STARTING OFF...

With Big 12 play at its midway point, the Texas Tech soccer team faces a crucial weekend ahead, tackling Baylor Fri., Oct. 10, in the third-annual Battle for the Brand match and the nationally-ranked Texas Longhorns Sun., Oct 12.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Red Raiders return to the road for the final time next weekend, traveling to Iowa State Oct. 17 and Nebraska Oct. 19. Tech defeated both schools last season with its win over the Cornhuskers the first in school history.

SCOUTING BAYLOR

Baylor arrives in Lubbock 5-5-2 overall and 1-1-1 in Big 12 play after picking up three points last weekend off a tie against Iowa State and a 1-0 victory over Nebraska. After dropping the first 10 meetings against Baylor, the Red Raiders have won the previous two meetings, including last year's 2-1 come-from-behind victory. Baylor is led offensively by Andi Fagan, Lotto Smith and Christine Clark, who combine for 24 of the Bears' 53 points this season. Courtney Seelhorst and Gianna Quintana have split time in goal, combining for six team shut-outs, while allowing only seven goals this season. Baylor returns 16 letterwinners, including five starters, off its 2007 squad that finished 7-10-2 overall and tenth in the Big 12. The Bears are under the direction of first-year head coach Marci Jobson, who spent the previous three seasons at Northern Illinois.

SCOUTING TEXAS

After dropping its first match of the season last week at Nebraska, Texas enters the weekend ranked as No. 9 in the Soccer America poll, sitting 8-1-2 overall and 1-1-1 in conference. The Longhorns have won the previous eight meetings between the two schools, taking last season's match, 1-0, in Austin. Courtney Goodson, Kasey Moore and Stephanie Logterman have combined for 13 of UT's 20 goals, while Dianna Pfenninger has played the majority of minutes in goal, collecting 45 saves and three shutouts, while allowing only seven goals. The Longhorns return 18 letterwinners, including eight starters, off its 2007 squad that won the Big 12 Championship and advanced the third round of the NCAA Championship. Texas is led by Christ Petrucelli, who is in his tenth season with a record of 129-61-16.

KEEP AN EYE ON...JUNIOR BRITTNEY HARRISON

When the Red Raiders need a spark, Brittney Harrison is normally there to provide the offensive fire-power. With seven goals this season, including three game-winners, Harrison has moved into fourth all-time for most career goals as the junior has netted 19 over her three-year career. Harrison's seven goals is tied for second in the Big 12 with the three game-winners also tied for second in the conference.

BATTLE FOR THE BRAND

Originally initiated by former Tech and Baylor coaches Neil McGuire and George Van Linder, the Battle for the Brand match is in its third season of existence. After claiming the trophy in the inaugural match, the Red Raiders defended the cup last season, defeating the Bears, 2-1, in Waco.

NO ONE HIT WONDER

After advancing to the Big 12 Championship for the first time since 1999 last season, the Red Raiders are looking to return to postseason play in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. Tech has made a total of three trips – in 1996, 1999 and 2007 – to the Big 12 Championship, but has never won a postseason match in Big 12 play. Tech also qualified for the Southwest Conference Tournament in 1995, advancing to the second round off penalty kicks against TCU.

ATLANTA BEAT REUNION

The Battle for the Brand match will be an Atlanta Beat reunion of sorts as every coach from both teams had an association with the now defunct team during its three-year existence. Things were pretty much the same on the Beat sideline just like they are now at Tech as Tom Stone served as the head coach with Aaron Gordon serving as his top assistant. Baylor head coach Marci Jobson was a player with the squad, while her husband Paul, BU's associate head coach, worked in ticket operations. Baylor assistant Chuck Codd's wife, Charmaine Hooper, was the team's star player at the time. Tech assistant coach Ashley Gordon was the technical director of the Cobb Futbol Club at the time.

RINCON AMONG THE ALL-TIME BEST TECH GOALKEEPERS

Already the school's all-time leader in career shutouts, Tech goalkeeper has moved up the ranks in yet another category, career saves. The senior from Carrollton, Texas, passed Megan Knauss for second place for career saves as she now has 272 over her four-year career. Rincon's 55 saves this season is third in the Big 12 this season.

McCALL MAKING HARRISON DECISION EASIER FOR STONE

Freshman defender Casey McCall is making Tech head coach Tom Stone's life easier not just by her play on the backline, but in his decision to keep Brittney Harrison playing forward for the time being. Known for her speed and aggression, McCall is one-for-one on shot attempts this season, netting her first career goal against Alabama A&M, while Harrison leads the Red Raiders with a Big 12 second-best seven goals.

MIHELICH SEES FIRST ACTION OF SEASON

Sophomore transfer Leanne Mihelich saw her first action of the season against Oklahoma, playing a total of 60 minutes. Mihelich joins the Red Raiders from the University of Arkansas-Little Rock where she led the Trojans in goals (9) and points (22) as a freshman. Mihelich had previously been recovering from an ankle injury sustained in preseason practices.

RED RAIDERS EARN FIRST VICTORY OVER OKLAHOMA SINCE 2000

With Tech's 2-1 double-overtime win over Oklahoma last Sunday, the Red Raiders earned their first victory over the Sooners since 2000. Tech had also not won in overtime since 2005 and had never previously defeated a Big 12 opponent in overtime.

TECH SURPASSES 2007 GOAL TOTAL

Through 10 matches, the Red Raiders have netted 28 goals, which is already higher than their 2007 total of 22. Tech has had a player with multiple-goals in four matches, a feat only accomplished twice in 2007.

YELINEK AMONG CONFERENCE ASSIST LEADERS

Freshman Lauren Yelinek has a team-high five assists on the season, which is tied for third in the Big 12 and tops among conference freshmen. Making her figures look more impressive, Yelinek has done all this playing left-back, a position not naturally designed for high assist numbers.

TECH LEADING AT THE HALF

After not leading a match at the half once in 2007, the Red Raiders have entered halftime with the lead in all six of its eight matches this season. Prior to the start of the season, Tech had not gone into the half with a lead since Oct. 10, 2006, when the Red Raiders led 1-0 over Texas State. The Red Raiders ended up defeating the Bobcats, 3-0.

STARTING QUICKER, SCORING MORE

The Red Raiders have scored 16 goals in the first half this season, 14 more than all of last season. The Red Raiders have scored within the first five minutes of the match five times this season, including Brittney Harrison's school-record goal only 12 seconds into the Alabama A&M match. Tech has scored in the first half in six of eight matches this season and is 5-1 in those matches.

hat trick in school history against Northwestern State as the junior netted three goals within the match's first 15 minutes. Entering this weekend, Harrison is second in the conference with seven goals.

EVERYTHING COMES IN MULTIPLES FOR HINDS

Katie Hinds not only scored her first career goal against Alabama A&M, but she also added another one in the second half. A week later, Hinds added two assists against Northwestern State, which had previously not been accomplished in a single match by a Red Raider since Amy Reinhart in 2006. In the Oral Roberts match, Hinds added her second multiple-goal match of the season as the sophomore connected on Tech's first two goals en route to a 4-0 victory.

LYTLE STARTING SEASON STRONG

Finally healthy after sitting out the entire 2007 season because of injury, redshirt freshman Taylor Lytle has begun the 2008 campaign off strong, totaling 12 points off four goals and four assists. She scored her first career goal in Tech's 3-0 win over UTSA. Lytle also connected on her first career game-winning goal in Tech's 5-0 victory over Alabama A&M earlier this season.

FRESHMEN CONTRIBUTING EARLY

Prior to the 2008 season, Tech head coach Tom Stone said he knew he would have to rely on his incoming class of 12 freshmen. Already eight matches into the season, the freshmen have contributed 28 of 78 total points. Ten matches into the 2007 season, the Red Raiders had only six points coming from freshmen.

STONE LOOKING FOR STRONG PERFORMANCE IN NON-CONFERENCE

After getting over the learning that was his first season, Tech head coach Tom Stone is looking to strengthen the one part of Tech's 2007 record that was less than desirable, the non-conference. The Red Raiders opened last season with a 2-3-1 non-conference schedule, but had two matches against Stephen F. Austin and Jackson State cancelled.

JOHN WALKER SOCCER COMPLEX

Tech's newest facility on campus, the John Walker Soccer Complex, officially opened in Tech's season-opening 4-0 victory over Lamar. Named after Tech alum and donor John B. Walker, the stadium is not expected to be completed until Sept. 12, when the Red Raiders face Arizona. Complete with seating for around 1,400 fans, an awning and a pressbox, the John Walker Soccer Complex will quickly become one of the nicest soccer facilities in the country. Prior to the 2009 season, the Red Raiders will move into a new field house that will be equipped with state-of-the-art locker rooms, coaches' offices, a players' lounge and athletic training facilities. The John Walker Soccer Complex is located on 10th Street off the Texas Tech Parkway, which is west of University Medical Center.

RED RAIDERS SELECTED SEVENTH IN PRESEASON CONFERENCE POLL

If the Texas Tech soccer team is going to finish in the top half of the Big 12 for the second-consecutive season, it will once again have to defy the odds as the Red Raiders were selected to finish seventh among the league's 11 participating schools in a preseason poll of conference coaches. The Red Raiders were predicted to finish 11th in 2007 before finishing fifth and advancing to the Big 12 Championship for the first time since 1999. Texas led the poll with 94 points, while Texas A&M and Missouri completed the top three with 93 and 77 points, respectively.

RINCON, SIMS NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Prior to the season, the Red Raiders voted seniors Shannon Sims and Tina Rincon to serve as the team's captains. Sims, a midfielder from Plano, Texas, started all 17 matches last season, while Rincon added to her already impressive career numbers, adding 97 saves and five shutouts in 2007.

STONE ADDS 12 FRESHMEN FOR SECOND SEASON

In his first recruiting class, head coach Tom Stone found much needed depth to an already talented Tech roster, adding 10 freshman - Lexi Castellano, Maggie Fete, Hope Hanson, Kacy Hardie, Casey McCall, Kendyl Mygatt, Madison Terry, Erin Villareal, Dawn Ward and Lauren Yelinek - on signing day last February. Both Lauren Clary and Jordan Johnson walked-on to the team during preseason practices.

DE LEON, WARD OUT FOR SEASON

Both sophomore Karen De Leon and freshman Dawn Ward will miss the entire 2008 season with injuries. De Leon, one of Tech's top freshman a year ago, connected on two goals and provided two assists in 2007, while Ward was the top prospect in the 2008 recruiting class.

TECH TO HOST TEN MATCHES IN 2008

The Red Raiders will find a more favorable schedule in 2008 as Tech will host 10 home matches. Tech will also lose its "Lone Ranger" status from a year ago where the Red Raiders had to play a Big 12 opponent on both Fridays and Sundays, while each other conference opponent had an open date within its schedule. On top of five non-conference home matches, Tech also hosts national-powers and in-state rivals Texas (Oct. 12) and Texas A&M (Oct. 24). Four of Tech's five road conference matches are against Big 12 North opponents, Kansas (Oct. 3), Missouri (Oct. 5), Iowa State (Oct. 17) and Nebraska (Oct. 19).

Tech Head Coach Tom Stone
Second Season
Duke, 1987

Known nationally first as a player, and now as a coach, Tom Stone enters his second season as Texas Tech head coach, after a first year that saw the program rise to new heights.

With essentially only two months before the 2007 opener following his May hiring, Stone had little time to evaluate his new players, let alone get to really know them, making the non-conference portion of the season a learning experience both for Stone and the players. In October, however, things finally came together as the Red Raiders won four out of five conference matches down the stretch to qualify for the Big 12 Championship for the first time since 1999, while also matching the most conference wins in school history.

Following his inaugural season, Stone was named the assistant coach of the U.S. Under-20 National Team that traveled to Puebla, Mexico. Stone will rejoin the team following the 2008 season for the FIFA U-20 World Cup.

Prior to his arrival at Tech, Stone spent the 2006 season at Clemson as an assistant coach, where the Tigers finished 11-8-5 and earned a birth into the Final Eight in the NCAA Tournament.

Several of Stone's greatest accomplishments as a coach, however, may have come from his time leading the Atlanta Beat of the WUSA for all three years of its existence from 2001-2003. Being the first coach hired when the league formed, Stone proved his worth quickly, claiming the inaugural WUSA regular season title. The Beat advanced to the Founders Cup title match in both 2001 and 2003. In his three seasons with the Beat, Stone finished with the highest winning percentage among WUSA coaches, finishing 13 games over .500, while also being named an all-star coach twice.

Soon after the league's fall, Stone was named the technical director of the Tophat Soccer Club in Atlanta, which is one of the top girls youth programs in the southern region. While with Tophat, Stone was primarily involved in all areas of club and player development and the College Prep Program that prepares top players for college soccer opportunities. He was also the head coach for the 2007 Gold Team that won the Georgia State Championship in 2004 and the Southern Regional Premier League in 2005.

Before beginning his professional career, Stone was the founding director of coaching at the Colorado Rush Soccer Club from 1991 to 2000. Under Stone's direction, the Rush would go on to win 35 state cups along with 12 regional championships and seven national championships, becoming arguably the most successful youth girls program in the U.S. from 1997 to 2000.

Stone has also served as a volunteer assistant coach at Duke in 1997 and the University of Denver in 1996.

When not coaching, Stone has served as an analyst for various national television networks, covering everything from the NCAA Championship to the World Cup. He has worked as the lead soccer analyst for both CSTV and Fox Sports, while also joining ESPN for its coverage of the 2003 Women's World Cup. Stone has also written guest columns for various soccer websites.

Stone holds a USSF "A" License. He and his wife, Lindsey, currently reside in Lubbock with their one-year-old son, Leyton, and are expecting their second child in September 2008.
