Lady Vols Headed To Tyson Invitational This Week-

end: The Tennessee women's track & field team is headed to Fayetteville, Ark., this weekend to compete at the Tyson Invitational. The event, to be held Friday and Saturday at the Randal Tyson Track Center on the University of Arkansas campus, will serve as a preview of next month's NCAA Indoor Championships (March 9-10), offer the Lady Vols an outstanding venue in which to generate more national qualifying marks and give them an opportunity to tune up for the upcoming SEC Indoor Championships in Lexington, Ky., on Feb. 23-25.

The Deuce Will Be Loose This Weekend: The cameras of ESPN2 will be on hand at the Tyson Invitational this weekend. A recap show of the meet will be telecast from 1 to 3 p.m. Eastern Time on Sunday.

Tennessee Returns To Highest Ranking In 2007: The Lady Vols are up to No. 8 this week in the Trackwire 25. It represents UT's highest ranking in that poll since it was eighth in Trackwire's first report of the season. In the USTFCCCA Poll, Tennessee is 11th this week.

Traditionally, Tyson A Great Meet For Lady Vols: The Tyson Invitational, with its outstanding venue and a stellar field of teams and individuals on hand, has traditionally been the site of strong performances by the Lady Vols. It shapes up that way again in 2007, as No. 1/1 Arizona State, No. 2/4 Michigan, No. 3/3 LSU, No. 4/2 Stanford, No. 5/5 South Carolina, No. 6/7 Texas Tech, No. 10/8 Auburn, No. 12/12 Georgia, No. 13/9 Texas, and No. 15/15 Arkansas among others will be on hand to bring out the best in Team Orange.

Big Orange NCAA Qualifiers: Courtney Champion is UT's lone automatic qualifier, earning a bid to the NCAA Indoor Championships in the 60-meter dash. Tennessee, however, has 11 provisional qualifiers in 10 different events, including Champion (200m), Cleo Tyson (60m, 200m), Sarah Bowman (800m/1500m/DMR), Leslie Treherne (800m/DMR), Katie Van Horn (5000m), Nia Ali (60mH), Celrice Law (60mH/Triple Jump), Pavi'Elle "Tiki" James (60mH), Shanna Dickenson (Weight Throw/Shot Put), Rose-Anne Galligan (DMR) and LaTonya Loche (DMR).

UT Athletes Among The Nation's Best: Among Tennessee's top ranked competitors this weekend are Courtney Champion and Cleo Tyson, who rank first (7.26) and fourth (7.28) nationally; Katie Van Horn, who is sixth in the 5000m; Ali, who is seventh in the 60m hurdles; Bowman, who is seventh in the 800m and mile; Treherne, who is ninth in the 800m; Champion, who is ninth in the 200m; and Dickenson, who is 12th in the weight throw.

Perfect Strangers: Lady Vols Courtney Champion (8-0) and Cleo Tyson (7-0) are each undefeated in the 60-meter dash this season, but they have not run against each other in four meets. Champion, who leads the nation with a 7.26 readout, owns meet victories at the Kentucky Invitational and Penn State National Invitational. She did not run in the finals at the Rod McCravy Memorial or the Frank Sevigne Husker Invitational. Tyson, meanwhile, won at the Rod McCravy meet and did not start in the finals of the other three meets.

More Double Dipping For Dickenson: Lady Vol junior thrower Shanna Dickenson came back from the Penn State National Invitational with career bests in the weight throw and the shot put. She did so again at the Frank Sevigne Husker Invitational, winning the shot at 50-2 1/2 and taking second in the weight throw at 64-7. She ranks 12th nationally in the weight and 26th in the shot. She stands at number two on UT's all-time performers list in the weight and is fifth in the shot.

Bowman On The Mark: Sophomore Sarah Bowman has stepped up her game in year two. She is the only Lady Vol to have qualifying marks in three events. Bowman recorded personal bests of 2:06.59 and 4:43.08 to meet the provisional standard and rank seventh nationally in those events. She also ran the 1200m anchor leg on UT's best DMR this season, an 11:14.01 output at the Penn State National Invitational, which ranks fifth in the country.

Frank Sevigne Husker Invitational Recap: The Lady Vols claimed four event titles and came away with one automatic NCAA mark, 12 provisionals 13 personal bests and four runner-up finishes at the Frank Sevigne Husker Invitational in Lincoln, Neb., on Feb. 2-3. Victors were Sarah Bowman in the 800 meters, Courtney Champion in the 200 meters, Shanna Dickenson in the shot put and Pavi'Elle "Tiki" James in the 60m hurdles. Champion matched her previous auto time of 7.26 in winning her heat of the semis.

Joining The Provisional Club In Nebraska: Shanna Dickenson's 50

2 1/2, second-place effort in the shot put at the Frank Sevigne Husker Invitational enabled her to meet NCAA provisional plateau in that event for the first time ever. Miami (Fla.) transfer Pavi'Elle "Tiki" James became Tennessee's third provisional qualifier in the 60m hurdles, turning in a career-best 8.41 effort to win at Nebraska.

What A Difference A Year Makes For Van Horn: Katie Van Horn began to show signs of being a distance "player" during the cross country season, when she was UT's top finisher at the NCAA South meet and earned all-region honors. She demonstrated at the Penn State National Invitational that she is for real. The sophomore from Glendora, N.J., uncorked a personal-best and NCAA provisional qualifying time of 16:34.09 en route to victory in the invitational section of the 5000 meters. Her previous best at that distance was a 2006 outdoor clocking of 17:27.69.

SEC, Departmental Honors For KVH: For her victorious and NCAA provisional effort of 16:34.09 in the invitational 5000 meters at the Penn State National Invite, sophomore Katie Van Horn was named the SEC Runner of the Week and the Lady Vol Athlete of the Week on Jan. 30. At the time, her mark was the fastest in the nation in that event, and it elevated her to number four on UT's all-time performers list.

UT Sprinters Extend Streak: Courtney Champion's victory in the 60 meters at the Penn State National Invitational extended Tennessee's streak of wins in the short sprint at that meet to three years in a row. Champion's classmate, Cleo Tyson, triumphed in 2005 and 2006. Tyson did not run in the final this season.

Respectable DMR Debut: The Lady Vol distance medley relay

2007 Women's Indoor National Polls

Trackwire 25 (Feb. 6, 2007)

1. Arizona State, 45; 2. Michigan, 40; 3. LSU, 39; 4. Stanford, 38; 5. South Carolina, 30; 6. Texas Tech, 29; 7. Texas A&M, 28; t8. Tennessee, 23; t8. Minnesota, 23; 10. Auburn, 21; 11. ### USTFCCA Poll (Feb. 6, 2007)

1. Arizona State, 2. Stanford, 3. LSU, 4. Michigan, 5. South Carolina, 6. Texas A&M, 7. Texas Tech, 8. Auburn, 9. Texas, 10. Minnesota, 11. Tennessee, 12. Georgia, 13. North Carolina, 14. Kansas State, 15. Arkansas, 16. Oregon, 17. Villanova, 18. Washington State, 19. Hampton, 20. Georgia Tech.

combination of Rose-Anne Galligan, LaTonya Loche, Leslie Treherne and Sarah Bowman turned in a runner-up, 11:14.01 effort behind Villanova at the Penn State National Invitational in its season debut. That time ranked the UT quartet fifth in the nation and first in the SEC through Feb. 8 and was the third-best DMR clocking in school history.

Bowman Runs To PR In Mile To Boot: In addition to helping UT's distance medley relay hit the provisional threshold, Sarah Bowman lowered her career best and NCAA provisional in the mile run to 4:43.08. That mark ranks her first in the SEC and seventh nationally. She is first in the SEC and seventh nationally in the 800 meters at 2:06.59 as of Feb. 8.

The Hits Keep Coming From Ali: Freshman Nia Ali keeps jabbing away at the Lady Vol record in the 60-meter hurdles. At the Penn State National Invitational, Ali lowered her personal-record and NCAA provisional time to 8.21 to grab second-place honors. She ranks No. 2 all-time at UT behind 1984 U.S. Olympian Benita Fitzgerald (8.18) and stands seventh nationally and third in the SEC.

Essex Raises Bar In Vault: Sophomore Alicia Essex moved to number three on UT's all-time indoor performers list in the pole vault when she cleared 12 feet, eight inches to take third place at the Penn State National Invitational.

Haven't Dropped The 4x4 Bomb Yet: UT has yet to lock on an NCAA qualifying mark in the 4x400m relay. The Lady Vols came fairly close to earning a provisional time at Penn State, when the "B" lineup of LaTonya Loche, Courtney Champion, Leslie Treherne and Phoebe Wright ran 3:41.89. UT's "A" group would likely have Cleo Tyson running in place of Wright.

Kicking It Up A Notch: Celrice Law has taken it to another level in 2007. She is a two-event NCAA provisional qualifier thus far, with a career-best 41-9 1/4 reading in the triple jump and an 8.37 performance in the 60-meter hurdles, which she produced in the prelims at the Penn State National Invitational. Law also has a career-best reading in the long jump this season at 18-9 3/4.

Change In Plans Proves Beneficial: Tennessee was slated to run at the Notre Dame Indoor Opener on Jan. 19, but the coaching staff made a switch and sent the squad back to Lexington, Ky., for the second straight week to compete in the Rod McCravy Memorial. The move resulted in Tennessee winning three events, charting six NCAA provisionals and collecting 16 personal bests. Cleo Tyson's 7.33 victory in the 60m and Celrice Law's 41-9 1/4 triumph in the triple jump were two of the high points. Nia Ali took the 60-meter hurdles title as well.

C.C. Named SEC Runner of the Week: Courtney Champion's two-victory performance at the Kentucky Invitational, with an NCAA auto in the 60m and a provisional in the 200m, earned her the first SEC Runner of the Week nod of 2007 on Jan. 16. Champion's times of 7.26 and 23.61 were national leaders. She also was selected Lady Vol Athlete of the Week for her handiwork.

Opening Meet Marks Were Blazing: Courtney Champion's 7.29 and 7.26 readouts in the Ky. Inv. 60m were the fastest-ever season-opening marks by a Lady Vol. Also fitting that category was Nia Ali's 8.22 in the 60m hurdles. Sarah Bowman's 4:46.94 effort in the mile ranked second in program annals only to Brenda Webb's 1979 mark of 4:39.5 for the fastest marks produced this early in the season.

Ali, Nearly The Greatest In Her First Meet: Freshman Nia Ali's 8.22 performance in the 60m hurdles at the Kentucky Invitational nearly garnered her a school record in her debut meet as a Lady Volunteer. Only Benita Fitzgerald's 1983 mark of 8.18 is faster. Fitzgerald won a gold medal in the 100m hurdles for the 1984 U.S. Olympic Team.

Lady Vols In The Trackwire Dandy Dozen: The Trackwire 25 projects a hypothetical score for the NCAA Championship meet, factoring in injury reports and other variables supported by information gathered from coaches and NCAA-qualifying competitions across the country. This projection is generated by scoring the Dandy Dozen, a power ranking of the top 12 athletes and relay squads in each NCAA event. Areas where Tennessee is ranked in the women's Dandy Dozen include the 60 meters (Courtney Champion, 3rd/Cleo Tyson, 4th), the 200 meters (Champion, eighth), the mile run (Sarah Bowman, 5th; the 60m hurdles (Nia Ali, 7th) and the distance medley relay (7th).

Tennessee SEC Leaders: Tennessee leads the Southeastern Conference indoor top times list in five events. Heading events are Courtney Champion in the 60m (7.26), Sarah Bowman in the 800m (2:06.59) and in the mile (4:43.08), Katie Van Horn in the 5000 meters (16:34.09) and the DMR (11:14.01). UT has several others in the two and three slots as well as throughout the list.

On Paper, The Season Looks Promising: The Lady Vols return seven NCAA qualifiers from a year ago, including All-Americans Cleo Tyson (60m, 200m, 4x400mR indoors and 100m, 200m, 4x100mR, 4x400mR outdoors), Courtney Champion (4x400mR indoors and 4x100mR, 4x400mR outdoors), LaTonya Loche (4x400mR indoors and 4x100m, 4x400mR outdoors) and Leslie Treherne (800m, 4x400mR outdoors). 2005 distance medley relay All-American Felicia Guliford is back as well, as are 2006 NCAA Championships qualifiers Sarah Bowman (DMR, 1500m), Shanna Dickenson (discus throw) and Celrice Law (100mH).

TFN's No. 6 Class Of Newcomers Adds To That Optimism: Tennessee has on campus the No. 6 class of newcomers in the nation, according to Track & Field News. Included in that group are transfers Brittany Daniels (jumps) of USC and Pavi'Elle "Tiki" James of Miami as well as freshman sprint/hurdles/jumps phenoms Nia Ali and Lynne Layne and distance aces Jackie Areson, Rose-Anne Galligan and Kelly Parrish.

Week-By-Week Lady Vol Highlights

Rookie Impact In Cross Country: Freshman Jackie Areson's presence was felt during the cross country season, as she scored in all seven races and collected All-South Region acclaim for a 10th-place finish at the regional meet. She just missed All-SEC kudos after taking 15th at the league meet.

There's A New Coach, Too: In addition to a group of 14 first-year Lady Vols on hand, the UT coaching staff has a new assistant. John Frazier, formerly of the University of Arizona, has joined the staff in place of the departed Cathrine Erickson and will coach the throws area. Frazier's arrival means J.J. Clark now has two aides in Frazier and Caryl Smith Gilbert (sprints/jumps/hurdles) who were USTCA outdoor national and regional assistant coaches of the year in 2005. Clark was chosen as the USTCA indoor national coach of the year that season and Mideast Region Outdoor Coach of the Year in '05. Frazier and Clark worked together previously when they were at the University of Florida. Frazier and Smith Gilbert also have in common the fact that they both competed at, and graduated from, UCLA. He is an 1986 grad., while she finished in 1991.

UT Record-Setters: UT has three athletes on its roster this season who possess indoor school records. Junior Cleo Tyson owns the 55m dash record at 7.20 (2006), classmate Courtney Champion has the 200m dash lead at 22.98 (2005), and senior Leslie Treherne ran on UT's best-ever 4x400m relay clocking of 3:31.49 (2004).

Knockin' On The Door: Cleo Tyson (third, 200m, 23.25), LaTonya Loche (third, 400m, 53.02), Celrice Law (2nd, 60mH, 8.36), Law (2nd, triple jump, 41-8.50) and Shanna Dickenson (second, weight throw, 62-7.25) ranked high on UT's all-time indoor performers lists entering 2007.

2006 Recap: Tennessee was the preseason No. 1 team last season prior to the indoor campaign. That was before the announcement that 2005 World Champion and NCAA and SEC Indoor and Outdoor long jump champion and sprint standout Tianna Madison was turning pro after only two seasons of college. She departed the week of UT's indoor season opener, and the team was not able to offset the loss of points that ensued. The squad posted finishes of third indoors and fifth outdoors at the SEC Championships and had identical 18th-place finishes at the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championship meets.

Individual SEC Kudos In 2006: Tennessee boasted three SEC Championships last year and nearly landed a fourth. Senior Patricia Hall pull off an SEC 400m sweep, while freshman Sarah Bowman bounced back from a third-place mile outcome indoors to take the league title in the 1500m outdoors. Junior Leslie Treherne nearly added a ring of her own in the 800m as the runner-up by a mere 26/100ths of a second in that event outdoors in Fayetteville.

Only One Home Meet: Tennessee normally hosts two indoor meets and three outdoor competitions during a track & field season. In 2007, the Lady Vols will make only one home appearance, the Sea Ray Relays, April 11-14. Stokely Athletics Center is not available this season for indoor action and is not a suitable option even when available. Outdoors, the Lady Vols have dropped the Knoxville Invitational that normally falls on the Sunday after Penn Relays and have chosen not to compete at the Tennessee Twilight, which is being held during finals week at UT.

Lady Vols In "The Pros": The following Lady Vols have gone on to post-collegiate careers in track & field during the J.J. Clark era: Kameisha Bennett (800m), Nicole Cook (800m), Sharon Dickie (cross country/distance), Patricia Hall (400m), Tianna Madison (long jump), Toyin Olupona (100m) and Dee Dee Trotter (400m).

Frank Sevigne Inv. (1/26-27)

- * NCAA auto in 60m (CC)
- * NCAA prov. in 60m (CT, CC), 200m (CC, CT), 800m (SB, LT), 60mH (PJ), Weight Throw (SD), Shot Put (SD)
- * Won four events (200m, 800m, 60mH, Shot Put)
- * 13 career bests

Up Next: After returning home from Fayetteville, the Lady Volunteers will resume training and gear up for the Southeastern Conference Indoor Championships in Lexington, Ky., on Feb. 23-25. The Lady Vols have performed well in two prior trips to UK this season, competing in the Kentucky Invitational and at the Rod McCravy Memorial.
