RED RAIDERS OPEN BIG 12 PLAY AGAINST NO. 4 TEXAS

Two years removed from one of the greatest collegiate football games of all time, the Texas Tech Red Raiders and the Texas Longhorns renew their rivalry inside Jones AT&T Stadium on Saturday evening in front of a national television audience. Both teams enter Saturday's game with unblemished records as Texas handled Rice and Wyoming in its first two games of the year while Tech took care of SMU and New Mexico. The Longhorns are No. 6 in this week's Associated Press poll and No. 4 in the USA Today/Coaches poll while the Red Raiders are unranked but receiving votes. Saturday's game will be televised in primetime on ABC with a reverse mirror on ESPN2, meaning those sections of the country that will get the Notre Dame-Michigan State game on ABC, will be able to watch the Red Raiders and Longhorns on ESPN2. Announcing the game for ABC/ESPN will be Ron Franklin (play-by-play), Ed Cunningham (analyst) and Jeannine Edwards (sidelines). The game will also be carried nationally on the dial as the Compass Radio Network will provide a live broadcast with Drew Bontadelli and Joe Senser calling the action.

RED RAIDERS HANDLE NEW MEXICO ON THE ROAD

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)- Taylor Potts tossed three touchdown passes, with two of those going to Lyle Leong, to lead Texas Tech to a 52-17 victory Saturday over New Mexico. The Red Raiders (2-0) benefited from two blocked punts at the beginning of each half that led to short touchdown drives. The Lobos (0-2) didn't help themselves, committing 16 penalties that cost them 145 yards. New Mexico quarterback B.R. Holbrook had 323 yards passing, his first career 300-yard game, and UNM receiver Ty Kirk set a career high with 119 yards. Potts, who completed passes to nine different receivers, went 22-34 in the air, with Leong catching five for 75 yards. Baron Batch also rushed for two touchdowns for Texas Tech. The Red Raiders took a 24-3 lead early in the second quarter before the Lobos closed within 31-17 and had a chance for more points before halftime, but an offensive pass interference and a personal foul on the same play negated a UNM touchdown with seven seconds left. Texas Tech scored 45 seconds into the game on a 55-yard pass from Potts to Austin Zouzalik. Aaron Crawford then blocked a punt on the Lobos' next possession with Jonathan Brydon recovering at the 3. Eric Stephens scored on the next play for a 14-0 Red Raiders' lead five minutes into the game. After a New Mexico field goal on the next possession, Stephens returned the kickoff 93 yards to the UNM 7, with Batch scoring two plays later.

Seeking the chance to take the Big 12's third winningest program to new heights, Tommy Tuberville was named the 14th head coach in school history on January 10, 2010.

Tuberville inherits a program that has been bowl eligible for a Big 12 record 16 consecutive seasons and has won 29 games in the last three seasons. His SEC coaching pedigree suggests that his impact on the Red Raider program will be substantial and his first test will arrive on Sept. 5 when Texas Tech opens the 2010 season at home against the SMU Mustangs.

In 10 seasons at Auburn, Tuberville led the Tigers to 85 overall wins, which ranks fourth in school history. The Tigers also won 49 Southeastern Conference games, a number that is the fourth-best mark in the SEC. Tuberville led Auburn to seven straight bowl appearances, including New Year's Day bowl games in four of those years.

In 2007, Tuberville led Auburn to an 9-4 mark, including a 5-3 record in the Southeastern Conference with wins at No. 4 Florida and a record-setting sixth consecutive win over Alabama in the Iron Bowl. The Tigers concluded the season with an overtime victory over Clemson in the Chick-fil-A Bowl, marking the program's fifth bowl victory in the last six seasons. For the second consecutive year, Tuberville was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award for his efforts on and off the field.

The 2006 season saw Tuberville direct the Tigers to their second season with at least 10 wins in the previous three years with an 11-2 record after a 17-14 victory over Nebraska in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic. One of three finalist for the inaugural Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Tuberville's 2006 squad was the only program in the country to defeat two teams ranked in the top five nationally - National Champion Florida and LSU.

Coming off a perfect 13-0 season in 2004, expectations for Tommy Tuberville's 2005 Auburn squad were modest after the Tigers lost four players to the first round of the NFL draft, including their entire starting backfield. But Auburn surprised many of the experts, finishing 9-3 and earning a share of its fifth Southeastern Conference Western Division title in six years. Auburn ended the regular season with back-to-back victories over Georgia and Alabama - two teams ranked at the time in the top 10 - setting a new school record in the process with 22 victories over a two year period.

In 2004, Tuberville led Auburn to its best season ever as the Tigers won a school-record 13 games and captured the SEC Championship and the NOKIA Sugar Bowl title. Auburn won its first conference title since 1989 including its first outright championship since 1987.

Auburn defeated five top 15 teams, becoming just the 10th NCAA Division I-A team to finish 13-0 or better. The Tigers earned their first ever berth in a Bowl Championship Series game and defeated Virginia Tech, 16-13 in the Sugar Bowl. For his efforts, Tuberville was named the AFCA, Associated Press, Paul "Bear" Bryant, FCA, SEC and Walter Camp Coach of the Year.

The season before Tuberville's arrival, Auburn finished with a dismal 3-8 overall record and a last place finish in the SEC Western Division. Tuberville guided the program back to the top of the league standings, leading Auburn to an SEC Championship, five Western Division titles including outright championships in 2000 and 2004 and co-championships in 2001, 2002 and 2005. Since 2000, the program is tied for the best conference record among SEC teams with a mark of 47-17 (.734). Tuberville has directed Auburn to eight consecutive bowl appearances, including five New Year's Day bowl berths and three consecutive January 1 bowl games from 2005-07.

Tuberville built an Auburn program that excelled both on and off the field. Players flourished under Tuberville's guidance as Auburn earned 36 first-team All-Southeastern Conference awards, eight All-America honors, 26 SEC All-Freshmen accolades, 57 SEC Player of the Week honors, two SEC Player of the Year awards, two Jacobs Awards presented annually to the league's top blocker and one Most Valuable Player of the SEC Championship game.

Thirty-two players have been selected in the NFL Draft including an SEC-record four in the first round of the 2005 Draft. Running backs Ronnie Brown and Carnell Williams were taken second and fifth respectively, while cornerback Carlos Rogers was selected ninth overall and quarterback Jason Campbell was picked 25th in the first round. It also marked the first time in NFL Draft history that an entire backfield from the same team was taken in the first round. Since 2004, 26 Auburn players have been drafted, including 22 in the last five drafts. Of those 22 selections since 2005, almost half have been selected in the first two rounds; five first-round selections and five second-round picks.

Carnell Williams earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2005, while in 2006 Marcus McNeill became the first NFL rookie offensive lineman in 16 years to start in the Pro Bowl. McNeill was named to the 2007 Pro Bowl making him just the second NFL lineman ever to be named to the Pro Bowl in their first two years.

The East team head coach at the 2006 Hula Bowl, Tuberville is currently on the Board of Trustees of the American Football Coaches Association and is serving a three-year term on the AFCA rules committee. For his numerous achievements during his career, Tuberville was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in February, 2008.

Off the field, Auburn earned more than 81 SEC Academic Honor Roll distinctions during Tuberville's tenure, and when the NCAA released its Academic Progress Report (APR) in February 2006, Auburn football had a multi-year score of 981, which was the highest score among public BCS conference institutions. The program received public recognition from the NCAA for being in the top 10 percentile nationally and was one of only four BCS institutions to earn such distinctions.

Tuberville's community service reached well beyond the local, state and national level in May 2008, when he participated in the inaugural Armed Forces Entertainment Coaches Tour in the Middle East with fellow college coaches Mark Richt of Georgia, Randy Shannon of Miami (Fla.), Jack Siedlecki of Yale and Charlie Weis of Notre Dame. With a mission to help boost troop morale, the six-day tour made stops at military bases in Germany, Qatar, Bahrain, United Arab Emirates and a visit to the USS Nassau in the Persian Gulf.

In addition, Tuberville continually stresses the importance of participating in community service projects to Auburn's football team. Auburn football players regularly read at local schools, serve as mentors and visit with the elderly. The last two summers, the football team spent a day working at Story Book Farm which is a non-profit organization that provides therapeutic horseback riding for children suffering from disabilities, chronic illnesses or those who have suffered a loss.

Tuberville understands the process and commitment it takes to build a successful program. Coaching stops at perennial college football powers University of Miami and Texas A&M and a four-year head coaching stint at the University of Mississippi gave him the background in building and maintaining a successful program.

He began his coaching career at Hermitage (Ark.) High School where he spent two years as an assistant and two as a head coach. After three straight four-win seasons, Tuberville guided HHS to a 7-3 mark in 1979 before moving to Arkansas State.

A 1976 graduate of Southern Arkansas University, Tuberville was a letterman at free safety and a two-year member of the golf team at SAU. He is a 1972 graduate of Harmony Grove High School in Camden, Ark.

Tuberville is married to the former Suzanne Fette of Guilford, Ind. They are the parents of two sons, Thomas Tucker and Troy Allen.

TEXAS TECH AND TEXAS

The Texas Tech-Texas rivalry will be played out for the 59th time on Saturday evening in front of a national television audience on ABC. The Red Raiders and Longhorns first met on the gridiron back in 1928 and have played annually since 1960. Texas leads the all-time series 43-15, including a 34-24 win over Tech last season in Austin. Texas Tech's last win in the series was in 2008 when the Red Raiders upset the top-ranked Longhorns 39-33. This will mark the third-straight season that Texas Tech has faced a Texas team that is ranked in the top five in the nation.

LAST TIME AGAINST TEXAS

AUSTIN (AP) - Texas fans will call it revenge. The Longhorns were more likely to describe it as relief. Colt McCoy threw a 3-yard touchdown pass to Dan Buckner in the fourth quarter that gave the Longhorns some room and No. 2 Texas beat feisty Texas Tech and their prolific new passer 34-24 Saturday night. The pass to Buckner with nine minutes left put Texas ahead 31-17, but it was an otherwise shaky outing for last season's runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. McCoy finished with 205 yards and two interceptions on 24 of 34 passing for the Longhorns (3-0, 1-0 Big 12). After Texas Tech (2-1, 0-1) spoiled the Longhorns' national title hopes with a 39-33 win in Lubbock last season--on a touchdown with 1 second to play--a record crowd of 101,297 was looking to whoop it up for a 4-hour blowout behind McCoy & Co. What they got was a hard-hitting first half in which neither team scored an offensive touchdown. When the fireworks finally cranked up in the second half, they watched as Red Raiders quarterback Taylor Potts would not let the Longhorns pull away. Potts, the latest gunslinging quarterback to guide Texas Tech's passing wizardry, finished with 420 yards and three touchdowns. But he also had two fourth quarter turnovers, including a fumble on a sack by Sergio Kindle to set up McCoy's TD pass. Even after the big hit, Potts' led a touchdown drive to keep the Red Raiders in the game. McCoy took his share of lumps too. On one of his first runs of a game, a defender met him at the line of scrimmage and knocked his helmet off. The drive stalled when he was sacked on the next play. Jordan Shipley's 46-yard punt return in the first quarter for Texas was the only time either team reached the end zone in the first half that ended 10-3. Shipley caught the ball in the middle of the field, dashed straight ahead, then broke to his right and outran punter Donnie Carona to the corner. His momentum took him all the way to the massive live Longhorn mascot Bevo and he startled the big fella. The offenses got going in the third quarter. Texas scored the first offensive touchdown on the first drive of the second half. McCoy converted three third downs with passes before Tre' Newton scooted 19 yards up the middle for a 17-3 Texas lead. The Red Raiders immediately answered with Potts' throwing the first of two touchdowns to Lyle Leong, who was wide open after beating cornerback Chykie Brown on a fake for a 14-yarder. Leach tried to catch the Longhorns off guard with an inside kick, but Texas recovered at the Red Raiders' 47. Given the short field, McCoy found Buckner with a completion across the middle to the Texas Tech 1 before Cody Johnson punched it in for the touchdown. Potts was getting better as the game wore on. The Red Raiders marched right down the field to get back within a touchdown on Potts' 10-yard TD pass to Leong again. After picking apart the Texas defense, Potts gave up two turnovers in the fourth that swung the game. The first came when Kindle pressured Potts in the end zone and forced a bad pass across the middle that went right to Texas safety Earl Thomas. The drive didn't end up hurting the Red Raiders when McCoy threw his second interception. Potts lamented those mistakes and Texas Tech's 14 penalties.

HARD TO TOP

Texas Tech and Texas will meet inside Jones AT&T Stadium for the first time since Michael Crabtree's last second touchdown catch, that gave the Red Raiders their first-ever win over a No. 1 ranked team. The game in 2008 went down in the books as one of the most watched games in ABC/ESPN history as 10.88 million viewers across the country tuned in to watch the Red Raiders shock the top-ranked Longhorns 39-33. Texas Tech fell behind with just under 1:30 to play in the game and quarterback Graham Harrell quickly marched the Red Raiders down the field. Harrell tossed a 28-yard touchdown pass to Crabtree with one second remaining to secure the win.

TEXAS TECH AND TEXAS IN PRIMETIME

For the third consecutive year, the in-state battle between Texas Tech and Texas will be televised in front of a national audience in primetime on ABC. The 2008 game earned a national telecast as the game pitted the No. 5 Red Raiders against the top-ranked Longhorns. The ratings success of the 2008 game prompted ESPN along with Texas Tech and Texas university officials to move the 2009 game to mid-September in order to accommodate another primetime broadcast on ABC. The 2009 game was also an instant ratings hit and thus prompted the move of this year's game to Sept. 18 and yet another national broadcast on ABC.

A FIRST FOR BROWN AND TUBERVILLE

Two of the great coaches in college football will square off for the first time on Saturday night inside Jones AT&T Stadium. This will mark the first time that Texas Tech head coach Tommy Tuberville and Texas head coach Mack Brown will play each other as head coaches. Brown has been a collegiate head coach for 26 seasons while Tuberville has been roaming the sidelines as a skipper for 15 years.

SATURDAY'S GAME IS A SELLOUT

Saturday's game between Texas Tech and Texas is officially a sellout and, with the recent stadium expansion, that will mean a new stadium record attendance. The current capacity for Jones AT&T Stadium is 60,454 and that number is expected to be exceeded on Saturday. No single game tickets were made available for purchase as all tickets to the game were purchased through season ticket sales or through a mini-pack that consisted of the Texas and Weber State games.

2010 RED RAIDER FOOTBALL

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TUBS

Texas Tech head coach Tommy Tuberville will be looking for a special gift this week - a win over Texas. Tuberville will celebrate his 56th birthday on Saturday when the Red Raiders take on the fourth-ranked Longhorns at Jones AT&T Stadium. Coach Tuberville is 2-0 all-time (as head coach) on his birthday with both wins coming while he was the head coach of the Auburn Tigers. Over the span of his 31-year collegiate coaching career, his teams are a combined 4-0 on his birthday.

Tuberville On His Birthday - Head Coach

2004 (Auburn) W, 10-9 vs. LSU
1999 (Auburn) W, 41-7 at LSU

Tuberville On His Birthday - Assistant Coach

1993 (Miami) W, 21-2 vs. Virginia Tech
1982 (Ark. State) W, 13-12 vs. Tennessee-Chattanooga

LaCOUR LEADING THE SPECIAL TEAMS UNIT

The play of senior punter Jonathan LaCour has been one of the biggest surprises through two games this season. LaCour, who was suspended by the Big 12 for the first six games of 2009 and ended up not playing the entire year, is second in the Big 12 in punting at 48.0 yards-per-game. He trails Oklahoma's Tress Way by the slimmest of margins as Way leads the league at 48.2 yards-per-game. In his first punt of the 2010 season (and his first in a game since 2008), LaCour booted the pigskin 60 yards and that tied his career long that he set against Baylor in 2007.

- On the other side of things, Texas Tech blocked two punts on Saturday at New Mexico which was a first by the Red Raiders this century. Both blocked punts set up touchdowns and helped Tech cruise to a 52-17 win.

STEPHENS MOVING UP ON KICKOFF CHARTS

Sophomore Eric Stephens, who set the single-season kickoff return yardage record as a freshman in 2009, is just 190 yards away from moving into first place on the school's career list. Stephens currently has 1,120 career kickoff return yards and 190 more will move him past All-American and college football hall of fame member Donny Anderson who posted 1,309 between 1963-65.

- Ranks sixth with 41 career returns and needs seven more to move into sole possession of fourth place.
- Totaled 264 all-purpose yards against New Mexico that included 175 kickoff return yards, 46 rushing yards and 43 yards receiving.
- His 93-yard return midway through the first quarter against UNM marked a career long. His previous long was a 64-yard return last season against Baylor in Cowboys Stadium.

"LYNWOOD" MOVES INTO SECOND

Two years removed from one of the most intriguing stories in all of college football, senior placekicker Matt "Lynwood" Williams has moved into second place on the career PAT list at Texas Tech. Williams earned national attention after former head coach Mike Leach stopped Williams after he participated in a third quarter Kick For Rent contest, sponsored by Lynwood Townhomes, on Sept. 20, 2008, against UMASS. Leach was so impressed by Williams that he offered him the chance to walk on and earn a spot on the team. Williams was successful in his try-out and his first collegiate action came at Kansas where he was successful on nine extra point attempts against the Jayhawks. His first career field goal (29-yards) came in the game against Texas the very next week.

- Since the Kansas game in 2008, Williams has made 105 extra point attempts and now ranks second behind Alex Trlica who owns both the school and NCAA record of 233.

ALL DRESSED IN WHITE

There was a lot of white on the Texas Tech sideline against New Mexico as the Red Raiders dressed in white pants, white jerseys and white helmets. Tech wore white helmets in a game for the first time since the Jim Carlen era between 1970-74.

TECH LIGHTS UP THE SCOREBOARD AT UNM

The Texas Tech offense lit up the Lobo scoreboard to the tune of 52 points on Saturday evening at University Stadium. The 52 points scored were the most by the Red Raiders since a 66-14 beating of Kansas State last season (Oct. 10).

TECH NAMES PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Texas Tech has announced its players of the week following Saturday's 52-17 win over New Mexico. Left guard Lonnie Edwards picked up the offensive honors while Scott Smith earned the nod on the defensive side of the ball. Aaron Crawford picked up special teams accolades. The scout team players of the week were Andre McCorkle (offense) and Dartwan Bush (defense).

OLD RELIABLE

Senior NT Colby Whitlock might very well be one of the best defensive linemen in the country and he has the resume to back it up. Whitlock has made 38 consecutive starts dating back to his freshman season in 2007 and will be in search of No. 39 on Saturday against Texas. Whitlock, an Oklahoma native, cracked the starting lineup at Oklahoma State on Sept. 22, 2007, and hasn't looked back since - racking up 133 total tackles, including 22 for a loss. Fellow senior Brian Duncan is right behind him with 36 consecutive starts dating back to the Northwestern State game in 2007.

SECONDARY TAKING ADVANTAGE

The Texas Tech secondary has been opportunistic in the first two games of the 2010 season as the group has racked up five interceptions. With five pickoffs, Texas Tech is only five away from tying its entire total (10) from all of last season.

RECORDS WATCH - TAYLOR POTTS

- Needs 356 passing yards to move in 7th place (career passing yardage)
- Needs 5 touchdowns to move into 6th place (career touchdowns)
- Needs 63 passing attempts to move into 8th place (career passing attempts)
- Needs 42 pass completions to move into 7th place (career passing completions)

MAKE THAT EIGHT

Texas Tech's 35-27 victory over SMU on Sunday marked eight straight season-opening wins for the Red Raiders dating back to the 2003 season. The rare Sunday game (a first since the 1996 Alamo Bowl) was played before a national audience on ESPN and was the debut for coach Tommy Tuberville.

TUBERVILLE ERA BEGINS WITH A WIN

The much anticipated Tommy Tuberville era at Texas Tech began with a 35-27 win over SMU. Tuberville is now 2-1 all-time in his coaching career when starting a new job. He lost his opener at Ole Miss (46-13 to Auburn) in 1995 but was victorious in his debut at Auburn as the Tigers defeated Appalachian State 22-15 in 1999.

RECORD CROWDS TURN OUT FOR THE OPENER

The excitement of a new era of Red Raider football continues to build as record crowds turned out for Texas Tech's season opener against SMU. The second largest crowd (57,528) in Jones AT&T Stadium history watched the Red Raiders defeat SMU on Sunday afternoon. The 57,528 fans were the most to ever attend a home season opener and topped last season's home opening crowd of 47,824 against North Dakota. Amongst the crowd were 12,910 Texas Tech students and that is the largest student crowd in school history.

RAIDER WALK A HUGE SUCCESS IN WEEK ONE

The first Raider Walk in school history was an overwhelming success as the crowd was estimated at between 10 and 12 thousand fans. The Raider Walk is the pathway that the team takes by foot from the corner of Canton Ave. and Drive of Champions to the Football Training Facility. The walk begins two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff each home game.

FIRST TOUCHDOWNS GO TO LEONG

Senior quarterback Taylor Potts found his old high school buddy Lyle Leong in the corner of the end zone for a two-yard touchdown strike that marked the first of the season for the Red Raiders on Sunday against SMU. Leong didn't stop there as he caught the second touchdown (six-yard reception) of the game with 14:30 remaining in the second quarter to help the Red Raiders build a 14-0 lead.

CAREER DAY FOR LEONG

Lyle Leong got his senior year off with a bang as he led the Red Raider offense with 11 catches, 142 receiving yards and three touchdowns against SMU. Leong surpassed his previous career high of nine receptions and 117 yards receiving that he set last season against Rice. His three touchdowns on the afternoon tied his career high (set twice previously) and it marked the fifth multiple touchdown game of his career.

POTTS IMPRESSIVE AGAINST SMU

Senior quarterback Taylor Potts enjoyed a solid season opener on Sunday and led the Red Raiders to a 35-27 win over SMU. Potts completed 34 of 53 passes without an interception and piled up 359 passing yards along with four touchdowns through the air. In the season opener last season against North Dakota, Potts was 34-of-48 with three interceptions while throwing for 405 yards and two touchdowns.

PROTECTING THE HOUSE

As Under Armour (Texas Tech's official apparel provider) would say, "We Must Protect This House." Texas Tech has taken that motto seriously over the years as the Red Raiders have amassed a home record of 41-6 since 2003. The .872 winning percentage ranks third in the league behind Texas and Oklahoma.

RECORD SEASON TICKET SALES

The Red Raider faithful have spoken in record numbers in regards to the excitement of the arrival of coach Tuberville and this new era of Texas Tech football. On July 21, 2010, Texas Tech announced that a new school record in season ticket sales had been established - and by the first game against SMU, the old record was shattered. Texas Tech's final season ticket count was 46,565 which blew away the previous record of 41,740.

ALL ABOUT RED

Texas Tech head coach Tommy Tuberville and the athletics department announced a new RED OUT Initiative on Friday, August 20. Red Raider fans have been urged to wear RED each and every time they attend a Texas Tech sporting event, home or away.

EXPANSION, EXPANSION

Texas Tech's Jones AT&T Stadium can lay claim to being one of just a few stadiums across the country that expanded twice within one calendar year. The addition of 6,000 north end zone seats prior to the Texas A&M game on Oct. 29, 2009, coupled with the opening of the east side stadium building for the 2010 season opener has increased stadium capacity to 60,454. The east side stadium building features 29 luxury suites along with 544 outdoor club seats as well as a private dining club that will be open daily to members. When combined with the west side stadium building, Jones AT&T Stadium now boasts 83 luxury suites and 1,644 club seats. In addition to the stadium, Texas Tech also spent close to 2.3 million in renovating the football training facility. A football hall of fame and turf practice field were added while the locker room and weight room underwent major renovations.

THIRD WINNINGEST PROGRAM THIS CENTURY

Texas Tech enters the 2010 season as the third winningest Big 12 program in this century. With 47 league wins since 2000, Texas Tech ranks behind Texas and Oklahoma who lead the way with 69 and 67, respectively.

EIGHT-STRAIGHT

Texas Tech football has reeled of eight-straight seasons of winning eight-plus games and that streak has made the Red Raiders one of the most consistent programs in the nation. Texas Tech is also in the middle of a streak of 15-straight winning seasons.

BIG 12 BOWL RECORD CONTINUES

Texas Tech's appearance in the 2010 Valero Alamo Bowl (a 41-31 win over Michigan State) marked the 16th-consecutive year of bowl eligibility for the Red Raider football program - a Big 12 record. Texas Tech will be looking to push that streak to 17 consecutive years this season and the Red Raiders will be in search of their 10th-straight bowl appearance and 34th overall.

DEGREES IN HAND

Eight players on this year's team have already completed the bachelor's degree and are either pursuing a second degree or are enrolled in graduate school.

HERE WE GO AGAIN

In what seems to be the norm in the summertime, the Red Raiders aren't getting any love when it comes to predicting the order of finish in the Big 12 South Division. Texas Tech is picked to finish fourth in the division behind Oklahoma, Texas and Texas A&M. Texas Tech has finished higher in the Big 12 South than its preseason prediction in four of the last five years.

PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

Texas Tech has three offensive players listed on preseason watchlists in quarterback Taylor Potts, wide receiver Detron Lewis and running back Baron Batch. Potts is a preseason candidate for the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback) for the second straight year as is Lewis who is up for the Biletnikoff Award (nation's top receiver). Batch is also a preseason candidate for the Doak Walker Award for the second straight year. On the defensive side, Brian Duncan has been named to the preseason watchlists for the Dick Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker), the Lott Trophy (nation's top defensive player) and the Bronko Nagurski Award (nation's top defensive player).

YOUNG STAFF

Tommy Tuberville has assembled a young and energetic coaching staff here in his first season at Texas Tech and one that he believes can help bring Tech its first major football championship. The average age of this year's staff is 37 years old. Offensively, the average age drops to 31 years old and is led by Neal Brown (30), the third youngest coordinator in the FBS. Defensively, the average age is 39 years old and the group is anchored by James Willis (38), the 37th youngest coordinator in the FBS.

YOUNGEST COORDINATORS IN THE FBS

Age	Name	School	O/D	DOB
27	Lincoln Riley	East Carolina	offensive	9/5/83

MASKED RIDER EARNS HIGH PRAISE

The Masked Rider was ranked as the ninth best mascot in college football according to a poll released on August 21, 2010, by The Associated Press. The poll listed the top 12 mascots in the nation and included Big 12 schools Colorado (Ralphie) and Texas (Bevo).

OFFENSIVE LINE GETS A MAKEOVER

Texas Tech's offensive line got a makeover during the offseason and the coaching staff hopes it pays dividends this season. Overall, the group only lost a total of 24 pounds but that does not give the proper insight into the radical change that has occurred. Terry McDaniel, Deveric Gallington, Mickey Okafor and LaAdrian Waddle lost a combined 98 pounds from the end of last season to the start of training camp. Tech offensive line coach Matt Moore wanted to see slimmer and more quick-footed players on the line and he hopes the changes in body types will do the trick. There were a few weight gains in the group as Lonnie Edwards gained 32 pounds, Jonathan Guerra added 16, Blake Emert put on 10 and Chris Olson added four.

START YOUR ENGINES

A new term in the Texas Tech offense is "NASCAR" and the only setback might be the fact that the officiating crew may not be able to keep pace. First-year offense coordinator Neal Brown will play an up-tempo scheme designed to keep the offense in a rhythm and hopefully the defense on its heels. One of the biggest changes from years past, is that the play calling will come from the sidelines and will no longer be in the hands of the quarterback.

THE STABLE IS FULL

Texas Tech running back coach Chad Scott can't help but get excited when he opens the barn door that reveals a talented stable of running backs. Led by senior Baron Batch, the running back situation at Texas Tech may be at its best since the late 1990's when Tech had the nickname of "Tailback U." Batch and sophomore Eric Stephens, who showed tremendous potential as a freshman, are leading the way for the Red Raiders but are a getting a strong push from junior Aaron Crawford and freshman Ben McRoy.

POTTS NAMED STARTING QUARTERBACK

Senior gunslinger Taylor Potts was named the starting quarterback for the 2010 season and will take the reins of the Tech offense against SMU on Sept. 5. Potts, a 2010 Davey O'Brien preseason candidate, made 10 starts in 2009 and threw for 3,440 yards along with 22 touchdowns. He wrapped up the 2009 season in impressive fashion as he threw for 372 yards and two touchdowns on 29-of-43 passing against Michigan State in the Valero Alamo Bowl. That effort paced the Red Raiders to a 41-31 win over the Spartans and after the game he was named the offensive most valuable player.

NAME & JERSEY NUMBER CHANGE FOR POTTS

No more "Nick" and no more No. 15. Taylor Potts is just Taylor Potts and he is reverting back to his high school number (12) for his senior season.

NEW PHILOSOPHY

Possibly the biggest message of Coach Tuberville's brief tenure at Texas Tech has been that defense wins championships. That mentality has brought an entirely new focus to the Red Raider defensive unit that was often overlooked by Tech's high-powered offense. Led by coordinator James Willis, the new look Texas Tech defense will be aggressive and has some star power of its own in senior linebacker Bront Bird and Brian Duncan along with senior nose tackle Colby Whitlock. All three players have the potential to play at the next level and will be the catalysts for Willis' first defensive unit on the South Plains.

BIRD AND DUNCAN CLOG THE MIDDLE

Texas Tech will have two of the top linebackers in the Big 12 clogging up the middle in 2010 with the return of seniors Bront Bird and Brian Duncan. Duncan was the team leader in tackles last season with 88 and will be another key figure in 2010. Duncan will be moving to the outside this year and will at times be like a rush end. He has been named to the watchlists for the Butkus Award as well as the Lott and Nagurski Trophies. Bird finished sixth on the team in 2009 with 56 total tackles and has become one of the key leaders on the defensive unit. He gained nearly 10 pounds in the off season and will make the move to middle linebacker after playing previously on the outside.

DAVIS LOOKS FOR BIG THINGS AS SOPHOMORE

Sophomore safety Cody Davis earned Freshman All-American honors in his Red Raider debut in 2009 and now he's looking to shake the freshman title and become Tech's first defensive All-American since Kevin Curtis in 2001. Davis was second on the squad with 81 total tackles in 2009 and picked up honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Taylor Potts threw for 359 yards and four touchdowns to lead Texas Tech over SMU 35-27 and give Tommy Tuberville a victory Sunday in his first game as Red Raiders coach.

Tuberville took over after the popular and successful Mike Leach was fired in December amid allegations he mistreated an injured player.

Tuberville promised to stick with a pass-heavy offense that helped Leach make the Red Raiders famous. Promise kept.

Potts was 34 for 53 with no interceptions and connected with Lyle Leong for three scores and Detron Lewis for the other.

Texas Tech ran its winning streak against SMU to 14 games, dating back to 1989.

Eric Stephens rushed for 3-yard TD to put Texas Tech up 35-14 midway through the third quarter.

The Mustangs had a chance late and were driving when they failed to convert a fourth-and-21 from the 50 on their final drive.

Texas Tech intercepted SMU quarterback Kyle Padron three times. He threw for 218 yards.

The Mustangs rallied behind their special teams. Darryl Fields returned a kickoff 92 yards to set up a 24-yard field to pull SMU within 35-17. Early in the fourth, Matt Szymanski booted a 61-yard field, his longest ever.

Texas Tech's defense had to task of trying to stop Padron, who threw for a school-record 460 yards and two touchdowns running coach June Jones' run-n-shoot in a 45-10 win over Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl.

For Leong it was a career day in receptions and yardage, grabbing 11 passes for 142 yards.

Stephens touchdown came late in the third quarter when he juke back and forth in the backfield before getting around defenders on the right side and skipping untouched into the end zone.

Tech's special teams and defense set up the first two Red Raiders scores. Cornelius Douglas forced a fumble as Kenneth Acker fielded a punt deep in SMU's own territory late in the first quarter and Franklin Mitchell recovered it at the 18.

Tech ran the ball four consecutive times - something Leach rarely did - before Potts found Leong in the corner of the end zone for a 2-yard touchdown to give Tech a 7-0 lead.

On the second play of SMU's next possession, redshirt freshman Jarvis Phillips stepped in front of a pass from Padron to set up Potts's second TD pass. The 6-yard score went over the middle to Leong who was wide open near the back of the end zone.

SMU scored its first touchdown on its final drive of the first half as Padron led a 13-play drive, including his scrambling for 18 yards for a first down on fourth-and-3 from Tech's 34. Zach Line scored from 2 yards and the Mustangs were down by only one score.

Tuberville's 111th career victory came in the Red Raiders now-less-lopsided stadium. The east side of the stadium now has a $25 million addition where all 29 new suites were sold for the opener. The addition ups the stadium's capacity to 60,454.

GAME TWO • Texas Tech 52, New Mexico 17

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL

New Mexico	3	14	0	0	17

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) - Taylor Potts tossed three touchdown passes, with two of those going to Lyle Leong, to lead Texas Tech to a 52-17 victory Saturday over New Mexico.

The Red Raiders (2-0) benefited from two blocked punts at the beginning of each half that led to short touchdown drives.

The Lobos (0-2) didn't help themselves, committing 16 penalties that cost them 145 yards.

New Mexico quarterback B.R. Holbrook had 323 yards passing, his first career 300-yard game, and UNM receiver Ty Kirk set a career high with 119 yards.

Potts, who completed passes to nine different receivers, went 22-34 in the air, with Leong catching five for 75 yards.

Baron Batch also rushed for two touchdowns for Texas Tech.

The Red Raiders took a 24-3 lead early in the second quarter before the Lobos closed within 31-17 and had a chance for more points before halftime, but an offensive pass interference and a personal foul on the same play negated a UNM touchdown with seven seconds left.

Texas Tech scored 45 seconds into the game on a 55-yard pass from Potts to Austin Zouzalik.

Aaron Crawford then blocked a punt on the Lobos' next possession with Jonathan Brydon recovering at the 3. Eric Stephens scored on the next play for a 14-0 Red Raiders' lead five minutes into the game.

After a New Mexico field goal on the next possession, Stephens returned the kickoff 93 yards to the UNM 7, with Batch scoring two plays later.
