TULANE RETURNS TO C-USA PLAY THIS SATURDAY AGAINST UTEP

• The Tulane football team (2-5, 0-4 C-USA) returns home and to Conference USA play this Saturday when the Green Wave hosts the UTEP Miners (3-5, 2-2 C-USA) on Senior Day at the Louisiana Superdome. Kick-off is slated for 2:30 p.m.

Following back-to-back road games the last two weeks at Southern Miss and LSU, TU plays its final home contest of the 2009 campaign this weekend against the Miners. Tulane is 1-4 at home this season, including 0-3 in C-USA home games, and will be looking to close out the home portion of this year's slate on a high note. Tulane has not gone winless at home in C-USA play since the league's inaugural season of 1996 (0-3).

Tulane will also look to snap a 10-game skid in C-USA play, including a five game losing streak on its home field. The last time the Wave was victorious in a league game on its home field was last season against SMU (34-27) on Sept. 25, 2008.

GREEN WAVE TO HONOR 2009 SENIOR CLASS DURING PRE-GAME CEREMONIES

Eight TU players were on the team in 2005 when Hurricane Katrina devastated New Orleans and forced TU to play 11 games during an 11-week span in 11 different stadiums. The players include: Reggie Scott (DT), Charles Harris (CB), David Kirksey (LB), John Landa (OL), James McMurchy (LB), Tyler Rice (OL), Corey Sonnier (S) and Jeremy Williams (WR).

SURFING THE WAVE

• The Tulane University Athletics Department has launched a trio of new websites to promote gridiron standouts André Anderson (www.AndreAnderson32.com), Ross Thevenot (www.RossThevenot47.com) and Jeremy Williams (www.JeremyWilliams20.com). The sites can be accessed by typing the address into the web browser. In addition, buttons on the football page of TulaneGreenWave.com directs fans and media to the site as well.

The websites feature video highlights as well as updated statistics, notes, news clips and quotes on what coaches and writers around the country are saying about the Green Wave trio. The site also includes Anderson, Thevenot and Williams' game-by-game statistics as well as where they currently ranks in Green Wave single-game, single-season and career history.

TULANE'S PASS DEFENSE RANKED FIRST AMONG C-USA SCHOOLS

• Heading into this week's contest with UTEP, the Wave's pass defense is tops among C-USA teams, giving up just 209 passing yards per game. Tulane has surrendered just 157.5 passing yards in its last two games at Southern Miss (127) and No. 9 LSU (188).

NOTING THE GREEN WAVE

- Senior running back André Anderson has 1,666 rushing yards for his career, which puts him into 12th place in the Tulane record book. He trails Terrence Jones (1,761 from 1985-88) by 95 yards for 11th place in Tulane career rushing yards.

- For the fourth consecutive game, redshirt-freshman Ryan Griffin posted a career high in passing yards, tallying 163 yards after completing 21-of-29 attempts. His 21 completions ties his career high from a week ago at Southern Miss and his 72.4 completion percentage is the best of his young career.

- Senior safety Chinonso Echebelem leads the Wave in tackles with 9.87 per game (79 total; 45 solo), which ranks fifth among C-USA players and 23rd nationally. Echebelem has four games with 10 or more tackles this season, including a season-best 13 vs. No. 23 Houston. He ranks first in tackles in league games with 10.8 per outing.

- Echebelem leads all C-USA players and ranks second nationally in forced fumbles with four. He is the first Tulane defender to force at least four fumbles in a season since Israel Route had four in 2006.

- Senior Jeremy Williams has caught at least one pass in his last 21 games. The last time Williams failed to record a catch was against LSU on Sept. 29, 2007, in the Louisiana Superdome. During his current streak, Williams has hauled in at least three passes on 17 occasions.

- A trio of Tulane players extended their double-digit starting streaks - junior offensive tackle Pete Hendrickson and senior defensive end Adam Kwentua with 18 straight each, and junior receiver Casey Robottom at 14. Joining the double-digit start streak on Saturday were senior linebacker Travis Burks and cornerback Charles Harris at 10 each.

- Junior Andrew Nierman missed last Saturday's game at No. 9 LSU with a hamstring injury, marking the first time in his career that he did not start. Prior to the game, Nierman had started all 31 games dating back to the season-opener in 2007.

ABOUT THE MINERS

UTEP (3-5, 2-2 C-USA) has been a bit of an enigma this season after stumbling out of the starting gates to a 1-3 record with two losses to nationally ranked squads, No. 24 Kansas (34-7) and No. 2 Texas (64-7), and a loss to Buffalo (23-17) at home in the season opener. UTEP posted its first win of the year over nearby rival, New Mexico State, 38-12. However, the Miners showed their potential in the fifth game of the season when they took down previously undefeated and No. 12 Houston, 58-41, at home on Oct. 3. But UTEP is just 1-2 since its win over Houston.

Quarterback Trevor Vittatoe leads the Miner attack, completing 143-of-276 pass attempts for 1,903 yards and eight touchdowns against 11 interceptions. Vittatoe is averaging 237.9 yards through the air per game.

Running back Donald Buckram, the national player of the week for his 262-yard outburst against Houston, has rushed 150 times for 947 yards and 10 scores.

Receiver Jeff Moturi has hauled in a team-best 35 catches for 558 yards (15.9 ypr) and two touchdowns.

Defensive back Da'Mon Cromartie-Smith leads the team in tackles with 73 stops (27 solo), while defensive lineman Aaron King has 3.5 sacks.

Green Wave Game Notes

SERIES & NOTES:

• Saturday's game marks the fifth all-time meeting between Tulane and UTEP and the Miners lead the series, 3-1. The Green Wave is 1-0 against the Miners in the Louisiana Superdome after posting a 34-19 win in the team's first-ever meeting in the `Dome in 2007.

• This week's contest marks just the second-ever meeting between the two teams in the Superdome. UTEP joined Conference USA in 2005 and was supposed to play Tulane in New Orleans during the first-ever meeting between the two schools in October of 2005. However, Hurricane Katrina (August, 2005) forced the Green Wave to relocate to Ruston, La., and the two teams squared off for the first time on the campus of Louisiana Tech University where the Miners handed the Wave a 45-21 setback.

• Bob Toledo's first game as the head coach at the University of Pacific in 1979 was at UTEP, and the Miners handed Toledo a 31-7 defeat in his debut. However, Toledo and company earned revenge the following year at home when the Tigers downed UTEP, 28-14, in 1980.

THE COACHES:

Tulane: Bob Toledo (San Francisco State, 1968) is in his third season as the head coach of the Green Wave. Toledo has an 8-24 mark at Tulane and a career record of 86-92 in 16 years as a Division I head coach. He became the 37th head coach in school history on Dec. 11, 2006, and has coached in 13 bowl games, including seven traditional New Year's Day bowls.

His previous head coaching stint was at UCLA (1996-2002), where he led the Bruins to two Pac-10 titles, a school-record 20-game win streak, two final top-10 national rankings and was twice named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year.

UTEP: Mike Price (Puget Sound, 1969) is in his sixth season at UTEP and has record of 33-35 at the school and has a 28-year coaching mark of 162-157. Price, a former National Coach of the Year at Washington State, has presided over the winningest five-year period in the modern era of UTEP football. The Miners have posted 30 victories over the last five seasons and annually ranked among the nation's most prolific offensive teams. UTEP hasn't posted 30 or more victories in a five-year period since going 31-17 from 1954-58.

THIS-N-THAT ABOUT TULANE AND UTEP

A win against UTEP would...

- Give TU's Bob Toledo his ninth victory at Tulane and his 87th overall.
- Give Tulane its first conference win of the season
- Snap a 10-game skid in C-USA games (last win, SMU, 34-27 in 2008)
- Snap a five-game skid in C-USA home games (last win, SMU, 34-27 in 2008)
- Give Tulane a 2-0 all-time record against the Miners at the Superdome
- Snap a four-game skid (last win, at Army, Oct. 3)
- Improve to 2-4 at home this season
- Give Tulane its first win during the month of November since 2007 (11/17, at Rice, 45-31)

A loss against UTEP would...

- Drop Tulane to 2-7 for the second straight season
- Drop Tulane to 1-5 at home this season
- Extend TU's current losing streak to five straight
- Extend TU's conference skid to 11 straight losses, including six straight at home
- Give UTEP its first win in New Orleans

DESPITE CURRENT SKID, BOWL SEASON NOT OUT OF QUESTION

• Conference USA has seven bowl partners for the 2009 season and although Tulane is just 2-6 and mired in a four-game skid, a 6-6 finish and bowl berth is not out of the question.

Currently, only one C-USA team in bowl eligible (Houston with seven wins), while East Carolina, Marshall and Southern Miss each have five victories and UCF, Tulsa and SMU each have four wins.

Tulane battles four straight league rivals that have a combined record of 11-20, including UTEP (3-5), Rice (0-8), UCF (4-3) and SMU (4-4). However following this week's final home game against the Miners, Tulane must play its final three games of the year on the road.

KWENTUA PUTTING TOGETHER PRODUCTIVE SENIOR CAMPAIGN

Kwentua is the first Green Wave defensive lineman to pick off a pass since Reggie Scott accomplished the feat against East Carolina on Sept. 12, 2008 in the Louisiana Superdome.

This season, Kwentua has quietly become the leader in the trenches for the TU defense. He leads TU's defensive linemen in tackles this season with 28 (15 solo) and has one stop for lost yardage and a fumble recovery.

TRUE FROSH GARRETT HAS SOLID OUTING IN STARTING DEBUT

• Freshman safety Jordan Garrett was forced into the starting role for the Green Wave at No. 9 LSU last week after regular starter Alex Wacha was sidelined with a concussion. In his first collegiate start in front of 92,031 at Tiger Stadium, Garrett posted a career-best eight tackles (3 solo, 5 assists), which was the second-best effort of the night by a Green Wave player.

SCOTT GETTING BACK TO 2008 FORM

• Last season, senior Reggie Scott accounted for 31 tackles (25 solo), including a 6.5 stops for lost yardage, two sacks and an interception.

After missing the first two games of the season for disciplinary reasons, Scott has slowly returned to last year's form. Through six games, he has 19 tackles, but more importantly 5.5 stops for lost yardage, one sack and one fumble recovery. Scott had four tackles and a sack last week at No. 9 LSU.

THE ONE-TWO PUNCH OF ANDERSON, WILLIAMS

• The Tulane duo of Andre Anderson and Jeremy Williams has each played a key role in leading the Wave this season. To date, Anderson and Williams have totaled 1,911 (Williams- 1069; Anderson- 842) all-purpose yards on 242 combined touches, or 7.9 yards per play.

	Anderson	Williams	Combined yards
Tulsa	49-rush/37-rec	20-rush/139-rec	69-rush/176-rec
BYU	36-rush/12-rec	4-rush/65-rec	40-rush/77-rec
McNeese St.	199-rush/0-rec	10-rush/222-rec	209-rush/222-rec
Army	70-rush/14-rec	16-rush/108-rec/97-kor	86-rush/122-rec/97-kor
Marshall	92-rush/43-rec	-12-rush/53-rec/29-kor	80-rush/96-rec/29-kor
Houston	108-rush/38-rec	45-rush/63-rec	153-rush/101-rec
Southern Miss	92-rush/24-rec	12-rush/21-rec/29-kor	104-rush/45-rec/29-kor
LSU	27-rush/1-rec	21-rush/78-rec/58-kor	48-rush/79-rec/58-kor
Total	673-rush/169-rec	116-rush/740-rec/213-kor	789-rush/909-rec/213-kor

ROBOTTOM ENJOYING BREAKOUT SEASON

• Although he plays opposite of Jeremy Williams, the team's leader in all-purpose yards, junior split end Casey Robottom is enjoying the best season of his collegiate career. Robottom entered the year with career numbers of 27 receptions for 385 yards and one touchdown. Through eight games, Robottom has amassed 28 receptions for 338 yards (12.1 ypr) and a score.

Robottom snagged a career single game best seven receptions at No. 9 LSU for 63 yards, while his best game in terms of receiving yards came in the season opener against Tulsa with 82 yards and a touchdown. He ranks second on the team in both receptions and yards.

WILLIAMS PLAYS HIS WAY ON TO BILETNIKOFF LIST

• Tulane senior flanker Jeremy Williams is among the top-20 receivers listed on the Biletnikoff Award Watch List, which is presented annually to the nation's top receiver, for his performance this season.

Williams continues to burn opponents' secondary's this season with 52 receptions for 740 (14.2) yards and three touchdowns, and he has two 100-yard and one 200-yard receiving games. He currently ranks second among C-USA players and ranks 17th nationally for receiving yards per game with 92.50, while his 6.50 receptions per game ranks fourth in the league and is 22nd nationally.

RUMBLIN', STUMBLIN' THROUGH THE DEFENSE

• Prior to the Army game, sophomore Antoine Duplessis had never touched the football in a game and had always been the primary blocker for the Tulane running backs. However, Duplessis has become very offensive from his fullback spot with 103 (51-rush/52-rec.) total yards and a score.

Duplessis made his first career reception in the second quarter of the Army game and then was handed the ball three times and turned 32 yards, including a career-long 26-yard gallop on Tulane's touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.

The following week ago vs. Marshall, the 6-2, 262-pounder rushed four times for 19 yards and caught one pass for a career-long 15 yards.

Last week, Duplessis caught three passes for 26 yards at No. 9 LSU.

PLAYING WITH A PURPOSE

• Tulane's Jeremy Williams has evolved into one of the nation's top all-purpose players this season. Williams is averaging 133.62 all-purpose yards per outing, which ranks sixth among Conference USA players and is 39th nationally.

Williams is averaging 92.5 receiving yards (740 total), 3.7 rushing yards (116 total) and 19.4 per kickoff return (11 returns for 213 yards) per contest. He has touched the ball 96 times for 912 yards for an average of 11.1 yards per play.

Last week at No. 9 LSU, Williams posted his fifth 100-plus all-purpose yard game of the season, tallying 78 yards through the air, 21 on the ground (on four carries) and 58 return yards (on four kickoff returns). He now has 3,015 career all-purpose yards, which is 364 shy of cracking the Top 10 in Tulane history. His 1,069 all-purpose yards in 2009 are 290 shy of P.J. Franklin's mark of 1,359 in 1998 for 10th place in Green Wave single-season history.

HEADING UP THE D-FENCE

• The Tulane defense starts with the foursome of senior linebacker Travis Burks, freshman linebacker Shakiel Burks, junior safety Alex Wacha and senior safety Chinonso Echebelem. The group has combined for 236 tackles (137 solo), including 7.5 stops for lost yardage (-28 yards), and one quarterback sack. The group has also amassed six forced fumbles and four pass breakups.

Echebelem leads the team with 79 tackles and has a one interception, two PBUs and four forced fumbles.

Burks is second in total stops with 59, while Wach is third in tackles with 56. The newcomer Smith has been a pleasant surprise as a rookie with 42 tackles, which is the fourth-best effort on the team, and has a team-best three stops for lost yardage, one sack and two PBUs. In fact, he was named the Louisiana Co-Defensive Player of the Week, as selected by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association on 10/6.

WILLIAMS WORKING HIS WAY UP THE RECORD LADDER

• Jeremy Williams continues to climb his way up the TU record book. He currently has 2,434 receiving yards on 165 catches (14.7 ypr) and 15 touchdown catches.

- He ranks ninth for both receptions and receiving touchdowns and is sixth for receiving yards, while his eight 100-yard receiving games ranks fifth and his yards per reception is currently the fifth best in the TU annals.

- Williams needs one reception to move up to eighth place and is one score short of eighth place and is 26 yards shy of fifth place.

- He is the ninth player in school history to surpass 2,000 career receiving yards.

TULANE'S YOUTH MOVEMENT

• In a recent nationwide poll conducted by Sports Information Directors, Tulane has played the most true freshmen of any school in the nation this season with 18 rookies seeing playing time, including five who have at least one start this season.

In fact, a total of 24 freshmen (18-true; 6-redshirt) have played. Twelve true freshmen saw action in the season opener: D.J. Banks, Ryan Grant, Jordan Garrett, Payten Jason, Shakiel Smith, Kevin Burris, Devin Figaro, Cody Ledford, Ryan Travis, Brock Sanders and walk-on Devon Walker. Also making their Tulane debuts were redshirt freshmen Darryl Farley and John Edwards.

In the second game of the season, six more true freshmen saw the field for the first time in their collegiate careers, including L.J. Abrams, Stephen Barnett, Shane Delery, Hunter Howden, Zach Morgan and Jordan Sullen, while a pair of redshirt freshmen earned playing time for the first time: Ryan Griffin and D.J. Ponder, while Austen Jacks came off the bench against McNeese State.

A total of 70 Green Wave players have played this season and of the 70, 13 are sophomores and 23 of those are either true or redshirt freshmen, which means 36, or 56 percent of the team, are either first or second year players.

FRESHMEN PAY IMMEDIATE DIVIDENDS FOR GREEN WAVE

- Linebacker/Nickelback Shakiel Smith is the only freshman on the team to start every game this season and ranks fourth on the team in tackles with 42.

- Offensive guard Zach Morgan made his first collegiate start vs, McNeese State and has started the last six games.

- Hunter Howden made his first career start vs. McNeese State and also started at Army. He has played in five games this season.

- Austen Jacks was expected to redshirt this season, but injuries to the linebacking group forced him into action against McNeese State and he started the following game at Army and has played in four games. Jacks has 15 stops this season, including one sack.

- Running back/returner Stephen Barnett has returned 16 kickoffs for 303 yards (18.9), including a career-high 34-yarder vs. Southern Miss.

- Safety Jordan Garrett has 18 stops (11 solo) in eight games and has one start (LSU).

- Tight end Kevin Burris has five receptions for 42 yards in seven games.

- Receiver Ryan Grant has caught seven passes for 28 yards in four contests.

- Prior to suffering his season ending injury, running back/kickoff returner Payten Jason rushed 19 times for 85 yards, returned eight kickoffs for 158 yards (19.8 ypr), including a 38-yard return, and caught seven passes for 36 yards.

- Receiver/quarterback/running back/returner D.J. Banks has rushed four times for six yards, has six receptions for 61 yards, completed his 1-of-3 pass attempts for 39 yards, returned 10 kickoffs for 157 yards (15.7 ypr) and has three punt returns. Perhaps Banks' biggest play of the season so far came as a holder. On the game-winning field goal at Army, he took a bad snap that landed flat on the ground and quickly recovered in time for Ross Thevenot to boot the game-winner.

RUNNING BACKS THRIVE IN TOLEDO'S WEST COAST SYSTEM

• Throughout his career as a head coach, Bob Toledo has been a running backs' best friend. Dating back to his days as the head coach at UCLA and through two years at Tulane, running backs have thrived in his West Coast system as both runners and receivers. Toledo's last four prominent running backs- Skip Hicks and DeShaun Foster at UCLA and Matt Forte and Andre Anderson at Tulane- have combined for 9,808 rushing yards and 1,817 receiving yards.

Foster registered the most career yards under Toledo with 3,194 rushing yards and 548 receiving yards for 3,742 total yards, while Forte produced the most single season yards for a Toledo-led squad with a school record 2,127 rushing yards and 282 receiving yards for 2,409 total yards. Forte's total remains the sixth-best single season effort in NCAA history.

Player	Rushing Yds	Receiving Yds
*Skip Hicks (UCLA, 1993-97)	3,140	697
DeShaun Foster (UCLA, 1998-01)	3,194	548
Matt Forte (Tulane, 2007)	2,127	282
Andre Anderson (Tulane, 2007-08)	1,666	396

Forte played just one season under Toledo

Anderson has played two of his four seasons under Toledo

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

- Tulane's Jeremy Williams and Reggie Scott have each already earned their bachelor's degrees and are working on separate degrees. Williams earned his bachelor's degree in media arts and is headed toward a master's degree in liberal arts, while Scott was an exercise science major and is working towards a double major in liberal arts.

- Seniors Andre Anderson and David Kirksey were selected by their teammates as the permanent team captains for the 2009 season.

- Tulane 2009 roster features a pair of identical twins in Kendrell (#23) and Kendrick Washington. Both players play the same position (cornerback) and are the height (5-9) and weight (160).

- Freshman Jordan Sullen's cousin, Craig Davis, played football at LSU and is currently a member of the San Diego Chargers.

- Freshman Derrick Strozier's has two cousins, Mike Jones and Art Strozier, who are former NFL players.

- Freshman Brock Sanders' father, Eric, enjoyed a 12-year NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons (1981-86) and Detroit Lions (1986-92).

- Junior center Andrew Nierman prepped at John Curtis High School and blocked for highly-touted USC freshman running back Joe McKnight. Together the two offensive players led JCHS to a combined record of 50-3 with three state championships. During his senior season, he helped lead the way for one of the nation's top prep offenses with 4,310 yards and 58 touchdowns.

- Redshirt-freshman Rich Bell's father, Richard, was an All-America football player at Rhode Island and had NFL stints with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and San Diego Chargers.

- Redshirt-freshman Alex Lauricella's uncle, Hank, was an All-America football player at Tennessee.

- Sophomores Chris Asumnu and Emmanuel Aluko were also prep teammates at Houston's (Texas) Alief Elsik High School.

- Chris Asumnu brings a talented athletic lineage to Tulane. His sister, Gloria, was a multi All-America track athlete for the Green Wave, while his brother, Stanley, played both football and basketball at Tennessee and is a member of the Rio Grande Valley Vipers of the NBA Developmental League.

- Assistant coach Greg Jackson was a four-year letterwinner at LSU from 1985-88, and garnered first-team All-SEC and All-America honors in 1988. He helped the Tigers to two league titles and to four straight bowls. Jackson was drafted by the NFL's New York Giants in 1989 and helped that team to a Super Bowl title in 1991. He spent 12 years in the NFL and played with the Giants, Philadelphia Eagles, New Orleans Saints and San Diego Chargers.

- Offensive line coach Mark Hutson has spent 17 years in collegiate coaching. However, he is most noted for scoring a touchdown on a Fumblerooski in the 1988 Orange Bowl against Miami (Fla.). As an All-America guard at Oklahoma against Miami in the fourth quarter of the Orange Bowl, Hutson picked up the ball after Sooners quarterback Charles Thompson had taken the snap and laid it on the ground and rambled 29 yards for a touchdown. However, OU lost the game for the national championship 20-14.

- Tulane receivers coach Thomas "TD" Woods completed his collegiate career at Tennessee as the Volunteers' single-season and career receiving leader. Woods was a two-time All-Southeastern conference selection.

TULANE FOOTBALL REMEMBERS ANDREW VILLAR WITH HELMET STICKER

The Tulane football team will remember football student-athlete Andrew Villar this season by wearing a special helmet sticker with Villar's No. 16 for the entire year. Villar died on Thursday, April 30, 2009, in his hometown of Gonzales, La., of unknown causes. A 6-0, 174-pound kicker, Villar walked on to the Tulane football team in the spring of 2008 and was a member of the squad during the 2008 campaign. He completed his second spring season as a Green Wave player. He had also tried out for the Wave baseball team in the fall of 2007.

BOB TOLEDO

Head Coach
Third Year
San Francisco State, 1968

- Named the 37th head coach in the 115-year history of the Tulane football program on Dec. 11, 2006.

- Has a 8-24 record at Tulane.

- Sports an overall record of 86-92 in 16 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

- Coached in his 150th game on Sept. 29, 2007, against No. 2 LSU and his 175th game on Oct. 10, 2009, vs. Marshall.

- Despite a 4-8 record during his first season at Tulane, Toledo still managed to lead the Wave into the national spotlight. Under his offensive philosophy, senior tailback Matt Forté rushed for a school record 2,127 yards, the seventh-best single season total in NCAA history, and he became the 12th player to surpass the 2,000-yard rushing plateau in a single year. Forté earned numerous All-America honors, including second team All-America honors, and was among the contenders for the Heisman Trophy, the Doak Walker and Maxwell Awards, and was named the national player of the week twice in his lone season under Toledo.

- Has more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Green Wave football team, including head coaching stints at Cal Riverside (15-6 with two championships from 1974-75), University of the Pacific (14-30 from 1979-82) and UCLA (1996-2002). He has coached in 13 bowl games during his career, including seven of the traditional New Year's Day bowls.

- Spent seven years (1996-2002) as the head coach at UCLA where he compiled a 49-32 record overall. The Bruins produced a school-record 20-game winning streak, plus two Pac-10 titles, one Rose Bowl appearance and non-conference victories over Texas (twice), Alabama (twice), Michigan, Ohio State and Texas A&M.

- Under Toledo, UCLA went 10-2 in 1998, climbing to No. 2 in the national polls. The Bruins finished the regular season ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense (40.5) and eighth in total offense (482.6). They set school records for total offense (5,487 yards), passing yards (3,658) and passing touchdowns (29) and Toledo was a finalist for three Coach of the Year awards.

- The 1997 UCLA team finished 10-2 and ranked No. 5 in the nation after rallying to defeat Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl. The Bruins trailed the Aggies 16-0 before making a dramatic second-half comeback to win 29-23. UCLA averaged 40.7 points and more than 430 yards during the regular season.

- Prior to becoming UCLA head coach in January of 1996, Toledo was the Bruins' offensive coordinator for two seasons (1994-95) under Terry Donahue. Offensive tackle Jonathon Ogden won the Outland Trophy and tailback Karim Abdul-Jabbar was first team All-America in 1995.

- Served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for R.C. Slocum at Texas A&M for five years (1989-93). During that span, the Aggies posted a gaudy 49-12-1 record with three Southwest Conference titles and five straight bowl games, including three consecutive Cotton Bowl appearances. His 1990 Aggie offense still holds the school record for total yards in a single game (774 yards on 76 plays against Louisiana-Lafayette) and season game average with 471.1 yards per game that year.

- Toledo served as the offensive coordinator at Oregon for six seasons (1983-88), and helped tutor two of the Pac-10's most productive quarterbacks - Chris Miller and Bill Musgrave.

- Before his head coaching stint at Pacific, Toledo guided the secondary under John Robinson at Southern Cal from 1976-78. The Trojans went 31-6 in three seasons and were co-national champs after the 1978 campaign. Toledo's most heralded pupils included Dennis Thurman, Ronnie Lott and Dennis Smith.

- Toledo's first collegiate head coaching position was at Cal Riverside from 1974-75. The Highlanders were 15-6 and captured a pair of California Collegiate Athletic Association championships.

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
Tulsa	17	3	3	14	37
Tulane	0	3	7	3	13

NEW ORLEANS - Joe Kemp threw for a career-high 278 yards and a touchdown in his first collegiate start and Casey Robottom snared a personal-best six passes, but it was not enough as Tulane dropped the season opener to Conference USA foe Tulsa, 37-13.

The Golden Hurricane stormed out to a 17-0 lead over the first nine minutes of play and withstood the Green Wave offense's best efforts to cruise to the 24-point victory.

Kemp completed 16-of-26 passes, but was sacked five times and finished with minus -37 yards rushing on six carries. Robottom posted 82 yards receiving, including a 20-yard touchdown grab with 5:19 left in the third quarter, while Jeremy Williams had five catches for 139 yards. André Anderson finished the day with 86 yards of total offense after posting 49 yards on 19 carries on the ground and hauling in two passes for another 37 yards through the air.

Chinonso Echebelem led the Green Wave defense with 12 tackles and Tulane posted four sacks on the day: one each by Kirksey, Logan Kelley, Justin Adams and Shakiel Smith.

The Green Wave got off to a rough start in the first quarter. Offensively, Tulane suffered three sacks and had a pass intercepted. The defense was forced to play against a short field and Tulsa took advantage with a 22-yard field goal by Kevin Fitzpatrick with 4:31 into the game, a 15-yard touchdown run by G.J. Kinne just over four minutes later, and a five-yard scoring gallop by Charles Clay with six minutes left to play in the opening stanza to stake the Golden Hurricane to a 17-0 advantage.

Tulane's offense began to click from there, but saw a 10-play, 63-yard drive produce a goose-egg as Ross Thevenot's 31-yard field goal was blocked by Tulsa Odrick Ray. The Wave drove 46-yards on its next possession but was forced to punt. Tulane finally got on the board with 55-seconds remaining in the half when Thevenot split the uprights from 27 yards out to make a two-score game.

Tulsa, however, stretched its lead back to 17 just before halftime as Damaris Johnson returned the ensuing kickoff 39 yards and Fitzpatrick was true from 33 yards away as time expired to cap a five-play, 38-yard drive to make it 20-3 at the break.

The Golden Hurricane padded the advantage in the opening drive of the second half when Fitzpatrick capped a 63-yard drive with a 24-yard field goal. Tulane got a big play from Williams on its first possession of the third quarter as he hauled in an intermediate pass from Kemp and broke a pair of tackles for a 68-yard gain to give the Wave first-and-goal from the four. Tulsa defense, however, stiffened and stopped four straight running plays.

Tulane's defense forced a three-and-out, and following a 16-yard punt return by Robottom, Anderson scampered for 21 yards before Kemp found Robottom from 20 yards out to make it a 23-10 ballgame.

The Golden Hurricane appeared to answer Tulane's score with a touchdown of its own, but Echebelem forced a Clay fumble at the one-yard line and Charles Harris recovered it in the end zone for a touchback. Following a punt by each team, Tulsa got back on the board early in the fourth quarter when Johnson returned a punt 66 yards for a score. An apparent 14-yard touchdown pass from Kemp to Williams was wiped out due to a penalty midway through the fourth quarter and the Wave had to settle for a 29-yard Thevenot field goal with 10:20 left to play. Tulsa put the game away when Kinne found Trae Johnson along the sideline for a 12-yard scoring strike with 1:46 showing on the clock to cap a five play, 54-yard drive and account for the final score.

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
BYU	3	17	14	20	54
Tulane	0	3	0	0	3

NEW ORLEANS - It started out a close game and ended a rout as Tulane dropped a 54-3 decision to No. 9 BYU.

BYU held a slight 6-3 lead following a 29-yard field goal by Tulane's Ross Thevenot with 6:03 left in the first half. From there, however, it was all Cougars as BYU got a pair of touchdowns later in the period and scored on four of its first five possessions in the second half.

BYU quarterback Max Hall completed 24-of-31 passes for 309 yards and two touchdowns. J.J. DiLuigi ran for 71 yards and two scores on 12 carries, while Bryan Kariya was close behind with 63 yards and a touchdown on 12 carries. Dennis Pitta and O'Neill Chambers hauled in four passes each for 47 and 38 yards, respectively.

Joe Kemp, one of four passers used by the Green Wave on the day, led the team with 101 yards on 14-of-19 passing. Jeremy Williams and Ryan Grant each hauled in five passes apiece, and André Anderson led the Tulane ground effort with 36 yards on 12 carries.

BYU got on the board first as Mitch Payne capped a 10-play, 45-yard drive with a 31-yard field goal less than nine minutes into the ballgame and put the Cougars on top 6-0 with a 20-yarder 45 seconds into the second quarter. After getting just a pair of first downs on their first two possessions, the Green Wave offense got things going in the second stanza and drove from their own 32 down to the Cougar 12. BYU's defense kept Tulane out of the endzone and Thevenot's field goal made it a 6-3 ballgame.

From there, the Cougar offense turned things up a notch, driving 67 yards in just 2:35 capped by a one-yard touchdown jaunt by Brian Kariya and turned a Tulane interception into another score as Hall connected with Kariya for 12 yards with 25 seconds to play in the first half to go into the locker room on top, 20-3.

Chinonso Echebelem picked off Hall on BYU's first possession of the second half, but that was perhaps the Green Wave's lone highlight the rest of the way.

DiLuigi scored his first touchdown of the day on a three-yard run to cap a 13-play, 89-yard drive with 6:24 left to play in the third quarter, and Hall found McKay Jacobson deep for a 38-yard touchdown strike just over three minutes later to stretch the Cougar lead to 34-3. DiLuigi found paydirt again 1:53 into the fourth quarter.

The Cougar defense, meanwhile, forced a pair of fumbles, including one returned by Jordan Pendleton for a 12-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The defense got into the scoring mix on the ensuing possession when Terrance Hooks forced a fumble, which was picked up by Jordan Pendleton and returned 12 yards for a score. Backup quarterback Riley Nelson closed out the scoring with a one-yard keeper with 2:00 remaining in the ballgame to account for the final score.

Echebelem paced the Tulane defense with nine tackles, including six solo stops, while junior defensive back Alex Wacha was next with eight. Shane Delery posted the team's only tackle for

Game 3 • Tulane 42, McNeese State 32 Louisiana Superdome • New, Orleans, La. Sept. 26, 2009 • 29,028

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
McNeese St.	10	7	8	7	32
Tulane	7	14	14	7	42

NEW ORLEANS - André Anderson and Jeremy Williams combined for 431 all-purpose yards as Tulane picked up its first win of the 2009 season with a 42-32 victory over McNeese State.

Williams snared a career-high 10 passes for 222 yards and two touchdowns - and carried the ball four times for 10 yards on the ground - while Anderson finished the day with 199 rushing yards and a personal-best four touchdowns on 28 carries.

Williams posted the seventh 100-yard receiving day of his career. His total against the Cowboys ranks third in Tulane single-game history, 16 behind second-place Marc Zeno against then-Southwest Louisiana on Nov. 14, 1987 and 49 off the Green Wave record of 271 set by Jerome McIntosh vs. Vanderbilt on Nov. 18, 1989. Anderson, meanwhile, posted his fifth 100-yard rushing game of his career and his Saturday total ranks 14th in school history.

Joe Kemp completed 10-of-13 passes - all to Williams - with a pair of touchdowns and two interceptions. Travis Burks paced the defense with 11 tackles (six solo, five assists) and the Green Wave forced a season-high four fumbles, including two by Alex Wacha.

The Cowboys got on the board first, taking the opening kickoff and driving 54 yards down the field capped by a 29-yard field goal by Josh Lewis 3:38 into the ballgame. The advantage lasted just 1:24 as Anderson ran for 12 yards on the Green Wave's first play from scrimmage, Kemp found Williams for a 44-yard gain and Anderson plunged in from two yards out two plays later to give the Green Wave a 7-3 lead.

McNeese State answered Tulane's score with a touchdown of its own as Cowboys' tailback Todd Pendland capped a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run with 6:07 left to play in the opening quarter.

Neither team scored on their next possessions, but Tulane took the lead for good when on Anderson's second scoring run of the day - an 11-yard jaunt 2:49 into the second stanza. The Green Wave defense forced a three-and-out, and the offense picked up where it left off as Kemp found Williams for a 34-yard touchdown pass to cap a four-play, 59-yard drive and give Tulane a 21-10 lead.

The Cowboys got back some momentum with a clock-eating 16-play, 86-yard drive on the ensuing possession which culminated with a one-yard Pendland score but Tulane went into the locker room at the break on top by four.

It took the Green Wave just 2:41 into the second half to pad its lead as Kemp found Williams from 40 yards out to push the lead back to nine. Two McNeese State drives later, however, the Cowboys sliced the lead to three as Derrick Fourroux connected with Richard Connor for a seven-yard touchdown and found Wes Mangan for a two-point conversion to make it a 28-25 contest.

The Tulane offense, meanwhile, answered quickly with a two-play drive capped by a 63-yard touchdown run by Anderson with just under two minutes to play in the third, and seven-play, 66-yard drive finishing with two-yard Anderson rumble to give the Green Wave a commanding 42-25 lead.

The Cowboys took just 41 seconds to cut the deficit to 10 as Fourroux hooked up with Immanuel Friddle for a 43-yard gain, and Friddle recovered a Pendland fumble in the endzone to make it 42-32. An interception by Seth Thomas gave the Cowboys new life 2:11 later, but Wacha jarred the ball loose from Fourroux on a quarterback keeper and the Green Wave was able to run out the clock.

Game 4 • Tulane 17, Army 16 Michie Stadium • West Point, N.Y. Oct. 3, 2009 • 26,076

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
Tulane	0	7	0	10	17
Army	10	0	0	6	16

Tulane trailed Army for the majority of the game and was behind by nine with 11:44 left in the fourth quarter. The Green Wave, however, got a one-yard touchdown run by senior running back André Anderson 2:34 later and Thevenot made amends for a 30-yard miss earlier in the ballgame on what proved to be the game winner.

On the ensuing kickoff, Army's Damion Hunter returned the ball 46 yards and looked to have the Black Knights in great position with less than two minutes to play. Army passed twice for 15 yards followed by a Kingsley Ehie run down to the 20-yard line. After a pair of stops by the Tulane defense, Army and Tulane each traded timeouts and the Black Knights sent Carlton onto the field with 16 seconds left on the clock. Carlton was a perfect 3-for-3 entering the moment, including a 37-yarder back in the first quarter. This time, his kick was off line and the Tulane sideline erupted in celebration.

The opening minutes of the game were the mirror image of last year's contest at Tad Gormley Stadium in New Orleans as Christopher Swain blocked a Thevenot punt and Christopher Swain fell on the football at the Tulane 10.

Three plays later, Trent Steelman capped off a three-play drive with a one-yard touchdown run to give the home team a quick 7-0 lead. Following a Tulane punt, the Black Knights extended their lead to 10-0 on a 37-yard Carlton field goal.

Tulane got on the board with its next possession when the Wave marched 54 yards in 10 plays. Joe Kemp rang up his favorite receiver with a 15-yard touchdown strike to Jeremy Williams on the second play of the second quarter.

On the ensuing possession, Army ran the ball down to the Tulane 15-yard line and looked to increase its lead. But on third and six, the Black Knights attempted their first pass of the day and Harris made them pay with an interception near the goal line. Tulane and Army each had two possessions during the final 9:41 of the second quarter, but neither team was able to capitalize and the contest remained 10-7 at the break.

The teams continued to trade punts in the third quarter before Tulane put together a 10-play, 52-yard drive that took the Wave deep into Army territory. Following Kemp's six-yard completion to Casey Robotom that fell three yards of a first down, Thevenot attempted to tie the game but his 30-yard attempt was wide left.

Following a pair of three-and-outs by both teams, the Tulane defense stopped Army's option attack and forced yet another punt. Jordan Garrett, however, was flagged for roughing the punter and the Black Knights made the most of their second chance and Carlton connected on a 32-yard field goal to give Army a 13-7 lead 28 seconds into the fourth quarter.

Williams once again gave Tulane great starting possession with a 35-yard return, but on Tulane's next play from scrimmage, Kemp mishandled the snap and Army recovered at the Green Wave's 33-yard line. Three plays later, Carlton booted his third field goal of the contest with a 36-yard attempt to push the Army advantage to 16-7 at the 11:44 mark.

From there, Tulane marched 61 yards on seven plays and Anderson capped the drive with one-yard scoring plunge to cut the deficit to a pair. Army moved into Green Wave territory on the ensuing possession, but the Tulane defense held on fourth down to set up the winning drive.

Taking over at its' own 37-yard line, Tulane got 47 yards from Anderson on six carries, and Kemp found Robotom for a 10-yard gain. Army's defense held inside the 10-yard line, but Thevenot's kick proved to be the difference.

NEW ORLEANS - André Anderson tallied 135 all-purpose yards and Jeremy Williams snared a game-high eight passes, but it was not enough as Tulane dropped a 31-10 Homecoming decision to Conference USA foe Marshall at the Louisiana Superdome.

The Green Wave dominated the stat sheet, running for 189 yards to Marshall's 116 and posting 215 yards through the air to the Herd's 207 and commanding a 7:44 advantage in time of possession. The difference in the game, however, was turnovers where Tulane gave away the ball four times - two fumbles and a pair of interceptions - and Marshall turned that into two touchdowns and a field goal.

Trailing 14-7 with 41 seconds left in the first half, Tulane had a chance to tie the ballgame as the Green Wave drove from its own 18 all the way to the Marshall one. A two-yard Anderson run gave Tulane third-and-goal from the one, but the Thundering Herd defense stopped Anderson cold on third down and nailed Antoine Duplessis on fourth down to send the Green Wave away scoreless despite a 19-play, 81-yard drive that chewed 10:59 off the clock.

To make matters worse for Tulane, the Marshall offense marched 99 yards down the field over the next 4:08 and capped the drive when Brian Anderson found Chuck Walker down the middle for a 21-yard touchdown with 34 seconds left in the opening half to take a commanding 21-7 lead in the ballgame.

The Green Wave defense held Marshall running back Darius Marshall - the NCAA's leader entering the ballgame with a 159.75 yard-per-game average - to just 98 yards on 20 carries. Marshall, however, found the endzone twice and Anderson had a solid day under center, completing 18-of-22 passes for 207 yards, one touchdown and one interception.

Alex Wachua led the defensive effort, tying a career high with eight tackles (five solo, three assists) and a pass break-up. Travis Burks had seven tackles, and Chinonso Echebelem was next with six.

Tulane drew first blood on Saturday, taking the opening kickoff and driving 67 yards on eight plays for a touchdown. Facing a second-and-six situation from the Herd 32-yard line, Tulane head coach Bob Toledo reached into his bag of tricks with a swinging gate that saw Joe Kemp snap the ball to Anderson. Anderson darted left initially before handing off to Jordan Sullen who ran untouched into the endzone for his first collegiate score.

While his first trick play turned into a touchdown, Toledo's second did not fare as well as a surprise on-side kickoff attempt was recovered by Marshall's Pete Culicerto at the Tulane 44-yard line. The Herd took advantage of the short field and Marshall capped a six-play drive with an 11-yard by the running back of the same name to tie the score.

The two teams traded punts, and Tulane had something going late in the opening quarter as the Green Wave converted a pair of third downs to get into Marshall territory. A sack pushed the Wave back to their own 45 and Albert McClellan forced a fumble on the next play. Ashton Hall scooped up the ball and run 29 yards to give the Herd a 14-7 lead they would not relinquish.

Tulane went into the locker room at halftime down by two scores, but it became a three-score ballgame early in the third quarter as an Anderson fumble gave Marshall the ball at its own

Early in the fourth quarter, Brandon Burns picked off a Kemp pass and returned it 65 yards to set up the Herd offense at Tulane's five yard line. On the next play, Marshall's Marshall made it a 24-point affair with his second touchdown plunge of the day.

Ross Thevenot cut the deficit to 21 with a 33-yard field goal with 9:31 left to play, but that proved to be the final score of the ballgame.

Game 6 • Houston 44, Tulane 16 Louisiana Superdome • New Orleans, La. Oct. 17, 2009 • 22,891

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final
Houston	3	6	20	15	44
Tulane	3	3	0	10	16

NEW ORLEANS - The Green Wave defense held the high-powered Cougar attack in check in the first half and trailed by just three at 9-6 at halftime, but Houston piled up 295 of its 516 yards of total offense and scored touchdowns on five straight possessions to hand Tulane a 44-16 defeat in the Louisiana Superdome.

André Anderson ran for 108 yards on 18 carries and Jeremy Williams posted over 100 all-purpose yards on the day with six catches for 63 yards while running eight times for a career-best 45 on the ground.

Cougar quarterback Case Keenum, however, countered with 371 yards and two touchdowns on 33-of-46 passing and Houston ran for 145 yards as a team on 33 totes. Chaz Rodriguez was Keenum's favorite target on the day, hauling in six passes for 84 yards. James Cleveland and L.J. Castille both caught touchdown passes while Bryce Bealle and Justin Johnson each had a pair of scoring runs.

The Cougars converted 9-of-13 third-down opportunities and blocked a punt early in the second half to spark the second-half onslaught.

Houston scored the game's first points on a 22-yard field goal by Ben Bell with 9:09 left to play in the opening quarter, but Tulane tied things up quickly as Ross Thevenot capped a 12-play, 42-yard drive with his season-long boot. The defense forced the Cougars to punt on their next possession, and Tulane found a rhythm for another scoring drive. The Wave held first-and-10 at the Cougar 22 before Houston stiffened and forced the home team to settle for a 35-yard Thevenot kick to give Tulane a 6-3 lead.

The advantage did not last long as Houston took the ensuing kickoff and capped a 10-play, 63-yard drive with Bealle's first touchdown run of the game to take a 9-6 lead. Bell's PAT plunked off the right upright and he later missed a 25-yard field goal attempt, and the two teams went into the locker room at the break in a three-point battle.

The second half, however, was all Houston as the Cougars scored early and often over the final two frames. Johnson capped an eight-play 60-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown run to open the third quarter, and the door appeared to be left open for the Green Wave as Bell's point-after try ricocheted off the left upright to keep it a 15-6 ballgame. Tulane went three-and-out on the ensuing possession, and Jeremy Smith blocked a punt to give Houston a short field at the Tulane six. One play later, Keenum found Cleveland in the endzone to give the Cougars a 22-6 advantage.

Bealle scored his second touchdown of the day with 3:19 left in the third quarter to push the lead to 23, and Toledo decided to make a switch at quarterback as Ryan Griffin replaced Joe

Kemp under center. Griffin breathed a bit of life into the Tulane offense, drove the team 75 yards in 11 plays, and threw a touchdown pass to a leaping Antoine Duplessis from three yards out to cut the deficit to 16.

The Cougars, however, thwarted any talk of a comeback as Johnson rambled in from six yards out on the next Houston drive. A two-point conversion pushed the advantage to 24 at 37-17 and Keenum capped the scoring with a seven-yard strike to Castille with 2:43 left to play. The Green Wave added a Thevenot 27-yard field goal earlier in the fourth quarter, but the game had already been decided.

Southern Miss	7	13	6	17	43

HATTIESBURG, Miss. - André Anderson posted 116 all-purpose yards and hauled in a career-high six passes, but it was not enough as Tulane dropped a Conference USA contest to Southern Miss, 43-6, at M.M. Roberts Stadium.

The Golden Eagles scored in nearly every phase of the game as Southern Miss posted four offensive touchdowns – two rushing and two passing – returned a fumble for a score, and blocked a field goal that turned into a 77-yard touchdown return. The Eagle defense, meanwhile, posted six sacks on the day and held the Green Wave offense to 54 yards on the ground.

Ryan Griffin completed 21-of-33 passes for 158 yards and an interception, and was on the receiving end of all six Southern Miss sacks. He completed passes to seven different receivers – finding Anderson six times for 24 yards, Casey Robottom five times for 61 yards and Jeremy Williams four times for 21 yards.

The Southern Miss defense forced four turnovers – three fumble recoveries and a pick – and halted Tulane on fourth-down to give the Southern Miss offense a short field late in the ballgame. The USM offense, meanwhile, turned the turnovers and the fourth-down hold into a pair of touchdowns while the defense found pay dirt themselves when Jamie Collins scooped up a second-quarter fumble and rumbled 16 yards to the end zone.

Southern Miss' Martavious Young completed 13-of-15 passes for 127 yards and two scores and ran five times for another 38 yards on the ground. As a team, the Golden Eagles tallied 253 yards on 43 carries – including a 93-yard effort by Tory Harrison. DeAndre Brown was Young's favorite target on the night, hauling in four passes for 41 yards and two touchdowns.

The Golden Eagles opened the scoring in the first quarter when Young found Brown from 21 yards out to cap a nine-play, 56-yard drive with 5:25 left on the clock. They had a chance to pad their lead on their next possession, but Justin Estes missed a 23-yard field goal wide left to keep it a one-score game.

The two teams traded fumbles over the next two drives, but the Green Wave were not able to overcome a second turnover. On third-and-nine from the Tulane 14 yard line, Griffin found Williams at the 16. Collins, however, jarred the ball loose, picked up the fumble and scored to make it a 14-0 ballgame.

The Green Wave had a chance to get on the board just before halftime as Tulane drove 58 yards on 12 plays down to the Southern Miss 11. The Golden Eagle defense held on third down, and Tulane sent the field goal unit onto the field to attempt a 28-yard kick. Southern Miss wing defender C.J. Bailey came around the right corner untouched to block the kick and Andre Watson raced 77 yards to extend the lead to 20 at the break.

Southern Miss scored on its opening drive of the second half when Brown scored from six yards out to cap an 11-play, 75-yard drive, and Tulane got on the board on the ensuing drive when Anderson plunged in from a yard away on third-and-goal. Both teams missed their respective PATs, and the Golden Eagles held a 26-6 advantage heading into the fourth quarter.

The final 15 minutes of play, however, was all USM as an Estes field goal 1:20 into the frame open the floodgates for a 17-point Golden Eagle quarter. The USM defense held on fourth down at the Tulane 35, and it took the Eagle offense just four plays to turn it into points as Harrison scored to make it 36-6.

Griffin was sacked and fumbled on the next Tulane drive at the Green Wave 37, and Tracey Lamley found the paydirt five plays later to account for the final score.

Game 8 • LSU 42, Tulane 0 Tiger Stadium • Baton Rouge, La. Oct. 31, 2009 • 92,031

Quarter	1	2	3	4	Final

LSU	14	7	7	14	42

BATON ROUGE, La. - While children around the nation donned costumes and masks in their march door-to-door hollering the mantra "Trick or Treat", Tulane suffered a scare of its own as No. 9 LSU defeated the Green Wave, 42-0, Halloween Night at Tiger Stadium.

The Tigers rolled up 455 yards of total offense, including 267 on the ground, and their defense held Tulane to 216 total yards and a 3-for-13 showing on third down to hand the Green Wave their first shutout defeat since falling to No. 3 Texas, 49-0, on Sept. 28, 2002, in the Louisiana Superdome.

Tulane's receiving tandem of Jeremy Williams and Casey Robottom combined for 15 catches and 141 yards through the air, and quarterback Ryan Griffin completed 21-of-29 passes for 163 yards, but it was not enough to overcome a tough LSU team that controlled the ballgame from start to finish.

Special teams hurt the Green Wave throughout the night as they suffered a blocked punt, a missed field and allowed the Tigers to average 30.75 yards on four punt returns. LSU's Trindon Holliday had 105 yards on three punt returns, including a pair of 50-yarders.

Tulane forced an LSU punt on the opening possession of the game, and the Tigers returned the favor on the Green Wave's first drive. The difference was Daniel Graff blocked Tulane's attempt and LSU took over at the Tulane 23. Two plays later, Russell Shepard found paydirt from 19 yards out to give the home team a 7-0 advantage.

Holliday put the Tigers in position to score again with his first 50-yard return following Tulane's next possession, but the Green Wave snuffed out the drive when Adam Kwentua picked off a Jordan Jefferson pass at the Tulane 11 and returned it to the 16. The LSU defense forced a three-and-out, and the offense responded with a five-play, 63-yard drive capped by a 39-yard scoring strike from Jefferson to Brandon LaFell to put Tulane in a 14-0 hole.

The Green Wave had a chance to get on the board midway through the second quarter when the offense moved from its own 17 down to the LSU 23. Tulane lost three yards on third down, and Ross Thevenot's 43-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left.

To make matters worse for the Wave, the Tigers took over and went 74 yards over the next 3:56 and went up 21-0 on a four-yard scoring jaunt by Charles Scott. Tulane appeared to have something going late in the half as the Green Wave offense moved methodically from their own 20 to the LSU 19. Following a timeout with 1:18 left in the second quarter, Patrick Peterson stepped in front of a Griffin pass for an interception to keep it a three-down ballgame headed into the break.

The two teams traded punts to open the second half, but on Tulane's second punt over the final 30 minutes, Holliday had his second 50-yard return to give the Tigers the ball at the Green Wave 20. Three plays later, Scott scored from eight yards out to make it 28-0.

LSU posted two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter as Jefferson found LaFell for a 13-yard score with 9:55 left to play and Steven Ridley capped an 11-play, 98-yard drive with a 10-yard run with 1:12 to go to account for the final score.

Chinonso Echebelem led the Tulane defense with nine tackles, including a half-tackle for loss, while Jordan Garrett - who started for the first time against the Tigers - was next with eight.
