STARTING OFF...
 The Texas Tech soccer team closes the regular season this weekend, hosting in-state rival Texas A&M Friday at 7 p.m., before facing TCU Sunday at 1 p.m. for Senior Day.

LOOKING AHEAD
 After Friday's match against Texas A&M, the Red Raiders will turn to scoreboard watching to determine whether they have qualified for the Big 12 Championship. The top eight schools advance to the championship, which is held Nov. 5-9, in San Antonio, Texas.

SCOUTING TEXAS A&M
 Texas A&M arrives in Lubbock reeling from two-consecutive losses last weekend at the hands of Kansas (1-0) and Missouri (3-0). Despite the losses, the Aggies remain the No. 11-ranked team in the nation in the Soccer America poll, sitting 12-3-1 overall and 5-2-1 in Big 12 play. The Aggies are currently second in the Big 12 standings, trailing only Colorado.

Texas A&M has four players - Laura Robinson, Jennifer Kmezich, Rachel Shipley and Amber Gnatzig - who have over 10 points with Robinson and Kmezich leading the team with five goals each. Following Kristin Arnold's season-ending injury at the beginning of the year, Kelly Dyer has been the Aggies' main goalkeeper, posting five shutouts and 57 saves, while being named the conference defender of the week three times already.

The Aggies are led by G. Guerrieri, who has posted a 267-76-15 overall record in his 15 seasons in College Station. Texas A&M returns 12 letterwinners, including six starters, off its 2007 squad that finished 18-4-2 and won the Big 12 regular season title, before falling to Texas in the second round of the NCAA Championship.

SCOUTING TCU
 TCU enters this weekend tied for second in the Mountain West Conference at 11-3-1 overall and 3-2 in conference. Tech has lost seven of its last eight meetings with the Horned Frogs, including last year's 2-1 loss in Fort Worth. The Horned Frogs are lead offensively by Jordan Calhoun and Lizzy Caroly, who both have over 20 points on the year with Caroly leading the team with 13 goals. Kelsey Walters had played most of the minute in goal, posting five shutouts and 55 saves, while only allowing 10 goals. TCU is coached by Dan Abdalla, who is 31-33-5 in his three seasons at TCU. The Horned Frogs return 16 letterwinners, including 10 starters, off last season's team that finished 8-11 overall and sixth in the Mountain West.

KEEP AN EYE ON...JUNIOR EMMIE BENNETT
 Battling injury throughout the season, junior Emmie Bennett has steadily seen a rise in minutes over the past four matches, moving to the backline from her regular midfield position. Since playing 93 minutes in the overtime victory over Baylor, Bennett has played all 90 minutes over the past three matches.

BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP OUT OF TECH'S CONTROL

Despite having a five point lead for eighth place over Baylor and Oklahoma, the Red Raiders enter the final weekend of play without complete control of qualifying for the Big 12 Championship. While Tech has only one conference match remaining, Baylor, Oklahoma and Iowa State all lack three matches, allowing each to jump the Red Raiders for the final spot. The fewest amount of points to qualify for the conference championship since the field expanded to eight teams in 1999 is nine. Tech has never advanced to the Big 12 Championship in consecutive seasons. With a Tech win over Texas A&M, Baylor and OU would be forced to win all three remaining matches to jump Tech in standings, while Iowa State would automatically be eliminated. If Tech loses, Baylor and OU would have to win two of their remaining matches, while ISU would have to win all three.

HOFFERT NAMED TO BIG 12 FALL COMMUNITY OF CHAMPIONS

For her effort off the playing field, junior Megan Hoffert was named Tech's representative on the Big 12 Fall Community of Champions this week. Along with being president of the Student-Athlete Committee, Hoffert is also involved in various community activities around the Lubbock area.

LYTLE RISING UP TECH RECORD BOOK

With her two assists against Iowa State, redshirt freshman Taylor Lytle is already among the top 10 all-time career assist leaders. Her seven assists are tied for eighth place with Amy Rutstein and Kelly Taylor, while she has also moved into fourth place on the single season assist charts, two shy of Kristi Patterson and Kristy Frantz' record nine assists.

TECH ON SENIOR DAY

Tech will honor its two seniors, goalkeeper Tina Rincon and midfielder Shannon Sims, prior to Sunday's match against TCU. Rincon, the Tech all-time career shutouts leader, and Sims are both four-year letterwinners and have a combined 119 games played among them. The Red Raiders are a combined 4-14 all-time on Senior Day, but are winners of its last two contests. Tech defeated Baylor, 2-0, in 2006 to close the season and upset nationally-ranked Oklahoma State with a 1-0 victory last season.

ONE GOAL NEVER ENOUGH FOR HINDS

When Katie Hinds nets one goal, expect another to come shortly after. Hinds has six career goals, all this season, with all six coming from multiple-goal games. Hinds connected on two goals against Alabama A&M, Oral Roberts and Baylor, all Tech wins.

RED RAIDERS RESILIENT IN OVERTIME

Entering the season with no overtime wins since 2005, the Red Raiders not only earned their first Sept. 28 against Oklahoma, but also added another last weekend against Baylor. Both of Tech's overtime victories this year have come within about a minute into the second overtime.

NO ONE HIT WONDER

After advancing to the Big 12 Championship for the first time since 1999 last season, the Red Raiders are looking to return to postseason play in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. Tech has made a total of three trips – in 1996, 1999 and 2007 – to the Big 12 Championship, but has never won a postseason match in Big 12 play. Tech also qualified for the Southwest Conference Tournament in 1995, advancing to the second round off penalty kicks against TCU.

RINCON AMONG THE ALL-TIME BEST TECH GOALKEEPERS

Already the school's all-time leader in career shutouts, Tech goalkeeper has moved up the ranks in yet another category, career saves. The senior from Carrollton, Texas, passed Megan Knauss for second place for career saves as she now has 295 over her four-year career. Rincon's 78 saves this season is also tops among Big 12 goalkeepers.

McCALL MAKING HARRISON DECISION EASIER FOR STONE

Freshman defender Casey McCall is making Tech head coach Tom Stone's life easier not just by her play on the backline, but in his decision to keep Brittney Harrison playing forward for the time being. Known for her speed and aggression, McCall is one-for-one on shot attempts this season, netting her first career goal against Alabama A&M, while Harrison leads the Red Raiders with a Big 12 fourth-best seven goals.

MIHELICH SEES FIRST ACTION OF SEASON

Sophomore transfer Leanne Mihelich saw her first action of the season against Oklahoma, playing a total of 60 minutes. She has seen her minutes increase each weekend, playing a season-high 69 minutes against Nebraska. Mihelich joins the Red Raiders from the University of Arkansas-Little Rock where she led the Trojans in goals (9) and points (22) as a freshman. Mihelich had previously been recovering from an ankle injury sustained in preseason practices.

RED RAIDERS EARN FIRST VICTORY OVER OKLAHOMA SINCE 2000

With Tech's 2-1 double-overtime win over Oklahoma, the Red Raiders earned their first victory over the Sooners since 2000. Tech had also not won in overtime since 2005 and had never previously defeated a Big 12 opponent in overtime.

TECH SURPASSES 2007 GOAL TOTAL

The Red Raiders have netted 32 goals this season, which is already higher than their 2007 total of 22. Tech has had a player with multiple-goals in four matches, a feat only accomplished twice in 2007.

TECH LEADING AT THE HALF

After not leading a match at the half once in 2007, the Red Raiders have entered halftime with the lead in six matches this season. Prior to the start of the season, Tech had not gone into the half with a lead since Oct. 10, 2006, when the Red Raiders led 1-0 over Texas State. The Red Raiders ended up defeating the Bobcats, 3-0.

STARTING QUICKER, SCORING MORE

The Red Raiders have scored 16 goals in the first half this season, 14 more than all of last season. The Red Raiders have scored within the first five minutes of the match five times this season, including Brittney Harrison's school-record goal only 12 seconds into the Alabama A&M match. Tech has scored in the first half in six of eight matches this season and is 5-1 in those matches.

HARRISON COMPLETES HAT TRICK AGAINST NORTHWESTERN STATE

A week after connecting on the quickest goal in school history, Brittney Harrison completed the quickest hat trick in school history against Northwestern State as the junior netted three goals within the match's first 15 minutes. Entering this weekend, Harrison is second in the conference with seven goals.

FRESHMEN CONTRIBUTING EARLY

Prior to the 2008 season, Tech head coach Tom Stone said he knew he would have to rely on his incoming class of 12 freshmen. The class, including redshirt freshman Taylor Lytle, has already totaled 32 points this season, 20 more than the 2007 class.

JOHN WALKER SOCCER COMPLEX

Tech's newest facility on campus, the John Walker Soccer Complex, officially opened in Tech's season-opening 4-0 victory over Lamar. Named after Tech alum and donor John B. Walker, the stadium is not expected to be completed until Sept. 12, when the Red Raiders face Arizona. Complete with seating for around 1,400 fans, an awning and a pressbox, the John Walker Soccer Complex will quickly become one of the nicest soccer facilities in the country. Prior to the 2009 season, the Red Raiders will move into a new field house that will be equipped with state-of-the-art locker rooms, coaches' offices, a players' lounge and athletic training facilities. The John Walker Soccer Complex is located on 10th Street off the Texas Tech Parkway, which is west of University Medical Center.

RED RAIDERS SELECTED SEVENTH IN PRESEASON CONFERENCE POLL

If the Texas Tech soccer team is going to finish in the top half of the Big 12 for the second-consecutive season, it will once again have to defy the odds as the Red Raiders were selected to finish seventh among the league's 11 participating schools in a preseason poll of conference coaches. The Red Raiders were predicted to finish 11th in 2007 before finishing fifth and advancing to the Big 12 Championship for the first time since 1999. Texas led the poll with 94 points, while Texas A&M and Missouri completed the top three with 93 and 77 points, respectively.

RINCON, SIMS NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Prior to the season, the Red Raiders voted seniors Shannon Sims and Tina Rincon to serve as the team's captains. Sims, a midfielder from Plano, Texas, started all 17 matches last season, while Rincon added to her already impressive career numbers, adding 97 saves and five shutouts in 2007.

STONE ADDS 12 FRESHMEN FOR SECOND SEASON

In his first recruiting class, head coach Tom Stone found much needed depth to an already talented Tech roster, adding 10 freshman - Lexi Castellano, Maggie Fete, Hope Hanson, Kacy Hardie, Casey McCall, Kendyl Mygatt, Madison Terry, Erin Villareal, Dawn Ward and Lauren Yelinek - on signing day last February. Both Lauren Clary and Jordan Johnson walked-on to the team during preseason practices.

DE LEON, WARD OUT FOR SEASON

Both sophomore Karen De Leon and freshman Dawn Ward will miss the entire 2008 season with injuries. De Leon, one of Tech's top freshman a year ago, connected on two goals and provided two assists in 2007, while Ward was the top prospect in the 2008 recruiting class.

TECH TO HOST TEN MATCHES IN 2008

The Red Raiders will find a more favorable schedule in 2008 as Tech will host 10 home matches. Tech will also lose its "Lone Ranger" status from a year ago where the Red Raiders had to play a Big 12 opponent on both Fridays and Sundays, while each other conference opponent had an open date within its schedule. On top of five non-conference home matches, Tech also hosts national-powers and in-state rivals Texas (Oct. 12) and Texas A&M (Oct. 24). Four of Tech's five road conference matches are against Big 12 North opponents, Kansas (Oct. 3), Missouri (Oct. 5), Iowa State (Oct. 17) and Nebraska (Oct. 19).

Tech Head Coach Tom Stone
Second Season
Duke, 1987

Known nationally first as a player, and now as a coach, Tom Stone enters his second season as Texas Tech head coach, after a first year that saw the program rise to new heights.

With essentially only two months before the 2007 opener following his May hiring, Stone had little time to evaluate his new players, let alone get to really know them, making the non-conference portion of the season a learning experience both for Stone and the players. In October, however, things finally came together as the Red Raiders won four out of five conference matches down the stretch to qualify for the Big 12 Championship for the first time since 1999, while also matching the most conference wins in school history.

Following his inaugural season, Stone was named the assistant coach of the U.S. Under-20 National Team that traveled to Puebla, Mexico. Stone will rejoin the team following the 2008 season for the FIFA U-20 World Cup.

Prior to his arrival at Tech, Stone spent the 2006 season at Clemson as an assistant coach, where the Tigers finished 11-8-5 and earned a birth into the Final Eight in the NCAA Tournament.

Several of Stone's greatest accomplishments as a coach, however, may have come from his time leading the Atlanta Beat of the WUSA for all three years of its existence from 2001-2003. Being the first coach hired when the league formed, Stone proved his worth quickly, claiming the inaugural WUSA regular season title. The Beat advanced to the Founders Cup title match in both 2001 and 2003. In his three seasons with the Beat, Stone finished with the highest winning percentage among WUSA coaches, finishing 13 games over .500, while also being named an all-star coach twice.

Soon after the league's fall, Stone was named the technical director of the Tophat Soccer Club in Atlanta, which is one of the top girls youth programs in the southern region. While with Tophat, Stone was primarily involved in all areas of club and player development and the College Prep Program that prepares top players for college soccer opportunities. He was also the head coach for the 2007 Gold Team that won the Georgia State Championship in 2004 and the Southern Regional Premier League in 2005.

Before beginning his professional career, Stone was the founding director of coaching at the Colorado Rush Soccer Club from 1991 to 2000. Under Stone's direction, the Rush would go on to win 35 state cups along with 12 regional championships and seven national championships, becoming arguably the most successful youth girls program in the U.S. from 1997 to 2000.

Stone has also served as a volunteer assistant coach at Duke in 1997 and the University of Denver in 1996.

When not coaching, Stone has served as an analyst for various national television networks, covering everything from the NCAA Championship to the World Cup. He has worked as the lead soccer analyst for both CSTV and Fox Sports, while also joining ESPN for its coverage of the 2003 Women's World Cup. Stone has also written guest columns for various soccer websites.

Stone holds a USSF "A" License. He and his wife, Lindsey, currently reside in Lubbock with their one-year-old son, Leyton, and recently gave birth to their second child, Lily.
