2003 IN REVIEW

• Carolina finished with a regular season record of 22-4. The .846 winning percentage is the highest in school history. UNC's 22 wins were also school record.

• Carolina came as close as it has ever come to qualifying for the NCAA Championships in 2003, missing qualification by .05.

• The Tar Heels broke every UNC team record during the 2003 season. Vault, floor exercise and total score records were set at the Governor's Cup at NC State in February.

• Courtney Bumpers finished fourth in the finals of the NCAA national meet, becoming the first ACC or EAGL gymnast to ever do so. She became the first All-America in UNC gymnastics history.

• Anna Wilson earned the program's second-ever perfect score when she completed a flawless floor exercise routine at the Tar Heels' first 2003 home meet. She was followed by Bumpers, who scored a 10.0 on floor exercise at the Governor's Cup one week later.

• The Tar Heels remained undefeated (12-0) until their first loss at the Wolfpack Invitational in late February.

• Carolina finished first or second in all but one meet during the 2003 season.

Bumpers (left) and Wilson are two of only three UNC gymnasts to achieve perfect scores.
