TULANE OPENS NEW YEAR WITH FINAL NON-CONFERENCE GAME AT AUBURN

• The Tulane basketball team (6-6) concludes the non-conference portion of its regular season schedule this Saturday at 5 p.m. with a match-up against the Auburn Tigers (9-4) at Beard-Eaves Memorial Coliseum.

In the first game of the New Year for both squads, Tulane and Auburn renew a series that spans 109 years with the 61st edition since the first meeting in 1906. These former Southeastern Conference rivals have met just three times since Tulane departed the league following the 1965-66 campaign and the Wave has won the last two contests, including a 77-62 victory over the Tigers in the 2007-08 season opener at Fogelman Arena.

The Green Wave is searching for its first road victory of the 2008-09 season, entering the Auburn game with a 0-3 mark on an opponents' home floor this season.

Junior Kevin Sims leads the Wave in scoring with 12 points per game and assists with 4.0 per outing, while senior Robinson Louisme is the team's second-leading scorer with 9.8 points per contest and top rebounder with 6.3 boards per outing.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

• Auburn (9-4) opened the season with a 3-3 mark, but has reeled off a six-game win streak and hasn't lost a game since an 81-74 loss at Xavier on Dec. 3. The Tigers are 8-1 at home this season with its lone loss coming to Mercer, 78-74, in the second game of the year on Nov. 19.

Korvotney Barber and Tay Waller are two of three Tigers with a double figure scoring average, including 12.8 and 12.7 points per game, respectively, while DeWayne Reed is the third leading scorer with 11.9 points per outing.

Barber also leads the team in rebounding with 8.0 boards per contest.

TULANE VS. THE SEC

• A former member of the SEC from 1932-66, Tulane has played 787 games against past and current SEC opponents and has an all-time record of 343-444 against past and current teams.

Tulane, along with Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee and Vanderbilt were the founding members of the league in December, 1932.

TULANE DEFENSE STIFLES GRAMBLING STATE

• Tulane's defense notched his finest performance of the season in its last outing against Grambling State.

In the second half, TU allowed Grambling State just two field goals during the final 14:33 and went over nine minutes without surrendering a field goal.

The Green Wave gave up just 37 points, which marked the fewest points by an opponent since Marshall scored 36 points in a 61-36 loss to Tulane in the first-ever meeting between the two schools at Fogelman Arena on Dec. 4, 2006.

2008-09 Leaders

(by average/percentage):

- Scoring- Kevin Sims, 12.0 (144)
- Field Goals- Kendall Timmons, 20-41 (.488)
- Three-Pointers- Daniel Puckett, .450 (9-20)
- Free Throws- Kevin Sims, .800 (32-40)
- Rebounds- Robinson Louisme, 6.3 (76)
- Assists- Kevin Sims, 4.0 (48)
- Steals- Kris Richard, 1.90 (23)
- Blocked Shots- Robinson Louisme, 1.7 (20)
- Minutes Played- Kevin Sims, 32.3 (388)

SERIES RECORD & NOTES

• Saturday's game marks the 61st meeting between Tulane and Auburn and the Tigers lead the overall series, 31-29.

• In Tulane's last appearance at Auburn, the Green Wave escaped with an 87-73 overtime victory in the first round of the 1996 postseason National Invitation Tournament.

• Tulane has two players on its current roster that hail from the state of Alabama. Junior Asim McQueen is a native of Auburn and attended Auburn High School, while sophomore Johnny Mayhane is from Mobile and prepped at LeFlore High School.

TIMMONS HAS CAREER NIGHT AT GEORGE MASON WITH 18 POINTS

• Freshman Kendall Timmons gave the Green Wave a glimpse of his ability that made him a highly recruited player for Tulane basketball when he finished with a career-high 18 points to lead the Wave at George Mason.

In his third career start, Timmons, nailed 9-of-13 (.692) field goal attempts, grabbed five rebounds to tie his single game record, dished out two assists and swiped one steal during a career-best 24 minutes of action.

PUCKETT'S DECEMBER TO REMEMBER

• Senior Daniel Puckett evolved to an opponents' worst nightmare in TU's four home games during the month of December, averaging 15.3 points, 6.8 rebounds, 2.3 assists, and shot 56 percent (20-of-36) from the field, including a sizzling 70 percent (7-of-10) from behind the three-point line.

Puckett finished with 20 points, seven rebounds, two assists and two steals vs. Binghamton, hitting 5-of-10 field goal attempts, including his lone three-pointer.

Puckett torched the nets for a career-high 21 points vs. Western Kentucky, hitting 8-of-14 field goal attempts, including 4-of-6 three-point tries, and grabbed five rebounds to go along with three assists.

In his last home game vs. NC A&T, Puckett rang up his first career double-double with 12 points and 12 rebounds, and once again distributed three assists. He sank 4-of-8 field goal attempts, including his lone three-point attempt.

SIMS NAMED TO BOB COUSY AWARD WATCH LIST

Tulane junior point guard Kevin Sims is one of 34 players from around the nation, and the lone representative from Conference USA, that have been named to the 2009 Bob Cousy Award Watch List. Sims has started 64 of 74 games and has produced 834 points and 289 assists in three seasons, and he is one of the top guards in C-USA.

The Bob Cousy Award presented by The Hartford is given to the top collegiate male basketball point guard annually spanning across all divisions within the game by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. The selection criteria emphasize leadership, team work, success, and fundamentals as being critical parts for the game of basketball as a point guard.

TULANE CHALKS UP 3-1 MARK VS. IN STATE SCHOOLS

• Tulane faced four Louisiana schools this season (McNeese State, Nicholls State, New Orleans, Grambling State) and notched a 3-1 record against its in-state rivals.

THE MASTER THIEF

• Sophomore Kris Richard recorded a total of 29 steals in 31 games during his rookie campaign last season with the Green Wave. This season, Richard already has 23 thefts through 12 contests and currently ranks fourth among the top thieves in Conference USA with 1.90 per outing.

Richard swiped a career-best five steals against NC A&T and has two or more steals in nine contests this season.

THE TURNOVER TALE

• In its past four home games, Tulane limited its turnovers to a season-low nine against Western Kentucky, 10 vs. Grambling State and just 12 vs. North Carolina A&T and Binghamton.

In four of the team's six wins this season, the Wave has handled the ball well with 12 or fewer turnovers, including Grambling State, 11 vs. Nicholls State and 12 against both Maine and NC A&T.

PUCKETT HITS 100

• Senior Daniel Puckett played in his 100th career game in TU's 60-52 loss at George Mason on Dec. 22. Puckett is the Green Wave's most experienced player with 101 games, while classmate Robinson Louisme has played in the second-most games on the team with 89.

KEEPING THE SCORING TO A MINIMUM

• Tulane has held seven opponents this season to 65 or fewer total points, and the Wave has a record of 5-2 in those contests. TU's top defensive efforts have come against Grambling State (37), New Orleans (49), North Carolina A&T (55), Maine (56), Albany State (59), George Mason (60) and McNeese State (62).

THE GREAT CHRISTMAS HEIST

• In its final game on its home floor prior to the Christmas holiday, the Tulane men's hoops team robbed North Carolina A&T of 15 steals en route to forcing the Aggies into 20 turnovers. The 15 steals are the most in a single game for the Green Wave since a similar 15-steal performance in an 88-30 walloping of Morris Brown at Fogelman Arena on Jan. 4, 2003.

SIMS IS TU'S STEADY ENGINE

• Kevin Sims has become a force to be reckoned with this season. The 5'10" point guard leads TU in scoring with 12 points and assists with 4.00 per game this season, and has surpassed the 20-point plateau twice during his junior campaign with a 22-point outing against Nicholls State and a 20-point performance vs. Maine. He has reached double figures eight times and has five plus assists in five contests.

20 SOMETHING

• This season three different players have already scored 20 or more points in a game. Junior Kevin Sims (22 vs. Nicholls State; 20 vs. Maine) and senior Daniel Puckett (21 vs. Western Kentucky) each have two 20-point contests, while junior Asim McQueen (20 vs. UC-Davis) has one 20-point outing.

Tulane also had three different players reach the 20-point plateau last season and four players in 2006-07.

A BENCH-MARK EFFORT

• Tulane's bench has been effective for the Green Wave through three games, outscoring its opponents' bench 225-134. TU's bench outscored Nicholls State (15-3), Texas (27-16), Albany State (35-12), Maine (10-0), Western Kentucky (17-5), North Carolina A&T (44-15) and Grambling State (29-3).

TU'S PLAYERS RANK AMONG C-USA'S BEST

Kevin Sims

- 19th in scoring (12.0)
- 7th in assists (3.73)
- 8th for free throw percentage (.800)
- 8th in assist/turnover ratio (1.71)
- 12th for 3-pt FG Made (1.67)
- 15th for minutes played (32.3)

Asim McQueen

- 16th in rebounding (5.5)
- 8th in offensive rebounds (2.75)

Robinson Louisme

- 5th for blocked shots (1.67)
- 6th for offensive rebounds (2.83)

Kris Richard

- 5th in steals (1.90)

DICKERSON CAPTURES 50TH CAREER VICTORY

• Tulane handed fourth-year head coach Dave Dickerson his 50th career coaching victory with its 66-56 victory over Maine at the 2008 USA Basketball Classic. Dickerson became the sixth coach in school history to reach the 50-win plateau.

He earned his first-ever win over UNO (11/22/05) and his 25th win at Marshall (2/17/07).

DICKERSON WINS 100TH CAREER GAME AT TU

• Tulane handed head coach Dave Dickerson a victory in his 100th career game with the Wave's 81-55 win over North Carolina A&T on Dec. 18, 2008.

"It's been fun. I'm lucky to be a head basketball coach and I am lucky to be at a great institution like Tulane University, and I look forward to my next 100 games here," Dickerson said.

He is the eighth coach in the 97-year history of the school to coach in 100 or more games.

1st Game: Nov. 22, 2005 vs. New Orleans (W)

25th Game: Feb. 25, 2006 vs. East Carolina (W)

50th Game: Feb. 7, 2007 vs. UTEP (W)

75th Game: Jan. 12, 2008 vs. Southern Miss (L)

PUCKETT EXPLODES FOR 21 AGAINST WESTERN KENTUCKY

• Senior Daniel Puckett broke out of his scoring slump against Western Kentucky with a career-high 21 points on 8-of-14 (.571) shooting, including a 4-of-6 (.670) performance from behind the three-point line. Puckett tied his single game high for three-point field goals and also added three assists in 35 minutes.

FROSH ROGERS CHECKS IN WITH CAREER OUTING

• Freshman Trent Rogers also registered a career outing against Western Kentucky with nine points and three assists in 14 minutes off the bench. Rogers nailed 3-of-5 (.600) field goal attempts and 2-of-4 (.500) three-point tries, and he dished out a career-best three assists. Rogers' 14 minutes also marked the most minutes he's played in a game during his brief career.

WALK-ON HOGAN MAKES FIRST COLLEGIATE APPEARANCE

• Sophomore Geoff Hogan walked on to the TU basketball team this past October and needed just a little over a month to earn his first collegiate playing experience. A native of Kalispell, Mont., he came off the bench against both Albany State and Western Kentucky and grabbed two rebounds in each game, and he also swiped a steal against WKU. He is averaging 1.5 boards per contest in three games this season.

TU IN FOURTH YEAR UNDER DICKERSON

Tulane is in its fourth season under head coach Dave Dickerson in 2008-09, and will look to notch its third straight winning season for the first time since the mid 1990s. Dickerson was named the NABC District 8 Coach of the Year after leading the Wave to its second straight 17-win season last season.

TULANE BEGINS SEASON WITH 3-1 START FOR THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR

• Tulane has notched back-to-back 17-win seasons and a big reason for that success was its strong start, and the 2008-09 campaign marks the third straight year the Green Wave has opened the season with a 3-1 record.

TU opened the 2006-07 and 2007-08 campaigns with 3-1 records, but each squad fell in its fifth game. The 2008-09 Green Wave opened the year with a 3-1 mark before falling in its fifth game of the year.

INSIDE THE 2008-09 GREEN WAVE

• The Wave has notched back-to-back seasons with 17 victories, which marks the school's first stretch of consecutive winning seasons in 11 years.

• During its 17 wins last season, the Green Wave put together three or more straight wins on four occasions, including a stretch with four and five victories.

• Tulane was once again one of the top shot blocking teams in the country last season with 171, which ranked No. 19 in the nation with 5.3 per game. Over the last two years, TU has been tough in the paint, rejecting a combined 359 of its opponents' field goal attempts, or 5.8 per outing.

• Robinson Louisme hit 60.2 percent of his field goal attempts (127-211) last season, which led all Conference USA players in field goal percentage, and was the fourth-best single season effort in school history. Louisme hit his first 13 field goal attempts of the year before suffering his first miss in the fourth game, and he shot 60 percent or better from the field in 19 of 32 games.

• Kevin Sims accomplished a feat not seen at Tulane in over 10 years. Sims put together back-to-back seasons with 100+ assists with 102 as a freshman and 120 during his sophomore campaign, which ranks ninth on Tulane's single season charts. Sims is the first player to record consecutive 100+ assists seasons since Jerald Honeycutt with 120 in 1995-96, and 131 in 1996-97.

• When Sims wasn't dishing the ball to his teammates he was taking it away from the opposition. Sims' 44 steals was not only the best by a Tulane player last season, but ranked eighth among C-USA players. Sims' six steals at Syracuse tied for the best single game effort in the league in 2007-08.

• One year ago, the Green Wave outscored its opponents in the paint, 932 to 700, and won 15 of its 17 games when dominating the lane.

• Tulane played 32 games during the 2007-08 campaign, which marked the most in a single-season since the 1995-96 campaign.

• Kevin Sims did not have to worry about playing time last season. He not only led the team in minutes played with 34.6 per game, but his 1,108 total ranks as the fifth most on the school's single season list for minutes played.

• Despite nagging injuries last season, Daniel Puckett started 18 of 31 games and averaged 5.1 points and 1.5 assists per game.

• Eric Vianney, Johnny Mayhane and Kris Richard combined for 48 three-point field goals last season.

The 2008-09 Tulane Green Wave men's basketball schedule features nine exciting games against 2008 postseason teams, 15 home contests and marquee match-ups against national runner-up Memphis, Southeastern Conference member Auburn and pre-season top-five ranked Texas.

Tulane will face five NCAA Tournament teams, including Memphis, "Elite Eight" participant Texas, a Western Kentucky squad that advanced to the "Sweet Sixteen," a George Mason group that advanced to the Final Four in 2006 and South Alabama. The Wave will also battle UAB (NIT) and three teams that played in the inaugural College Basketball Invitational, including UTEP, Houston and champion Tulsa.

Tulane's non-conference home schedule includes Western Kentucky, Albany State, North Carolina A&T, Binghamton and a trio of games against in-state schools McNeese State, Nicholls State and Grambling State. The Green Wave's Conference USA home slate features Tulsa, Southern Miss, UTEP, UAB, Marshall, UCF, East Carolina and Rice.

TULANE SIGNS A PAIR OF STANDOUT GUARDS TO NATIONAL LETTERS-OF-INTENT

Tulane University head men's basketball coach Dave Dickerson signed two standout basketball players- Jordan Callahan and Aaron Holmes- to national letters-of-intent on Nov. 12, the first day of national signing day.

Callahan is a 5-11, 170-pound point guard who graduated from Blessed Trinity in Roswell, Ga., in 2008 and is currently enrolled at The New Hampton School, a prep school in New Hampton, New Hampshire. As a high school star at Blessed Trinity under head coach Brian Marks, he led the team to a 48-10 overall record during his final two years and earned honorable mention all-state and team MVP honors both seasons. During his senior campaign, Callahan averaged 14.3 points and 4.8 assists per game and set the school's single-season scoring mark with 443 points.

A 6-5, 195-pound shooting guard from St. Petersburg, Fla., and 2006 graduate of St. Petersburg Catholic, Holmes originally signed with Florida State out of high school, but transferred to South Florida following his first semester. After sitting out one full year due to NCAA Transfer rules, he played in 18 conference games with the Bulls, but left USF after the 2007-08 campaign due to a coaching change. Holmes is currently enrolled at Santa Fe Community College in Gainesville, Fla., and will have two years of eligibility remaining.

Rated as a top 50 national prospect as a senior, Holmes scored 2,748 career points, the most in school history, and led St. Petersburg Catholic to four straight district titles and three trips to the state Final Four. He is the only player to be named All-Sun-coast Player of the Year three times by the St. Petersburg Times (2004-06), and was also runner-up for Florida's Mr. Basketball in 2006. He also led his AAU team to the Showtime National title.

Dave
Dickerson

Head Coach
 Maryland, 1990
 Fourth Year

- Dave Dickerson is in his fourth season as the head coach on the Up-town campus, and has an overall record of 52-51 and a Conference USA mark of 21-25.
- Tulane is 3-1 all-time in season openers under Dickerson.
- Named the 2008 National Association of Basketball Coaches District 8 Coach of the Year.
- Tulane has a record of 31-15 (.674) at Fogelman Arena and a mark of 21-8 (.724) against non-conference teams in New Orleans under Dickerson.
- Has a record of 3-3 in the Conference USA Tournament and has never lost a first round game.
- Picked up his 50th career win over Maine, 66-56, and coached in his 100th career game at TU in a 81-55 victory over North Carolina A&T.
- Registered his 40th career win (at Tulsa) a little over midway through his third season (76 games) and joined Clifford Wells (67 games), Charles Moir (71 games), Ned Fowler (61 games) and Perry Clark (84 games) as the only coaches in the 97-year history of Tulane basketball to win 40 games in under three seasons. The 76 games are the fourth fewest games in school history needed to attain 40 wins, and he currently ranks seventh for career coaching victories.
- Under his tutelage, three Green Wave players have earned all-conference honors, including All-Conference USA third-team performers Quincy Davis (2006) and David Gomez (2007, 2008), and Kevin Sims, who was selected to the All C-USA Freshman team in 2007.
- During his second season, Dickerson led Tulane to a 17-13 overall record and TU recorded its best conference finish in nine years with a 9-7 league mark, which was good enough for fourth place. TU's 17 victories marked the most wins in seven seasons and the program's first winning season in four years.
- Dickerson's 29 wins in his first two seasons puts him in third place for the most wins by a Tulane coach in the first two seasons.
- Became the 22nd head men's basketball coach in Tulane history on April 1, 2005.
- Despite the challenges brought on by Hurricane Katrina, Dickerson led Tulane to a 12-17 overall record and a 6-8 Conference USA mark, which tied the Wave for sixth place.
- Dickerson came to Tulane from alma mater of Maryland, where he spent nine years as an assistant under Gary Williams. In 2004-05, he was the program's associate head coach. He helped the Terrapins to nine straight postseason appearances, five Sweet Sixteens, two Final Fours and one National Championship in 2002.
- Accolades for Dickerson have included his recognition as an AFLAC Assistant Coach of the Year in 2003, the ACC's No. 1 Assistant Coach as named by Basketball News (2003-04), Athlon Sports' No. 4 Assistant Coach in the nation (2003-04), and an "Assistant Coach on the Rise" as tabbed by ESPN's Andy Katz.
- A native of Olar, S.C., Dickerson is married to the former Laurette Newsom, a 1991 graduate of Maryland. The couple has one son, Dave III (8).

TU guards combine for 34 points

New Orleans – Tulane junior Kevin Sims and sophomore Kris Richard each scored 17 points and senior Robinson Louisme added 11 points to lead the Green Wave to a 68-62 victory over McNeese State in the season opener for both teams at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane (1-0) appeared to be pulling away when sophomore Johnny Mayhane jump started a 10-5 run early in the second half. However, the Cowboys rode the sharpshooting of Stephen Martin and Patrick Richard to scrape back into contention. Martin scored five consecutive points during an 8-2 run and Patrick Richard's three-pointer at 8:24 brought the visitors from Lake Charles to within three points, 44-41.

The Wave answered with a trey of its own from senior Daniel Puckett to extend its lead to six points and eventually pushed its advantage to eight points on several occasions, but the scrappy McNeese State team continued to chip away and would not let Tulane off the hook. With TU leading 53-45 at the 5:34 mark, Diego Kaplan caught fire with back-to-back three-pointers that trimmed the deficit to four points.

Freshman Kendall Timmons and Louisme each hit their two free charity shots to give the Wave another eight point lead. Martin brought the Cowboys to within six points and looked to have an opportunity to get even closer following a Kris Richard turnover, but Richard came right back and stole the ball from Kaplan and finished the play with a two-handed dunk.

Tulane converted five of seven free throw attempts down the stretch, including two by Sims with 0:07 remaining, that iced the first win of the season for the Wave.

Sims scored 11; McQueen grabs 11 rebounds

Austin, Texas – Junior Kevin Sims scored a team-high 11 points and classmate Asim McQueen grabbed a game- and career-high 11 rebounds, but the No. 7/8 ranked Texas Longhorns used an 18-4 run in the first half to take control of the game and hand Tulane a 76-51 loss in the road opener in front of 10,800 at the Erwin Center.

Texas (2-0) jumped on Tulane early and led 6-0 in the opening minutes. However, the Green Wave (1-1) responded with a 6-0 run of its own, which was sparked by a pair of Sims free throws and he tied the game with a lay-up at 16:23. The teams traded baskets over the next few minutes and TU trailed 13-10 following a finger roll lay-up from sophomore Johnny Mayhane.

However, the nationally-ranked Longhorns flexed their muscle and ran off an 18-4 run to take a commanding 31-14 advantage with 7:43 remaining in the first half. Tulane pulled to within 13 points on a trey by sophomore David Booker, but couldn't get any closer and trailed 42-25 at intermission.

The Green Wave was plagued by poor shooting (.321) and turnovers (12) in the opening period and was whistled for eight fouls, which resulted in a 10-of-15 effort from the foul line by the Longhorns.

Texas left no possibilities for a Tulane comeback by opening the second half with a 17-2 run to extend its lead to 59-27 with 15:41 remaining in the game. The Wave made a late run in the final 10 minutes, outscoring Texas, 16-7, with most of the players on the floor for the Wave coming off the bench.

Vianney's two free throws seals win for Wave

New Orleans – The Tulane men's basketball team made sure fans in attendance were given a show as the Green Wave edged out Nicholls State 72-70 Saturday afternoon at Fogelman Arena.

With the game tied 70-70 with five seconds to go in the contest, Tulane's Eric Vianney hit two free throws to put the Green Wave up by two. A layup at the buzzer by Nicholls State's Justin Payne was declared too late after review by the officials and the game was ruled final in favor of Tulane.

Sophomore guard Kevin Sims, who scored a team-high 22 points, hit his first trey to open the scoring, 3-0, a minute into the game but Nicholls State's Fred Hunter, who posted a game-high 23 points, answered back with a layup 24 seconds later.

As the clock ticked down, Hunter missed a layup, which Puckett rebounded. A timeout was called with five seconds to play after Hunter received his fifth personal foul, which sent Vianney to the line. His only free throw attempts of the night were good and Tulane went up 72-70, which was enough to secure the victory.

The teams exchanged baskets until the Colonels pulled away, extending their lead 14-9 on a three-point bucket from Dominic Friend with 15:20 to go in the half. Daniel Puckett (two points, five rebounds, two blocks) fed Sims, who hit another trey to bring Tulane within two, 14-12. Sims found his rhythm and followed with two assists, a steal, followed by another assist to spur the Green Wave to a 13-point scoring drive that put them up 25-16 with 11:44 to go in the first half.

RICHARD, LOUISME LEAD TU PAST ALBANY STATE, 87-59

Four Green Wave players reach double figures

New Orleans – Sophomore Kris Richard scored 10 of Tulane's first 15 points and led four Green Wave players into double figures with 18 points as Tulane dispatched Albany State, 87-59, Tuesday night in non-conference action at Fogelman Arena.

Richard exploded out of the gates with seven points in the first five minutes. With Tulane leading 12-8, Richard's three-pointer gave TU a seven-point lead, but more importantly sparked a 13-2 run. By the time Albany State's Sean Glenn hit short jumper at the 7:50 mark to snap the spurt, the Wave had built a 15-point cushion.

When Richard went to the bench for a breather, senior Robinson Louisme picked up the slack and scored 13 points in the first half. Tulane's smothering defense stifled the Golden Rams, limiting them to a 30.8 percent effort from the field in the opening period, while Tulane torched the nets by hitting 53.3 percent of its attempts.

Albany State's shooting improved in the second half, but TU continued to sizzle with a 50-percent effort from the field. The Golden Rams did manage to climb to within 18 points on a three-pointer from James Clark near the midway point, but a pair of free throws from Tulane freshman Kendall Timmons extended the Green Wave's lead back to 20 points, where TU remained for the rest of the game. Timmons gave Tulane its largest lead of the game when he nailed two foul shots to put the Wave up by 30 points with 0:33 remaining in the contest.

McQueen posts career-best 20 points

Mobile, Ala. – Junior Asim McQueen scored a career-high 20 points and grabbed a team-best eight rebounds, but the UC Davis Aggies shot nearly 62 percent from the field in the second half and used a 16-5 run near the midway point of the second period to hand Tulane a 76-62 setback in the first game of the 2008 USA Basketball Classic at the Mitchell Center.

The Green Wave (3-2) took an early four-point lead to begin the second half on a three-pointer from junior Kevin Sims and a lay-up by senior Robinson Louisme. However, the Aggies (2-4), who run a Princeton-style offense, nailed three treys and stormed back to build a six-point advantage at the 15:29 mark.

McQueen reeled off four points and Louisme contributed a lay-up to tie the contest at 43-all and again at 45 apiece on a McQueen lay-up. Tulane took its last lead of the game on a Sims three-pointer at 10:32. UC Davis responded with its deciding run when Joe Harden was fouled on a made lay-up and his ensuing free throw to convert the conventional three-point play gave the Aggies the lead for good. Harden then broke free for a fast break lay-up to give his team a four point cushion.

Sophomore David Booker hit a short jumper to pull the Wave to within two points, but that was the closest Tulane would get to the Aggies for the remainder of the game. UC Davis scored seven straight points and led by 11 points before Tulane hit its next basket.

The Aggies led by double figures for most of the final five minutes of the contest and built its largest lead of 14 points on several occasions. Despite its best effort, the Green Wave could not overcome its shooting woes from both the field (.393) and the free-throw line (.500) in the second half, while UC Davis hit 16-of-26 field goal attempts and 12-of-13 free throws in the final period.

SIMS, McQUEEN LEAD TULANE PAST MAINE, 66-56

Sims scored 20 points to lead Green Wave

Mobile, Ala. – Tulane junior Kevin Sims scored 16 of his game high 20 points in the second half and the Green Wave erased a 15 point deficit with a 25-7 run while holding Maine to without a field goal for over 13 minutes in the second half and cruised to a 66-56 victory over the Black Bears in the consolation game of the 2008 USA Basketball Classic at the Mitchell Center.

Tulane (4-2) trailed Maine (3-4) by 15 points when UM's Gerald McLemore nailed his fourth three-pointer of the game to give his team a 36-21 advantage. Facing its largest deficit of the game, senior Robinson Louisme responded with a lay-up and Sims drained a trey to pull the Wave to within 10 points. Maine's Junior Bernal answered minutes later and put his team back up by 12 points with a lay-up at 16:18.

The Green Wave shored up its defense and held Maine to without a field goal for the next 13:03. In the mean time, TU found its offensive rhythm and began its comeback behind Sims and classmate Asim McQueen, who contributed 11 points and five rebounds in the second half, and also converted a pair of key conventional three-point plays.

McQueen hit one of two free throws and then broke free for a jumper to pull the Wave to within nine points. On the ensuing possession, Sims was called for a foul on Maine's Mark Socoby who was in the act of shooting a three-pointer. Socoby sank all three free throws and gave his team a 12-point cushion.

Once again, Sims and McQueen responded for Tulane. McQueen tipped in a missed shot and Sims connected on his second trey of the half and TU was within seven points. Sophomore Johnny Mayhane reduced the lead to just four points when he sank a three-pointer on an inbounds play.

Tulane continued to roll behind McQueen's first three-point play that pulled Tulane to within a point. The Black Bears were solid from the charity stripe where they hit nine straight free throws to stay in the game. However, despite its success from the foul line, Maine could not detour the TU's momentum. McQueen's second three-point play in the span of 35 seconds tied the game at 43-all and Sims gave Tulane the lead for good with another timely three-pointer.

By the time Socoby hit Maine's first field goal since early on in the second period, TU had built a six-point advantage.

TULANE FALLS TO UNO, 49-39

Louisme leads Wave with 15 points

New Orleans – Baskets were few and far between in Wednesday night's cross-town rivalry contest between the Tulane men's basketball team and the host University of New Orleans, as the Privateers upended Tulane, 49-39.

Tulane (4-3), who shot only 29.3% from inside the arch, was held to under 40 points for the first time since November 10, 2006, when the Wave fell to Butler, 77-37, in the season opener.

A relatively low-scoring first half, the teams headed into the locker room with the Privateers (2-4) only leading by two, 20-18. UNO held Green Wave guard Kevin Sims, the team's leading scorer who was averaging 15.6 points heading into the game, was held scoreless in the first half, while senior Robinson Louisme led Tulane with eight first-half points, finishing the night with a team-high 15. UNO's Darrian McKinstry (game-high 16 points) led all first half scorers with 10 points and was also the only player on either team to hit a trey in the first half.

The Privateers got on the board first when Kyndall Dykes (15 points, four rebounds) missed a layup and Ejike Hart grabbed the offensive board and put it back up a minute into the game. Louisme answered with a layup and the score crawled its way up from there.

UNO broke it open with less than 10 minutes to play in the second half when the Privateers went on an eight-point run that was started with McKinstry's layup to break the 29-all tie. UNO finished the scoring spree with Jaroslav Tyrna's layup, putting the Privateers up 37-29 with 6:05 to go in the contest.

Johnny Mayhane answered with Tulane's first three-point bucket with 4:33 left to play, breaking a six minute offensive drought and bringing the Green Wave within five, 37-32. UNO pushed their offense and put four more points on the board, two of which came via a Dykes dunk. With 2:29 left to play, UNO extended their lead, 42-34, but Tulane wouldn't catch up, even with the help of a three-point play from Sims who sunk the free throw after hitting a layup with just under a minute to play. Tulane's Daniel Puckett hit a jumper to close the lead to seven, but with only 46 seconds left on the game clock, the Green Wave couldn't pull it out.

TU COMES UP SHORT TO HOT SHOOTING W. KENTUCKY, 82-67

Puckett registers a career-high 21 points

New Orleans – Tulane senior Daniel Puckett scored a career-high 21 points, but all five Western Kentucky starters reached double figures and the Hilltoppers shot 56.9 percent from the field, including a stifling 70.6 percent from behind the three-point line, to hand the Green Wave its first loss at Fogelman Arena during the month of December since the 2003-04 season with a 82-67 victory.

Puckett scored 15 of his team-high 21 points and nailed three three-pointers in the first half, but no other TU player scored more than five points and Tulane (4-4) managed just a 32.4 percent effort from the field. Meanwhile, Western Kentucky (5-2) continued to prove it is one of the hottest teams in the country with a sizzling 61.5 percent performance from the field, hitting 16-of-26 attempts.

The Hilltoppers and Green Wave traded baskets for the majority of the opening minutes of the first half before Western Kentucky's Orlando Mendez-Valdez hit a lay-up and a trey on back-to-back possessions, sparking a 14-3 run, and helping his team take control of the game late in the first half.

WKU, which entered the game on a three-game win streak with impressive victories over No. 3 Louisville and Georgia, led by as many as 15 points before Puckett hit his third trey of the half to pull the Wave to within 12 points. Following a bucket by Steffphon Pettigrew, junior Asim McQueen was fouled on a made lay-up and his free throw at 2:04 for the conventional three-point play drew Tulane to within 11 points once more. McQueen's field goal and free throw proved to be the final points of the first half for the Wave, while the Hilltoppers added a jumper by D.J. Magley to take a 13-point, 41-28, advantage into intermission.

PUCKETT'S DOUBLE-DOUBLE LEADS WAVE PAST NC A&T, 81-55

Louisme scores 16 points; TU nabs 15 steals

New Orleans – Senior Daniel Puckett notched his first career double-double with 12 points and 12 rebounds and the Tulane defense registered 15 steals during the Green Wave's 81-55 victory over North Carolina A&T at Fogelman Arena.

The Green Wave (5-4) trailed just once in the game, which came during the opening minutes. With the contest knotted at 7-7, Tulane ran off a 14-2 spurt behind five points from junior guard Kevin Sims and a timely three-pointer by Puckett. By the time Brock Moorman sank a jumper at the 11:22 mark to end the run, the Aggies (5-5) were already down by 10 points, 21-11.

Following Moorman's jumper, Tulane's defense held North Carolina A&T in check with just three field goals during the final 10 minutes and Puckett grabbed eight of his game-high 12 rebounds in the opening period. The Wave built a 17-point lead, its largest advantage in the opening period, on two occasions and led 38-23 at intermission.

North Carolina A&T made its final run early in the second half when the Aggies opened the half with a 12-6 run to pull to within nine points, 44-35, on Kam Shepherd's lay-up at 15:32. However, sophomore Johnny Mayhane immediately responded with a jumper for the Green Wave and Louisme answered with 10 points during a 13-2 run that gave TU a comfortable 20-point cushion with 10:09 remaining in the game.

WAVE FALLS AT GEORGE MASON, 60-52

Frosh Timmons leads TU with 18 points

Fairfax, Va. – Freshman Kendall Timmons led all scorers with a career-best 18 points, but George Mason outscored Tulane 18-10 during the final eight minutes to pull out a 60-52 victory in front of 4,508 at the Patriot Center.

Tulane (5-5) trailed George Mason (8-2) by as many as 12 points in the second half, but scraped back using an 18-6 run over a period of 9:19 and junior Eric Vianney knotted the game at 42 apiece with a three-pointer from the left side with 8:02 remaining.

George Mason immediately responded with four straight points before senior Kevin Sims pulled the Green Wave to within two points on lay-up. But the Patriots proved to be too much for Tulane down the stretch by converting 12-of-16 free throw attempts despite hitting just one field goal the final 6:24.

TU got as close as five points during the final minutes but missed several key shots to get back into the game and was forced to foul.

The Green Wave was whistled for 23 fouls, while host George Mason was called for just 11 fouls and the Patriots nailed 23-of-31 free throw attempts, while TU managed just nine trips to the foul line and converted five opportunities. In fact, the Patriots attempted more free throws than Tulane's total number of field goals (22) for the game.

TU FALLS SHORT TO BINGHAMTON, 74-73

Puckett finishes with 20 points to lead the Wave

NEW ORLEANS – Senior Daniel Puckett led three Green Wave players into double figures with 20 points, but Binghamton's D.J. Rivera scored 22 of his game-high 24 points in the second half to help the Bearcats slip past Tulane, 74-73, in front of 1,104 at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane (5-6) and Binghamton (6-4) traded the lead 16 times and the contest featured 10 ties. The Green Wave took its last lead when Puckett was fouled on a made lay-up and he drained the ensuing free throw for the conventional three-point play to give TU a 60-58 advantage with 5:36 remaining in the game.

However, Tulane's lead was short lived as Emanuel Mayben broke free for a lay-up to tie the game at 60 apiece. The teams once again traded the lead before Rivera and teammate Dwayne Jackson sandwiched a pair of three-pointers around two free throws from Tulane junior Kevin Sims to give the Bearcats a 68-64 advantage with 2:53 remaining.

Binghamton extended the lead to six points, its largest of the game, on a Jackson lay-up with just under two minutes left. However, the Green Wave scraped back into the contest on a pair of Sims free throws and junior Asim McQueen grabbed a missed lay-up by Sims and laid in the uncontested shot underneath the basket to draw Tulane to within two points, 70-68, with over a minute to go.

But Tulane was unable to come up with key rebounds down the stretch and was forced to foul. The Bearcats hit four charity shots to once again lead by six points with 0:09 remaining. Sims fed senior Robinson Louisme for a dunk with 0:08 left in the game and Sims drained a long trey at the buzzer for the final score.

WAVE DISPATCHES GRAMBLING STATE, 72-37

McQueen leads Tulane with 14 points

NEW ORLEANS – Junior Asim McQueen led three Tulane players into double figures with 14 points and the Green Wave defense held Grambling State scoreless for over nine minutes and to just two field goals during the final 13:45 of the second half en route to a 72-37 victory in the first-ever meeting between the two schools at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane (6-6) broke the game early with an 18-6 run during the final 8:45 of the first half to take a commanding double digit lead in which it would not relinquish. The Tulane offense got off to a sluggish during the first 10 minutes of the opening period and led Grambling State (2-9) by just two points, 16-14, when a McQueen steal led to a jumper by senior Daniel Puckett, and ultimately sparked the knockout punch. McQueen contributed six points during the run and the Wave led 34-20 at halftime.

Grambling State was never able to slice the lead to single digits and could only get within 11 points twice during the early stages of the second half. Ibrahim Kpaka's jumper at 14:33 proved to be just one of the Tigers two field goals during the final 14:33. Tulane held the Tigers scoreless for better than nine minutes and took advantage of its opponents' drought with a 22-0 run. By the time Kpaka hit two free throws for his team's first points since his jumper earlier in the second half, the Green Wave had amassed a 32-point lead.

Kpaka hit two more free throws in the waning minutes and Jordan Lemons' lay-up with 0:47 remaining marked the Tigers' first field goal in over 13 minutes. Tulane led by as many as 37 points in the second period and chalked up its first 30-point victory since a 75-43 win over Huston-Tillotson on Dec. 5, 2007.
