Also, student-athletes who extended career records set in previous seasons are not listed.

2008-09 MILESTONES & ACCOMPLISHMENTS

2009 Cal Aggie Athletics Hall of Fame inductees Troy Larkin, Susan Churchwell, Kameelah Elarms, Cynthia Rail, Matthew Davie and Phil Swimley.

• Five former student-athletes and one coach were inducted into the Cal Aggie Athletics Hall of Fame on June 6...

Alphabetically, the inductees are Susan Churchwell (softball), Matthew Davie (swimming), Kameelah Elarms (track & field), Troy Larkin (football), Cynthia Rail (soccer) and Phil Swimley (baseball coach)... Additionally, Jacalyn Box captured the Special Recognition Award for her volunteer contributions.

• On the same night as the Hall of Fame inductions, UC Davis athletics also handed out its annual student-athlete awards... Quincy Amarikwa (men's soccer) captured the Colby E. "Babe" Slater Award as outstanding male athlete of the year, Heidi Kucera (swimming, water polo) won the Hubert Heitman Award as the top female student-athlete, and Dylan Curtis earned the W.P. Lindley Award as the year's outstanding scholar-athlete... Furthermore, men's tennis and women's gymnastics captured the Lysle E. Leach and Marya Welch awards for team GPA.

• Sophomores Chelsea Stelmiller and Alice Kim qualified for the 64th U.S. Women's Open Championship... Stelmiller finished T2nd and Kim placed T4th at a section qualifier in Santa Cruz on June 15, earning trips to the U.S. Open, held at Saucon Valley Country Club in Bethlehem, Pa. on July 6-12.

• Continuing its history as a leader in gender-equity issues and Title IX compliance, UC Davis announced the revival of field hockey as its 15th women's varsity sport in July... Former Pacific coach Vianney Campos was later named as head coach for the program, which will begin play in the fall of 2009... Women's field hockey previously existed as an intercollegiate offering until 1982, when it was discontinued in favor of women's soccer... The Aggies will compete as a member of the NorPac Conference.

• A total of 10 Aggie sports were represented in NCAA post-season play... Among the notables were men's soccer, which advanced in the NCAA tournament after its 4-0 home win over Denver on November 22; men's swimming, which sent junior Scott Weltz to a pair of consolation finals (and All-America honorable mention); women's golf, which saw junior Alice Kim place eighth at the national tournament; and men's track & field, for which senior Polly Gnepa advanced to the 110 hurdles semifinals at the NCAA Championships.

• Soccer All-American Quincy Amarikwa was selected by the San Jose Earthquakes as the 32nd pick of the Major League Soccer SuperDraft... Amarikwa is the first Aggie to be chosen in the SuperDraft (Ryan Shaw went to the Los Angeles Galaxy in the 2004 supplemental draft)... He is one of several Aggies to enter the professional ranks during the year... Football players John Faletose and Jonathan Compas each signed free-agent contracts with NFL teams in April... Faletose, a defensive tackle, joined the Buffalo Bills while Compas, an offensive guard, inked with the Oakland Raiders... More recently, baseball players Andy Suiter (Los Angeles Dodgers), Ty Kelly (Baltimore Orioles) and Ryan Scoma (San Francisco) each were selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft in June.

• Aggie Stadium, the university's multi-use facility, hosted its first night games during the 2008-09 season... The lights went up back in May 2008 in time for Davis Senior High School's commencement ceremonies... The first night football game at Aggie Stadium was a 38-24 win over Portland State on September 13... Women's lacrosse held its first night game at Aggie Stadium with a tough 20-3 loss to 16th-ranked Stanford on February 25.

• Women's basketball head coach Sandy Simpson earned his 200th career win, all of which has been at UC Davis, with the Aggies' 86-66 victory over Cal State Northridge on January 4... Less than two weeks later, men's basketball mentor Gary Stewart collected his 200th win with UC Davis' 85-74 defeat of Cal State Fullerton on January 15... Most of Stewart's total took place at the helm of his alma mater, La Verne.

• The NCAA honored UC Davis men's water polo and women's tennis with public recognition awards for Academic Progress Rate (APR) success, the second consecutive honor for each program... The distinction goes to teams that post multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all teams in their sport.

• Two key figures to intercollegiate athletics retired after the 2008-09 year... Perhaps most notable is associate athletics director Bob Bullis, whose service – mostly behind the scenes – spans three decades... Bullis' role in the department centered around its business operations, event management and facilities, all of which reached critical importance during the university's transition to Division I... Jim von Rummelhoff joined the athletics department after more than two decades at Mediaworks (formerly Illustration Services)... He served as a department photographer and videographer during his stay in ICA... In addition, Chancellor Larry Vanderhoef announced in July that he would step down from the highest position on campus, then return to the plant biology faculty after a one-year sabbatical.
