THE LAST AT BAT

Tulane can match their best win total since 2009 this weekend with a pair of victories over Houston, entering the series with 33 victories in 2012. The Green Wave won 34 games during the 2009 season, won 32 in 2010 and claimed 31 victories in 2011.

Tulane ranks among the top-25 in the NCAA in average (.313, 15th), hits (506, 21st), slugging percentage (.459, 11th), home runs (39, 20th), walks (232, 7th), on-base percentage (.410, 7th) and fielding percentage (.978, 12th) entering the week.

Houston is one of just three current C-USA teams that Tulane does not own a winning record against. The Green Wave are 25-31 all-time versus Houston and own a 7-14 mark in games played in Houston. Two of those wins came in their last trip to Cougar Field when the Green Wave won two of three games in the series.

INSIDE THE MATCHUP

As the postseason lurks in the distance, the Green Wave is looking towards another big weekend in Conference USA. This weekend's three game series at Houston is another step towards making a tournament push. Tulane enters the three-game series riding a four-game winning streak and own a 33-16 overall record and 10-8 mark in C-USA play.

The starting rotation has been a major reason that TU has been able to stockpile wins over the past three weeks, entering the weekend with a 3.27 staff ERA in their last ten contests.

Andrew Reeves is 2-1 in his last three starts and has allowed just four runs - two earned - on 17 hits in 19 innings of work. The junior is holding opponents to a .229 batting average against and has fanned eight batters. David Napoli continues to throw well this season, as the junior 1-1 in his last three starts with eight runs allowed in his last 17 2/3 innings.

Brandon Boudreaux earned his school-record third Conference USA Hitter of the Week honor to start the week and has ten RBIs over his last ten games played. The junior is batting .375 over his last ten games with 15 hits, eight runs scored and three home runs.

Jeremy Schaffer took over the RBI lead on Tuesday night with his 53rd multi-RBI game of his career versus the Ragin' Cajuns and now has 45 on the year. Nick Schneeberger is second with 44 RBIs and paces the squad with a .370 batting average and 70 hits. Brennan Middleton continues to impress at shortstop with a C-USA best 151 fielding assists and a career-best .364 batting average on the year.

Tulane has played 15 road games to this point in 2012 and are 8-7 overall in those games. As a team, the Green Wave is hitting .283 and own a 3.73 ERA on the road. They score 5.3 runs per game on the road, but have hit 22 of their 40 homers on the opponents home field. They are 6-3 in C-USA play away from home and have won all three road series.

Houston enters the weekend with a 16-28-1 overall record and a 4-13-1 tally in Conference USA play this season. The Cougars won the series opener at Rice last weekend, but the Owls rallied to claim the final two games to win the series. UH is just 1-5 in conference series this season.

Houston is hitting .268 as a team this season and average 4.1 runs per game in 45 contests. John Cannon paces the Cougars attack with a .313 average and a .381 on-base percentage. Chase Jensen has a team-best 30 RBIs, while Landon Appling has three home runs, 25 runs scored and 22 RBIs, leading the squad in the first two categories.

The pitching staff is led by junior Austin Pruitt with a 3-3 record, 3.55 ERA and 46 strikeouts in 76 innings of work. The right-hander has 13 appearances - 11 starts - with one complete game to his credit and is limiting opponents to a .271 batting average. Jordan Lewis has ten starts this year and is 3-6 with a 5.29 ERA, but owns a batting average against of just .251.

Mo Wiley has been the main bullpen option for UH, appearing in 19 games with four saves and a 2-1 record. Wiley has a 4.22 ERA in 32 innings of work and has struck out 36 to just ten walks.

Of the eight other Conference USA schools that carry baseball, Tulane has a winning record against five of them. Two of the three team's which the Green Wave hold a deficit against are located in Houston; University of Houston and Rice.

In the series history, Houston owns a 31-25 mark and the Cougars have the longest winning streak in the series at six games. Each team has swept two C-USA series in the history of their meetings.

In Houston, the Cougars hold a 14-7 advantage, but Tulane won the 2010 series by winning the final two games of the three-game set. UH is 15-14 in New Orleans, but Tulane owns a 4-2 record in neutral site match-ups. Houston swept all three games last season at Turchin Stadium, winning by scores of 2-0, 5-2 and 9-0.

GREER FIELD AT TURCHIN STADIUM

The crown jewel of Tulane University’s athletic facilities, Greer Field at Turchin Stadium will serve as home for the Green Wave baseball team.

The brand new, state-of-the-art facility opened in 2008 and was built for a cost of $10.5 million and is named in honor of Philip Greer and Robert and Lillian Turchin - the namesake of the old Turchin Stadium.

A pro-style stadium with a capacity of 5,000, Greer Field at Turchin Stadium features a grandstand design of structural steel, which increases the number of chair-back seats from 900 to over 2,700. In addition the facility also features private suites, an open-air club suite, a partially covered seating area and a new press box. The Green Wave’s facility also features a different playing surface in FieldTurf - the same surface used by several Major League Baseball and NFL stadiums. The FieldTurf replaces the natural-grass surface that the old Turchin Stadium had since its opening in 1991. The entire field, with the exclusion of the pitcher’s mound, is FieldTurf, which all but eliminates the possibility of inclement weather making the field unplayable.

Four private suites flank the breezeway on the first- base line and include air-conditioned kitchenette and restroom facilities. Suites are sold on multi-year leases and are accessible via elevator, which also provides access to the press box. For the first time, the press box includes individual broadcast booths, Ethernet capability and expanded space for the print media. An updated sound system, a new padded outfield wall, concession stands, restrooms and an expanded merchandise sales area make the facility one of the finest in the nation.

The lighting system, the line-score portion of the scoreboard and the Theresa Sofio Hitting Facility are the lone holdovers from the old Turchin Stadium, and nearly every other area of the stadium has been replaced as part of the construction.

The exterior of the stadium is more fan-friendly, as well, as the fans enter the stadium via Goldring Plaza.

The Plaza features commemorative bricks purchased in a fundraising drive by Tulane’s die-hard fans. Inside, a new video board was installed above the scoreboard in left field, which will allow Green Wave fans to enjoy video clips, in-game replays and updated statistics of the teams playing that day. Along with the esthetics of Goldring Plaza, the corridors of Greer Field at Turchin Stadium feature oversized images of some of the Green Wave’s most memorable moments on the diamond.

The Mickey Retif Memorial Clubhouse, located on the second floor of the James W. Wilson, Jr. Center, also underwent a complete overhaul and now features 40 wooden lockers, nine flat-screen television sets, DVD and VCR players, and a CD/Stereo system. The clubhouse also features a keypad entry system that gives the student-athletes unlimited access, a player’s lounge, shower facilities and a locker room for the coaching staff.

Since moving to its current location for the 1991 season, Tulane’s home field has been a true advantage as the Green Wave sports a .750 winning percentage in games played within its friendly confines. The old Turchin Stadium has played host to the 1992 Metro Conference Tournament and the 1997 and 2003 C-USA Tournaments as well as the 2001 and 2005 NCAA New Orleans Regionals and the 2005 NCAA New Orleans Super Regional.

Home-field advantage came into play in all six tournaments with the Green Wave winning the 1992 league championship and all three NCAA events while advancing to the semifinals in 1997 and the finals in 2003.

The Green Wave baseball team has played in the current vicinity for more than 40 years. The ballpark was originally named Tulane Diamond and was located about 100 feet south of its current location,

Up until 1985, the dimensions were 347 and 353 to the power alleys in left and right field, respectively. The new park measures 325 down the lines, 370 to the power alleys and 400 feet to straightaway center. The old outfield wall will be replaced with a new padded wall to help ensure the safety and well being of both the home and visiting teams’ student-athletes.

Lights were originally added in 1991 with eight banks of between 22 and 30 lights illuminating Turchin Stadium. Also new to the stadium in 1991 was the addition of permanent seating, a luxury box, a press box and a state-of-the-art computerized scoreboard.

HEAD COACH RICK JONES

The winningest coach in Tulane history, Rick Jones enters his 19th season at the helm of the Green Wave. A staple in college baseball, Jones has manned the dugout for 30 years as a collegiate coach and 37 as a coach overall. Jones has lived a life of baseball and the game has given him multiple lifetime's worth of accolades and success stories both on and off the field.

Since taking over as head coach prior to the 1994 season, Jones has led Tulane to the NCAA Regionals in 12 of his 18 seasons. His postseason résumé includes a school-record nine consecutive trips from 1998-2006, three regional championships and trips to the College World Series in 2001 and 2005.

Jones was appointed the head coach of the 2009 United States Collegiate National Team on July 8, 2008. He guided the Red, White & Blue to the championship of the 2009 Enbridge Northern Gateway Pipeline World Baseball Challenge at Prince George Citizen Field in British Columbia, posting a 5-1 record in the tournament. Jones' squad grabbed the title with a 5-2 victory over Canada in the championship game.

Under Jones' tutelage, Tulane has ten seasons of 40 or more victories, including school-record 56-win seasons during both CWS years. His 2001 club set the school mark for winning percentage at .812 (56-13) and the 2005 club was a shade better at .823 (56-12).

In a 2007 study done by Baseball America, Tulane has had the most meteoric rise among college baseball programs from 1999 through the end of the 2006 season. The Green Wave rose 66 spots and ranked 16th among Division I programs following the inception of the Super Regional. Baseball America honored the Green Wave again that January, naming Tulane one of 16 teams nationally to receive an "A" impact rating based on overall performance both on and off the field since the NCAA tournament field was expanded to 64 in 1999.

Fifty-six Green Wave players have earned all-conference honors on 83 occasions, including 52 first-team selections, and 24 have claimed C-USA All-Freshman Team recognition.

The winningest coach in C-USA history, Jones was named C-USA Coach of the Decade in 2005 after helping Tulane win four Conference USA regular-season championships and the C-USA Tournament a league-record five times. A league-high four Tulane players were named to the C-USA All-Decade team - Michael Aubrey, Jake Gautreau, James Jurries and Chad Sutter - and Gautreau was named Player of the Decade.

Seven of the 16 C-USA Players of the Year have come from Tulane, including a five-year streak from 1999-2003, to give the Green Wave more than any other league team. In addition, six C-USA Freshman of the Year have donned a Green Wave jersey, while three Tulane standouts have been named conference's Pitcher of the Year.

Conference is not the only level to recognize the Tulane program, though. On the national scene, 21 players have received All-American recognition - including at least one every season from 1996-2006 - 16 players were named Freshman All-Americans, and five have earned positions on the USA Baseball National Team during the Jones era.

Professional scouts have also taken note on Jones' players as well. Major League Baseball teams have spent 47 draft picks on Tulane players - including five in the first-round - since 1994, and a total of 69 players have signed professional contracts.

While Tulane has achieved unprecedented success on the diamond

under Jones, it has enjoyed the same amount of accolades in the classroom as Green Wave players have earned C-USA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll recognition 204 times since 1996, which stands as a direct testament to the level of student-athlete Jones has been able to bring into the Tulane program.

Since 1994, four players have earned Academic All-America honors, including James Jurries (2001), Tommy Manzella (2005) and Rob Segedin (2010) who became the first three Tulane student-athletes to earn athletic and academic All-America recognition in the same season.

Every player who played four years for Jones has completed their degree, and several have gone on to prominent roles in their post-graduate life. While baseball has been the career choice of some, the list of former Jones players include Major Leaguers, Major League general managers, radiologists, lawyers, state representatives, accountants and health care workers.

Jones' impact is not limited to his players, however, as four of his former assistants are now collegiate head coaches: Brian Cleary at Cincinnati, Jim Schlossnagle at TCU, Rob Cooper at Wright State and Mark Kingston at Illinois State. In addition, two of his former players are now college head coaches: Mike Kennedy at Elon and Steve Trimper at Maine.

For his contributions to college baseball, Jones has earned a trio of Conference USA Coach of the Year titles and has been named Louisiana Coach of the Year five times. Following the 2001 season, Jones earned his first Division I Coach of the Year award when he was named the American Baseball Coaches Association/Diamond Sport Company Division I South Region Coach of the Year and in 2005 he was honored as Baseball America's National Coach of the Year.

In 18 seasons with the Green Wave, Jones has tallied a 736-381-2 record (.663), including a 290-166-2 mark in conference play. A 6-0 victory over LeMoyné on Feb. 22, 2009 gave Jones his 642nd victory, making him the winningest coach in school history, surpassing Tulane legend Joe Brockhoff's record, which stood at 641 wins since Brockhoff's retirement following the 1993 season. On May 4, 2010 he posted his 700th victory as the Tulane skipper with an 8-5 victory against Louisiana Monroe.

Winning and national recognition are nothing new to Jones, though, as he has achieved success at every stop of his coaching journey. Including previous head coaching stints at Ferrum (Va.) College and Elon (N.C.) College, Jones has tallied 1,012 career head coaching victories. For most of his life, Jones has been around the baseball diamond and on April 8, 2011 in Orlando, Fla. he posted his 1,000th career head coaching victory. His 1,000th win came via a 10-8, come-from-behind victory over UCF.

Jones was also selected to help coach Team USA in 1990 where he served as the national team's pitching coach and recruiting coordinator. Jones helped Team USA win the bronze medal at the Goodwill Games and earn the silver medal at the Presidential Cup in Taiwan.

As the assistant head coach at national power Georgia Tech from 1990-93, Jones coached the pitchers for four years and served as the Yellow Jackets' recruiting coordinator for three seasons. During his stint in Atlanta, Jones helped the Yellow Jackets to four consecutive NCAA Regionals, and his recruiting classes were nationally ranked each year and included the likes of Nomar Garciaparra and Jay Payton.

Jones' pitching staffs posted team ERAs below 4.00 in three of his four seasons at Georgia Tech. The 1992 staff finished the season 10th in the NCAA in ERA, while the 1993 staff finished sixth, marking the first times in Georgia Tech's history that a pitching staff ranked among the national leaders.

Prior to joining the Georgia Tech staff, Jones served as the head coach at Elon College where he helped the then-Fighting Christians (Elon has since renamed its mascot the Phoenix) to a 174-61 record from 1985-89. His .743 winning percentage is the best of any coach in the school's athletic history. Jones' Elon clubs won four NAIA District 26 titles and made three trips to the NAIA World Series, ranking in the Top 10 each year. In 1989, Jones led Elon to a 36-9 record and earned National Coach of the Year recognition.

While at Elon, Jones was a three-time NAIA District Coach of the Year, and earned Regional Coach of the Year and Carolina Conference Coach of the Year honors twice. In 1989, Jones was tabbed the National Coach of the Year, earned Diamond Baseball National Coach of the Year honors for NAIA schools, and was inducted to the Elon Hall of Fame in October 2004.

Jones' collegiate coaching career began at Ferrum College in Virginia where he led the Panthers to a 102-34-1 record from 1982-84, including a pair of Top 10 rankings. Jones began his coaching career at E.E. Smith High School in Fayetteville, N.C. and prior to his stop at E.E. Smith, Jones taught and coached in the Chatham County school system for three years.

HOUSTON WE HAVE A PROBLEM

Of the eight other Conference USA schools that carry baseball, Tulane has a winning record against five of them. Two of the three team's which the Green Wave hold a deficit against are located in Houston; University of Houston and Rice.

In the series history, Houston owns a 31-25 mark and the Cougars have the longest winning streak in the series at six games. Each team has swept two C-USA series in the history of their meetings.

In Houston, the Cougars hold a 14-7 advantage, but Tulane won the 2010 series by winning the final two games of the three-game set. UH is 15-14 in New Orleans, but Tulane owns a 4-2 record in neutral site match-ups.

Houston swept all three games last season at Turchin Stadium, winning by scores of 2-0, 5-2 and 9-0.

Below is a look at the last ten meetings in the series, including date, site and final result, from the Tulane perspective.

AT THE PLATE & ON THE MOUND

On February 18, 2012, Andrew Garner accomplished a feat that not many baseball players can claim. The sophomore hit a home run and later collected the win on the mound for the Olive and Blue against Siena.

He is the first Green Wave player to accomplish the feat since Micah Owings did so during the 2005 season. Owings had a homer and a win versus Memphis on May 6, 2005.

Among his Conference USA brethren, Garner is one of only four players to log a win and a home run this season. The sophomore has made 13 appearances on the mound and has a 5-0 record.

The list below is the C-USA members that have pitching victories and home runs this season.

Player	Team	Record (App.)	HR (RBIs)
Tanner Bryant	UAB	1-1 (16)	1 (11)
Michael Busby	UAB	3-3 (13)	2 (9)
Andrew Garner	TUL	5-0 (13)	2 (16)
Drew Reynolds	ECU	3-0 (18)	2 (20)

THE MULTI-HIT GAME

In 2011, Tulane hitters mustered only 117 multi-hit games in 57 games, but over the weekend versus UCF the Olive and Blue passed that total just 40 games into the year. Tulane has belted out 149 multi-hit games this season.

Jeremy Schaffer led the team with 20 multiple hit efforts last season and Nick Schneeberger passed that total with his 21st versus UCF on April 22.

The multi-RBI game totals are also up from a season ago. In 2011 just 55 times did a Tulane player post more than one RBI in a game, this season the lineup has produced 73 such efforts.

A complete list of 2012 multi-hit games and career multi-hit games can be found on page 13 of these game notes.

BATTING AROUND

Tulane sent ten batters to the plate on Tuesday afternoon versus Northwestern State and scored four runs in the inning. It was the 14th time in 2012 that the Green Wave have sent nine or more batters to the plate in an inning this season.

Their eight hits in the fifth inning versus Southeastern Louisiana on 3/27 are the most in an inning this season, while they posted six hits in the third inning of the series opener at UAB. On seven other occasions, TU has had five hits in an inning.

Tulane has sent eight batters to the plate on 22 occasions in 2012, as well.

Batters (Hits)	Runs	Inning	Opponent
15 (5 Hits)	10	1	Brown (3/17)
11 (8 Hits)	6	5	at Southeastern La. (3/27)
11 (5 Hits)	6	3	Brown (3/18)

10 (2 Hits)	4	7	Northwestern State (4/24)
10 (6 Hits)	5	3	at UAB (4/13)
10 (2 Hits)	5	8	Alcorn State (5/4)
10 (5 Hits)	6	8	at Memphis (3/31)
10 (5 Hits)	6	7	UMBC (3/25)
10 (5 Hits)	5	8	Brown (3/17)
9 (6 Hits)	4	7	#15 UCF (4/22)
9 (4 Hits)	4	6	at UAB (4/15)
9 (3 Hits)	4	5	Southeastern La. (2/28)
9 (5 Hits)	5	1	Siena (2/18)

GETTIN' TO HITTIN'

The Green Wave posted ten hits Tuesday night versus Louisiana-Lafayette and has now reached the ten-hit plateau 27 times this season.

That offensive production is a big reason that Tulane has a 26-3 record when out-hitting their opponents and are 25-2 when scoring six or more runs. On the flip side of that, the Green Wave pitching staff has allowed five or fewer runs in 36 of the 49 games this season.

The offense has come from a bevy of Green Wave players, with four or more TU offensive players posting multi-hit games in 21 different contests this year.

Tulane has posted a season-high 19 hits twice this season, coming versus Brown (3/16) and UAB (4/13) with a season-best seven players recording multiple hits in the contest versus Brown.

LONGBALL U

Tulane has been the standard for home run hitters in Conference USA, owning the top three spots in the conference's career charts. Chad Sutter (75), James Jurries (62) and Jake Gautreau (58) own the top three spots, while Jason Sparks hit 49 to sit in a tie for 11th.

Jeremy Schaffer joined that group on April 13 when he hit his 40th career round-tripper to move into the top-20 in C-USA history. With Schaffer entering the top-20, Tulane now has five players on that list.

Tulane's five players are the most of any C-USA school, as Schaffer broke the tie with Southern Miss, which has four players each on the list.

GOING DEEP

Tulane has taken 40 balls out of the ballpark through 49 games in the 2012 season, eclipsing their pace from the 2011 season.

In 2011, Tulane managed just 19 home runs in 57 games, but a Frank Florio home run at Memphis on March 31 tied that mark and Brandon Boudreaux's grand slam at Memphis on April 1 gave TU 20 home runs on the season.

A complete list of who has hit the home runs and in what situations can be found on page 14 of these game notes.

GOING BALD FOR CANCER RESEARCH

On Sunday, March 25, the Green Wave players came together to with the St. Baldrick's Foundation and BaseBald to raise over $17,000.00 for childhood cancer research.

Tulane began to raise their funds on March 1, 2012 and through player tweets, Facebook posts and word of mouth the Green Wave was able to raise over $17,000.00 for the foundation.

The Tulane Student-Athlete Advisory Committee - a part of the Devlin S-AFE Center - worked a volunteer donation table at all March home contests, collected over $3,500.00 in donations, while the Green Wave raised $13,844.00 in online donations (as of March 26) through the St. Baldrick's website.

The original event took place in 2010 at the University of North Carolina, organized by Chase Jones. Chase is the nephew of Tulane head coach Rick Jones and is a cancer survivor himself. Chase was hired by St. Baldrick's and now organizes head shaving events around the nation at college baseball events.

19TH SEASON OPENER FOR JONES

Head coach Rick Jones is in his 19th season at the helm of the Green Wave and the veteran coach owns a 14-5 mark in season openers while donning the sluggerbird uniforms.

Jones opened his inaugural season at Tulane with a 4-2 victory over Nicholls State on Feb. 13, 1994 and went on to claim his first five season-opening games. He has played just one true road game to open a season, a 9-7 loss at Pepperdine in 2002, and played TCU at the Houston Collegiate Classic in 2006, losing 5-3.

The skipper snapped his two-game losing streak on opening night this season with a 5-4 walk-off win over Siena.

Jones has met Sam Houston State (1-1) and San Diego State (1-1) multiple times on opening day and owns a 12-3 record at GFATS in the first game of a season.

THE ROAD UNKIND

Head coach Rick Jones has never been afraid of taking his teams on the road to play, but the first time that Jones and his Green Wave hit the road usually ends on the wrong end of the score.

Jones won his first true road contest in 1994, defeating Nicholls State, 4-2, but since then, Jones and his teams are just 3-15. The Green Wave has not won a road opener since defeating New Orleans by a score of 10-2 in 2006.

SELLING TICKETS LIKE HOTCAKES

Since the gates opened to the renovated Greer Field at Turchin Stadium, the Tulane baseball program has annually been among the Top-25 in national attendance average. That fact hasn't changed in 2012.

Tulane watched as over 10,000 patrons came through the wrought iron gates at Turchin Stadium for a three-game set with Alabama.

Below is a listing of the top five attendances in the country, as well as other C-USA schools and their rankings among the most watched college baseball teams.

ANOTHER SOLID START FOR TULANE

The Green Wave is off to its best start since the 2005 season, winning ten of their first 13 games and will look to continue that as they near the quarter pole of the season.

A list of Tulane's first twenty games since the 1999 season, their final record and any postseason berths are below.

Year	First 20	Final	Postseason (Seed)
1999	15-5	48-17	Auburn Regional (#1)

ELOQUENT AS THE COLOR WHITE

The last time that the Tulane baseball program donned white cleats was the 2008 season. That year, the Green Wave advanced to the championship game of the Tallahassee Regional.

After wearing black spikes during each of the last three seasons, Tulane made the switch back to the pearly whites. Though they have never worn white Nikes in the past - they were white Puma cleats - they are hopeful that the switch will be a profitable one.

THE PROFESSIONAL RANKS

Tulane enter their 105th season of baseball and the Green Wave has had a solid contingent of players enter the professional baseball ranks. Since 1965, Tulane has heard 94 players have their named called on draft day and 34 players have signed free agent contracts with Major League Baseball clubs.

Twenty of those players have made it to the highest level, with Carl Lind being the first TU player to make it onto an MLB field in 1927 with the Cleveland Indians.

Under head coach Rick Jones, 48 players have been selected in the Major League baseball draft and 23 players have signed as a free agent. Seven of Jones' pupils have made it to the Majors, including four players that are currently on the big league rosters.

The following list was provided by Conference USA and includes players that are currently affiliated with teams in Major League Baseball.

Tulane has four players among the active Major League rosters and 22 total players are currently among the professional ranks.

SUNDAY SCHOOLIN'

Tulane has had success on Sunday this season, holding an 9-3 record on the final day of the week, but the trend of solid Sunday performances has run almost every year for the last 12 seasons.

Tulane has played in 164 games on the seventh day of the week and have won 113 of those contests. Tulane has posted ten or more Sunday wins in five of the last 12 years, with 16 of those coming during the 2001 season.

Currently on Sunday's, it is Academy Sports Kids Day at the Ballpark and all of the kids in attendance are invited to run the bases after the games. More times than not, those kids have been celebrating a Green Wave victory.

LEBLANC RETURNS

It might have been just one game, but it was an important one for redshirt-freshman pitcher. LeBlanc was thought to be the ace of the staff going into his rookie season, but his time to shine under the lights on Friday night was delayed by an injury.

The right-hander was forced off the mound in his third start of 2011 and forced watched the remainder of the season from the dugout. In that start, at Ole Miss, he had fanned eight batter through 4 2/3 innings, but a pop in his elbow ended that outing.

He returned to the mound 349 days after being forced to leave during what was one of the best outings of his young career.

In his return - the season opener against Siena - he fanned four batters in five-plus innings of work. He allowed four runs - three earned - with three of those coming in the sixth inning of the outing. He allowed seven hits and walked only one in a no decision.

BEST IN CLASS

As Americans, we love our rankings. We rank everything from the top-50 love songs to the top-ten cities to spend a day in. Baseball America quells the baseball fans need for rankings with their College Preview that rates the top-50 for each class.

Tulane's young talent was noticed by the national publication, with Alex Massey and Randy LeBlanc each being added to their respective lists.

Massey, a freshman from Baton Rouge, was notched as the 49th best rookie in college baseball. The right-handed pitcher was selected in the 27th round by the Boston Red Sox in last years MLB Draft and will challenge for a spot in the rotation in 2012.

As for LeBlanc, the redshirt-freshman was picked as the 30th best second year prospect in college. LeBlanc made just three starts last season before suffering an injury. He owned an 0-0 record with a 2.87 ERA and 22 strikeouts in 15 2/3 innings.

RPI WATCH

Conference USA is always among the most competitive baseball conferences in the NCAA and on April 9, 2012 the national office released their first official RPI of the 2012 season.

Tulane sat 109th in the initial RPI standings and below are the latest rankings for all nine of the C-USA schools.

SCHAFFER HONORED IN PRESEASON

After a monster junior season, Jeremy Schaffer enters the 2012 campaign looking to add to his impressive numbers from a season ago. Schaffer made an impression on the national stage in 2011 and those impressions lasted through the offseason, landing him a spot on two Preseason All-America lists.

The Bellaire, Texas product hit .338 with 45 runs scored, 71 hits and 37 RBI's. He led the team in 12 offensive categories, including a C-USA best 23 doubles.

College Baseball Insider and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association named the senior to their preseason All-America lists, which he hopes can turn into a mention on their season-ending lists.

HOME ON THE TURF

Like most of the schedules that Rick Jones has fashioned during his time at Tulane, the 2012 Green Wave schedule features 37 home games. That total is tied for the sixth most in school history, with its 48 games from the 2001 season standing as the school record.

The home schedule starts with a four-game series against Siena. There will be four, three-game non-conference series and nine midweek tilts played on the turf at Turchin. Tulane will play SEC foes Alabama and LSU at home, while also hosting in-state rivals Southeastern Louisiana (twice), Louisiana-Lafayette, Louisiana-Monroe, Nicholls State and Northwestern State. Their other two midweek contests come against Alcorn State.

The Conference USA season has Rice (4/5-7), UCF (4/20-22), Southern Miss (5/4-6) and Marshall (5/17-19) heading to Greer Field at Turchin Stadium, as well.

It will be the 11th time in Jones' 19 seasons that the Olive and Blue will play 37 or more games during a single season.

TEN HOME RUN WEEK

A bevy of extra base hits highlighted week nine of the college baseball season for the Green Wave. From April 10-15, Tulane hit home runs in all five of their games during that week.

Tulane hit ten total home runs, including one each versus Nicholls State and Alcorn State during the midweek, before smacking eight longballs in a three-game set at UAB.

Brandon Boudreaux and Jeremy Schaffer each posted three home runs on the week, Frank Florio hit two, while Troy McCartney and Sean Potkay each collected one round-tripper.

THE NATIONAL STAGE

When you talk about a player or team ranking among the national leaders, you have to put those rankings into perspective. There are 291 Division I baseball programs and if every team fields a 30-man roster that puts the total number of student-athletes in the sport at around 8,700.

Each week, the NCAA office in Indianapolis, Ind. releases their national player and team rankings and we will breakdown which Green Wave players rank among the top two-percent in the NCAA in their respective categories.

Included below are the players that rank among the top-200 and team rankings among the top-75.

HOW THEY PICKED EM

The college baseball scene is well covered by the national media and the following list shows where the respective outlets picked the Green Wave to finish in Conference USA this season.

Baseball America - 5th
 College Baseball Insider - No Preseason Rankings
 College Baseball Today - 5th
 Collegiate Baseball Magazine - 5th
 Perfect Game - 5th

Also, Perfect Game ranked the Green Wave as the 54th best team entering the 2012 slate, as well as putting Tulane as one of five C-USA teams to make the NCAA postseason. The publication also ranked the 35 best prospects in the conference, with the following TU players on that list (with their rankings).

6. Randy LeBlanc, RHP
 23. Alex Massey, RHP
 27. Jordan Gross, LHP
