STARTING OFF...

Currently on the bubble of qualifying for the Big 12 Championship, the Texas Tech soccer team hits the road for the final time, traveling to Iowa State Oct. 17 and Nebraska Oct. 19.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Red Raiders close the regular season at home against nationally-ranked Texas A&M on Oct. 24, before finishing the weekend with a non-conference match against TCU Oct. 26.

SCOUTING IOWA STATE

Iowa State enters the weekend tied for last in the conference with only one point, sitting 5-8-1 overall and 0-4-1 in conference. The Red Raiders snapped a 10-match losing streak to the Cyclones in 2007, winning 3-1 in Lubbock. Iowa State is under the direction of Wendy Dillinginger, who arrives in Ames after a six-year stint at Washington University in St. Louis. Leslie Hill, Amanda Nimtz and Elise Reid have led ISU offensively, netting 10 of the Cyclones' 20 goals this season. Ann Gleason has started every match for the Cyclones in net, allowing 22 goals, while collecting two shutouts and 70 saves, second-most in the conference. Iowa State returns 17 letterwinners, including seven starters, off its 2007 squad that finished 8-6-5 overall and eighth in the Big 12.

SCOUTING NEBRASKA

Nebraska is fifth in the Big 12 with nine points going into this weekend, having won five of their last seven matches. The Red Raiders defeated the Cornhuskers for the first time in school history last season, scoring a 2-1 come-from-behind victory in Lubbock. The only coach in Nebraska history, John Walker enters his 15th season in Lincoln with a 222-83-17 career record. Molly Thomas, Anna Caniglia and Shay Powell have combined for 14 of Nebraska's 22 goals this season. Brittany Pfeil has played the majority of minutes in goal, collecting 36 saves, while allowing only 10 goals on the season. The Cornhuskers return 20 letterwinners, including all 11 starters, from the 2007 squad that finished 5-10-4 overall and 10th in the Big 12.

KEEP AN EYE ON...FRESHMAN ERIN VILLAREAL

After missing the first half of the season with injury, freshman Erin Villareal has started in the last three matches on the backline, while playing every minute last weekend against Baylor and Texas. The Plano, Texas, native saw her first action Sept. 26 at Oklahoma State and has seen her minutes increase in every match since.

ONE GOAL NEVER ENOUGH FOR HINDS

When Katie Hinds nets one goal, expect another to come shortly after. Hinds has six career goals, all this season, with all six coming from multiple-goal games. Hinds connected on two goals against Alabama A&M, Oral Roberts and last weekend against Baylor, all Tech wins.

RED RAIDERS STILL NEEDING POINTS

Since the Big 12 Championship field expanded to eight teams in 1999, only one school - Baylor in 1999 - has qualified for the championship with less than 10 points after regular-season play. With six points and three conference matches left, the Red Raiders currently sit on the championship bubble, needing points in its final matches at Iowa State and Nebraska and at home against Texas A&M.

BENNETT RETURNS TO SPARK BACKLINE

After missing stretches of the season due to injury, junior Emmie Bennett saw her most minutes of the season last weekend, playing 93 against Baylor and all 90 against Texas in her first start of the season. Bennett also made the move to the backline to add depth to an already depleted Tech team.

RED RAIDERS RESILIENT IN OVERTIME

Entering the season with no overtime wins since 2005, the Red Raiders not only earned their first Sept. 28 against Oklahoma, but also added another last weekend against Baylor. Both of Tech's overtime victories this year have come in the second overtime with both coming about a minute into the extra period.

YELINEK, LYTLE INCHING CLOSING ON CAREER ASSIST LEADERS

As freshmen, Taylor Lytle and Lauren Yelinek are already getting close to joining the top 10 career assist leaders on the Tech all-time chart. Yelinek leads the team with six assists, while Lytle has added five. Amy Rutstein and Kelly Taylor currently hold ninth place on the chart with seven career assists.

NO ONE HIT WONDER

After advancing to the Big 12 Championship for the first time since 1999 last season, the Red Raiders are looking to return to postseason play in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. Tech has made a total of three trips - in 1996, 1999 and 2007 - to the Big 12 Championship, but has never won a postseason match in Big 12 play. Tech also qualified for the Southwest Conference Tournament in 1995, advancing to the second round off penalty kicks against TCU.

RINCON AMONG THE ALL-TIME BEST TECH GOALKEEPERS

Already the school's all-time leader in career shutouts, Tech goalkeeper has moved up the ranks in yet another category, career saves. The senior from Carrollton, Texas, passed Megan Knauss for second place for career saves as she now has 284 over her four-year career. Rincon's 67 saves this season is third in the Big 12 this season.

McCALL MAKING HARRISON DECISION EASIER FOR STONE

Freshman defender Casey McCall is making Tech head coach Tom Stone's life easier not just by her play on the backline, but in his decision to keep Brittney Harrison playing forward for the time being. Known for her speed and aggression, McCall is one-for-one on shot attempts this season, netting her first career goal against Alabama A&M, while Harrison leads the Red Raiders with a Big 12 second-best seven goals.

MIHELICH SEES FIRST ACTION OF SEASON

Sophomore transfer Leanne Mihelich saw her first action of the season against Oklahoma, playing a total of 60 minutes. Mihelich joins the Red Raiders from the University of Arkansas-Little Rock where she led the Trojans in goals (9) and points (22) as a freshman. Mihelich had previously been recovering from an ankle injury sustained in preseason practices.

RED RAIDERS EARN FIRST VICTORY OVER OKLAHOMA SINCE 2000

With Tech's 2-1 double-overtime win over Oklahoma last Sunday, the Red Raiders earned their first victory over the Sooners since 2000. Tech had also not won in overtime since 2005 and had never previously defeated a Big 12 opponent in overtime.

TECH SURPASSES 2007 GOAL TOTAL

Through 10 matches, the Red Raiders have netted 30 goals, which is already higher than their 2007 total of 22. Tech has had a player with multiple-goals in four matches, a feat only accomplished twice in 2007.

YELINEK AMONG CONFERENCE ASSIST LEADERS

Freshman Lauren Yelinek has a team-high six assists on the season, which is tied for second in the Big 12 and tops among conference freshmen. Making her figures look more impressive, Yelinek has done all this playing left-back, a position not naturally designed for high assist numbers.

TECH LEADING AT THE HALF

After not leading a match at the half once in 2007, the Red Raiders have entered halftime with the lead in all six of its eight matches this season. Prior to the start of the season, Tech had not gone into the half with a lead since Oct. 10, 2006, when the Red Raiders led 1-0 over Texas State. The Red Raiders ended up defeating the Bobcats, 3-0.

STARTING QUICKER, SCORING MORE

The Red Raiders have scored 16 goals in the first half this season, 14 more than all of last season.

The Red Raiders have scored within the first five minutes of the match five times this season, including Brittney Harrison's school-record goal only 12 seconds into the Alabama A&M match. Tech has scored in the first half in six of eight matches this season and is 5-1 in those matches.

HARRISON COMPLETES HAT TRICK AGAINST NORTHWESTERN STATE

A week after connecting on the quickest goal in school history, Brittney Harrison completed the quickest hat trick in school history against Northwestern State as the junior netted three goals within the match's first 15 minutes. Entering this weekend, Harrison is second in the conference with seven goals.

LYTLE STARTING SEASON STRONG

Finally healthy after sitting out the entire 2007 season because of injury, redshirt freshman Taylor Lytle has begun the 2008 campaign off strong, totaling 12 points off four goals and four assists. She scored her first career goal in Tech's 3-0 win over UTSA. Lytle also connected on her first career game-winning goal in Tech's 5-0 victory over Alabama A&M earlier this season.

FRESHMEN CONTRIBUTING EARLY

Prior to the 2008 season, Tech head coach Tom Stone said he knew he would have to rely on his incoming class of 12 freshmen. The class, including redshirt freshman Taylor Lytle, has already totaled 30 points this season, 20 more than the 2007 class.

STONE LOOKING FOR STRONG PERFORMANCE IN NON-CONFERENCE

After getting over the learning that was his first season, Tech head coach Tom Stone is looking to strengthen the one part of Tech's 2007 record that was less than desirable, the non-conference. The Red Raiders opened last season with a 2-3-1 non-conference schedule, but had two matches against Stephen F. Austin and Jackson State cancelled.

JOHN WALKER SOCCER COMPLEX

Tech's newest facility on campus, the John Walker Soccer Complex, officially opened in Tech's season-opening 4-0 victory over Lamar. Named after Tech alum and donor John B. Walker, the stadium is not expected to be completed until Sept. 12, when the Red Raiders face Arizona. Complete with seating for around 1,400 fans, an awning and a pressbox, the John Walker Soccer Complex will quickly become one of the nicest soccer facilities in the country. Prior to the 2009 season, the Red Raiders will move into a new field house that will be equipped with state-of-the-art locker rooms, coaches' offices, a players' lounge and athletic training facilities. The John Walker Soccer Complex is located on 10th Street off the Texas Tech Parkway, which is west of University Medical Center.

RED RAIDERS SELECTED SEVENTH IN PRESEASON CONFERENCE POLL

If the Texas Tech soccer team is going to finish in the top half of the Big 12 for the second-consecutive season, it will once again have to defy the odds as the Red Raiders were selected to finish seventh among the league's 11 participating schools in a preseason poll of conference coaches. The Red Raiders were predicted to finish 11th in 2007 before finishing fifth and advancing to the Big 12 Championship for the first time since 1999. Texas led the poll with 94 points, while Texas A&M and Missouri completed the top three with 93 and 77 points, respectively.

RINCON, SIMS NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Prior to the season, the Red Raiders voted seniors Shannon Sims and Tina Rincon to serve as the team's captains. Sims, a midfielder from Plano, Texas, started all 17 matches last season, while Rincon added to her already impressive career numbers, adding 97 saves and five shutouts in 2007.

STONE ADDS 12 FRESHMEN FOR SECOND SEASON

In his first recruiting class, head coach Tom Stone found much needed depth to an already talented Tech roster, adding 10 freshman - Lexi Castellano, Maggie Fete, Hope Hanson, Kacy Hardie, Casey McCall, Kendyl Mygatt, Madison Terry, Erin Villareal, Dawn Ward and Lauren Yelinek - on signing day last February. Both Lauren Clary and Jordan Johnson walked-on to the team during preseason practices.

DE LEON, WARD OUT FOR SEASON

Both sophomore Karen De Leon and freshman Dawn Ward will miss the entire 2008 season with injuries. De Leon, one of Tech's top freshman a year ago, connected on two goals and provided two assists in 2007, while Ward was the top prospect in the 2008 recruiting class.

TECH TO HOST TEN MATCHES IN 2008

The Red Raiders will find a more favorable schedule in 2008 as Tech will host 10 home matches. Tech will also lose its "Lone Ranger" status from a year ago where the Red Raiders had to play a Big 12 opponent on both Fridays and Sundays, while each other conference opponent had an open date within its schedule. On top of five non-conference home matches, Tech also hosts national-powers and in-state rivals Texas (Oct. 12) and Texas A&M (Oct. 24). Four of Tech's five road conference matches are against Big 12 North opponents, Kansas (Oct. 3), Missouri (Oct. 5), Iowa State (Oct. 17) and Nebraska (Oct. 19).

Tech Head Coach Tom Stone
Second Season
Duke, 1987

Known nationally first as a player, and now as a coach, Tom Stone enters his second season as Texas Tech head coach, after a first year that saw the program rise to new heights.

With essentially only two months before the 2007 opener following his May hiring, Stone had little time to evaluate his new players, let alone get to really know them, making the non-conference portion of the season a learning experience both for Stone and the players. In October, however, things finally came together as the Red Raiders won four out of five conference matches down the stretch to qualify for the Big 12 Championship for the first time since 1999, while also matching the most conference wins in school history.

Following his inaugural season, Stone was named the assistant coach of the U.S. Under-20 National Team that traveled to Puebla, Mexico. Stone will rejoin the team following the 2008 season for the FIFA U-20 World Cup.

Prior to his arrival at Tech, Stone spent the 2006 season at Clemson as an assistant coach, where the Tigers finished 11-8-5 and earned a birth into the Final Eight in the NCAA Tournament.

Several of Stone's greatest accomplishments as a coach, however, may have come from his time leading the Atlanta Beat of the WUSA for all three years of its existence from 2001-2003. Being the first coach hired when the league formed, Stone proved his worth quickly, claiming the inaugural WUSA regular season title. The Beat advanced to the Founders Cup title match in both 2001 and 2003. In his three seasons with the Beat, Stone finished with the highest winning percentage among WUSA coaches, finishing 13 games over .500, while also being named an all-star coach twice.

Soon after the league's fall, Stone was named the technical director of the Tophat Soccer Club in Atlanta, which is one of the top girls youth programs in the southern region. While with Tophat, Stone was primarily involved in all areas of club and player development and the College Prep Program that prepares top players for college soccer opportunities. He was also the head coach for the 2007 Gold Team that won the Georgia State Championship in 2004 and the Southern Regional Premier League in 2005.

Before beginning his professional career, Stone was the founding director of coaching at the Colorado Rush Soccer Club from 1991 to 2000. Under Stone's direction, the Rush would go on to win 35 state cups along with 12 regional championships and seven national championships, becoming arguably the most successful youth girls program in the U.S. from 1997 to 2000.

Stone has also served as a volunteer assistant coach at Duke in 1997 and the University of Denver in 1996.

When not coaching, Stone has served as an analyst for various national television networks, covering everything from the NCAA Championship to the World Cup. He has worked as the lead soccer analyst for both CSTV and Fox Sports, while also joining ESPN for its coverage of the 2003 Women's World Cup. Stone has also written guest columns for various soccer websites.

Stone holds a USSF "A" License. He and his wife, Lindsey, currently reside in Lubbock with their one-year-old son, Leyton, and recently gave birth to their second child, Lily.
