady Vol in a single-game in program history. Also added 11 points against the Lady Techsters.
- Tallied eight points on a career-high three field goals against Middle Tennessee.
- Scored four points against Stanford and continued her impressive output from the free throw line, connecting on both attempts to increase her free throw percentage for the season to .867.
- Knocked heads with a Sun Devil and received three stitches near her left eye. Connected on all four attempts from the field for nine points. Added five rebounds, two blocks and two steals in 19 minutes against Arizona State.
- Unselfish play against the Bruins gave her five assists in just 20 minutes of action. She added two steals on the defensive end.
- Scored 11 points against Chattanooga in her first regular season game in a Lady Vol uniform. Added two steals and an assist and went a perfect 9-of-9 from the charity stripe, tying the 10th best single-game mark by a Lady Vol.
- In the exhibition game against the Houston Jaguars, Auguste scored nine points, grabbed five rebounds and added two assists in 25 minutes of action.
- Saw a solid 24 minutes of playing time off the bench in the Lady Vols' exhibition game against Carson-Newman on Nov. 1. Scored six points, grabbed six rebounds and offered six assists against the Lady Eagles. Provided solid defense with one block and three steals.
- One of two junior college transfers on this year's roster.
- The only Lady Vol in the history of the program to hail from Louisiana.

2006-07...

- Dished out an SEC-career-high three assists against LSU to help the Lady Vols clinch the SEC regular season title.
- Cait suffered a sprained left elbow in the game against Mississippi on Feb. 15. X-rays revealed that there is no fracture. Further diagnostic testing was performed on Friday, Feb. 16 which determined that there is no structural damage. She will be treated symptomatically on a day-to-day basis.
- Sank an incredible high-flying floater as the clock wound down in the first half against Kentucky. Finished with six points, one rebound and an assist against the Wildcats.
- Drilled a clutch three-pointer as time was winding down in the first half against Georgia. Added three rebounds against the Lady Bulldogs on Feb. 5.
- In a career high 27 minutes against South Carolina, she scored six points and grabbed a steal.
- Offered three points, three assists and two assists against Mississippi State.
- Connected on her only attempt from the floor at Georgia, a lengthy three-pointer.
- Dished out two assists and tied her career high in points (7) against the Gators. Also added a block against Florida.
- Scored six points and made a career-high two free throws against Alabama in the SEC season opener.
- Tied a personal best in assists (4) against West Virginia.
- Drained a three-pointer from six feet beyond the arc against Texas.
- Tallied fours in points, assists and rebounds against Tennessee-Martin.
- Played tough, physical defense against North Carolina. Picked up a steal in seven minutes off the bench.
- Against Louisiana Tech, earned her first career start. Established career highs in points (7), assists (3), rebounds (4) and minutes (24).
- In 15 minutes off the bench against Middle Tennessee, scored two points and added an assist and a steal.
- Scored four points on two driving layups against Stanford. Added two assists and two steals in 20 minutes against the Cardinal.
- Offered an assist and a steal in 13 minutes off the bench against Arizona State.
- At 5'4", she is one of the toughest players on the court. Drew a charge against UCLA that got the crowd to its feet and led to Tennessee's largest lead (29) of the game. Sank two treys and added a block, an assist and a steal in 17 minutes.
- Saw the first action of her collegiate career against Chattanooga in the season opener. Scored four points, handed out two assists and grabbed three boards in 23 minutes.
- Sat out the two exhibition games to give her right knee time to heal from arthroscopic surgery she had on Oct. 20.

Parker by the Dunks...

- 2 vs. Army 3-19-06, Norfolk, Va. (Constant Convocation Center) - Parker's first college dunk came when she took an outlet pass from Sidney Spencer, beat Army's Margaree King down the center of the floor, elevated and dunked with her right hand with 13:47 remaining in the first half. The second, she did with 14:18 left in the contest, working a give-and-go with Nicky Anosike from the right corner, and taking a return pass with a clear path down the baseline. It was the first dunk by a female in NCAA Tournament history and Parker became the first female to dunk twice in a game.
- 1 vs. Chattanooga 11-12-06, Knoxville, Tenn. - With Tennessee leading Chattanooga 75-43 in the second half, Parker stole the ball from Brooke Hand near the sideline, dribbled to the other end of the court and slammed it in with her right hand with 16:01 remaining for the first ever female dunk in Thompson-Boling Arena.
- 1 vs. #11 Stanford 11-24-06, Knoxville, Tenn. - Stanford cut the UT lead to 13-11, then Parker stole a cross-court pass and took off for the wide-open basket at the other end, jamming the ball in with her right hand with 10:55 remaining in the first half. It was her first dunk against a ranked opponent.
- 1 vs. West Virginia 12-20-06, Knoxville, Tenn. - Parker got a steal and jammed it with one hand on a breakaway with 12:54 left in the first half to put UT up, 20-4. She was whistled for a technical for popping her jersey afterwards. The dunk came almost exactly 22 years after WVU's Georgeann Wells recorded the first female collegiate dunk on Dec. 21, 1984.
- 1 vs. #5 Connecticut 1-6-07, Hartford, Conn. (Hartford Civic Center) - Parker's first road-game dunk came at the hands of arch rival Connecticut after a Sidney Spencer steal found Parker open and alone down the court. The slam put UT up, 45-29 with 18:18 left in the game.

Noteworthy...

- Parker's two dunks against Army were the first ever by a female in an NCAA Tournament game and marked the only two-slam performance in a collegiate contest by a female.
- Parker's four dunks this campaign mark the most in a single-season by any female
- Parker's six career dunks are the most ever by a female collegian.

Note: Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks has dunked twice in WNBA games 2006-07...

- On Feb. 8, named to the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-District IV second team by CoSIDA after scoring a perfect 4.0 in the fall semester. Spencer boasts a cumulative 3.75 GPA and is pursuing a major in sports management. She makes time to volunteer in the greater Knoxville community on a weekly basis and has been named a member of the 2007 SEC Good Works Team. Spencer earned third team All-District honors from CoSIDA in 2006.
- Needs just 24 points to become the 31st Lady Vol with 1,000 career tallies.
- Scored 12 points and was perfect from three-point land against Kentucky. Also added five rebounds, two assists and two steals against the Wildcats.
- Grabbed a career-high-tying nine rebounds against South Carolina on Feb. 1. Improved to third place in the UT annals for career free throw percentage, going 4-of-4 from the line against the Gamecocks.
- In front of 50+ family and friends in her home state of Alabama, scored 10 points and grabbed six rebounds in 34 minutes of playing time.
- Named the Philips Player of the game for her career-high 26 points against Vanderbilt. Also added seven rebounds and was a perfect 6-of-6 from the charity stripe against the Commodores.
- Scored 13 points and grabbed four rebounds against Duke.
- Led the team against Mississippi State with 18 points, seven rebounds, three assists and two steals. Named the Philips Player of the Game for her efforts.
- Matched her career highs in field goals (8), three-pointers (5) and points (21) at Florida.
- Continued her ascent in the UT annals, moving to eighth place for career threes (104) against Connecticut. Finished with career-bests in steals (3) and rebounds (9). Also added 14 points and made both free throws when the Connecticut bench was called for a technical in the first half.
- Moved into a tie for 10th place in the UT record books for career three-pointers (101) with her trey against Alabama.
- Got back on track from beyond the arc against Notre Dame, connecting for three treys en route to 17 points and seven rebounds.
- Did not score a three-pointer against West Virginia or Old Dominion, the only two times this season where she has not connected from beyond the arc.
- Named the CAREacter Star Athlete of the Week Dec. 18 for her good character on and off the court.
- Led the Lady Vols with 15 points against Texas. Added a season-high eight rebounds against the Longhorns. Earned Philips Player of the Game honors for her performance.
- Matched her career high in points (21) and treys (5) against George Washington. Added four rebounds and a steal in 28 minutes. Eleven of her points came in a two and a half minute stretch.
- Poured in 13 points on 3-of-4 shooting from three-point land against Tennessee-Martin.
- Drained both attempted three-pointers against Louisiana Tech for 10 points, a block and a steal in 22 minutes of action.
- Sank a then-season-high four treys on her way to 16 points against Middle Tennessee.
- Drilled a crucial three-pointer to squelch a Stanford run on Nov. 24. Finished the game with 10 points and five

EXHIBITION GAME: CARSON-NEWMAN

The University of Tennessee Lady Vol basketball team opened the season with a 104-49 exhibition win over Carson-Newman at Thompson-Boling Arena on Wed., Nov. 1. Junior Alexis Hornbuckle was among six Lady Vols in double-digit scoring as she tossed in a team-leading 21 points and added seven assists and five steals, all in 29 minutes of action. Senior Dominique Redding added 20 points on nine of 11 shooting, while Nicky Anosike dropped in 18 and Candace Parker added a dozen. Junior college transfer Shannon Bobbitt and sophomore Alex Fuller added 11 each. All dressed Lady Vols saw playing time and nine different athletes scored. Former manager Elizabeth Curry scored in her first game in a Lady Vol uniform. The Lady Vols forced 36 Lady Eagle turnovers, six shy of the all-time record of 42. The Big Orange were a smoking 43-of-73 from the field, including 4-of-9 from beyond the arc. "I told our team that we did a lot of good things tonight," said Lady Vol head coach Pat Summitt. "Shannon did a great job at the point, pushing the tempo. We established our inside game and that was a priority for us. It was good to see our team be as aggressive defensively as we thought we would be. I liked what I saw, but we can still get better." Tonight's win marked the 16th consecutive victory over an exhibition opponent. Tennessee is now 30-3 in home exhibition tilts. The Lady Vols have crossed the century mark the last three years in exhibition games against Carson-Newman. Tennessee improves to 17-2 all-time against the visitors from Jefferson City, Tenn. Three of those wins have come in exhibition contests.

GAME 1: CHATTANOOGA

Candace Parker recorded the first female dunk in Thompson-Boling Arena history and the fifth-ranked Lady Vols opened the season with a 102-72 win over Chattanooga on Nov. 12. Parker had the third dunk of her career, in the second half after Tennessee was well ahead. The Lady Mocs (1-1) were in the game early, but a long run by Tennessee in the first half put the game out of reach. The Lady Vols were hot offensively, shooting 33-of-57 from the field. Tennessee fans were focusing on the Lady Vols debuting four new players, including junior college transfer Shannon Bobbitt at point guard, when Parker stunned the crowd with the slam. With Tennessee ahead 75-43, the pre-season All-American stole the ball from Chattanooga's Brooke Hand. Parker dribbled to the other end of the court and slammed it in with her right hand. Alexis Hornbuckle led the Lady Vols with 19 points, and Parker added 15. Another juco transfer, Alberta Auguste, added 13, Bobbitt had 12, Dominique Redding 11 and Sidney Spencer 10. Hand scored 20 for Chattanooga, going 6-of-13 from beyond the 3-point line. As a team, the Lady Mocs sank 13 treys, the most ever allowed by a Pat Summitt-coached squad. UTC cut it to 25-19 with 10:55 remaining before halftime. But Parker rebounded her own miss and started a three-point play, and the Lady Vols were off on a 22-2 run. Chattanooga went scoreless for nearly 4 minutes during the run. Bobbitt had a layup that capped the run and put Tennessee ahead 47-21 with 5:25 remaining before halftime. Chattanooga had four turnovers in the first minute of the second half, and Tennessee increased its lead to 65-31. In addition to a career-high tying 19 points, Hornbuckle pocketed a personal-best seven steals and two three-pointers.

GAME 2: UCLA

Candace Parker scored 22 points, Sidney Spencer added 15 and fifth-ranked Tennessee pulled away from No. 20 UCLA in the second half to win 83-60 on Nov. 16. The Lady Vols (2-0) began the second half with a 10-0 run that increased their lead to 52-32 with 16:17 left. Parker scored twice inside during the spurt and UT's momentum during the three and a half minutes forced two UCLA timeouts. The Bruins (1-1), who dropped to 1-15 all-time against Tennessee, shot the ball well most of the game but could not overcome 26 turnovers. Noelle Quinn, who led the Bruins in scoring last year, had 20 points. She scored 13 in the first half and was held without a field goal after halftime until the 5:49 mark. By that time the Lady Vols were already ahead by 27. Alex Fuller added a career-high 10 points for Tennessee. The Bruins had trouble keeping up with Tennessee's fast-paced style. Lindsey Pluimer, who had a career-high 23 points in the team's opener a week before, had 17 points against the Lady Vols, 13 of which came in the first half. Tennessee grabbed the lead early after UCLA had four turnovers in the first 3 1/2 minutes. The Lady Vols pushed their lead to as many as 17 in the opening stanza, but the Bruins kept chipping away. Tennessee freshman Cait McMahan, already a fan favorite because she is from nearby Maryville, hit back-to-back 3s to push the lead to 24 with 12:08 to go. Tennessee held as much as a 29-point lead with 6:33 left in the game. Tennessee coach Pat Summitt started pulling starters early in the second half as ten Lady Vols saw action, nine of whom scored. The teams were playing for the first time since 1999. UCLA's lone win in the series was in 1981. With the win, UT improved to 370-145 in games involving ranked teams.

EXHIBITION GAME: HOUSTON JAGUARS

The fifth-ranked Tennessee Lady Vol basketball team defeated the Houston Jaguars, 101-51, on Nov. 5 in the final home exhibition contest of the year. Four orange-clad players scored in double figures, led by double-doubles from sophomores Candace Parker and Alex Fuller. Parker went 10-of-12 from the charity stripe and finished with 18 points, 10 rebounds and five steals. Fuller led all scorers with 20 points, 15 boards and three steals in just 24 minutes of action. Seniors Sidney Spencer and Dominique Redding finished with 19 and 10 tallies, respectively. The Lady Vols led 45-27 at the break despite shooting just 37.2 percent (compared to Houston's 47.6%) from the field. Tennessee turned things around in the second half by shooting 46.2 percent to outscore the Jaguars, 56-24, over the final 20 minutes of action. Parker's two free-throws started a 26-4 Lady Vol run that stretched over the first eight minutes of the second frame. For the game, the Big Orange held a considerable rebounding margin, grabbing 56 boards to Houston's 31. Tennessee made only 14 turnovers, and picked up 21 steals. Tennessee improves to 42-10 in exhibition tilts all-time, including a 31-3 mark at home. The Lady Vols have reached the century scoring mark in five of the last six exhibition games. Fuller put the Lady Vols over 100 points on a layup with six seconds remaining in the game. In the two exhibition games this week, Tennessee outscored opponents 205-100 and forced a combined 71 turnovers on 44 steals. The Big Orange shot 49.7 percent from the field and held nearly a 13-rebound margin over Carson-Newman and Houston. Fuller averaged a double-double (15.5 ppg, 11.4 rpg), while Redding, Parker, Alexis Hornbuckle, Nicky Anosike and Spencer averaged double-figures.

GAME 3: ARIZONA STATE

No. 5 Tennessee used its pressure defense to spark a couple of key runs to snap Arizona States 26-game home win streak on Nov. 19. Candace Parker scored 25 points and grabbed 10 rebounds to lead the Lady Volunteers past the 11th-ranked Sun Devils 83-74. Emily Westerberg had 21 points and six rebounds to lead the Sun Devils (4-1) but picked up her fourth foul with 12:58 left in the middle of a UT run. With Westerberg out Tennessee ran off 10 straight points to take a 77-53 lead with 8:29 left. Sidney Spencer added 18 points and surpassed the 700-point and 100-assist plateaus for her career. Junior Alexis Hornbuckle chipped in 13 tallies for Tennessee, and added five assists and four steals to lead her team past its second straight ranked Pac-10 opponent this week. The only thing that troubled Tennessee on Sunday was fouls. Five Lady Vols finished with three or more fouls. Reagan Pariseau was 4-of-5 from the field and scored 15 points for the Sun Devils. Briann January added 14 points and six assists for Arizona State, which had won its first four games by an average of 31.5 points. Tennessee shot 34-of-62 from the field and outrebounded the Sun Devils 36-29. The double-double was Parker's first of the season, the 11th of her career. The sophomore sensation had 18 points and seven rebounds in the first half as the Big Orange headed into the lockerroom with a 42-38 lead. Nicky Anosike donated a career-high eight assists and sank both of her free throws. Alberta Auguste connected on all four shots from the field and offered two blocks and two steals before taking a blow to the head which we required stitches on the sideline. With the win, UT improved to 361-145 all-time in games involving ranked opponents and head coach Pat Summitt picked up career win No. 916.

GAME 4: STANFORD

Candace Parker scored 25 points, including her fourth career dunk, to help the fourth-ranked Lady Vols beat No. 11 Stanford 77-60 on Nov. 24. The Lady Vols (4-0) built a lead and gained momentum in the first half when Parker dunked and made her first 3-pointer of the season. Although UT took an early lead, Stanford and star freshman center Jayne Appel made the Lady Vols work to stay ahead. The Cardinal (2-2) cut the lead to nine twice late in the second half, and Tennessee answered with 3-pointers. The second time, Appel got an easy basket that trimmed it to 56-47 with 8:02 remaining, and Tennessee's Sidney Spencer hit a 3 at the other end. The teams traded baskets before the Lady Vols pulled away with a quick 6-0 run on a jumper by Parker and four free throws by Alexis Hornbuckle to make it 69-51. The Cardinal could get no closer the rest of the way en route to its 11 straight loss to Tennessee. Spencer finished with 10 points. Parker added nine rebounds, five blocks and four steals, but she was the only Lady Vol to miss a free throw as Tennessee shot 94.7 percent from the line. Appel had a season-high 23 points off the bench in her best outing so far while the Cardinal's veteran post players struggled with Tennessee's defense. Leading scorer Brooke Smith was held to four points, and Kristen Newlin had two. Two-time Pac-10 player of the year Candice Wiggins added 18 points - 12 in the second half - and reserve Jillian Harmon scored 10 for Stanford. The first half ended appropriately with another highlight play after several before the break. After Spencer hit a 3 with 3.6 seconds remaining, Wiggins threw the ball from about 50 feet and it went in at the buzzer to make it 35-28. With the win, Tennessee extended its winning streak over the Cardinal to 11 games and it's lead in the overall series to 19-4.

GAME 5: MIDDLE TENNESSEE

Candace Parker and Sidney Spencer each scored 16 points and No. 4 Tennessee beat Middle Tennessee 88-64 on Nov. 26. The Lady Vols (5-0) built a big lead in the first half by shooting 63 percent - 21-of-33 from the field. Parker left the game in the second half with a knee injury after falling on the court while several players were going after a loose ball. She sat on the bench the rest of the game with her right knee wrapped in ice. The Blue Raiders (3-3) opened the season by nearly knocking off defending national champion Maryland but lost 80-76. They struggled to keep up with Tennessee. Nicky Anosike added 13 points for the Lady Vols, and reserve Alex Fuller added a career-high 12 points while playing in front of high school coach Rick Insell, who now coaches Middle Tennessee. Spencer was 4-of-6 from 3-point range. Parker added nine rebounds. Chrissy Givens led Middle Tennessee with 26 points. Middle Tennessee cut the lead to 19 at the beginning of the second half on Givens' 3 but could not get any closer. After Parker went out with 13:18 left, Anosike scored six straight points to increase the lead to 71-41. The Blue Raiders were ahead 10-5 in the early minutes, but Tennessee started forcing turnovers and took the lead 14-13 on Alexis Hornbuckle's first steal and pull-up jumper. The junior from Charleston, W. Va., recorded her 41st consecutive game with a steal. The Lady Vols later pulled away with a 10-0 run fueled by baskets from Alberta Auguste and Parker off Blue Raiders' turnovers. Tennessee led 49-27 at the break and out-rebounded the visitors 38 to 22. The Lady Vols, who own a 15-0 lead in the series with MTSU, sank 10 shots from three-point territory, tying for the 10th-most in a game by a UT squad.

GAME 6: LOUISIANA TECH

Louisiana Tech had no answer for Tennessee's defensive pressure as the fourth-ranked Lady Vols forced 19 turnovers in the first half and beat longtime rival Louisiana Tech 71-50 on Nov. 28. The Lady Techsters and the Lady Vols are the only two teams to reach the NCAA Tournament all 25 years of its existence. Tennessee now holds a 22-17 edge in the 39-game series and has claimed each of the last seven meetings. Dominique Redding led Tennessee with a career high 13 points. Alberta Auguste added 11 points and eight steals while Sidney Spencer had 10 points on perfect shooting from beyond the arc. Auguste's eight thefts tie for the fourth most single-game steals by a UT player. Alexis Hornbuckle forced six steals and grabbed eight rebounds on the night. The Lady Vols (6-0) built a 42-15 halftime advantage and cruised the rest of the game. Tech's combination of turnovers and poor shooting (6-of-28) in the first 20 minutes of play were simply too much to overcome as Tennessee jumped out to an early lead and never looked back. Candace Parker had 10 points, eight rebounds and seven blocked shots - five in the first half. She reached the 100-block plateau for her career on her fourth stuff, becoming one of only eight all-time Lady Vols to accomplish that feat. Tennessee knocked away ten LTU shot attempts, tying the ninth-most single-game blocks by a UT team. Even when the Lady Vols weren't blocking shots they were forcing altered shots as Tech hit just 30 percent from the field (18-of-61) for the game. The Lady Techster turnover and shooting percentage marks were the worst by a UT opponent this season. On the plus side, Tech outrebounded Tennessee 46-37, including 23 on the offensive glass. Down by 27 at the half, the Lady Techsters came out and outscored Tennessee 35-29 over the final 20 minutes of action. The Lady Vols shot 57.1 percent from the line, tying their worst clip of the season.

GAME 7: NORTH CAROLINA

Tennessee suffered its first loss of the season Dec. 3 at the hands of second-ranked North Carolina, 70-57. Candace Parker recorded her 12th career double-double, pouring in 27 points and grabbing 10 boards to go along with four blocks and three steals. The Lady Vols fell to 6-1 with the loss, while North Carolina improved to 8-0 on the season. Erlana Larkins had 17 points and 12 rebounds to lead the Tar Heels. Prior to the game, the Lady Vols were 3-0 in games against ranked teams in 2006-07. North Carolina outrebounded the Lady Vols 43-33. Tennessee, which entered shooting 48 percent from 3-point range, was just 3-of-11 from beyond the arc, but offered incredible defensive pressure, forcing 24 UNC turnovers. The Lady Vols trailed at the half for the first time all season but a quick run to start the second period tied the game at 30. North Carolina answered with nine straight points and the Lady Vols never got back closer than within three. Nicky Anosike made it a three-point game midway through the second half. She finished with six rebounds, nine points, four assists and three blocks. UNC's Ivory Latta was held in check by strong defensive performances from UT point guards Shannon Bobbitt and Cait McMahan. Alexis Hornbuckle grabbed six rebounds, added four assists and four steals, extending her streak of games with a theft to 43. Several good lucks at the basket rimmed out of Tennessee's favor, as the squad finished 21-of-58 from the field.

GAME 8: TENNESSEE-MARTIN

The fourth-ranked Lady Vols defeated Tennessee-Martin 85-29 on Dec. 5 to improve to 7-1 on the season. Candace Parker led the way with her third double-double of the season. She had 17 points and 11 rebounds in just 22 minutes of action and remained perfect from three-point range on the year. Sidney Spencer got back on track with her shooting and went 3-of-4 from beyond the arc. She finished with 13 points and three rebounds. Nicky Anosike added 10 for UT. Off the bench, Alex Fuller offered a career-high 14 tallies in just 16 minutes on "The Summit". Newcomers Elizabeth Curry and Nicci Moats made their first career field goals and all 11 Lady Vols scored in the routing. Tennessee opened the game on an 18-0 run and never looked back. The Lady Vols had only nine turnovers, their best mark of the season. Pressure defense frustrated the Skyhawks, who shot just 20.4 percent from the field. The Lady Vols forced four Martin shot clock violations, two in each half. Martin's offensive struggles etched themselves in the Lady Vol record books as their first half point total (13) tied for the seventh fewest in an opening period by an opponent, their second half score (16) and final score (29) tied for the fourth fewest by an opponent in Lady Vol history. The win increased the Lady Vols' lead in the UTM series to 13-2. Martin has not beaten Knoxville since Pat Summitt played for her alma mater.

GAME 9: GEORGE WASHINGTON

Tennessee defeated George Washington 85-62 on Dec. 7 to improve to 8-1 on the season. The Lady Vols have never lost to the Colonials, boasting an 8-0 all-time record in the series. Sidney Spencer led the team with a career-high-tying 21 points and five three-pointers. Eleven of her points came in a two and half minute spurt. Nicky Anosike had her first double-double of the season with 15 points and 11 rebounds and was an impressive 7-of-9 from the line. Candace Parker was one rebound shy of her third consecutive double-double. She finished with 19 points and nine boards. Alexis Hornbuckle poured in 14 points and dished out a season-best seven assists. Her assist-to-turnover ratio continues to improve as she did not register a throwaway in 35 minutes of action. Additionally, she extended her streak of games with a steal to 45. Nicci Moats pocketed a personal-best four points in just three minutes. She also recorded two rebounds and a block in that time. The Lady Vols shot 48 percent from the field and 82 percent from the line. Tennessee held a substantial rebounding margin, doubling the output of the Colonials, 40-20. Big Orange committed a season-low nine personal fouls, compared to George Washington's 21. Pat Summitt's squad turned 28 free throw opportunities into 23 points. UT struggled defensively, recording a season-low nine steals and allowing GW to shoot 57.1 percent from beyond the arc. In the end it was Spencer's deadly three-pointers (5-of-8) that carried Tennessee to it's fourth victory over a ranked opponent this season.

GAME 10: TEXAS

The Lady Vols used a second half surge to take down No. 23 Texas, 67-46, at the Erwin Center on Dec. 17 to improve to 9-1 on the season. In the first half, neither team could buy a basket. The Lady Vols were missing easy shots, committing turnovers and hanging on to a nine-point lead. In the opening minutes of the second half, the tides changed, as two quick baskets from Candace Parker and a flurry of 3-pointers by Sidney Spencer and Shannon Bobbitt paved the way for the 21-point routing. The margin of victory tied the largest ever by a Lady Vol squad in Austin. Spencer scored 15 points on 3-of-4 shooting from beyond the arc. Parker completed just five of 15 attempts but finished with 12 points and as many rebounds for her fourth double-double of the season. In just her 1100th game, Pat Summitt picked up career victory No. 922. Ironically, Texas coach Jody Conradt is in second place in the wins column with 889. Tennessee had lost four in a row in this rivalry between the traditional women's powers before winning the last two by an average of 31 points. Tennessee led 27-18 at halftime despite shooting just 31.4 percent. The Lady Vols used 57.1 percent shooting, including 62.5 percent from three-point territory to outscore the Longhorns 40-28 in the final 20 minutes. Texas (7-3), which came in off a 28-point loss at Duke a week earlier, missed a chance to take advantage of the Lady Vols' 11-of-35 shooting in the first half that included a 1-of-8 effort by Parker, Tennessee's leading scorer. The home team shot 22 percent in the first period and managed just 30.8 percent for the game. Parker and the Lady Vols made up for poor shooting on the defensive end, shutting down Texas' Tiffany Jackson with constant double- and triple-teams in the middle and halfcourt traps on Longhorns guards. Jackson finished with eight points on 2-of-13 shooting. Texas' 18 points tied for the third-lowest mark in a first half in school history.

GAME 11: WEST VIRGINIA

Candace Parker scored 19 points and Alexis Hornbuckle added 18 to lift No. 5 Tennessee to a 66-51 win over West Virginia on Dec. 20. With the win, UT remains perfect against the Mountaineers (5-0) in its first meeting with the visitors since 1986. Pat Summitt improves to 923-178 all-time and her 2006-07 squad moved to 10-1 with the win tonight. Parker dunked for the third time this season and the fifth of her career. She popped her jersey after the slam, drawing a technical foul as the Lady Vols were building a big lead in the first half. She had 13 points and eight boards by halftime and finished with 19 and 10, respectively, for her second consecutive double-double. Hornbuckle picked it up in the second half, scoring 11 points after the break. She made a career high four three pointers on 4-of-6 shooting from beyond the arc. The Mountaineers (7-5), who led only once after scoring the first basket of the game, cut the lead to eight early in the second half. But Shannon Bobbitt hit one of her two three-pointers of the game and Parker scored to push the lead to 40-27. Ranisha White led West Virginia with a career-high 16 points, while Olayinka Sanni had 10. LaQuita Owens added nine points and nine rebounds. The Mountaineers had 24 turnovers off of 11 Lady Vol thefts and shot only 35 percent (19-of-54) from the field. Tennessee jumped out to a 20-4 lead capped by Parker's dunk with 12:56 remaining. The Lady Vols went up by as many as 20, but West Virginia had a 7-0 run that made it 27-16 with 6:59 before halftime. Tennessee led by nine (32-23) going into the break. For the first time all season, Sidney Spencer failed to make a three-pointer. Nicky Anosike had nine rebounds and Cait McMahan tied a personal best with four assists.

GAME 12: OLD DOMINION

Candace Parker had 32 points and 10 rebounds and No. 5 Tennessee overcame a stiff defensive test from longtime rival Old Dominion on Dec. 22 in its last game before the holiday break. The 75-59 UT victory was the 11th straight in the series and improved Summitt's teams to 31-9 against the Lady Monarchs. The victory was also the fifth in a row this season for the Lady Vols. The double-double was the sixth of the season for Parker. Alex Fuller contributed a solid eight points, seven rebounds, four assists and two steals in a career-high-tying 28 minutes on the floor. Shannon Bobbitt connected on 3-of-5 attempts from beyond the arc and finished with 13 points and an assist. Alexis Hornbuckle and Parker combined for a perfect 14-of-14 from the charity stripe to lead the Lady Vols to an 85 percent mark from the line for the game. Hornbuckle scored 10 points, had six assists and four steals and rebounds on the night, extending her streak of games with at least one steal to 48. Tennessee led 38-33 at halftime and didn't move comfortably in front until Parker's three-point play and jumper sparked an 11-2 run to give the Lady Vols a 58-45 lead. The Lady Monarchs closed within 10 twice shortly thereafter, but Tennessee finally pulled away, using a significant height advantage and more depth to wear out ODU. Sherida Triggs led the Lady Monarchs with 13 points, and T.J. Jordan had 11, all in the first half. Old Dominion forced 18 turnovers, but committed 24. For the fourth time this season, UT fell short in the boards war, 34-30. The game drew a crowd of 7,108, the third-largest for a women's game at the Constant Convocation Center. Before the game, Tennessee coach Pat Summitt took part in a ceremony to present Old Dominion coach Wendy Larry with the game ball from her 500th career victory.

GAME 13: NOTRE DAME

Tennessee shook off poor shooting in the first half to defeat Notre Dame 78-54 on Dec. 30 in the last game of the year 2006. With the win the Lady Vols improved to 12-1 on the season and 18-0 all-time against the Fighting Irish. Thirty-four percent shooting in the opening period held UT to 29 points, two more than its opponent at the break. Tennessee went on several scoring runs in the second half, outscoring ND 49-27 in the last 20 minutes. Candace Parker had 22 points, 10 rebounds and five blocks and Shannon Bobbitt had a season-high 17 points on 5-of-7 shooting from three-point territory. Sidney Spencer added 17 points and three treys, including the 100th of her career. The Lady Vols had 12 blocks, tying the second most by a UT team in program history. Tennessee led the entire first half but never by more than eight points. Alexis Hornbuckle hit a 15-footer in transition with 4:11 left to give the Lady Vols a 27-19 lead, but Notre Dame finished the half with an 8-2 run, closing to within 29-27. Hornbuckle finished with six assists, four steals and personal best three blocks. Tennessee had 34 points off 29 Notre Dame turnovers. UT had 12 giveaways at the break but only three in the second stanza. The Lady Vols opened the second half with an 11-2 run, taking a 40-29 lead on Spencer's two free throws with 16:25 left. Bobbitt, who hit four 3-pointers in the first 10 minutes of the second half, scored eight straight points in a span of 26 seconds to extend the lead to 26 points. She hit a 3-pointer with 10:38 left, made two foul shots after being intentionally fouled by Tulyah Gaines on a drive, and hit another 3-pointer with 10:12 to play for a 64-38 lead with 10:12 left. That came during a 22-2 run by the Lady Vols, who rolled to the victory in the last 10 minutes. Tennessee trailed in the rebounding war by one (40-39), but held ND to 35 percent shooting in the second half to secure the victory.

GAME 14: ALABAMA

Fourth-ranked Tennessee improved to 13-1 on the year with a 72-36 victory over Alabama on Jan. 3. The Tide fell to the Lady Vols for the 31st straight game and dropped to 10-6 on the season. Candace Parker led Tennessee with 15 points and a career-best five steals. Alberta Auguste added 11 as she reached double digits for the third time this season. Alexis Hornbuckle had seven assists, five rebounds and eight points and extended her streak of games with a steal to 50 with her four thefts in the contest. The Lady Vols jumped out to an early lead and held Alabama to just 14 first half points. That total tied the ninth fewest by an opponent in UT program history, ironically tying Alabama's previous 14-point performance on Feb. 6, 2000. The Big Orange led by as many as 30 in the opening minutes of the second half as Alabama could not keep pace with the speed of Tennessee. Eight Lady Vols saw 20+ minutes of playing time as coach Pat Summitt was able to rely on her bench. Parker had 10 points in the first half and was 7-of-14 from the floor. She didn't play much after halftime. Sidney Spencer moved into a tie for 10th place in the UT record books for career three-pointers (101) during the game. The Lady Vols were out-rebounded 34-32 but forced 35 Alabama turnovers. It was the most turnovers by a UT opponent this season and the most since Tennessee-Martin coughed up the ball 35 times on Nov. 19, 1999. The crowd of 11,966 was fairly reserved until Cait McMahan had an acrobatic basket. She dribbled behind her back and then scooped the ball around Alabama's 6-foot-4 Courtney Strauthers and into the basket late in the second half and the fans erupted. That was not the only exciting play, as earlier Auguste scored when she inbounded the ball to herself by bouncing it off the back of an Alabama player. The Lady Vols now lead the all-time series with Alabama 38-2.

GAME 15: CONNECTICUT

Candace Parker left an emphatic mark on Tennessee's storied rivalry with Connecticut when she dunked in the Hartford Civic Center on Jan. 6 in UT's 70-64 victory over the Huskies. Parker scored 30 points, including the sixth dunk of her career, grabbed 12 rebounds and blocked six shots to help No. 4 Tennessee hold off fifth-ranked Connecticut for the third consecutive time in the series. Sidney Spencer added 14 points for the Lady Vols and Shannon Bobbitt made three straight three-pointers in the first half to propel the Big Orange to a 12-point half time lead. The dunk was Parker's fourth of the season and came with 18:20 left in the second half, giving Tennessee a 45-29 lead. The slam seemed to ignite Connecticut, which went on a 11-15 spurt to tie the game at 60 with 4:04 left. Spencer answered with a 3-pointer to give Tennessee a 63-60 edge with 3:40 left. After drawing an offensive foul on Brittany Hunter, Parker scored on a driving layup to just beat the shot clock and extend the lead to five. The game got off to a slow start with both teams struggling from the field. Auriemma was given a technical after an offensive foul on Tina Charles with 7:20 left in the first half and the Lady Vols leading 20-17. Tennessee maintained a 26-24 edge with 4:13 left before closing the half on a 15-5 run, spurred on by Shannon Bobbitt and Parker. Parker had 15 points, seven rebounds and four blocks in the first half. The Lady Vols were out-rebounded (44-40) shot just 37 percent from the field (UConn shot 43%), but used 10 blocks and just 10 miscues to fend off the Huskies.

GAME 16: FLORIDA

Sidney Spencer scored 21 points and Candace Parker added 19 to lead the fourth-ranked Lady Vols to their ninth straight win, 80-58 over the Gators on Jan. 11 at the O'Connell Center in Gainesville. Spencer's points and three-pointers (5) both matched career highs. Alexis Hornbuckle fell one rebound shy of the first triple-double in Lady Vol history. She had 10 assists and 10 points en route to becoming just the eighth all-time UT player to earn a double-double in points and assists. Ironically, the last one came at the hands of Florida, when 2006 UT graduate Shanna Zolman scored 22 points and added 10 assists on Feb. 26, 2006. Cait McMahan and Alex Fuller offered career-highs in points (7) and rebounds (8), respectively. Tennessee raced out to a 25-0 lead, getting four 3-pointers from Spencer in the first 10:40 of the game. Marshae Dotson got Florida's first points with a short jumper with 12:19 left in the half. It was the second longest opening drought by a UT opponent this season, as on Dec. 5, Tennessee Martin did not score until the clock read 11:44. Tennessee extended its lead to 43-9 with 4:47 left in the half before Florida responded with a 17-1 run heading into halftime. The Lady Vols shot 60 percent from beyond the arc in the opening stanza to lead 44-26 at the half. The Big Orange held the rebounding advantage, 46-42, but struggled from the charity stripe, shooting a season-worst 41.7% from the line. All Lady Vols who stepped on the court played 15+ minutes as UT went on to increase its lead in the Florida series, 35-2.

GAME 17: GEORGIA

No. 4 Tennessee knocked off another ranked team, this time with a stifling defensive performance. On an off day for Candace Parker, the Lady Vols held No. 15 Georgia to its fewest points since 1974 in a 52-41 victory on January 14. Alexis Hornbuckle and Nicky Anosike scored 14 points each for Tennessee which has beaten seven ranked teams this season - four of them on the road. Georgia shot only 32 percent from the field (15-of-47) and had just one player in double figures, Christy Marshall with 12 points. The last time Georgia was held to fewer points was a 48-31 loss to Berry on Feb. 15, 1974 - the debut season of a women's basketball program in Athens. Parker was held to 10 points on 4-of-13 shooting, but two teammates picked up the slack, with Hornbuckle making a couple of key 3-pointers and Anosike dominating on the inside against Georgia's 6-foot-5 freshman, Angel Robinson. After early foul trouble, Anosike came back to score 12 points in the second half to help the Lady Vols pull away. Alex Fuller grabbed a career-best eight rebounds and Shannon Bobbitt used incredible defensive pressure to pick-pocket the Lady Bulldogs five times. Tennessee had 12 steals on the night, compared to just five by Georgia. Key for UT was three-point defense, as the Big Orange forced Georgia to just seven percent accuracy from beyond the arc. UGA never led, and head coach Andy Landers was forced to call a quick timeout when Tennessee jumped on top 10-2. Georgia made a couple of runs in the second half, but the Lady Vols answered each time. Georgia owned the rebounding advantage, 36-33, but 18 of UT's boards came on the offensive end. Tennessee 18 second chance points and 16 points off Georgia's 19 turnovers. In the game, Anosike surpassed 500 rebounds for her career and Sidney Spencer became just the fifth Lady Vol of all time to amass 400+ rebounds and 100+ three-point field goals. Tennessee won it's fifth straight over the black and red and improved to 37-14 in the overall series. The 52 points tie the fifth fewest scored by a UT team in program history.

GAME 18: MISSISSIPPI STATE

The Lady Vols routed Mississippi State, 73-44 on Jan. 18 without Candace Parker -- their leading scorer and rebounder. Several other players stepped up, as Sidney Spencer scored 18 points and Shannon Bobbitt added 13 in Tennessee's 11th straight win of the season. Team physician, Dr. Becky Morgan diagnosed Parker with a respiratory illness and advised her not to play. Alex Fuller, who started in place of Parker, and Alexis Hornbuckle each had 12 points for Tennessee, which improved to 17-1 overall and 4-0 in the Southeastern Conference. Nicky Anosike added 10 rebounds for the 11th double-digit rebound performance of her career. The Lady Vols outrebounded Mississippi State 45-30, including an impressive 25 offensive boards, which turned into 21 second chance points. The Lady Bulldogs scrapped, but were unable to earn their first victory over Tennessee. They dropped to 0-26 in the series with UT and remain the only team in the SEC that is winless against Pat Summitt. Mississippi State was missing two players because of injury - Robin Porter and Miayorka Johnson. Fuller poured in 12 points, her most in an SEC contest. She left the game with 1:55 to go after a back spasm sent her to her knees. UT took 23 shots from beyond the arc, the most this season. The Lady Vols shot just 39.5 percent from the field but forced 28 Lady Bulldog turnovers to secure the victory. Hornbuckle continued her ascent in the record books, moving past Debbie Groover (295) and Bridgette Gordon (296) and into 18th place in the annals for career assists (297). Junior college transfers Bobbitt and Alberta Auguste each pulled down career highs in rebounds, with four and six, respectively.

GAME 19: DUKE

In front of 21,118 screaming, orange-clad fans - the largest home crowd of the season - the Lady Vols fell short of one of the greatest almost-comebacks in school history, dropping a heartbreaking 74-70 defeat to No.1-ranked Duke. Even men's coach Bruce Pearl joined the student section, painting his bare chest orange and supplying the white "V" in the phrase "GO VOLS". Duke jumped out to a 19-0 lead and led by as many as 21 in the first half, but the Lady Vols did not go away. An and-one play from Candace Parker tied the game at 48 with 10:48 in the game, but UT could not overcome Duke's 49.1% accuracy from the floor. Fourth-ranked Tennessee (17-2) was 0-of-8 from the field before Nicky Anosike scored with 14:02 remaining before halftime; it was the longest opening drought for UT this season. Blue Devil Abby Waner made her first eight shots and had 21 by the break, but the Lady Vols held her to three second-half points. Duke was 14-of-15 from the foul line, while Tennessee connected on 8-of-17 attempts from the charity stripe. Parker led the Lady Vols with 22 points, 10 rebounds and six blocks for her ninth double-double of the season. Alexis Hornbuckle added 19 points, nine rebounds and three steals, moving her into 12th place in the UT record books for career thefts. Sidney Spencer had 13 tallies and improved her career free throw percentage to fourth all-time in the Tennessee annals. Anosike finished with 10 rebounds as the Lady Vols dominated the boards, 46-35. Twenty-seven of those were of the offensive variety and turned into 15 second chance points for Big Orange. Pat Summitt got 10 points from her bench, including seven by sixth-woman Alex Fuller. Tonight's loss dropped UT to 4-5 all-time against Duke and snapped an 11-game winning streak this season. Tennessee posted its worst field goal percentage (36.1) this season, despite making a season-high-tying 10 three-pointers in the contest.

GAME 20: VANDERBILT

Sidney Spencer scored a career-high 26 points, and the fourth-ranked Lady Vols pulled out a 67-57 victory Jan. 25 against 15th-ranked Vanderbilt. Tennessee (18-2, 5-0 SEC) handed the Commodores (17-3, 4-1 SEC) their first loss at home this season but the 12th straight in the series. The Lady Vols relied on their defense, forcing Vandy into a season-high 27 turnovers that Tennessee turned into 29 points. The Lady Vols had their most turnovers of the campaign as well, finishing with 25. UT pocketed 15 steals and held the rebounding advantage 31-27, despite trailing 18-12 in that category at the break. Spencer had scored 21 points in a game on four occasions in her career and was finally able to get past that for her personal best on Thursday night. She opened the game 4-of-4 from the field and finished 8-of-13 including a 4-of-6 performance from three-point territory. She added seven rebounds and was perfect (6-6) from the line in her final game at Memorial Gymnasium. Candace Parker finished with 19 points and a game-high 11 rebounds, and Alexis Hornbuckle scored 11 for Tennessee, which hit 15 of 17 free throws in the final 2:33. Hornbuckle helped hold Caroline Williams, who had been averaging 12.9 points for Vandy, to six. Vanderbilt hadn't had this many turnovers since a victory over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi on Nov. 19, 2005. Vandy led by as many as eight points in the first half, but took the lead only twice in the second half, each time by only a point. Thomas provided the bucket on each. Tennessee took control in the first half after trailing 17-9 by taking better shots and starting to turn the Commodores over in a 12-0 spurt highlighted by a pair of threes by Spencer. The Lady Vols shot 45.8 percent from the field and a much improved 77.3 percent from the line to improve to 48-6 in the series with Vandy.

GAME 21: ALABAMA

The smallest player on the court had the biggest impact for the Lady Vols on Jan. 28 as UT beat Alabama, 80-51 for the 32nd consecutive victory over the Crimson Tide. Shannon Bobbitt, a 5-foot-2 point guard, made six 3-pointers to lead fourth-ranked Tennessee to a 6-0 start in SEC play this season. She finished with 20 points. Three of the Bobbitt's 3-pointers came in a four-minute span in the second half that saw Tennessee go on a run to turn a four-point advantage into a 53-36 lead with 13 minutes to go. Alabama never got closer than 15 points the rest of the way. All but one of Bobbitt's 3-pointers came on shots from the corner. Candace Parker was held to just nine points, breaking a streak of 33 straight games in double figures that dated back to last season. Her first two free throws of the contest gave her 1,000 points for her career, making her the fastest Lady Vol ever to eclipse the millenium mark (56 games). Sophomore Alex Fuller scored 12 points to tied her personal best in an SEC contest. Alabama native Sidney Spencer had over 50 family and friends in attendance and scored 10 points and grabbed six rebounds. Alexis Hornbuckle dished out six assists and kept her streak of games with a steal alive at 57. Alberta Auguste came off the bench and didn't miss from the field, connecting on all three treys and a layup under the basket. She added two assists and three steals in her 18 minutes on the floor. Tennessee trailed in the rebounding column, 37-32 but turned 15 offensive rebounds into 18 second chance points. In the earlier meeting between the two this season, UT forced 35 Alabama turnovers and on Sunday the Tide coughed up 30 t.o.'s. The Lady Vols held the opponent to 37 percent shooting from the field, including a 30 percent clip from beyond the arc.

GAME 22: SOUTH CAROLINA

No. 3 Tennessee raced out to a 16-0 lead against South Carolina on Feb. 1 and never looked back to claim a 72-36 victory over the Gamecocks. It was the 33rd consecutive Lady Vol win in the series. SC did not score until the clock ready 10:12 in the first half. The Gamecocks missed their first six shots and had nine turnovers - four on steals by Tennessee - before their first basket. Candace Parker and Shannon Bobbitt each scored 13 points for the Lady Vols, who built a big lead in the first half and expanded it in the second. The Gamecocks (13-10, 3-5) had trouble scoring and holding onto the ball. Alberta Auguste added 10 points and Parker had 12 rebounds for the Lady Vols, who shot 37.9 percent (22-of-58) from the field. Sidney Spencer moved into third place in the UT record books for career field goal percentage with her 4-of-4 performance in the game. Spencer also grabbed a career-high-tying nine rebounds. Alexis Hornbuckle moved into tenth place in career steals with her five thefts against South Carolina. The Gamecocks' 36 points tied for the third-lowest in their history and they have lost by more than 35 points only six other times. Tennessee led 37-11 at halftime. South Carolina had the fewest first-half points against the Lady Vols by an SEC team and the mark tied for the fifth fewest by a UT opponent in program history. The Lady Vols forced 34 Gamecock turnovers and held South Carolina to its fewest points of the season. It was the first game all season that UT didn't allow an opponent to make a three-pointer. The game offered fans two prestigious award ceremonies, as Parker was honored before the game for becoming the fastest Lady Vol to reach 1,000 career points and at halftime, a new Wheaties box was unveiled bearing the photo of Summitt, the first female coach to be so honored.

GAME 23: GEORGIA

Candace Parker had 22 points and 11 rebounds, and the third-ranked Lady Vols pulled away in the second half for a 73-57 win over No. 9 Georgia on Feb. 5. The win marked the sixth straight for the Lady Vols in the series and improved Tennessee to 38-14 all-time against Georgia. Parker turned it on in the second half after scoring only four points in the first. She found a way to score around tough defenders in the paint, and her teammates benefited with open outside shots. Sidney Spencer went 0-3 in the first half, but scored nine points in the second, connecting on three of her four attempts. Spencer finished with five rebounds. Alex Fuller scored 11 of Tennessee's 20 bench points and did not miss from the field. Alexis Hornbuckle added 14 points, nine rebounds, seven assists and four steals for the Lady Vols who opened the second half with a 16-2 run. Tennessee had a six-point lead at halftime and stretched it to 20 at the beginning of the second half. Spencer scored all nine of her points during the spurt, and Parker had five. Tasha Humphrey led Georgia with 17 points and 10 rebounds, and freshman Ashley Houts added 11 points. Tennessee forced a fast tempo game and Georgia could not keep up, shooting just 38 percent and coughing up 19 turnovers. The Lady Bulldogs picked off just three Lady Vol passes, the fewest by an opponent this season. UT shot nearly 46 percent for the game, including a 54.8 clip in the second period. Big Orange had just 11 turnovers and grabbed 10 steals. Hornbuckle's seven assists moved her into 16th place in the UT record books for career helpers. The win improved Tennessee to 21-2 on the season, 8-0 in the SEC.

GAME 24: AUBURN

Candace Parker had 25 points and 11 rebounds to keep third-ranked Tennessee unbeaten in the Southeastern Conference with a 72-62 victory over Auburn on Feb. 8. The double-double was her team-leading 13th such performance of the season. The win marked the fifth straight this season and the 15th consecutive in the UT-UA series. The Lady Vols lead the all-time matchup, 31-8. Alexis Hornbuckle continued her strong second half of the season with 12 points, nine rebounds and two steals, which extends her streak of games with a theft to 60. Tennessee used defensive intensity to hold Auburn to just two points through the first six minutes of the contest to break open a 10-2 lead. The Lady Vols got 10 points and six rebounds from Nicky Anosike and nine points and six rebounds from senior Sidney Spencer. Despite facing Auburn's 6-foot-7 KeKe Carrier inside, UT poured in 34 points in the paint and grabbed the rebounding advantage, 42-35. Tennessee made only 27 of 67 shots (40.3 percent) from the floor, but grabbed 19 offensive rebounds on the 40 misses. Tennessee went just 2-for-14 on 3-pointers to mark the fewest treys of the season for the squad, but made up for it at the free throw line, where Parker made 9 of 10 and Tennessee made 16-21. Big Orange held Auburn to 39 percent shooting from the field, including a 22 percent clip from beyond the arc. UT forced 18 Tiger turnovers - converting them to 22 points. In the game, Parker passed the 500-rebound plateau, becoming the 34th Lady Vol to ever do so.

GAME 25: KENTUCKY

No. 3 Tennessee raced to an 84-62 victory over Kentucky on Feb. 11 during alumni weekend. Before the game, members of the 1987 National Championship team were honored, including then UT assistant coach and now UK head coach, Mickie DeMoss. Halftime celebrations recognized over 50 former players and family members in attendance. Candace Parker scored 22 of her 31 points in the first half and finished 12 of 16 from the field. Sidney Spencer and Shannon Bobbitt sank all of their three-point attempts, contributing 12 points a piece. Alex Fuller had 11 points off the bench for Tennessee. Spencer scored in the first three seconds of the game on an assist from Alexis Hornbuckle. It was one of Hornbuckle's seven assists in the game. She also had four steals, moving her into ninth place in the UT record books for career thefts. Tennessee pressed in the first half and Kentucky was harassed into 16 turnovers. The Wildcats finished with 25. UK's one steal marked the fewest in a game by a UT opponent since Nov. 29, 2002, when Puerto Rico-Mayaguez managed only one pick. Despite the lopsided score, Kentucky outrebounded Tennessee 40-24. UT's 24 boards were the fewest this season. The win improved UT to 41-6 all-time against the Wildcats. The Lady Vols' 71.4 percent accuracy from beyond the arc tied for the fifth best team performance in program history. UT's 10 turnovers were the second fewest of the season. In the hunt for the outright SEC regular season title, the Lady Vols are now 10-0 in the conference, 23-2 overall. Tennessee has won at least 10 SEC games for the 10th straight season since going 8-4 in the league in 1996-97. The Lady Vols are the only undefeated team in SEC play.

GAME 26: MISSISSIPPI

Candace Parker had 25 points, 10 rebounds and seven assists, as third-ranked Tennessee handed Ole Miss an 81-69 defeat on Feb. 15. The Lady Vols improved to 24-2 on the season and remained a perfect 11-0 in the SEC. UT took the lead before halftime with an 11-0 run while Rebels star Armintie Price was on the bench with two fouls. Parker recorded her 14th double-double of the season to pace the Big Orange, who forced 23 Rebel turnovers. Shannon Bobbitt added 15 points and Alexis Hornbuckle had 12 for Tennessee. Hornbuckle also moved past Pat Hatmaker and into 15th place in the UT record books for career assists. She had three assists and three steals in the contest, to extend her steals streak to 62 games. With Price sitting on the bench with two fouls, Ole Miss kept the game close early and went ahead 14-13 on Bianca Thomas' putback with 12:02 left. But Tennessee got the lead back on the next play on Parker's scoop shot in the lane and extended the lead to five by halftime. That margin was the smallest over an SEC opponent at the break this season. Ole Miss' 69 points were the most by an SEC foe this campaign. Tennessee held the rebounding advantage, 44-39 and scored 25 points off of Rebel turnovers. UT claimed win No. 24 in a season for the 27th time under Pat Summitt. Eleven SEC wins have been achieved 12 times, including a streak of nine straight seasons.

GAME 27: LSU

No. 2 Tennessee claimed the program's 14th SEC regular season title with a 56-51 victory at LSU on Feb. 19. With the win the Lady Vols improved to 25-2 overall and a perfect 12-0 in the SEC. Candace Parker had 27 points and 13 rebounds for her 14th double-double of the season. Parker, who came in averaging 20 points a game, took control early, scoring 17 points in the opening 12 minutes as Tennessee surged to a 22-14 lead. Tennessee desperately needed Parker's output on a night when they were held to 31.3 percent shooting as a team and when Sidney Spencer managed only two points on 1-of-12 shooting. Parker was 11-of-20 from the field and the other four starters were a combined seven of 38. Spencer grabbed a season-high nine boards and Alexis Hornbuckle had five steals, four assists, four rebounds and a driving left handed hook late in the second half to propel the Lady Vols to their first regular season win over LSU in the last three seasons. Dominique Redding had a key eight points in the second half when the rest of the Tennessee squad was flat. UT's 26 second-half points were the fewest of the season, but the Big Orange forced 15 Tiger turnovers and held them to 40 percent shooting. Tennessee never trailed, but LSU tied the game at 51 on Sylvia Fowles' free throws with 1:21 to go. Parker, who also had three blocks, two steals and two assists, put Tennessee back ahead with a free throw after she was fouled on an offensive rebound. Shannon Bobbitt made two key free throws to give UT a three-point cushion with 11.3 second left. LSU had a chance to tie it, but Quianna Chaney's 3-pointer rimmed out. Bobbitt finished with 13 points, including three 3-pointers, for Tennessee. The game was a defensive battle most of the way, but the Lady Vols outrebounded the Lady Tigers 44-36. Tennessee's 20 offensive rebounds helped produce 13 second-chance points.
