

Cruisin' for a Cause presented by FedEx Office is a long-haul motorcycle adventure to raise dollars and awareness for a cure for breast cancer.

Led by Tennessee Lady Vol Associate Head Coach Holly Warlick and UCLA Head Coach Nikki Caldwell, we have raised nearly $100,000 and traveled over 6,000 miles to support the fight against breast cancer as a life threatening disease. We are currently planning the third annual event, a road trip down the Natchez Trace from Knoxville to New Orleans and back.

Our continuing goals are simple and bold:
 Ride thousands of miles.
 Raise thousands of dollars to support our grantees.
 Recruit tens of thousands of people in person and through the media to join in the fight against breast cancer.

By helping to support efforts such as the University of Tennessee Breast Health Outreach Program, Kay Yow/WBCA Cancer Fund, and The Wellness Community of East Tennessee, Cruisin' for a Cause is making a difference.

Cruisin' for a Cause is part of the 501(c)-3 Champions for a Cause whose mission is to advance and support the cause of charitable organizations who advocate and act to better the quality of life and health for individuals at risk or in need. Find out more about Cruisin' and our other events at www.championsforacause.org.

