As a team, the Green Wave are averaging 13.57 kills, 12.70 assists, 14.63 digs and 2.06 blocks per set. Senior outside hitter Sara Radosevic leads the squad with 3.65 kills per set, junior Jenn Miller paces the club with 3.79 digs per contest, and senior middle blocker Jenn Miller headlines the team with 0.97 blocks per outing.

Tulane is hitting .213 (814-362-2122) on the season while allowing opponents to attack at a .178 clip (707-340-2066). Green Wave opponents, meanwhile, are averaging 11.78 kills, 10.98 assists, 13.80 digs and 2.85 blocks per set so far in 2008.

About Tulsa

Tulsa comes into the weekend 16-4 on the season, 3-2 in Conference USA play, and winners of its last two matches. The Golden Hurricane split last weekend – dropping a 3-0 decision at Houston before downing Rice in five – and claimed a 3-1 win over Oral Roberts on Tuesday night.

As a team, the Hurricane are averaging 12.83 kills, 11.73 assists, 14.09 digs and 2.06 blocks per set. Beth Hodge paces Tulsa with 3.29 kills per set, Malorey Grove leads the club with 3.32 digs per set, and Julia Kenealy headlines the front-row defense with 1.10 blocks per stanza.

Tulsa is hitting .236 (1001-377-2643) for the year while limiting opponents to a .172 clip (964-496-2723). Golden Hurricane opponents, meanwhile, are averaging 12.36 kills, 11.42 assists, 13.94 digs and 2.00 blocks per set.

Series History

Friday's match between Tulane and Tulsa marks the 11th meeting between the two teams, and the Green Wave holds a 7-3 advantage in the all-time series. Under fourth-year head coach Liz Kritza, Tulane is 4-4 vs. Tulsa, including a 1-2 record at the Reynolds Center. The Golden Hurricane joined C-USA in 2005 and won the first two meetings with the Wave. Tulane exacted a bit of revenge in the 2005 C-USA Tournament with a 3-2 victory and have won three of the last four matchups since then.

On Tap

Following Tulane's Conference USA contest against Tulsa, the Green Wave close out their four-match road swing on Sunday, Oct. 12, against SMU in Dallas, at 1 p.m. Tulane's next home match is slated for Tuesday, Oct. 14, when the Green Wave play host to cross-town foe UNO at 7 p.m. in Fogelman Arena. That contest is one of three home matches for Tulane during the week as the Wave host C-USA foes East Carolina and Marshall on Friday and Sunday, respectively.

Tulane Head Coach

Liz Kritza

In her fourth season as head coach of the Tulane volleyball program in 2008, Liz Kritza has brought the Green Wave to national prominence. After leading the team through the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina in 2005 in her first season, Kritza's squad has matured into a team garnering national attention.

Along the way, Green Wave student-athletes racked up an impressive list of accolades and awards: five AVCA All-America selections (including three in 2007), two AVCA Midwest and Conference USA Freshmen of the Year, nine All-Louisiana honors (including the 2007 LSWA Player of the Year, Sara Radosevic), 11 All-Conference USA Team selections, two Tulane Student-Athlete of the Year awards, 20 student-athletes on the C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll, and two C-USA Commissioner's Academic Medals, as well as being named the 2006-07 Team of the Year by the Tulane Student-Athlete Advisory Council.

The 2007 Tulane team finished 28-6 overall, with its best-ever Conference USA finish and highest-ever RPI rating (32nd).

A 2000 graduate of Tulane University, Kritza became the seventh head coach in program history on Jan. 17, 2005.

While the 2005 season was Kritza's first at the helm of the volleyball program, it was hardly her first with the Green Wave as she was a dominant front-line player for the Green Wave as a student-athlete from 1995-98, served as a student assistant and volunteer assistant in 1999 and 2000, respectively, and worked as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator from 2001-04.

An active member of the New Orleans and Tulane communities, Kritza is a board member for Girls First, a non-profit organization for underserved girls in the Metro New Orleans area, as well as the T-Club and Tulane's Letterwinner's Association. With Girls First, she serves as camp director and has helped the organization grow from 35 girls to over 150. In addition, Kritza has participated in the NO AIDS task force and Habitat For Humanity. She started VolleyDays, a program of clinics promoting volleyball and good health choices for New Orleans Public Schools, is active with the National Girls & Women in Sports Day and also serves as a motivational speaker.

Kritza completed her bachelor's degree in finance and cell biology from Tulane in 2000, and is currently pursuing her master's in business administration. She is a member of the AVCA and USVCA, and completed the USA Volleyball Coaches Accreditation Program.

The Week That Was

The Tulane University volleyball team had its winning streak snapped, but still managed to split its Conference USA weekend with a 3-1 victory over Memphis (25-14, 26-28, 27-25, 27-25) on Friday and a 3-2 loss at UAB (21-25, 22-25, 25-16, 25-17, 6-15) on Sunday.

For the week, Tulane averaged 14.00 kills, 1.11 service aces, 12.78 assists, 16.78 digs and 2.28 blocks per set. The Green Wave offense connected at a .206 clip courtesy of 126 kills and 56 errors in 340 swings while allowing their weekend foes to connect at a combined .192 mark (106-43-328).

Senior outside hitter Sara Radosevic was one of five Green Wave players to average at least 1.40 kills per set, tallying 4.33 per contest, while senior right-side hitter Bridget Wells was next with a mark of 3.78. Senior middle blocker Jen Linder paced the front-line defense with 1.11 blocks per set, while junior libero Jenn Miller headlined the back-row "D" with 3.78 digs per stanza.

Poll Position

With a weekend split in Conference USA road action, the Tulane University volleyball team slipped a bit in the most recent American Volleyball Coaches Association Top 25 but is still receiving votes.

While the Green Wave are still looking to crack the Top 25 for the first time in school history, Tulane did garner nine votes in Monday's poll which puts the team 35th in the voting. The nine votes is a 20-vote slip from a week ago when the Wave had 29 votes to sit 30th among all teams appearing on more than one ballot.

Tulsa, meanwhile, is not ranked in the AVCA Top 25 nor are they currently receiving any votes.

RPI Update

The Green Wave got some good news last Thursday when the NCAA's initial RPI report was released as Tulane sat 27th among the 329 NCAA Division I programs.

Tulane was the highest rated Conference USA team, according to the initial report, and is one of five league schools in the Top 100. Other C-USA programs in the Top 100 are UAB (38), Rice (49), Marshall (76) and Memphis (77).

The Wave have played nine teams ranked in the Top 100 in the RPI report and are 5-4 in those matches. Tulane has wins over Middle Tennessee State (39), Rice (49), Ohio (51), Memphis (77) and Xavier (95) while falling to Nebraska (1), Cal Poly (19), UAB (38) and BYU (65).

One Streak Comes To An End...

Tulane's 3-2 loss to UAB on Sunday was a disappointing one for the Green Wave. Not only was it the team's first loss in Conference USA play in 2008, but it also snapped a nine-match winning streak dating back to a Sept. 12, 3-1 win over Jacksonville State.

Friday's 3-1 Conference USA win at Memphis gave the Wave their ninth consecutive victory of the season, which ranks eighth in program history. The school-record for consecutive wins is 15, originally set from Oct. 14-Nov. 5, 1977 and matched from Oct. 23, 1986 through Sept. 5, 1987.

Tulane's longest win streak under fourth-year head coach Liz Kritza is 10 from Oct. 14-Nov. 17 of last season.

...But Another Goes On

While the Green Wave saw their nine-match regular-season streak come to an end on Sunday at UAB, Tulane still has an 18-match winning streak going strong when playing in the friendly confines of Fogelman Arena.

Win a 3-1 win over Conference USA foe Rice back on Sept. 29, the Green Wave broke the previous school home-win-streak record of 17 set from Sept. 9, 2003, to Oct. 8, 2004. Tulane's current home winning streak began with 3-1 win over UTEP in the final regular-season match of the 2006 season, and the Green Wave posted a perfect 12-0 record at Fogelman last year. So far in 2008, Tulane is 5-0 at home.

New Kids On The Block

While the boy band from the early 90s is playing come-back concerts across the country in 2008, the Green Wave volleyball team has been the new kid on the block at the net over the last six matches.

Through the first nine matches of the season, Tulane had just 51.5 blocks for a 1.66 blocks-per-set average. Over the last three weeks, however, the Green Wave have more than doubled the block output (72.0) and have an average of 2.48 blocks per set. Since the start of Conference USA play on Sept. 26, the Green Wave are averaging 2.66 blocks in 16 sets.

Tulane posted 8.0 blocks in a 3-0 win over Houston on Sept. 26, tallied a season-high 14.0 blocks against Rice on Sept. 28, had 12.5 on Friday night in Memphis and came up with 8.0 on Sunday at UAB.

For the season, Tulane is now averaging 2.06 blocks per set. Senior middle blocker Jen Linder leads the team with 58 blocks (4 solo, 54 assists) while sophomore middle Lindsey Shepard (5-40) and right-side hitter Bridget Wells (3-42) follow with 45 each.

It's Miller Time...This Dig's For You

Junior libero Jenn Miller has enjoyed a stellar collegiate career to date for the Green Wave, twice being named to the All-Conference USA second-team and claiming the league's Libero of the Year title last year as a sophomore.

And while the hardware will no doubt continue to pile up for Miller over her final two seasons of college eligibility, she has a chance to scribe her name atop the Tulane record book as she currently trails Green Wave career digs record-holder Karlyn Daly (2000-03) by just 34 digs.

With 23 digs last Sunday afternoon at UAB, Miller now has 1,332 career digs. She leapfrogged Kelli Dickson (1,327 digs from 2002-05) for second place in school history and has a good chance to surpass Daly with a solid weekend against Tulsa and SMU.

Miller has the luxury of being just the second player in Tulane history to play the libero position throughout her career (the position was added to college volleyball in 2002) and her career 4.93 digs-per-set average ranks No. 1 in Tulane history, nearly 1.56 digs per set more than second-placed Kim Sentmore (1997-2000).

Sara Being Sara

Dubbed the 2008 Preseason Conference USA Player of the Year, senior outside hitter Sara Radosevic continued to live up to her billing so far this year as the native of Zagreb, Croatia, leads the team with 219 kills, a 3.65 kills-per-set average, and 248.5 points.

Radosevic has posted double-digit kill performances in 13 of Tulane's 16 matches so far in 2008, including eight 15-plus kill contests. In addition to her offensive prowess, Radosevic has been equally adept at the serving stripe where she ranks second on the team with 14 aces, and ranks second on the club with 156 digs and a 2.60 digs-per-set average.

Her 27 blocks (4 solo, 23 assists) and 0.45 blocks-per-set average, meanwhile, both rank fourth on the team.

For her career, Radosevic has 1,688 kills, 169 aces, 964 digs and 140 blocks (17 solo, 123 assists). Her kills total ranks second in Tulane career history – 275 shy of Alicia Robertson's record of 1,963 from 1991-94 – while service aces is third in the school record book – seven shy of second-placed Shelly Richey (1990-93) and 17 off the school record of 186 by Gina Vaccarro from 1990-93. In addition, Radosevic ranks 10th in Tulane career digs and is just 36 digs shy of becoming the fifth player in Green Wave history to post 1,000 career kills and 1,000 career digs.

Tulane & 1,000 kills

At the beginning of the 2008 season, the Tulane roster featured one player with 1,000 career kills - Sara Radosevic. Fifteen matches into the year, the Green Wave have three.

Junior right-side hitter Ksenija Vlaskovic became the 12th player in Tulane history to surpass the 1,000-kill career barrier, doing so on Sept. 26 against Houston. Then, on Oct. 3 in Memphis, senior right-side hitter Bridget Wells followed suit to become No. 13. Vlaskovic and Wells now have 1,023 and 1,030 career kills, respectively.

Wells is now 12th in Tulane career history in kills and just 86 behind Becky Meadows (1991-94) to crack the Green Wave Top 10. Vlaskovic, meanwhile, stands 13th in career kills and 93 behind Meadows.

Record Watch

In addition to Jenn Miller, Sara Radosevic, Ksenija Vlaskovic and Bridget Wells climbing in the Tulane career record book (see It's Miller Time, Sara Being Sara and Tulane & 1,000 kills above), the Green Wave feature three other student-athletes moving up in the team's all-time standings.

With 362 assists on the year, senior Luna Rebrovic now has 2,894 assists for her career which moves her into third place in Green Wave history. She is now just 489 assists shy of second-placed Megan Murdock (3,383 from 1991-94).

Fellow setter, junior Rachel Lindelow, is second on the club with 203 assists so far this season. That moves her into seventh place in school history with 1,674 career assists.

In addition, senior middle blocker Jenn Linder moved into 10th place in Tulane career blocks, tying the mark of 284 of Liz Gruns (1997-2000). Linder's 257 block assists, meanwhile, ranks ninth in Green Wave history, one behind Gruns's 258 and 10 behind Lauren Jones-McClain's 267 for seventh place all-time.

Running The 6-2 System

One of the main reasons for Tulane's success on the volleyball court over the last three years has been the Green Wave running of a 6-2 system - which requires the team to rotate two setters throughout matches so that the club has three front-row hitters at all times.

Tulane initially employed the system in 2003 under then-head coach Betsy Becker, but it was not until 2006 that the system began to really propel the Wave into national prominence.

With rising sophomore Luna Rebrovic and incoming freshman Rachel Lindelow that year, then-second year head coach Liz Kritza used the system to help Tulane led C-USA in assists (15.00 a/s) and kills (16.00 k/s) while finishing fifth in attack percentage (.244). In 2007, the Green Wave paced the league in attack percentage (.268), assists (15.77 a/s) and kills (16.99 k/s). So far in 2008, Tulane ranks second in C-USA in kills (13.57 k/s) and assists (12.70 a/s) while sitting seventh in attack percentage (.213).

A New Wrinkle

Tulane head coach Liz Kritza unveiled a new wrinkle to the team's lineup on Sept. 13 against North Dakota State as she sent true freshman Jordaliz Mercado in to set midway through the second stanza and had junior Rachel Lindelow – who has played almost exclusively at setter throughout her collegiate career to date – match as a right-side hitter.

Mercado, who had not played in Tulane's first two weekend tournaments, enjoyed a solid collegiate debut with 15 assists and six digs against the Bison. Lindelow, meanwhile, chipped in with six kills, 28 assists and 11 digs during the Allstate Sugar Bowl Classic.

For the season, Mercado has played in 14 sets and is averaging 4.36 assists per game while averaging 1.29 digs per set. Lindelow, meanwhile, has remained Tulane's No. 2 setter in the 6-2 system and is averaging 4.44 assists, 0.19 kills and 1.77 digs per set.

Tough Early-Season Slate

While the Green Wave may not be where they want to be record-wise at 2-4 nine matches into the 2008 season, the Tulane team helped prepare itself for a run at the postseason by playing three teams in the AVCA Top 25 and another that was receiving votes at the time of the match.

Tulane opened the year against Missouri, which at that time was sitting 37th in the nation in the preseason AVCA poll, and dropped a 3-1 decision to the Tigers on opening day. From there, Tulane fell to then-No. 20 BYU in four. The following weekend, the Green Wave dropped straight-set matches to then No. 14 Cal Poly and No. 2 Nebraska.

The Green Wave did, however, pick up a marquee victory against a Top 25 team two weeks later when they knocked off then-No. 14 Middle Tennessee State, 3-2, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Tulane Knocks Off Nationally-Ranked Foe

When assembling the Green Wave's 2008 schedule, head coach Liz Kritza knew that she and her staff needed to assemble a slate that would both challenge her experienced team and give the squad an opportunity to earn its first-ever trip to the NCAA postseason.

With four nationally-ranked teams lined up prior to the start of Conference USA action, Kritza realized her team might take a few lumps along the way with the reward being the ability to play at a higher level for having played superior non-conference competition. In their first three matches against ranked teams, the Green Wave came up empty.

But in try No. 4, Tulane hit paydirt with a five-set victory over No. 14 Middle Tennessee State. The 19-25, 25-18, 25-22, 21-25, 16-14 victory was the just the second by Tulane against a nationally-ranked team and the first since Sept. 22, 1993, when the Wave downed then-No. 25 LSU in five (10-15, 15-11, 15-5, 7-15, 20-18).

Sharing The Wealth

With Tulane running a 6-2 offense and constantly having three front-row attackers on the court at all times, the Green Wave setters have done a good job of spreading the ball around so far in 2008.

Since starting Conference USA play on Sept. 26 against Houston, five players posted at least 20 kills and averaged at least 1.40 kills per set, including senior outside hitter Sara Radosevic who led the team with 68 kills and a 4.25 kills-per-set average in 16 sets. With the setters moving the ball around, Tulane is posting a .224 attack percentage in league play.

For the season, the Tulane offense is connecting at a .213 clip after tallying 814 kills and 362 errors in 2,122 attempts. Four student-athletes are currently averaging at least 1.90 kills per set as Radosevic has a team-best 3.65 average. Senior right-side hitter Bridget Wells is next with a 3.37 clip, junior right-side hitter Ksenija Vlaskovic follows with an average of 2.12 and freshman outside hitter Visnja Djurdjevic is averaging 1.95 kills per set.

Four different players have led Tulane in kills during individual matches so far in 2008 as Radosevic has paced the team eight times, Wells did so on seven occasions, Vlaskovic and Djurdjevic each headlined the squad once, and the combination of Radosevic and Wells tied for team-high kill honors on one additional occasion.

First-Time Foes

One of the common themes of Tulane's early-season opponents in 2008 was that a sense of unfamiliarity as nine of the Green Wave's first 11 opponents were first-time foes.

Since the program's inception in 1975, Tulane had never played BYU, Jacksonville State, Maryland, Missouri, North Dakota State, Northeastern, Ohio, Utah State or Xavier. With all of Tulane's regular-season first-time foes already played, Tulane is now 7-2 record in those matches. There is still a shot for Tulane to possibly take down another first-time foe, but that would not come until the NCAA postseason should the Green Wave make it that far.

The Green Wave opened the year with a 3-1 loss to Missouri in day one of the BYU Molten Classic and followed that with another 3-1 loss to host BYU in Provo, Utah. Facing its third first-time foe of the weekend, the Green Wave then earned its first win of the season with a 3-0 victory against Utah State. In the Paso Robles Marriott Invitational, Tulane downed first-time opponent Northeastern, 3-1, on Sept. 12 in San Luis Obispo, Calif.

From there, Tulane swept first-time foes Jacksonville State (3-1), North Dakota State (3-0) and Maryland (3-0) during the Allstate Sugar Bowl Classic from Sept. 12-13 in Fogelman Arena, before downing Ohio (3-2) and Maryland the following weekend in Ohio.

Preseason Prognostications

For the first time in school history, the Tulane University volleyball team opened the 2008 season as the preseason favorite to win a conference title as the Green Wave were picked to win the Conference USA regular-season crown on a vote of league coaches released on Aug. 4.

In addition, senior outside hitter Sara Radosevic was named Preseason C-USA Player of the Year, marking the first time in the program's history that a Tulane student-athlete earned the honor in the sport of volleyball. She was joined on the preseason All C-USA team by senior right-side hitter Bridget Wells, junior right-side hitter Ksenija Vlaskovic and junior libero Jenn Miller.

The Green Wave, which finished 28-6 last season and was 30th in the final AVCA poll, earned the preseason honors after returning all 13 student-athletes from last year's squad. Tulane was second in C-USA in 2007, at 14-2, the second straight year the Wave turned in a school record for highest C-USA finish and win total. Tulane is 25-7 in C-USA in the last two seasons.

Reason For The Excitement

One of the reasons for those high expectations in 2008 is the return of all 13 letterwinners from a year ago as well as the addition of a pair of talented true freshmen.

While senior outside hitter Sara Radosevic grabbed an early headline via her proclamation as the Preseason Conference USA Player of the Year. She was joined on the Preseason All C-USA Team by senior right-side hitter Bridget Wells, junior outside/right-side hitter Ksenija Vlaskovic and junior libero Jenn Miller.

Miller, Radsovic and Wells claimed honorable-mention All-America recognition from the American Volleyball Coaches Association, and the preseason foursome claimed all-conference honors in 2007, as did rising senior middle blocker Jen Linder. Also returning for the 2008 season are seniors Ashley Bernards (DS), Lauren Boatwright (MB), Liz McGehee (DS) and Luna Rebrovic (S), junior Rachel Lindelow (S/RS) and sophomores Amaris Genemaras (OH/RS), Lindsey Shepard (MB) and Stephanie Stromath (MB).

Boatwright Lost For Season

The Green Wave were dealt a bit of bad news during the preseason as the coaching staff found that the team would be without the services of senior middle blocker Lauren Boatwright in 2008 and beyond due to an injury.

A three-year starter who has posted 279 kills and 243 digs during her career, Boatwright will miss her senior season due to bone marrow edema. That does not mean, however, that she will not continue to be an integral part of the team.

While she no longer suits up for the Green Wave, Boatwright is currently serving as a student assistant where she helps keep bench stats and helps oversee the program's tape exchange procedures.

TULANE FALLS TO MISSOURI, 3-1

Radosevic and Linder combine for 26 kills, Miller tallied 20 digs

PROVO, Utah—Sara Radosevic had a match-high 16 kills and Jenn Miller led all players with 20 digs, but it was not enough as Tulane dropped its season-opener to Missouri, 3-1, in day one of the BYU Molten Classic at Smith Fieldhouse.

Tulane took the first set, 25-23, before falling in set two, 25-20. Things looked good for the Green Wave in the third set as Tulane held set-point at 24-22. Missouri, however, stormed back with four consecutive points to take the stanza and cruised to a match-deciding 25-14 victory in set four.

Tulane posted 53 kills to Missouri's 45 and had three more assists than the Tigers. The difference in the game came at the net where Missouri out-blocked the Wave, 20-5.

The block differential allowed Missouri to hold Tulane to a .101 attack percentage for the match (53 kills, 37 errors, 158 attempts). The Tigers, meanwhile, connected at a .248 clip with 45 kills and just 13 errors in 129 swings.

Tulane fell behind 6-1 early in set one, but battled back to tie things up at 11-all. The Wave built the lead to as many as nine at 21-14 thanks in large part to a 20-9 run, but Missouri refused to go away. Tulane held set point at 24-17, before the Tigers went on a 6-0 rally to make it a one-point affair. Radosevic wrapped up the set with a cross-court kill, however, to give the Wave a 1-0 advantage.

The second set was a back and forth battle but Missouri used a 4-0 rally to take a 15-12 lead and force Tulane to call a timeout. The break in the action did little to thwart the Tiger rally, however, as Missouri outscored 10-8 the rest of the way to even the match at one game apiece.

Set three started in a similar fashion as the previous contest as the teams battled to a 5-5 tie early on, but the Wave used a 9-4 rally to claim a 14-9 lead. Missouri whittled the Tulane advantage down to three at 18-15, and eventually tied the game at 22-all. Following a timeout, Tulane scored two straight points to hold set-point at 24-22, but Missouri stormed back with four consecutive points to take a two-games-to-one lead.

Game four, meanwhile, was all Missouri. After trading the first 20 points of the set, Missouri used a 4-0 run to claim a 14-10 lead and never looked back. Tulane cut the deficit to 14-12, but the Tigers outscored the Green Wave 11-2 the rest of the way.

IMPROVED PLAY NOT ENOUGH

Three players post double-digit kills in 3-1 loss at BYU

PROVO, Utah—Despite playing a much-improved all-around game from their performance one night ago, Tulane found itself on the wrong side of a hard-fought 3-1 decision to the 20th ranked Cougars in day two of the BYU Molten Classic.

After splitting the first two sets, 25-21 and 24-26, the Green Wave rallied from an 18-13 deficit in set three to tie things up at 23-all. Tulane staved off a pair of set-point opportunities for the Cougars and appeared to do so a third time as BYU's Bryn Porter's left hand brushed the antenna in a block attempt of a would-be Bridget Wells kill. No call was made, however, and the Cougars eventually took the set 27-25 on a block by Porter and Ashton Hosford.

Sara Radosevic approached up official Teri Jackson about the non call, but despite protests both from Radosevic and a line judge, Jackson ruled the initial call correct and the Wave headed into the fourth set down, 2-1.

Tulane fell behind 4-1 early in set one, but battled back to tie the score at 6-all. It was a back-and-forth battle for most of the rest of the stanza as neither team could sustain a lead larger than two. But with the score knotted at 20-20, the Green Wave went on a 5-1 rally to take a 1-0 advantage.

The late-set surge carried over into the second contest as the Green Wave rolled out to a 9-4 advantage. The Cougars, however, battled back to tie the score at 15 and claimed a 20-17 lead. BYU stretched the lead to as many as four at 22-18, but Tulane answered with a 6-1 rally to hold set point at 24-23. The Cougars, however, answered with a 3-0 rally of their own to tie the match at one set apiece.

BYU jumped out to an early 8-3 lead in the third set and led 18-13 later in the stanza. The Green Wave, however, refused to give in, made it a one-point game at 19-18 and eventually tied things up at 23-all before the no-call on the antenna play took place.

The Green Wave got off to a good start in what proved to be the final set, claiming an early 4-1 advantage, but BYU used an 11-7 rally to take a 12-11 advantage it would never relinquish. The Cougar lead grew to as many as five at 19-15 and 22-17. Tulane chopped the deficit down to three at 23-20, but that would be as close as the Green Wave would get.

For the second consecutive day, the Green Wave were out-blocked by a sizeable difference - this time 15.5-4.0.

WAVE SWEEPS UTAH STATE, 3-0

Linder posts six blocks, six kills and three digs in the victory

PROVO, Utah—In the first two contests of the 2008 BYU Molten Classic, the Green Wave were out-blocked by a combined margin of 35.5-9.0. Jen Linder made sure that didn't happen for a third consecutive match.

In its final game of the tournament, Tulane posted eight team blocks to Utah State's four and a half as the Wave defeated the Aggies, 3-0 (25-16, 25-17, 25-19), at Smith Fieldhouse. Linder had one solo block and five block assists while adding six kills on nine swings for a .667 attack percentage to go along with three digs and an assist.

As a team, the Green Wave connected at a .344 clip with 43 kills and just 11 errors in 93 swings, including 11 kills by Bridget Wells and 10 kills by Sara Radosevic. Radosevic hit .318 with just three miscues in 22 attempts while Stephanie Stromach - who made her first career start Saturday against the Aggies - was a perfect 5-for-5 and added a pair of block assists.

Defensively, Tulane's blocking held Utah State to a .071 attack percentage (28 kills, 22 errors, 85 attempts). The Aggies out-dug the Green Wave, 34-31, but Tulane's dig total accounted for nearly 40 percent of Utah State's attacks. Radosevic and Vlnja Djurdjevic tied for team-high dig honors with seven each, while Jenn Miller was next with six.

Tulane scored the first three points of the match, but Utah State rallied back to tie the score with three straight points of its own. With the score knotted at 5-all, the Green Wave used a 7-3 rally to take a 12-8 advantage they would not relinquish. The lead swelled to seven at 20-13 and the Wave out-scored the Aggies, 5-2, the rest of the way to claim a 1-0 advantage.

The Wave opened set two with another 3-0 rally and used that to take an early 8-1 advantage. Utah State used rallies of 8-3 and 6-3 to make it a two-point affair, but with Tulane leading 17-15, the Green Wave went on an 8-2 run to make it a 2-0 contest.

Utah State scored the first point of set three, but the rest of the stanza was more of the same as the Green Wave jump out to an early 8-3 advantage and never looked back. The lead swelled to as many as eight at 18-10 and the Aggies could only whittle the lead down to as many as five. Vlaskovic clinched the victory with a kill down the line to spark the Tulane celebration.

WAVE FALL IN 3 TO CAL POLY

Mustangs make quick work of Tulane, 25-10, 25-16, 25-13

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif.—Mustang outside hitter Gaby Rivera had 14 kills, nine digs and two solo blocks among her three stiffs as Tulane fell to host and 14th-ranked Cal Poly, 3-0 (25-10, 25-16, 25-13) in the opening match of the Paso Robles Marriott Invitational at Mott Gym.

Senior outside hitter Sara Radosevic led the Wave with nine kills but the rest of the team accounted for just 10 kills as the Cal Poly defense held Tulane to a minus-.020 attack percentage (19 kills, 21 errors, 88 attempts). The Mustangs posted 12 blocks as a team and out-dug the Wave, 44-30. Conversely, Cal Poly posted a .356 attack percentage (42 kills, 11 errors, 87 attempts), including .750 clip by Jaclyn Houston (6-0-8) and a .444 mark by Kyle Atherstone (10-2-18).

Tulane got off to a rough start in the first set as the Mustangs galloped out to a 6-1 lead and never looked back. Set two followed a similar script early on as Cal Poly jumped out to a 12-4 advantage, but Tulane used a 6-2 run to make it a four-point game at 14-10 to force the Mustangs to call a timeout. Following the break in the action, however, Cal Poly scored seven of the next nine points and cruised to take a 2-0 overall lead in the match.

The Green Wave took their only lead of the day on a Cal Poly attack error to start the third set, but the Mustangs used a 6-0 rally to take a five-point lead. Tulane held its own for a while, cutting the lead to two at 10-8, but that would be as close as the team would get as Cal Poly outscored the Green Wave, 15-6, the rest of the way to clinch the victory.

WELLS LEADS COME-BACK WIN

Senior right-side hitter posts career-high 22 kills vs. Northeastern

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif.—Bridget Wells had a career-high 22 kills as Tulane overcame a slow start to defeat Northeastern, 3-1, in the Paso Robles Marriott Invitational at Mott Gym.

After dropping a straight-sets match to the host Mustangs earlier in the day, the Green Wave fell behind big in the opening set against the Huskies. Tulane trailed by as many as seven at 21-13, but Wells rallied the troops to eventually tie the stanza at 21-all. While Tulane went to drop the first set, 35-33, the momentum of the come-back attempt carried over the rest of the way as the Green Wave won the next three sets, 25-17, 25-11, and 25-22.

The Green Wave got off to a slow start in set one as Northeastern scored the match's first four points and held a commanding 21-13 lead. The Green Wave answered with an 8-0 run to tie the score, and Tulane rallied back from two down to tie the set again at 24-all. The two teams essentially traded the next 18 points, but with the score knotted at 33-33, the Huskies scored the final two points of the set on a pair of Green Wave miscues to take a 1-0 advantage in the match.

The momentum of the comeback effort carried over into set No. 2 as the Wave scored the stanza's first three points and held a 6-1 lead. Tulane continued to pull away throughout the set, leading by as many as 10 on five occasions to tie the match at one win apiece.

The third set followed a similar script as Tulane scored the contest's first eight points and led by as many as 13 at 17-14 midway through the stanza. From there, the closest Northeastern got was 10 and the Green Wave rolled to a two-sets-to-one advantage.

Set four started off much differently than the previous three as the two teams traded the first six points and neither team could get a lead higher than three. But with Tulane leading 11-8, the Green Wave used a 4-1 rally to take a six-point lead. The lead grew to as many as seven at 22-15, but the Huskies stormed back into the set with a 5-0 rally to make it a two-point affair. The two teams battled back and forth over the next four points, but with Tulane holding match point, junior right-side hitter Ksenija Vlakovic hammered a cross-court winner to clinch the victory.

TU FALLS TO No. 2 NEBRASKA

Bridget Wells posts 12 kills in 3-0 loss to the Huskers

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif.—Bridget Wells posted 12 kills while Sara Radosevic tallied eight kills and 10 digs, but it was not enough as Tulane dropped a 3-0 decision to No. 2 Nebraska in the finale of the Paso Robles Marriott Invitational at Mott Gym.

The Green Wave battled hard throughout the contest, but the Huskers proved to be too much in the end. Nebraska won the first two sets, 25-17 and 25-15, but Tulane refused to go away quietly and gave the nation's second-ranked team a run for their money. Tulane trailed just 21-20 late in the third set before Nebraska used a 4-0 rally to put the Green Wave away.

Wells, who averaged 3.80 kills per set - including a career-best 22 kills in last night's 3-0 win over Northeastern - and 0.50 blocks per set, was named to the all-tournament team. She had five kills in the first set, four in the second and three in the third.

Nebraska scored the first three points of the match, but Tulane came back to make it a one-point game at 5-4. The Huskers used an 8-1 rally to take a 13-5 lead, but the Wave once again battled back to cut the lead to four at 18-14. From there, however, Nebraska outscored Tulane 7-3 to take a 1-0 advantage in the match.

The Green Wave jumped out to an early lead in the second set and led by as many as three at 9-6. Nebraska came back to tie the score at 10-all, and two points later, used an 8-2 rally to take control of the stanza and cruise to a 10-point victory.

Down 2-0, Tulane refused to give in and hung point-for-point with Nebraska throughout the third set. The stanza featured six ties and the Green Wave actually held a three-point lead at 17-14. The Huskers, however, used a 5-0 run to claim a two-point lead and never trailed the rest of the way.

Luna Rebrovic had a team-best 13 of the Wave's 31 assists on the day, while Jenn Miller chipped in with eight digs. Jen Linder paced the Tulane front-line defense with a pair of block assists.

Nebraska's Tara Mueller led all players with 15 kills while Jordan Larson and Kayla Banwarth headlined the Husker defense with 12 and 11 digs, respectively. Amanda Gates paced four block assists for Nebraska while Sydney Anderson, Lindsey Licht, Kori Cooper and Larson had two block assists each.

WAVE DOWNS JAX STATE, 3-1

McGehee earns surprise start, posts career-best 22 digs

NEW ORLEANS—Prior to match against Jacksonville State in day one of the Allstate Sugar Bowl Classic, Green Wave senior Liz McGehee had never started a match and had posted just four double-digit dig performances in her college career.

When word came to the Tulane coaching staff that everyday libero Jenn Miller suffered a stomach ailment just prior to the start of the contest, head coach Liz Kritza called on McGehee to don the odd-colored jersey and the senior from Lafayette responded with a career-best 22 digs as the Green Wave defeated the Gamecocks, 3-1, in Fogelman Arena.

McGehee's defense was not enough to lift Tulane in the first set as the Gamecocks earned a 25-23 decision in the opening stanza, but the Green Wave rolled in the next three sets, 25-15, 25-17, 25-18.

While McGehee was turning heads on defense, the Green Wave offense used a balanced attack to earn the four-set victory over Jacksonville State. Ksenija Vlaskovic led all players with 14 kills while Visnja Djurdjevic had 12 and Sara Radosevic posted 11. Djurdjevic and Radosevic posted double-doubles with 13 and 12 digs, respectively, as did Luna Rebrovic, who tallied a team-best 24 assists to go along with 12 digs.

Tulane got off to a good start in the first set as the Wave jumped out to an early 11-7 lead. Jacksonville State, however, battled back to tie the set at 14-all, and took a 16-15 lead that it would not relinquish three points later. The Gamecock lead never got higher than two points, but the mid-set JSU rally was enough to give the visiting club a 1-0 advantage in the match.

From there, however, it was all Tulane. The Green Wave sprinted out of the gates in the second set with a 12-5 rally to open the stanza and never looked back. The lead grew to as many as 12 at 23-11 and the home team cruised to a 10-point victory to even the match at one set apiece.

The third set was a back-and-forth contest most of the way as the teams essentially traded the first 26 points of the contest. But with the score knotted at 13-13, Tulane outscored Jacksonville State 12-4 the rest of the way to take a 2-1 advantage.

It was a similar scenario in the fourth set as the teams played point-for-point over the first 32 serves of the stanza. And just like in set three, Tulane turned a tied ballgame (16-16) into a Green Wave runaway with a 9-2 run to end the set.

TULANE SWEEPS NDSU, 3-0

Three players post double-digit kills in 3-1 loss at BYU

NEW ORLEANS—Visnja Djurdjevic had a season-best 14 kills and Luna Rebrovic posted her second consecutive double-double with 23 assists and 10 digs as Tulane opened day two of the Allstate Sugar Bowl Classic with a 3-0 victory over North Dakota State at Fogelman Arena.

The Green Wave made quick work of the Bison in the first set, 25-11, and withstood a couple of North Dakota State rallies in the next two stanzas to earn 25-19 and 25-20 decisions.

Djurdjevic was one of three Tulane players to post double-digit kill totals in the match as Sara Radosevic and Bridget Wells each tallied 11. Jenn Miller led all players with 12 digs, while Wells led the front-line defense with four block assists.

Tulane unveiled a new wrinkle Saturday against the Bison as head coach Liz Kritza sent true freshman Jordalaz Mercado in to set midway through the second set and had Rachel Lindelow - who has played almost exclusively at setter throughout her collegiate career to date - line up as a right-side hitter. Mercado enjoyed a solid collegiate debut with 15 assists and six digs, while Lindelow chipped in with six kills, five assists and four digs.

Tulane got off to a red-hot start in the first set, claiming a 9-5 advantage and never looking back. The closest the stanza became the rest of the way was three points as the Green Wave used runs of 4-0, 3-0 and 6-0 to earn a 14-point victory.

The second set was a much tighter contest as the teams traded blows like heavyweight boxers. But with the score knotted at 11-all, Tulane used a 3-0 run to create a little breathing room and outscored the Bison 11-8 the rest of the way to take a 2-0 advantage in the match heading into the break.

The Green Wave wasted little time claiming the early advantage in what proved to be the final set as Tulane jumped out to a 7-2 lead. The home team never trailed in the stanza, but North Dakota State refused to go away quietly. The Wave led by as many as eight points at 21-13, but the Bison used a 4-2 rally to cut the lead in half. Tulane, however, was able to regroup and cruised to a five-point win to extend its home-court win streak to 15.

MARYLAND NO MATCH FOR TU

Sara Radosevic posts 10 kills in the 3-0 Green Wave victory

NEW ORLEANS—Sara Radosevic posted a double-double with a match-high 10 kills and a season-best 17 digs as Tulane completed a three-match sweep of the 2008 Allstate Sugar Bowl Classic with a 3-0 victory over Maryland at Fogelman Arena.

Tulane won the first two sets with relative ease, 25-19 and 25-16, but had a dogfight on its hands in set three as the Terrapins jumped out to an early 11-4 lead. The Green Wave battled back to tie the stanza at 12-all courtesy of an 8-1 rally, but fell behind 17-14 seven serves later. After rallying to tie the score at 18-18 and 19-all, Tulane used a 6-4 run to end the contest and earn a hard-fought 25-23 victory.

Radosevic was the lone player to post double-digit kills in the match, but Ksenija Vlaskovic added nine kills, Visnja Djurdjevic chipped in with eight, and Jen Linder added seven. Radosevic tied Miller for match-high dig honors while Djurdjevic and Luna Rebrovic tallied 11 each. Linder bolstered the front-row defense with four block assists and Lindsey Shepard posted two solo blocks and one block assist.

Tulane fell behind 3-1 early in the match, but battled back to tie things up at 4-all. The two teams traded the next 12 points, but with the score knotted at 10-10, Tulane used a 3-0 rally to create some separation from the Terrapins. From there, the lead continued to grow to as many as seven at 19-12 and the Green Wave cruised to a six-point win.

Maryland scored the first point of the second set, but Tulane scored the next two points and did not trail again in the stanza. The Green Wave stretched the lead throughout the contest and led by as many as 10 at 24-14. The Terrapins got a pair of points on a kill and a Tulane ball-handling error, but the Wave scored the winning point on a Maryland service error.

The third set was a much different story, however, as the Terps tallied the first four points of the contest and led by as many as seven at 11-4. With Radosevic toeing the serving stripe, the Green Wave rallied for five unanswered points and eventually tied the set at 12-all. Maryland refused to go away and led by three midway through the set, but Tulane came back to scratch and claw its way to a straight-sets victory.

Radosevic chipped in 13 digs, and Jenn Miller joined them in double figures with a match-high 23.

In set one, the Wave trailed 11-8 before back-to-back kills from Radosevic, but the Bobcats answered to take a 16-13 lead. Kills from Vlaskovic and Shepard pulled Tulane to within 18-17 but the Wave could never get the lead.

The two teams battled to an 8-8 tie early in set two, but Radosevic blasted a kill down the line and Vlaskovic placed an attempt on the backline line for an 11-8 Wave lead. Miller served up a five-point run, featuring a service ace and a pair of kills from Radosevic for a 17-9 lead and Tulane never looked back.

Tulane appeared to take advantage of the match with a 25-19 win in set No. 3, but Ohio had other plans. The Green Wave jumped out to a 7-4 lead in set four before the Bobcats whittled the lead down and used a 6-0 run to take a 14-11 lead. Down 18-13, Vlaskovic struck from the outside as Tulane pulled to within 19-16. Wells and Linder teamed for a block and Wells added a kill to cut the margin to 22-21. The Wave staved off one set-point opportunity for the Bobcats, but a block from Jane Sytsma and Sue Jacobi evened the match at two sets apiece.

Tulane opened with a 3-0 lead in set five off back-to-back kills from Vlaskovic and Radosevic added back-to-back kills for a 7-2 Tulane advantage. After Ohio picked up two-straight points to cut the margin to 9-4, Radosevic dropped a tip in the middle of the floor. Two kills from Wells on the outside put the Wave up 12-5, and Vlaskovic ended it off the block, 15-9

WAVE ROLLS PAST HOUSTON, 3-0

Ksenija Vlaskovic posts 1,000th career kill in the win

NEW ORLEANS—Sara Radosevic posted a team-best 12 kills and Bridget Wells finished with 10 in 24 swings as Tulane swept Conference USA foe Houston, 3-0, in the league opener for both teams at Fogelman Arena.

The Green Wave rolled in the first set, 25-13, but fell behind by as many as seven midway through the second set at 15-8. Tulane rallied back to win the set, 25-23, and after scoring the first six points of set No. 3, cruised to a 25-21 victory.

While Radosevic and Wells paced the club in kills, Ksenija Vlaskovic finished the night with nine kills to push her career total to 1,001. In addition to becoming just the 12th student-athlete in Tulane volleyball history to hit the 1,000-kill mark, Vlaskovic connected at a .316 clip with just three errors in 19 swings while posting a solo block and a block assist to finish the match with 10.5 points.

Tulane made it look easy in the opening stanza as the Wave turned a 5-5 tie into a 10-5 affair with a 5-0 run and led by seven 12 serves later at 17-10. The Cougars sliced the lead to six at 19-13, but Tulane scored the final six points of the set to earn a 12-point victory.

The second set was a very different story, however, as Houston erased an early 3-0 deficit and led by as many as seven midway through the contest. Tulane battled back to eventually tie the score at 21-all and reclaimed the lead at 23-22 on a kill by Visnja Djurdjevic. Another Djurdjevic kill gave the Wave set point at 24-23, and following a service error, the combination of Wells and Jen Linder completed the comeback with a block to give Tulane a commanding 2-0 lead in the match.

Three aces by Luna Rebrovic, a pair of Cougar miscues and a Wells kill gave Tulane a 6-0 advantage in what proved to be the final set of the contest, and the Green Wave never looked back. Houston did not give in and actually out-scored Tulane, 21-19 the rest of the way, but the early lead proved to be the difference in the ballgame.

The Green Wave hit .245 for the match with 46 kills and just 19 errors in 110 swings, and Rachel Lindelow led the balanced offense with 21 of the team's 43 assists. Linder finished with six kills and six blocks (all assisted), and the duo of Lindelow and Miller tied for team-high dig honors with 11 apiece.

TULANE STEAMS RICE, 3-1

Wave post season-best 14.0 blocks to set home win streak mark

NEW ORLEANS—The Green Wave defense posted a season-high 14.0 blocks - including Lindsey Shepard's two solo block-, six block assist-performance - and Jenn Miller tallied a team-best 17 digs as Tulane defeated Conference USA foe Rice, 3-1, at Fogelman Arena.

The win was the eighth in a row for the team this year and the 18th in a row at home, which is a Tulane record.

The home streak appeared to be in jeopardy early on as the Owls claimed the first set, 25-21. From there, however, the Green Wave claimed the next two sets, 25-18 and 25-21, and had to work overtime before outlasting Rice in the fourth set, 26-24.

The Green Wave connected at a .252 rate with just 19 errors in 139 attempts and Sara Radosevic posted her fifth double-double of the 2008 season with a match-high 17 kills to go along with 10 digs.

Tulane scored the first two points of the match, but that was perhaps the highlight of the first set as Rice used a 5-0 run to take a three-point advantage that it would not relinquish. The Owls' lead swelled to as many as six at 17-11 and 21-15, and Rice cruised to a four-point victory.

The two teams traded blows throughout the first two-thirds of set No. 2 as the stanza was deadlocked at 14-all after the first 28 serves. From there, however, Tulane used a 6-0 rally to take a commanding 20-14 lead and outscored Rice 5-4 the rest of the way to knot the match at one set apiece.

The back-and-forth struggle of the second set continued over the final two stanzas, but Tulane was able to push for points late each time. In the third set, Tulane and Rice battled to an 8-8 tie early on, but the Owls led by as many as five at 16-11. Tulane battled back to tie the game at 20-all courtesy of an 11-8 rally and used a 5-1 run over the final six serves to claim a 2-1 lead.

Tulane jumped out to a 5-2 lead early in the fourth set and that would be the largest lead for either team the rest of the way. Rice rallied to knot things up at 9-9, and eventually took a 17-15 advantage on a Green Wave attack error. The Owls led 22-20 later in the stanza, but Tulane tied the set at 23-all. The Wave squandered their first match-point opportunity, but with the score tied at 24-24, Djurdjevic set up match point with a kill and a solo block by Shepard sealed the win.

TU SURVIVES SCARE AT MEMPHIS

Wells leads three players with double-digit kills in Wave's 3-1 win

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—It was not always pretty, but for Tulane, the result sure was sweet as the Green Wave survived a scare from Conference USA foe Memphis for a 3-1 victory at the Elma Roane Fieldhouse.

Tulane won the opening stanza with relative ease, 25-14, and led the second set by six late in the contest. The Tigers roared back with a 15-7 rally the rest of the way to earn a 28-26 victory. Tulane had to play from behind in the final two sets, but was able to put it together when it needed to and sealed the deal with back-to-back 27-25 decisions.

The match came, however, down to one of the most unusual plays. After trailing most of the fourth set, Tulane held match point at 26-25. Following a Tulane serve, Memphis controlled the ball and Rebecka Strickland hammered a spike deep down the line. Luna Rebrovic laid out to make the dig and her pass sailed over the net and beyond the Tiger defense just in front of the end line to provide the winning point.

Memphis jumped out to an early 3-1 advantage in set No. 1, but Tulane used a 13-2 run to a commanding 14-5 advantage. The Tigers made it a four-point affair at 16-12, but the Green Wave responded to out-score Memphis 9-2 the rest of the way.

It was a similar story in the beginning of the second set as the Wave rolled out to an 11-5 lead early on and held a 19-13 lead later in the stanza. Memphis refused to go away and used an 11-5 run to knot the set at 24. Tulane held set point on three occasions but could not cash in, and the Tigers tied the match at one win apiece on a kill by Katlin English.

The third set was a back-and-forth struggle, but with the score tied at 13-all, Memphis used a 4-1 rally to take a 17-14 lead. Memphis appeared to be in control of the stanza seven serves later at 23-20, but Tulane tied the match at 23-23, twice saved off set point, capitalized on a Tiger attack error to set up set point and put the stanza away on an ace by Rachel Lindelow.

The see-saw battle continued in the fourth set as the two teams essentially traded the first 24 points of the stanza. The Wave used a 3-0 run to create a little breathing room and led by as many as five at 20-15. Memphis stormed back to make it a one-point affair at 23-22 and got back-to-back blocks to establish set point at 24-23. Tulane, however, battled back to set up match point on a kill by Wells and clinched the victory on Rebrovic's overpass.

UAB HALTS WIN STREAK AT NINE

Green Wave fall to Blazers, 3-2, in Bartow Arena

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Sara Radosevic tallied a season-best 23 kills and Jenn Miller posted a season-high 23 digs, but it was not enough as Tulane dropped a 3-2 decision to Conference USA foe UAB at Bartow Arena.

After dropping the first two sets, 25-21 and 25-22, the Green Wave bounced back with 25-16 and 15-17 decisions over the next two stanzas to send the match to a fifth and deciding set. In the final contest, however, the Blazers came out firing on all cylinders and survived the Tulane comeback effort to clinch the match with a 15-6 victory.

With the match tied at two sets apiece, the Blazers scored the first point and never relinquished the lead. Tulane tied the set on three occasions, but with the score knotted at 3-all, UAB rattled off five unanswered points and outscored the team across the net 7-3 the rest of the way to hand the Green Wave their first C-USA defeat.

The statistics were almost dead even for both teams throughout the match as Tulane held a one-kill advantage (64-63), UAB had a slight advantage in digs (77-74) and blocks (9.0-8.0) and the two clubs both connected at a .247 clip. In the fifth set, however, UAB had nine kills and no errors in 18 swings for a .500 attack percentage while the Green Wave hit -.158 after tallying just three kills and committing six errors. A big reason for the negative attack percentage was the Blazers' play at the net as one-third of UAB's blocks came in the final stanza. In addition, UAB was a perfect 7-for-7 in sideout opportunities in the fifth set.

Radosevic was one of three Tulane student-athletes to post double-digit kill totals as senior right-side hitter Bridget Wells had 17 and junior right-side hitter Ksenija Vlaskovic finished with 12. Radosevic hit .353 for the match with just five errors in 51 swings.

Setters Luna Rebrovic and Rachel Lindelow tied for team-high assist honors with 28 each, and Miller led four Green Wave players with double-digit dig totals as freshman right-side hitter Visnja Djurdjevic had 16 while the two setters had 10 apiece. Senior Jen Linder led Tulane's front-line defense with five block assists while Radosevic tallied one solo stuff and three block assists.
