FRESHMAN FIRSTS

- Several UMass freshmen made their collegiate debuts at Holy Cross in the season-opener.
- Stephanie Hopkins scored her first career goal and started at attack. Merritt Cosgrove drew her first collegiate start in the midfield, while Ashley King started on defense. King posted two groundballs, while Cosgrove recorded two draw controls in their first games as Minutewomen.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY RECAP

- Melynda Zwick scored four goals, Holly Drown scored three and added two assists, and Kathleen Typadis scored three and added an assist as UMass upset No. 16 Boston University on Saturday. The win snapped an amazing 22-game home win streak for the Terriers and was UMass' first win against BU since the 1998 season. For Alexis Venechanos the win today was her first as a head coach.
- The Minutewomen scored six unanswered goals in the second half to take an 11-7 lead before the Terriers rallied back late. Goalkeeper Lauren McCarthy was strong once again between the pipes holding the Terriers at bay during their late rally and making 12 saves in the game. McCarthy made a save with just over a minute remaining in the game that allowed UMass to gain possession and run out the clock after BU had cut the lead to two. McCarthy earned her first career win against the Terriers despite battling the flu.
- BU controlled much of the first half of play jumping out to a quick 2-0 lead and then taking a 7-5 edge into intermission.
- Three players scored hat tricks today led by the career-high four goals from Zwick. Holly Drown also recorded a career-high five points with three goals and two assists. The three goals for Typadis extended her scoring streak to 26 consecutive games and was her 14th hat trick. She needs just four more goals to crack the all-time career scoring list.

2007 COULD BE A RECORD YEAR

- Several Minutewomen are looking to etch their names in the UMass record books this spring. Most notable is Kathleen Typadis who will move into the all-time scoring lists for points and goals.
- Typadis needs just four goals to move into a 10th-place tie for career goals scored. She needs just 22 points to move into that all-time list. She is also tied for seventh in career draw controls with 60.
- Lauren McCarthy ranks fourth all-time in career saves with 334. If she follows her career average this season, then she will be ranked No. 2 all-time behind Jen Nardi.
- Defenders Julie Papaleo and Jackie Rosenzweig are close to making the all-time caused turnovers chart. Papaleo has 26 for her career and Rosenzweig had 18. Kerri Connerty ranks 10th all-time with 28.
- Midfielders Samantha Sepulveda and Jeanette Villapiano will join Typadis in the draw control category. Sepulveda has 56 draw controls for her career which ranks 10th, while Villapiano has 42.

COMING BACK STRONG

- The Minutewomen return nearly 80 percent of their scoring and four of the top five offensive threats for 2007. Defensively, UMass has several experienced players anchored by goalie Lauren McCarthy.
- Nine starters return for UMass as well including junior attack Kathleen Typadis and sophomore midfielder/attack Kaytlin McCormick who led the team in goals and points last season.
- The midfield will be led by senior co-captain Samantha Sepulveda who adds speed in the transition game and is excellent on draw controls.
- All told, UMass returns nine upperclassmen. Four sophomores saw significant game time last season as rookies making this a fairly experienced team.

UMASS TABBED FOURTH IN A-10 PRESEASON COACHES POLL

- UMass was picked to finish fourth overall in the Atlantic 10 Preseason Poll as voted on by league coaches. The Minutewomen are looking to build upon their momentum from a season ago where they won four of their final six regular season games and qualified for the A-10 Conference Tournament.
- Richmond was picked to win the title this season followed by Duquesne and Temple who tied for second. George Washington and St. Bonaventure were picked to finished fifth and sixth, respectively, while La Salle and Saint Joseph's were predicted to finish in a seventh-place tie.

MINUTEWOMEN HEAD TO DISNEY WORLD FOR CHAMPIONS CHALLENGE

- UMass got a head start on its preseason training in late January with a trip to Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex to take part in the Champions Challenge hosted by U.S. Lacrosse. The Minutewomen spent the time in the Sunshine State gearing up for the season with two-a-day practice sessions and capped the week with an exhibition against the U.S. Developmental and Elite Teams on Sunday before returning to Amherst.
- The week began on Tuesday, Jan. 23 when the team flew down to officially start the 2007 season. "It was great to be able to practice in the great weather down in Florida," said new head coach Alexis Venechanos. "We had some pretty intense practice sessions, but I think we were able to put in a lot of our concepts and got a good head start on the season."
- The team concluded the trip on Sunday with exhibition games against the U.S. Developmental Team and the U.S. Elite Team.

A NEW YORK STATE OF MIND

- Despite being the flagship school of Massachusetts, the Minutewomen have several team members who hail from the Empire

- UMass will face both NCAA Finalist in Northwestern and Dartmouth. Northwestern is the back-to-back defending national champion.
- Five teams on the schedule last season made the NCAA Tournament: Boston University, Dartmouth, Holy Cross, Northwestern and Richmond. BU won the America East, Holy Cross won the Patriot League and Richmond won the A-10 conference titles. New Hampshire fell to BU in the America East Championship game.
- Only six games this season will be at home for UMass. The game against Northwestern will be held in Yorktown, N.Y. and is technically a home game.

UMASS AMONG THE ATLANTIC 10

- UMass boasts the second best all-time record in league play among conference members. Temple holds the best record among league rivals at 46-5, while UMass is 32-19.
- UMass finished third in the conference in 2004 and fourth in 2006 with a 4-3 record each year.
- In this the eighth year affiliated with the league, UMass has one regular season title and one tournament title to its name (both in 2000) and has qualified every season but one (2005) for the A-10 Tournament.

SCOUTING VERMONT

- Vermont was picked to finish sixth out of seven teams in the 2007 America East Preseason Coaches' Poll.
- For the second straight year, Vermont will be one of the youngest squads in the league. Third-year head coach Jen Johnson has added 13 freshmen to go along with nine sophomores this season, making the UVM roster loaded with 22 underclassmen on the 30-player roster.
- The Catamounts return America East All-Conference Second Team selection Kristen Millar and America East All-Rookie pick Jennifer Maher to the team.
- Millar, the team MVP in 2006, was the top freshman in the country in draw controls per game, ground balls per game and assists per game. Overall she ranked second nationally in draw controls, fifth in ground balls and 15th in assists. She also ranked among the top 50 players in Division I in points per game.
- Maher also had a terrific season and teamed with Millar and the rest of the freshmen class to account for 56 percent of the team's points and 52 percent of the teams' goals this year. She netted 27 goals, tying Millar for the rookie record for most goals in a season and added eight assists for 35 points to finish third on the team in scoring.
- Vermont finished the year with a record of 6-11 overall, the most wins since the 2002 season and a two-game improvement over the 2005 record, head coach Jen Johnson's first year at the helm of the program.

- Along with Drown, Kaytlin McCormick, Kristina Twichell, Samantha Sepulveda and Kathleen Typadis each scored two goals to lead the offensive attack. Ten Minutewomen scored goals on the day.
- Vermont (5-3) was led by Kristen Millar who had a game high five points on four goals and an assist. Jennifer Maher added two goals in the loss.
- UMass led 9-4 at halftime en route to its largest point production for a game this season. The 16 goals were the most scored in a game by UMass since last season's 17-10 win over Longwood on April 22.
- Vermont opened the scoring when Millar beat starting UMass keeper Lauren McCarthy. UMass responded with a 5-0 run over the next three minutes and 14 seconds to take a 5-1 lead with 22:27 remaining in the first half.
- Sepulveda scored with 12 minutes left in the half and then set up Meghan Reddy to give UMass a 9-3 lead with just over 11 minutes to play in the period.
- The Minutewomen used another 5-0 run to start the second half building its largest lead of the game, 14-4, when Drown scored her third goal of the game with 8:00 to play.
- The Catamounts, however, were not done scoring five of the final seven goals of the game to pull within six, 15-9, on Millar's fourth goal of the day. With 59 seconds to play, Jeannette Villapiano ended any further hopes of a comeback when she collected a loose ball at midfield and drove straight to goal for her seventh score of the season.
- Twichell's two goals of the game was also a career-high along with Drown's three goals. For Sepulveda, this was the fourth consecutive game where she recorded a point. She now has 10 over the last four contests.
- While she was shutout on the scoring end, senior Kerri Connerty did post two assists to tie Barbara Forbes for seventh all-time in career assists and take sole possession of ninth-place all-time with 117 career points.

- McCarthy started the game in cage for UMass making nine saves and allowing four goals in 37 minutes, five seconds of work to pick up the win. Krissy Anderson played 22 minutes, 55 seconds stopping three shots, but allowing five.

UMass goalkeeper Lauren McCarthy had a huge day between the pipes stopping 14 shots - just two off her career-high.
- Connerty led UMass (1-2) with four points on the day scoring her three goals and posting an assist. She needs just 10 points to move into 10th all-time in career points and 17 goals to move into 10th all-time in career goals at UMass. Jeannette Villapiano had three points on a goal and two assists.
- The Crimson were led by Natalie Curtis who had three goals and Caroline Simmons who had two. Kathryn Tylander took the loss despite making 13 saves in the cage.

- Two minutes after Simmons gave the Crimson a 3-0 score, Kathleen Typadis put the Minutewomen on the board and began a 9-0 run extending into the second half that put the game away. Typadis finished the game with two goals - both in the first half.
- Holly Drown scored her first career goal with just under six minutes to play in the first half to give the Minutewomen a 7-3 lead at halftime.
- In the second half, Villapiano set up consecutive goals by Connerty and fellow senior Lindsay Cassell to make the score 9-3 with 25:19 remaining in the game.
- The Crimson rallied, however, going on a 4-0 run to pull the game within two. Tara Schoen scored her only goal of the game at the 24:23 mark of the half and Curtis wrapped a pair of goals around a Simmons strike to make the score 9-7 with just under 10 minutes to play.
- After Simmons' score, UMass called a timeout to regroup. Samantha Sepulveda and Kristina Twichell scored back-to-back goals followed by Connerty's third goal of the game pushing the UMass lead to 12-7.
- Harvard's Allie Kaveney tallied a goal with just over two minutes to play to end the scoring.
- Statistically, both teams played evenly with UMass holding a slight edge. The Minutewomen outshot Harvard 33-to-31 for the game and made just one more save in goal (14-to-13). UMass also held a 13-to-9 advantage on draw controls and a 25-to-22 advantage in groundballs.
