STATES WHERE WE'VE COMPETED THROUGH THE YEARS

During the past 35 years, Tennessee women's cross country has gone coast to coast, with the team or an individual participating in meets in 23 different states against the nation's best competition. In addition to a home meet (Tennessee Invitational) at Lambert Acres Course in Maryville this season and a cross-state trek to Nashville to compete in the Belmont-VU Opener, the Big Orange will revisit Alabama (Tuscaloosa), Mississippi (Oxford), Pennsylvania (Bethlehem) and Virginia (Charlottesville), and will eye another trip to Indiana (Terre Haute) in 2009 for a visit to the NCAA Championships on Nov. 23. The shaded areas mark states where UT student-athletes have previously run.
