Media Information & Policies

The Texas Media Relations Department welcomes your interest in UT athletics. We make every effort to facilitate your coverage of our programs. For information on student-athletes or coaches, to set up interviews or photos, or if you are in need of file photos, please call us, stop by our office (Bellmont Hall 327), or either e-mail or fax us a request.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials are issued to members of the working media only. Work space in the press box at UFCU Disch-Falk Field is limited. Requests should be made in writing to Thomas Dick (e-mail: thomas.dick@athletics.utexas.edu or Fax: (512) 471-6040) in advance of the season or individual games. Please make requests at least 24 hours in advance. All passes will be available at the will call window of the UFCU Disch-Falk Field ticket office. There is a five-minute parking area along the curb at UFCU Disch-Falk Field. You may pull up there to pick up your credential pack.

INTERNET

All of the latest news concerning the Longhorns baseball team, including notes, features, updated statistics, live scoring, live audio and results, is available 24 hours a day on The University of Texas' official athletics web site, TexasSports.com.

INTERVIEWS

Player interviews are arranged through the Media Relations Office. We will do our best to coordinate an interview time that is convenient to both the student-athlete and media member. The best time to interview an athlete or head coach Augie Garrido is in the afternoon before practice or following each game. After a game, Garrido will meet with his team, do a brief interview with the Longhorn Radio Network and then meet with the media. Following individual games, players will be available upon request after a 10-minute cooling-off period. They will be brought in front of the third-base dugout for those interviews. All interview requests should be provided to a Texas Media Relations representative in the press box prior to the conclusion of the game. The UT clubhouse is closed to the media.

PHOTOGRAPHY

In accordance with NCAA rules and regulations, all photographers are required to shoot from inside the photo boxes past the first and third base dugouts.

PRACTICE INFORMATION

Longhorns baseball practices are open and both the media and public are welcome to attend. Practice is generally held from 2:30-6 p.m. at UFCU Disch-Falk Field. To verify practice days and times, contact Thomas Dick.

PRESS SERVICES

Press releases, including individual and team statistics, as well as information on upcoming games/series, will be available prior to each contest. On game days, the media relations staff distributes individual and team statistics as well as any pertinent pregame information. For fax or e-mail service, please contact Thomas Dick either in person, via phone or through e-mail.

TELEPHONES

There will be working press box telephone lines for local, credit card or collect call use by members of the working media. If you need additional phone services, please contact Cande Mejia at Computer Services at (512) 232-3935. When using complimentary phones, just dial 9 and the number. You will not receive a second dial tone once you dial 9.

VISITING RADIO

UT provides courtesy lines for visiting radio. The visiting radio location is in the lower level of the main press box. There is plenty of room for two radio personalities, and a third can fit if necessary. The visiting radio phone line number is (512) 232-5670. There is also an ISDN line available (512-435-5274 or 512-435-5275 with SPIDS: 512-435-5274-01 and 512-435-5275-01) courtesy of AM 1300 "The Zone". If additional lines are needed, please contact Cande Mejia at Computer Services at (512) 232-3935.

TRAVEL ACCOMODATIONS

For up-to-date travel accomodations (hotels, etc.) contact the Austin Convention & Visitor's Bureau at 1-800-926-2282 or on the internet at www.austintexas.org. You can also log onto www.austin360.com for additional travel information on Austin.

Six trips to the College World Series (CWS) in the last 11 seasons. National Championships in both 2002 and 2005. Second-place finishes in 2004 and 2009. Six Big 12 Conference Championships (2002, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2009 and 2010) and four league tournament crowns (2002, 2003, 2008 and 2009). These are the results and the reasons why head coach Augie Garrido was hired to guide the Texas baseball program in 1996.

During his first 14 years on the Forty Acres, Garrido became the all-time winningest coach in NCAA Division I baseball history by capturing his 1,428th career win on June 9, 2003, (a 6-5 Texas victory over then No. 1 Florida State during NCAA Super Regional action in Tallahassee, Fla.). After he brought Texas back to the CWS for the first time since 1993 during the 2000 campaign, he returned the Horns to the pinnacle of collegiate baseball in 2002 by leading UT to a 57-15 record that produced the school's first-ever Big 12 regular-season and tournament championships as well as its first national title since 1983. He duplicated the feat in 2005, guiding the Longhorns to their sixth National Championship - the second-most for one school in NCAA history. Texas' rise under Garrido has been the culmination of inking 13 straight top 15 recruiting classes and producing teams that have stood tall against perennial powers such as LSU, Miami (Fla.), Stanford and USC. Now, as he enters his 15th year in Austin, Garrido who was selected as both the 2002 and 2005 National Coach of the Year, looks to keep the program in contention for college baseball's ultimate prize each and every season.

Garrido is the two coach in Division I baseball history to tally 1,700 or more career victories. He is one of only two Division I coaches to ever win 500 or more games at two different schools and the only coach to ever win 600 or more games at two different schools.

He is also the first coach to lead teams from two different schools to national crowns (Cal State Fullerton & Texas), guide squads to National Championships in four different decades, and is one of only three coaches in history to win five or more NCAA titles (1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2005). Garrido is the only coach in the modern era of NCAA football, baseball and men's or women's basketball to ever lead teams from two different schools to national crowns - only football legend Pop Warner accomplished such a feat by leading Pittsburgh (1916 & 1918) and Stanford (1926) to National Championships. Additionally, Garrido has earned 13 trips to the CWS and 29 NCAA Regional Championship appearances, including 11 at Texas, while garnering National Coach of the Year honors six times (1975, 1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2005), regional coach of the year accolades on seven occasions (1975, 1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2004, 2005) and conference coach of the year distinctions seven times (1987, 1995, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2010) after leading his clubs to 24 league crowns.

His overall record after 42 years of college coaching, including a 617-282-2 (.686) mark with UT over the last 14 seasons, currently stands at 1,768-806-9 (.686), which translates into an average of over 42 victories per season.

The Vallejo, Calif., native is just the 13th coach in UT's 115-year baseball history, and, with the exception of the war years of 1943-45 when Blair Cherry was at the helm, is only the fourth Texas head coach since 1911.

Despite his numerous accolades and honors, Garrido has not reached the peak of collegiate baseball with a "win at all costs" attitude. Instead, he has taken a slightly different approach to coaching the game of baseball.

Contrary to the myth that baseball is a game of strictly bats and balls, Garrido firmly believes that it is a thinking man's game. It is his claim that no corked bat or tainted ball has ever been as potent a weapon on the field of play as the mind of a knowledgeable ballplayer.

"I want my players to be aware of what is most valuable to them," Garrido said. "Is it a bat, a ball, a glove or the ability to use those things? Is that it? No. It's the players' minds and their ability to use them. That's what makes the use of a bat, a ball and a glove brilliant. It's my job to help players find balance in their lives. I want to help them help themselves become what they want to be through the fundamentals of baseball. Baseball is nothing more than another classroom in the educational process. Really, baseball is a metaphor for life."

As a result of his unique coaching style, Garrido has been ranked as one of the top three baseball teachers in the nation by Major League Baseball Directors of Player Development. To deserve that distinction, Garrido has coached three Golden Spikes Award winners, three National Players of the Year, six College World Series MVPs, 49 All-Americans, 12 All-League MVPs and 94 professional players over his career. He has also had 14 of his players selected in the first round of the Major League Baseball Draft, including Longhorns Beau Hale (No. 14) in 2000, Omar Quintanilla (No. 33) in 2003, both J.P. Howell (No. 31) and 2005 American League Rookie of the Year Huston Street (No. 40) in 2004, the duo of Drew Stubbs (No. 8) and Kyle McCulloch (No. 29) in 2006 and Chance Ruffin (No. 48) in 2010. In addition, during his 14 years at UT, Garrido has tutored the skills of 22 players who have earned All-America honors a total of 27 times, 19 Freshman All-Americans, including a school-record four in 2006, 81 All-Conference performers, 10 USA Baseball National Team members and 61 players who have gone on to play in professional baseball.

Graduating from Fresno State in 1961, Garrido played three seasons for the Bulldogs and earned all-conference recognition while also taking part in the 1959 College World Series. To salute his efforts at the school, Garrido, who remains, along with his UT predecessor Cliff Gustafson, as one of only 11 men ever to both play and coach in the CWS, was inducted into the Fresno State Hall of Fame in 1993 and was named the recipient of the school's Top Dog Award in 2002 as its Alumnus of the Year in athletics.

Upon graduating, Garrido signed a professional contract with the Cleveland Indians and played six years in their minor league system before retiring in 1966 to accept a coaching position at Sierra High School in Tollhouse, Calif.

Three years later, Garrido's collegiate coaching career would begin as he accepted the head job at San Francisco State in 1969. The Gators went on to post a 25-14 mark in his very first collegiate season of coaching.

The new college head coach would then spend his next three seasons at Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo (1970-72) and tally an 86-62-1* overall record.

After his stint with the Mustangs, Garrido took the reigns of the Cal State Fullerton program in 1973, and not only embarked on the first of two highly-successful campaigns with the Titans, but also forever left his mark on the college game. Under his guidance in 1975, Cal State Fullerton celebrated their first season of Division I play by reaching the playoffs and advancing to the CWS. The Titans then won their first of four national titles four years later in 1979, in only their second CWS appearance. Their second NCAA crown followed in 1984 as Garrido's Titans defeated defending national champion Texas by a score of 3-1. During his first tour of duty at Fullerton, he recorded 665-292-6 (.694) mark over 15 seasons.

For the 1988 season, Garrido headed north to Illinois, where, in three years, he led the Fighting Illini to two Big 10 titles, including the school's first in 26 seasons. Before departing Champaign, Garrido compiled a record of 111-57 (.661) and twice lead the Fighting Illini to the NCAA Tournament.

With the conclusion of Illinois' 1990 campaign, Garrido returned to Fullerton, where, in six years, he guided the Titans to a 264-99 (.727) record and was named the Big West Conference Coach of the Year for the second time in his career (1987 & 1995). During that run, his 1995 Titans club won their final 18 games of the season en route to posting a 57-9 record and capturing Fullerton's third national title. Over his 21-year tenure at Fullerton, Garrido produced a remarkable record of 929-391-6 (.703), while netting seven CWS appearances, one runner-up finish and three national crowns.

Garrido's name is also held in high regard when peo-only the third Longhorns head coach (Bibb Falk & Cliff Gustafson) in the 114 years of Texas baseball to lead the Horns to Omaha. He was one of three coaches named to the College World Series Legends Team in 2010.

Along with his collegiate baseball coaching career, Garrido, who was selected for induction into both the Texas Sports and Titan Athletics Halls of Fame in 2005, has also served as an assistant coach on Team USA in 1990, took his 1979 National Champion Fullerton team to Taiwan on a Goodwill Tour and has managed in the Alaska Summer League. In the fall of 2008, Garrido was inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor.

Associate Head Coach Tommy Harmon

22nd season at Texas

Full Name _____ Thomas Harold Harmon
 Date of Birth _____ Dec. 16, 1948
 Hometown _____ Fort Worth, Texas
 High School _____ Eastern Hills
 College _____ University of Texas, 1975
 Family _____ Wife: Debbie, son: Mark, and daughter: Sarah

Forever remembered as one of the premier catchers in Texas baseball history and regarded as one of the top recruiters in the country, Tommy Harmon embarks on his eighth season as associate head coach and 22nd year overall with The University of Texas baseball program in 2011.

Harmon, who was an assistant and first base coach under former Texas head coach Cliff Gustafson from 1989-1996, was appointed as the team's recruiting coordinator and third base coach during the 1997 season. While adding on other administrative duties following his promotion to associate head coach, he will again hold those roles this year following tremendous success. After not only signing the No. 2 and No. 3 recruiting classes in the nation in 1997 and 1999, respectively, which formed the nucleus of the 2000 Longhorns squad that returned UT to the College World Series (CWS) for the first time since 1993, he inked each of the student-athletes that comprised the 2002 and 2005 clubs which earned Texas its fifth and sixth national titles. In fact, Harmon has now signed top five recruiting classes in eight of the past 12 seasons and top 15 classes in each of the last dozen years.

Additionally, Harmon, who has been instrumental in helping the Longhorns record eight 40-win seasons from 2002-10 and produce 60 professional players during that span, will also continue to assist with the Longhorns' hitters on a regular basis. Fourteen of the last 22 UT teams have batted over .300 and the 2010 squad set a school single-season team record for home runs (81). In his 21 seasons as a coach on the Forty Acres, Harmon has not only helped mold the careers of 29 All-Americans and 102 All-Conference performers, but has also aided the Longhorns in reaching the CWS nine times while capturing eight league titles and two National Championships.

The Fort Worth, Texas, native returned to his alma mater in 1989, and it is not hard to tell why Gustafson found what he was looking for in an assistant when he hired his former field general. Gustafson knew from the moment he named Harmon the Longhorns' starting catcher, during his inaugural season as a head coach in 1968, that this Eastern Hills High School graduate had a knack for winning. It was Harmon and his teammates that not only gave Gustafson his first of 22 Southwest Conference (SWC) championships in 1968, but also went on to capture two more titles over the following two seasons.

While a wealth of collegiate baseball experience is evident from his resume, Harmon's work in the professional ranks is quite extensive as well. Following the 1970 Texas season, when he was named to The Sporting News All-America team as a senior, Harmon was drafted by the Kansas City Royals as the second overall pick, behind Dave Kingman, in the secondary phase of the 1970 Major League Baseball Draft. He went on to an eight-year professional career, which included a five-year stint with the Royals' AA and AAA clubs and three seasons in the St. Louis Cardinals' organization.

Harmon would then begin his coaching career in 1978 as a player/coach for the Philadelphia Phillies' Class AAA team in Oklahoma City. It was there that he worked with a young talent from The University of Texas named Keith Moreland.

The role of manager suited Harmon quite well, as one year later he took over the reins of the Phillies' Bend, Ore., club in 1979 and guided them to a short-season Northwest Rookie League title. He then managed the Phillies' Class A Spartanburg, S.C., team from 1980-81, and was also the manager of the Hermosillo club in the Mexico Winter League during the 1981 and 1982 off-seasons. Over those two winters in Mexico, Harmon directed Hermosillo to a winter league title and a berth in the West Caribbean World Series.

From there, Harmon received letters from former Phillies manager and new Chicago Cubs general manager Dallas Green to report to Wrigley Field, where he became the youngest coach in the National League as the Cubs' bullpen coach in 1982.

Following the 1982 campaign, Harmon was named manager of the Cubs' AA team in Midland, Texas. He would finish out the 1983 season with the club before retiring from his professional baseball career to private business.

His retirement from baseball would prove brief though, as Harmon would return to his alma mater in 1989 and once again don the burnt orange and white, this time as an assistant coach.

Harmon received his bachelor's degree from Texas in 1975, and, for his accomplishments at UT and over his career, was inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor in the fall of 1993.

He and his wife, Debbie, have two children; Mark and Sarah, who have both graduated from The University of Texas.

Assistant Coach Skip Johnson

5th season at Texas

Full Name _____ Arthur Ray Johnson
 Date of Birth _____ Feb. 17, 1967
 Hometown _____ Denton, Texas
 High School _____ Denton
 Junior College _____ Ranger College, 1988
 College (bachelor's) UT Pan American, 1990
 _____ (master's) UT Tyler, 1993
 Family Wife: Cathy, sons: Tyler and Garrett

When head coach Augie Garrido went looking for a pitching coach following the 2006 campaign, the answer to his search was Skip Johnson, who is regarded as the best teacher of pitching skills by the most knowledgeable baseball people in Texas. Johnson is in his fifth season as an assistant coach at UT after serving a 13-year stint as head coach at Navarro College in Corsicana, Texas.

Johnson had an outstanding first season as the Longhorns' pitching coach, mentoring the staff to a 3.46 earned run average, the best mark in the Big 12 Conference and ninth in the nation. He also tutored Adrian Alaniz to Big 12 Pitcher of the Year accolades and coached three All-Big 12 pitchers including Alaniz, Randy Boone and James Russell.

In his second season, he continued to produce outstanding pitchers as freshman Chance Ruffin earned All-America honors as well as being named Big 12 Conference Rookie of the Year. Kenn Kasperek, Kyle Walker and Casey Whitmer were all drafted and had outstanding professional debuts.

In 2009, Johnson guided one of the top pitching staffs in the nation. The Longhorns led the nation allowing the fewest hits per nine innings (7.52) and ranked second in the nation with a 2.95 ERA. He mentored third-team All-American and fifth-round draft choice Austin Wood, one of the nation's top closers, along with Freshman All-Americans Taylor Jungmann and Austin Dicharry and All-Big 12 first-teamer Chance Ruffin.

Last season, the Longhorns led the nation with a 2.45 ERA and featured four different All-America selections, including Cole Green, Jungmann, Ruffin and Brandon Workman.

Beginning his coaching career in 1993 as an assistant coach at Navarro, Johnson quickly moved up the ranks by assuming the reigns of the Bulldogs' baseball program one year later. He compiled 450 wins at Navarro and led the Bulldogs to 13 National Junior College Athletic Association Regional Tournaments.

During Johnson's stellar coaching career at Navarro, he led the Bulldogs to nine of 13 Texas Eastern Athletic Conference titles during his time there and four regional tournament titles.

In his final season at Navarro, the team won the TEAC title with an overall record of 38-15 and boasted a team ERA of 3.09. Navarro had 12 players total and eight pitchers selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player draft in Johnson's final three years as head coach.

While at Navarro, Johnson mentored current Longhorn Pat McCrory, James Russell, as well as former Texas players Sam Anderson, Chris Houser, D.J. Jones, Joseph Krebs, Jesse Merle, Mike Pumo, Ryan Russ, James Russell, Josh Smith, Eric Tomlinson and Clay Van Hook.

A standout baseball player at Denton High School, Johnson began his collegiate playing career at Ranger (Texas) College. After a two-year career with the Rangers, Johnson moved on to play baseball at the University of North Texas in 1988. He played one year for the Mean Green before the school dropped its baseball program. He completed his collegiate playing career at UT Pan American, lettering for the Broncs in 1989 and receiving his bachelor's degree in 1990. Johnson earned a master's degree in education from UT Tyler in 1993.

A native of Denton, Texas, Johnson and his wife, Cathy, have two sons, Tyler and Garrett.

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
2nd season at Texas

Full Name _____ Travis A. Tucker
Date of Birth _____ Nov. 24, 1986
Hometown _____ Killeen, Texas
High School _____ Killeen Ellison
College _____ University of Texas

Travis Tucker went from being a fan favorite as a second baseman directly to the coaching staff in 2010. He aids in the mentoring of the Texas infield and day-to-day instruction.

Tucker was a three-year letterwinner at Texas after arriving from McLennan Community College in Waco, Texas. He missed only two starts at second base during his three-year career, batting .285 with 154 runs, 204 hits, 25 doubles, six triples, five home runs, 89 RBI and 56 stolen bases.

The Killeen, Texas native was a prime performer on the Longhorns' 2009 College World Series squad. He hit .400 during CWS action to lead all Texas hitters and registered six runs, one double, one home run, three RBI and one stolen base in the six games in Omaha. He was named to the NCAA Austin Regional All-Tournament team and batted .321 with nine runs, two doubles, one home run, seven RBI and two stolen bases in 12 NCAA Tournament games.

Tucker led the squad with 52 runs and 79 hits as a senior. He batted .297 with 12 doubles, two triples, three home runs, 30 RBI and 13 stolen bases in 2009.

As a junior, he batted .247 with 57 runs, eight doubles, three triples, one home run, 25 RBI and 22 stolen bases.

In his first season at Texas, Tucker batted .307 with 45 runs, five doubles, one triple, one home run, 34 RBI and 21 stolen bases to earn All-Big 12 Honorable Mention in 2007. He also earned the UT Student Services Most Improved Award and the Teammate of the Year Award.

Tucker was named first-team All-North Texas Junior College Athletic Conference and helped McLennan to a NTJCAC title as a freshman in 2006. He batted .382 with 54 runs, 11 doubles, one triple, two home runs and 25 stolen bases as a freshman. he was drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the 48th round of the 2006 MLB First-Year Player Draft following his freshman campaign.

Texas in the CWS Championship

2005 COLLEGE WORLD SERIES CHAMPIONS

Returning 17 players from a team that went 58-15 and finished in second place at the College World Series (CWS) in 2004, the Longhorns began the 2005 season ranked No. 1.

With high expectations in tow, Texas lived up to its preseason ranking early on by rattling off 16 straight wins, including a three-game sweep of No. 5 Stanford at home, to open the year. Following their first loss of the season at No. 10 Arizona on March 5, the Horns proceeded to win their series with the Wildcats by a 2-1 count, earn a 9-1 victory over No. 9 Rice and post three wins over Purdue to close out their non-conference slate with a 21-1 record.

Big 12 Conference play started with three losses to No. 16 Baylor, but Texas rebounded by winning 12 of its next 15 league tilts, including series wins at No. 4 Nebraska and at Oklahoma State. Also included in that stretch was a 7-6 victory at No. 15 Rice and a three-game sweep of Oklahoma at home that included a no-hitter by redshirt freshman Adrian Alaniz, the 19th in school history.

Despite the surge, the Longhorns dropped three of their final four conference road games and settled for a third-place finish with a 16-10 mark. Texas headed to the Big 12 Tournament in Oklahoma City, Okla., with a number of players unavailable due to injuries. After dropping their opener, the Longhorns responded with wins over Kansas and Oklahoma State to move into the semifinal round. Although they battled toe-to-toe with No. 13 Baylor in the semifinals, the Bears pulled out a one-run victory and eliminated UT from the Big 12 Championship.

With a 45-14 record, the Horns received an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. They also gained some time to rest their injured players prior to hosting one of the 16 regional tournaments at Disch-Falk Field, which included Arkansas, Miami (Ohio) and Quinnipiac.

Following an opening-round win over Quinnipiac, the Horns incurred a tough 9-2 loss to Arkansas and faced elimination. With their backs against the wall, Texas posted wins over Miami and the Razorbacks to force a deciding game in the regional against Arkansas. Scoring three unanswered runs between the sixth and eighth innings during the the clinching contest, UT broke a 2-2 tie and captured its 30th regional title with a 5-2 win. With the victory, Texas moved on to the super regional round to face No. 8 Mississippi in Oxford, Miss.

Assigned the tough task of having to take two of three games from the Rebels on the road to advance to Omaha, the Longhorns began from behind. Although they held a lead late in the opener, the game was suspended until the next day due to thunderstorms. In the resumption of that contest, Ole Miss put together an improbable four-run seventh off NCBWA Stopper of the Year J. Brent Cox en route to clinching a 6-4 victory.

Facing elimination, Texas had to pull out a victory a few hours later to keep its hopes alive. Riding the arm of Alaniz, who allowed only one run over 6.2 innings, UT built a 3-1 lead heading into the seventh. Buck Cody pitched a scoreless 1.1 frames to move the game to the ninth. The Rebels managed to load the bases with one out against Cox, but the All-American induced a game-ending double play.

The super regional now came down to one final game on June 13. While both teams scored early, the game settled down into a 3-3 tie heading into the bottom of the sixth. Will Crouch hit a solo home run and Robby Hudson added an RBI-single to give UT a 5-3 lead. Ole Miss responded with a run in the eighth, but UT came right back in the bottom of the frame with a run of its own to make it a 6-4 game. Cox came on for the ninth and with two runners on and two outs, he struck out his next batter to send Texas to its 32nd CWS appearance.

Advancing to Omaha for the fifth time in the last six seasons, the Longhorns faced a tough road with Baylor, No. 1 Tulane and Oregon State in their half of the eight-team bracket. In the opener, Texas drew the Bears who the Horns had lost to four straight times during the season.

Getting on track against No. 4 Baylor early, Texas received a first-inning, two-run home run from All-America Seth Johnston. Alaniz and Cox took care of the rest, limiting the Bears to one run on eight hits to seal a 5-1 victory.

Top-ranked Tulane was next on Texas' slate. Handed a 2-0 lead in the top of the first, UT starter Kyle McCulloch scattered six hits over seven innings and fanned seven Green Wave to combine with Cox on a 5-0 win, the Longhorns' first CWS shutout since 1983.

Needing one more win to play for the National Championship, Texas faced Baylor, once again. Trailing 3-2 in the bottom of the eighth, UT plated the tying run when Nick Peoples scored on a sacrifice fly by All-America Drew Stubbs. After a Bears' rally was averted in the top of the ninth on a diving catch by Stubbs that resulted in a double play, Chance Wheelless, who had suffered a shoulder injury earlier in the game, led off the bottom of the inning with a dramatic solo home run to lift Texas to a 4-3 victory.

Playing for the national title for the third time in the last four years, the Horns would now face SEC Champion Florida in a best-of-three showdown to decide the 2005 crown.

In game one, Texas built a 4-0 lead by the fourth, which was more than enough for Alaniz and Cox. The pair combined to allow only two runs on four hits while striking out 11 in a 4-2 victory.

With Florida facing elimination, McCulloch delivered again. While the first-team All-Big 12 hurler held the Gators hitless through the first four innings, the Horns grabbed a 2-0 lead on a RBI-single from David Maroul in the second and an error in the fourth. Two innings later, Wheelless connected on a solo home run in front of a three-run round-tripper by Maroul to give Texas a 6-0 lead. Florida cut the lead to 6-2 in the seventh on a two-run home run, but Randy Boone and Cox worked a combined 2.1 innings of one-hit relief to seal the Horns' sixth National Championship.

Throughout the season, a different Texas player stepped up to lead the way. Accolades for the Horns included three All-Americans, two Freshman All-Americans and 16 All-Big 12 selections in addition to Augie Garrido earning National Coach of the Year for the sixth time in his career. Texas had five players named to the CWS All-Tournament team and six tabbed to the NCAA Austin Regional All-Tournament team. Taylor Teagarden earned the regional's Most Outstanding Player and Maroul picked up that same honor in Omaha.

2002 COLLEGE WORLD SERIES CHAMPIONS

Prior to the start of the 2002 season, head coach Augie Garrido hung a list of goals for the upcoming year on the wall of the Longhorns' locker room. The list read as follows: Win the Game, Win the Big 12 Conference, Win the Big 12 Tournament, Win the NCAA Regional, Win the NCAA Super Regional, Win the College World Series. While some of these goals may have seemed lofty at the start, the list revealed a process of development and a perspective to maintain throughout the course of a college baseball season. With their focus set, the Longhorns opened the campaign with a 13-2 overall record, but stumbled out of the gate in Big 12 Conference play with a 2-4 mark. Resilient in their quest for Texas' first-ever Big 12 title, the Horns rebounded by winning 17 of their next 21 conference tilts and following a series sweep over Texas A&M, finished the Big 12 season with a 19-8 record and claimed their first conference crown since 1996.

Texas headed to the conference tournament, at The Ballpark in Arlington, as the league's No. 1 seed. Texas dropped an 8-4 decision to Texas A&M in its tourney opener and had its back against the wall in the double-elimination bracket. With the odds heavily against them, the Horns proved their mettle again with wins over Oklahoma State and Texas A&M and a doubleheader sweep of Oklahoma to reach the title game against Nebraska. Tied 6-6 heading into the top of the ninth inning of the championship game, the Horns plated three runs for a 9-6 win over the Huskers and their first-ever Big 12 Tournament Championship. During its league tournament run, UT set tournament records for home runs (10) and pitcher strikeouts (47).

With two titles in hand, the Longhorns hosted their first NCAA Regional Tournament since 1996. Texas made quick work of the four-team field by claiming a 7-2 victory over Central Connecticut State in their opener and notching consecutive wins over Baylor to advance to the NCAA Super Regional round.

Paired against in-state rival Houston in a best-of-three series at Disch-Falk Field, Texas had to fight from behind as UH stunned the opening-game crowd of 7,209 with a 2-0 victory over the Horns.

Never doubting their ability to come back, the Horns responded in game two with a 17-2 win over the Cougars to even the series at 1-1. In a winner-take-all game, UT earned a 5-2 win for the super regional title and its NCAA-record 29th CWS appearance.

In their CWS opener vs. Rice, who they had defeated twice during the season, the Longhorns posted a hard-fought 2-1 victory, giving UT its first CWS win since 1993 and the first-ever CWS victory for a Big 12 Conference school. Texas drew Stanford in the winner's bracket and pulled off an 8-7 triumph over the Cardinal, putting the Horns within one game of the championship game.

Stanford survived its elimination game, setting up a rematch between the Horns and the CWS runner-up in each of the past two seasons. The Cardinal jumped out early in this matchup, but Texas fought back and snapped a 5-5 tie in the top of the seventh with a solo home run from junior Dustin Majewski for its third one-run victory of the CWS and its first berth in the National Championship Game since 1989.

Facing South Carolina in the title game (a rematch of the 1975 national title game that UT won 5-1), Texas sent All-America left-hander Justin Simmons to the mound. After the Gamecocks took a 1-0 lead in the top of the first, the Horns jumped in front by a score of 4-2 at the end of two full frames before establishing a 7-2 advantage after a three-run home run from senior Chris Carmichael in the fifth. South Carolina pulled within 8-6 by scoring two runs in both the seventh and eighth innings, but UT answered with four more runs in the bottom of the eighth and freshman Huston Street recorded the final five outs to close out the 12-6 win and give Texas its first national title since 1983.

Street earned the CWS Most Outstanding Player Award after posting a CWS-record four saves. Simmons, Majewski and sophomores Tim Moss and Omar Quintanilla were named to the CWS All-Tournament Team. A school-record 11 Longhorns garnered All-Big 12 accolades and three others picked up All-America recognition. Finishing with a 57-15 mark Texas was led by more than just a few select individuals. The 2002 Longhorns won with teamwork and unselfishness as each player on its roster came through with big plays and clutch performances to help UT win each of the five championships that it set out to claim at the beginning of the year.

Texas in the CWS Championship

1983 COLLEGE WORLD SERIES CHAMPIONS

Some seasons are called “storybook” in the clichés of sports, and some are just beyond that. For Texas, the 1983 season still ranks in another category.

The Longhorns won their fourth national championship—their second under head coach Cliff Gustafson—in five straight games at Omaha. The championship season, however, was one where UT kept dodging bullets on the way to the throne.

Texas faced elimination in the six-team regional, and then had to come from behind to win in four of its five College World Series (CWS) games.

It was Gustafson’s “ragtag” army ... a team that won hearts as well as games. Texas finished 66-14, playing and winning more games than any team in school history.

The Longhorns did it with the traditional Gustafson mainstays: great pitching and defense. Texas led the nation in pitching with a 2.72 staff ERA and finished fourth in team fielding with a .966 percentage.

Pitcher Calvin Schiraldi was named an All-American with a 14-2 record, and he and teammates Roger Clemens (13-5) and Mike Capel (13-1) all ranked in the nation’s top 10 in victories.

Texas claimed its 56th Southwest Conference title with an 18-3 record, seizing the title in the next-to-last league series of the year.

In big moments, Texas was superb, but at other times it was not. That was the interesting enigma that was the 1983 team; it could lose a doubleheader to an unknown non-conference foe and then sweep a series against such impressive opponents as Cal State Fullerton and Arizona State.

Its heroes were many and varied. First baseman Jose Tolentino hit .339, collected 100 hits and drove in 73 runs, while Kirk Killingsworth appeared in 30 games as a reliever and had a 12-3 record. In the team’s 66 wins, 16 different players delivered game-winning blows.

The club faced elimination two games into the six-team regional at Disch-Falk Field, but bounced back to beat Tulane and Pan American and toppled Mississippi State twice to advance to Omaha.

At the CWS, Texas defeated James Madison in the opener and came from behind to defeat Oklahoma State, Alabama and Michigan before scoring a 4-3 championship victory over Alabama.

By winning the College World Series in five straight games, the Longhorns became only the 10th team in NCAA history to go through the Series unbeaten.

1975 COLLEGE WORLD SERIES CHAMPIONS

It was the kind of season of which national championships are made, so it was not all that unlikely when Texas and Cliff Gustafson won the NCAA College World Series and returned the national title to UT for the first time in 25 years.

Records fell and the national championship pennant went up as the Longhorns recorded a 59-6 mark, which included a Southwest Conference record of 23-1.

In what was expected to be the toughest SWC race in years, Texas opened with a come-from-behind, extra-inning win over Houston and then stormed through the league. Only a bottom-of-the-ninth homer by Texas A&M in the season’s finale kept UT from becoming the conference’s first unbeaten team since 1946.

It was Texas’ 50th SWC title in the league’s 60 years of competition and it served as the launching pad for the Horns to sweep through the South Central Regional against South Alabama, Louisiana Tech and Pan American.

While the hitters were batting their way to records, the pitchers were chalking up a school-record 16 shutouts. Jim Gideon, who closed his Texas career with a record 40 victories, and Keith Moreland, who set numerous hitting standards, were both named All-Americans for the second time.

Another pair of stars stole the limelight as Texas claimed the national crown in Omaha. Stealing the show were sophomore Mickey Reichenbach, who was the Series’ Most Outstanding Player with a .455 batting average, three doubles and a home run, and Richard Wortham, who was named to the All-Tournament pitching staff after blitzing South Carolina, 5-1, in the championship game.

Texas began the College World Series (CWS) with a 4-2 win over Oklahoma, but a 5-2 loss to Arizona State dropped the team into the loser’s bracket. On the brink of elimination, the Longhorn hitters came to life, posting a .363 batting average in wins over Seton Hall (12-10) and South Carolina (17-6).

With three teams left in the Series—Texas, Arizona State and South Carolina—it was time to draw for the bye to the championship game. Texas trainer Spanky Stephens, who had started as a student trainer and had made every trip to Omaha, picked the envelope for the Longhorns. Texas received its long-awaited break as Arizona State and South Carolina had to play the elimination game.

South Carolina knocked off Arizona State, 4-1, to set up the showdown between Gustafson, who rose through a storied career as a Texas high school coach to become one of the nation’s premier collegiate coaches, and Bobby Richardson, who made his way to college coaching after being an All-Star second baseman for the New York Yankees.

The tone was set early as Reichenbach hit a two-run home run in the third inning to stake Texas to a 3-0 lead. Wortham limited the Gamecocks to four hits while fanning nine batters to secure the win.

Conference Championship History

BIG 12 CONFERENCE HISTORY

In the Fall of 1996, former SWC competitors Texas, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Baylor joined forces with Colorado, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State and officially began what is now known as the Big 12 Conference.

Boasting a wealth of tradition among its schools, the Big 12 has also been recognized as one of the nation's premier baseball conferences. In fact, during its first 14 years in existence, the Big 12 Conference has seen its clubs make a total of 79 appearances in NCAA Regional Championship play and had 13 teams reach the College World Series. In 2009, the Big 12 landed eight teams in the NCAA Regionals - a league best.

The top eight teams in the conference qualify to participate in the Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship at the end of the season. The tournament not only provides the winner with an automatic bid into the NCAA Regional Championships, but has become one of the top events in college baseball. This tournament returns to Oklahoma City's AT&T Bricktown Ballpark for the seventh consecutive year in 2011.

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE HISTORY

Southwest Conference competition officially ended on May 18, 1996, with the SWC postseason baseball tournament and outdoor track & field championships. Still, the success, tradition, and excellence of the circuit live on in such events as the Olympics, solid NCAA finishes and the futures of millions of student-athletes and undergraduates who were associated with the 12 universities which composed the conference from 1914-96.

A sound Olympic tradition with more than 350 first team All-America choices in the sports of football, basketball and baseball alone, over 200 GTE/SWC CoSIDA Academic All-America choices in the sports of basketball and football, and numerous Trophy winners – five Outland Trophy winners, three Vince Lombardi Trophy recipients, one Jim Thorpe Award victor and nine decades of excellence ... these are just some of the many-faceted fruits reaped by the Southwest Conference.

Little did this group know that it would leave a legacy that spanned many generations when the first organizational meeting of the proposed Southwest Conference was held at the Oriental Hotel in Dallas on May 6, 1914.

Following the 1995-96 competitive seasons of nine men's championships (the 81st consecutive year of SWC competition in two sports or more) and nine women's championships (in the SWC's 13th year of women's intercollegiate competition, starting in Sept., 1982), the SWC could boast of 64 NCAA or national wire service (football) championships in a total of 15 different men's and women's sports.

In its infancy the SWC had an even wider geographical area than the final, eight-university league. Present for the May 6 meeting were representatives from Baylor University, Southwestern University, Oklahoma A&M College (now Oklahoma State), Texas A&M College, Louisiana State University, the University of Arkansas and The University of Texas.

At a meeting of the group on Dec. 8, 1914, at the Rice Hotel in Houston, representatives from the University of Oklahoma and Rice Institute (now Rice University) entered discussions with the original seven schools. Arkansas, Baylor, Southwestern, Oklahoma, Oklahoma A&M, Texas and Texas A&M then joined the two new colleges as charter members of what was called the Southwest Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. The nation's fifth-oldest surviving collegiate conference was off and running.

By March 1915, the SWC already had its first football All-America choice in Oklahoma back Forest Geyer (1915) and had crowned Texas its first basketball team champion after the 1914-15 campaign in which the Longhorns edged Rice by a half-game for the conference title.

In 1918, Rice returned to gridiron action while Southern Methodist University permanently replaced Southwestern in the football standings. Oklahoma, which had a composite SWC football record of 10-3-1 from 1915-19 and had captured the initial championship during the 1915 season, withdrew in 1920 and was replaced during that one season by Phillips University.

Oklahoma A&M lasted until 1925 before leaving the league, but Texas Christian University entered the scene during the 1923 season. When the conference began, the annual membership fee was a nominal $10. By 1932, annual dues were fixed at $100, and the conference has remained one of the nation's best athletics bargains for almost a century.

On Nov. 24, 1921, the first ex-officio "broadcast" of any sports event took place when the Texas A&M Cadets' W.A. "Doc" Tolson and Harry M. Saunders joined electrical maintenance staffer B. Lewis Wilson to produce a wireless account of a 0-0 tie between the Aggies and Texas Longhorns in football. That was followed by the first actual radio broadcast of an SWC game on Nov. 25, 1926, when General Ike Ashburn gave the play-by-play account of A&M's 28-0 victory over Texas at College Station.

As the conference moved into the 1930's and 1940's, growing and maturing programs in all areas – from track and field to baseball to tennis to swimming and diving – were taking shape for the seven teams who survived the comings and goings and formed the crux of the SWC until Texas Tech entered in 1958. Houston later gained admission into the SWC for the 1972-73 academic year (competing for the first time in football in 1976). The SWC would also enjoy some of its most nationally-successful football seasons (four wire service national championships from 1963-70) since SMU, TCU and Texas A&M captured American college grid titles from 1935-39.

The settling effect brought with it the need to have a full-time office, headed by an Executive Secretary (later re-titled Commissioner). In 1938, Dr. P.W. St. Clair assumed a part-time position as the SWC's first Executive Secretary and served in that position until May, 1945. He was followed by James H. Stewart (1945-50), the conference's first full-time Executive Secretary, Howard Grubbs (1950-73), Cliff Speegle (1973-82), Fred Jacoby (1982-93) and Steven J. Hatchell (1993-95). Kyle Kallander was named the sixth Commissioner of the SWC in June of 1995.
