Kristie Fox

Head Coach · 1st Season · Arizona (2007)

Former All-American and two-time national champion Kristie Fox was named head softball coach at UT Arlington on June 17, 2012.

"I truly believe Kristie has the ability and the background to become one of the top head coaches in the country," UT Arlington director of athletics Jim Baker said. "Her youthful energy and knowledge of the game, plus her history of success as both an assistant coach and an accomplished player, made her the perfect fit as we begin an exciting new softball era at UT Arlington."

Fox, 26, takes over the Mavericks program after spending the previous three years as an assistant coach at Big 12 member Texas Tech. Fox, recognized as one of the top young assistants in the country, worked primarily with the Red Raiders' hitters and infielders.

"I'm really excited to be part of UTA softball's bright future," Fox said. "I want to thank Jim Baker, [senior associate athletics director] Debbie Garcia and the whole committee for giving me this opportunity. Their commitment to improving softball facilities, UTA's location and great academic programs really sold me on the fact that UTA is pursuing excellence for academic and athletics, and I'm proud to be a part of it."

A number of Texas Tech's offensive records were broken during Fox's stay in Lubbock. The Red Raiders hit a program-best .341 in 2011 to rank fourth nationally, while their 7.17 runs per game led the Big 12 and finished fourth in the country. Texas Tech set school records for hits, home runs, runs, grand slams, RBI, total bases, slugging percentage and walks during 2011.

The Red Raiders were 41-17 in 2012, the third consecutive season of at least 40 wins. Texas Tech reached the NCAA Regionals in each of the three seasons Fox served on the coaching staff, a feat that had not been previously accomplished at the school.

She also played a vital role in the Red Raiders' recruiting efforts and served as the program's camp coordinator.

Fox spent a year as an assistant coach at Murray State prior to her arrival at Texas Tech. She was an undergraduate assistant at Arizona in 2009 while completing her degree in psychology. Fox, a first-round selection of the Chicago Bandits in the 2007 National Professional Fastpitch League draft, was a two-time national champion and standout member of the Arizona Wildcats' team for four years.

She earned All-American honors after her sophomore and junior seasons at Arizona. Fox set the Women's College World Series record her senior season with 11 hits to lead the Wildcats to their eighth national title. She finished her four-year career (2004-07) with a .350 batting average, 260 hits and 230 RBI. Arizona went a combined 203-43-1 during her playing career, with the national titles in 2006 and 2007.

Originally from San Diego, Calif., she is a former member of the USA Elite Team and earned a gold medal in the College World Games in Taiwan with Team USA in 2006.

Vanessa Soto

Assistant Coach · 1st Season · UL-Lafayette (2008)

Vanessa Soto was hired in July 2012 as a UT Arlington assistant softball coach. She's in charge of the Mavs infielders and hitting. Soto hails from San Diego, California but spent her collegiate career playing in the bayous of Louisiana.

Soto played her first three seasons of collegiate softball for the Tigers of LSU. She was a left-hand hitting first and second baseman and hit the ground running in Baton Rouge as a freshman. Soto started in all 54 contests of the 2005 season and was named to the All-Louisiana second team. She led the Tigers and was tied for second in the SEC in doubles with 16. Soto slugged her way to first on the team in RBIs and third for hits. She recorded 16 multiple-hit games and an eight-game hitting streak.

The hot play continued for Soto her sophomore season as she was named to the NFCA All-South Region first team, All-Louisiana first team, SEC All-Tournament team, and SEC Player-of-the-Week March 6, 2006. She led the SEC in fielding percentage by a second baseman, with only two errors, and finished second in the SEC for doubles and sacrifice flies. Soto had 11 multiple-RBI and 15 multiple-hit games in 2006 and notched the game winning RBI to take the NCAA Regional Championship.

During her final year at LSU, an injury caused Soto to split time between first and second base. Despite the change, Soto still finished the 2007 season ranked 7th in doubles in the SEC and recorded only 4 errors in nearly 300 chances. She knocked 12 multiple-hit games with 7 multiple-RBI games. Soto left LSU tied for fourth with 47 career doubles and fourth with 10 career sacrifice flies.

Soto transferred to the University of Louisiana - Lafayette to play her final collegiate softball season. Soto started all 67 contests for the Ragin' Cajuns at second base. She finished with a .333 batting average with the most at bats on the team. Soto's knack for dropping doubles continued with a team leading 23 in 2008. Her 67 RBIs and national leading 8 sacrifice flies helped the Cajuns advance to their first Women's College World Series (WCWS) in five years. Soto had a two-RBI double in the opening game of the WCWS in Oklahoma City to take down No. 1 Florida. The Ragin' Cajuns then fell to Texas A&M and Alabama to end their time in the 2008 WCWS. Soto finished her playing career with yet another naming to the All-Louisiana first team.

Meagan Denny-White

Assistant Coach · 1st Season · Texas (2008)

Meagan Denny-White was hired in July 2012 as a softball assistant coach and will take the lead with the UT Arlington pitching staff. White, a Texas native, has returned to the Lone Star State after competing at the pro level as a member of the Chicago Bandits.

White was recruited out of Crowley High School by the University of Texas. As a freshman, White made 17 appearances, 15 starts and 2 in relief. She pitched two no-hitters, two one-hit complete games, as well as 5 shutouts. White finished the 2005 season 8-2 with one save and had a remarkable 11 strikeouts per 7 innings.

During White's sophomore season, she recorded a 17-5 record in 28 appearances. She had a fantastic ERA of 1.57, along with 16 complete games and 4 shutouts pitched. White also ranked 18th in the NCAA, with 9.8 Strikeouts per 7 innings pitched. Her most notable game that 2006 season came against Texas A&M Corpus-Christi, where she struck out 16 batters while only giving up one run in a complete game effort.

White continued her domination as a junior, earning a 9th place ranking in the NCAA with 10.2 strikeouts per 7 innings pitched. She posted a 21-16 record with 230.2 innings pitched and held opposing teams to a batting average of just .193. White's hot pace continued as she pitched 20 complete games, had 10 shutouts, and added yet another no-hitter to her resume. She finished ranked seventh in the Big 12 with an ERA of 1.73, while leading the conference in strikeouts (337) and starts (41). White was named to the 2007 All-Big 12 Conference second team and earned Big-12 Pitcher-of-the-Week May 1, 2007.

In her final season of collegiate softball, White made her mark in the Longhorn record books. She was named to the 2008 All-Big 12 Conference first team and National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Midwest Region second team. White capped off her career at Texas ranked second all-time in: innings pitched (689.1), wins (69), appearances (138), starts (116), complete games (67), and shutouts (27). She also ranks second all-time in Texas softball history in strikeouts, with 988, trailing the two-time Olympian, Cat Osterman.

White began her professional softball career with the Chicago Bandits in 2012. Prior to that, she was a member of the Pro Fastpitch Xtreme Tour from 2008-2011 where she earned Pitcher-of-the-Year honors in 2009

White graduated from the University of Texas with a corporate communications major in 2008. She married Cliff White in 2009.

UT ARLINGTON SOFTBALL

UT ARLINGTON SOFTBALL

ALLAN SAXE FIELD

Next door to Clay Gould Ballpark is Allan Saxe Field, home to Maverick softball. Like its neighboring facility, the softball field is named in honor of Dr. Allan Saxe, and was completely renovated in 1993. With bleacher seating for over 250 fans, Allan Saxe Field offers fans the opportunity to watch the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex's lone NCAA Division I softball team up close to the action in an intimate setting.

The facility features a press box with seating for media and sports information personnel, a sound system for music and public address announcements, a concession stand and restroom facilities.

On the field, players from each team enjoy spacious, covered dugouts and an extremely well-manicured field. Batting cages and twin-mound bullpens give players the opportunity stay on top of their games. Lights make night games possible and a 10-inning scoreboard sits beyond the outfield fence, which stands 10 feet high.

UT Arlington References

The UT Arlington Athletic Department respectfully asks your cooperation in referring to the University's sports programs as UT Arlington. UT-Arlington, Texas-Arlington and Texas Arlington are among the versions that are incorrect in referring to our athletic programs. Feel free to use the abbreviation UTA for second references. Also, although we are officially the Mavericks, using Mavs on second reference is also acceptable. We thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

After completing its 50th year of intercollegiate competition at the close of the 2011-12 season, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation's best programs. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success over the years. In men's basketball, the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 24 of the past 29 seasons. In baseball, the WAC has boasted two national champions since 2003. In women's basketball, Louisiana Tech basketball has played in all but three NCAA postseason tournaments during its history.

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure from one of the most respected broadcast entities in the country. The WAC also officially added WAC.tv in 2006 to give fans streaming internet access to many of its postseason championships including volleyball, soccer, swimming and diving, basketball, softball and baseball.

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation's 11 Division I-A conferences. Its history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition. Today the WAC has grown to a ten-team league, including: Denver, Idaho, New Mexico State, San Jose State, Seattle, UT Arlington, UTSA, Texas State, and Utah State.
