ON TAP FOR THE RED RAIDERS

For the first time this century, the Texas Tech soccer team will participate in the 2007 Big 12 Championship, facing the No. 4 seed Missouri Wed., Nov. 7, at 1:30 p.m. at San Antonio's Blossom Soccer Stadium.

RED RAIDERS ON THE AIR

All of Tech's Big 12 Championship matches will be broadcast live through RaiderVision All-Access at texastech.com. Eric Quisenberry will provide the play-by-play, while Gabriel Martinez will join him as the color commentator. Video from every Big 12 Championship match will also be streamed live on big12sports.com.

RED RAIDERS UNDER NEW DIRECTION

Following a stint as an assistant at Clemson, Tom Stone comes to Texas Tech for his first season as a collegiate head coach. This is not Stone's first time to be a head coach, however. He led the Atlanta Beat of the WUSA for all three years of its existence from 2001-2003. Stone has also worked as the lead soccer analyst for CSTV, Fox Sports and ESPN, while also serving as a guest columnist for various soccer websites.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

No. 24 Missouri enters the match, losing four of its last six matches, after beginning conference play with a 3-2 double-overtime victory over Big 12 Regular Season Champion Texas A&M. The Tigers are led offensively by sophomores Kristin Andrighetto and Michelle Collins, as the duo accounts for 23 of the Mizzou's 47 goals. Sophomore Tasha Dittamore and junior Mallory Forst have split time in goal this season, accumulating 54 saves and six shutouts between the two. The Tigers defeated Tech, 2-0, earlier this season in Lubbock, and hold a 8-5 all-time advantage over the Red Raiders. Missouri also defeated Tech, 3-2, in Tech's first Big 12 Championship appearance in 1996.

RED RAIDERS IN THE BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP

This is Tech's third appearance in the Big 12 Championship and the first since 1999. The Red Raiders are 0-2 all-time in championship matches. Nebraska crushed the Red Raiders, 10-1, in 1999, while Missouri outlasted Tech, 3-2 in 1996. Prior to its move to the Big 12, the Red Raiders competed in the Southwest Conference Tournament in 1995, tying TCU at zero, before bowing out to SMU, 6-0.

HARRISON NAMED TO ALL-BIG 12 SECOND TEAM

A year after being named to the conference's All-Newcomer Team, sophomore Brittney Harrison was chosen to the All-Big 12 Second Team by the conference's coaches. The sophomore was the only Red Raiders selected for any postseason honor and the first to earn first or second team status since 2002.

BREAKING PREVIOUS TRENDS

At the beginning of the season, Tech had losing streaks to several schools throughout the schedule, but now entering postseason play, the Red Raiders have broken several of these streaks. Here is a look at the current trends broken so far:

- Sept. 16 - Broke five-match losing streak to SMU with 0-0 tie.
- Sept. 28 - Snapped eight-match losing streak to Colorado with 1-0 victory; was the first win in a conference opener since 1997.
- Oct. 12 - 3-1 win over Iowa State broke a previous 10-match losing streak to the Cyclones.
- Oct. 14 - Defeated Nebraska for the first time in school history; first time Tech had consecutive conference victories since 2000.
- Oct. 19 - Broke six-match losing streak to Oklahoma with 0-0 tie.
- Oct. 21 - Defeated Oklahoma State for the first time since 2000.
- Oct. 26 - Qualified for the Big 12 Championship for the first time since 1999; guaranteed a winning conference record for the first time since 1996.

LAST TIME OUT

While the rest of the conference completed the regular season, Tech was able to rest for a week in preparation for this week's Big 12 Championship. The Red Raiders closed the regular season defeating Baylor, 2-1, Oct. 26, before falling to No. 2 Texas A&M, 5-0, Oct. 28. The last time Tech had this much time in between matches the Red Raiders defeated Colorado, 1-0, to begin conference play.

HARRISON RECOGNIZED NATIONALLY

After leading the Red Raiders in scoring in 2006, many knew sophomore Brittney Harrison was a constant threat on the offensive end, but after moving to defender in the offseason, the Plano, Texas, native has garnered national attention for her performance on both sides of the field. Because of this, Harrison was named the Big 12's Defensive Player of the Week for games played Oct. 8-14. Harrison has also been selected to Soccer Buzz's Elite Team of the Week twice and Soccer America's Team of the Week once.

RINCON INCHING CLOSER TO SEVERAL SCHOOL RECORDS

With 87 saves this season, junior goalkeeper Tina Rincon has passed last year's total of 86, which is good for fifth on the school's single season saves list. Rincon now has 208 career saves, which is good for third all-time, trailing Megan Knauss with 266 and Brittney Peese with 329. With eight career shutouts, Rincon sits in third place atop the school's all-time list, needing only three more to tie Stephanie Carter for the career lead.

RED RAIDERS IN THE POLLS

For the first time this season, Tech was ranked in the NSCAA/Adidas central region poll released Oct. 23, coming in ninth. This is the first time in program history the Red Raiders have appeared ranked in any poll. A week later the Red Raiders moved down a spot to tenth in the Oct. 30 rankings. In the Soccer Buzz regional poll from Oct. 22, the Red Raiders received votes for the first time since 2002.

REZAIIE HITTING STRIDE OFFENSIVELY

With two goals in the weekend series versus Iowa State and Nebraska, sophomore midfielder Zhaleh Rezaie became the first Red Raider to have goals in consecutive games since teammate Brittney Harrison did so last year. Even more impressive, both goals were considered game-winners, making three of her four goals this season game-winners.

SHORT HOPS

- Tech's fifth place finish breaks a four-year stretch of "Lone Rangers" finishing sixth.
- The Red Raiders' fifth place finish is the highest for a Tech squad since the 1996 team finished fourth.
- Tech was 4-1-1 in its final six matches, which is the best finish in school history.

TECH SURPASSING PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

Prior to the season, the Red Raiders were predicted to finish 10th in the conference by the Big 12 coaches. Not only did Tech finish fifth in the Big 12, but it also entered its final match at Texas A&M sitting in second place.

CDEBACA COLLECTS FIRST CAREER GOAL

When Halie Cdebaca graduated from local Lubbock Monterey high school last May, all she knew was that she would have the opportunity to walk-on to the Tech soccer team this fall. Through her first collegiate season, the freshman has started in 11 matches, while posting her first career goal October 12 against Iowa State.

ESQUIVEL TAKING ON "IRON MAN" ROLE

Despite being one of the most accomplished players in Red Raider soccer history, perhaps the most encouraging feature about senior Priscilla Esquivel is her leadership. According to Tech head coach Tom Stone, the driving force behind the Red Raiders success has been Esquivel's ability to make plays across the field playing numerous positions and her resilience to never give up.

CLOPTON, HARRISON HARD TO REPLACE

Besides being the team's top two defenders, sophomore defenders Sarabeth Clopton and Brittney Harrison lead the team in minutes played, with Harrison accumulating 1,476 and Clopton having 1,474. The duo has only been pulled together one time this season, October 7 against Kansas.

RED RAIDERS SURVIVING AS THE "LONE RANGER"

Once every 10 years, a Big 12 school has to play two conference games each weekend, while its Sunday opponent only has to play one. This season is Tech's year to be the "Lone Ranger," but the Red Raiders seem to be adapting well in holding No. 3 Texas earlier this season in Austin, while also defeating Oklahoma State in Lubbock.

GOALS BY COMMITTEE

Through 16 matches, the Red Raiders have followed a goal by committee approach. While Zhaleh Rezaie leads the team with four goals, nine different Red Raiders have goals heading into this weekend. In Tech's sweep over Iowa State and Nebraska, four different Red Raiders combined for a total of five goals.

FROM THE METROPLEX TO LUBBOCK

Of the Red Raiders' 21 players, 11 hail from the Dallas Metroplex making the September weekend trip to face TCU and SMU a homecoming of sorts. Additionally, all three Red Raider coaches grew up in the Dallas area. Before their hire at Tech, assistants Aaron and Ashley Gordon directed and coached the youth soccer club FC Dallas.

CYPERT NAMED CHICK-FIL-A COMMUNITY CHAMPION

For her work off the field, senior forward Kim Cypert was named the Big 12 Conference's Chick-Fil-A Community Champion on the Sept. 15 edition of FSN's Big 12 Showcase. Besides being a regular on the President's and Dean's list, Cypert is involved with Habitat for Humanity and the American Cancer Society.
