BOB TOLEDO

Head Coach

Second Year

San Francisco State, 1968

- Named the 37th head coach of the Tulane football program on Dec. 11, 2006.

- Has a 6-18 record at Tulane.

- Sports an overall record of 84-86 in 15 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

- Coached in his 150th game on Sept. 29, 2007, against No. 2 LSU.

- Despite a 4-8 record during his first season at Tulane, Toledo still managed to lead the Wave into the national spotlight. Under his offensive philosophy, senior tailback Matt Forté rushed for a school record 2,127 yards, the seventh-best single season total in NCAA history, and he became the 12th player to surpass the 2,000-yard rushing plateau in a single year. Forté earned numerous All-America honors, including second team All-America honors, and was among the contenders for the Heisman Trophy, the Doak Walker and Maxwell Awards, and was named the national player of the week twice in his lone season under Toledo.

- Brings more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Green Wave football team, including head coaching stints at Cal Riverside (15-6 with two championships from 1974-75), University of the Pacific (14-30 from 1979-82) and UCLA (1996-2002). He has coached in 13 bowl games during his career, including seven of the traditional New Year's Day bowls.

- Spent seven years (1996-2002) as the head coach at UCLA where he compiled a 49-32 record overall. The Bruins produced a school-record 20-game winning streak, plus two Pac-10 titles, one Rose Bowl appearance and non-conference victories over Texas (twice), Alabama (twice), Michigan, Ohio State and Texas A&M.

- Under Toledo, UCLA went 10-2 in 1998, climbing to No. 2 in the national polls. The Bruins finished the regular season ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense (40.5) and eighth in total offense (482.6). They set school records for total offense (5,487 yards), passing yards (3,658) and passing touchdowns (29) and Toledo was a finalist for three Coach of the Year awards.

- The 1997 UCLA team finished 10-2 and ranked No. 5 in the nation after rallying to defeat Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl. The Bruins trailed the Aggies 16-0 before making a dramatic second-half comeback to win 29-23. UCLA averaged 40.7 points and more than 430 yards during the regular season.

- Prior to becoming UCLA head coach in January of 1996, Toledo was the Bruins' offensive coordinator for two seasons (1994-95) under Terry Donahue. Offensive tackle Jonathon Ogden won the Outland Trophy and tailback Karim Abdul-Jabbar was first team All-America in 1995.

- Served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for R.C. Slocum at Texas A&M for five years (1989-93). During that span, the Aggies posted a gaudy 49-12-1 record with three Southwest Conference titles and five straight bowl games, including three consecutive Cotton Bowl appearances. His 1990 Aggie offense still holds the school record for total yards in a single game (774 yards on 76 plays against Louisiana-Lafayette) and season game average with 471.1 yards per game that year.

- Toledo served as the offensive coordinator at Oregon for six seasons (1983-88), and helped tutor two of the Pac-10's most productive quarterbacks - Chris Miller and Bill Musgrave.

- Before his head coaching stint at Pacific, Toledo guided the secondary under John Robinson at Southern Cal from 1976-78. The Trojans went 31-6 in three seasons and were co-national champs after the 1978 campaign. Toledo's most heralded pupils included Dennis Thurman, Ronnie Lott and Dennis Smith.

- Toledo's first collegiate head coaching position was at Cal Riverside from 1974-75. The Highlanders were 15-6 and captured a pair of California Collegiate Athletic Association championships.

Tuscaloosa, Ala. - What could have been a special night for the upset-minded Tulane Green Wave became a missed opportunity thanks to the Alabama special teams units. The No. 13 (AP/No. 17 USA Today) Crimson Tide used a pair of returns from their punt team to hold off Tulane, 20-6, Saturday at Bryant-Denny Stadium in Tuscaloosa.

The Green Wave (0-1) held the Alabama offense to just one touchdown, but two mistakes on the first quarter -an 87-yard punt return for touchdown by Javier Arenas and a 17-yard punt block return for touchdown by Chris Rogers- were the difference making plays for the Crimson Tide (2-0).

Tulane held a 318-172 advantage in total yardage over an Alabama team which racked up 419 yards against No. 9 Clemson last weekend. The Green Wave defense turned in four sacks and a forced fumble while holding the Crimson Tide to under 100 yards rushing.

"First, my hat's off to Alabama," Toledo said. "They are a great football program. Nick's (Saban) is doing a nice job and he has a lot of good young football players. I'm proud of our team's effort. Our kicking game really let us down tonight. They returned a punt for a touchdown. They blocked a punt and returned for a touchdown, and we missed two field goals. Our red zone offense wasn't very good either and that's a credit to them. They did a good job of keeping us out of the end zone."

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Kevin Moore completed 28-of-49 passing attempts in his first career start for 225 yards without an interception. Eleven different players caught passes for the Green Wave, which was led by senior wide out Brian King's six receptions for 51 yards. Junior wide receiver Jeremy Williams and junior tailback André Anderson each caught four passes. Anderson led the Green Wave on the ground, with 32 yards, while freshman running back Nathan Austin chipped in 24 yards on five carries.

In the first half, Tulane owned a 166-38 advantage in total offense, and held an 8-5 edge in first downs. Tulane also led in time of possession, but it was the special teams' play that put the Wave behind the Tide. Arenas broke Alabama's single-game return yardage mark in the first half.

"All in all, I think we did pretty well but we have some work to do," Burks said. "We know the car is running and now we just need to tune it up. We made some mistakes that people in the stands probably wouldn't have noticed, but for us it was a big blow. We need to do better. I think Alabama held some things back that we prepared for during the week. I think we had a pretty good game plan against them and we came out and executed, but we didn't come out on top."

Alabama rolled up 262 return yards, 171 off of seven punt returns, and the 'Bama defense kept the Green Wave out of the end zone in three red-zone attempts.

Junior safety Corey Sonnier, senior linebacker Evan Lee, and sophomore linebacker Devin Holland led Tulane with seven tackles each, while Burks, junior end Logan Kelley, sopho-

NEW ORLEANS - For the second-straight week, the Tulane football team went toe-to-toe with a top 15 team, but once again Tulane failed to deliver the knock-out blow. The Green Wave led 24-21 in the fourth quarter against No. 14 East Carolina, but a 24-yard touchdown pass with 1:41 remaining in the game helped the Pirates escape the Superdome with a 28-24 victory.

Tulane junior running back André Anderson ran for two touchdowns, and gained 82 yards on the ground while red-shirt sophomore quarterback Kevin Moore threw for a career-best 236 yards, including a touchdown.

Three times, Tulane answered Pirates touchdowns with touchdowns of their own before finally taking the lead in the fourth quarter on a field goal by junior kicker Ross Thevenot. But the Pirates responded in the waning minutes with their late score to drop the Green Wave to 0-2 overall and 0-1 in Conference USA. East Carolina improves to 3-0 on the season, 1-0 in C-USA. The Pirates were led by Patrick Pinkney's 260-yard passing effort, which included two touchdowns on 22-of-32 attempts.

The Tulane defense pounded Pinkney for five sacks by five different players, and the Wave forced four fumbles, recovering three. Senior defensive end Reggie Scott led the Green Wave defense, turning in a sack and his first career interception. Senior linebacker Evan Lee recorded a sack and a fumble recovery, while sophomore linebacker Logan Kelley forced two fumbles.

But once again, an early special teams' play bit Tulane. After a scoreless first, the Pirates' C.J. Wilson blocked a field goal attempt from Thevenot, and Quentin Cotton scooped it up and returned the ball 44 yards for a touchdown for a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter.

Kelley forced the ball free from ECU running back Jon Williams and Lee recovered the fumble for the Wave at the 10 yard line. On third and one, Anderson took the ball up the middle untouched for his third career rushing score, to tie the game at 7-7. For the second-straight week, Tulane kept a top 15 team's offense out of the end zone in the first half. The Wave held East Carolina to just 76 yards in the first half, and owned a 21:46 to 8:14 edge in time of possession.

East Carolina opened the second half with a 10-play, 49-yard drive capped by a three-yard touchdown run by Brandon Simmons. But the Wave struck back, as Williams got behind the ECU safety for a 47-yard touchdown reception from Moore. Williams hauled in the second-and-10 pass at the five and trotted in to tie the game at 14-14 with 8:04 left in the third quarter.

Four plays later, the Pirates' Norman Whitley took a screen pass from Pinkney, and with a caravan traveled 51-yards to the house for a 21-7 lead, on what capped a string of 11 consecutive completions from Pinkney. Moore found Williams again for a 50-yard gain to the ECU 19, splitting double coverage with a catch in traffic. Anderson took in his second touchdown of the day, also from one yard out, to knot the game once again, at 21-21 with 2:51 left in the third.

On a swing pass to the outside, senior corner Josh Lumar forced an ECU fumble, and senior safety David Skehan recovered the ball at the ECU 31. After Anderson's 13-yard rush, Moore found sophomore fullback Jordan Stephany on an 11-yard gain down to the six, setting up first and goal as the third quarter came to a close. The East Carolina defense held their ground, holding the Wave to a field goal. Thevenot's 28-yarder gave Tulane its first lead of the game, 24-21 with 13:40 left.

After a 27-yard Pinkney pass to Darryl Freeney, Pinkney ran a keeper down to the Tulane 34-yard line. The Pirates converted on third down for just the third time in the game, keeping the

NEW ORLEANS - Junior running back André Anderson ran for a career-high 157 yards and a touchdown and junior safety Corey Sonnier posted a career-high 10 tackles as the Tulane University football team used a complete-team effort to defeat Louisiana-Monroe, 24-10, Saturday afternoon in the Louisiana Superdome.

Anderson posted his first career 100-yard game, while sophomore quarterback Kevin Moore threw for a career-best 272 yards on 19-of-32 passing. Sonnier, meanwhile, paced a Green Wave (1-2) defense that posted four sacks on the day while limiting the Warhawks (1-3) to 182 yards of total offense. In addition, the Green Wave defense held ULM to a 1-for-10 performance in third-down conversions.

The Green Wave got off to a fast start as junior Jeremy Williams brought the opening kickoff back 44 yards, Moore connected with sophomore tight end Cody Sparks for a 37-yard gain on the first play from scrimmage, and Anderson scored from nine yards out three plays later to put Tulane on top 7-0 just 1:50 into the ballgame.

Two drives later, Tulane doubled its advantage when freshman running back Albert Williams took an end-around handoff from Moore, darted up the right sideline and broke a couple of tackles along the way for a 37-yard score. A 24-yard field goal by junior kicker Ross Thevenot put the Wave on top, 17-0, with seven seconds left in the first half to give the home team the lead at the break.

Junior cornerback Charles Harris thwarted UL-Monroe's first drive of the second half with an interception, but the Warhawks were able to put together a seven-play, 50-yard drive during their second possession to give kicker Radi Jabour the opportunity to split the uprights from 47-yards out to make it a 14-point ballgame.

The Tulane offense, however, all but sealed the win in the opening drive of the fourth quarter when Moore connected with Williams from 19 yards out to give the Green Wave a commanding 24-3 advantage. ULM cut the lead back to 14 with a 10-play, 74-yard drive on the ensuing possession, which culminated with a direct snap to Darrell McNeal for a four-yard touchdown, but that was the last time the Warhawks touched the football.

Tulane took over at its own 13 yard line following a Green Wave penalty with 5:36 left to play, and Anderson put the game away almost single-handedly. Anderson ran the ball on nine of the next 10 plays to account for 40 yards before Moore took a knee twice to spark the home team's celebration.

Anderson's rushing total came on a career-best 38 carries, which ranks tied for fifth in Tulane single-game history. He also hauled in a pair of passes for 20 yards to give him 177 yards of total offense for the day.

Williams led the Green Wave aerial attack with six receptions for 49 yards and a score,

Game 4 • Tulane vs SMU

Louisiana Superdome • New, Orleans, La.

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
SMU	0	7	6	14	27
Tulane	10	21	0	3	34

NEW ORLEANS - Junior RB André Anderson ran for a career-best 219 yards and sophomore QB Kevin Moore posted the first three-touchdown performance of his career as Tulane defeated Conference USA foe SMU, 34-27, at the Louisiana Superdome. The Green Wave scored 31 points in the first half courtesy of Moore's three scoring strikes, an Anderson touchdown jaunt and a 32-yard field goal by junior Ross Thevenot to take a 24-point lead into the locker room at the break. In the second half, the Mustangs rallied for a pair of touchdown passes by Bo Levi Mitchell and two field goals by Thomas Morestead. The first-half advantage, however, proved to be the difference in the ballgame.

For the third consecutive week, Anderson was the Green Wave's workhorse as he carried the ball 36 times and finished the day with 257 all-purpose yards - the seventh-most in Tulane single-game history - after hauling in four passes for another 38 yards through the air.

Ninety-three of his rushing yards came in the first half on 17 carries, while Anderson galloped for another 126 yards after halftime. With Tulane clinging to a seven-point lead late in the ballgame, Anderson put the game away with a 40-yard run to give the Green Wave a first down, which allowed the team to run out the clock.

Moore's favorite target on the evening was junior WR Jeremy Williams, who hauled in six passes for 124 yards and two touchdowns. Williams' 51-yard touchdown reception two and a half minutes into the second quarter put Tulane on top 17-0, but SMU got on the board just over two minutes later when Mustang QB Bo Levi Mitchell found Aldrick Robinson streaking down the left sideline for a 45-yard scoring strike.

The Green Wave responded with a six-play, 71-yard drive on the ensuing possession with culminated on a one-yard touchdown plunge by Anderson, and Moore found Williams again - this time from 21 yards out - with 2:15 remaining in the first half to give Tulane a commanding 31-7 lead.

The second half, however, was a much different ballgame as SMU capitalized on a pair of Tulane turnovers to claw their way back into the ballgame. A fumble on the opening possession of the third quarter led to a 25-yard Morestead field goal. Tulane had something going on its next drive, but SMU LB Justin Smart cut a route at the Mustang 10 yard line, and that led Morestead's second field goal of the stanza.

SMU's defense forced a Tulane punt, and the Mustang offense methodically moved 80 yards on six plays to cut the lead to 11 when Mitchell found Emmanuel Sanders from 18 yards out to make it a 31-20 ballgame. Tulane stretched the lead back to 14 on a 43-yard Thevenot field goal with 4:01 left in the game, but Levi connected

NEW ORLEANS - In the Green Wave's first game at Tad Gormley Stadium in four years, the Tulane football team was out-rushed 291-156 as the Army Black Knights rolled to a 44-13 win Saturday in front of a crowd of 23,749 outdoors in City Park. Junior running back André Anderson was over 100 yards for the third straight game, finishing with 107 yards on 21 carries with a touchdown, but the Wave couldn't overcome four turnovers and a pair of blocked kicks.

The Green Wave (2-3) gave up a season-high 291 yards rushing against the option offense of the Black Knights (1-4). Army attempted just five passes on the afternoon. Senior fullback Collin Mooney led the Black Knights with 187 yards on 19 carries and four touchdowns.

Army intercepted three Tulane passes, as the Green Wave could only find the end zone twice. Quarterback Kevin Moore was 22-of-35 on the day for 273 yards and a touchdown, but threw a pair of picks as Tulane fell to an unranked opponent for the first time this season.

Running the option, Army quarterback Chip Bowden attempted just five passes, completing four for 39 yards, and ran for another 51 yards.

Army got on the board in the first quarter after blocking a Tulane punt to take over deep in Green Wave territory. Collin Mooney accounted for all 22 yards on the drive, capping it with a four-yard touchdown for a 7-0 lead.

The Black Knights then forced a fumble by Moore, and Stephen Anderson scooped it up and returned it 81 yards for a touchdown with 5:24 to go in the first.

Mooney added a two-yard run to end a 42-yard drive, but Tulane corner Chinonso Echebelum blocked the PAT. Army added a 22-yard field goal with 5:38 to go in the first half for a 23-0 lead.

The Green Wave answered with a 73-yard drive, consuming 3:19 and punctuated by André Anderson's 1-yard touchdown plunge.

In the second half, the Wave opened with an onside kick attempt, but the Black Knights came away with good field position. The Tulane defense was able to force a three-and-out. On the ensuing Green Wave drive, Tulane threw an interception at midfield, but was bailed out by the defense again, which held Army on fourth-down at the 39 yard line.

Tulane then drove 61-yards to pay dirt, as Moore found Jeremy Williams for a 49-yard touchdown reception. The two-point conversion failed, as Army led 23-13 with 7:30 to go in the third quarter.

After holding the Black Knights, Dominique Dade set up the Wave at midfield with a 23-yard punt return to the Tulane 41. But the Tulane field goal attempt was blocked, and on the ensuing drive, Mooney scored on a 35-yard scamper for his third touchdown to make it 30-13.

Army's Rod Murray picked off a Moore pass in the end zone with 6:44 left in the game to seal the win for the Black Knights, who then added Mooney's 10-yard touchdown run for his fourth score. Frank Scappaticci intercepted a pass on Tulane's next drive, and returned it 35-yards to complete the rout.

Tulane committed 10 penalties, accounting for 89 yards.

Jeremy Williams was Tulane's leading receiver with 81 yards on three catches. Anderson added six catches for 59 yards.

El Paso, Texas - André Anderson rushed for a career-high 255 yards and two touchdowns, the fourth most yards in a game in Tulane's history, but the UTEP Miners had the last word with a 24-21 win Saturday night at the Sun Bowl. The Miners' Trevor Vittatoe found Jeff Moturi for a 68-yard touchdown late in the fourth quarter to give the Miners a 24-21 victory.

Anderson racked up 255 yards on 29 carries, the second 200-yard rushing game of his career. Only Matt Forte has ever rushed for more yards in a single game. He also added a 28-yard touchdown reception, with four catches.

The Miners converted on seven of 14 third down tries, the most the Green Wave have given up all season. Vittatoe completed 21 of 32 attempts for 296 yards and three touchdowns for the Miners.

UTEP opened the game with an 80-yard touchdown drive, highlighted by a 53-yard pass from Trevor Vittatoe to Donavon Kemp down to the two yard line. On fourth and goal, Vittatoe found Landon Goodwell for his first career catch and a one-yard touchdown for a 7-0 Miners lead.

On fourth and seven, UTEP lined up for a 40-yard field goal and holder Kyle Wright rushed to the marker, but not over it as Tulane took over on downs.

Anderson broke a 72-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 7-7. The Green Wave used four plays to go 83 yards, and give Anderson his fourth straight game with a rushing TD.

The Green Wave's David Kirksey forced a fumble, which Dominique Dade recovered for Tulane in UTEP territory. Anderson then ran in a one-yard touchdown, capping a four-play, 24-yard drive, highlighted by Kevin Moore 14-yard catch, his first career reception. Brian King's found Moore for his first career completion on his first career passing attempt. On the ensuing drive, the Miners travelled 80 yards on 11 plays, scoring on an eight-yard pass from Vittatoe to Daniel Palmer to tie the game at 14-14 with 9:00 to go in the first half.

Anderson took the first play from scrimmage on the next drive and hustled 53 yards to the UTEP 27. On third and 11, Anderson took a screen pass 28 yards to the house, accounting for 81 yards on the 80-yard drive, giving the Green Wave a 21-14 lead. Tulane took that lead into the half. After a Tulane punt, UTEP converted another third-down to keep a drive alive, and then Jose Martinez hit a 28-yard field goal to cut the margin to 21-17.

Freshman fullback Kasey Stelly caught a pair of passes on the next drive, giving him a career-high in reception yards, but the Green Wave 45-yard field goal attempt was blown away in the rainy conditions. The Green Wave defense forced a UTEP punt, taking over at the Tulane 40, but the drive stalled with 5:13 to go at the UTEP 43 yard line. The Miners took over at their own 20, and drove 80 yards in just two plays and 44 seconds.

Vittatoe found Jeff Moturi for a 68-yard touchdown deep down the middle to give the Miners a 24-21 lead with 4:22 remaining.

Anderson moved the Green Wave to midfield, but the Green Wave failed to convert on third and five, and on fourth and five at the 50.

The Miners ran down the clock behind Donald Buckram, who finished with 107 yards on 19 attempts. Tulane forced a punt, but the Miners downed it at the Tulane one yard line with 14 seconds remaining. The Green Wave moved the ball 25 yards before time expired.

2008 Game Recaps

Game 7 • Tulane vs Rice

Louisiana Superdome • New Orleans, La.

Oct. 25, 2008 • 17,841

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
Rice	21	14	7	0	42
Tulane	0	0	10	7	17

NEW ORLEANS - Despite a strong second half, Tulane couldn't overcome a poor start in a 42-17 loss to Rice. Redshirt freshman QB Joe Kemp completed 14 of 20 attempts for 201 yards and two touchdowns, all career highs and all in the second half, but the Green Wave couldn't overcome a 35-0 halftime deficit.

Rice quarterback Chase Clement racked up 168 yards through the air, on 20-of-25 with two touchdowns, and added 57 yards rushing and two scores on eight carries. Rice's C.J. Ugokwe carried the ball 18 times for 118 yards, his first career 100-yard rushing game, with one touchdown. Rice improves to 5-3 overall, and 4-1 in Conference USA, while Tulane falls to 2-5, 1-3 in C-USA.

The Owls jumped all over Tulane early, scoring on four of their first five possessions, while its defense held Tulane to just three yards in the first quarter, and 161 in the first half.

Kemp guided the Green Wave to a 17-7 advantage in the second half. Wide receiver Brian King grabbed seven balls for a career-high 103 yards. Casey Robottom added three catches for 66 yards, including a 42-yard touchdown. Nathan Austin added five grabs for 73 yards and led Tulane on the ground with 25 yards on 13 carries. Junior André Anderson had four first quarter carries for 12 yards but did not return to play the second half.

On the opening drive, Tulane's Devin Holland intercepted Clement, returning it 10 yards to the Rice 43-yard line. But the Owls forced a Green Wave punt. Rice then drove 95 yards on 16 plays, taking 8:48 off the clock before Clement found James Casey for a seven-yard TD strike. After the Wave went three-and-out, Rice quickly moved the ball down the field for a four-play, 60-yard drive in 1:26. Clement ran a quarterback keeper for a nine-yard touchdown run and a 14-0 lead. Tulane fumbled the kickoff, and Rice's Brandon Tolbert recovered to give the Owls a first and 10 from the 17. It took one play for Clement to find Casey on a slant pattern and his second touchdown grab of the day. Tulane picked up a first down on an 11-yard completion from Moore to Alan Mitchell. But then Moore threw an interception on the next play as Tulane attempted a flea-flicker pass. The Wave had an apparent sack on Clement, but Tulane was called for a facemask penalty when Clements helmet popped off on the tackle. The seven-yard loss turned into a 15-yard gain for the Owls, and after a 21-yard run by C.J. Ugokwe, Clement ran the ball in from six yards out to cap the drive.

The Green Wave moved the ball 26 yards on eight plays before punting, and the Owls punted the ball back from midfield. On fourth and one from their own 11-yard line, Tulane's Logan Kelley took a direct snap in punt formation, and surged ahead three yards on the fake punt for a Tulane first down on his first career rush. Nathan Austin took a screen pass 49 yards down to the Rice 20. But on the very next play, Robert Calhoun intercepted Moore at the 17-yard line.

After a Rice punt, Tulane moved the ball to the 23-yard line with two seconds left in the half, but Scott Solomon blocked the field goal attempt and Rice's Chris Jones scooped it up and took it 55 yards to the house for a 35-0 halftime lead.

In the second half, Kemp took over for Tulane and completed two of his first three attempts, moving the Green Wave down into Rice territory, setting up a 42-yard field goal by Ross Thevenot.

Kemp moved Tulane downfield after a Rice punt, hooking up with Robottom for a 42-yard touchdown. It was the longest completion and first touchdown of Kemp's career, and tied Robottom's career-long reception.

The Owls answered back as Casey ran for 47 yards on a third-and-one keeper, and Ugokwe punched it in from eight yards out.

Tulane drove 53 yards, highlighted by Kemp's 24-yard pass to Brian King down to the Rice six-yard line. But the Owls stopped Tulane at the one, taking over on downs with 11:11 to go in the game. After forcing Rice to go three-and-out, Kemp hit Albert Williams for an 18-yard touchdown pass off a screen. Williams' first career TD made it 42-17 with 6:45 to go.

The Green Wave defense held Rice again, and the Green Wave played its second-team in their remaining possession, a four-play, six-yard drive. Tulane's defensive backups then played the final 3:18.

Game 8 • Tulane vs LSU

Tiger Stadium • Baton Rouge, La.

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
Tulane	3	0	0	7	10
LSU	7	14	7	7	35

BATON ROUGE, La. - The Tulane Green Wave were held to 159 yards of total offense, falling to No. 15 Louisiana State, 35-10, Saturday night at Tiger Stadium. Tulane's Travis Burks returned an interception 43 yards for the Green Wave's lone touchdown.

Burks, a junior linebacker, added three kickoff returns for 62 yards and a sack to go with two solo and two assisted tackles, but the Green Wave offense was kept out of the end zone all game.

LSU's Charles Scott rushed for 114 yards and a touchdown as LSU gained 235 yards on the ground to Tulane's 69. Tulane held LSU to 8-of-20 passing for 99 yards through the air, but the Wave completed 11-of-23 for only 91 yards.

The Green Wave fall to 2-6 overall, while LSU improves to 6-2 overall. The paid attendance of 92,136 was the second-highest in a game featuring the Green Wave, behind only Tulane's season opener at Alabama.

Tulane trailed by just 7-3 with three minutes to go in the first half, before the Tigers put in a touchdown pass and then returned a fumble for a touchdown just before halftime to seize control, 21-3 at intermission. The second half was defensive battle until the final minutes when LSU punched in a rushing touchdown.

"We lost to a really good football team. They are a good team and they are really physical," head coach Bob Toledo said. "I think we played as hard as we could have played, we just made too many mistakes. The turning point - if there was one - was when they took that fumble return in for a touchdown just before the half. Instead of a close game at the half, all the sudden we're down 21-3."

After Tulane went three-and-out on the opening possession, Scott drove the Tigers downfield by rushing for 79 of the Tigers' 86 yards on the drive. He broke a 56-yarder to move into Tulane territory, and then capped the drive with a seven-yard touchdown run.

The Green Wave moved into LSU territory on a 22-yard run by Albert Williams. Alan Mitchell's first career rush picked up 13 yards on an end-around, and gave Tulane a first down at the LSU 28. But the drive stalled, as the Green Wave settled for a 48-yard field goal by Ross Thevenot, tying the longest of his career.

Tulane forced an LSU punt, and after switching ends at the start of the second quarter, the Green Wave picked up a pair of first downs, one via trick play which led to a pass interference penalty. On back-to-back plays, Tulane tried quarterback sneaks, but didn't get the spot, turning it over on downs at the LSU 39 yard line.

The two teams traded punts, and LSU rode Scott down to the red zone, where Jarrett Lee found Brandon LaFell crossing in the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown and a 14-3 lead. After kicking off, LSU's Rahim Alem stripped Tulane quarterback Joe Kemp and Chris Hawkins returned it 24 yards for a touchdown.

Scott rushed for 114 yards in the first half, as LSU out-gained Tulane 174 to 107 in total offense in the first half.

In the second half, LaFell hauled in a 29-yard catch giving the Tigers first and goal, and LSU's Keiland Williams ran in the touchdown from three yards out for a 28-3 lead. LSU had a short field to go as the Wave attempted an on-side kick to open the half.

The Green Wave moved the ball 67 yards to the LSU 14, but missed a 31-yard field goal. LSU answered back with a drive down to the Tulane 30, but Logan Kelley recorded a 21-yard sack and the Green Wave forced a punt before the end of the third quarter.

Tulane thought it had a turnover when Philip Davis leveled the LSU punt returner as the ball arrived, but Trindon Holliday was ruled down before Davis wrestled the ball away. The Tigers drive to the 34 yard line, going for it on fourth down with a 28-3 lead, but Davis broke up the attempted pass as Tulane took over on downs.

The Green Wave punted, and Burks made two key plays on the next drive, first sacking Lee for a 12-yard loss and then intercepting Lee's third down attempt and taking it 43-yards to the house to cut the margin to 28-10.

Tulane held the Tigers to force a punt, but the Wave could get nothing going offensively, giving the ball back to LSU, which ran in a touchdown by Stevan Ridley with 1:18 to pile on the Green Wave.

HOUSTON - The Houston duo of quarterback Case Keenum and running back Bryce Beall combined for over 500 yards to lead the Cougars over the visiting Green Wave, 42-14 in front of 23,522 at Robertson Stadium. Beall racked up 176 yards on 21 carries and scored three touchdowns, while Keenum finished the night, 29-40 with 384 yards in the air with four touchdowns.

Tulane (2-7, 1-4 C-USA) dropped its fifth straight game and suffered its third consecutive at Houston. Freshman running back Nathan Austin scored both of the Green Wave touchdowns, both of which came courtesy of a Houston turnover. Houston improved to 5-4 overall this season and 4-1 in Conference USA play.

"We played against a good football team tonight and we are a beat up and banged up squad," Tulane head coach Bob Toledo said. "We had a hard time scoring points and we are not stopping anyone right now so that's a bad combination. We had a chance to put some points on the board but we missed field goals and didn't score when we did get into the red zone. Defensively, we couldn't stop them and get them off the field. They had nearly 700 yards of total offense. We just couldn't stop them.

They did everything we practiced, both offensively and defensively. We ran some special plays to manufacture points and that didn't work either. We're a struggling football team right now. Our quarterback (Joe Kemp) broke his collar bone so we're a pretty decimated group as far as injuries go."

The Cougars offensive attack started early as they got on the board in the first possession. Beall skirted into the end zone with 8:34 to go in the first quarter on a six-play, 67-yard scoring drive. A Ben Bell kick completed the PAT attempt for the Cougars and they led 7-0 through the first quarter.

Tulane answered back early in the second quarter when linebacker David Skehan picked up his fifth career fumble, knocked loose by Corey Sonnier, and returned it five yards into Houston territory. The Green Wave offense took over and freshman Nathan Austin recorded his first career touchdown when he scored from 11 yards out to put Tulane on the board with 10:03 in the second quarter, and tied the game at 7-7.

The Cougars regained the lead on their next possession after Tyron Carrier returned Thevenot's kickoff 40 yards to the Houston 41-yard line to begin what would become a seven-play scoring drive. Keenum found Beall in the end zone for a 19-yard TD with 6:33 left in the first half. Bell's kick put Houston up 14-7.

Following a defensive stop, Houston capped off a 68-yard scoring drive when Beall scampered into the end zone after a pass interference call on Tulane gave Houston a first down on the Green Wave 2-yard line. Bell's kick was good and the Cougars extended their lead 21-7 with 3:27 to go in the first half.

Junior Travis Burks tallied his second career interception after picking off a Keenum pass with 31 seconds remaining in the first half. Burks returned the ball back for 31 yards, the second consecutive game in which he picked off a pass. Burks ran back an interception for a 42-yard touchdown last week against LSU.

The Cougars opened the second half with a four-play, 87-yard scoring drive that culminated in a 38-yard touchdown pass. Keenum found Chaz Rodriguez in the end zone and Bell's PAT kick was good, lengthening Houston's lead 28-7 with 13:31 to go in the third quarter.

Keenum became the first quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Green Wave this season when he found Mark Hafner in the end zone for a four-yard score with 3:31 to go in the third quarter. Bell's PAT attempt was good and Houston extended their lead 35-7. Trevor Vittatoe of UTEP

NEW ORLEANS -Tulane's last home game of the season didn't prove to be lucky as the Green Wave fell to the UAB Blazers, 41-24 Saturday afternoon in the Superdome, dropping their sixth straight to fall to 2-8 (1-5 in C-USA). Tulane honored their 16 seniors prior to kickoff of the Conference USA match up. The 2008 graduating football class is made up of Michael Batiste, James Dillard, Scott Elliott, Jordan Ellis, Craig Gelhardt, Justin Kessler, Brian King, Troy Kropog, Evan Lee, Josh Lumar, Michael Parenton, Reggie Scott, Julian Shives-Sams and David Skehan. Chris Dunn and Matt Harding joined the group as both players are seniors in their degree field.

As pregame honors wrapped up, UAB got down to business, scoring early and often. The Blazers got on the board first when quarterback Joe Webb led his offense 96 yards in 10 plays. Webb, who carried the ball 18 times for 130 yards, picked up 31 yards to get UAB in the end zone with 8:23 left in the first quarter. Swayze Waters' kick put the Blazers up 7-0.

Redshirt freshman J.T. McDonald scored his first collegiate touchdown on the next drive to put Tulane on the board. Ross Thevenot's PAT kick tied the game 7-7 with 4:02. McDonald, a redshirt freshman, surpassed his career carries and rushing yards in a game, finishing the contest with 12 carries for 41 yards, as well as setting new personal bests in a game for receptions (3) and receiving yards (67).

The Green Wave couldn't contain the Blazers' offense, as running back Rashaud Slaughter (15 carries for 58 yards) found the end zone on a 1-yard run with 9:09 left in the first half. The PAT kick was good to give UAB the advantage, 14-7.

"I feel like a broken record. A few things, first of all and they were obvious the turnovers hurt us," head coach Bob Toledo said. "The interceptions really put us in a bind and they ran one back for a touchdown, and they ran one back to the six-yard line. Earlier we had a guy open, but we threw to the wrong side and it got intercepted, and then we had a bunch of ball dropped and that doesn't help you. It takes you out of drives. Kevin (Moore) threw the ball probably as well as he has in a month. When you put the ball on the money, guys have to catch it. That's their job.

"The other thing is defensively, we didn't do a very good job of containing their run," Toledo added. "We had an opportunity to sack their quarterback several times, but he broke tackles behind the line of scrimmage. We missed way too many tackles."

The scoring seesaw continued when McDonald recorded his first collegiate touchdown reception on a 27-yard pass from Tulane quarterback Kevin Moore with 6:07 left in the first half. The PAT kick was good and Tulane tied the contest, 14-14. Two minutes later, a Blazer 41-yard field goal off the foot of Waters gave UAB a three yard cushion, 17-14, with 4:05 left to play in the first half.

The Blazers got their offense going again in the second half on a 3-yard run from Webb. The PAT kick was good, lifting UAB 24-14 with 9:14 left in the third quarter but McDonald wasn't finished visiting the end zone, running in for the score from 13 yards out with 6:47 left in the third quarter of play for his third TD of the game. The score brought Tulane within three, 24-21. The last Tulane player to score three touchdowns in a game was junior running back André Anderson on October 11, 2008 against UTEP.

UAB answered back on the ensuing drive when Webb scampered in on a 2-yard rush after taking the Blazers 65 yards on 11 plays. Webb, who finished the night 15-of-21 passing with 154 yards, extended the Blazers lead 31-21 with 1:44 left in the third quarter.

But Tulane got a chance to put some more points on the board with the help of place kicker Thevenot, who booted a career-long 50-yard field goal. The kick brought the Green Wave within seven, 31-24, with 12:10 left in the contest. The last time a Green Wave kicker connected for a 50-yard field goal was also against the Blazers, on October 23, 2004 by Nick Beucher.

Tulane got another chance to close the gap when junior defensive back Charles Harris recovered a fumble knocked loose by Justin Adams. The fumble recovery was the first in Harris' career. The Green Wave got the ball on the UAB 45 yard line but couldn't convert it into a score and turned the ball over on downs four plays later, which lead to a Blazers field goal, putting them up 34-24 with 5:28 to go in the game. The Blazers scored again when Matt Taylor picked off Moore's pass and ran it 36 yards into the end zone, extending UAB's lead. The PAT was good, making it 41-24 with 3:34 left in the game, but that was the Blazers needed to close out the contest and take control of the series against Tulane 4-3.

The Green Wave will travel to Tulsa next Saturday to take on the Golden Hurricane. Kickoff is slated for 2pm.

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
Tulane	0	7	0	0	7
Tulsa	14	14	21	7	56

Tulsa, Okla.-Tulane senior safety David Skehan intercepted two passes and recorded a career-high 11 tackles, but it wasn't enough as Tulsa running back Tarrion Adams rushed for a school-record 323 yards and the Golden Hurricane amassed 489 yards on the ground to hand Tulane a 56-7 setback in front of 20,391 at H.A. Chapman Stadium.

Tulane (2-9, 1-6 C-USA) trailed Tulsa (9-2, 6-1 C-USA) 14-7 in the first quarter before the Golden Hurricane's high powered offense began rolling up the yards and the points. TU surrendered the most points since a 55-7 setback to No. 7 Louisville in the 2004 season finale at the Superdome.

"Over the course of the week, we talked to the team about their (Tulsa) ability to run the ball. People think all they can do is throw the football and they are a wide open throw team, but they can run the football. They mauled us pretty good and one of their kid (Tarrion Adams) rushed for over 300 hundred yards. They ran the ball at will today. We got two interceptions, but our offense couldn't capitalize on them."

Tulsa took the opening kickoff and marched down the field using a nine-play, 86-yard drive that culminated with a two-yard touchdown pass from quarterback David Johnson to tight end Jake Collums on a fourth and goal play from the two-yard line.

On the ensuing possession, Tulane ran off a 10-play, 35-yard drive and faced a 4th and one at the Tulsa 29. TU elected to go for it for the second time on fourth down during the drive and appeared to gain a new set of downs when running back J.T. McDonald fell past the marker. However, the ball was marked back one-yard short and Tulsa gained possession of the ball on downs.

The Hurricane took advantage of the Wave's miscue and used a 10-play, 64-yard drive to take a 14-0 lead in the opening period when A.J. Whitmore lined up in the Wildcat formation from three yards out, ran right and was stopped at the one-yard line, but Whitmore simply stretched his arms out with the ball and broke the plane for the score.

The Green Wave got on the board early in the second quarter when McDonald found pay dirt on a one-yard run that capped a 13-play, 68-yard drive and pulled TU to within seven points, 14-7. The big plays on the drive were a 17-yard pass from Kevin Moore to Brian King and a 19-yard grab by senior Michael Batiste that set up Tulane at the one-year line.

Tulsa rode the legs of Adams on its next scoring drive. Adams, who topped the century mark in the second quarter, totaled 38 yards on the ground during the drive and David Johnson hit Demaris Johnson on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 11:18 remaining in the second quarter to complete the seven-play, 58-yard drive and increase the score to 21-7.

Adams continued to churn up the yards late in the second quarter. He finished an 8-play, 90-yard drive with a five-yard touchdown run with 2:48 remaining in the second quarter to give Tulsa a 28-7 lead.

Following a Tulane three and out to open the third quarter, Tulsa put together a 7-play, 70-yard drive that was capped by Jamad Williams' seven-yard touchdown run. During the drive, Adams continued to run wild and surpassed the 200-yard mark 20-yard scamper to begin the drive.

The Golden Hurricane struck again following a fumble by TU's Alan Mitchell after he had hauled in a pass from Moore. Tulsa needed just two plays to reach the end zone and David Johnson found Demaris Johnson on a 28-yard scoring strike with 9:50 remaining in the third quarter.

Tulane was once again forced to punt on its next drive and the Hurricane duo of Adams and Williams combined for 65 yards on the ground during a four-play drive that concluded with a 39-yard burst by Williams. The score was the second of the day by Williams.

Memphis, Tenn.- The Tulane football team had hoped to close out their season with a victory on Saturday against Memphis, but the hosting Tigers had other plans, as they downed the Green Wave 45-6 at the Liberty Bowl.

The Tigers' offense starting rolling early, as they marched 84 yards down field and scored on a 13-yard run by senior Maurice Jones. The play originally ruled Jones down at the one yard line but was called for review to determine if Jones crossed the plane. Officials took a second look and ruled it a touchdown, getting the Tigers (4-4 in Conference USA, 6-6 overall) on the board first with 8:51 left in the first quarter. A PAT kick from Matt Reagan made it 7-0 in favor of Memphis.

Memphis got the ball back with 7:17 after recovering a Green Wave fumble on the Tulane 40-yard line. The Tigers needed only six plays to move the ball into the end zone, finishing with a nine yard run from Curtis Steele. Reagan's PAT kick was good and the Tigers extended their lead 14-0 with 2:39 to play in the first quarter.

On the ensuing drive, Kevin Moore's pass was intercepted by Michael Grandberry at the Memphis 31-yard line and the Tigers took control of the ball again. The Tigers moved the ball to the Tulane 36-yard line, where Memphis' Steven Black took the snap and ran into the end zone, and the Tigers pulled ahead with the PAT kick, 21-0 as the second quarter got underway.

After receiving the kickoff, Tulane got their first first down of the game on a 39 yard reception from Moore to senior Brian King, bringing the ball to the Memphis 38-yard line. Moore connected with King two plays later to pick up another first down, after a 16 yard reception brought the ball to the Tigers' 21 yard line. Senior Scott Elliott replaced Moore, who was injury on the play, at the quarterback position and handed off to freshman Nathan Austin on consecutive plays. Austin picked up eight yards and moved the ball to the 13-yard line. The Memphis defense denied the Green Wave, blocking their field goal attempt from the four-yard line with 8:35 left in the first half.

The Tigers scored again upon regaining possession of the football. Memphis moved the ball 80 yards on 12 plays before Black scampered into the end zone from two yards out. A PAT kick made it 28-0 with 2:50 to play in the second quarter.

The Tigers opened the second half receiving the Tulane kickoff and drove 68 yards down field before Reagan kicked a 22-yard field goal to put the Tigers up 31-0.

The Green Wave offense tried to get something going on their next possession when Michael Batiste caught an 11-yard pass from Moore to get a Tulane first down. Freshman JT McDonald picked up eight yards on the next carry, bringing the ball to the Tigers' 47-yard line. Moore took the snap from center Michael Parenton and pitched to Casey Robottom. Robottom threw downfield back to Moore and the Green Wave picked up another first down on the Memphis 37-yard line. Austin carried the ball for another yard before Moore found tight end Cody Sparks for a 28-yard reception, bringing the ball to the Memphis eight-yard line.

Robottom took the ball into the end zone for his first collegiate touchdown on the following play to get Tulane on the board. The PAT kick was wide left and it was 6-0 with 4:09 left in the third quarter. Tulane has not been shutout in a game in the last 76 games, a streak dating back to Sept. 28, 2002 at No. 3 Texas (49-0). Not to be outdone, the Tigers answered with a score of their own on a rush from Black after a nine-play drive brought the ball to the one yard line. Black scampered in with 56 seconds left in the third quarter. Reagan's PAT kick was good and the Tigers were up 38-6.

Memphis capped off the game with one final score when the Tigers' Brandon Ross found the end zone from one yard out. Reagan's PAT kick was good and the Tigers sealed the victory 45-6.

The Green Wave finishes the season 1-7 in Conference USA action, 2-10 overall and will graduate 16 seniors: Michael Batiste, James Dillard, Scott Elliott, Jordan Ellis, Craig Gelhardt, Justin Kessler, Brian King, Troy Kropog, Evan Lee, Josh Lumar, Michael Parenton, Reggie Scott, Julian Shives-Sams and David Skehan. Chris Dunn and Matt Harding join the group, as both players are seniors in their degree field.
