STUDENT-ATHLETE/AGENT PROGRAM AND POLICIES

2009-10 CALENDAR

FEBRUARY

CONTACT PERIOD FOR THOSE AGENTS WHO HAVE REGISTERED WITH THE UCF

- 1) UCF will conduct an agent education meeting with all current junior football student-athletes.
- 2) UCF will register all agents (ongoing through the spring semester).
- 3) UCF will provide list of all registered and approved agents to current junior football student-athletes.

MARCH-MAY

CONTACT PERIOD FOR THOSE AGENTS WHO HAVE REGISTERED WITH UCF

- 1) UCF will distribute all agent literature and materials to junior football student-athletes. (March 1-May 31)
- 2) UCF will conduct a pre-agent meeting with junior football student-athletes who wish to have an on campus meeting with a UCF registered agent. (March 1-May 31)
- 3) UCF will send out letters to agents reminding them of UCF's student-athlete/agent policy and mandating that no additional contacts with UCF football players should take place until such time that their eligibility is exhausted. (May)
- 4) UCF will facilitate any on campus student-athlete agent meetings. (March 1-May 31)

JUNE-SEPTEMBER

DEAD PERIOD—NO PLAYER-AGENT CONTACT PERMITTED

- 1) Athletics Compliance Office will send letter to the parents of football players regarding agent issues. The letter will reintroduce university and student-athlete/agent program policies as well as NCAA rules concerning agents and amateurism. The letter will inform them of all agent-related activities scheduled during the upcoming academic year.

OCTOBER

DEAD PERIOD—NO PLAYER-AGENT CONTACT PERMITTED

- 1) UCF will invite a financial advisor to speak to the football squad regarding the services available to them. UCF will also invite a speaker to address the football squad on “why you do not need an agent until your eligibility has expired”.

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER

DEAD PERIOD—NO PLAYER-AGENT CONTACT PERMITTED

- 1) Meeting with all members of the football program to arrange for amateur affidavit signing.
- 2) UCF will send a letter to the parents of all juniors and seniors letting them know that UCF representatives at the Bowl Game will be available for individual and/or group consultation to discuss agent issues (student-athlete will not be a part of any discussions at the Bowl Game).

JANUARY (BOWL GAME)

DEAD PERIOD—NO PLAYER-AGENT CONTACT PERMITTED UNTIL AFTER BOWL GAME

- 1) Agents may now contact student-athletes whose eligibility has been exhausted.
- 2) UCF will facilitate any additional requests from student-athletes who have exhausted their eligibility to meet with agents.

GENERAL POLICIES

- Players are not permitted to meet with agents outside of the regularly scheduled on-campus agent meetings until their eligibility is exhausted.
- All agents must be registered with UCF order to be on the UCF list of approved agents.
- Players are to refer all agents who directly contact them to the Athletics Compliance Office. Agents must also notify the Athletics Compliance Office of any direct contact with the student-athletes.
- Agents found to be in violation of UCF Student-Athlete/Agent Policies on direct contacts will be removed from the UCF Registration list and will not be included in the selection process.
- Agents are not permitted to receive complimentary tickets from any football player.
