STARTING OFF...

The Texas Tech soccer team turns to the road for its first true weekend away from home as the Red Raiders travel to Murfreesboro, Tenn., to face Middle Tennessee Fri., Sept. 5, and Alabama A&M Sun., Sept. 7, in the Middle Tennessee Classic.

ON THE AIR

Friday's match against Middle Tennessee will be streamed live over the Blue Raiders' official website, www.goblueraiders.com. The broadcast will be free of charge and carried for Friday's match only.

SCOUTING MIDDLE TENNESSEE

The Blue Raiders enter this weekend at 0-2-1 overall after opening its season with a 1-1 tie with Jacksonville State before falling to both Vanderbilt (2-1) and Belmont (1-0) last weekend. Middle Tennessee is led by Aston Rhoden, who is beginning his seventh season, having a record of 73-38-6 during his tenure. Selected fourth in the Sun Belt Conference preseason poll, the Blue Raiders return 15 letterwinners and eight starters off the 2007 squad that finished 10-6-4 overall, which was good enough for second in the Sun Belt. Offensively, Middle Tennessee has been led by freshman forward Shan Jones, who has three points on the season, connecting on her first career goal against Vanderbilt. In goal, the Blue Raiders have used both junior Erynn Murray and sophomore Kela Casiple, who combine have collected 17 saves, a .810 saves percentage and a 1.24 goals-against average.

SCOUTING ALABAMA A&M

A year after qualifying for the NCAA Championship, Alabama A&M finds itself at 1-2 early in the season after losses to Tennessee-Martin (2-1) and Kennesaw State (8-0). Last weekend, the Bulldogs won their home opener against Austin Peay, 2-1, before it's Sunday match at Southern was postponed because of Hurricane Gustav. Alabama A&M returns 13 letterwinners and eight starters from its 2007 team that claimed the school's second SWAC Championship title and finished 10-7-3 overall before falling to Georgia in the NCAA Championship first round. The Bulldogs have only played a total of 13 players through three matches, totaling three goals and no assists during that stretch. Racquel Johnson has played every minute in goal for the Bulldogs, allowing 11 goals, while collecting 13 saves.

KEEP AN EYE ON... SENIOR GOALKEEPER TINA RINCON

With two shutouts already on the season, senior goalkeeper Tina Rincon has quickly moved within one of Stephanie Carter atop the school's all-time list as Rincon now has 10 shutouts over her Tech career. Rincon is second currently in the Big 12 in saves with 15, while her two shutouts lead the conference.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A YEAR MAKES

In 2007, the Red Raiders had only two goals in the first half, the first against Nebraska in Tech's 12th match of the season and the other versus Missouri in the first round of the Big 12 Championship. Tech has five first half goals through three matches this season, already doubling last year's total. The Red Raiders are also on pace to top last season's goals and assists totals as Tech has connected on nine goals and seven assists. Tech finished the 2007 campaign with 22 goals and 14 assists.

RINCON INCHING CLOSER UP CAREER LISTS

Through three matches this season, senior Tina Rincon has further proved why she will graduate as one of the top goalkeepers in Texas Tech history. With two shutouts already, Rincon has moved within of Stephanie Carter for most career shutouts as Rincon currently sits in third all-time with 10 shutouts. Brittney Peese had 10.5 shutouts from 1998 to 2001 for second all-time. Rincon is currently second in the Big 12 in total saves this season with 15, while her .833 save percentage ranks fourth.

LYTLE STARTING SEASON STRONG

Finally healthy after sitting out the entire 2007 season because of injury, redshirt freshman Taylor Lytle has begun the 2008 campaign off strong, totaling four points through three matches, while also scoring her first goal in Tech's 3-0 win over UTSA. Lytle's two assists are currently tied for second in the Big 12, while her four points are second on the team with Brittney Harrison.

NEWCOMERS ACHIEVE CAREER FIRSTS AGAINST UTSA

Last Sunday's match at UTSA was one of firsts for many Red Raiders as freshmen Taylor Lytle and Kendyl Mygatt, along with junior Megan Hoffert, connected on their first career goals. Fellow freshmen Maggie Fete and Lauren Yelinek also notched their first career point in the match as both had assists.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Red Raiders return to the John Walker Soccer Complex Fri., Sept. 12, to face Arizona to begin a three-

TECH RANKED 13TH IN SOCCER BUZZ CENTRAL REGION

For the second-consecutive week, the Red Raiders find themselves among the top 15 in the Soccer Buzz Central Region poll. Tech remained No. 13 in the poll this week after debuting in the slot in the publication's preseason rankings.

REZAIIE PICKING UP WHERE SHE LEFT OFF

Late in the 2007 season, possibly no other Red Raider was finding their stride offensively like junior forward Zhaleh Rezaie as the Plano, Texas, native had five goals over the final seven matches, including two against Missouri in the first round of the Big 12 Championship. So far in 2008, Rezaie has two goals and two assists through three matches, while leading the Red Raiders in points with six.

TECH LEADING AT THE HALF

After not leading a match at the half once in 2007, the Red Raiders have entered halftime with the lead in all three matches this season. Prior to the start of the season, Tech had not gone into the half with a lead since Oct. 10, 2006 when the Red Raiders led 1-0 over Texas State. The Red Raiders ended up defeating the Bobcats, 3-0.

HOME STREAK COMES TO THE END

Dating back to the 2007 season, the Red Raiders were riding a four-match home winning streak entering last weekend's loss to Colorado. The streak was Tech's longest such streak in Lubbock since the beginning of the 1996 season when the Red Raiders opened the year with four-consecutive home victories.

STONE LOOKING FOR STRONG PERFORMANCE IN NON-CONFERENCE

After getting over the learning that was his first season, Tech head coach Tom Stone is looking to strengthen the one part of Tech's 2007 record that was less than desirable, the non-conference. The Red Raiders opened last season with a 2-3-1 non-conference schedule, but had two matches against Stephen F. Austin and Jackson State cancelled.

HARRISON OPENS SEASON WITH BIG GAME

Red Raider junior defender Brittney Harrison continues to show why she is one of the top players in the country. The Plano, Texas, native connected on two goals in last Friday's season opener against Lamar, with both coming within less than a two-minute stretch. Harrison now has 14 goals over her Tech career, which is tied for seventh on the school's all-time list.

JOHN WALKER SOCCER COMPLEX

Tech's newest facility on campus, the John Walker Soccer Complex, officially opened in Tech's season-opening 4-0 victory over Lamar. Named after Tech alum and donor John B. Walker, the stadium is not expected to be completed until Sept. 12, when the Red Raiders face Arizona. Complete with seating for around 1,400 fans, an awning and a pressbox, the John Walker Soccer Complex will quickly become one of the nicest soccer facilities in the country. Prior to the 2009 season, the Red Raiders will move into a new field house that will be equipped with state-of-the-art locker rooms, coaches' offices, a players' lounge and athletic training facilities. The John Walker Soccer Complex is located on 10th Street off the Texas Tech Parkway, which is west of University Medical Center.

RED RAIDERS SELECTED SEVENTH IN PRESEASON CONFERENCE POLL

If the Texas Tech soccer team is going to finish in the top half of the Big 12 for the second-consecutive season, it will once again have to defy the odds as the Red Raiders were selected to finish seventh among the league's 11 participating schools in a preseason poll of conference coaches. The Red Raiders were predicted to finish 11th in 2007 before finishing fifth and advancing to the Big 12 Championship for the first time since 1999. Texas led the poll with 94 points, while Texas A&M and Missouri completed the top three with 93 and 77 points, respectively.

RINCON, SIMS NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Prior to the season, the Red Raiders voted seniors Shannon Sims and Tina Rincon to serve as the team's captains. Sims, a midfielder from Plano, Texas, started all 17 matches last season, while Rincon added to her already impressive career numbers, adding 97 saves and five shutouts in 2007. Rincon is third all-time in career saves and shutouts with 217 and eight, respectively.

MIHELICH JOINS THE RED RAIDERS

Sophomore Leanne Mihelich joins the Red Raiders this season after transferring from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. Mihelich led the Trojans as a freshman in both goals with nine and points with 22. She will miss the first several weeks of the season with a foot injury.

STONE ADDS 12 FRESHMEN FOR SECOND SEASON

In his first recruiting class, head coach Tom Stone found much needed depth to an already talented Tech roster, adding 10 freshman - Lexi Castellano, Maggie Fete, Hope Hanson, Kacy Hardie, Casey McCall, Kendyl Mygatt, Madison Terry, Erin Villareal, Dawn Ward and Lauren Yelinek - on signing day last February. Both Lauren Clary and Jordan Johnson walked-on to the team during preseason practices.

DE LEON, WARD OUT FOR SEASON

Both sophomore Karen De Leon and freshman Dawn Ward will miss the entire 2008 season with injuries. De Leon, one of Tech's top freshman a year ago, connected on two goals and provided two assists in 2007, while Ward was the top prospect in the 2008 recruiting class.

TECH TO HOST TEN MATCHES IN 2008

The Red Raiders will find a more favorable schedule in 2008 as Tech will host 10 home matches. Tech will also lose its "Lone Ranger" status from a year ago where the Red Raiders had to play a Big 12 opponent on both Fridays and Sundays, while each other conference opponent had an open date within its schedule. On top of five non-conference home matches, Tech also hosts national-powers and in-state rivals Texas (Oct. 12) and Texas A&M (Oct. 24). Four of Tech's five road conference matches are against Big 12 North opponents, Kansas (Oct. 3), Missouri (Oct. 5), Iowa State (Oct. 17) and Nebraska (Oct. 19).

Tech Head Coach Tom Stone
Second Season
Duke, 1987

Known nationally first as a player, and now as a coach, Tom Stone enters his second season as Texas Tech head coach, after a first year that saw the program rise to new heights.

With essentially only two months before the 2007 opener following his May hiring, Stone had little time to evaluate his new players, let alone get to really know them, making the non-conference portion of the season a learning experience both for Stone and the players. In October, however, things finally came together as the Red Raiders won four out of five conference matches down the stretch to qualify for the Big 12 Championship for the first time since 1999, while also matching the most conference wins in school history.

Following his inaugural season, Stone was named the assistant coach of the U.S. Under-20 National Team that traveled to Puebla, Mexico. Stone will rejoin the team following the 2008 season for the FIFA U-20 World Cup.

Prior to his arrival at Tech, Stone spent the 2006 season at Clemson as an assistant coach, where the Tigers finished 11-8-5 and earned a birth into the Final Eight in the NCAA Tournament.

Several of Stone's greatest accomplishments as a coach, however, may have come from his time leading the Atlanta Beat of the WUSA for all three years of its existence from 2001-2003. Being the first coach hired when the league formed, Stone proved his worth quickly, claiming the inaugural WUSA regular season title. The Beat advanced to the Founders Cup title match in both 2001 and 2003. In his three seasons with the Beat, Stone finished with the highest winning percentage among WUSA coaches, finishing 13 games over .500, while also being named an all-star coach twice.

Soon after the league's fall, Stone was named the technical director of the Tophat Soccer Club in Atlanta, which is one of the top girls youth programs in the southern region. While with Tophat, Stone was primarily involved in all areas of club and player development and the College Prep Program that prepares top players for college soccer opportunities. He was also the head coach for the 2007 Gold Team that won the Georgia State Championship in 2004 and the Southern Regional Premier League in 2005.

Before beginning his professional career, Stone was the founding director of coaching at the Colorado Rush Soccer Club from 1991 to 2000. Under Stone's direction, the Rush would go on to win 35 state cups along with 12 regional championships and seven national championships, becoming arguably the most successful youth girls program in the U.S. from 1997 to 2000.

Stone has also served as a volunteer assistant coach at Duke in 1997 and the University of Denver in 1996.

When not coaching, Stone has served as an analyst for various national television networks, covering everything from the NCAA Championship to the World Cup. He has worked as the lead soccer analyst for both CSTV and Fox Sports, while also joining ESPN for its coverage of the 2003 Women's World Cup. Stone has also written guest columns for various soccer websites.

Stone holds a USSF "A" License. He and his wife, Lindsey, currently reside in Lubbock with their one-year-old son, Leyton, and are expecting their second child in September 2008.
