Spring Release No. 16

TULSA HEADS TO ATHENS FOR REMATCH WITH PEPPERDINE

The No. 20-ranked University of Tulsa men's tennis team (20-8) will travel to Athens, Ga., for the NCAA Division I Men's Tennis Championships. TU will face No. 7 Pepperdine (25-6) in the Round of 16 at 6 p.m. May 18 at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex. The Golden Hurricane defeated No. 35 Minnesota and No. 10 Oklahoma last week in the first two rounds of the championship to advance to the Round of 16 for the second-straight year. Tulsa's triumph over the Sooners was the first over a top-10 opponent in school history. The Golden Hurricane is on a 10-match win streak, and the team has won 14 of its last 15 matches. TU and Pepperdine faced each other Feb. 24 in Tulsa, with the Waves picking up the narrow 4-3 victory.

GOLDEN HURRICANE ADVANCES TO ROUND OF 16 FOR SECOND-STRAIGHT YEAR

Tulsa defeated No. 35 Minnesota (4-2) and No. 10 Oklahoma (4-1) on May 11-12 in Norman, Okla., to advance to the NCAA Round of 16 for the second-straight season. TU won the doubles point against the Golden Gophers and received singles victories from juniors Clifford Marsland, Grant Ive and sophomore Japie De Klerk. Tulsa also won the doubles point against the Sooners and picked up singles wins from senior Ashley Watling, junior Tristan Jackson and Marsland. The Golden Hurricane has competed in the NCAA Tournament each of the last seven years, and TU reached the Round of 16 for the first time in program history last season by defeating Oklahoma and Texas on back-to-back days in Norman. The Golden Hurricane will be making its 14th appearance in the NCAA Championship.

SCOUTING THE WAVES

Pepperdine (25-6) will carry a 22-match win streak into the NCAA Round of 16. The team topped Green Bay and No. 28 Washington by identical 4-0 results in the first two rounds of the championship. The Waves had a six-match losing skid prior to their current win streak, but those losses were to No. 1 USC, No. 3 Ohio State, No. 5 Florida, No. 7 Kentucky, No. 8 UCLA, and No. 13 California. Pepperdine has defeated 10 top-25 programs this season, including No. 5 Duke, No. 8 California, No. 8 Stanford, No. 17 Washington, No. 17 San Diego, No. 19 Tulsa, No. 20 Tennessee, No. 20 Oklahoma, No. 22 Texas Tech, and No. 25 San Diego. The team has three ranked singles players in No. 8 Sebastian Fanselow (22-3), No. 30 Finn Tearney (17-7) and No. 109 Mousheg Hovhannisyanyan (17-12). Alex Llompert also owns a 21-6 mark. Llompert and Tearney (15-12) are the No. 15-ranked doubles team. Tulsa head coach Vince Westbrook is 0-4 all-time against Pepperdine. Two of those losses were in the NCAA First Round in 2000 (4-0) and the 4-3 result from earlier this season.

TULSA CLAIMS SIXTH LEAGUE CROWN IN LAST SEVEN YEARS

Tulsa won the 2012 Conference USA Championship with a 4-0 triumph over Memphis in the finals April 23 in Orlando, Fla. The Golden Hurricane won its second-straight title and its sixth in the last seven years. The unprecedented six championships are the most in conference history. TU defeated UCF 4-3 in the quarter-finals, and the team topped UAB 4-1 in the semifinals. The finals marked the fourth-straight year Tulsa has eliminated Memphis from the league tournament. TU improved its all-time record in the Conference USA Championship to a staggering 20-1 (.952). This is the second-straight year and the fourth overall (2007-08, 2011-12) that both Tulsa tennis programs have captured the Conference USA Championship. Of the 14 league titles contested since the most recent conference realignment in 2005-06, the Golden Hurricane tennis programs have captured 11 championships.

LIVERSAGE, WATLING EARN ITA CENTRAL REGION LAURELS

Thomas Liversage and senior Ashley Watling both earned 2012 ITA Central Region awards, the organization announced May 14. Liversage was named the ITA Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year, while Watling was named the Senior of the Year. Liversage became the third Tulsa coach to be named ITA Central Region Coach of the Year (Dean Orford, 1997-2000, 2002 - Michael Wheelen, 2007). Watling became the sixth player in TU men's history to win the senior player of the year award (Chris Milliron, 1995 - Gareth Williams, 1999 - Ryan Livesay, 2003 - Dustin Taylor, 2004 - Arnau Brugués, 2009).

5 EARN CONFERENCE USA POSTSEASON RECOGNITION

Senior Ashley Watling was named the Conference USA Player of the Year, and four other members of the Tulsa men's tennis team earned postseason recognition. Watling became the third player in school history to win the prestigious honor (Arnau Brugués 2006-09, Marcelo Arevalo 2011), and the Golden Hurricane has now captured six of the last seven player of the year awards. Watling was one of four members of the Golden Hurricane who were selected to the All-Conference USA Singles First Team. The mark tied the conference record for most first-team selections by one team with last year's Tulsa squad. Watling earned his third-straight first team honor, and he was joined by juniors Clifford Marsland, Grant Ive and sophomore Japie De Klerk. Marsland and De Klerk both earned their second-straight honor, while Ive received his first-career postseason laurel. Watling and Marsland were also named to the All-Conference USA Doubles First Team as the highest-ranked tandem in the league at No. 10 in the nation. This was Watling's third straight first team doubles award and Marsland's second in a row. Ive was named the Outstanding Singles Player of the Championship. This marked the sixth time in the last seven years TU has won the honor. The doubles team of De Klerk and freshman Alejandro Espejo were honored as the Outstanding Doubles Team of the Championship. TU won the honor four of the last six years.

WATLING, MARSLAND EARN BIDS TO NCAA SINGLES, DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIPS

The top 64 singles players and 32 doubles teams will all compete for individual national titles in the season-ending NCAA Singles and Doubles Championships in Athens, Ga., May 23-28. The top-ranked singles player/doubles teams from each conference all earned automatic bids into the field. Senior Ashley Watling made the field as the top-ranked C-USA singles player at No. 77, while the doubles team of Watling and junior Clifford Marsland (No. 11) earned the Conference USA automatic bid to the NCAA Doubles Championship. This will be Watling's second trip to the singles championship, and the Watling/Marsland duo will make their second-straight trip to the doubles tournament.

TULSA AT THE C-USA CHAMPIONSHIP

Tulsa has captured six of the seven C-USA Championships contested since the team joined the league in 2005-06. TU began its run in 2006, when the team defeated top-seed Rice 4-1 in the title match. The Golden Hurricane has earned the No. 1 seed in each of the last six tournaments, and the team faced Rice in the title match each year from 2006-11. The Owls' lone win came in 2010, when they defeated TU 4-3. Tulsa reclaimed the throne in 2011 and defended the title in 2012. The Golden Hurricane owns an all-time record of 20-1 (.952) at the Conference USA Championship.

TULSA'S 8 LOSSES

All of Tulsa's eight losses this season have been to teams that were ranked inside the top 25 when they faced the Golden Hurricane. The lowest-ranked team to beat TU was No. 25 San Diego, and the Toreros sit at No. 27 in the nation. Four of the eight teams that have beaten Tulsa are now ranked higher than when they faced TU (No. 6 Kentucky, No. 7 Pepperdine, No. 10 Oklahoma, No. 15 North Carolina), one is ranked the same (No. 14 California), and the other three are all ranked inside the top 30 (No. 11 Stanford, No. 27 San Diego, No. 28 Washington).

GOLDEN HURRICANE DOMINATES C-USA TENNIS ATHLETE OF WEEK HONORS

The C-USA Men's Tennis Athlete of the Week award should be renamed The University of Tulsa Men's Tennis Athlete of the Week after TU's complete domination of the award the past two seasons. Members of the Golden Hurricane have won 19 of the 26 possible weekly honors dating back to the beginning of the 2011 campaign. Tulsa athletes won a league-record nine in a row to close out last year. The Golden Hurricane captured eight of the 13 honors this year, including five in a row earlier this season. Senior Ashley Watling (January 31, February 7, April 10) and juniors Tristan Jackson (February 14, April 17), Clifford Marsland (February 21, February 28) and Grant Ive (March 26) all won the award this year.

JACKSON SECURES FIRST 2 C-USA WEEKLY LAURELS

Junior Tristan Jackson was named the Conference USA Men's Tennis Athlete of the Week Feb. 14. He earned his first-career weekly laurel after helping lead the Golden Hurricane to an upset victory over No. 11 Texas A&M and a triumph over Wichita State. He won both his singles matches in straight sets, which included a 7-6 (7-1), 6-2 triumph over No. 73 Jeremy Efferding of Texas A&M. He also topped Erick Reyes of Wichita State 6-2, 6-3. Jackson picked up his second-career victory over a ranked opponent and his first of the season.

WATLING EARNS 3 C-USA MEN'S TENNIS ATHLETE OF THE WEEK HONORS

Senior Ashley Watling posted a perfect 7-0 mark from Jan. 27-Feb. 5, and for his efforts he earned back-to-back Conference USA Men's Tennis Athlete of the Week honors. He also picked up the honor April 10 after winning all four matches against No. 74 Oklahoma State and UCF. Watling won three weekly honors each of the last three years and will end his career with nine weekly laurels.

IVE CLAIMS FIRST-CAREER WEEKLY HONOR

Junior Grant Ive was named the Conference USA Men's Tennis Athlete of the Week for the first time in his career on March 26. He went 3-0 and helped lead Tulsa to a 4-3 upset victory over No. 18 Fresno State. He defeated FSU's David Ayoun at No. 4 singles 6-3, 2-6, 6-2. He also teamed with freshman Alejandro Espejo to clinch the doubles point. TU also topped Hawai'i 5-1, and Ive defeated Carter Lam 6-1, 6-0.

MARSLAND WINS SECOND-STRAIGHT C-USA WEEKLY AWARD

Junior Clifford Marsland was named the Conference USA Men's Tennis Athlete of the Week on both Feb. 21 and Feb. 28. During the two-week span, Marsland was a perfect 3-0 in singles play and 2-1 in doubles action. The highlight of the span was when he topped No. 58 Mousheg Hovhannisyan of No. 13 Pepperdine 6-4, 6-3. He picked up his second- and third-career weekly honor.

TULSA STANDS AT NO. 20, THREE EARN INDIVIDUAL RANKS

Tulsa is currently ranked No. 20 in the most recent Campbell/ITA College Tennis rankings released April 30. The newest individual rankings were released April 30, and Tulsa's top doubles team of senior Ashley Watling and junior Clifford Marsland sit at No. 11 in the nation. Earlier in the season, Watling and Marsland tied the school record with their No. 3 doubles rank. Watling is the highest-ranked singles player at No. 77, and he is followed by Marsland (No. 97) and sophomore Japie De Klerk (No. 117).

WESTBROOK IN 21ST YEAR AT THE HELM

Vince Westbrook is currently in his 21st year at the helm of the men's tennis program. He reached the 300-win plateau last season, and he currently owns a 325-229 record for a .587 win percentage. The 325 wins are a school record. He also owns a 178-77 (.698) mark at home.

GOLDEN HURRICANE FACING ONE OF THE TOUGHEST SLATES IN THE NATION

Tulsa has been tested early and often by one of the most difficult schedules in the nation. The Golden Hurricane earned a preseason ITA national rank of No. 23, and the team has faced at least 13 schools ranked inside the top 30 in the preseason rankings. Also on the docket were nine top-20 schools and three top-10 schools (No. 5 Baylor, No. 6 Stanford, No. 7 Kentucky) according to the preseason rankings. Eight top-30 schools visited the Michael D. Case Tennis Center this season. Tulsa posted a 10-8 record against ranked opponents last year, and the team is also 10-8 against ranked foes in 2012.

WATLING, MARSLAND FINISH RUNNER UP AT NATIONAL INDOORS

Senior Ashley Watling and junior Clifford Marsland advanced to the championship match of the 2011 USTA/ITA National Indoor Intercollegiate Doubles Championship in Flushing, N.Y., at the USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center. The two members of the Golden Hurricane opened the national tournament with an 8-4 victory over Nikola Bubnic and Thibaut Visy of San Diego, and the tandem advanced to the semifinals after defeating No. 33 Shaun Bernstein and Evan King of Michigan 8-6. Watling and Marsland defeated No. 36 Nassim Sliam and Billy Federhofer 6-3, 7-5 in the semis before falling to No. 3 Chase Buchanan and Blaz Rola 4-6, 7-5, 6-2 in the championship match.

WATLING, MARSLAND CLAIM USTA/ITA CENTRAL REGION DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

The No. 4 doubles team in the nation of senior Ashley Watling and junior Clifford Marsland won all five matches en route to the 2011 USTA/ITA Men's Doubles Central Region Championship. The top seed rolled to the fourth title for a Tulsa doubles team in school history and the first since 2006. They dropped Minnesota's No. 22-ranked tandem of Julian Dehn and Rok Bonin 8-2 in the semifinals. They claimed the title with a 9-7 triumph over No. 13 Benedikt Lindheim and Christopher Aumueler of Nebraska. Marsland also reached the quarterfinals of the singles tournament, while Watling and junior Grant Ive advanced to the Round of 16.

DOUBLES PAIRS SHINE AT ITA ALL-AMERICAN CHAMPIONSHIPS

Two doubles teams for TU had stellar performances at the 2011 ITA Men's All-American Tennis Championships that was hosted by the Golden Hurricane Oct. 1-9. The No. 4-ranked doubles team of senior Ashley Watling and junior Clifford Marsland reached the Round of 16 and the junior tandem of Grant Ive and Tristan Jackson upset the No. 5-ranked duo of California's Nick Andrews and Christoffer Konigsfeldt in the opening round. Watling also won a match in the singles Main Draw.

TULSA MEN'S TENNIS ENDS YEAR WITH FIRST TRIP TO ROUND OF 16

The University of Tulsa reached the NCAA Division I Men's Tennis Championship Round of 16 for the first time in school history in 2011, and the Golden Hurricane fell 4-0 to No. 4 Ohio State at the Taube Tennis Center in Stanford, Calif. TU was the lowest-ranked team that advanced to the Round of 16 and was only one of two unseeded teams to reach that plateau (No. 17 Illinois). The Golden Hurricane lost the doubles point and fell at No. 2, No. 4 and No. 6 singles.

GOLDEN HURRICANE ADVANCES TO FIRST ROUND OF 16 IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Tulsa upset two Big 12 schools on back-to-back days to reach the NCAA Division I Men's Tennis Championship Round of 16 for the first time in school history. The Golden Hurricane upset No. 20 Oklahoma (Big 12 runners-up) in the first round on the strength of three singles victories and the doubles point. The No. 1 and No. 3 doubles teams picked up wins, and Marcelo Arevalo and juniors Grant Ive and Tristan Jackson led TU to victory in singles action. Tulsa won the doubles point over Texas when senior Ashley Watling and junior Clifford Marsland won at No. 1, and Arevalo and sophomore Japie De Klerk won at No. 2. The Golden Hurricane jumped ahead 3-1 when Arevalo and Marsland won their singles matches, but the Longhorns knotted the match at 3-3. Ive sealed the victory for Tulsa when he won at the fifth position.

FOUR TULSA ATHLETES COMPETED IN NCAA SINGLES, DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIPS

Four members of the TU men's tennis team were selected to the 2011 NCAA Division I Men's Tennis Singles and Doubles Championships. Marcelo Arevalo earned Conference USA's automatic bid into the 64-player singles field by way of being the highest-ranked player in the league at No. 27, and he made his second-straight appearance. He played just two games against No. 5 Michael Shabaz before defaulting. Sophomore Japie De Klerk was originally the fourth alternate and was selected as the last player in the field. The No. 62-ranked player went up against No. 7 Alexandre Lacroix of Florida and nearly pulled off the upset, falling 6-4, 4-6, 6-4. The No. 24-ranked doubles duo of senior Ashley Watling and junior Clifford Marsland grabbed C-USA's automatic bid into the field of 32 doubles teams and fell one win shy of earning All-American status. They won their opening-round match with a 6-4, 7-5 victory over the No. 16-ranked pair of Dean Jackson and Patrick Pohlmann of San Diego, and the Tulsa tandem lost 7-5, 6-1 to the No. 3-ranked duo of Bradley Klahn and Ryan Thacher of Stanford, who went on to capture second place in the tournament.
