Lisa Stockton: 2006-07 Conference USA Coach of the Year

The winningest coach in Conference USA, Lisa Stockton concluded her 13th season at Tulane much like her first: with a conference Coach of the Year award and a trip to the post-season. The 2006-07 Conference USA Coach of the Year led her team to the regular season title, and a 26-7 overall record, and a trip back to the post-season with a second round appearance in Women's National Invitational Tournament.

In 13 seasons as a head coach of the Green Wave, Stockton has compiled a 266-127 overall record, including a 114-66 Conference USA mark. Her lifetime record of 327-152 in 16 seasons as a head coach is good for a winning percentage of 74.5 percent.

Her teams have made nine NCAA Tournament appearances (1995-2003). She guided the Green Wave to C-USA regular season titles during the 1996-97, 1998-99 and 2006-07 seasons, and won C-USA Tournament crowns in 1997, 1999, 2000 and 2001.

With 266 wins at Tulane, Stockton has more wins than the previous five Green Wave coaches earned in 19 years.

Five Tulane players have gone on to play in the WNBA, including two -- Barbara Farris with the Detroit Shock in 2003 and Janell Burse with the Seattle Storm in 2004 -- who have earned WNBA championships. Others have joined the professional ranks in other leagues, most recently 2007 graduate Jami Montagnino.

Blending athletic achievement and academic success, every student-athlete to play all four years with the Green Wave has completed their degree. In 1994-95, Stockton took the reigns of the Tulane program and led her first team to a 19-10 record and the first NCAA appearance in school history while earning Metro Conference Coach of the Year honors.

That season kicked off a string of nine consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, as her 1995-96 squad turned in her first of eight 20+ win seasons at Tulane. In 1996-97, her squad set a school record with 27 wins, earning its first C-USA title, and winning the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament game as the Green Wave advanced to the second round. The Green Wave tied its school record with a 27-5 mark in 1999-2000, winning the Conference USA tournament and advancing to the NCAA Second Round again. Stockton's 2000-01 squad finished 22-10, won the C-USA tournament again and the Green Wave won 24 games in 2001-02. The ninth-straight NCAA Tournament trip followed in 2002-03.

Deuce's Dimes: Langford is Tulane's New All-Time Assist Leader

Junior point guard Ashley Langford became the fifth player in C-USA history with 500 career helpers on Sunday vs Marshall. With 515 in 84 games (6.13 APG) she ranks fifth all-time in C-USA history.

She became Tulane's career assist leader in only 69 games, passing Susan Owens' mark of 429. Already owning Tulane's top two single-season records, she can take over the top three single-season marks with seven more assists.

Langford ranks 22th in the NCAA in assists per game at 5.50.

Long-Range Luckhurst

Senior wing Nikki Luckhurst is third all-time at Tulane in three-pointers made with 180, a total which puts her 10th all-time in Conference USA history.

She exploded for five-of-five from three-point range en route to a season-high 23 points against Rice on Valentine's Day. Her five-for-five was the most three's she has made in a game without a miss in her career, and just one off her career high of six made (against Tulsa, Feb. 24, 2006).

At .342 for her career, she is eighth on Tulane's three-point percentage list (180 of 527). She ranks fifth in C-USA in three-pointers made per game, with 1.96 per contest. Her .358 percentage this season ranks seventh in C-USA.

Dial 9 for Long Distance

Tulane's nine three-pointers made vs Rice (on 12 attempts) were the most the Green Wave have made this season, and the highest percentage (.750) Tulane has connected on in 2007-08. Tulane followed that up with seven three's in a win over Houston, two of the top four performances from behind the arc this season.

Chassity's Scoring Virtue

Sophomore Chassity Brown sprung for a career-high 23 points at SMU, including five three-pointers. Since being inserted into the starting lineup against Rhode Island, she has averaged 9.6 PPG and 3.4 RPG in 17 games. In her first eight games off the bench, she averaged 4.6 PPG and 2.1 RPG.

She leads Tulane with 50 steals, including 43 since being added to the starting lineup (17 games). While averaging 2.5 as a starter, she has turned those steals into an easy 35 points. She picked a career-high six in Tulane's win at East Carolina.

Delivering with Consistency

Senior forward Alendra Brown has put in a steady 8.7 PPG and 6.8 RPG in her last 17 games. She sprung for a career-high 16 points in Tulane's win at East Carolina on 7-of-11 shooting. She has reached double-figure scoring in six of 16 games, with two double-doubles, and two outings in which she was one rebound short of a double-double.

Brown comes in 14th in Conference USA in rebounding at 6.1 per game, tied with teammate Brittany Lindsey for the team lead.

She turned in her previous season-high 14 points in Tulane's loss to Memphis. Against Robert Morris she tallied her first double-double of the season with 13 points and 10 rebounds. She has just missed four other double doubles, with 12 pts and nine rebounds vs Nicholls State and at Rice, and 10 rebounds and nine points against UTEP. She was one-basket shy against UAB, with 10 rebounds and eight points.

A-Plus

Freshman Tiffany Aidoo tied her career high with 13 points against Marshall and added a career-best seven rebounds. In seven games as a starter she is averaging: 6.0 PPG, 3.3 RPG as a starter after averaging 5.4 PPG and 2.2 RPG off the bench.

She scored her first career-high 13 points at UTEP, while tying her then-career mark for rebounds with six. Aidoo scored a then career-best 12 points on five-of-seven shooting in Tulane's loss to Robert Morris. She has started the last eight games for Tulane.

at .514. With 32 blocks, she leads Tulane and ranks sixth in C-USA (1.28 per game). She blocked six against Winthrop and four at Rice.

Langford Leads Late

Ashley Langford scored seven of her career high 28 points in the final three minutes of Tulane's win at East Carolina, Tulane's final seven points in a five-point win.

Out Shoot 'Em

Tulane is 9-0 when connecting at a higher field goal percentage than its opponent this season, and 4-11 when posting a lower percentage. (Tulane and Winthrop posted an identical .333 FG% in the Wave's win on Nov. 18).

Langford Sets C-USA Longest Free Throw Streak

Ashley Langford made 43 consecutive free throws, the eighth longest streak in NCAA history and longest in Conference USA history. It began with her final free throw against Kansas State on November 21, and ended 11 games later with her first free throw against UTEP on January 12. The NCAA record is 66 by Richmond's Ginny Doyle (1991-92).

Turn off the (TV) Lights

The Green Wave's loss to Rice was their third in three televised contests on CSTV in the last two seasons. Tulane won both meetings at Rice in games without national television coverage.

Lifted By Langford

Junior PG Ashley Langford is now 10th all-time in career steals at Tulane with 162 after the second six-steal performance of her career on Thursday vs Rice.

Calm at the Line

Tulane's .718 free throw percentage (351-489), is currently the second-best team free throw percentage in program history.

Luckhurst Lights Up

Nikki Luckhurst connected on five three-pointers in a row for the second time in her career, nailing all five attempts vs Rice. She has three other streaks in her career hitting four straight attempts.

Coach Cook Returns

Assistant coach Shanna Cook was back in practice Monday after a medical leave of absence following surgery on her neck. Tulane great Barbara Farris assisted the Tulane staff since Dec. 20 during Cook's time away. The fifth all-time leading scorer at Tulane and 1997 All-America selection is in her off-season from the New York Liberty of the WNBA.

As The World Turns

Tulane's 27 turnovers versus UTEP on January 26 was a season-worst, the most turnovers in a game since Ashley Langford took over point guard duties, and the highest total since the season opener in 2004-05. Tulane committed less turnovers in the WNIT last season (26 in two games). The Green Wave were number 45 in the NCAA in fewest turnovers committed per game entering the contest. Tulane had not committed more turnovers than its opponent in each of the previous nine games.

'Nique is Gold vs the Miners

In the last two seasons, senior forward Dominique Philpots has scored 25 points in 49 minutes against UTEP. Against the Miners in that time, she's connected on 12-of-18 shooting and grabbed 13 rebounds.

Valiant Valicevic

Junior guard/forward Megan Valicevic recorded her first career double-double against Winthrop with 14 points (tying a career-high) and a then career-best 10 rebounds. It's the third time in her career she's reached 14 points, and her first double-digit rebounding effort. Since moving from power forward to the three-guard, Valicevic posted four-straight games scoring in double-figures prior to LSU. Against Rhode Island, Valicevic sprung for a new career high in rebounds with 11 boards.

Blocked by Brittany

Redshirt freshman Brittany Lindsey recorded six blocks in Tulane's win over Winthrop, tying for the second-highest total by a freshman at Tulane. She has now posted 32 blocks in 25 games, which ranks sixth in C-USA with 1.28 per game.

D Returns vs UAB

Tulane's defense had struggled, allowing Houston, UTEP and Memphis to shoot a combined .533 percent from the field. But the Green Wave (which held opponents to a .368 field goal pct in the first 14 games of the season) reigned in the Blazers, holding them to .393 from the field. The Wave's entered January 6th's game at Houston allowing 58.0 points per game, including allowing over 60 points to just five teams. After allowing 74, 81 and 74, the Wave held UAB to 67 and UTEP to 60.

A Tale of Two Halves

Last season, Tulane shot 72 percent from the field in the second half of a 81-56 win over UTEP. In 2008, the Miners turned the tables, shooting 72 percent in the second half Saturday in an 81-66 win.

Caging The Owls' O

The Green Wave held Rice to a season-low 38 points at Rice, the best defensive effort by Tulane this season. Tulane has held four teams under 47 points this year and six to under 53.

Hot Hand Cooks Rice

Tulane shot .556 in the second half vs Rice (15-of-27), the seventh time this season the Wave have shot over 50% in a half.

Chassity Brown Named LSWA Player of the Week

The Louisiana Sports Writers' Association honored sophomore guard Chassity Brown with its Player of the Week award for the week of Dec. 3-9 after she set career-highs in both points (17) and rebounds (7) in her first start of the season in Tulane's win at Rhode Island on Dec 5. Brown made her second career start and topped her previous career-best of 15 points off the bench in Tulane's season-opening win at Alabama.

Slowing the Roadrunners

Tulane held the Texas-San Antonio Roadrunners to just 42 points and a .219 field goal percentage, the best defensive performance of the season for the Wave. The Green Wave D allowed a season-low 14 field goals on 64 attempts, and a season-best in points allowed 42, topping the 45 the Wave held Stephen F. Austin to. The Wave out-rebounded UTSA by 19, 51-32, and forced 21 turnovers.

Quieting the Cajuns

Tulane opened Nov. 27's game at Louisiana-Lafayette with eight made shots in the first 10 attempts from the field. Tulane finished the first half with a 56.3 percentage (18-of-32) and the Wave kept it up in the second half with a 16-of-31 shooting performance for a 51.6 percentage. For the game, Tulane shot a season-best 54 percent from the field, 34-of-63. The Wave shot 42.9 percent from three-point range in the game. Of Tulane's 14 players, 13 scored in the contest, with three in double-figures and seven scoring at least five points.

Dom-inating in the Paint

Senior forward Dominique Philpots sparked Tulane's come-from behind win over Kansas State in Cancun by scoring seven points off the bench in the first half during a 28-4 Green Wave run. The Wave erased a 15-point deficit, holding the Wildcats scoreless in the final 5:26 of the first half in an eventual 60-57 win over a Big XII opponent.

She added eight points against UTEP on January 12, continuing her run of success against the Miners. In her last two games against UTEP, she has connected on nine-of-11 from the field for 18 points to go with 11 rebounds in 30 minutes of action.

Defensive Battle

Tulane's 52-36 loss to LSU featured impressive performances by both defenses: Tulane's 36 points was the fourth-lowest total in school history, and second lowest since the Wave's inaugural season in 1975-76. For Tulane, it was just the 14th time LSU has been held to 52 or less in the team's last 608 games (as of Feb. 15), a span of 18 seasons.

Home Sweet Home?

After finishing the 2006-07 season with a 15-2 record at Fogelman Arena, the Wave are 6-7 at home this season, but one of those wins came at New Orleans Arena, 69-47 over Nicholls State.

Tulane had lost three in a row at home for the first time since the 1990-91 season prior to a 61-56 win over Marshall. All-time, Tulane is 274-149 (.648) in 32 seasons at Fogelman. Tulane hosted a post-season game at Fogelman Arena for the first time (not counting C-USA Tourney) with a 76-43 win over Jackson State in the WNIT. The Green Wave's seven-game home win streak last year tied for the sixth-longest in school history.

Road Sweet Road

Tulane is 5-7 at Fogelman Arena and 9-4 in all other venues this season, including a home win over Nicholls State at New Orleans Arena. The Green Wave tied their second-longest road win streak in school history with seven to start the season until a Jan. 6 loss at Rice.

Defending Conference USA Champions; One Shy of School Record for Wins

In 2006-07, Tulane won its third regular season Conference USA title and the first-ever outright C-USA title in school history with a 13-3 regular season. The Green Wave shared the regular season crown in 1997 and 1999. Tulane finished last season one win short of its school record at 26-7, one win back of the 1996-97 and 1999-2000 teams which each finished 27-5 overall with a loss in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Whole Lotta Wins

Tulane, along with Montana (26-3) became the first two teams in women's basketball history to have 25 or more wins and six or fewer losses and not receive bids to the NCAA Tournament. Both squads earned bids to the WNIT. Tulane had made the NCAA Tournament every year it has hit 20 or more wins - actually, 19 or more. The Wave's 1994-95 and 2002-03 squads made the NCAA Tournament with 19 wins).

Tulane recorded its eighth 20-win season in school history, all under coach Lisa Stockton in the last 13 seasons. Every season the Green Wave have turned in 20 wins, they have made the NCAA Tournament the following year.

All-Conference Round-Up

The Green Wave placed three members on the All-Conference USA Teams last season. Senior guard Jami Montagnino was First Team and All-Academic, while senior guard D'Aundra Henry was Third Team and All-Defensive Team. Sophomore point guard Ashley Langford earned a spot on the Third Team. Head coach Lisa Stockton was named 2006-07 Conference USA Coach of the Year.

Ashley's Single-Season & Single-Game Assists Records

Ashley Langford owns the top two single-season marks in Tulane history, and is nine assists shy of owning the top three seasons. The 5-5 point guard set Tulane's single-season assist mark with 171 as a freshman and broke that mark this season with 207 last year. She tied her own school record for assists in one game against UTEP on January 20, with 14 dimes against the Miners. Her performance ties her mark at SMU on February 26, 2006. She now has nine games with 10 or more assists in her career. Those nine games are all in the top 12 marks in school history. Her performance is also tied for the second-most ever in Conference USA history, and the most ever in a C-USA league game.

Tulane's 2008-09 Incoming Class:

Head coach Lisa Stockton has received National Letters of Intent from two prospects for her women's basketball program: Brett Benzio, a 6-3 forward from Jensen Beach High School in Florida and Jennifer Nwokedi, a 6-1 forward from St. Agnes Academy in Texas.

"I am very happy with our signing class," said head coach Lisa Stockton, the 2007 Conference USA Coach of the Year. "These two young ladies fit our need so well especially since we lose two post in our senior class. Jennifer and Brett will complement our 2007-08 freshmen post players, Kiara [Slaton] and Brittany [Lindsey] very well and will give us a very exciting front court for the future."

Benzio, who hails from Jensen Beach, FL, just outside Palm Beach, averaged 12 points per game and almost two blocks per contest in her first 90 games of high school. The 6-3 forward helped Jensen Beach win the 4A State championship in 2007 as she was named Second Team All-State by the Florida Sports Writers Association. A First Team All-Conference selection as a junior, she also earned All-Area honors as both a junior and sophomore, and was All-Area Honorable Mention as a freshman. A two-sport athlete, she also was First Team All-State in volleyball, and a multiple time all-area selection. Off the court, she is a AP Scholar Award winner and was named her high school team's scholar athlete of the Year in both 2005 and 2006

Nwokedi (Pronounced "Whoa-Keddy"), a 6-1 forward, was named All-State in each of the last two seasons at St. Agnes Academy in Houston. She was also named District MVP and earned First Team All-District honors in each of the last two seasons. She helped St. Agnes reach the 6A State Championship game last season, finishing as state runner-up, while earning All-Tournament Team honors.

The duo will join the Green Wave for the 2008-09 season. Tulane, which added three guards and a forward for 2007-08, is scheduled to lose two post players and a guard to graduation.

Last Time Out: Rice 78, Tulane 73 (Thursday at Fogelman Arena)

Five players were in double-figure scoring as the Tulane Green Wave women's basketball team won for the third time in four games, with a 73-69 win over Houston. Nikki Luckhurst continued her hot shooting with a team-high 18 points. Megan Valicevic was two rebounds shy of a double-double, finishing with 10 points, eight rebounds and a blocked shot. Luckhurst, who scored a season-best 23 points on Thursday, hit four three-pointers to lead Tulane for the second-straight game. Chassity Brown added 14 points, five rebounds and three steals. Alendra Brown added 11 points and six rebounds, while Ashley Langford added 10 points and five assists.

Twiggy McIntyre led Houston with 18 points, while Courtney Taylor and Tye Jackson added 11 each. Brittany Lindsey rejected four Houston shots and Tulane recorded a total of seven on the day.

After a 5-0 run to start the game by Houston, Tulane scored six straight points. Tied at 7-7, the Green Wave embarked on a 12-2 run, capped by three-pointers from Megan Valicevic and Chassity Brown.

Tulane pushed the margin to 27-11 on a three-pointer from Luckhurst, her sixth in her last seven attempts. Kendra Barnes scored inside and Roshanda Barnes added a jumper as Tulane controlled, 31-13 with 7:19 to go in the first. Ashlee Joseph converted an and-one for the Cougars, as Houston crawled to within 37-24, but Luckhurst drained another three-pointer as Tulane led 40-29 at the half.

In the second half, Alendra Brown and Chassity Brown each scored while being fouled, as the wave maintained a 46-33 edge. The Cougars trimmed the margin to nine, but Luckhurst connected on another three pointer to restore a 12-point lead, 51-39 with 12:35 to go.

Twiggy McIntyre nailed a three for Houston, as the Cougars clawed to within seven, but Chassity Brown drove and scored while being fouled. Courtney Taylor's and-one cut the margin to 54-49. The two teams traded baskets, before Luckhurst scored seven-straight points for Tulane, giving the Wave a 66-56 lead with 2:49 left.

A three-pointer from Tye Jackson cut the margin to 69-63 with 27 seconds left. Jackson added two more three-pointers, but Luckhurst's two free throws sealed the win.

Tulane allowed its opponent to shoot over 50 percent from the field for the third-straight game. Despite the defensive woes for the Wave, Tulane had a chance at the end, down two with the ball and 57 seconds remaining. But the Tigers stole the inbound and connected on four-of-four in the final minute from the free throw line. Alendra Brown led Tulane with 14 points, while Tiffany Aidoo and Ashley Langford added 11. Chassity Brown was the fourth member of the Wave in double-figure scoring with 10 points to go with three steals. The Tigers shot 53.7 percent from the field for the game and 58.6 percent in the first half. Chassity Brown hit a three as Tulane trailed 68-66 and forced a turnover, but the Tigers stole the inbound and hit a pair of free throws. The Tigers held off the Wave on their next possession and closed out the win.

Tiffany Aidoo tied her career high with 13 points and set a new high in rebounds with seven as the Tulane women's basketball team outlasted Marshall Sunday afternoon, 61-56. Brittany Lindsey scored 12 points and Ashley Langford chipped in 11 points. Langford became the fifth player in Conference USA to reach 500 career assists, doing so as just a junior. Tulane's all-time assist leader now has 501 in her career. However, it was forward Alendra Brown who led Tulane in assists with a career-best four. Brown also led Tulane on the glass with nine assists. Chassity Brown was fourth member of the Green Wave in double-figure scoring with 11 points, and Megan Valicevic added seven for Tulane. Meagan Samis cut the lead to one with 1:11 on a pair of free throws, but Tulane hit four free throws down the stretch and held off the Herd's last attempts.
