TULANE OPENS THREE-GAME HOME STAND AGAINST HUSTON-TILLOTSON:

• The Tulane Green Wave (3-3) will look to snap a three-game skid this Wednesday when it begins a three-game home stand against Huston-Tillotson at Fogelman Arena.

After opening the season with a 3-0 mark, the Wave has fallen on hard times, dropping its last home contest to cross-town rival New Orleans (74-67), and then falling in back-to-back road games at Buffalo (65-51) and at Syracuse (73-60) in their last two outings.

Tulane is 2-1 at home this season with wins over Auburn (77-62) and Nicholls State (73-51). The Green Wave is averaging 72.3 points on its home floor, while limiting its opponents to 62.3 points in three home games.

Tulane is averaging 65.7 points and 33.8 rebounds per game and is shooting 44.2 percent from the field, 34 percent from behind the three-point line and 76 percent from the free-throw line.

David Gomez leads the team in scoring with 12.5 points per game, while Robinson Louisme is the top rebounder with 6.3 boards per outing apiece, and Kevin Sims leads the squad in assists and steals with 5.8 and 3.4 per contest, respectively.

NOTING TULANE:

• Senior David Gomez needs eight points to become the 29th player in school history to surpass the 1,000-point plateau. The last player to score more than 1,000 career points was Quincy Davis (2003-06) with 1,109 points.

• The Green Wave owns an 11-2 (.850) record against non-conference teams at Fogelman Arena under head coach Dave Dickerson.

• TU ranks 12th in the country for blocked shots (6.7) and 30th in the nation for free throw percentage (.760).

• Kevin Sims has reached double figures in every game this season, and has finished in double digits 22 times in 36 career games.

• Seniors Donnavan Stith and David Gomez each rank among the school's top shot blockers. Stith has registered 110 blocks to rank fourth, while Gomez is fifth with 108 rejections.

• Following Wednesday's game, Tulane will continue a three-game home stand against Gardner-Webb (12/8) and Indiana State (12/17).

SCOUTING THE RAMS:

• Located in Austin, Texas, Huston-Tillotson (0-5) is affiliated with the National Association of Intercollegiate Activities (NAIA) and is a member of the Red River Athletic Conference.

The Rams have stumbled to a 0-5 start this season, and its match-up with Tulane will mark the third opponent from the city of New Orleans. HTU dropped a 71-57 decision to Loyola in its season opener and then fell at Xavier in overtime, 69-64.

Huston-Tillotson is 0-4 on the road this season and under the direction of first-year head coach Curtis Jones. HTU will all play a total of three Division I schools this season, including Tulane, Stephen F. Austin (12/21) and Texas-Pan American (1/16) this season.

The Rams are averaging 71.6 points and 39.4 rebounds per game, and are shooting 38.1 percent from the field, including 30.5 percent from behind the three-point line, and 63.6 percent from the foul line.

K.C. Asomugha leads the team in scoring and rebounding with 12 points and 8.2 boards per contest.

THE LAST TIME:

• The last time Tulane and Huston-Tillotson met was a year ago at Fogelman Arena during the inaugural contest between the two schools.

David Gomez posted a double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds, and rookie point guard Kevin Sims added 16 points and six assists, as Tulane defeated the Rams, 80-54.

The Green Wave used a hot start to jump out to a 30-11 advantage 11 minutes into the ballgame and 15-0 run midway through the second half to seal the win.

A PERFECT EFFORT:

• After not attempting a free throw in the first half of its last game at Syracuse, Tulane drained all 15 attempts in the second half and finished 15-of-15 from the charity stripe, which marked the first time TU had finished perfect from the free-throw line since Jan. 7, 1998, when the Wave connected on all 10 attempts against Saint Louis.

BEST IN THE NATION:

• Tulane's perfect game against Syracuse from the free-throw line is tied for the best performance in the nation this season. Marist also hit 15 free throws in its game against Richmond on Nov. 24.

SIMS, GOMEZ RANKED AMONG NATION'S ELITE:

• In the first installment of the NCAA statistics, sophomore Kevin Sims ranks 18th in the nation in steals per game with 2.8 per outing.

Senior David Gomez is averaging 2.4 blocks per contest, which ranks him 40th in the nation.

COAST TO COAST:

• Tulane will get a taste of both the eastern and western sides of the United States this season.

The Green Wave visited New York for a pair of games at Buffalo (11/29) and Syracuse (12/1). In mid-December, Tulane treks to the Hawaiian Islands to participate in the Rainbow Classic which will be played at the University of Hawaii-Manoa campus' Stan Sheriff Center on the island of Oahu.

TU's trip to Buffalo is 1,241.6 miles, while the jaunt to Hawaii is 4,200 miles.

FROM ONE EXTREME TO THE OTHER:

• In its last road contest, Tulane played at Syracuse, N.Y., where the temperature was 12 degrees the morning the team departed for New Orleans.

The Green Wave's next road trip will take the team to sunny Honolulu, Hawaii, where the average temperature for the month of December is 74 degrees, or a difference of 62 degrees from one trip to the next.

PUCKETT HAS COMING OUT PARTY AGAINST SYRACUSE:

• Don't tell junior Daniel Puckett that Syracuse is the sixth ranked winningest men's basketball program in NCAA history.

After being plagued with knee injuries over the summer, through pre-season and into the first five games of the season, Puckett's playing time and production had been minimal.

However in Tulane's last outing at Syracuse, Puckett came off the bench and torched the Orange for season highs of 16 points (one point shy of his career record), six field goals (6-of-11), including two three-pointers (2-of-3), and was perfect from the free-throw line (2-of-2).

LOUISME'S HOT HAND:

• Tulane junior Robinson Louisme started the season with the hot hand, hitting his first 13 field goals before suffering his first miss in the fourth game of the year.

Through six games, Louisme has hit 25 of 31 field goal attempts this season for an unheard of 81.0 field goal percentage. Here's a breakdown of Louisme's game-by-game field goal makes/attempts:

Auburn	4-of-4
at Charleston Southern	3-of-3
Nicholls State	6-of-6
New Orleans	3-of-4
at Buffalo	4-of-6
at Syracuse	5-of-8

PUT ME IN COACH:

• Tulane's lineup has been very consistent minute-wise this season. Only three players (Sims, Wheaton, Gomez) are averaging above 25 minutes per game. Kevin Sims leads the squad in minutes played with 35.2 per outing, while David Gomez is second with 28.5 minutes per contest, and Matt Wheaton is third with 25.5 minutes per game.

C-USA Teleconference

Conference USA will hold four men's basketball press conferences this season beginning on Monday, Jan. 7 prior to the start of league play. All four calls will take place on Mondays. The phone number to participate is (913) 981-5542. A replay is available throughout the week by calling (402) 220-1009.

The dates are Jan. 7, Feb. 4, Mar. 3, Mar. 10. Tulane head coach Dave Dickerson's call is scheduled for 11:45 a.m. EST/10:45 a.m. CST.

TICKLIN' THE TWINE:

• Through six games, Tulane has four players are shooting better than 46 percent from the field, and two players are hitting better than 50 percent per clip.

Leading the way is Robinson Louisme, who is shooting 81 percent from the field (25-31) on the year. Here's a breakdown of TU's hot-handed shooters:

Matt Wheaton	.579 (11-19)
Donnavan Stith	.480 (12-25)
Eric Vianney	.467 (14-30)

The group is hitting on a combined 59 percent (62-105) of their attempts.

PRECOCIOUS SOPHOMORE:

• TU's Kevin Sims is off to a great sophomore campaign and has turned into a floor general for the Green Wave. Sims, who has reached double figures in every game this season, currently ranks second in scoring (12.2) and three-pointers (8), and leads the club in assists (29) and steals (17).

TULANE CONTINUES BLOCK PARTY IN 2007-08:

• Tulane averaged 6.3 blocks per game last season and concluded the year with a school and Conference USA record 188 blocks, which ranked as high as 10th nationally.

The Wave already has 40 blocks for a 6.7 average through six games. David Gomez leads TU with 14, while Robinson Louisme has chalked up eight and Donnavan Stith has seven. TU's total has been a team effort with all but one player (Mayhane) having at least one block this season.

WELCOME TO THE BIG SHOW KID:

• Freshman Kris Richard has been effective during his brief appearances this season. Richard, a true freshman, is averaging 12 minutes per game and is shooting 42.9 percent from the field (6-14), has hit two of three free throw attempts, and is averaging 2.5 points and 1.7 rebounds per game.

SMOTHERING D-FENCE:

• One constant for Tulane last season was its defense. The Green Wave held 17 of 30 opponents to a field goal percentage of 40.0 percent or lower. In its 17 wins, TU's opponents combined for a shooting percentage of 37.8 percent (385-1018).

Through six games, Tulane is holding its opponents to 39.6 percent (131-331) shooting from the field, including just 33.1 percent from behind the 3-point line.

In the opener against Auburn, the Green Wave limited the Tigers to 38.9 percent shooting from the field and then held Charleston Southern to just 38.6 percent from the field (22-57), while limiting Nicholls State to 27.6 percent from the field (16-58). Buffalo has posted the best shooting percent this season with 48.8 percent, while New Orleans shot 44.8 percent, and Syracuse produced a 41 percent night, and the Wave lost all three contests.

LET IT RAIN:

• Entering the season, one of the questions for the Green Wave was replacing departing senior Chris Moore's 50 three-pointers last season.

So far, the answer has been by committee. Eric Vianney and Kevin Sims have a team-best eight treys, while Matt Wheaton has seven, and Johnny Mayhan has four and Daniel Puckett has three. Three other players (Gomez, Stith, Puckett) each have one trey.

TU has 33 treys this season compared to 25 at this point a year ago.

FOGELMAN MAGIC:

• Tulane head coach Dave Dickerson has turned the Green Wave into a very selfish team on its home floor. Through 28 games at Fogelman Arena under Dickerson's direction, TU is 20-8 (.714), including an 11-4 mark last season. Dickerson led the Greenies to an a 7-3 home mark in 2005-06.

Since Fogelman (then Tulane Gym) opened in 1933, the Green Wave has posted a 539-263 (.672) record in the venerable arena. TU's 77-62 victory over Auburn in the 2007-08 season opener marked the 800th game played at Fogelman Arena.

TULANE INKS TWO TEXAS STANDOUTS TO NATIONAL LETTERS:

• Tulane third-year head men's basketball coach Dave Dickerson announced signed two prep standouts from the state of Texas- Trent Rogers and Kendall Timmons- to national letters-of-intent during the early period of national signings for high school players.

A 6'3" combination guard from Houston's Strake Jesuit High School, Rogers was an all-district choice for head coach Wayne Jones as a junior when he averaged 10 points and 3.4 rebounds per game and shot 59 percent from the field, and led the Crusaders to a 17-11 overall record. He reached double figures in 16 games, including a season high 27 points against Cypress Falls, and finished with 31 three-pointers for the year. An all-district performer, Rogers served as team captain and was named to the Houston Chronicle All-City second team.

As a sophomore, he earned all-district honors and was tabbed as the district Newcomer of the Year. Rogers has played on AAU and BCI championship teams with the Houston Hoops and Houston Heat, respectively

Heading into his senior year, Rogers was named to the Houston Chronicle's All-Greater Houston preseason second team, and was also selected as one of the top players in District 17-5A. He ranks as the 17th-best player in Texas' 2008 Class by TexasHoops.com and is rated as a three start shooting guard and 11th in the state by Rivals.com.

Timmons is a 6'5" guard from Southwest High School in Fort Worth, Texas. During his junior season, he averaged 18.2 points, 7.6 rebounds, 3.1 assists and 2.8 steals per game, and was named the District 7-4A Player of the Year. Timmons was also selected to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram All-Area second team, and to the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches All-Region team. He claimed MVP honors at the Whattaburger Holiday Classic after leading his team to the championship game in the White Division. Timmons concluded the season ranked No. 29 among "Top Juniors" in state of Texas' 2008 class by HoopScooponline.com

Entering his senior campaign, Timmons was named to the Star-Telegram's "Starting Five" and is rated as the 27th-best player in the state of Texas' 2008 class by TexasHoops.com.

EARLY START:

• Tulane's game against Auburn marked the earliest start to a season in school history. This year's Nov. 9 starting date broke the record by one day. Last year, Tulane opened the season on Nov. 10, 2006, against Butler.

WORTH THE WAIT:

• Tulane's 77-62 win over Auburn was more than just a victory in the season opener. The victory marked TU's first win over an SEC school since 2001-02 when the Green Wave up-ended Vanderbilt, 87-77, at New Orleans Arena, but was the first win over an SEC opponent at Fogelman Arena since the 1976-77 campaign when the Wave slipped past Ole Miss, 64-59.

TULANE TABBED SEVENTH IN CONFERENCE USA PRESEASON COACHES' POLL:

• The Tulane men's basketball team was selected to finish in seventh place in the 2007-08 Conference USA race according to the preseason coaches' poll.

Despite a fourth-place finish as year ago and the return of seven letterwinners, including four starters, the Green Wave was picked to finish near the middle in this year's race by the league's coaches. One year ago, Tulane notched a 17-13 record, the most victories since the 1999-2000 season, and the Wave's 9-7 league mark was marked the program's most conference wins since 1996-97. The finish also earned the Green Wave a first round bye in the conference tournament for the first time since 2000.

WELCOME ABOARD:

• The 2007-08 campaign marks the first year on the Tulane coaching staff for a pair of newcomers. Assistant coaches Dick Bender and Chris Hawkins each joined the Tulane staff over the summer and begin their first season on the Uptown campus.

Although he begins his first season at Tulane in 2007-08, Bender is no stranger to TU head coach Dave Dickerson, as both coaches served on the men's basketball staff at Radford University for four seasons (1992-96). Bender came to Tulane from Indiana State University where he completed his 10th overall season on the Sycamores' staff in 2006-07, and his fifth campaign as an associated head coach after being elevated to the position following the 2001 campaign.

Hawkins came to Tulane after spending seven seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Buffalo, where he was instrumental in the Bulls' recruiting efforts and also contributed to the scouting of opponents and coaching the perimeter players.

Hawkins played for current TU assistant coach Dick Bender, who was an assistant coach at Radford.

AIR TIME:

• Tulane will have five of its games televised this season, including four national games on College Sports Television (CSTV) and one local contest on Cox Sports Television (CST).

TU's four CSTV games include LSU (1/2), at Tulsa (1/16), Rice (1/19) and Memphis (2/20). The Wave's lone CST game will be against cross-town rival New Orleans on Nov. 24.

FOUR POSTSEASON TEAMS, 16 HOME GAMES HIGHLIGHT 2007-08 SLATE:

• The 2007-08 Tulane Green Wave men's basketball schedule features four 2007 postseason teams, 16 home games, including marquee matchups against preseason top-ranked Memphis and Southeastern Conference members Auburn and LSU, and trips to Hawaii and New York.

Tulane will face one NCAA Tournament (Memphis) and three postseason National Invitation Tournament (NIT) squads (Georgia, East Tennessee State, and Syracuse). Memphis advanced to the NCAA Tournament "Elite Eight" a year ago and is expected to be the top-ranked team in many preseason polls. The Green Wave will face either Georgia or East Tennessee State in the second round of the 2007 Rainbow Classic this December.

75 YEARS AT FOGELMAN ARENA:

• Avron B. Fogelman Arena, one of the most historic facilities in college basketball, celebrates its 75th year as the home of Green Wave basketball in 2007-08. The venerable facility has been the site for many of Tulane’s greatest games for both of the Green Wave’s men’s and women’s basketball programs. Fogelman Arena provides Tulane teams and fans with a “true” home court advantage with its size and unique design, which has translated into the many wins by both basketball programs over the years.

Construction for the original facility was funded by the Green Wave football team’s appearance in the 1932 Rose Bowl. Some $80,000 was earmarked toward the building of a gymnasium. Less than two years after the bowl appearance, on Oct. 27, 1933, Tulane Gymnasium was dedicated as part of Homecoming festivities on campus, and play began in the facility for the 1933-34 season. Tulane defeated Southwestern Louisiana, 38-34, in the facility’s first game on Dec. 15, 1933. Tulane Gym was one of the largest in college basketball when it opened, even though there were no court level seats at first. Tulane played host to the 1942 NCAA East Regional in the facility. Floor-level seats were added in 1948.

Dave Dickerson

Head Coach
 Maryland, 1990
 Third Year

- Dave Dickerson begins his third season as the head coach on the Uptown campus. Dickerson has an overall record of 32-33 and a Conference USA mark of 15-15.

- Under his tutelage, three Green Wave players have earned all-conference honors, including All-Conference USA third-team performers Quincy Davis (2006) and David Gomez (2007), and Kevin Sims, who was selected to the All C-USA Freshman team in 2007.

- During his second season, Dickerson led Tulane to a 17-13 overall record and TU recorded its best conference finish in nine years with a 9-7 league mark, which was good enough for fourth place. - Became the 22nd head men's basketball coach in Tulane history on April 1, 2005.

- Despite the challenges brought on by Hurricane Katrina, Dickerson led Tulane to a 12-17 overall record and a 6-8 Conference USA mark, which tied the Wave for sixth place.

- Dickerson came to Tulane from alma mater of Maryland, where he spent nine years as an assistant under Gary Williams. In 2004-05, he was the program's associate head coach. He helped the Terrapins to nine straight postseason appearances, five Sweet Sixteens, two Final Fours and one National Championship in 2002.

TULANE ROLLS AUBURN, 77-62

Stith Leads the Green Wave with 12 points

New Orleans – Senior Donnavan Stith led three Tulane players into double figures with 12 points and all 10 Green Wave players that saw action reached the scoring column to take out Southeastern Conference member Auburn, 77-62, in the season opener for both squads at Fogelman Arena.

Both teams stormed out of the gates and blis-tered the nets from behind the arc. Auburn (0-1) buried its first three three-pointers to take a 9-4 lead, but Tulane (1-0) roared back and tied the game on a trey by sophomore Eric Vianney.

Sophomore Asim McQueen came off the bench to hit a free throw and Vianney followed up with his second trey to ignite a 12-2 run and the Wave never looked back. McQueen knocked down two more free throws to give TU a 28-18 advantage with 6:07 remaining in the opening period.

Auburn managed to slice the lead to seven points on a pair of charity shots from Rasheem Barrett with under four minutes remaining, but Tulane connected on six straight free throws and freshman Johnny Mayhane drained his third trey of the half to give TU a 38-27 advantage at intermission.

Tulane continued to pressure the Tigers with its smothering defense and extended its lead to as much as 21 points in the second half. However, the Tigers made one last run at the Green Wave with a 20-7 spurt that closed the gap to eight points, 63-55, when Barrett hit a jumper with 4:05 left on the clock.

Following a timeout, sophomore Kevin Sims hit a three-pointer that gave the Wave a double-digit lead, and Auburn never threatened again.

Stith led the Wave with 12 points and several spectacular dunks and a wrap-around jump shot under the basket that brought the Tulane faithful to its feet. Sims contributed 11 points and six assists, while Vianney added 10 points in his Tulane debut.

GOMEZ LEADS TULANE PAST CHARLESTON OUTHERN, 66-60

TU Senior leads all scorers with 22 Points

Charleston, S.C. – Senior David Gomez led all scorers with 22 points and Tulane outlasted Charleston Southern, 66-60, at the North Charleston Coliseum.

Playing in its first road game of the year, Tulane (2-0) had to withstand a late rally in the final minutes to improve to 2-0 for the first time since 2003-04.

Tulane only trailed once in the game, but never led by more than 10 points until midway through the second half when freshman Johnny Mayhane jump-started a 9-2 run with a jumper at the 11:02 mark. Eric Vianney hit 1-of-2 free throw attempts to increase the lead to 11 points, the Wave's largest of the game.

Facing its largest deficit of the game, Charleston Southern (1-1) refused to go quietly. The Buccaneers, who hit 11-of-23 three-point attempts for the game, used a 10-1 spurt in the waning minutes to climb to within two points, 59-57, with 1:53 remaining.

CSU continued its run with a free throw by Giedrius Knyzas and Jamarco Warren drilled one of his five three-pointers. Chris Moore brought the home team to within a bucket with a lay-up at the 1:53 mark.

Following the timeout, senior Matt Wheaton was fouled and nailed both of his charity shots to increase the Wave lead to four points with just 65 seconds remaining. On the ensuing possession, CSU's Omar Carter got an open look, but his three-point attempt missed its mark and Gomez was there for the crucial rebound and was immediately fouled. Gomez walked to the other end of the floor and sank both attempts to increase the visitor's lead to six. However, the Buccaneers sliced the deficit in half on a Warren trey with 0:16 remaining. Sims was fouled on the inbounds pass and hit 1-of-2 free throw shots, and CSU couldn't find the mark in the closing seconds.

LOUISME POWERS TULANE PAST NICHOLLS STATE, 73-51

Four Green Wave players each double figures

New Orleans – Junior Robinson Louisme led four Tulane players in double figure scoring with a team-best 14 points and the Green Wave won its 16th straight game against Nicholls State with a 73-51 victory in front of 1,935 at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane improved to 3-0 for the first time since the 2003-04 campaign and the Wave extended its home win streak against non-conference opponents to eight straight. TU also improved to 20-7 at Fogelman Arena under third-year head coach Dave Dickerson.

Nicholls State (1-2) stole the show early by jumping out to a 12-point lead on two occasions during the opening 10 minutes of the first half. The Colonels drilled three treys and held Tulane to just four points during a 16-4 run. Senior Matt Wheaton hit two free throws at the 10:22 mark to give the Wave just its sixth point. NSU followed Wheaton's free throw up with a Dominic Friend lay-up that extended the lead back to 12 points. However, Friend's bucket would be the last for the Colonels for the next six minutes.

Facing its largest deficit of the young season, Tulane dug in defensively and ignited on the offensive end behind Louisme's 10 points and Wheaton's eight points. The Green Wave reeled off a 20-1 run and took the lead for good on a lay-up by freshman Kris Richard. By the time Michael Czepil nailed a short jumper to snap the run, the Colonels were trailing 26-21. TU built its lead to seven points four different times in the final 10 minutes and sophomore Kevin Sims followed a Nicholls State lay-up with 0:07 remaining by going coast-to-coast in the waning seconds and beat the buzzer with a floating jumper to give the Wave an improbable 35-28 lead at the break. In the second half, the Green Wave increased to its lead and led by as many as 25 points in the closing minutes.

TULANE'S COMEBACK BID FALLS SHORT AGAINST UNO, 74-67

David Gomez leads the Wave with 15 points

New Orleans – Senior David Gomez scored 15 points and Tulane shot 51 percent for the game, but the Green Wave suffered 19 turnovers and its attempt to come-back from a 17-point deficit fell short in a 74-67 loss in front of 3,074 at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane (3-1) suffered its first loss of the year, and much like the last time the Green Wave opened with a 3-0 mark in 2003-04, New Orleans (3-0) was there to hand TU its first loss of the season on its home floor.

Tulane fell behind early and trailed by as many as seven points on several occasions during the first half of the opening period. The Wave shot 47.8 percent in the first half, but surrendered an uncharacteristic 13 turnovers. TU scraped back and trailed by just four points on baskets by Gomez and a three-pointer by junior Daniel Puckett that pulled the Wave to within four points. However, UNO's Kechan Myers and James Parlow connected on consecutive three-pointers to give the Privateers an 11 point lead. Myers drilled another trey and Kyndall Dykes broke free for a lay-up with 13-seconds remaining and the Privateers took an 11-point lead into the break.

New Orleans continued to play well during the early minutes of the second half and used a 12-4 run to build a 17-point advantage, its largest of the game, on a pair of Dykes free throws at the 13:35 mark. However, Tulane refused to go quietly to its inner-city rival, and shored up its defense with some gritty play over the next 6:40 to climb back into the game using a 21-2 run.

UNO's Ben Elias banked in a jumper from the right side to help the Privateers regain the lead, but Vianney tied the contest for the third time with a lay-up with 6:05 remaining. On the ensuing possession, Elias missed a short jumper, but Bo McCaleb grabbed the offensive carom and was fouled. McCaleb connected on 1-of-2 free throws to give his team a one-point lead that it would not surrender.

POOR FIRST HALF PERFORMANCE DOOMS TULANE, 65-51

Kevin Sims paces the Wave with 15 points

Buffalo, N.Y. – Senior David Gomez and sophomore Kevin Sims combined for 28 points, but a dismal first half shooting performance was too much to overcome in the second half and the Green Wave fell to Buffalo, 65-51, in front of 1,887 at Alumni Arena.

For the third straight game, Tulane (3-2) fell behind early and for the second consecutive contest the Green Wave was unable to overcome its first half woes. TU suffered its worst shooting performance of the season with a 34 percent effort and committed 19 turnovers in its second straight outing.

Trailing by 17 points at halftime to Buffalo (4-3), Tulane slowly mounted a comeback, much like it did in its last game against New Orleans when the Wave overcame a similar 17-point setback to tie the game late before eventually falling to its cross town rival.

The Wave trimmed the Buffalo lead to 11 points when Gomez broke free with a turn-around jumper in the lane. Minutes later, Sims was fouled on a layup and he hit the free throw for the conventional three-point play to bring TU to within eight points. Tulane would eventually pull to within six points on a Gomez break-away dunk with 8:23 remaining and the Green Wave looked to be back into contention.

However, the biggest obstacle all night continued to plague the Green Wave. UB's Sean Smiley came off the bench and hit all five of his three-point attempts and a total of 8-of-10 field goals to fuel the Buffalo offense. Smiley was the Bulls' answer each time Tulane threatened throughout the game. With Tulane trailing by just six points, Smiley hit a pull-up jumper in transition and then knocked down his fifth trey of the night to extend Buffalo's lead to 11 points and Tulane never threatened again.

TULANE FALLS LATE AT SYRACUSE

Daniel Puckett tallies 16 points

Syracuse, N.Y. – Junior Daniel Puckett came off the bench to score 17 points, but Syracuse countered with four players in double figures and used its size advantage to dominate the boards on both ends of the floor in a 73-60 Orange victory in front of 21,173 at the Carrier Dome.

Tulane (3-3) suffered its third straight loss since opening the year with a 3-0 mark, but gave Syracuse (5-2) all it could handle for much of the ball game. The Green Wave erased double-digit leads in both halves, but came up short in the end.

Syracuse held a seven point lead heading into the second half and the Green Wave had possession of the ball to open the period, and promptly cut the deficit to five points on two free throws by sophomore Kevin Sims. The two teams traded baskets and Tulane remained within striking distance until Jonny Flynn jumper jumpstart a 6-0 spurt.

Seniors Donnavan Stith and Matt Wheaton put an end to the run when Stith hit a lay-up in the paint and Wheaton drained his second three-pointer of the game, and all of the sudden Syracuse was clinging to a six point advantage.

However, the Orange broke the game open once again with an 11-5 run that extended the home team's lead to 12 points. But, as it had all game, Syracuse found a way to shoot itself in the foot, and this time it was with a pair of technical fouls.

Flynn was assessed a technical foul. Sims canned both shots and minutes later Orange coach Jim Boehm was handed a technical foul. Puckett, who had made one free throw prior to the technical foul, stepped aside while Sims chalked up two more charity shots, and then Puckett converted his second free throw to pull Tulane back to within six points.

But despite the TU comeback, Syracuse shut the door on any upset attempt by reeling off 15-4 run.
