TULANE CONTINUES ROAD SWING AT UCF IN ORLANDO THIS SATURDAY

• The Tulane football team (3-7, 1-5 C-USA) takes to the road for the second straight week when the team battles Conference USA rival UCF (6-4, 4-2 C-USA) this Saturday at 1 p.m. from Bright House Networks Stadium in Orlando, Fla.

TU is playing the second contest in a three-game road swing to conclude the 2009 campaign. The Wave stumbled out of the gates last week with a 28-20 loss to Rice in Houston. Following this Saturday's outing, Tulane will wrap up the season against SMU in Dallas on November 28 at 2 p.m.

With its loss at Rice, Tulane is 1-3 on the road this season, but is 0-2 away from home during league play after falling at Southern Miss. The Wave will look to snap a six-game road skid in C-USA play on Saturday. Tulane's last win on the road in conference play was at Rice in 2007 (45-31).

WNOL/NOLA 38 TO BROADCAST TULANE'S FINAL TWO GAMES

• WNOL/NOLA 38 will broadcast Tulane's final two games of the 2009 season in the New Orleans area. On Saturday, November 21st, WNOL will broadcast the Green Wave game against UCF from Orlando, Fla., at 1p.m. (CT). On Saturday, November 28th, WNOL will broadcast Tulane's game against the SMU Mustangs at 2p.m. (CT) from Dallas, Texas.

By the time Tulane and SMU complete their game next week, the Green Wave will have played nine of their 12 games on television this season.

WILLIAMS, ANDERSON ON THE DOORSTEP OF RARE HISTORY AT TULANE

• When the Green Wave takes the field this Saturday against UCF, a pair of Tulane players will have a chance to accomplish a feat that has never been done in the 116-year history of the TU football program.

Senior Jeremy Williams enters the game with 992 receiving yards this season, while classmate Andre Anderson opens the contest with 913 rushing yards in 2009. With eight yards, Williams will become just the fifth Tulane receiver to surpass the 1,000-yard receiving plateau, while Anderson needs 87 yards to rush for 1,000 yards this season.

If both players surpass the 1,000-yard mark in their respective categories, it will make the first time in school history the Green Wave has had a 1,000 yard rusher and 1,000 yard receiver in a single season.

ANDERSON READY TO RUN INTO HISTORY BOOKS

• Andre Anderson continues his run into the Tulane record books and will have an opportunity to leave his name among the school's single season rushers if he can gain 87 yards on the ground this Saturday at UCF.

Anderson has 913 rushing yards this season and would become just the fourth player in the history of Tulane football to surpass the 1,000-yard mark in a single season. Anderson would join Matt Forte (2,127 in 2007), Mewelde Moore (1,421 in 2001/1,128 in 2002) and Eddie Price (1,178 in 1948/1,137 in 1949).

WILLIAMS TAKING HIS PLACE AMONG TU'S TOP RECEIVERS

• Jeremy Williams career receiving numbers include 185 receptions for 2,686 yards and 17 touchdowns. He is fourth in Tulane career history in receiving yards, sixth in catches, and is tied for seventh in touchdown receptions with Wil Ursin (1990-93). In the single-season record book, Williams is in seventh place for catches (72) and ninth place in receiving yards (992).

NOTING THE GREEN WAVE

- Although he has only played in seven career games with four starts, Ryan Griffin has already cemented himself as one of the TU's most productive freshman quarterback. Griffin has completed 113-of-176 passing attempts for 1,099 yards and seven touchdowns and four interceptions. Only two freshmen quarterbacks have led the Wave in passing since freshman become eligible in 1970, including Shaun King (1,046 yards) in 1995 and Roch Hontas (697 yards) in 1976.

- Andre Anderson and Jeremy Williams posted 100-yard rushing and receiving days, respectively, for the second consecutive game last week against Rice with Anderson rushing for 135 yards, while Williams finished with 113 receiving yards. Two week's ago in the overtime win over UTEP, Anderson had 105 yards rushing while Williams had 139 receiving.

- Redshirt freshman Darryl Farley became the eighth freshmen to start a game for Tulane in 2009, joining true freshmen D.J. Banks (WR), Jordan Garrett (DB), Hunter Howden (OL), Zach Morgan (OL), Austen Jacks (LB) and Shakiel Smith (LB), and redshirt-freshman Ryan Griffin (QB).

- Senior Chinonso Echebelem leads the Wave in tackles with 9.3 per game (93 total; 58 solo), which ranks seventh among C-USA players and 30th nationally. He leads all C-USA players and ranks fifth nationally in forced fumbles with four.

- Senior Jeremy Williams has caught at least one pass in his last 23 games. The last time Williams failed to record a catch was against LSU on Sept. 29, 2007, in the Louisiana Superdome. During his current streak, Williams has hauled in at least three passes on 19 occasions.

- A quartet of Tulane players extended their double-digit starting streaks - junior OT Pete Hendrickson and senior DE Adam Kwentua with 20 straight each, junior WR Casey Robottom at 16 and senior WLB Travis Burks at 12.

ABOUT THE KNIGHTS

UCF (6-4, 4-2 C-USA East Division) came up with its biggest win of the season with a 37-32 victory over No. 12 Houston last week at home and has now won five out of its last seven contests with its two losses coming out of conference to #2 Texas (35-3) and #9 Miami (27-7). The Knights are 5-1 at home this season, including a perfect 3-0 on its home field in Conference USA play. UCF has not dropped a home C-USA game since a 15-0 setback to UAB in the 2008 finale.

Senior quarterback Brett Hodges has completed 60-percent of his pass attempts (141-of-235) and as 11 touchdowns and eight interceptions. Hodges was 21-of-25 for 241 yards and one score against the Cougars.

Sophomore running back Brynn Harvey has 818 yards and 10 touchdowns on 208 carries (3.9 ypc), and ran for 139 yards and three scores last week.

Sophomore A.J. Guyton has a team-best 32 receptions for 461 yards and one score, while junior Kamar Aiken has a team-high four receiving touchdowns.

Senior linebacker Cory Hogue leads the team in tackles with 82 (51 solo), while senior defensive end Jarvis Geathers has 10 sacks.

Green Wave Game Notes

SERIES & NOTES:

- Saturday's game marks the fourth all-time meeting between Tulane and UCF and the Knights hold a 2-1 advantage in the series.

- Tulane is making its third trip to Orlando to face the Knights, but will play its first game in UCF's Bright House Networks Stadium, which was completed prior to the 2007 season.

- The Green Wave captured a 10-9 come-from-behind victory over the Knights in the last meeting between the teams in the Louisiana Superdome during the 2006 season.

- TU and UCF have met just twice since the Knights joined Conference USA in 2005, including the first contest as league rivals in Orlando during the 2005 season, where UCF posted a 34-24 victory.

- The Wave and the Knights first met as non-conference opponents at the Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando during the 2001 campaign. UCF edged Tulane 36-29 in the inaugural meeting.

THE COACHES:

Tulane: Bob Toledo (San Francisco State, 1968) is in his third season as the head coach of the Green Wave. Toledo has an 9-25 mark at Tulane and a career record of 87-93 in 16 years as a Division I head coach. He became the 37th head coach in school history on Dec. 11, 2006, and has coached in 13 bowl games, including seven traditional New Year's Day bowls.

His previous head coaching stint was at UCLA (1996-2002), where he led the Bruins to two Pac-10 titles, a school-record 20-game win streak, two final top-10 national rankings and was twice named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year.

UCF: George O'Leary (New Hampshire, 1969) is in his sixth season at UCF and has a record of 32-40 at the school and an overall coaching mark of 84-73 in 13 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

Prior to UCF, O'Leary was the head coach at Georgia Tech from 1994-2001, serving as interim head coach for the final three games of the 1994 season. The 2000 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year at Georgia Tech, O'Leary was named ACC Coach of the Year for the Yellow Jackets in 1998 and 2000.

THIS-N-THAT ABOUT TULANE AND UCF

A win against UCF would...

- Give TU's Bob Toledo his 10th victory at Tulane and his 88th overall.
- Snap a six-game Conference USA road skid (last win at Rice in 2007, 45-31)
- Give Tulane its first-ever win in Orlando
- Give the Wave back-to-back wins over UCF
- Hand TU a 2-3 record this season in road games, including 1-2 in C-USA play
- Give Tulane a 4-7 mark, its best record through 11 games since 2007

A loss against UCF would...

- Drop Tulane to 1-4 on the road this season
- Extend TU's current C-USA road losing streak to seven straight
- Give the Wave its eighth loss
- Hand Tulane its third straight loss in Orlando since the teams first met in 2001
- Drop TU to 3-8 for the second time in the last three seasons

MOMMA I'M COMING HOME

- Five Tulane players will return to their home state this Saturday when the Wave takes on UCF in Orlando. Freshman Derrick Strozier, who is redshirting this season, is the lone of the six who is from Orlando. The remaining four are senior Tyler Rice (Bradenton), freshman Stephen Barnett (Jacksonville), junior Pete Hendrickson (Tampa) and freshman Austen Jacks (Winter Park).

GRIFFIN GROWING UP QUICKLY

- Although Tulane is just 1-3 with redshirt-freshman Ryan Griffin under center as the starting quarterback, the Green Wave's passing game has seen great improvement as the youngster quickly grows up.

During his four starts, Griffin has completed 90-of-139 attempts (.650) for 860 yards and six touchdowns. However, in his last two games, he has thrown for 539 yards and his six scores.

Through the first six games of the season, Tulane's passing game accounted for just four touchdowns.

TULANE'S SACK ATTACK COMES ALIVE

• After not posting a sack during a four-game stretch leading up to the LSU, the Tulane defense has now six sacks in the last three games, including a three-sack effort against UTEP. None, however, was bigger than Alex Wacha's sack of UTEP quarterback Trevor Vittatoe to end the ball game. The sack was the first of Wacha's career. Last week, senior Logan Kelley notched TU's lone sack at Rice.

TULANE'S ONE-TWO PUNCH OF ANDERSON, WILLIAMS

• The Tulane duo of Andre Anderson and Jeremy Williams has each played a key role in leading the Wave this season. To date, Anderson and Williams have totaled 2,675 (Williams- 1,555; Anderson- 1,120) all-purpose yards on 329 combined touches, or 8.1 yards per play.

	Anderson	Williams	Combined yards

2,675 Tulane's Team total of 4,640 yards (.576)

ROBOTOM ENJOYING BREAKOUT SEASON

• Although he plays opposite of Jeremy Williams, the team's leader in all-purpose yards and receiving, junior split end Casey Robottom is enjoying the best season of his collegiate career. Robottom entered the year with career numbers of 27 receptions for 385 yards and one touchdown. Through 10 games, Robottom has amassed 43 receptions for 512 yards (11.9 ypr) and two scores.

In his last three games, Robottom has grabbed 22 receptions for 237 yards and one score. Last week, he hauled in a career-best eight receptions for 91 yards and a touchdown.

Robottom snagged seven receptions at No. 9 LSU for 63 yards and hauled in seven more passes against UTEP for 83 yards. He ranks second on the team in both receptions and yards.

WILLIAMS PLAYS HIS WAY ON TO BILETNIKOFF LIST

• Tulane senior flanker Jeremy Williams is among the top-20 receivers listed on the Biletnikoff Award Watch List, which is presented annually to the nation's top receiver, for his performance this season.

Williams has 72 receptions for 992 (13.8) yards and five touchdowns, and he has four 100-yard and one 200-yard receiving games. He currently ranks first among C-USA players and seventh nationally for receiving yards per game with 99.20, while his 7.20 receptions per game is third in the league and 11th nationally.

THIRD DOWN'S THE CHARM

• Tulane entered the UTEP game converting 42 percent of its third down opportunities (45/108). However, third down proved to be the difference in the victory over the Miners as the Wave converted 11-of-17 third down (.650) chances. Last week, Tulane converted 8-of-17 chances, including 4-of-6 in the first half. For the year, TU has converted 45 percent (64-of-142) of its third down opportunities.

TU'S ANDERSON, PODET NAMED TO ALL-DISTRICT VI FIRST TEAM

• Seniors Andre Anderson and Adam Podet have each been named to the ESPN The Magazine All-District VI first team, as announced by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Both Anderson and Podet are now candidates for academic All-America honors.

A native of Stone Mountain, Ga., Anderson is pursuing a bachelor's degree in computer information systems and has maintained a 3.506 grade point average.

Podet, who hails from Houston, Texas, holds a 3.609 GPA and is on course for his bachelor's degree in cell and molecular biology. He is a former walk-on who earned a scholarship for his senior season. Podet is the lead author on a research book focusing on the dependency of Ritalin, a drug commonly used to curb attention deficit disorder.

WILLIAMS, ANDERSON RECEIVE POST-SEASON INVITES

• Senior Jeremy Williams has received invitations to play in both the Under Armour Senior Bowl and the 2010 East-West Shrine game, while fellow classmate Andre Anderson has been selected to the East-West Shrine game as well.

Williams and Anderson are the 15th and 16th Tulane players, respectively, to receive an invitation to play in the East-West Shrine game since 1937, and the first since quarterback Lester Ricard in 2007. With their invitations, Anderson and Williams are the third Tulane duo to be selected in the same season to the event, joining Charles Hall and John Washington in 1974 and Tommy O'Boyle and Bob Glass in 1941.

Williams is the 44th Tulane player to earn an invitation to the Senior Bowl since its inception in 1950, and the ninth TU player since 2000.

The 61st Annual Senior Bowl, taking place on Saturday, January 30, 2010 in Mobile, Alabama, while the 85th Annual East-West Shrine Game will take place on January 23, 2010 at the Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Fla.

STALKING THE RECORD BOOK

• Senior Andre Anderson currently has 1,905 rushing yards on 403 carries (4.7 ypc) and 16 touchdowns. Anderson remains 11th in Tulane career history in rushing yards (needs 56 yards for 10th place) and moves into eighth place in the single-season charts (913), just two yards behind seventh-placed Mewelde Moore (915 in 2003). In addition, Anderson moves into sole possession of fourth place in Tulane career 100-yard rushing games with eight, breaking a three-way tie with Toney Converse and Jamaican Dartz who had seven from 1997-99 and 1995-98, respectively.

PLAYING WITH A PURPOSE

• Tulane's Jeremy Williams has evolved into one of the nation's top all-purpose players this season. Williams is averaging 155.5 all-purpose yards per outing, which ranks fifth among Conference USA players and is 16th nationally.

Williams is averaging 99.2 receiving yards (992 total), 4.5 rushing yards (156 total) and 25.4 yards per kickoff return (16 returns for 407 yards) per contest. He has touched the ball 125 times for 1,555 yards for an average of 12.4 yards per play.

Williams now has 3,501 career all-purpose yards, which is 185 shy of ninth place in Tulane history. His 1,555 all-purpose yards in 2009 rank fifth in Green Wave single-season history. He is 128 yards shy of third place.

With two games remaining, Williams already has the most receiving yards since Roydell Williams' 1,006 yards in 2003. Jeremy Williams is eight yards shy of becoming just the sixth player in school history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a single season.

HEADING UP THE D-FENCE

• The Tulane defense starts with the foursome of senior linebacker Travis Burks, freshman linebacker Shakiel Smith, junior safety Alex Wacha and senior safety Chinonso Echebelem. The group has combined for 300 tackles (178 solo), including 11 stops for lost yardage (-53 yards), and two quarterback sacks. The group has also amassed six forced fumbles and eight pass breakups.

Echebelem leads the team with 93 tackles, the most since Evan Lee's 99 in 2007, and has a one interception, two PBUs and four forced fumbles.

Burks is second in total stops with 76, while Wacha is third in tackles with 74. The newcomer Smith has been a pleasant surprise as a rookie with 57 tackles, which is the fourth-best effort on the team, and has four stops for lost yardage, one sack and two PBUs. In fact, Smith was named the Louisiana Co-Defensive Player of the Week, as selected by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association on 10/6.

TULANE'S YOUTH MOVEMENT

• In a recent nationwide poll conducted by Sports Information Directors, Tulane has played the most true freshmen of any school in the nation this season with 18 rookies seeing playing time, including sixth who have at least one start this season.

In fact, a total of 24 freshmen (18-true; 6-redshirt) have played. Twelve true freshmen saw action in the season opener: D.J. Banks, Ryan Grant, Jordan Garrett, Payten Jason, Shakiel Smith, Kevin Burris, Devin Figaro, Cody Ledford, Ryan Travis, Brock Sanders and walk-on Devon Walker. Also making their Tulane debuts were redshirt freshmen Darryl Farley and John Edwards.

In the second game of the season, six more true freshmen saw the field for the first time in their collegiate careers, including L.J. Abrams, Stephen Barnett, Shane Delery, Hunter Howden, Zach Morgan and Jordan Sullen, while a pair of redshirt freshmen earned playing time for the first time: Ryan Griffin and D.J. Ponder, while Austen Jacks came off the bench against McNeese State.

A total of 70 Green Wave players have played this season and of the 70, 13 are sophomores and 23 of those are either true or redshirt freshmen, which means 36, or 56 percent of the team, are either first or second year players.

FRESHMEN PAY IMMEDIATE DIVIDENDS FOR GREEN WAVE

- Linebacker/Nickelback Shakiel Smith is the only freshman on the team to start every game this season and ranks fourth on the team in tackles with 57.

- Offensive guard Zach Morgan made his first collegiate start vs, McNeese State and has started the last seven games.

- Hunter Howden made his first career start vs. McNeese State and also started at Army. He has played in five games this season.

- Austen Jacks was expected to redshirt this season, but injuries to the linebacking group forced him into action against McNeese State and he started the following game at Army. He has played in eight games and has 17 stops, including two sacks.

- Running back/returner Stephen Barnett has returned 16 kickoffs for 303 yards (18.9), including a career-high 34-yarder vs. Southern Miss.

- Safety Jordan Garrett has 21 stops (13 solo) in nine games and has one start (LSU).

- Tight end Kevin Burris has five receptions for 42 yards in seven games.

- Receiver Ryan Grant has caught eight passes for 34 yards and a score.

- Prior to suffering his season ending injury, running back/kickoff returner Payten Jason rushed 19 times for 85 yards, returned eight kickoffs for 158 yards (19.8 ypr), including a 38-yard return, and caught seven passes for 36 yards.

- Receiver/quarterback/running back/returner D.J. Banks has rushed seven times for 12 yards, has seven receptions for 69 yards, completed his 1-of-3 pass attempts for 39 yards, returned 14 kickoffs for 224 yards (16.0 ypr) and has six punt returns. Perhaps Banks' biggest play of the season so far came as a holder. On the game-winning field goal at Army, he took a bad snap that landed flat on the ground and quickly recovered in time for Ross Thevenot to boot the game-winner.

RUNNING BACKS THRIVE IN TOLEDO'S WEST COAST SYSTEM

• Throughout his career as a head coach, Bob Toledo has been a running backs' best friend. Dating back to his days as the head coach at UCLA and through two years at Tulane, running backs have thrived in his West Coast system as both runners and receivers. Toledo's last four prominent running backs- Skip Hicks and DeShaun Foster at UCLA and Matt Forte and Andre Anderson at Tulane- have combined for 10,366 rushing yards and 1,961 receiving yards.

Foster registered the most career yards under Toledo with 3,194 rushing yards and 548 receiving yards for 3,742 total yards, while Forte produced the most single season yards for a Toledo-led squad with a school record 2,127 rushing yards and 282 receiving yards for 2,409 total yards. Forte's total remains the sixth-best single season effort in NCAA history.

In 2008, Anderson was well on his way to taking his place among Toledo's greatest backs before a shoulder injury sidelined him the seventh game.

Player	Rushing Yds	Receiving Yds
*Skip Hicks (UCLA, 1993-97)	3,140	697
DeShaun Foster (UCLA, 1998-01)	3,194	548
Matt Forte (Tulane, 2007)	2,127	282
Andre Anderson (Tulane, 2007-08)	1,905	434

*Hicks spend his final three seasons under Toledo

**Forte played just one season under Toledo

***Anderson has played two of his four seasons under Toledo

KELLEY QUIETLY MAKING HIS WAY UP SACK CHARTS

• With a sack in the third quarter, senior defensive end Logan Kelley now has 13 for his career and is now tied for sixth in Tulane career history along with Dennis O'Sullivan (1995-98) and Jay Rink (1988-90).

KICKING IT OLD SCHOOL

• Senior Ross Thevenot currently boasts 219 career points (99 PAT/120 FG), which puts him in third place on the school's career list for most kicking points.

He is 99-of-106 (.933) on PAT attempts and 40-of-66 (.610) on field goal attempts. Thevenot ranks third all-time for PATs and PAT attempts and ninth for PAT percentage.

Among the school's field goal leaders, his 40 field goals are fifth all-time, while his 66 attempts rank third and his percentage is the sixth best.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

• Tulane's Jeremy Williams and Reggie Scott have each already earned their bachelor's degrees and are working on separate degrees. Williams earned his bachelor's degree in media arts and is headed toward a master's degree in liberal arts, while Scott was an exercise science major and is working towards a double major in liberal arts.

• Eight TU seniors were on the team in 2005 when Hurricane Katrina devastated New Orleans and forced TU to play 11 games during an 11-week span in 11 different stadiums. The players include: Reggie Scott (DT), Charles Harris (CB), David Kirksey (LB), John Landa (OL), James McMurchy (LB), Tyler Rice (OL), Corey Sonnier (S) and Jeremy Williams (WR).

• Seniors Andre Anderson and David Kirksey were selected by their teammates as the permanent team captains for the 2009 season.

• Tulane 2009 roster features a pair of identical twins in Kendrell (#23) and Kendrick Washington. Both players play the same position (cornerback) and are the height (5-9) and weight (160).

• Freshman Jordan Sullen's cousin, Craig Davis, played football at LSU and is currently a member of the San Diego Chargers.

• Freshman Derrick Strozier's has two cousins, Mike Jones and Art Strozier, who are former NFL players.

• Freshman Brock Sanders' father, Eric, enjoyed a 12-year NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons (1981-86) and Detroit Lions (1986-92).

• Redshirt-freshman Alex Lauricella's uncle, Hank, was an All-America football player at Tennessee.

• Chris Asumnu brings a talented athletic lineage to Tulane. His sister, Gloria, was a multi All-America track athlete for the Green Wave, while his brother, Stanley, played both football and basketball at Tennessee and is a member of the Rio Grande Valley Vipers of the NBA Developmental League.

TULANE FOOTBALL REMEMBERS ANDREW VILLAR WITH HELMET STICKER

The Tulane football team will remember football student-athlete Andrew Villar this season by wearing a special helmet sticker with Villar's No. 16 for the entire year. Villar died on Thursday, April 30, 2009, in his hometown of Gonzales, La., of unknown causes. A 6-0, 174-pound kicker, Villar walked on to the Tulane football team in the spring of 2008 and was a member of the squad during the 2008 campaign. He completed his second spring season as a Green Wave player. He had also tried out for the Wave baseball team in the fall of 2007.

BOB TOLEDO

Head Coach
Third Year
San Francisco State, 1968

- Named the 37th head coach in the 115-year history of the Tulane football program on Dec. 11, 2006.

- Has a 9-25 record at Tulane.

- Sports an overall record of 87-93 in 16 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

- Coached in his 150th game on Sept. 29, 2007, against No. 2 LSU and his 175th game on Oct. 10, 2009, vs. Marshall.

- Despite a 4-8 record during his first season at Tulane, Toledo still managed to lead the Wave into the national spotlight. Under his offensive philosophy, senior tailback Matt Forté rushed for a school record 2,127 yards, the seventh-best single season total in NCAA history, and he became the 12th player to surpass the 2,000-yard rushing plateau in a single year. Forté earned numerous All-America honors, including second team All-America honors, and was among the contenders for the Heisman Trophy, the Doak Walker and Maxwell Awards, and was named the national player of the week twice in his lone season under Toledo.

- Has more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Green Wave football team, including head coaching stints at Cal Riverside (15-6 with two championships from 1974-75), University of the Pacific (14-30 from 1979-82) and UCLA (1996-2002). He has coached in 13 bowl games during his career, including seven of the traditional New Year's Day bowls.

- Spent seven years (1996-2002) as the head coach at UCLA where he compiled a 49-32 record overall. The Bruins produced a school-record 20-game winning streak, plus two Pac-10 titles, one Rose Bowl appearance and non-conference victories over Texas (twice), Alabama (twice), Michigan, Ohio State and Texas A&M.

- Under Toledo, UCLA went 10-2 in 1998, climbing to No. 2 in the national polls. The Bruins finished the regular season ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense (40.5) and eighth in total offense (482.6). They set school records for total offense (5,487 yards), passing yards (3,658) and passing touchdowns (29) and Toledo was a finalist for three Coach of the Year awards.

- The 1997 UCLA team finished 10-2 and ranked No. 5 in the nation after rallying to defeat Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl. The Bruins trailed the Aggies 16-0 before making a dramatic second-half comeback to win 29-23. UCLA averaged 40.7 points and more than 430 yards during the regular season.

- Prior to becoming UCLA head coach in January of 1996, Toledo was the Bruins' offensive coordinator for two seasons (1994-95) under Terry Donahue. Offensive tackle Jonathon Ogden won the Outland Trophy and tailback Karim Abdul-Jabbar was first team All-America in 1995.

- Served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for R.C. Slocum at Texas A&M for five years (1989-93). During that span, the Aggies posted a gaudy 49-12-1 record with three Southwest Conference titles and five straight bowl games, including three consecutive Cotton Bowl appearances. His 1990 Aggie offense still holds the school record for total yards in a single game (774 yards on 76 plays against Louisiana-Lafayette) and season game average with 471.1 yards per game that year.

- Toledo served as the offensive coordinator at Oregon for six seasons (1983-88), and helped tutor two of the Pac-10's most productive quarterbacks - Chris Miller and Bill Musgrave.

- Before his head coaching stint at Pacific, Toledo guided the secondary under John Robinson at Southern Cal from 1976-78. The Trojans went 31-6 in three seasons and were co-national champs after the 1978 campaign. Toledo's most heralded pupils included Dennis Thurman, Ronnie Lott and Dennis Smith.

- Toledo's first collegiate head coaching position was at Cal Riverside from 1974-75. The Highlanders were 15-6 and captured a pair of California Collegiate Athletic Association championships.

2009 Game Recaps

Game 1 • Tulsa 37, Tulane 13 Louisiana Superdome • New Orleans, La. Sept. 4, 2009 • 27.638

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
Tulsa	17	3	3	14	37
Tulane	0	3	7	3	13

NEW ORLEANS - Joe Kemp threw for a career-high 278 yards and a touchdown in his first collegiate start and Casey Robottom snared a personal-best six passes, but it was not enough as Tulane dropped the season opener to Conference USA foe Tulsa, 37-13.

The Golden Hurricane stormed out to a 17-0 lead over the first nine minutes of play and withstood the Green Wave offense's best efforts to cruise to the 24-point victory.

Kemp completed 16-of-26 passes, but was sacked five times and finished with minus -37 yards rushing on six carries. Robottom posted 82 yards receiving, including a 20-yard touchdown grab with 5:19 left in the third quarter, while Jeremy Williams had five catches for 139 yards. André Anderson finished the day with 86 yards of total offense after posting 49 yards on 19 carries on the ground and hauling in two passes for another 37 yards through the air.

Chinonso Echebelem led the Green Wave defense with 12 tackles and Tulane posted four sacks on the day: one each by Kirksey, Logan Kelley, Justin Adams and Shakiel Smith.

The Green Wave got off to a rough start in the first quarter. Offensively, Tulane suffered three sacks and had a pass intercepted. The defense was forced to play against a short field and Tulsa took advantage with a 22-yard field goal by Kevin Fitzpatrick with 4:31 into the game, a 15-yard touchdown run by G.J. Kinne just over four minutes later, and a five-yard scoring gallop by Charles Clay with six minutes left to play in the opening stanza to stake the Golden Hurricane to a 17-0 advantage.

Tulane's offense began to click from there, but saw a 10-play, 63-yard drive produce a goose-egg as Ross Thevenot's 31-yard field goal was blocked by Tulsa Odrick Ray. The Wave drove 46-yards on its next possession but was forced to punt. Tulane finally got on the board with 55-seconds remaining in the half when Thevenot split the uprights from 27 yards out to make a two-score game.

Tulsa, however, stretched its lead back to 17 just before halftime as Damaris Johnson returned the ensuing kickoff 39 yards and Fitzpatrick was true from 33 yards away as time expired to cap a five-play, 38-yard drive to make it 20-3 at the break.

The Golden Hurricane padded the advantage in the opening drive of the second half when Fitzpatrick capped a 63-yard drive with a 24-yard field goal. Tulane got a big play from Williams on its first possession of the third quarter as he hauled in an intermediate pass from Kemp and broke a pair of tackles for a 68-yard gain to give the Wave first-and-goal from the four. Tulsa defense, however, stiffened and stopped four straight running plays.

Tulane's defense forced a three-and-out, and following a 16-yard punt return by Robottom, Anderson scampered for 21 yards before Kemp found Robottom from 20 yards out to make it a 23-10 ballgame.

The Golden Hurricane appeared to answer Tulane's score with a touchdown of its own, but Echebelem forced a Clay fumble at the one-yard line and Charles Harris recovered it in the end zone for a touchback. Following a punt by each team, Tulsa got back on the board early in the fourth quarter when Johnson returned a punt 66 yards for a score. An apparent 14-yard touchdown pass from Kemp to Williams was wiped out due to a penalty midway through the fourth quarter and the Wave had to settle for a 29-yard Thevenot field goal with 10:20 left to play. Tulsa put the game away when Kinne found Trae Johnson along the sideline for a 12-yard scoring strike with 1:46 showing on the clock to cap a five play, 54-yard drive and account for the final score.

Game 2 • BYU 54, Tulane 3 Louisiana Superdome • New Orleans, La. Sept. 12, 2009 • 26,224

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
BYU	3	17	14	20	54
Tulane	0	3	0	0	3

NEW ORLEANS - It started out a close game and ended a rout as Tulane dropped a 54-3 decision to No. 9 BYU.

BYU held a slight 6-3 lead following a 29-yard field goal by Tulane's Ross Thevenot with 6:03 left in the first half. From there, however, it was all Cougars as BYU got a pair of touchdowns later in the period and scored on four of its first five possessions in the second half.

BYU quarterback Max Hall completed 24-of-31 passes for 309 yards and two touchdowns. J.J. DiLuigi ran for 71 yards and two scores on 12 carries, while Bryan Kariya was close behind with 63 yards and a touchdown on 12 carries. Dennis Pitta and O'Neill Chambers hauled in four passes each for 47 and 38 yards, respectively.

Joe Kemp, one of four passers used by the Green Wave on the day, led the team with 101 yards on 14-of-19 passing. Jeremy Williams and Ryan Grant each hauled in five passes apiece, and André Anderson led the Tulane ground effort with 36 yards on 12 carries.

BYU got on the board first as Mitch Payne capped a 10-play, 45-yard drive with a 31-yard field goal less than nine minutes into the ballgame and put the Cougars on top 6-0 with a 20-yarder 45 seconds into the second quarter. After getting just a pair of first downs on their first two possessions, the Green Wave offense got things going in the second stanza and drove from their own 32 down to the Cougar 12. BYU's defense kept Tulane out of the endzone and Thevenot's field goal made it a 6-3 ballgame.

From there, the Cougar offense turned things up a notch, driving 67 yards in just 2:35 capped by a one-yard touchdown jaunt by Brian Kariya and turned a Tulane interception into another score as Hall connected with Kariya for 12 yards with 25 seconds to play in the first half to go into the locker room on top, 20-3.

Chinonso Echebelem picked off Hall on BYU's first possession of the second half, but that was perhaps the Green Wave's lone highlight the rest of the way.

DiLuigi scored his first touchdown of the day on a three-yard run to cap a 13-play, 89-yard drive with 6:24 left to play in the third quarter, and Hall found McKay Jacobson deep for a 38-yard touchdown strike just over three minutes later to stretch the Cougar lead to 34-3. DiLuigi found paydirt again 1:53 into the fourth quarter.

The Cougar defense, meanwhile, forced a pair of fumbles, including one returned by Jordan Pendleton for a 12-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The defense got into the scoring mix on the ensuing possession when Terrance Hooks forced a fumble, which was picked up by Jordan Pendleton and returned 12 yards for a score. Backup quarterback Riley Nelson closed out the scoring with a one-yard keeper with 2:00 remaining in the ballgame to account for the final score.

Echebelem paced the Tulane defense with nine tackles, including six solo stops, while junior defensive back Alex Wacha was next with eight. Shane Delery posted the team's only tackle for

Game 3 • Tulane 42, McNeese State 32 Louisiana Superdome • New, Orleans, La. Sept. 26, 2009 • 29,028

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
McNeese St.	10	7	8	7	32
Tulane	7	14	14	7	42

NEW ORLEANS - André Anderson and Jeremy Williams combined for 431 all-purpose yards as Tulane picked up its first win of the 2009 season with a 42-32 victory over McNeese State.

Williams snared a career-high 10 passes for 222 yards and two touchdowns - and carried the ball four times for 10 yards on the ground - while Anderson finished the day with 199 rushing yards and a personal-best four touchdowns on 28 carries.

Williams posted the seventh 100-yard receiving day of his career. His total against the Cowboys ranks third in Tulane single-game history, 16 behind second-place Marc Zeno against then-Southwest Louisiana on Nov. 14, 1987 and 49 off the Green Wave record of 271 set by Jerome McIntosh vs. Vanderbilt on Nov. 18, 1989. Anderson, meanwhile, posted his fifth 100-yard rushing game of his career and his Saturday total ranks 14th in school history.

Joe Kemp completed 10-of-13 passes - all to Williams - with a pair of touchdowns and two interceptions. Travis Burks paced the defense with 11 tackles (six solo, five assists) and the Green Wave forced a season-high four fumbles, including two by Alex Wacha.

The Cowboys got on the board first, taking the opening kickoff and driving 54 yards down the field capped by a 29-yard field goal by Josh Lewis 3:38 into the ballgame. The advantage lasted just 1:24 as Anderson ran for 12 yards on the Green Wave's first play from scrimmage, Kemp found Williams for a 44-yard gain and Anderson plunged in from two yards out two plays later to give the Green Wave a 7-3 lead.

McNeese State answered Tulane's score with a touchdown of its own as Cowboys' tailback Todd Pendland capped a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run with 6:07 left to play in the opening quarter.

Neither team scored on their next possessions, but Tulane took the lead for good when on Anderson's second scoring run of the day - an 11-yard jaunt 2:49 into the second stanza. The Green Wave defense forced a three-and-out, and the offense picked up where it left off as Kemp found Williams for a 34-yard touchdown pass to cap a four-play, 59-yard drive and give Tulane a 21-10 lead.

The Cowboys got back some momentum with a clock-eating 16-play, 86-yard drive on the ensuing possession which culminated with a one-yard Pendland score but Tulane went into the locker room at the break on top by four.

It took the Green Wave just 2:41 into the second half to pad its lead as Kemp found Williams from 40 yards out to push the lead back to nine. Two McNeese State drives later, however, the Cowboys sliced the lead to three as Derrick Fourroux connected with Richard Connor for a seven-yard touchdown and found Wes Mangan for a two-point conversion to make it a 28-25 contest.

The Cowboys took just 41 seconds to cut the deficit to 10 as Fourroux hooked up with Immanuel Friddle for a 43-yard gain, and Friddle recovered a Pendland fumble in the endzone to make it 42-32. An interception by Seth Thomas gave the Cowboys new life 2:11 later, but Wacha jarred the ball loose from Fourroux on a quarterback keeper and the Green Wave was able to run out the clock.

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
Tulane	0	7	0	10	17
Army	10	0	0	6	16

WEST POINT, N.Y. - Ross Thevenot's connected on a 23-yard field goal with 2:20 left in regulation and Army kicker Alex Carlton pushed a 37-yard attempt wide right in the game's final seconds as Tulane rallied late to defeat the Black Knights, 17-16.

Tulane trailed Army for the majority of the game and was behind by nine with 11:44 left in the fourth quarter. The Green Wave, however, got a one-yard touchdown run by senior running back André Anderson 2:34 later and Thevenot made amends for a 30-yard miss earlier in the ballgame on what proved to be the game winner.

On the ensuing kickoff, Army's Damion Hunter returned the ball 46 yards and looked to have the Black Knights in great position with less than two minutes to play. Army passed twice for 15 yards followed by a Kingsley Ehie run down to the 20-yard line. After a pair of stops by the Tulane defense, Army and Tulane each traded timeouts and the Black Knights sent Carlton onto the field with 16 seconds left on the clock. Carlton was a perfect 3-for-3 entering the moment, including a 37-yarder back in the first quarter. This time, his kick was off line and the Tulane sideline erupted in celebration.

The opening minutes of the game were the mirror image of last year's contest at Tad Gormley Stadium in New Orleans as Christopher Swain blocked a Thevenot punt and Christopher Swain fell on the football at the Tulane 10.

Three plays later, Trent Steelman capped off a three-play drive with a one-yard touchdown run to give the home team a quick 7-0 lead. Following a Tulane punt, the Black Knights extended their lead to 10-0 on a 37-yard Carlton field goal.

Tulane got on the board with its next possession when the Wave marched 54 yards in 10 plays. Joe Kemp rang up his favorite receiver with a 15-yard touchdown strike to Jeremy Williams on the second play of the second quarter.

On the ensuing possession, Army ran the ball down to the Tulane 15-yard line and looked to increase its lead. But on third and six, the Black Knights attempted their first pass of the day and Harris made them pay with an interception near the goal line. Tulane and Army each had two possessions during the final 9:41 of the second quarter, but neither team was able to capitalize and the contest remained 10-7 at the break.

The teams continued to trade punts in the third quarter before Tulane put together a 10-play, 52-yard drive that took the Wave deep into Army territory. Following Kemp's six-yard completion to Casey Robotom that fell three yards of a first down, Thevenot attempted to tie the game but his 30-yard attempt was wide left.

Following a pair of three-and-outs by both teams, the Tulane defense stopped Army's option attack and forced yet another punt. Jordan Garrett, however, was flagged for roughing the punter and the Black Knights made the most of their second chance and Carlton connected on a 32-yard field goal to give Army a 13-7 lead 28 seconds into the fourth quarter.

Williams once again gave Tulane great starting possession with a 35-yard return, but on Tulane's next play from scrimmage, Kemp mishandled the snap and Army recovered at the Green Wave's 33-yard line. Three plays later, Carlton booted his third field goal of the contest with a 36-yard attempt to push the Army advantage to 16-7 at the 11:44 mark.

From there, Tulane marched 61 yards on seven plays and Anderson capped the drive with one-yard scoring plunge to cut the deficit to a pair. Army moved into Green Wave territory on the ensuing possession, but the Tulane defense held on fourth down to set up the winning drive.

Taking over at its' own 37-yard line, Tulane got 47 yards from Anderson on six carries, and Kemp found Robotom for a 10-yard gain. Army's defense held inside the 10-yard line, but Thevenot's kick proved to be the difference.

Game 5 • Marshall 31, Tulane 10 Louisiana Superdome • New Orleans, La. Oct. 10, 2009 • 28,312

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
Marshall	14	7	3	7	31
Tulane	7	0	0	3	10

NEW ORLEANS - André Anderson tallied 135 all-purpose yards and Jeremy Williams snared a game-high eight passes, but it was not enough as Tulane dropped a 31-10 Homecoming decision to Conference USA foe Marshall at the Louisiana Superdome.

The Green Wave dominated the stat sheet, running for 189 yards to Marshall's 116 and posting 215 yards through the air to the Herd's 207 and commanding a 7:44 advantage in time of possession. The difference in the game, however, was turnovers where Tulane gave away the ball four times - two fumbles and a pair of interceptions - and Marshall turned that into two touchdowns and a field goal.

Trailing 14-7 with 41 seconds left in the first half, Tulane had a chance to tie the ballgame as the Green Wave drove from its own 18 all the way to the Marshall one. A two-yard Anderson run gave Tulane third-and-goal from the one, but the Thundering Herd defense stopped Anderson cold on third down and nailed Antoine Duplessis on fourth down to send the Green Wave away scoreless despite a 19-play, 81-yard drive that chewed 10:59 off the clock.

To make matters worse for Tulane, the Marshall offense marched 99 yards down the field over the next 4:08 and capped the drive when Brian Anderson found Chuck Walker down the middle for a 21-yard touchdown with 34 seconds left in the opening half to take a commanding 21-7 lead in the ballgame.

The Green Wave defense held Marshall running back Darius Marshall - the NCAA's leader entering the ballgame with a 159.75 yard-per-game average - to just 98 yards on 20 carries. Marshall, however, found the endzone twice and Anderson had a solid day under center, completing 18-of-22 passes for 207 yards, one touchdown and one interception.

Alex Wachua led the defensive effort, tying a career high with eight tackles (five solo, three assists) and a pass break-up. Travis Burks had seven tackles, and Chinonso Echebelem was next with six.

Tulane drew first blood on Saturday, taking the opening kickoff and driving 67 yards on eight plays for a touchdown. Facing a second-and-six situation from the Herd 32-yard line, Tulane head coach Bob Toledo reached into his bag of tricks with a swinging gate that saw Joe Kemp snap the ball to Anderson. Anderson darted left initially before handing off to Jordan Sullen who ran untouched into the endzone for his first collegiate score.

While his first trick play turned into a touchdown, Toledo's second did not fare as well as a surprise on-side kickoff attempt was recovered by Marshall's Pete Culicerto at the Tulane 44-yard line. The Herd took advantage of the short field and Marshall capped a six-play drive with an 11-yard by the running back of the same name to tie the score.

The two teams traded punts, and Tulane had something going late in the opening quarter as the Green Wave converted a pair of third downs to get into Marshall territory. A sack pushed the Wave back to their own 45 and Albert McClellan forced a fumble on the next play. Ashton Hall scooped up the ball and run 29 yards to give the Herd a 14-7 lead they would not relinquish.

Tulane went into the locker room at halftime down by two scores, but it became a three-score ballgame early in the third quarter as an Anderson fumble gave Marshall the ball at its own

Ross Thevenot cut the deficit to 21 with a 33-yard field goal with 9:31 left to play, but that proved to be the final score of the ballgame.

Game 6 • Houston 44, Tulane 16 Louisiana Superdome • New Orleans, La. Oct. 17, 2009 • 22,891

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
Houston	3	6	20	15	44
Tulane	3	3	0	10	16

NEW ORLEANS - The Green Wave defense held the high-powered Cougar attack in check in the first half and trailed by just three at 9-6 at halftime, but Houston piled up 295 of its 516 yards of total offense and scored touchdowns on five straight possessions to hand Tulane a 44-16 defeat in the Louisiana Superdome.

André Anderson ran for 108 yards on 18 carries and Jeremy Williams posted over 100 all-purpose yards on the day with six catches for 63 yards while running eight times for a career-best 45 on the ground.

Cougar quarterback Case Keenum, however, countered with 371 yards and two touchdowns on 33-of-46 passing and Houston ran for 145 yards as a team on 33 totes. Chaz Rodriguez was Keenum's favorite target on the day, hauling in six passes for 84 yards. James Cleveland and L.J. Castille both caught touchdown passes while Bryce Bealle and Justin Johnson each had a pair of scoring runs.

The Cougars converted 9-of-13 third-down opportunities and blocked a punt early in the second half to spark the second-half onslaught.

Houston scored the game's first points on a 22-yard field goal by Ben Bell with 9:09 left to play in the opening quarter, but Tulane tied things up quickly as Ross Thevenot capped a 12-play, 42-yard drive with his season-long boot. The defense forced the Cougars to punt on their next possession, and Tulane found a rhythm for another scoring drive. The Wave held first-and-10 at the Cougar 22 before Houston stiffened and forced the home team to settle for a 35-yard Thevenot kick to give Tulane a 6-3 lead.

The advantage did not last long as Houston took the ensuing kickoff and capped a 10-play, 63-yard drive with Bealle's first touchdown run of the game to take a 9-6 lead. Bell's PAT plunked off the right upright and he later missed a 25-yard field goal attempt, and the two teams went into the locker room at the break in a three-point battle.

The second half, however, was all Houston as the Cougars scored early and often over the final two frames. Johnson capped an eight-play 60-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown run to open the third quarter, and the door appeared to be left open for the Green Wave as Bell's point-after try ricocheted off the left upright to keep it a 15-6 ballgame. Tulane went three-and-out on the ensuing possession, and Jeremy Smith blocked a punt to give Houston a short field at the Tulane six. One play later, Keenum found Cleveland in the endzone to give the Cougars a 22-6 advantage.

Bealle scored his second touchdown of the day with 3:19 left in the third quarter to push the lead to 23, and Toledo decided to make a switch at quarterback as Ryan Griffin replaced Joe

Game 7 • Southern Miss 43, Tulane 6 M.M. Roberts Stadium • Hattiesburg, Miss. Oct. 24, 2009 • 30,541

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
Tulane	0	0	6	0	6
Southern Miss	7	13	6	17	43

HATTIESBURG, Miss. - André Anderson posted 116 all-purpose yards and hauled in a career-high six passes, but it was not enough as Tulane dropped a Conference USA contest to Southern Miss, 43-6, at M.M. Roberts Stadium.

The Golden Eagles scored in nearly every phase of the game as Southern Miss posted four offensive touchdowns – two rushing and two passing – returned a fumble for a score, and blocked a field goal that turned into a 77-yard touchdown return. The Eagle defense, meanwhile, posted six sacks on the day and held the Green Wave offense to 54 yards on the ground.

Ryan Griffin completed 21-of-33 passes for 158 yards and an interception, and was on the receiving end of all six Southern Miss sacks. He completed passes to seven different receivers – finding Anderson six times for 24 yards, Casey Robottom five times for 61 yards and Jeremy Williams four times for 21 yards.

The Southern Miss defense forced four turnovers – three fumble recoveries and a pick – and halted Tulane on fourth-down to give the Southern Miss offense a short field late in the ballgame. The USM offense, meanwhile, turned the turnovers and the fourth-down hold into a pair of touchdowns while the defense found pay dirt themselves when Jamie Collins scooped up a second-quarter fumble and rumbled 16 yards to the end zone.

Southern Miss' Martavious Young completed 13-of-15 passes for 127 yards and two scores and ran five times for another 38 yards on the ground. As a team, the Golden Eagles tallied 253 yards on 43 carries – including a 93-yard effort by Tory Harrison. DeAndre Brown was Young's favorite target on the night, hauling in four passes for 41 yards and two touchdowns.

The Golden Eagles opened the scoring in the first quarter when Young found Brown from 21 yards out to cap a nine-play, 56-yard drive with 5:25 left on the clock. They had a chance to pad their lead on their next possession, but Justin Estes missed a 23-yard field goal wide left to keep it a one-score game.

The two teams traded fumbles over the next two drives, but the Green Wave were not able to overcome a second turnover. On third-and-nine from the Tulane 14 yard line, Griffin found Williams at the 16. Collins, however, jarred the ball loose, picked up the fumble and scored to make it a 14-0 ballgame.

The Green Wave had a chance to get on the board just before halftime as Tulane drove 58 yards on 12 plays down to the Southern Miss 11. The Golden Eagle defense held on third down, and Tulane sent the field goal unit onto the field to attempt a 28-yard kick. Southern Miss wing defender C.J. Bailey came around the right corner untouched to block the kick and Andre Watson raced 77 yards to extend the lead to 20 at the break.

Southern Miss scored on its opening drive of the second half when Brown scored from six yards out to cap an 11-play, 75-yard drive, and Tulane got on the board on the ensuing drive when Anderson plunged in from a yard away on third-and-goal. Both teams missed their respective PATs, and the Golden Eagles held a 26-6 advantage heading into the fourth quarter.

The final 15 minutes of play, however, was all USM as an Estes field goal 1:20 into the frame open the floodgates for a 17-point Golden Eagle quarter. The USM defense held on fourth down at the Tulane 35, and it took the Eagle offense just four plays to turn it into points as Harrison scored to make it 36-6.

Griffin was sacked and fumbled on the next Tulane drive at the Green Wave 37, and Tracey Lamley found the paydirt five plays later to account for the final score.

Game 8 • LSU 42, Tulane 0 Tiger Stadium • Baton Rouge, La. Oct. 31, 2009 • 92,031

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
LSU	14	7	7	14	42

BATON ROUGE, La. - While children around the nation donned costumes and masks in their march door-to-door hollering the mantra "Trick or Treat", Tulane suffered a scare of its own as No. 9 LSU defeated the Green Wave, 42-0, Halloween Night at Tiger Stadium.

The Tigers rolled up 455 yards of total offense, including 267 on the ground, and their defense held Tulane to 216 total yards and a 3-for-13 showing on third down to hand the Green Wave their first shutout defeat since falling to No. 3 Texas, 49-0, on Sept. 28, 2002, in the Louisiana Superdome.

Tulane's receiving tandem of Jeremy Williams and Casey Robottom combined for 15 catches and 141 yards through the air, and quarterback Ryan Griffin completed 21-of-29 passes for 163 yards, but it was not enough to overcome a tough LSU team that controlled the ballgame from start to finish.

Special teams hurt the Green Wave throughout the night as they suffered a blocked punt, a missed field and allowed the Tigers to average 30.75 yards on four punt returns. LSU's Trindon Holliday had 105 yards on three punt returns, including a pair of 50-yarders.

Tulane forced an LSU punt on the opening possession of the game, and the Tigers returned the favor on the Green Wave's first drive. The difference was Daniel Graff blocked Tulane's attempt and LSU took over at the Tulane 23. Two plays later, Russell Shepard found paydirt from 19 yards out to give the home team a 7-0 advantage.

Holliday put the Tigers in position to score again with his first 50-yard return following Tulane's next possession, but the Green Wave snuffed out the drive when Adam Kwentua picked off a Jordan Jefferson pass at the Tulane 11 and returned it to the 16. The LSU defense forced a three-and-out, and the offense responded with a five-play, 63-yard drive capped by a 39-yard scoring strike from Jefferson to Brandon LaFell to put Tulane in a 14-0 hole.

The Green Wave had a chance to get on the board midway through the second quarter when the offense moved from its own 17 down to the LSU 23. Tulane lost three yards on third down, and Ross Thevenot's 43-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left.

To make matters worse for the Wave, the Tigers took over and went 74 yards over the next 3:56 and went up 21-0 on a four-yard scoring jaunt by Charles Scott. Tulane appeared to have something going late in the half as the Green Wave offense moved methodically from their own 20 to the LSU 19. Following a timeout with 1:18 left in the second quarter, Patrick Peterson stepped in front of a Griffin pass for an interception to keep it a three-down ballgame headed into the break.

The two teams traded punts to open the second half, but on Tulane's second punt over the final 30 minutes, Holliday had his second 50-yard return to give the Tigers the ball at the Green Wave 20. Three plays later, Scott scored from eight yards out to make it 28-0.

LSU posted two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter as Jefferson found LaFell for a 13-yard score with 9:55 left to play and Steven Ridley capped an 11-play, 98-yard drive with a 10-yard run with 1:12 to go to account for the final score.

Chinonso Echebelem led the Tulane defense with nine tackles, including a half-tackle for loss, while Jordan Garrett - who started for the first time against the Tigers - was next with eight.

Reggie Scott and Brooks Cunningham each had sacks for the Green Wave.

Scott ran for 112 yards and two scores on 18 carries, and Jefferson completed 11-of-17 passes for 163 yards, two touchdowns and a pick. LaFell and Terrance Toliver both caught four passes, and LaFell had 85 yards and two scores.

Kelvin Shepapr led all players with 13 tackles (5 solo, 8 assists), including and three tackles for 10 yards in losses.

Game 9 • Tulane 45, UTEP 38 (OT) Louisiana Superdome • New Orleans, La. Nov. 7, 2009 • 16,791

Quarter	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
UTEP	10	7	7	14	0	38
Tulane	7	10	7	14	7	45

NEW ORLEANS - Jeremy Williams tallied a career-high 324 all-purpose yards and Ryan Griffin accounted for four touchdowns as Tulane rallied to defeat Conference USA foe UTEP in overtime, 45-38, in the Louisiana Superdome.

Tulane trailed 38-31 with 1:13 left in regulation before Griffin marched the Wave 86 yards on nine plays, capping the drive with an 11-yard touchdown pass to André Anderson with one second on the clock to send the game into overtime. A seven-yard Anderson run on the extra period's first possession put Tulane on top, and Alex Wacha sacked UTEP quarterback Trevor Vittatoe on fourth-and-goal from the five to spark the Tulane celebration.

Williams tied a career-high with 10 catches for a team-leading 139 yards and also ran for 40 yards on three carries. In addition, he returned three kickoffs for 145 yards, including an 88-yard touchdown in the first quarter.

Griffin, meanwhile, completed 24-of-36 passes for 278 yards and three touchdowns. He also added a rushing touchdown and finished the day with 16 yards on the ground on five carries. In the final drive of regulation, Griffin completed six-of-eight passes, including an 11-yard screen pass to Anderson for the game-tying touchdown.

Not to be outdone, Anderson ran for 105 yards on 29 carries, including the seven-yard score in overtime for what proved to be the winning points. In addition, Casey Robottom tied a career-high with seven catches for a season-best 83 yards in the victory.

Wacha led the Green Wave defense with 10 tackles (four solo, six assists), while Shakiel Smith and Travis Burks were next with eight tackles each.

UTEP opened the scoring with a 20-yard field goal by Logan Barrett 5:36 into the ballgame, and went up 10-0 when Jason Williams capped a nine-play, 73-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown run later in the first quarter.

Tulane answered on the ensuing kickoff as the Green Wave's Williams gathered in the ball and darted through some key blocks untouched for an 88-yard return to make it a three-point ballgame. The Tulane defense forced a three-and-out, and the offense came through with its first points of the day early in the second quarter when Griffin snuck in from one-yard out to give the home team a 14-10 lead.

The advantage did not last long, though, as Vittatoe connected with Donald Buckram on a short pass that turned into a 72-yard touchdown to put the Miners back on top, 17-14. A field goal by Tulane's Ross Thevenot tied the score and it stayed that way at the halftime break.

The Green Wave got the ball first in the second half and went 67 yards on 10 plays, capped by three-yard touchdown strike from Griffin to Brock Sanders. UTEP responded with a nine-play, 80-yard drive and tied the game at 24 on a Buckram 28-yard touchdown run. Buckram, who ran for 234 yards and caught three passes for 109 yards, scored again on a 36-yard jaunt 1:27 seconds into the fourth quarter, but Tulane answered with an eight-play, 66-yard drive when Griffin found Ryan Grant for a six-yard touchdown strike. Buckram scored again with a 10-yard run with 5:12 left to play, but that was Miner's final points of the ballgame. Following a pair of punts, UTEP pinned the Wave deep on its final boot of the night to set up Tulane's late-game heroics.

Game 10 • Rice 28, Tulane 20 Rice Stadium • Houston, Texas Nov. 14, 2009 • 14,728

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
Tulane	14	0	0	6	20
Rice	0	7	14	7	28

HOUSTON - André Anderson ran for 135 yards and Jeremy Williams caught 10 passes for 113 yards and two touchdowns, but it was not enough as Tulane dropped a 28-20 decision to Conference USA foe Rice at Rice Stadium.

The Green Wave led 14-0 after the first quarter, but the Owls stormed back with a touchdown in the second quarter, two in the third and a game-sealing touchdown with 54 seconds left to play.

Tulane came out of the gate on fire, tallying 157 yards of total offense in the first quarter while limiting the Owls to just 22 yards on nine plays in the opening stanza. From there, however, Rice posted 309 yards of total offense and held the Green Wave to just 245 yards over the final 45 minutes. Along the way, Rice forced a turnover and blocked a punt to set up what proved to be the winning points.

Ryan Griffin had a solid day under center, completing 24-of-41 passes for 261 yards and three touchdowns. Down the stretch, the Rice defense proved to be the difference in the ballgame as the Owls forced incompletions on each of Griffin's final 10 passes. Casey Robottom hauled in a career-best eight passes for a season-high 91 yards and a score.

Travis Burks led the Tulane defense with nine tackles (six solo, three assists) while Alex Wacha was next with eight (three solo, five assists).

Tulane opened the scoring, taking the opening kickoff and driving 80 yards on 13 plays when Griffin found Williams from six yards out to put the Green Wave on top 7-0. Following a punt by each team, the Wave went 68 yards in seven plays, capped by an eight-yard Griffin-to-Williams scoring strike to give Tulane a 14-0 led with 1:19 left to play in the first quarter.

Rice had an answer in the second quarter, cutting the deficit in half when Nick Fanuzzi connected with Toren Dixon from 32 yards out 2:49 into the stanza. The Owls had a chance to tie things up on their next drive, getting down to the Tulane eight before electing to try a 25-yard field goal. Clark Fangmeier's kick sailed wide right, however, and the Green Wave went into the locker room on top by seven.

As Tulane did to start the game, the Owls came out in the second half firing on all cylinders. After Chris Jammer returned the kickoff 26 yards, it took Rice just two plays to tie the game as Fanuzzi hit Dixon on a 70-yard touchdown bomb.

The Owl defense forced Tulane to punt on its ensuing possession, and Justin Hill got a hand on Ross Thevenot's attempt and deflected it backward to the Green Wave 25. To plays later, Fanuzzi hit Pierre Beasley for a 17-yard touchdown to take a 21-14 lead the Owls would not relinquish.

Rice pinned Tulane at its own two-yard line late in the third quarter, but the Green Wave drove 98 yards on six plays to make things interesting. Griffin capped the drive with a 31-yard scoring strike to Robottom to make it 21-20, but Thevenot never got a chance to tie the game as the PAT snap was bobbled and a kick was never attempted. Two possessions later, a 41-yard punt by Mark Brundage gave the Wave the ball at their own 29, but four straight incompletions tuned the ball over without gaining a yard. Rice could not move the ball either and faced fourth-and-10 from the 30 with 1:00 left to play. Following a timeout, the Owls decided to try to convert the first down rather than attempt a long field goal, and the gamble paid off as Dixon hauled in his third touchdown of the day to account for the final score.
