DATE: Wednesday, December 9, 2015
TIME: 8 p.m. CST/7 p.m. PST
SITE: Charles Koch Arena (10,506), Wichita, Kan.
TV: ESPN2 (Rich Hollenberg, Miles Simon)
RADIO: ESPN Radio 1100 AM/100.9 FM (Jon Sandler, Robert Smith)
AUDI: UNLV GameDay App/Tunnel & UNLVRebels.com
STATS: Live Stats at GoShockers.com

After defeating two top-15 teams in its last three games, the UNLV men’s basketball team will play its first true road game of the season on Wednesday, Dec. 9, as it travels to Wichita State. The game will be part of the Mountain West-Missouri Valley Conference Challenge.

With the National Finals Rodeo taking place at the Thomas & Mack Center, the Runnin’ Rebels are out of their home arena for approximately three weeks.

UNLV is coming off an 80-69 neutral-court win on Friday over then-No. 15/16 Oregon. That game was played at the MGM Grand Garden Arena in Las Vegas. Senior guard Ike Nwamu paced UNLV by scoring a season-high 19 points and making a season-high five 3-pointers. He was named the Mountain West Player of the Week on Monday.

The Runnin’ Rebels are 7-1 this season and have won four straight games for the first time in two seasons. UNLV’s other top-15 win this year was over then-No. 13/14 Indiana at the Maui Invitational on Nov. 25.

Wichita State was ranked in the nation’s top 10 in the preseason, but they have been shorthanded because of injuries. The Shockers are coming off a 68-53 win at Saint Louis which snapped a three-game losing streak.

Wednesday’s game will be televised nationally on ESPN2 at 6 p.m. PT with Rich Hollenberg and Miles Simon calling the action. Jon Sandler and Robert Smith will handle the radio call, which may be heard live on ESPN Radio 1100 AM/100.9 FM. All internet links along with live stats will be available at UNLVRebels.com.
The Runnin' Rebels are 15-7 all-time against teams that currently make up the Missouri Valley Conference.

This year's class is led by Zimmerman Jr. (7-footer), a Las Vegas product and 3 ppg), and freshman Stephen Zimmerman Jr. (4 ppg) lead the team in assists. McCaw also leads in steals (3.0 spg) and is fifth in the country. Seagears was diagnosed with a concussion last week and missed the Prairie View A&M game, but played vs. Oregon.

The Wichita State roster is made up of five seniors, two juniors, six sophomores and five freshmen including 6 of 20 from distance.

UP NEXT
UNLV will remain on the road after playing at Wichita State, traveling to UC Riverside for a game this Saturday at 4 p.m. PT. There will be no TV for that contest, but it will be streamed online.

THE UNLV RETURNERS

- Barry Cheaney - 6-1 senior guard from Corona, Calif. - Non-scholarship player who was on the team for four years before leaving to focus on his studies. Pre-med. student was back on the team in time for the trip to Maui Invitational this season.
- Daquan Cook - 6-2 junior guard from Baltimore, Md., - Redshirted in 2014-15 with knee injury, has appeared in 53 games for UNLV. Suspended for non-conference season after being arrested for driving under the influence on Nov. 1.
- Jordan Cornish - 6-6 sophomore guard from New Orleans, La. - His 3-point percentage of 487 (38- of-78) during his freshman year ranks second all-time for a season in UNLV history.
- Patrick McCaw - 6-7 sophomore guard St. Louis, Mo. - Is the team’s top returning scorer from last season (9.6 ppg, 3.3 rpg, 2.7 apg and 1.5 spg). Led the team and was fifth in the Mountain West in steals.
- Dwayne Morgan - 6-8 sophomore forward from Baltimore, Md. - Appeared in all 33 of UNLV’s games last season, averaging 5.3 ppg and 3.0 rpg.
- Goodluck Okonoboh - 6-10 sophomore forward/conerter from Boston, Mass. - Decided to transfer away from the program on Nov. 27. Was the team’s top returning rebounder from last season (5.7 ppg, 4.5 rpg). 90 blocked shots last year ranks fourth in program history. MW All-Defensive Team, led the MW in blocks (ninth in country - first among freshmen). Set MW freshman blocked shots record for overall games and league play.

THE UNLV NEWCOMERS

- Ben Carter - 6-9 junior forward from Las Vegas, Nev. - Transferred from Oregon and sat out 2014-15 season at UNLV. Now eligible.
- Tyrell Green - 6-7 junior forward from Toronto, Ontario - Transferred to UNLV from Hill College in Hillsboro, Texas. During his two years at the junior college level, shot 48.4 percent from 3-point range. Eligible to play right away for UNLV.
- Derrick Jones Jr. - 6-7 freshman forward from Chester, Pa. - Ranked as 27th-best player in the class of 2015 by ESPN and as the third-best player at his position in his class, No. 6 in his region and No. 1 in the state of Pennsylvania. Also was named the Best Dunker in the country in the class of 2015.
- Ike Nwamu - 6-5 senior guard from Greensboro, N.C. - Graduate transfer from Mercer. Eligible to play this season. Led Mercer in scoring last year (15.1 ppg), selected to the 10-member All-Southern Conference team. Scored 11 points in Mercer’s upset of Duke in the 2014 NCAA Tournament.
- Chris Obekpa - 6-10 senior forward from Makurdi, Benue State, Nigeria - Transfer from St. John’s. Must sit out 2015-16 season because of NCAA transfer rules.
- Alex Perez - 6-4 senior guard from San Diego, Calif. - Non-scholarship player that transferred to UNLV from Saint Katherine.
- Jalen Poyser - 6-4 freshman guard from Malton, Ontario - Was the No. 1 ranked player in Canada in the class of 2015 and Rivals listed him as a 4-star recruit and the No. 83 player overall.
- Jerome Seagears - 6-1 senior guard from Silver Spring, Md. - Transferred from Rutgers where he was a three-year starter. Sat out 2014-15 season at UNLV. Now eligible.
- Austin Starr - 6-3 freshman guard from Las Vegas, Nev. - Non-scholarship player.
- Stephen Zimmerman Jr. - 7-4 freshman forward from Las Vegas - MW Preseason Freshman of the Year. Also named to the 2016 Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award Watch List, which honors the top centers in college basketball. Ranked as the 10th-best player in the class of 2015 and was named a McDonald’s High School All-American.

RICE ERA - YEAR FIVE

Dave Rice is in his fifth season as the head men’s basketball coach at UNLV. In 2011, he returned to the school where he was part of the 1990 National Championship team as a player, was a Rhodes Scholar candidate while earning his bachelor’s degree in political science (UNLV ’91), earned his master’s of business administration (UNLV ’93) and served as a Runnin’ Rebel assistant coach for 11 seasons (1991-92 & 1994-2004). Rice has led the team to 96 victories in his first four-plus years as head coach, with an average of over 22 victories per season over his first four years. He is tied for third on the all-time UNLV chart for head coaching victories with Rolland Todd (1965-70) but has done it in less time. Rice led the Runnin’ Rebels to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2012 and 2013, has recruited and coached two first-round NBA Draft picks over the last three seasons (No. 1 overall pick in 2013 - Anthony Bennett and No. 17 overall in 2015 – Rashad Vaughn) and has led the Runnin’ Rebels to 10 wins over ranked opponents, including then-No. 1 North Carolina and then-No. 3 Arizona. After a top-five recruiting class in 2014, Rice and his staff have again assembled another group with elite talent as Rivals has UNLV’s 2015 class ranked No. 11 in the country. Prior to accepting his first head coaching job, Rice accumulated 18 years of experience as an assistant coach at the Division-I level. He was hired at BYU in 2005 as an assistant coach, then was promoted to associate head coach in 2008. He also spent a year (2004-05) as an assistant coach at Utah State. The first former player to become head coach of the program, Rice played on two of legendary Hall of Fame Coach Jerry Tarkanian’s Final Four teams. Dave and his wife, Mindy, who is also a UNLV graduate, have two sons, Travis, 18, and Dylan, 13. The couple established the Dave Rice Foundation in the spring of 2012, which is a non-profit organization dedicated to the education and support of health initiatives including developmental disorders such as Autism, and other charitable causes. It has awarded hundreds of thousands of dollars in grants to various Autism-related organizations in Southern Nevada.

NWAMU NETS UNLV’S SECOND MOUNTAIN WEST PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR

UNLV senior Ike Nwamu was named the Mountain West Men’s Basketball Player of the Week for games through Sunday, Dec. 6. It was the first MW weekly accolade for Nwamu and the second straight for the Runnin’ Rebels (Patrick McCaw earned last week’s). Nwamu, a 6-foot-5-inch guard from Greenboro, N.C., who came to UNLV this summer as a graduate transfer from Mercer, came up big in the Runnin’ Rebels’ only game of the week – an 80-69 neutral-court victory over No. 15/16 Oregon at the MGM Grand Garden Arena in Las Vegas on Friday. Nwamu scored a game-high 19 points in UNLV’s second-top-15 victory of the season, which was also the second in its last three games. He was 7 of 9 from the field against the Ducks, including 5 of 7 from 3-point range. His 19 points and five made 3-pointers are both season highs. Nwamu sealed the game by sinking a deep 3-pointer from the top with 1:25 remaining. He was 4 of 5 from long distance in the first half, scoring 14 points in 12 minutes.

MCCAW EARNED UNLV’S FIRST MOUNTAIN WEST PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR

UNLV sophomore Patrick McCaw was named the Mountain West Men’s Basketball Player of the Week for games through Sunday, Nov. 29. It was the first MW weekly accolade for McCaw and also the Runnin’ Rebels’ first of the season. McCaw, a 6-foot-7-inch guard from St. Louis, Mo., led the Runnin’ Rebels to a 3-1 record that week, including a win over then-No. 13/14 Indiana at the Maui Invitational. He led the team in scoring with 83 points for an average of 20.8 per game. He also led the team in assists with 20 (5.0 apg) and steals with 15 (3.8 spg). McCaw only turned the ball over seven times and had an assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.9, while collecting 14 rebounds for an average of 3.5 rpg. He shot 50.8 percent from the field for the week (32 of 63) and a team-high 41.9 percent from 3-point range (13 of 31). Additionally, he made six of his eight free-throw attempts for a percentage of 75.0.

TWO DIFFERENT RUNNIN’ REBELS EARN BACK-TO-BACK MW POTW AWARDS

For the first time since the 2011-12 season, UNLV has had two different winners win back-to-back Mountain West Player of the Week Awards. Patrick McCaw earned the award on Nov. 30, while Ike Nwamu was the winner today (Dec. 7). The last time that happened for UNLV was during the 2011-12 season when Anthony Marshall (co) won on Jan. 23 and Mike Moser got it on Jan. 30. The last time that happened without a co-winner for UNLV was during 2003-04 (March 1 - Jerel Blassingame; March 8 - Odartey Blankson).

80 OR MORE POINTS

Through Sunday, UNLV, men’s basketball has scored at least 80 points five times. Last year the Runnin’ Rebels did that only twice all season.

RECEIVING VOTES

For the second time this season, UNLV men’s basketball is receiving votes in the USA Today Coaches Poll. UNLV received 33 points in the poll that was released on Monday, which is the equivalent of being ranked 28th in the country. And for the first time this season, UNLV is also receiving votes in the Associated Press Poll, ranked the equivalent of 30th with 40 points.

OKONOBHO DECREASES TO TRANSFER

UNLV sophomore forward Goodluck Okonoboh decided to leave the Runnin’ Rebel program on Nov. 27 and will be granted his release. Okonoboh appeared in all six of UNLV’s games this season before he decided to leave and made two starts. He averaged 3.5 points and 3.0 rebounds in 15.2 minutes per game this year.

MCCAW EARNED ALL-TOURNAMENT AWARDS IN MAUI

UNLV sophomore guard Patrick McCaw earned 2015 Maui Jim Maui Invitational All-Tournament honors after his performance in November. McCaw scored at least 20 points in all three games, including a career-high 25 points vs. Chaminade, going 11 of 16 from the field in that game. He had 20 points against UCLA and another 20 against then-No. 13/14 Indiana, also recording six assists with one turnover and five steals against the Hoosiers.

DERRICK “BASKETBALL” JONES JR.’S DUNKS GO VIRAL

Derrick Jones Jr. came to UNLV as the Best Dunker in the 2015 class and he immediately showed Runnin’ Rebel fans why. He won the dunk contest at Runnin’ Rebel Madness, which was held in Downtown Las Vegas, after he jumped over teammates Stephen Zimmerman Jr., Ben Carter and Austin Starr. Clips of his dunks from the event were seen across the country and on ESPN. In the second game of the season against New Mexico Highlands on Nov. 16, Jones Jr. was at it again when he threw down a thunderous dunk against the Cowboys. That slam immediately went viral and the highlight appeared on numerous websites and ranked No. 6 on SportsCenter’s Top 10 that night. During the Maui Jim Maui Invitational, he threw down a similar dunk against Chaminade on ESPN2, and following that dunk, the website Deadspin.com dubbed Jones Jr. as “college basketball’s best dunker,” while he earned the No. 1 spot on SportsCenter’s Top 10 that night.
10 WINS AGAINST RANKED FOES

Dave Rice, who is in his fifth season as UNLV’s head coach, has led the Runnin’ Rebels to 10 wins over ranked teams. His career record against ranked teams is now 10-10. The list of victories:

ZIMMERMAN JR NAMED MW PRESEASON FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

UNLV men’s basketball’s 7-foot forward Stephen Zimmerman Jr. was named the Mountain West’s Preseason Freshman of the Year as the league released its preseason media poll and all-conference team during media days in October at the Renaissance Las Vegas Hotel. Zimmerman Jr., from Bishop Gorman High School in Las Vegas, was ranked as the 10-best player in the class of 2015 by ESPN and was a McDonald’s High School All-American. A five-star recruit, he was the third McDonald’s All-American to choose UNLV out of high school in the last four years under Runnin’ Rebel head coach Dave Rice. The others were Anthony Bennett and Rashad Vaughn. Over his four-year career at Bishop Gorman, Zimmerman Jr. was part of 114 victories making him the winningest player in school history. He also led the school to four straight state titles, becoming the only player in Nevada history to do so at the large-school level. As a senior at Bishop Gorman, he averaged 14.7 points, 10.1 rebounds, 4.2 assists, 2.4 blocks and 1.2 steals per game. He appeared in all 33 of the team’s games, shooting 55 percent from the field overall and 59 percent on two-point attempts. Bishop Gorman finished last season with a 27-6 overall record and ranked No. 22 in the country. Zimmerman Jr. was also a member of USA Basketball’s 2014 U18 National Team, which won gold at the FIBA Americas U18 Championships where he was the team’s leading rebounder.

ZIMMERMAN JR. ON KAAREM ABDUL-JABBAR AWARD WATCH LIST

Zimmerman Jr. was also named to the 2016 Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award Watch List, announced by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Named after Hall of Famer and three-time NCAA Champion Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, the annual honor in its second year recognizes the top centers in men’s college basketball. A national committee comprised of top college basketball personnel determined the watch list of 20 candidates. Zimmerman Jr. is the only Mountain West player on the list. By mid-February, the watch list of 20 players will be narrowed down to just 10. In March, five finalists will be presented to Mr. Abdul-Jabbar and the Hall of Fame’s selection committee. The winner of the 2016 Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award will be presented at the ESPN College Basketball Awards presented by Wendy’s from Club Nokia in Los Angeles on April 8. Last year, Frank Kaminsky of Wisconsin was named the inaugural winner of the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year Award. For more information on the award, visit HoophallAwards.com.

ZIMMERMAN JR. ALSO ON USBWA WATCH LIST

Zimmerman Jr. is also on the USBWA’s Wayman Tisdale Award (Men’s National Freshman Player of the Year) Watch List. He is one of 18 players on the list and the only one from the Mountain West.
2016 RECRUTS
Jaylen Fisher, Justin Jackson, Carlos Johnson and Christian Vital will all be joining the Runnin’ Rebel program as freshmen next fall.
- Fisher, a 6-foot-2-inch, 175-pound point guard, is a senior at Bolton High School in Memphis, Tenn. He is ranked as the No. 34 overall player in the class of 2016, while Rivals.com ranks him No. 55. The state’s top-ranked player in his class, he averaged 20 points and eight assists as a junior. A consensus four-star recruit, he is also ranked as the seventh-best player in the country at his position and he plays AAU basketball for Team Thad.
- Jackson is a 6-foot-9-inch, 220-pound forward from Scarborough, Ontario, Canada, near Toronto. The consensus four-star recruit attended Findlay College Prep in Henderson, Nev., and now is at The Hill Academy, which is a prep school in Bramford, Ontario. Last year as a senior at Findlay, he averaged 14.1 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. This past summer he played alongside current UNLV freshman Jalen Poyser on the Team Canada U19 squad that finished fifth at the FIBA World Championships in Greece. Jackson is ranked as the No. 26 overall recruit in the class of 2016 by ESPN and No. 32 by Rivals.com. He also plays for Canada Elite in AAU basketball.
- Johnson, a senior at Findlay College Prep, is a 6-foot-4-inch, 220-pound forward from Oakland, Calif. He grew up in Chicago, but played last season at El Cerrito High School near Berkeley, Calif., averaging 15.9 points and 8.3 rebounds per game. In the summer, he played in the Nike Elite Youth Basketball League for the Oakland Soldiers, the same team current UNLV freshman Stephen Zimmerman Jr. played on. As a junior at El Cerrito HS, Johnson, a three-star recruit, helped his team to a North Coast Section Division II title and was a first-team All-Tri-County Athletic League-Rock Division selection.
- Vital, a 6-foot-2-inch, 175-pound guard from Queens Village, N.Y., attends St. Thomas More School in Oakdale, Conn. A consensus three-star recruit, he also plays for the PSA Cardinals in AAU basketball, where he made above 40 percent of his 3-point attempts during the Nike EYBL during the summer. ESPN ranks him as the ninth-best player in his state.

AND NOW...
UNLV Athletics didn’t have to look too far to develop its 2015-16 Runnin’ Rebel marketing campaign: “AND NOW... Your Runnin’ Rebels.” The theme is in honor of the simple yet powerful phrase which has opened UNLV’s famous pregame fireworks show for the past three decades: “And now, your Runnin’ Rebels.” Dick Calvert, who is in his fifth decade as the public address announcer for UNLV men’s basketball, has used the phrase since the Thomas & Mack Center opened in 1983.

“The idea was to take our fans to that special moment at the Thomas & Mack Center right before tipoff,” said UNLV Director of Athletics Tina Kunzer-Murphy. “Rebel fans of all ages are familiar with Dick’s voice and his unique way of letting us know it’s time for the show. In many ways, Dick’s ‘And now’ is a rallying cry for UNLV fans and we wanted to celebrate that. We wanted to recreate that unique feeling for fans during the famous pregame show.”

Head coach Dave Rice said he was a fan of the campaign concept immediately.

“The pregame show is important to our program,” Rice said. “‘And now’ resonates with UNLV fans – it’s part of our culture and has been for over 30 years. I still get excited every time the lights go down in the Thomas & Mack and I hear Dick say those words. It’s a great moment for all Runnin’ Rebels.”

Kunzer-Murphy said the concept is also creative in introducing the 2015-16 squad.

“For many reasons, fans are excited about this year’s edition of the Runnin’ Rebels,” she said. “While there are several key returnees, there are a lot of new faces and the program has a newness about it because of that. ‘AND NOW... Your Runnin’ Rebels’ represents introducing this new team to the fan base. It represents being excited about the possibilities.”

ANOTHER TOUCH NON-CONFERENCE SCHEDULE ON TAP
UNLV had the third-toughest non-conference strength of schedule in the country last season (according to ESPN.com). The Runnin’ Rebels have another tough non-conference schedule in 2015-16, which began with the Maui Jim Maui Invitational. UNLV opened that prestigious event on the Islands vs. UCLA then beat then-No. 13/14 Indiana. UNLV just defeated then-No. 15/16 Oregon at the MGM Grand Garden Arena in Las Vegas, and now has games left at Wichita State, vs. Arizona State at the Thomas & Mack Center and at No. 13/12 Arizona during the non-conference portion of its schedule.

RUNNIN’ REBELS TO THE NBA
Rashad Vaughn (freshman) and Christian Wood (sophomore) both declared for the 2015 NBA Draft from last year’s team. Vaughn was selected in the first round with the No. 17 overall pick by the Milwaukee Bucks, while Wood went undrafted. Wood has since signed with the Philadelphia 76ers. UNLV has had two first-round NBA Draft picks over the last three seasons (No. 1 overall pick in 2013 – Anthony Bennett; and Vaughn). Other active NBA players from UNLV are Louis Amundson (New York Knicks), Joel Anthony (Detroit Pistons) and Bennett (Toronto Raptors).

COOK SUSPENDED FOR NON-CONFERENCE SEASON
Junior guard Daquan Cook has been suspended for at least the non-conference portion of the 2015-16 season, which equates to the first 13 games. He was arrested for driving under the influence on Nov. 1 in Las Vegas. His status will be re-evaluated prior to the start of conference play.

10 OF UNLV’S 18 MOUNTAIN WEST GAMES LAST YEAR DECIDED BY 3.1 PPG
In 10 of UNLV’s 18 Mountain West games last season, the games were decided by an average of 3.1 points per game. Those included a 5-point loss at Wyoming, 2-point loss vs. Nevada, Reno, 6-point loss at San Diego State, 2-point loss to New Mexico, 2-point overtime win over Utah State, 5-point win at Nevada, Reno, 1-point loss at Colorado State, 1-point loss at Air Force, 5-point loss to Boise State and 2-point loss to San Diego State. In the other eight games, UNLV was 6-2 with an average margin of victory in those six wins of 14.7 and one of the losses being in overtime (at Boise State).

OVERTIME UNDER COACH RICE
Under head coach Dave Rice, UNLV is 7-3 in overtime games, including 2-1 last season (win over Portland, loss at Boise State and win against Utah State).

8-10 IN SINGLE DIGIT GAMES LAST SEASON
UNLV was 8-10 last season in games decided by single digits, recording a 5-0 mark in such games during non-conference play. UNLV won games decided by one, two (three times), four, five, seven and eight points this season, while its 10 single-digit losses have been by one (twice), two (three times), three, five (twice), and nine (overtime at Boise State) points. The 10 single-digit conference losses were by a combined 38 points, which includes a nine-point overtime loss at Boise State. The other nine single-digit conference losses were by an average of 3.0 points.
UNLV holds the NCAA record for most consecutive games scoring a 3-point goal. Since the 3-point field goal was adopted by the NCAA in 1986-87, UNLV has converted at least one 3-pointer in all 949 games played. Entering the 2015-16 season, Kentucky was second with 939, just two games behind the Runnin’ Rebels. UNLV, Vanderbilt and Princeton are the only three schools in college basketball to have made at least one 3-pointer in every game played since the 3-point line was implemented. In UNLV’s 949 games, the Runnin’ Rebels have made 6,295-of-17,765 (.354) shots from behind the arc. The Big West Conference experimented with the 3-point shot in the 1982-83, 1984-85 and 1985-86 seasons. During that period, UNLV connected from 3-point range in 53 of the 64 games (the 3-pointer was used in some non-conference games). The Runnin’ Rebels sank 194-of-505 (.384) 3-point attempts during that time. With the experimental years included, the UNLV streak for games in which it has made at least one 3-point shot stands at 966. The last time the Runnin’ Rebels failed to make at least one 3-pointer came against Long Beach State on Jan. 25, 1986. So, UNLV has made at least one shot from behind the arc in 1,002 of the 1,013 games in which the rule was used.

UNLV was 17-1 at the Thomas & Mack Center in head coach Dave Rice’s first season leading the Runnin’ Rebels. That included a perfect 16-0 mark during the regular season, which was the Runnin’ Rebels’ first undefeated home regular season in 20 years. Rice’s record at the Thomas & Mack Center is now 62-17 (.785). The Runnin’ Rebels were 12-5 at the Thomas & Mack Center last season and are 4-0 this year.

ATTENDANCE AT THOMAS & MACK - SIX OF LAST SEVEN YEARS IN THE TOP 25
The 2012-13 season saw the largest Thomas & Mack Center crowds in 22 years. The average of 15,729 over 18 regular-season home games was the program’s highest average since 1990-91. UNLV has spent six of the last seven years in the nation’s top 25 in home attendance. Last season’s average ranked 31st in the country. The program has also consistently been in the top three in attendance in the West (states of Washington, Oregon, California, Arizona, Nevada).

RECENT NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES
UNLV has made the NCAA Tournament in six of the last nine years. Its last Big Dance appearance was in 2013, when it earned its highest NCAA Tournament seed (No. 5 in East) in 22 years. The 5-seed was its highest since being No. 1 in 1991. UNLV has been to the NCAA Tournament 20 times in its history.

58TH SEASON OF RUNNIN’ REBEL BASKETBALL
The 2015-16 year marks the 58th season of Runnin’ Rebel basketball at UNLV. Since the program’s inception in 1958-59, the Runnin’ Rebels have posted an all-time record of 1,229-505 (.709). In 1969-70, UNLV made the move to Division I and has since posted a record of 1,042-401 (.722) while competing at that level. In addition, UNLV has an all-time mark of 1,183-482 (.600), 53 times in its 57-year history.

FOURTH-WINNINGEST DIVISION I PROGRAM OF ALL-TIME
Since the program’s inception in 1958-59, the Runnin’ Rebels have posted an all-time record of 1,196-494 (entering the 2015-16 season) against four-year American institutions for a winning percentage of .708. That ranks as the fourth-winningest program by percentage in NCAA history, only behind Kentucky (.764), North Carolina (.736) and Kansas (.722).

NBA DRAFT - LOTTERY PICKS - UNLV’S BENNETT GOES NO. 1 OVERALL IN 2013
Over the last 18 seasons, the UNLV program has had four players drafted with lottery picks in the annual NBA Draft. Anthony Bennett was selected No. 1 overall in the 2013 NBA Draft, becoming the second UNLV player to be the top selection (Larry Johnson in 1991 was the other). UNLV is only the 17th school to ever have multiple No. 1 overall draft choices and is just the third to have two No. 1 NBA Draft picks in the last 24 years. Only one school has ever had three No. 1 draft picks. The program had back-to-back lottery selections in 1998 and 1999 with Keon Clark (13th overall by the Orlando Magic - 1998) and Shawn Marion (ninth overall by the Phoenix Suns - 1999). With Rashad Vaughn picked No. 17 overall in the 2015 NBA Draft, UNLV has had two first-round selections over the last three years. A total of 15 Runnin’ Rebels have been selected in the NBA’s first round since 1975, and of those, nine have been lottery selections. Ricky Sobers was UNLV’s first player to be selected in the first round in 1975 by the Phoenix Suns.

A WINNING PROGRAM
UNLV has finished the season with a winning percentage above .500, 53 times in its 57-year history.

UNLV IS 60-13 IN LAST 73 REGULAR-SEASON GAMES AT TMC
Prior to the March 9, 2013, home loss to Fresno State on Senior Day, UNLV had won 15 straight home games and 14 straight at the Thomas & Mack Center. The Runnin’ Rebels are 60-13 in their last 73 regular-season games (.822) at the TMC.

AT THE THOMAS & MACK CENTER
The Runnin’ Rebels are playing their 33rd season in the Thomas & Mack Center in 2015-16. UNLV has posted an all-time record of 449-97 (.822) in the arena since it opened in 1983. The Runnin’ Rebels are 141-32 (.815) at the Thomas & Mack Center since the start of the 2006-07 season. The Runnin’ Rebels have the best all-time home-court win percentage in the MW. UNLV has won 60 of its last 73 regular-season games (.822) at the TMC.

REB ZONE SPORTS TV SHOW

Now in its third season, KVVU FOX5 is the home of the official UNLV television coach’s show. Sports Director Kevin Bolinger joins UNLV head coach Dave Rice in the studio Sundays during the season for a unique half-hour of game reviews, previews and program features. The “Reb Zone Sports Show” airs Sundays nights at 11 p.m. exclusively on FOX5 following FOX5 News at 10 p.m. Weekend Edition and FOX5 SportsPlus. The show is also available on an archived basis on UNLV Athletics’ YouTube channel, which may be found at UNLVRebels.com/videos. In 2014, Reb Zone received an Electronic Media Award for Best Sports Show.

2014-15 SEASON IN REVIEW

The Runnin’ Rebels finished the 2014-15 season with an overall record of 18-15 after falling to San Diego State in the Mountain West Tournament Quarterfinals ... UNLV finished seventh in the Mountain West regular-season standings with a 8-10 mark in conference play ... Rashad Vaughn, who would go on to be selected with the 17th overall pick in the 2015 NBA Draft by the Milwaukee Bucks, led the team in scoring by averaging 17.8 points per game ... He was named the Mountain West Freshman of the Year despite suffering a season-ending injury on February 10 ... Sophomore forward Christian Wood also declared early for the NBA Draft ... He wasn’t selected but signed a free-agent contract with the Philadelphia 76ers and made the opening-day roster ... He led the team in rebounding, averaging a double-double with 15.7 points and 10.0 rebounds per game ... He ranked eighth in the country with 18 double-doubles ... His 90 blocked shots tied for the team lead and also tied for fourth in program history for most blocks in a season ... Freshman Jordan Cornish shot 48.7 percent from beyond the arc, which led the team and ranked second in school history for a single season ... Freshman Goodluck Okonoboh was the other Runnin’ Rebel with 90 blocks on the season ... He ranked ninth in the NCAA in blocks per game with 2.9 (first among freshmen) ... The Runnin’ Rebels lost three starters from the 2014-15 team: Cody Doolin (graduation), Vaughn (early entry-NBA Draft) and Wood (early entry-NBA Draft) ... The other scholarship players that left after the season: Jelan Kendrick (graduation) and Dantley Walker (transfer).

NOTES:

- The win over No. 13 Indiana in Maui gave Coach Rice his ninth win over a ranked team as UNLV's head coach.
- Patrick McCaw scored 20 points (his fourth straight game with at least 20), while Ike Nwamu and Ben Carter (career high) finished with 16 apiece.
- It was the fifth-place game in the Maui Jim Maui Invitational and UNLV's third in three days at the tournament.
- It was also the Runnin' Rebels' first meeting with the Hoosiers since 1987, when Indiana knocked off a No. 1-ranked team coached by Jerry Tarkanian in the Final Four.
- UNLV pressured Indiana into 21 turnovers that led to 22 points for the Runnin' Rebels.
- Carter, who grabbed five offensive rebounds and shot 6-for-10 from the field and 4-for-5 on free throws, was a pivotal player throughout the game.
- Zimmerman Jr. was still feeling the effects of illness, which forced him to miss the previous game vs. Chaminade.
- The Runnin' Rebels led by 13 points with four minutes to go but found themselves up just four, 69-65, with 1:49 left.
- After a layup attempt by James Blackmon Jr. spun off the rim, Carter split two free throws with 46 seconds to play. Jerome Seagears made two free throws with 13.8 seconds left, and UNLV's lead was down to 72-69 after Blackmon drove for a layup with 7.5 seconds on the clock.
- McCaw added six assists and five steals with just one turnover.
- UNLV led by as many as 15 points in the first half.

NOTES:

- UNLV started the second half on a 20-4 run.
- The Runnin' Rebels had five players score in double figures.
- After scoring two points in the first 20 minutes, Derrick Jones Jr. ended up with 14 points, and his dunks and layups in the opening minutes of the second half gave the Runnin' Rebels a spark.
- UNLV led by as much as 20 points.
- Patrick McCaw recorded a team-high 18 points with five 3-pointers.
- Stephen Zimmerman Jr. scored 10 points before leaving the game with a sprained right ankle at the 4:46 mark of the first half.
- Jerome Seagears missed game because of illness.
- Jordan Cornish broke out of a 0-for-15 slump from 3-point range to start the season as he connected on a 3-pointer and recorded 10 points.
- Tyrell Green played 15 minutes and scored nine points, while grabbing six rebounds after only seeing the floor for two minutes the six games prior.
- Jaalen Poyser also saw 11 minutes of action.
- There were 10 ties and 12 lead changes in the first half, which ended in a 42-42 knot.
- Tevin Bellinger led Prairie View A&M with 18 points, and Admassu Williams chipped in 12
NOTES:

- Ike Nwamu made a season-high five 3-pointers and scored a season-high 19 points to give UNLV its second victory over a top-15 team this season and second in three games.
- He made 4 of 5 from deep in the first half, recording 14 points before halftime. He finished 5 from 3-point range.
- Jerome Seagears added 16 points, Patrick McCaw had 14 and Stephen Zimmerman Jr. totaled 12 points and 12 rebounds.
- It was only the second time UNLV has ever played basketball at the MGM Grand Garden Arena.
- Ben Carter, who transferred from Oregon after two seasons, sparked UNLV off the bench with his hustle and finished with 10 points and six rebounds.
- UNLV let most of a 20-point second-half lead slip away, but Nwamu sealed it by sinking a deep 3 from the top with 1:25 remaining.
- UNLV led by just four with 3:33 to go.
- Zimmerman made two free throws to give UNLV its largest lead, 55-35, with 16:15 remaining. Oregon responded with a 9-0 run to get back into the game.
- UNLV went more than 10 minutes without a field goal.
- The Runnin’ Rebels shot 48.6 percent from the field and made 8 of 16 3s en route to a 47-33 halftime lead. Carter and McCaw scored eight points apiece before the break.
- UNLV made 18 of 21 free throws.
