TULANE OPENS C-USA TOURNNEY PLAY AGAINST MARSHALL:

• The Tulane Green Wave (16-14, 6-10 C-USA) opens the 2008 Conference USA Tournament this Wednesday, March 12 against Marshall at the FedExForum in Memphis, Tenn. Tip-off is set for 6 p.m. (CST).

Tulane (16-14) earned a ninth seed with its ninth-place finish in conference play, while Marshall (16-13) finished just ahead of the Green Wave in eighth place and is the eighth seed.

The winner of the Tulane-Marshall game will face top-seeded and No. 2/3 ranked Memphis on Thursday, March 13 at 6 p.m. That game will be televised live either by College Sports Television (CSTV) or Comcast Sports South (CSS).

Tulane has a 2-1 record at neutral sites this season with all three games coming at the 2007 Outrigger Hotels Rainbow Classic at the Stan Sheriff Center in Honolulu, Hawaii. TU fell to Saint Mary's (64-57) in the first game, but rebounded with impressive victories in consecutive days over Southeastern Conference member Georgia (70-69) and St. John's (79-71) from the Big East Conference.

For the year, Tulane is averaging 66.6 points and 33.9 rebounds per game and is shooting 44.4 percent from the field, 32.7 percent from behind the three-point line and 70.9 percent from the free-throw line.

David Gomez and Kevin Sims lead the Green Wave in scoring with 14.5 and 12.2 points per game, respectively.

Gomez is also the team's top rebounder with 6.1 boards per game, respectively, while Sims leads the squad in assists and steals with 3.7 and 1.4 per contest, respectively.

SCOUTING THE THUNDERING HERD:

• Marshall (16-13, 8-8 C-USA) is 2-3 in its last five outings, but the two wins came against UCF, the tournament's fourth-place seed, and Tulane. The Thundering Herd concluded conference play in a three-way tie for sixth place with UTEP and Tulsa but was handed an eighth seed through the league's tie-breaker procedure.

Marshall is 0-1 at neutral sites this season. The Herd dropped a 66-64 decision to in-state rival West Virginia in its lone game on a neutral site. For the year, Marshall registered a combined mark of 3-9 away from home.

The Thundering Herd is averaging 68 points and 34.4 rebounds per game, and is shooting 42.7 percent from the field, including 31.8 percent from behind the three-point line, and 68 percent from the foul line.

Mark Dorris and Markel Humphrey leads the team in scoring with 13.9 and 13.3 points per game, respectively, while Tirrell Baines is the third player averaging double digits with 11.4 points per outing. Tyler Wilkerson is the top rebounder with 5.9 boards per contest.

TULANE IN THE C-USA TOURNAMENT:

• Tulane is making its 13th appearance in the Conference USA Tournament and has an all-time record of 5-12. The Green Wave's best showing in the postseason classic came in 2000 and 2007 when those teams advanced to the semifinals before bowing out. The 2000 squad lost to Saint Louis (64-46), while last year's team fell to eventual champion and fifth-ranked Memphis, 71-49.

TU IN C-USA FIRST ROUND GAMES:

• The Green Wave has a mark of 3-5 in first round games. TU downed Saint Louis (50-47) in 2002, Houston (74-52) in 2003 and Marshall (64-58) in 2006.

2007-08 Team Leaders (by average/percentage):

- Scoring- David Gomez, 14.5 (435)
- Field Goals- Robinson Louisme, 119-195 (.610)
- Three-Pointers- David Gomez, 9-21 (.429)
- Free Throws- Kevin Sims, .818 (112-137)
- Rebounds- David Gomez (183), 6.1
- Assists- Kevin Sims, 3.7 (111)
- Steals- Kevin Sims, 1.4(41)
- Blocked Shots- David Gomez, 1.6 (45)
- Minutes Played- Kevin Sims, 34.4 (1,033)

THE GREEN WAVE AS A NO. 9 SEED:

• Tulane is making its first-ever appearance in the Conference USA Tournament as a No. 9 seed.

TU IN THE C-USA TOURNNEY UNDER DICKERSON:

• Tulane has a record of 2-2 in the Conference USA Tournament under head coach Dave Dickerson, and has never lost a first round game under the third-year coach.

Last season, Tulane was a No. 4 seed and earned a first-round bye. The Green Wave defeated fifth-seeded Tulsa (58-56) in the quarterfinal, but fell to top-seed Memphis in the semifinals.

In Dickerson's rookie season of 2005-06, the Wave up-ended Marshall in the first round and lost to Memphis (75-56) in the quarterfinals.

THE C-USA TOURNAMENT IN MEMPHIS:

• The Conference USA Tournament is making its fourth straight appearance in Memphis, Tenn., and has been held in the "Bluff City" a total of six times since the league's inception in 1995-96.

The 2005-08 tournaments have been hosted at the FedExForum, while The Pyramid hosted the inaugural C-USA Tournament in 1996 and again in 2000.

SERIES & NOTES:

• Wednesday's first round game marks the seventh all-time meeting between Tulane and Marshall, and the series is tied, 3-3.

• Tulane and Marshall have already met twice this season with the Thundering Herd capturing both contests, including a 70-68 decision at Fogelman Arena on a last second jumper last week.

• Wednesday's meeting is not only the second game between the two teams in span of exactly one week, but will mark the second time in three years that Marshall and Tulane will square off in the C-USA Tournament.

The Green Wave and Thundering Herd also met in the first round of the 2006 conference tournament and Tulane handed then first-year head coach Dave Dickerson his first postseason victory with a 64-58 triumph.

• Former TU head coach Shawn Finney (2000-05) is now an assistant coach at Marshall. The Wave had a 2-5 record in the C-USA Tournament under Finney.

WAVE PLAYS MOST GAMES SINCE 2002-03:

• Tulane will play in its 31st game of the 2007-08 campaign when it faces Marshall on Wednesday. The 31 games mark the most in a single-season since 2002-03 when the Wave also played 31 contests.

If Tulane comes away with a win in its first round game, the Green Wave would play a 32nd contest, which would be the most since 1995-96.

GOMEZ NAMED TO ALL C-USA SECOND TEAM:

• David Gomez has been named to the 2008 Conference USA Second Team, according to a vote by league head coaches and media members.

A 6'8" forward from Baton Rouge, La., Gomez is a repeat performer to the conference's postseason team as he garnered third team accolades a year ago. He is the first Tulane player to receive second team recognition since Brandon Brown in 2002, and is just the third Green Wave player to earn Conference USA honors in back-to-back seasons since the school became a member in 1995-96. Gomez joins Jerald Honeycutt (1st) and Rayshard Allen (2nd), both of whom earned All C-USA honors during the in 1996 and 1997 campaigns.

DICKERSON NAMED NABC DISTRICT 8 COACH OF THE YEAR:

• Tulane men's basketball coach Dave Dickerson was one of 15 head coaches from around the nation to receive all-district coaching honors from the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). Dickerson was named the NABC District 8 Coach of the Year, and was the only coach from Conference USA to receive the national award.

Dickerson, who is a first time recipient of the award, is in his third season at Tulane, and has an overall record of 45-44.

This season, Dickerson has guided Tulane to a 16-14 overall record that includes wins over Southeastern Conference members Auburn, Georgia and LSU, and TU also has a win over St. John's from the Big East Conference.

TULANE POSTS BACK-TO-BACK WINNING SEASONS FOR FIRST TIME IN 11 YEARS:

• Tulane notched its second straight winning season for the first time in 11 years with its 77-75 win over East Carolina in the regular season finale.

TU produced a 17-13 overall record a year ago and is currently 16-14 heading into the Conference USA Tournament.

The last time the Wave registered back-to-back winning seasons was during the 1995-96 (22-10) and 1996-97 (20-11) campaigns under Perry Clark.

SIMS REACHES THE CENTURY MARK IN ASSISTS FOR THE SECOND STRAIGHT SEASON:

• Kevin Sims has accomplished a feat not seen at Tulane in over 10 years. The sophomore has back-to-back seasons with 100+ assists and has already surpassed last year's total of 102 with a current mark of 111.

Sims is the first player to record consecutive 100+ assists seasons since Jerald Honeycutt with 120 in 1995-96, and 131 in 1996-97.

Sims is currently nine assists shy of breaking into the school's top-10 charts for single season assists.

THE LAST TIME:

• The last time Tulane and Marshall met was just one week ago at Fogelman Arena. In that game, Marshall erased a 15-point deficit in the second-half and Mark Dorris hit the game-winner on a jumper with 1.6 seconds remaining to give the Thundering Herd a 70-68 victory.

With Marshall leading by two points in the waning seconds, the Herd turned the ball over and David Gomez finished a fast break with a dunk to tie the game at 68 all with 25 seconds remaining. Gomez, who was fouled on the play, missed the free throw attempt that would have given TU a one-point lead, and set up Dorris' dramatic finish.

THE LAST TIME...TAKE TWO:

• The last time Tulane and Marshall met in the Conference USA Tournament was in the 2006 first round game. In that contest, David Gomez posted his second double-double of the season and Tulane hit seven-of-nine free throws in the final two minutes of the game to earn a 64-58 victory.

Gomez scored 13 of his 21 points in the second half, including hitting seven-of-10 from the free throw line. Meanwhile, senior center Quincy Davis carried the Wave offense with 11 of his 17 points coming in the first half.

Tulane trailed 37-22 at the break as Marshall hit 7-of-15 shots from three-point range while shooting 48.1 percent from the field overall. The second half was a different story as the Thundering Herd converted just one-of-12 threes and did not make a field goal in the final 2:29 of the game.

NOTING TULANE:

• Tulane ranks No. 23 nationally in blocked shots (5.3) and No. 38 for field goal percentage defense (.406).

• TU seniors David Gomez and Donnavan Stith will each move into the school's top 10 list for career games played when they play in the 117th contest of their respective careers on Wednesday vs. Marshall.

• In just his second season of collegiate basketball, sophomore Kevin Sims surpassed 600 points in his 55th career game with a 14-point effort against No. 1 Memphis on Feb. 20. Sims currently has 667 career points (11.1 ppg).

• Seniors David Gomez and Donnavan Stith are ranked fourth and fifth place among the school's top shot blockers with 139 and 137 blocks, respectively.

• Robinson Louisme has shot 60 percent or better from the field in 18 of 30 games this season.

• Kevin Sims' 41 steals this season is not only the best by a Tulane player, but ranks eighth among C-USA players. Sims' six steals at Syracuse is tied for the best single game effort in the league this season.

• Matt Wheaton ranks fifth on the school's list for career three-point field goal percentage (.370).

• David Gomez was named the Louisiana Sports Writers Association for the week of Jan. 21-27, and was named the Conference USA Player of the Week for the week of Dec. 31, 2007 to Jan. 6, 2008.

• Eric Vianney has stepped up his play in the last three games with a combined scoring average of 8.3 points per contest. Vianney, who is scoring at 3.7 points per clip this season scored 10 points vs. Marshall and had nine points against ECU.

IN A GROOVE:

• Robinson Louisme is averaging 11.7 points per game in his last six contests. Louisme broke out of a scoring slump when he notched his first double-double of the year with 12 points and 11 rebounds against No. 1 Memphis, and has reached double figures in all but one game since the Memphis outing.

Louisme has finished in double figures 16 times this season.

STITH A BENCH MARK OF PRODUCTION:

• Senior Donnavan Stith has customarily been the first player off Tulane's bench this year, and gives the Wave a balance of offense and defense when he is on the floor.

Stith has come off the bench in 27 games this season (he earned starting assignments against Rice (1/19), Marshall (3/5) and East Carolina (3/8), and has scored in double figures eight times, grabbed five or more rebounds 15 times, including eight or more five times, and is third on the team in blocks with 34.

He notched double-doubles with 15 points and 10 rebounds vs. Gardner-Webb and put up a 12-point, 10-rebound effort at Marshall.

INSIDE THE PAINT UPDATE:

• Through 30 games, Tulane has outscored its opponents in the paint, 866 to 638, and has a record of 15-7 when the Green Wave wins the scoring battle inside the lane.

GOMEZ A VERY PRODUCTIVE STARTER:

• David Gomez's has been a quick starter for Tulane this season. Gomez has reached double figures 10 times in the first half alone in 2007-08, and has scored eight or more points in the opening period on 14 occasions. His best outing in the first 20 minutes was 15 points against No. 1 Memphis.

SIMS CAN SCORE TOO:

• David Gomez isn't the only Green Wave averaging double figure scoring on a consistent basis. Kevin Sims has a team-leading 24 double figure scoring games, and finished with 10 or more points 12 times in 16 conference games.

PLAYING TIME NOT A PROBLEM FOR SIMS:

• Kevin Sims has not had to worry about playing time this season. In fact, the sophomore leads the team in minutes played with 34.4 per game, and has a total of 1,033 minutes this season.

If Sims keeps up his pace in the first round of the Conference USA Tournament, he would amass 1,067 total minutes this season, which would put him in seventh place on the school's single season list for minutes played.

A FORMIDABLE FRONT COURT:

• One of Tulane's strength this season has been the frontcourt play of David Gomez, Robinson Louisme, Donnavan Stith and Asim McQueen.

Together this group is averaging 33.7 points and 18.2 rebounds per game, and has a combined shooting percentage of 52.4 percent (367-701).

This season, Gomez has led the team in scoring 18 times, while Louisme has been TU's top scorer four times and Stith was in the season opener.

The group has scored in double figures a combined 49 times in 2007-08.

TICKLIN' THE TWINE:

• In 30 contests, junior Robinson Louisme and senior David Gomez are hitting better than 50 percent per clip from the field.

Leading the way is Louisme, who is shooting 61 percent from the field (119-195) on the year, while Gomez has connected on 53.2 percent (150-282) of his attempts.

The duo is shooting a combined 56.4 percent (269-477) from the field.

• Tulane averaged 6.3 blocks per game last season and concluded the year with a school record 188 blocks, which ranked as high as 10th nationally.

This season, the Wave has 159 blocks for a 5.3 average, which ranks third in Conference USA, and is 23rd nationally. TU has a total of 347 through the last 60 games (5.8).

GOMEZ NAMED TO ALL-DISTRICT FIRST TEAM:

• Senior David Gomez was named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches All-District 8 First Team. Gomez was among 150 players from 15 districts selected.

Gomez is a repeat performer to the all-district team, but is a first time member of the first team. Last season, he was named to the second team, and is Tulane's first back-to-back selection since Brandon Brown in 2002 and 2003 and also garnered first team honors for the first time since Brown in 2003.

LOUISME'S HOT HAND:

• Tulane junior Robinson Louisme started the season with the hot hand, hitting his first 13 field goals before suffering his first miss in the fourth game.

Through 30 games, Louisme has hit 119 of 195 field goal attempts this season for 61 percent. Here's a breakdown of Louisme's game-by-game field goal makes/attempts:

Auburn	4-4 (.1000)	Tulsa	5-10 (.500)
at Charleston Southern	3-3 (1.000)	Rice	2-8 (.250)

A PERFECT EFFORT:

• After not attempting a free throw in the first half of its last game at Syracuse, Tulane drained all 15 attempts in the second half and finished 15-of-15 from the charity stripe, which marked the first time TU had finished perfect from the free-throw line since Jan. 7, 1998, when the Wave connected on all 10 attempts against Saint Louis.

GREEN WAVE WINS FIVE STRAIGHT:

• Tulane posted an 84-77 win at Rice on Feb. 2 to increase its win streak to a season-best five straight, which marked the first time in eight years that Tulane has strung together five consecutive wins. The last time was in 1999-2000, when the Wave had a stretch of nine and five straight wins.

Prior to its loss at UTEP, Tulane reeled off its five wins over Tulsa (67-65), SMU (67-52), East Carolina (72-56) and two over Rice (61-56/84-77).

SEC CHAMPS!:

• The Green Wave is 3-0 against teams from the Southeastern Conference this season with wins over Auburn, Georgia and LSU. Conference USA is a combined 5-4 against the SEC this season and TU has three of the five wins.

The Green Wave finished with a perfect record against the SEC for the first time since the 1943-44 season when TU was a league member and captured the conference title with a 4-0 record.

TU also has a win over Gardner-Webb, who defeated SEC member Kentucky earlier this season.

SPEAKING OF OVERTIME:

• With its overtime win at Tulsa, Tulane now has an overall record of 32-32 in overtime games.

Prior to the Tulsa game, the last team to take Tulane to overtime was Rice last season in Houston before prevailing, 75-70, over the Green Wave.

In its 97-year history that spans 2,155 games, Tulane has been involved in 53 single overtime contests, seven double overtime affairs, two three overtime games and two four overtime marathons.

GOMEZ RECORDS HISTORY ONCE AGAIN:

• Senior David Gomez achieved two career landmarks in December. First, in Tulane's game against Huston-Tillotson on Dec. 5, Gomez became the 29th player in school history to reach the 1,000-point plateau.

In the final game of the month, Gomez became the 14th player in the 98-year history of Tulane basketball to register career marks of 1,000 points and 500 rebounds.

Gomez currently has 614 career boards, which ranks 14th on the school's career rebounding list.

LAST SECOND HEROES:

Gomez, who finished with 24 points, drained a three-pointer with 0:09 remaining against Georgia to give the Green Wave a 70-69 come-from-behind victory, which marked his first career game-winning shot on the collegiate level.

Wheaton has two career game-winners and both game changing shots happened last season, including a put-back in the final seconds against Arkansas-Pine Bluff, and a three-pointer at UAB with 10 seconds remaining that gave the Green Wave a first round bye in the 2007 Conference USA Tournament.

TULANE REWARDS DICKERSON WITH EXTENSION:

• On Jan. 11, 2008, Tulane University Director of Athletics Rick Dickson announced that head men's basketball coach Dave Dickerson has received a two-year contract extension. Dickerson's extension will keep him on the Tulane sidelines through the 2013 season.

"It became apparent during the latter part of last year's conference schedule and through the completion of this season's non-conference schedule that Dave (Dickerson) and his staff has re-established the Tulane men's basketball program on a solid foundation that will continue to rise," Dickson said.

TULANE INKS TWO TEXAS STANDOUTS:

• Tulane head coach Dave Dickerson signed two prep standouts from the state of Texas- Trent Rogers and Kendall Timmons- to national letters-of-intent during the early period of national signings for high school players.

A 6'3" combination guard from Houston's Strake Jesuit High School, Rogers was an all-district choice for head coach Wayne Jones as a junior when he averaged 10 points and 3.4 rebounds per game. Heading into his senior year, Rogers was named to the Houston Chronicle's All-Greater Houston preseason second team, and was also selected as one of the top players in District 17-5A. He ranks as the 17th-best player in Texas' 2008 Class by TexasHoops.com and is rated as a three start shooting guard and 11th in the state by Rivals.com.

Timmons is a 6'5" guard from Southwest High School in Fort Worth, Texas. During his junior season, he averaged 18.2 points, 7.6 rebounds, 3.1 assists and 2.8 steals per game, and was named the District 7-4A Player of the Year. Timmons was also selected to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram All-Area second team, and to the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches All-Region team. Timmons concluded the season ranked No. 29 among "Top Juniors" in state of Texas' 2008 class by HoopScooponline.com.

Entering his senior campaign, Timmons was named to the Star-Telegram's "Starting Five" and is rated as the 27th-best player in the state of Texas' 2008 class by TexasHoops.com.

Head Coach
 Maryland, 1990
 Third Year

- Dave Dickerson is in his third season as the head coach on the Uptown campus. Dickerson has an overall record of 45-44 and a Conference USA mark of 21-25.

- Named the 2008 National Association of Basketball Coaches District 8 Coach of the Year.

- Tulane has a record of 27-13 (.675) at Fogelman Arena and a mark of 17-5 (.772) against non-conference teams in New Orleans under head coach Dave Dickerson.

- Has a record of 2-2 in the Conference USA Tournament and has never lost a first round game.

- Registered his 40th career win (at Tulsa) a little over midway through his third season (76 games) and joined Clifford Wells (67 games), Charles Moir (71 games), Ned Fowler (61 games) and Perry Clark (84 games) as the only coaches in the 97-year history of Tulane basketball to win 40 games in under three seasons. The 76 games are the fourth fewest games in school history needed to attain 40 wins, and he currently ranks seventh for career coaching victories.

- Under his tutelage, three Green Wave players have earned all-conference honors, including All-Conference USA third-team performers Quincy Davis (2006) and David Gomez (2007, 2008), and Kevin Sims, who was selected to the All C-USA Freshman team in 2007.

- During his second season, Dickerson led Tulane to a 17-13 overall record and TU recorded its best conference finish in nine years with a 9-7 league mark, which was good enough for fourth place. TU's 17 victories marked the most wins in seven seasons and the program's first winning season in four years.

- Dickerson's 29 wins in his first two seasons puts him in third place for the most wins by a Tulane coach in the first two seasons.

- Became the 22nd head men's basketball coach in Tulane history on April 1, 2005.

- Despite the challenges brought on by Hurricane Katrina, Dickerson led Tulane to a 12-17 overall record and a 6-8 Conference USA mark, which tied the Wave for sixth place.

- Dickerson came to Tulane from alma mater of Maryland, where he spent nine years as an assistant under Gary Williams. In 2004-05, he was the program's associate head coach. He helped the Terrapins to nine straight postseason appearances, five Sweet Sixteens, two Final Fours and one National Championship in 2002.

- Accolades for Dickerson have included his recognition as an AFLAC Assistant Coach of the Year in 2003, the ACC's No. 1 Assistant Coach as named by Basketball News (2003-04), Athlon Sports' No. 4 Assistant Coach in the nation (2003-04), and an "Assistant Coach on the Rise" as tabbed by ESPN's Andy Katz.

- A native of Olar, S.C., Dickerson is married to the former Laurette Newsom, a 1991 graduate of Maryland. The couple has one son, Dave III (7).

TULANE ROLLS AUBURN, 77-62

Stith Leads the Green Wave with 12 points

New Orleans – Senior Donnavan Stith led three Tulane players into double figures with 12 points and all 10 Green Wave players that saw action reached the scoring column to take out Southeastern Conference member Auburn, 77-62, in the season opener for both squads at Fogelman Arena.

Both teams stormed out of the gates and blistered the nets from behind the arc. Auburn (0-1) buried its first three three-pointers to take a 9-4 lead, but Tulane (1-0) roared back and tied the game on a trey by sophomore Eric Vianney.

Sophomore Asim McQueen came off the bench to hit a free throw and Vianney followed up with his second trey to ignite a 12-2 run and the Wave never looked back. McQueen knocked down two more free throws to give TU a 28-18 advantage with 6:07 remaining in the opening period.

Auburn managed to slice the lead to seven points on a pair of charity shots from Rasheem Barrett with under four minutes remaining, but Tulane connected on six straight free throws and freshman Johnny Mayhane drained his third trey of the half to give TU a 38-27 advantage at intermission.

Tulane continued to pressure the Tigers with its smothering defense and extended its lead to as much as 21 points in the second half. However, the Tigers made one last run at the Green Wave with a 20-7 spurt that closed the gap to eight points, 63-55, when Barrett hit a jumper with 4:05 left on the clock.

Following a timeout, sophomore Kevin Sims hit a three-pointer that gave the Wave a double-digit lead, and Auburn never threatened again.

Stith led the Wave with 12 points and several spectacular dunks and a wrap-around jump shot under the basket that brought the Tulane faithful to its feet. Sims contributed 11 points and six assists, while Vianney added 10 points in his Tulane debut.

GOMEZ LEADS TULANE PAST CHARLESTON SOUTHERN, 66-60

TU Senior leads all scorers with 22 Points

Charleston, S.C. – Senior David Gomez led all scorers with 22 points and Tulane outlasted Charleston Southern, 66-60, at the North Charleston Coliseum.

Playing in its first road game of the year, Tulane (2-0) had to withstand a late rally in the final minutes to improve to 2-0 for the first time since 2003-04.

Tulane only trailed once in the game, but never led by more than 10 points until midway through the second half when freshman Johnny Mayhane jump-started a 9-2 run with a jumper at the 11:02 mark. Eric Vianney hit 1-of-2 free throw attempts to increase the lead to 11 points, the Wave's largest of the game.

Facing its largest deficit of the game, Charleston Southern (1-1) refused to go quietly. The Buccaneers, who hit 11-of-23 three-point attempts for the game, used a 10-1 spurt in the waning minutes to climb to within two points, 59-57, with 1:53 remaining.

CSU continued its run with a free throw by Giedrius Knyzas and Jamarco Warren drilled one of his five three-pointers. Chris Moore brought the home team to within a bucket with a lay-up at the 1:53 mark.

Following the timeout, senior Matt Wheaton was fouled and nailed both of his charity shots to increase the Wave lead to four points with just 65 seconds remaining. On the ensuing possession, CSU's Omar Carter got an open look, but his three-point attempt missed its mark and Gomez was there for the crucial rebound and was immediately fouled. Gomez walked to the other end of the floor and sank both attempts to increase the visitor's lead to six. However, the Buccaneers sliced the deficit in half on a Warren trey with 0:16 remaining. Sims was fouled on the inbounds pass and hit 1-of-2 free throw shots, and CSU couldn't find the mark in the closing seconds.

LOUISME POWERS TULANE PAST NICHOLLS STATE, 73-51

Four Green Wave players each double figures

New Orleans – Junior Robinson Louisme led four Tulane players in double figure scoring with a team-best 14 points and the Green Wave won its 16th straight game against Nicholls State with a 73-51 victory in front of 1,935 at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane improved to 3-0 for the first time since the 2003-04 campaign and the Wave extended its home win streak against non-conference opponents to eight straight. TU also improved to 20-7 at Fogelman Arena under third-year head coach Dave Dickerson.

Nicholls State (1-2) stole the show early by jumping out to a 12-point lead on two occasions during the opening 10 minutes of the first half. The Colonels drilled three treys and held Tulane to just four points during a 16-4 run. Senior Matt Wheaton hit two free throws at the 10:22 mark to give the Wave just its sixth point. NSU followed Wheaton's free throw up with a Dominic Friend lay-up that extended the lead back to 12 points. However, Friend's bucket would be the last for the Colonels for the next six minutes.

Facing its largest deficit of the young season, Tulane dug in defensively and ignited on the offensive end behind Louisme's 10 points and Wheaton's eight points. The Green Wave reeled off a 20-1 run and took the lead for good on a lay-up by freshman Kris Richard. By the time Michael Czepil nailed a short jumper to snap the run, the Colonels were trailing 26-21. TU built its lead to seven points four different times in the final 10 minutes and sophomore Kevin Sims followed a Nicholls State lay-up with 0:07 remaining by going coast-to-coast in the waning seconds and beat the buzzer with a floating jumper to give the Wave an improbable 35-28 lead at the break. In the second half, the Green Wave increased to its lead and led by as many as 25 points in the closing minutes.

TULANE'S COMEBACK BID FALLS SHORT AGAINST UNO, 74-67

David Gomez leads the Wave with 15 points

New Orleans – Senior David Gomez scored 15 points and Tulane shot 51 percent for the game, but the Green Wave suffered 19 turnovers and its attempt to come-back from a 17-point deficit fell short in a 74-67 loss in front of 3,074 at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane (3-1) suffered its first loss of the year, and much like the last time the Green Wave opened with a 3-0 mark in 2003-04, New Orleans (3-0) was there to hand TU its first loss of the season on its home floor.

Tulane fell behind early and trailed by as many as seven points on several occasions during the first half of the opening period. The Wave shot 47.8 percent in the first half, but surrendered an uncharacteristic 13 turnovers. TU scraped back and trailed by just four points on baskets by Gomez and a three-pointer by junior Daniel Puckett that pulled the Wave to within four points. However, UNO's Kechan Myers and James Parlow connected on consecutive three-pointers to give the Privateers an 11 point lead. Myers drilled another trey and Kyndall Dykes broke free for a lay-up with 13-seconds remaining and the Privateers took an 11-point lead into the break.

New Orleans continued to play well during the early minutes of the second half and used a 12-4 run to build a 17-point advantage, its largest of the game, on a pair of Dykes free throws at the 13:35 mark. However, Tulane refused to go quietly to its inner-city rival, and shored up its defense with some gritty play over the next 6:40 to climb back into the game using a 21-2 run.

UNO's Ben Elias banked in a jumper from the right side to help the Privateers regain the lead, but Vianney tied the contest for the third time with a lay-up with 6:05 remaining. On the ensuing possession, Elias missed a short jumper, but Bo McCaleb grabbed the offensive carom and was fouled. McCaleb connected on 1-of-2 free throws to give his team a one-point lead that it would not surrender.

POOR FIRST HALF PERFORMANCE DOOMS TULANE, 65-51

Kevin Sims paces the Wave with 15 points

Buffalo, N.Y. – Senior David Gomez and sophomore Kevin Sims combined for 28 points, but a dismal first half shooting performance was too much to overcome in the second half and the Green Wave fell to Buffalo, 65-51, in front of 1,887 at Alumni Arena.

For the third straight game, Tulane (3-2) fell behind early and for the second consecutive contest the Green Wave was unable to overcome its first half woes. TU suffered its worst shooting performance of the season with a 34 percent effort and committed 19 turnovers in its second straight outing.

Trailing by 17 points at halftime to Buffalo (4-3), Tulane slowly mounted a comeback, much like it did in its last game against New Orleans when the Wave overcame a similar 17-point setback to tie the game late before eventually falling to its cross town rival.

The Wave trimmed the Buffalo lead to 11 points when Gomez broke free with a turn-around jumper in the lane. Minutes later, Sims was fouled on a layup and he hit the free throw for the conventional three-point play to bring TU to within eight points. Tulane would eventually pull to within six points on a Gomez break-away dunk with 8:23 remaining and the Green Wave looked to be back into contention.

However, the biggest obstacle all night continued to plague the Green Wave. UB's Sean Smiley came off the bench and hit all five of his three-point attempts and a total of 8-of-10 field goals to fuel the Buffalo offense. Smiley was the Bulls' answer each time Tulane threatened throughout the game. With Tulane trailing by just six points, Smiley hit a pull-up jumper in transition and then knocked down his fifth trey of the night to extend Buffalo's lead to 11 points and Tulane never threatened again.

TULANE FALLS LATE AT SYRACUSE

Daniel Puckett tallies 16 points

Syracuse, N.Y. – Junior Daniel Puckett came off the bench to score 17 points, but Syracuse countered with four players in double figures and used its size advantage to dominate the boards on both ends of the floor in a 73-60 Orange victory in front of 21,173 at the Carrier Dome.

Tulane (3-3) suffered its third straight loss since opening the year with a 3-0 mark, but gave Syracuse (5-2) all it could handle for much of the ball game. The Green Wave erased double-digit leads in both halves, but came up short in the end.

Syracuse held a seven point lead heading into the second half and the Green Wave had possession of the ball to open the period, and promptly cut the deficit to five points on two free throws by sophomore Kevin Sims. The two teams traded baskets and Tulane remained within striking distance until Jonny Flynn jumper jumpstart a 6-0 spurt.

Seniors Donnavan Stith and Matt Wheaton put an end to the run when Stith hit a lay-up in the paint and Wheaton drained his second three-pointer of the game, and all of the sudden Syracuse was clinging to a six point advantage.

However, the Orange broke the game open once again with an 11-5 run that extended the home team's lead to 12 points. But, as it had all game, Syracuse found a way to shoot itself in the foot, and this time it was with a pair of technical fouls.

Flynn was assessed a technical foul. Sims canned both shots and minutes later Orange coach Jim Boehm was handed a technical foul. Puckett, who had made one free throw prior to the technical foul, stepped aside while Sims chalked up two more charity shots, and then Puckett converted his second free throw to pull Tulane back to within six points.

But despite the TU comeback, Syracuse shut the door on any upset attempt by reeling off 15-4 run.

LOUISME, TULANE BLITZES HUSTON-TILLOTSON, 75-43

David Gomez surpasses 1,000 career points

NEW ORLEANS – Junior Robinson Louisme led three Tulane players into double figures with 14 points and the Green Wave snapped a three-game skid with a 75-43 victory over Huston-Tillotson in front of 1,149 at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane (4-3) never trailed in the game and used a 10-2 run early in the contest to sprint out to a double-digit lead and never looked back. Sophomore Asim McQueen, who scored a career-best 10 points, hit two free throws to spark the spurt and later hit a lay-up during the run. The Green Wave needed less than nine minutes to reach double figures and put the game away.

Senior David Gomez entered the night just eight points shy of the 1,000-point plateau, and he managed to hit the mark at the 5:29 mark in the opening period when he was fouled on a made lay-up. He connected on the free throw and became the 29th player in school history to surpass 1,000 career points.

Gomez's conventional three-point play gave Tulane a 20-point lead, its largest of the first half, and the Wave took a 34-17 lead into the break.

The second half turned into a track meet with TU outscoring Huston-Tillotson (0-6), 41-26. The Green Wave's lead was never less than 17 points, while its largest advantage of the game came with 4:20 remaining when freshmen Johnny Mayhane knocked in a lay-up for a 39-point lead.

Along with Louisme and McQueen, Gomez topped off his milestone night with 12 points on 4-of-5 shooting from both the field and free-throw line. Louisme tied the Rams' Titus Butler for game-high rebounding honors with eight apiece. Louisme also rejected four of Tulane's six blocked shots, and collected three steals.

SIMS, STITH LEAD TULANE PAST GARDNER-WEBB, 84-79

Stith notches 15 points, 10 rebounds

NEW ORLEANS – Sophomore Kevin Sims scored a team-high 19 points and senior Donnavan Stith came off the bench to produce a double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds, and the Green Wave outlasted a feisty Gardner-Webb squad, 84-79, in front of 1,195 at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane (5-3) led for much of the second half and looked to be in control heading into the final two minutes of the game with a nine point lead. However, Gardner-Webb (5-6) had other ideas and demonstrated the same ability it used to upset No. 20 Kentucky earlier this season on the road at Rupp Arena. The Runnin' Bulldogs used an 8-1 run in a span of 1:49 that culminated when Takayo Siddle drained the team's 11th three-pointer of the game and cut the Green Wave's lead to just two points, 81-79, with 0:39 remaining.

Sims was fouled on the next possession and he sank his first free throw, but left the door open for Gardner-Webb when he misfired on his second free throw attempt. The Runnin' Bulldogs looked to tie the game, but a Grayson Flittner three-pointer missed its mark, and TU senior Matt Wheaton grabbed the rebound and was immediately fouled. Wheaton nailed both free throw attempts to ice the game for the Wave.

GOMEZ'S 19 POINTS LEADS TU PAST INDIANA STATE, 80-68

Three Green Wave reach double figures

NEW ORLEANS – Senior David Gomez led three Green Wave players into double figures with a game-high 19 points and Tulane dispatched Indiana State, 80-68, to notch its third straight win at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane (6-3) took control of the game late and never looked back once it gained a large lead. Much of the Green Wave's success was its balanced scoring and distribution of the ball. All 10 players that saw action for TU reached the scoring column and the Wave combined for 21 assists, including a game-high from sophomore Kevin Sims. Tulane shot a miserable 11 percent from the foul line in the first half, but was electric in the second half, hitting 20-of-23 for 87 percent, which essentially was the difference in the game.

The contest was back-and-forth for much of the way with 10 lead changes and four ties. Much like the first half, Tulane looked solid during the first five minutes of the second period and managed to build a 10-point lead on two different occasions. TU led by three-points at the break and used a 9-2 run to take a 44-34 lead on a lay-up by Gomez in the opening moments of the second half. Indiana State stayed close and cut the lead to single digits several times, but Tulane answered the call and maintained its 10-point lead for a majority of the first 10 minutes of the period.

Gomez gave the home team some breathing room when he knocked down a three-pointer to give Tulane a 71-57 lead, its largest of the game, with just over four minutes remaining.

TU's defense took over in the latter stages of the contest with several key blocks and held ISU to without a field goal for a just over a three minute stretch. Moore's three-pointer broke the drought, but the Sycamores still trailed by double figures with 1:52 remaining.

SLOW START PLAGUES

TULANE VS SAINT MARY'S, 64-57

Kevin Sims leads TU with 18 points

HONOLULU – Sophomore Kevin Sims scored 16 of his team best 18 points in the second half and junior Robinson Louisme added 12 points, but Tulane couldn't overcome 19 turnovers, a poor shooting first half and a game-high 23 points by Saint Mary's Patrick Mills in a 64-57 loss to the Gaels in the first round of the 2007 Outrigger Hotels Rainbow Classic at the Stan Sheriff Center.

It was a tale of two halves for the Green Wave. Tulane shot just 30 percent in the opening half, committed 13 turnovers and trailed Saint Mary's (8-1) by 12 points at halftime. In the second period, the Wave came alive, outscoring the Gaels, 37-32, and shooting 50 percent from the field, including 50 percent from behind the three-point line.

Tulane played well during the first 4:29 of the second half, outscoring SMC, 8-4, and had sliced the deficit to single digits, 36-29, by the first media timeout. But a Carlin Hughes three-pointer at the 13:04 mark gave Saint Mary's a double-digit lead once again. The Wave managed to scrape back to it is closest margin of seven points on a Sims lay-up that brought the score to 39-32 with plenty of time remaining for a comeback.

However, TU's chances and its three-game win streak evaporated into the breezy Hawaiian night when Mills drained a three-pointer that increased the Gaels' lead to 11 points with 8:19 remaining. From there, Saint Mary's held on to its double digit lead until the waning moments of the contest. Tulane erased a 12 point deficit behind Sims' seven straight points in the final minute and freshman Kris Richard capped off the night with a three-pointer at the buzzer.

GOMEZ'S LATE 3-POINTER LEADS

TULANE PAST GEORGIA, 70-69

Gomez leads TU with 24 points

HONOLULU – Senior David Gomez's long wait for his first collegiate game-winning shot is finally over. Gomez nailed a three-pointer from the top of the key with nine seconds remaining to lead Tulane to a 70-69 come-from-behind victory over Georgia in front of 6,077 in the consolation bracket of the 2007 Outrigger Hotels Rainbow Classic at the Stan Sheriff Center.

Trailing by a single point, Tulane's Donnvan Stith was forced to foul Dave Bliss with 19 seconds remaining. Bliss, a 76 percent free throw shooter this season, connected on his first attempt, but misfired on his second, leaving Tulane with a two-point deficit (69-67), and the Green Wave called timeout to set up its last second shot.

On the winning play for the Green Wave, sophomore Kevin Sims took the inbounds pass and was immediately contested by UGA's players. Sims then dribbled down the right side toward the baseline and the Bulldog's defense quickly enveloped TU's 5'10" guard. However, Sims alertly looked back to the top of the key where Gomez was standing all alone with no Georgia player within eight feet. Sims popped a quick pass to Gomez and the Baton Rouge, La., native squared up and launched the ball in one motion, and sank his first game winner with nine ticks on the clock.

Georgia dribbled the length of the floor and did get a shot off, but the desperate attempt hit the rim and bounced away as the buzzer sounded.

The game featured seven ties and 14 lead changes. Tulane trailed for much of the second half, but never by more than five points. The Green Wave stayed within striking distance and trailed by two points or less nine times during the first 10 minutes of the second half.

Outrigger Hotels & Resorts Rainbow Classic Consolation Game

December 22, 2007

LOUISME, SIMS EACH SCORES 21

IN 79-71 WIN OVER ST. JOHN'S

TU takes home consolation title

HONOLULU – Tulane sophomore Kevin Sims and junior Robinson Louisme each scored 21 points and the Green Wave blew open the game with a 16-4 run in the second half to dispatch St. John's, 79-71, in the consolation title game of the 2007 Outrigger Hotels Rainbow Classic at the Stan Sheriff Center.

Tulane (8-4) trailed St. John's (5-4) 52-50 when senior David Gomez, the team's leading scorer and rebounder, fouled out of the game with 8:16 remaining. Following two free throws by SJU's Rob Thomas, the Red Storm led by four points when Sims spotted up for a three-pointer from the right side and missed the shot. However, Lawrence Eugene fouled Sims on the attempt and unknowingly changed the momentum of the game.

Sims calmly sank all three attempts, which not only tied the game but gave the Green Wave a one-point lead, and more importantly ignited a 16-4 run that put Tulane up by 10 points, 66-56, with 2:22 remaining in the contest. TU then built a double figure lead for the majority of the final minute and half. St. John's managed to slice the lead to seven points with 0:39 remaining but never got any closer.

During the final 10 minutes of the game it wasn't just the Green Wave's offense that came alive. The Tulane defense not only stifled the St. John's offense during the run, it held the Red Storm to without a field goal for nearly eight minutes in the second half. D.J. Kennedy drilled a three-pointer to give the Storm a 52-46 lead at 9:37, but St. John's next field goal didn't come until Paris Horne hit a short jumper with 1:52 left in the game.

GOMEZ, SIMS LEADS TU PAST ALABAMA STATE, 69-60

Green Wave catches fire in second half

NEW ORLEANS – Senior David Gomez matched his season high with 24 points and sophomore Kevin Sims dished out a career-best nine assists to lead Tulane to its third straight win with a 69-60 victory over Alabama State in front of 1,355 at Fogelman Arena.

Playing its fourth game in eight days, Tulane (9-4) overcome a sluggish start in the first half with a near perfect shooting performance in the early minutes of the second period to put away the Hornets (4-5). The Green Wave turned the paint into a lay-up contest by hitting its first seven shots of the second half inside the lane. TU's hot hand extended its two-point half time lead into an 11 point advantage via an 11-2 run with just 3:30 expired in the second half. Tulane led by as many as 11 points on three different occasions in the second half. The hot-shooting Wave canned 10 of its first 13 field goal attempts of the second half en route to a 61.9 percent performance in the final 10 minutes

However, Alabama State never gave up and used a 10-0 run near the midway point to pull to within three points on a three-pointer by Andrew Hayles that brought the score to 47-44 at 10:52.

The Green Wave regained its momentum through with the courtesy of a three-point play which ignited a 7-0 spurt. Freshman Johnny Mayhane was fouled driving to the basket and his field goal attempt found its mark. Mayhane sank his first career free throw for the conventional three-point play. Minutes later, junior Robinson Louisme converted a lay-up and Gomez made two free throws to extend the lead back to double figures.

Alabama State scraped to within six points, but a timely Sims three-pointer helped the Green Wave build a 13-point lead and sprint to the finish.

GOMEZ'S DOUBLE-DOUBLE LEADS TU PAST LSU, 68-63

Green Wave notches first win over Tigers in 25 years

NEW ORLEANS – Senior David Gomez registered a double-double with 19 points and 12 rebounds and junior Daniel Puckett nailed the go-ahead basket for Tulane with 1:16 remaining in the game and the Green Wave tacked on five more points in the final minute to snap a 25-year drought with a 68-63 victory over in-state rival LSU in front of 3,690 at New Orleans Arena.

In an emotionally-filled contest between two rivals meeting for the 208th time since 1911, Tulane (10-4) registered its first victory over LSU (7-6) since March 12, 1982, and the win was the first for Tulane in New Orleans since Feb. 3, 1971. TU extended its win streak to a season best four straight victories, but a more impressive feat in the current times is the Wave's perfect 3-0 record against Southeastern Conference teams this season.

Tulane trailed LSU by one point, 63-62, with 2:15 remaining after Anthony Randolph nailed two free throws to give the Tigers their final lead of the game. Following a time-out, freshman Johnny Mayhane missed a jumper but Gomez found the rebound and was fouled by Marcus Thornton.

Playing in his final game against the Tigers, Gomez, who is a native of Baton Rouge, connected on his first free throw and tied the game at 63 apiece with 1:47 remaining. However, his second shot missed the mark, but Puckett tracked down the loose carom and retained possession. Puckett dribbled left toward the top of the key and then made his way into the lane where he pulled up and canned a jumper with 1:16 left in the contest and gave TU a 65-63 lead.

Tulane canned 3-of-4 free throws and LSU misfired on both of its attempts in the final minute.

TULANE FALLS TO UAB IN FINAL SECONDS, 62-61

Gomez paces Green Wave with 18 points

NEW ORLEANS – Senior David Gomez scored a game-high 18 points and junior Robinson Louisme added 10 points, but UAB's Ed Berrios nailed three straight free throws with 1.6 seconds remaining in the game to snap Tulane's four-game win streak with a 62-61 come-from-behind victory in front of 1,810 at Fogelman Arena.

In a defensive stalemate between two of Conference USA's top scoring defense teams that featured 13 ties and 15 lead changes, Tulane (10-5) and UAB (11-5) were tied at 57-all with under a minute remaining in the game when Reggie Huffman gave his team a lead on a short jumper, but freshman Johnny Mayhane responded for Tulane on the opposite end of the floor with a three-pointer from the right corner to give the home team a 60-59 advantage with 23.3 seconds left.

Following UAB's final timeout, the Blazers mis-handled the ball until it was recovered by one of their own players. However, the whistles quickly sounded because the UAB player was laying on the baseline out-of-bounds when he gained possession of the ball.

Tulane in-bounded the ball to Gomez, who was immediately fouled, and the senior hit 1-of-2 free throws to put TU ahead 61-59. On the ensuing possession, UAB's Ed Berrios attempted a last second three-pointer and was fouled by sophomore Kevin Sims. Berrios hit all three shots to win the game for UAB.

POOR SHOOTING PLAGUES TU AT SOUTHERN MISS, 71-54

Gomez leads the Green Wave with 12 points

HATTIESBURG, MISS. – Tulane senior David Gomez scored 12 points and sophomore Kevin Sims added 10 points, but the Green Wave suffered through a 32.7 percent shooting performance in a 71-54 loss to Southern Miss in front of 3,210 at Reed Green Coliseum.

Tulane (10-6, 0-2 C-USA) roared out of the gates in the first half and outscored Southern Miss (9-7, 1-1 C-USA), 12-4, in the opening minutes. However, following a media timeout the Golden Eagles quickly stole Tulane's momentum when they reeled off a 29-8 run to close the half and take control of the game.

The run began when R.L. Horton was fouled on a three-pointer and he stepped to the line and hit all three attempts. USM then received a pair of three-pointers from Jeremy Wise and Craig Craft.

After scoring 12 points in the first 5:16, the Wave misplaced its shooting touch. Southern Miss took advantage and continued the scoring onslaught, and led by as many as 11 points when Wise sank two free throws in the final minutes.

Courtney Beasley made the Green Wave forget any ideas of a comeback by scoring his team's first 12 points of the second half and sending the Golden Eagles out to a 45-29 advantage at the 15:32 mark.

Tulane trailed by as many as 18 points, but did rally late in the game to slice the deficit to 10 points. However, the Wave was unable to get any closer.

TULANE EDGES TULSA IN OT, 67-65

Green Wave snaps Tulsa's home win streak

TULSA, OKLA. – Senior David Gomez scored six of his team-high 16 points in overtime and sophomore Kevin Sims knocked down six free throws in the extra session to lead Tulane to a thrilling 67-65 overtime victory in front of 6,101 at the Donald W. Reynolds Center.

The Green Wave (11-6, 1-2 C-USA) used a 14-6 run in the final 8:11 of regulation to erase an eight point deficit and forced overtime when junior Daniel Puckett broke free for a lay-up with 19-seconds remaining to tie the game at 47-47. The Golden Hurricane (8-6, 0-2 C-USA) had the final possession of regulation, but Ben Uzoh turned the ball over and Puckett's desperation heave nailed the right side of the backboard as the horn sounded.

In overtime, Gomez, who was saddled with four fouls for the final 18:47 of regulation and the entire overtime period, converted a three-point play barely one minute into the extra session and the Green Wave scored the first five points to take a 52-47 lead.

Tulsa's Calvin Walls hit 1-of-2 free throws to cut the lead to four points, but TU senior Matt Wheaton drilled a timely three-pointer to push the Wave's lead to seven points with 2:30 remaining.

The Green Wave maintained its seven-point cushion until Glenn Andrews sank one of his four three-pointers to cut the lead to four points. Tulsa managed to pull to within two points with 38 seconds left the contest, but freshman Johnny Mayhane scored an easy lay-up off a Hurricane press and the Wave converted 6-of-6 free throws, including the four by Sims, to stave off the Tulsa rally.

Andrew nailed his final three-pointer at the buzzer for the two-point Tulane victory. The loss is the first at home for Tulsa this season and snaps a seven-game win streak that dates back to last season.

TU GETS PAST RICE, 61-56

Gomez, Sims each finish in double figures

NEW ORLEANS – Senior David Gomez came off the bench to score a game-high 17 points, including a late jumper that broke a 50-50 tie, and Tulane used an 11-6 run in the final three minutes to dispatch a feisty Rice squad, 61-56, in front of 2,223 at Fogelman Arena.

It was a tale of two halves for Tulane (12-6, 2-2 C-USA), who improved to .500 this season despite shooting 26.3 percent and getting outscored by Rice, 32-25, in the second half. Conversely, the Green Wave rarely missed in the first half, hitting 50 percent from the field and from behind the free-throw line, and more importantly led by 12 points at intermission.

Rice (3-14, 0-4 C-USA) opened the second half on fire and used a 13-2 run to draw to within a point, 38-37, at the 15:35 mark. Bryan Beasley gave the Owls its first lead since the opening minutes of the game when he finished a fast break with a lay-up and handed his team a 39-38 advantage. Lawrence Ghoram followed with a long jumper to extend the lead to 41-38.

Junior Daniel Puckett and Gomez combined for five straight free throws to regain the lead for Tulane, 45-44, and snap a 20-5 run by the Owls.

After Rice tied the game, senior Donnavan Stith brought the Fogelman faithful to its feet when he stole a pass and slammed the ball home and gave Tulane a 50-48 lead.

Tulane finally came alive when Gomez hit a key jumper and Stith once again poked the ball free and dunked it to give the Wave a four-point cushion, 54-50, at the 3:05 mark.

Senior Matt Wheaton rebounded a missed shot with a put-back and Sims was fouled following a Rice turnover. The Wave hit 5-of-6 free throws down the stretch to preserve the victory.

STRONG DEFENSIVE EFFORT LEADS TULANE PAST SMU, 67-52

TU uses 27-7 run to get past Mustangs

NEW ORLEANS – Senior David Gomez led all scorers with 18 points and the Green Wave used a 27-7 second half run over the final 10 minutes to erase a five point deficit and post a 67-52 Conference USA victory over SMU in front of 1,868 at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane (13-6, 3-2 C-USA) trailed SMU (6-11, 0-4 C-USA) by five points when Bamba Fall broke free for a two-handed dunk and his free throw following a TU foul gave the visitors a 45-40 lead with 10:17 remaining in the game. However, Falls' three-point play would be the Mustangs' final points for nearly eight minutes. By the time Fall nailed a short jumper with just 2:18 remaining, Tulane had already taken a commanding lead and put the game out of reach.

Tulane took control with its game changing run and held SMU to just seven points for the final 10 minutes of the contest.

The win was the third straight for the Green Wave and the victory evened the series with SMU 10-10. The win also marked Tulane's seventh straight home win over the Mustangs since 1976.

The final three minutes of the first half saw the teams trade the lead four times. Mike Walker hit a short jumper to put SMU ahead, 27-26, with just over 30 seconds remaining.

Tulane worked for a last shot with the period winding down, but Gomez was unable to connect and the Mustangs rebounded the miss and called a time-out in an effort to add to their lead in the waning seconds. However, their effort backfired when sophomore Eric Vianney knocked away the inbounds pass. Gomez picked up with the loose ball and fired a three-pointer toward the basket as the buzzer sounded. His attempt hit the rim, rolled around and fell through to give Tulane a 29-27 advantage at the break.

TULANE WIN FOURTH STRAIGHT WITH 72-56 WIN AT ECU

Gomez leads four into double figures with 18

Greenville, N.C. – Senior David Gomez led four Tulane players in double figures with a game-high 18 points and the Green Wave used a pair of second half runs to notch its fourth straight win and dispatch East Carolina, 72-56, in front of 5,411 at Williams Arena at Minges Coliseum.

The Green Wave (14-6, 4-2 C-USA) jumped out to an 11-point lead during the first two minutes of the second half, but East Carolina (7-11, 1-4 C-USA) rallied behind a 7-0 run to get back in the game and trailed by just four points, 36-32, on a lay-up by Jamar Abrams. Senior Matt Wheaton connected on two free throws to extend TU's lead to six points, but Abrams busted loose for a two-handed dunk to keep the Pirates within striking distance. The game remained close and Chad Wynn converted one of two free throws to bring the home team to within five points at the 14:21 mark.

However, East Carolina was unable to close the gap and went almost four minutes without a free throw. Meanwhile, Tulane sophomore Kevin Sims sparked a 10-2 run that culminated with back-to-back highlight film dunks from Gomez and classmate Donnavan Stith that pushed TU out to a 50-27 advantage.

James Legan hit a three-pointer to bring the Pirates to within 10 points, but the home team was never able to close to single digits. Stith hit two free throws and Sims sank one of two attempts from the charity stripe that ignited a 12-4 run and sent Tulane out to an 18-point lead with 6:19 remaining.

The Wave built its largest lead of 19 points three different times in the final 4:11 and emptied its bench.

SIMS LEADS TULANE PAST RICE, 84-77

Green Wave wins fifth straight

Katy, Texas – Sophomore Kevin Sims led three Green Wave into double figures with a season-high 22 points and Tulane used an 18-7 second half run to break open a tight game and post its fifth straight win with an 84-77 victory over Rice at the Merrell Center.

Tulane (15-6, 5-2 C-USA) led Rice (3-17, 0-7 C-USA) by just a single point, 42-41, early in the second half when senior David Gomez followed a missed shot with a put-back that sparked a 9-0 run, and eventually led to the 18-7 spurt that proved to be too much for the Owls to overcome.

Sims gave TU its first double digit lead, 53-43, at the 11:58 mark and the Green Wave maintained its double figure advantage for the majority of the final 10 minutes. Tulane built a 14 point lead when Sims came up with a steal and finished on the other end with an uncontested lay-up at 5:40.

A majority of the Wave's points during its second half surge came from sophomore Asim McQueen who tallied 12 of his career high 15 points in the second period, which included a pair of dunks. McQueen's second dunk, which came off a long pass from junior Daniel Puckett, gave the Wave its largest lead of the game, 80-64, with 2:57 play.

Rice closed the contest with a 13-4 run to close the gap, but ran out of time, and Tulane chalked up its fifth straight win, the longest for the Green Wave since the 1999-2000 campaign.

MISSED OPPORTUNITIES HAUNT TU IN 66-64 LOSS AT UTEP

Green Wave has five-game win streak snapped

El Paso, Texas – Senior David Gomez led three Green Wave players into double figures with 18 points, but UTEP's Claude Britton rebound and put-back with three seconds remaining gave the Miners a 66-64 Conference USA victory in front of 8,225 at the Don Haskins Center.

Tulane (15-7, 5-3 C-USA), which saw its five-game win streak snapped, trailed by four points at the 5:04 mark in the second half after Gabriel McCulley sank a three-pointer to give UTEP (14-7, 5-3 C-USA) a 61-57 advantage. Junior Daniel Puckett led the late charge for the Green Wave when he scored five straight points during a 5-1 run that tied the game at 62 apiece.

Following a jumper from UTEP's Marvin Kilgore, senior Matt Wheaton nailed a turn-around jumper to tie the game for the 13th time with just 1:55 remaining. From there, UTEP called time-out to set up a play, but Stefan Jackson missed a jumper and Puckett then misfired on a three-pointer with the shot-clock winding down with under a minute remaining.

The Miners once again called time-out to set up a game-winning shot. However on the ensuing possession, Gomez stole the ball with 37 seconds remaining and raced to the other end for a potential lay-up that would give the Green Wave a two-point lead. However, Gomez, who was defended by Jackson, banked the lay-up attempt too hard off the backboard and the ball slipped off the front of the rim. Puckett came up with the loose ball, but was pushed out of bounds. Instead, the Miners were given possession, which setup the game-winning play.

TU FALLS TO HOUSTON, 66-56

Gomez leads the Wave with 17 points

New Orleans – David Gomez scored 17 points, but Houston converted 27 Tulane turnovers into 37 points and Robert McKiver led all scorers with 25 points in the Green Wave's 66-56 Conference USA loss to the Cougars in front of 2,185 at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane (15-8, 5-4 C-USA) trailed Houston (18-4, 7-1 C-USA) by a single point at halftime, but the Cougars forced TU into 12 turnovers and drained eight three-pointers en route to outscoring the Wave 37-28 in the second period.

Although TU out-shot UH, 52.4 percent from the field for the game and held Houston to a 32.4 effort, 12 of the Cougars 22 total field goals came from behind the three-point line. Despite its field goal percentage and out-rebounding Houston, 40-37, Tulane suffered through its worst performance from the free-throw line this season. The Wave entered the game as the second-best free throw shooting team in the conference with a mark of 73 percent for the year. However, Tulane managed a miserable 11-of-24 effort from the foul line for the afternoon for a season-low 45.8 percent.

WAVE LOSES THIRD STRAIGHT AT MARSHALL, 68-54

Stith notches 12 points, 10 rebounds

Huntington, W.Va. – Senior David Gomez produced his 12th straight double figure scoring contest with a game-high 15 points, but the Green Wave offense struggled with just 17 field goals in a 68-54 loss to Marshall in front of 6,153 at the Cam Henderson Center.

The Thundering Herd never trailed in this game and topped TU in both the paint and on the perimeter. Marshall's inside game out-scored Tulane, 30-26, and its shooters nailed 6-of-14 three-point attempts. Meanwhile, Tulane banked its lone three-pointer, which came from sophomore Kevin Sims midway through the second half, and the Herd held the Green Wave to just four offensive rebounds, while collecting 16 boards on the offensive end.

Tulane cut the deficit to nine points four times in the second half, but never got any closer. Marshall led by as many as 16 points, its largest of the game, several times in the second period. The two teams traded baskets for much of the second half, and when they were not hitting from the field, they combined for 27 free throw attempts in the final period.

The Wave's best opportunity in the second half to close the gap came early on when it trailed by nine points and Gomez had a total of four free throw opportunities on back-to-back possessions, but misfired on all four attempts. Marshall's Altidor Cespedes shut the door on any more chances when he canned a three-pointer to put his team back into double figures.

TU FALLS TO #1 MEMPHIS, 97-71

Gomez scores 23; Louisme produced double-double

New Orleans – Senior David Gomez led four Green Wave players into double figures with a team-best 23 points, but the top-ranked Memphis Tigers cruised to a 97-71 victory behind a game-high 29 points from Chris Douglas-Roberts in front of an overflow and energetic crowd of 3,795 at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane (15-10, 5-6 C-USA) dropped its fourth straight contest and suffered its 14th straight loss to the Tigers since 2000. However, the Wave will have an advantage to close the regular season on a solid note by playing three of its final five games on its home floor.

Sophomore Kevin Sims scored 12 of his 14 points in the second half, while sophomore Robinson Louisme worked the inside for a double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds, which tied his career single game high. Redshirt-freshman Johnny Mayhane came off the bench and contributed a career-high 11 second half points. Kris Richard, a true freshman, produced a career high eight points and tied single game marks with four assists and three steals.

Memphis (26-0, 12-0 C-USA) never trailed in the game and lived up to its No. 1 billing from the opening tip to the final buzzer. Douglas-Roberts tallied 20 of his game-high 29 points in the first half and all but one of the Tigers' 11 players reached the scoring column. Memphis extended its undefeated record and also added one more victory to the nation's longest win streak.

WAVE COMES UP SHORT AGAINST SOUTHERN MISS, 70-59

Sims scores 17; Richard adds 15

New Orleans – Sophomore Kevin Sims scored 17 points and freshman Kris Richard added a career-best 15 points, but Southern Miss' Jeremy Wise led all scorers with 27 points and the Golden Eagles escaped Fogelman Arena with a 70-59 Conference USA victory in front of 2,105.

Trailing, 57-51, Sims hit lay-up to draw TU to within four points at 57-53 with less than five minutes remaining, but that basket proved to be the final field goal for the Wave until Richard hit a lay-up with eight seconds remaining.

Southern Miss took advantage of the cold spell when Craig Craft hit a jumper to give USM a six point, 59-53, lead with 3:04 remaining. Senior Donnavan Stith then connected on 1-of-2 free throws, but his second missed and was rebounded by classmate David Gomez. However, Tulane turned the ball over and Wise splashed an NBA-range trey to give the Golden Eagles a 62-54 lead with 1:56 to play.

Tulane once again came up empty on its next possession and Wise put Southern Miss up by 10 points with a pair of free throws with a minute to play to seal the victory.

UCF'S FIRST HALF 3-POINT BARRAGE DOES IN TU, 80-63

Sims scores 18 points

Orlando – UCF's Jermaine Taylor scored 15 of his game-high 19 points in the first half and the Knights drained eight three-pointers in the opening period to take a double figure lead and never looked back, handing Tulane an 80-63 defeat in front of 4,401 at UCF Arena.

UCF used the long ball to turn a tight game into a possible route in the first half. The Knights drained 8-of-13 three-point field goals (61.5 percent) in the opening period, while Tulane totaled just 10 total field goals. UCF also blistered the nets, hitting 59.3 percent of its field goal attempts, while the Wave hit on 45.5 percent of its attempts from the field.

Tulane had two leads in the first half with the last coming on three free throws from sophomore Kevin Sims when he was fouled on a three-point field goal attempt. Sims sank all three tries and TU led 5-3. UCF then reeled off a 10-2 run to talk 13-7 lead.

Tulane managed to scrape back and senior Matt Wheaton's three-pointer at the 9:12 mark closed the gap to three points at 20-17.

On the ensuing possession, Stanley Billings tipped in a miss and sparked a 19-4 run that included two treys from Mike Battle and five points each from Jermaine Taylor and Dave Noel. By the time Taylor hit a lay-up with 3:50 remaining in the first half, the Green Wave trailed by 18 points and UCF looked to be running away with the game.

TULANE FALLS AT UAB, 69-44

Gomez, Louisme each score 12 pointS

Birmingham, Ala. – Senior David Gomez and junior Robinson Louisme each scored a team-best 12 points, but Tulane could not contain UAB's Robert Vaden who led all scorers with 30 points and the Green Wave fell to the Blazers, 69-44, in front of 7,037 at Bartow Arena.

UAB took control of the game from the opening tip and never looked back. Defensively, the Blazers held Tulane to one field goal for the first six minutes, while the UAB offense was firing on all cylinders, outscoring the Green Wave, 11-2 to open the contest.

Vaden spurred the UAB attack in the first half from both the three-point line and free-throw line. He connected on three treys in the opening period, but also poured in nine points from the charity stripe after Tulane was whistled for a foul on three straight Vaden three-point attempts. Vaden sank all nine attempts and finished the first 20 minutes with 18 points.

Meanwhile, TU continued to struggle from the field. The Wave managed just two field goals during the first 10 minutes, while the Blazers jumped out to a 20-point lead on Vaden's last trio of three throws. Tulane finally reached double digits on a Sims jumper with 6:55 remaining in the period.

UAB led by as many as 27 points on a Channing Toney lay-up, but freshman Kris Richard and Louisme each found the back of the net to trim the deficit to 41-18 at intermission.

The second half proved to be as futile as the first for the Green Wave. Tulane never got any closer than 20 points in the final period, while UAB extended its lead to as many as 28 points early on.

TU COMES UP SHORT AGAINST MARSHALL IN FINAL SECONDS

Gomez finishes with 14 points

NEW ORLEANS – Senior David Gomez led four Tulane players in double figures with 14 points, but it was not enough as Marshall erased a 15-point deficit in the second-half and Mark Dorris hit the game-winner on a jumper with 1.6 seconds remaining to give the Thundering Herd a 70-68 victory over the Green Wave in front of 1,806 at Fogelman Arena.

With Marshall leading by two points in the waning seconds, the Herd turned the ball over and Gomez finished a fast break with a dunk to tie the game at 68 all with 25 seconds remaining. Gomez, who was fouled on the play, missed the free throw attempt that would have given TU a one-point lead.

Marshall then called timeout and Dorris delivered the deciding basket on a drive from the left side and a last second heave by sophomore Kevin Sims narrowly missed going in when it bounced off the front of the rim as time expired.

Gomez scored 12 points in the first half, but managed just two points in the second half. Sims contributed 13 points and three steals, while Louisme and Vianney finished with 11 and 10 points, respectively. Tulane shot 54.2 percent in the second half, but could muster just a 34.5 percent effort in the second period. The Green Wave out-rebounded the Herd, 33-29.

TU EDGES EAST CAROLINA, 77-75

Senior Trio combines for 41 points, 23 rebounds

NEW ORLEANS – Senior Donnavan Stith sank two game-winning free throws with 4.4 seconds remaining and classmate David Gomez registered a double-double with 21 points and 16 rebounds to lead Tulane to a 77-75 thrilling victory over East Carolina in the regular season finale in front of a raucous crowd of 2,167 at Fogelman Arena.

With the win, Tulane wrapped up a ninth place finish in Conference USA play and secured a winning season for the second straight year with its 16th victory. This year's campaign, coupled with last year's 17-13 overall record, marks the first time since 1995-96 and 1996-97 that the Green Wave has produced winning seasons in consecutive years.

With the game tied at 71 apiece, sophomore Eric Vianney found himself in the limelight when he made consecutive trips to the foul line and came away four straight makes to give TU a 75-71 lead with just over two minutes to play.

But once again Jenkins erased the Green Wave's new-found momentum with his eighth trey of the contest that brought ECU to within a point at 75-74 with 2:02 remaining in the contest.

Tulane held on to a one-point lead heading into the final minute, but Jenkins was fouled by Gomez on a drive to the basket. Jenkins hit one of two charity shots to tie the game at 75-75 with 34.4 seconds showing on the game clock.
